COACHING STAFF

JIM CHRISTIAN

The Clement and Elizabeth Izzi Family
Head Men's Basketball Coach

Jim Christian, who was hired as the 12th head basketball coach at Boston College on April 3, 2014, enters his fourth season on The Heights.

Christian was a two-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year and led teams to eight postseason appearances in his 12 seasons as a head coach at Ohio, TCU and Kent State. He has coached four All-

Americans, three MAC Players of the Year and 32 all-conference honorees.

In his first season at Boston College, Christian guided guard Olivier Hanlan to First Team All-ACC and honorable mention All-America honors. Hanlan was the leading scorer in the ACC (19.5) which ranked 22nd in the country. He also led all major conference players in scoring average during league play (21.9). In addition, Hanlan led the ACC in 3-point percentage (.436) and ranked third in 3-pointers made (2.83), fifth in free throw percentage (.810), sixth in field goal percentage (.483) and 10th in assists (4.00) during conference action.

Christian and his staff developed one of the top scoring backcourts in the country in 2016-17. The duo of Jerome Robinson (17.4 ppg) and Ky Bowman (17.4) combined to average 34.8 points per game in ACC play which ranked fifth in the country among the major conferences. Robinson finished fourth in the conference in scoring (18.7) and earned All-ACC Honorable Mention accolades. Bowman was named to the All-ACC Freshman Team after averaging 14.3 points per game. He was also the only ACC freshman to rank in the top 10 in seven different categories in league play.

Prior to moving to Chestnut Hill, Christian spent the previous two seasons as head coach at Ohio, leading the Bobcats to a 49-22 record in that time. In his first season at the helm, Ohio went 24-10 and earned a bid to the NIT. The Bobcats won their first regular season MAC title since 1994 and they tied a program record with 14 league wins and seven road victories. He was named the NABC District 14 Coach of the Year.

Ohio led the nation in assists per game (17.5) in 2012-13 and ranked seventh in the country in turnover margin (+4.7). Under his guidance, guard D.J. Cooper ranked seventh in the nation in assists and was the first MAC Player of the Year from Ohio since 1995.

In 2013-14, the Bobcats went 25-12 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the College Insider Tournament. It was just the third time in school history that an Ohio team reached 25 wins.

Christian, who also spent six seasons at Kent State from 2002-08, is the all-time leader in winning percentage (.700) in Mid-American Conference history and reached 20 wins in all eight of his seasons in the conference.

Prior to his time at Ohio, Christian was the head coach at TCU from 2008-12. While in Fort Worth, he had a record of 56-73 (.434) and led the Horned Frogs to their first postseason appearance since 2005 when they played in the 2012 College Basketball Invitational. He coached six All-Mountain West players while in Fort Worth.

One of those players was guard Hank Thorns, Jr., who earned first team honors after ranking in the top 12 in the country in both assists and assist/turnover ratio, the only player in the nation to accomplish that feat in 2010-11.

Christian began his head coaching career at Kent State where he compiled a record of 138-58 (.704). He led the Golden Flashes to five postseason appearances in his six seasons at the helm. He earned MAC Coach of the Year accolades in 2006 and 2008, both times leading Kent State to the conference title and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Golden Flashes earned NIT berths in each of his first three seasons.

Kent State won 20 games every year that Christian was the head coach and he guided it to its first-ever top 25 ranking in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls. The 2007-08 season was one of the best in Kent State history. The Golden Flashes finished 28-7 with a school-record 25 regular-season wins and won the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament championships. Christian guided Kent State to a No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament which was the best seed in program history.

While in Kent, Christian mentored two honorable-mention All-Americans (Antonio Gates, DeAndre Haynes), two MAC Players of the Year (DeAndre Haynes, Al Fisher), three MAC Defensive Players of the Year (Demetric Shaw, John Edwards, Haminn Quaintance), one MAC Sixth Man of the Year (Kevin Warzynski) and a total of 19 All-MAC selections, including six first teamers.

Christian served as an assistant coach for the Golden Flashes in 2001-02 when they advanced to the Elite Eight. Prior to his time in Kent, Christian was a college basketball talent evaluator at Octagon Sports Marketing and Management.

Christian served as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh from 1996-99 under Ralph Willard. He guided the development of Vontee Cummings, a two-time All-Big East player who went on to play for the Philadelphia 76ers and Golden State Warriors.

Christian served as an assistant coach under former Miami (Ohio) and current Arizona State head coach Herb Sendek during the 1995-96 campaign. The RedHawks recorded a 21-8 overall record, including a 12-6 mark in conference action, and earned a berth in the NIT.

Christian worked at Western Kentucky for the 1994-95 season as the Hilltoppers went 27-4, including a 17-1 record in the Sun Belt Conference. That season, Western Kentucky recorded the fourth-most wins in program history and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament after winning the conference tournament.

Christian's first full-time assistant coaching position came at St. Francis (Pa.). In his two seasons with the Red Flashes, Christian guided the development of two-time All-Northeast Conference performer Deon George and Jason Roberts.

A native of Bethpage, N.Y., Christian was an all-state guard at St. Dominic High School while playing under Ralph Willard. Christian was recruited by current Louisville head coach Rick Pitino to Boston University where he played two seasons before transferring to Rhode Island. Christian played his final two campaigns under Tom Penders at the University of Rhode Island where he helped the Rams reach the Sweet Sixteen in the 1988 NCAA Tournament.

The standout guard led the Rams to victories over Missouri and Syracuse before losing a 73-72 game to Duke for the right to advance to the Elite Eight. After graduation, Christian spent one season playing professionally in Australia for the Sydney City Comets.

Christian earned his bachelor's degree in consumer affairs from the University of Rhode Island in 1988. He and his wife, Patty, have three children, MacKenzie, Zach and Jay.

COACHING STAFF

SCOTT SPINELLI

Assistant Coach

Spinelli came from Maryland where he served as assistant coach from 2011-14 under Mark Turgeon. He has been an associate head coach at three different schools since the 2005-06 season.

A native of Leominster, Mass., Spinelli is considered one of the top assistant coaches and recruiters in the country. In a span of seven years, he guided Maryland and Texas A&M to four NCAA Tournament appearances and two NITs. The Aggies posted the best four-year win total in school history while Spinelli was there.

Maryland had three recruiting classes ranked in the top 25 nationally under Spinelli, including a top-10 class in 2014. The 2012-13 Terrapins went 25-13 and reached the semifinals of the NIT. Maryland had three wins over ranked teams and was the only team in the nation to beat Duke twice that year.

Spinelli has had great success recruiting and developing players that have gone on to play in the NBA. Four of Spinelli's former players are currently playing in the NBA: Donald Sloan (Brooklyn Nets), Khriston Middleton (Milwaukee Bucks), DeAndre Jordan (Los Angeles Clippers) and Alex Len (Phoenix Suns). In addition, Spinelli coached and recruited a pair of outstanding players while at Nebraska: Aleks Maric, an All-Big 12 selection at center, and Ryan Anderson, a 1,000-point career scorer with the Cornhuskers.

Spinelli helped Maryland haul in consecutive top-25 recruiting classes, leading the recruitment of Damonte Dodd in the class of 2013, as well as Seth Allen, Jake Layman and Evan Smotrycz. In addition, Spinelli helped recruit transfer guard Logan Aronhalt, who connected on 63-of-145 three-point attempts (.434 pct.) and was named to the 2013 All-ACC Academic team in his one season (2012-13) with Maryland.

Texas A&M had tremendous success while Spinelli was there from 2007-11. The Aggies went to the NCAA Tournament each season and had at least 24 wins during all four campaigns. Spinelli first joined Turgeon as an associate head coach at Wichita State in 2006-07.

Spinelli spent three seasons at Nebraska under Barry Collier before going to Wichita State. He recruited two nationally ranked recruiting classes and the Cornhuskers went to the postseason twice.

Spinelli also spent time as an assistant coach at Loyola-Chicago (2001-03) and Wyoming (1996-97). His first stint as an associate head coach came at American (1997-99). He also worked as a scout for the Philadelphia 76ers (2000-01) and as an assistant coach for the Cincinnati Stuff (1999-2000) of the International Basketball League.

Spinelli first joined the coaching ranks in 1990 as the head coach of the Milford Academy in New York, leading the team to a pair of championships. He also started the basketball program at The Winchendon School in Massachusetts where he produced numerous Division I players.

Spinelli earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1989. He walked onto the Terriers basketball team and later received a scholarship from head coach Mike Jarvis. BU advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1988.

Spinelli and his wife, Lynn, have three children, Gianna, Gabriel and Joseph.

BILL WUCZYNSKI

Assistant Coach

Bill Wuczynski, who has spent the last nine seasons on Jim Christian's staff, is in his fourth season as an assistant coach at Boston College.

Wuczynski came from Ohio University where he spent two seasons as an assistant coach for Christian. The Bobcats went 49-22 in the two seasons he was in Athens and advanced to the postseason both years.

Ohio went 24-10 in his first season on the staff and earned a bid to the NIT. The Bobcats won the MAC regular-season title for the first time since 1994 and they tied program records with 14 league wins and seven road triumphs.

Wuczynski worked closely with the Ohio point guards. The 2012-13 squad led the nation in assists per game (17.5), ranked seventh in the country in turnover margin (+4.7) and 12th in assist/turnover ratio (1.4). The team set a program record with 594 assists on the year.

Wuczynski worked closely with guard D.J. Cooper who was an AP All-America honorable mention his senior season. Cooper became the first player from Ohio to be named MAC Player of the Year since 1995 after ranking seventh in the country in assists. He was also a Bob Cousy Award finalist.

Cooper improved his numbers dramatically from the previous season after Wuczynski arrived on campus. He improved in field goal percentage (.424 from .348), 3-point percentage (.364 from .307) and assists per game (7.1 from 5.7) with Wuczynski's training.

In 2013-14, the Bobcats recorded 25 wins for just the third time in program history and advanced to the quarterfinals of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament. Wuczynski worked closely with All-MAC guard Nick Kellogg, who after averaging 8.3 points per game over his first three seasons, led Ohio in scoring (15.7 ppg) while shooting a career-best 46.2 percent from the floor. Kellogg shot 39.2 percent from beyond the arc and is the MAC's all-time 3-point leader (290).

Wuczynski first joined Christian's staff at TCU where he served as an assistant coach from 2008-12. He helped lead a turnaround of the Horned Frogs program that had gone seven years without a winning season before they advanced to the postseason in 2011-12.

He was heavily involved in recruiting and worked with the forwards while at TCU. He brought in All-Mountain West guard Hank Thorns and Zvonko Buljan, the 2009 MWC Newcomer of the Year and a two-time All-MWC player. Wuczynski also mentored Amric Fields who was the Mountain West Sixth Man of the Year in 2012.

Prior to his time in Fort Worth, Wuczynski served as an assistant coach at FIU and Loyola-Chicago. While in Chicago, the Ramblers recorded 32 wins in a span of two seasons, the most in consecutive years in over a decade.

Wuczynski spent five seasons at UNLV as an assistant coach and director of operations from 1997-2002. He spent one season as an assistant coach under Max Good as well as four seasons on the support staff, including two as the director of operations, under former UNLV coach Bill Bayno. The Sporting News recognized the 1997 recruiting class as the best in the nation while the 1999 class was ranked as the second-best in the nation by Hoop Scoop. The Runnin' Rebels averaged over 20 wins per season and made four postseason appearances (two NCAA, two NIT) with Wuczynski on staff.

Wuczynski graduated from UNLV in 1996. He and his wife, Shaunna, have two sons, Shane and Cooper.

COACHING/SUPPORT STAFF

CHRIS CHEEKS

Assistant Coach

Cheeks comes to The Heights with 19 years of coaching experience at the Division I level. He spent last season as an assistant coach at Western Kentucky under head coach Rick Stansbury after spending the previous four seasons at Delaware.

WKU finished 15-17 in Stansbury's first season at the helm of the program. Justin Johnson was named to the 2016-17 All-Conference USA Second Team and the NABC All-District Second Team after leading the Hilltoppers in both scoring (14.5) and rebounding (9.4). He also led Conference USA in both rebounding and double-doubles (14). Cheeks and the WKU staff also brought in the fifth-ranked recruiting class in the nation according to Rivals.

Delaware had one of their best seasons in 2013-14 with Cheeks on their staff. Delaware went 25-10, which was the second-most wins in program history, and won its first Colonial Athletic Association regular season title. UD won its fifth conference tournament championship and earned the No. 13 seed in the NCAA East Regional, falling to Michigan State, 93-78, in the second round of the tournament.

Cheeks was instrumental in the development of guard Devon Saddler, who set a school record and currently ranks sixth in CAA history with 2,222 points. He earned All-CAA honors in each of his four seasons at UD and was named to the 2014 Lou Henson Mid-Major All-America Team. Saddler was joined on the All-CAA First Team by Davon Usher, who set a Delaware single-season record by scoring 679 points during the 2013-14 season.

Delaware went 19-14 in Cheeks' first season in Newark, finishing second in the CAA at 13-5. Both of those win totals were program bests since joining the conference. The Blue Hens advanced to the CAA Tournament semifinals for the first time since 2002-2003.

Cheeks mentored six different Blue Hens to All-CAA accolades in his time at Delaware, including Jamelle Hagins, who was named the CAA Defensive Player of the Year in 2013.

Cheeks served as the head coach of AAU team DC Assault in 2011-12 and was an assistant coach at Charlotte from 2006-10. He helped the 49ers attract the Atlantic 10's top recruiting class and the 13th-ranked class in the country in 2007-08.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Cheeks spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Georgia State and was on staff at West Virginia from 2000-02. He helped recruit the top-rated class in the Big East in 2000. His coaching career began in 1995 at his alma mater, VCU. He served five years as an assistant coach with the Rams, helping them win the CAA regular season and conference tournament titles in 1996.

Cheeks scored 1,273 career points in two seasons at VCU from 1987-89 and his 42 points against Old Dominion in 1989 are the most ever by a Rams player in a Division I game. His 20.2 career scoring average ranks second in school history and he is a member of the Rams All-Time Team.

DAN MCDERMOTT

Director of Operations

Dan McDermott is in his 13th year with the Boston College basketball program and his fourth as the Director of Basketball Operations.

McDermott served the previous nine years as video coordinator for Al Skinner and Steve Donahue.

His responsibilities as video coordinator included coordinating film exchange, assisting the coaching staff with video editing for self and opponent scouting, and supervising the managerial staff. In addition, McDermott acted as a technical consultant, keeping the coaches and staff informed on the latest technology and equipment being used by other top programs.

McDermott has been heavily involved in scheduling opponents in the last few seasons and serves as the director of the Boston College Boys Basketball Camp.

In addition, McDermott has been actively involved with the American Cancer Society and its Coaches vs. Cancer initiative. He has organized the Boston College Coaches vs. Cancer 5K the last six years and is on the executive board of the Coaches vs. Cancer Massachusetts Tip-Off.

McDermott earned his master's degree in business administration from BC's Carroll School of Business in December 2010. He had previously earned his master's degree in higher education administration from BC's Lynch School of Education in 2007.

Prior to assuming his current position, McDermott worked in the Boston College Media Relations Office, where he researched and coordinated the design and content of the Hajjar Family Football Museum in the Yawkey Athletics Center.

He earned his bachelor's degree in English from Boston College in 2004.

McDermott and his wife, Meghan, welcomed their first child, Eloise, in August 2017.

SUPPORT STAFF

CHIP CUNNINGHAM

Video Coordinator

Chip Cunningham is in his fourth season as video coordinator at Boston College.

He came with Jim Christian from Ohio where he served as the director of basketball operations for two seasons. Cunningham has been on Christian's staff since 2009.

At Ohio, Cunningham oversaw the daily operations of the Bobcats program, including scheduling, on-campus recruiting, academic monitoring and video coordination.

In that role, Cunningham oversaw all video and technology operations including film exchange, scouting reports and maintaining a library of drills and plays. He also supervised the student managers and organized recruiting databases.

Cunningham served as the assistant coach at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas before joining TCU. He handled all offseason individual workouts and focused on mentoring post players. He was also responsible for in-state recruiting.

Cunningham has also been the assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach at Bishop T.K. Gorman High School in Tyler, Texas. From 2005-07, he was the head coach of JAMODI, a U17 AAU team in Tyler.

NATHAN BUBES

Graduate Manager

Nathan Bubes is in his second season as a graduate manager for the men's basketball team.

Bubes was a four-year manager as an undergraduate at Boston College where he became an integral part of the staff. He coordinated video for games, practices and opponent scouts, and introduced analytics in regards to lineups and future scheduling.

In addition, he attended all practices where he led the setup and execution of drills.

Bubes, a native of Washington, D.C., has also spent time as summer intern with the Washington Nationals, the University of Maryland and ESPN 980 radio. With the Nationals, he worked in the Baseball Operations department helping with MLB administration and the Amateur Draft.

Bubes graduated from The Heights in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in management and a secondary major in English. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in business administration.

STEPHEN TAYLOR

Graduate Manager

Stephen Taylor, a four-year letterwinner for the Ohio men's basketball team, is in his first season as a graduate manager.

Taylor played in 137 career games in Athens and made 34 starts in his last two seasons. He played two years under current Boston College head coach Jim Christian. In his time at Ohio, the Bobcats earned three postseason appearances and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen when he was a freshman in 2012.

Taylor, a product of Gahanna, Ohio, played two seasons in Italy after graduation. He averaged 20.9 points per game in his first season overseas and then averaged 25.1 points in his second season in Sicily.

Taylor earned his bachelor's degree from Ohio University in 2015 and is pursuing his masters of science in sports administration from the Woods School of Advancing Studies.

NICK GALLOTTO

Athletic Trainer

Nick Gallotto is in his second season as an associate director of sports medicine, working with the men's basketball and golf programs.

Gallotto came from Washington State where he spent eight seasons as an assistant athletic trainer, also working with the men's basketball and golf teams. He provided immediate care, treatment and rehabilitation for Cougar student-athletes, and worked with the strength and conditioning staff on preventative programs.

Gallotto, a native of Sterling, Mass., graduated from Endicott College in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training. He earned his master's of health administration from Cincinnati in 2013.

Gallotto has been a National Athletic Trainers Association Certified Athletic Trainer since 2007. He is also a National Academy of Sports Medicine Corrective Exercise Specialist and an American Heart Association Healthcare Provider.

JORDAN STANLEY

Strength Coach

Jordan Stanley is in his third season as Boston College's strength and conditioning coach. Stanley joined the Eagles in the fall of 2015 after spending the previous three seasons at Evansville working with the men's basketball program.

Stanley started at Evansville as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2011 and was elevated to Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Performance in 2013, when he took over for the men's basketball, baseball, volleyball, men's and women's soccer, and women's tennis teams.

In Stanley's second season with the Evansville men's basketball team, the Aces went 24-12 and advanced to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament. Last season, Evansville went 25-9 and lost at the buzzer in the Missouri Valley Conference championship game.

Prior to his time at Evansville, Stanley was the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Morgantown High School in West Virginia. He worked with 10 teams and initiated strength programs for five teams.

Stanley is a 2007 graduate of West Virginia where he worked more than 300 hours with the Mountaineers' strength and conditioning staff. He assisted with the football team and worked on the team's speed and agility program in the offseason.

Stanley is a National Strength & Conditioning Association Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and is a USAW Level 1 Sports Performance Coach.

EVAN LIBRIZZI

Player Personnel Specialist

Evan Librizzi enters her fourth season as a member of the Boston College staff and was promoted to Player Personnel Specialist in 2016.

In that role, Librizzi monitors student-athlete development in the areas of academic performance, student welfare and personal conduct. She works closely with Learning Resources to ensure student-athletes are achieving academically and making progress towards their degrees.

She also assists the student-athletes in career planning, leadership training and community service.

Librizzi served as the men's basketball administrative assistant for her first two seasons with the team. She started at Boston College as an intern in 2012.

Librizzi was a four-year letterwinner in basketball at Colgate, where she received her bachelor's degree in 2011. She also served as team captain as a junior and senior.

2017 RETIREMENT CEREMONY

DANA BARROS '89

- Was the first Boston College player to reach the 2,000-career point mark and still ranks third on the all-time list with 2,342 career points.
- Three-time All-Big East performer, twice named to the second team and earning first team honors as a junior in 1988.
- Named the 1986 Big East Rookie of the Year after averaging 13.7 points per game in his freshman season.
- Scored 30 or more points 18 times which is tied for the most in program history. He ranks second all-time at Boston College in field goals made (824) and 3-pointers (291), third in free throw percentage (.841), fourth in scoring average (19.7), seventh in steals (181), and 10th in assists (438).
- Selected with the 16th overall pick by the Seattle Supersonics in the 1989 NBA Draft. He played 13 seasons in the NBA with Seattle, Philadelphia, Boston and Detroit.
- Was inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 2005.

JOHN BAGLEY '82

- A two-time All-Big East player and was the first Eagle to earn Big East Player of the Year honors in 1981.
- Was a two-time NABC All-District first team player and was an All-America third team selection as a junior.
- Averaged 20.4 points per game as a sophomore in 1981 and led the Eagles to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. He then averaged 21.1 points as a junior and guided BC to the Elite Eight.
- Ranks 14th on the all-time Boston College scoring chart with 1,629 points. He also ranks eighth at The Heights in scoring average.
- Holds the Eagles' record for most points in an NCAA Tournament game when he poured in 35 in a win over Wake Forest on March 15, 1981.
- Drafted 12th overall by the Cleveland Cavaliers in 1982. He played 11 seasons in the NBA for Cleveland, New Jersey, Boston and Atlanta.
- Was inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1995.

VARSITY CLUB HALL OF FAME

DANYA ABRAMS '97

2009

Abrams played in 122 games from 1993-97, helping the Eagles earn three berths in the NCAA Tournament (1994, 1996, 1997). The Greenburgh, New York., product scored 2,053 points and grabbed 1,029 rebounds in his four years. He ranks seventh on the school's career scoring list and third on its career rebounding chart. Abrams earned Big East All-Rookie Team honors in 1993-94. He captured All-Big East first-team honors and NABC All-District I honors in each of his last three seasons. Among his many career highlights was a Conte Forum-record 20-rebound effort against Providence on Jan. 22, 1994. After graduation, Abrams enjoyed a lengthy professional career in Europe.

MICHAEL ADAMS '85

This guard led the Eagles to postseason play in each of his four seasons at The Heights, reaching the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight in 1982 and its Sweet 16 in 1985. Adams served as captain for the 1982-83, 1983-84 and 1984-85 squads, and was an All-Big East selection in each of those years. He ranks 13th on BC's all-time scoring list with 1,650 points. He also registered 475 career assists, placing him seventh on BC's career list. In addition, Adams' 275 career steals rank fourth all-time in the Big East and leads all BC defenders. Upon leaving The Heights, Adams played for the NBA's Denver Nuggets, Washington Bullets and Charlotte Hornets, culminating in his selection to the 1992 NBA All-Star Game.

STEVE ADELMAN '68

This sweet-shooting forward was the leading scorer on Bob Cousy's NCAA and NIT teams that went a combined 62-16 during his varsity career (1965-68). Adelman was known as a pure scorer with the confidence to shoot in any situation. He averaged 18.9 points per game for the 1966-67 team that finished with BC's best record (22-3). Adelman helped the Eagles give eventual national champion UCLA its closest contest of the 1966-67 season, before bowing 84-77 to the Bruins at Madison Square Garden. He earned All-America third-team honors as a senior, as well as NIT all-star honors that same year. Adelman, who finished with a career scoring average of 17.2 points per game, was drafted by the Baltimore Bullets of the NBA.

JOHN AUSTIN '66

Perhaps the greatest basketball player to don maroon and gold, Austin still holds BC records for career scoring average (27.1 points per game over three varsity years), season scoring average (29.2 points per game in 1963-64) and points in a game (49 against Georgetown). Austin scored 43 points against Utah State as a junior and led the Eagles to the NIT in each of his final two years. Coach Bob Cousy's first recruiting prize, Austin was named All-America as a senior.

The first Eagle to earn Big East Player of the Year honors (1980-81), Bagley was an explosive scorer who averaged nearly 18 points per game during his tenure at The Heights. A two-time All-Big East selection, he averaged 20.4 points per game in leading the Eagles to the 1980-81 Big East regular-season championship and NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The following year, Bagley upped his production to 21.1 points per game and led BC to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight. Bagley left BC after his junior season and enjoyed a 13-year career in the NBA. He played for the New Jersey Nets, Cleveland Cavaliers and Boston Celtics.

Barros played in 119 games from 1985-89. He became the first player in school history to score 2,000 points. Barros tallied his 2,000th point in his 105th collegiate contest — against St. John's on Jan. 21, 1989. He finished his career with 2,342 points, a total that remains third on the school's career scoring list. The 5-11 guard tallied 30 points in 18 career games, including a magnificent 43-point effort in an upset win at Pittsburgh on Jan. 7, 1989. He earned Big East Rookie of the Year honors after averaging 13.7 points per game in 1985-86. The Mattapan, Massachusetts, product was a three-time All-Big East selection (first-team in 1987-88; second-team in 1986-87 and 1988-89) and a three-time All-District honoree (from the National Association of Basketball Coaches). Barros enjoyed a 13-year career in the NBA, tallying 8,901 points for Seattle, Philadelphia, Boston and Detroit.

BOB CARRINGTON '76

One of the true superstars of BC basketball, Carrington was one of the "Boston Six" — probably the best neighborhood group of basketball players in the Hub. He graduated as the Eagles' all-time leading scorer with 1,849 points. Carrington led the team in scoring for three seasons and posted a 19.7 points per game career average. He led the 1974-75 team to a 21-9 record and an NCAA Tournament berth, averaging 20.9 points per game. After graduation, Carrington played in the NBA for New Jersey, Indiana and San Diego.

CHUCK CHEVALIER '62

One of the most popular players in BC history, Chevalier was a two-sport star, also excelling on the baseball diamond. On the hardwood, he was a flashy ballhandler and passer who served as the top playmaker of his era, earning him comparisons to Bob Cousy. He scored 25 points against Colby his freshman year, and ran the point as Coach Don Martin's final two teams went 14-9 and 15-7, respectively.

BOB COUSY

1970

After winning six NBA championships in his final seven seasons with the Boston Celtics, "The Houdini of the Hardwood" brought his magic to The Heights, where he served as the Eagles' head coach for six seasons. Cousy compiled a 117-38 record at BC, including four 20-plus victory seasons. The 1968-69 season was the pinnacle of the Cousy era, as the Eagles went 24-4 and won 19 consecutive games, reaching the NIT finals. While at BC, Cousy brought in such talent as John Austin, Terry Driscoll, Billy Evans and Jim O'Brien, and his contributions brought new standards in hoop success to Chestnut Hill.

BILL CURLEY '94

Bill Curley played in 126 games from 1990-94, helping the Eagles earn two berths in the National Invitation Tournament (1992 and 1993) and one memorable bid to the NCAA Tournament (1994). Curley and his classmates concluded their careers at The Heights in fine fashion. The Eagles defeated Washington State and top-ranked North Carolina in the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament, and then downed Indiana before bowing to Florida in the regional title game. Curley is one of only seven players in school history to reach the coveted 2,000-point plateau. He recorded 2,102 career points and ranks fourth on the school's career scoring list. The Duxbury, Massachusetts, product and four-time team MVP also ranks fourth on BC's all-time rebounding chart, having grabbed 996 rebounds.

Daukas was a force in the middle for the Eagles of the early '50s. At 6-7, he possessed the scoring touch to finish with an 18.9 points per game average as a senior in 1954, and 1,154 points for his career. In 1951-52, Daukas was a part of a 22-5 team that beat Holy Cross for the first time in 23 years and posted the first 20-win season in BC history.

The coach of the Eagles from 1977-82, Davis guided BC into the Big East era with a 100-47 record during his five seasons. His Eagles qualified for the NIT in 1980 with a 19-10 record, and earned NCAA Tournament bids the following two seasons. In 1980-81, Davis led BC to a 23-7 mark as the team earned the Big East regular-season title and reached the Sweet 16. He saved his best season for last, finishing 22-10 in 1981-82 and leading BC to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight before falling to a Houston team that featured Hakeem Olajawon and Clyde Drexler. During his time at The Heights, Davis recruited such stars as John Bagley, Michael Adams, Jay Murphy and Martin Clark, and his work at BC laid the foundation for the program's success in the 1980s.

VARSITY CLUB HALL OF FAME

BILL DONOVAN '62

2000

A three-year starter and team captain his senior season, Donovan totaled 1,012 points in his collegiate career, becoming just the fourth 1,000-point scorer in school history. Playing alongside fellow Hall of Famer Jim Hooley, Donovan averaged 14.5 points per game while leading his squads to a combined 40-29 record during his three-year career with the Eagles. An expert outside shooter, many feel that Donovan could have posted even greater scoring numbers had he played during the current three-point era, since most of his baskets came from long range.

TERRY DRISCOLL '69

1974

The captain of the 1968-69 team and the second-leading rebounder in school history (1,071), Driscoll finished his stellar playing career averaging 18.5 points and 13.9 rebounds per game. He averaged 23.3 points per game during his senior campaign, earning All-America honors in leading the Eagles to the NIT championship game in Bob Cousy's final season at the helm. As a junior, he averaged 17.8 points per game for a team that was ranked as high as sixth in the nation and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Driscoll went on to play professionally after graduation.

FRAN DUGGAN '52

Duggan entered Boston College in the fall of 1948 after graduating from South Boston High School and then spending one year at Newman Prep. He was the only local recruit in his class, one that featured New Yorkers Tim O'Connell and Tim O'Toole. Duggan played for the Eagles during a colorful era in college basketball history. He and his teammates began BC's climb to among the region's — and later the nation's — best programs. After playing in 18 games in his first varsity season, Duggan helped the Eagles to a 17-11 mark and the New England Tourney title in his junior season. Known as a "defensive forward," Duggan gained the respect of his teammates and foes for his rebounding and for his ability to shut down opposing teams' star players. During the 1950-51 season — one often labeled "easily the most important year in Boston College's post-war basketball revival" — the Eagles defeated NCAA champion CCNY in BC's first game in Madison Square Garden. The following year, Duggan and the Eagles registered the program's first 20-win campaign, finishing 22-5. Chief among those victories was a season-ending 64-61 triumph over Holy Cross.

HOWARD EISLEY '94

Eisley played in and started 126 games from 1990-94, helping the Eagles earn two berths in the National Invitation Tournament (1992 and 1993) and one memorable bid to the NCAA Tournament (1994). The Detroit, Michigan, product scored 1,628 points and handed out 544 assists in his four years. He sank 197 career three-point field goals. Eisley earned All-Big East second-team honors as a junior and senior, and captured NABC All-District I second-team honors in 1993. He went on to a terrific professional career, playing 786 NBA regular-season games (and 88 playoff games) with Minnesota, San Antonio, Utah, Dallas, New York, Phoenix, Los Angeles (Clippers) and Denver.

BILLY EVANS '69

The playmaking point guard for Bob Cousy's finest teams, Evans was a confident floor general who led the Eagles into the NIT championship game in his senior year. Setting up great scorers like Terry Driscoll and Steve Adelman, Evans is the Eagles' all-time assists leader with 669. After graduating, he was drafted by the Boston Celtics.

FRANK FITZGERALD '71

1990

Fitzgerald came to Boston College from Saint Joseph's High School in Metuchen, New Jersey, and enjoyed an outstanding career under coaches Bob Cousy (1968-69) and Chuck Daly (1969-71). Often overshadowed by star teammates like Terry Driscoll, Billy Evans and Jim O'Brien, Fitzgerald played a key role in each of his three varsity seasons. He finished his career with 1,042 points and 538 rebounds in 78 games. Among his most memorable moments was a last-second jump shot against Saint Joseph's on Jan. 5, 1969, that gave BC a 76-74 victory in the Palestra. That victory began a 19-game winning streak that didn't end until the National Invitation Tournament's title game.

JOHN GARRIS '83

Garris came to the Eagles after two years at Michigan, and became an instrumental part of the 1981-82 and 1982-83 NCAA Tournament squads. In his two seasons at The Heights, this rugged 6-8 forward helped BC to an impressive 47-17 record. Known as a big-game performer, Garris was named to the 1982 NCAA Tournament's All-Tourney team after contributing to the Eagles' upset of second-ranked DePaul and appearance in the Elite Eight. Garris' finest NCAA performance, however, may have come the following year, when he registered 25 points and 12 rebounds against Ralph Sampson in a hard-fought 95-92 loss to Virginia. Garris averaged 19.7 points per game as a senior and went on to play for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers.

GEORGE GIERSCH '59

Dubbed "The Baron," this fierce competitor was a defensive stalwart and solid overall performer for coach Don Martin's teams of the late 1950s. Giersch was a junior guard/forward on the 1957-58 team that went 16-5 and earned BC's first NCAA Tournament bid. As a sophomore, he led the Eagles in both field goals (111) and free throws (94). Giersch's accomplishments during the years that put BC on the map are made even more impressive because of a childhood bout with polio that forced him to learn to walk again at age 7 and left one leg shorter than the other. He was also the baseball team's ace starter until his senior year. He served in the U.S. Navy upon graduation.

ANTONIO GRANGER '98

The most recent basketball alumnus to be inducted into the Varsity Club Athletic Hall of Fame, Granger was a forward who helped lead the Eagles to two NCAA Tournaments in 1996 and 1997, and led the Big East in three-point field-goal percentage during the 1996-97 season. He currently ranks sixth in Eagles record books for three pointers (193) and fifth on the single-season list (78 in 1997-98). He scored in double-figures in 68 career games, including 17 games with 20 or more points.

The captain of the 1957-58 Eagles, BC's first team to make the NCAA Tournament, Harrington was a great rebounder and defender. Although he was just 6-3, he was the tallest player on the 1957-58 squad that finished with a 16-5 record and fell to Maryland in the NCAA Tournament. Harrington's best offensive season was his sophomore year, when he led the team in scoring at just under 10 points per game. Defensively, he matched up with the opponent's biggest player, making up for his lack of size with great instincts and aggressive play. The heart shown by this Eagle on the basketball court later carried over onto the battlefield, where Harrington served as a Navy SEAL after leaving The Heights.

ED HOCKENBURY '66

The point guard and general for Coach Bob Cousy's successful teams of 1963-66, he served as captain of the Eagles his senior year. He twice led BC to appearances in the NIT, as the Eagles went 43-12 in his final two campaigns. A versatile athlete, Hockenbury also earned letters in baseball and track. Following graduation, Hockenbury became a highly respected college basketball coach.

The term "Hooley Hoop" was a popular one in the early 1960s to report the scoring prowess of this sharpshooting forward. Hooley scored 1,209 career points, averaging 21.6 per game. He once connected on 20 field goal attempts in a single game, finishing with 46 points, one of the greatest scoring performances in BC history. He averaged 24.2 points per game in both 1960-61 and 1961-62, clearly distinguishing himself as the highest scoring Eagle of his day.

MALCOLM HUCKABY '94

2004

Huckaby played in 126 games from 1990-94, helping the Eagles earn two berths in the National Invitation Tournament (1992, 1993) and one memorable bid to the NCAA Tournament (1994). Huckaby and his classmates concluded their careers at The Heights in fine fashion. The Eagles defeated Washington State and top-ranked North Carolina in the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament, then downed Indiana before bowing to Florida in the regional title game. Huckaby recorded 1,316 career points and ranks 20th on the school's all-time scoring list. The Bristol, Connecticut, product was a three-time recipient of the program's Defensive MVP award.

JIM KISSANE '68

This versatile 6-8 forward was a starter for all three of his varsity seasons, during which BC reached the NIT once and made two trips to the NCAA Tournament. Kissane was captain of the team in his senior year. In 1967-68, he was selected as the Most Valuable Player in the Boston Garden Tournament after leading the Eagles to victories over NC State and Providence, and his rebounding and shooting skills were instrumental in the team's still-legendary success during his years at The Heights. He was drafted by the NBA's Cincinnati Royals and later played with the Minnesota Pipers of the ABA.

VARSITY CLUB HALL OF FAME

JACK KVANCZ '681984

In the height of Bob Cousy's reign as the Boston College basketball coach in the mid to late 1960s, Kvanetz combined with Billy Evans to form one of the top one-two guard combos in the nation. During his three varsity seasons, Kvanetz and the Eagles made two trips to the NCAA Tournament and one to the NIT. After his senior season, he earned the Bob Cousy Award as the top player in New England under six feet in height. After graduation, Kvanetz went on to become head coach and later athletics director at Catholic University as well as the athletics director at George Mason and George Washington.

JACK MAGEE '591986

The leading scorer on the first Eagle hoop squad to make the NCAA Tournament, this center averaged 15.5 points per game as BC went 16-6 in his junior season. Magee and fellow BC Hall of Famer George Giersch were the heroes of a historic 1958 game against Holy Cross, when the Eagles defeated the Crusaders in Worcester for the first time, 73-68. After a senior season in which the Eagles went 17-9, Magee spent two years in the Army before returning to BC as an assistant coach. Magee later was an assistant to Coach Bob Cousy for three seasons before becoming the head coach at Georgetown in 1966.

ROGER MCCREADY '862002

McCreedy came to Boston College from Xavierian (N.Y.) High School in the fall of 1982. At 6-5, he was an undersized small forward, but equally determined to battle in the post. By the time he finished his collegiate career, McCreedy had proven to fans and foes alike what heart and determination could accomplish. A four-year letterman, he played a key role on the Eagles' team that earned two NCAA Tournament berths and one NIT bid. The Eagles advanced to the NCAA Tournament's regional semifinals in both 1983 and 1985. He increased his scoring average in each of his four years — from 3.9 ppg as a freshman, to 9.5 ppg as a sophomore, to 14.8 ppg as a junior to 18.1 ppg as a senior. McCreedy, who tallied 1,365 collegiate points, ranks 19th on the school's career scoring list. As a senior, he led the Eagles in both scoring and rebounding.

JAY MURPHY '841999

Murphy was one of the main reasons why Boston College enjoyed incredible success in the early 1980s. In fact, Murphy led the Eagles to three NCAA Tournaments — two Sweet 16s and one Elite Eight — and one NIT in his four seasons (1980-84). A two-year team captain, the Meriden, Connecticut, product led BC to an 88-36 record in his four seasons, and was a three-time Big East honoree. He currently ranks 10th on the school's career scoring list (1,795 points) and ninth on the career rebounding list (763 rebounds). Murphy was selected by the Golden State Warriors with the 31st pick in the 1984 NBA Draft. He played four seasons in the NBA — two each with the Los Angeles Clippers and Washington Bullets — before concluding his illustrious career in Europe (France and Italy).

JIM O'BRIEN '711976

As a sophomore, O'Brien averaged more than 13 points per game for Bob Cousy's final team, which won 15 straight games and made it to the NIT final. He set a school record with 18 assists against Le Moyne as a senior and he still ranks second on the BC career list with 663 assists. O'Brien also scored 1,273 points over his three varsity seasons, good for a 16.5 ppg average. He returned in 1986 to assume head coaching duties at The Heights, and in 11 seasons led the Eagles to 168 wins, three NITs and three NCAA Tournaments. O'Brien brought such stars as Bill Curley, Howard Easley and Danya Abrams to The Heights. His greatest achievements as coach were an unexpected run to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight in 1994 and BC's first Big East Tournament championship in 1997.

TOM O'BRIEN '501971

O'Brien was captain of the 1950 squad and is the uncle of fellow BC great Jim O'Brien '71. The elder O'Brien was a top player of the Al McClellan era, an inspiring leader, an aggressive defender and rebounder, and a favorite of his coaches. Although not a scorer by trade, O'Brien was a team player who made everyone on his team better.

TIM O'CONNELL '521993

This tenacious rebounding center was undersized even by 1950s standards. Despite doing battle with larger pivotmen every night, the 6-2 O'Connell was the starting center on The Heights for four seasons. He was one of a number of New York City-area recruits who, under coach Al McClellan, began to elevate BC basketball during the pre-Roberts Center era, culminating in a 64-61 win over rival and national power Holy Cross. That game, played on March 4, 1952, was a watershed event for BC basketball; it marked the Eagles' first victory over Holy Cross in 23 years. O'Connell's 1952 senior team finished 22-5, but was overlooked by the postseason tournaments.

TOM O'TOOLE '521977

A sharp-shooting guard, deft passer and tenacious player, O'Toole was a principle weapon on the teams of Al McClellan that placed Boston College at the forefront of the Eastern collegiate basketball scene. O'Toole scored 703 points in his three-year varsity career, averaging 10.3 points per game. As a senior captain, O'Toole helped boost the Eagles to a 22-5 record — still one of the best records at BC. His final game was a 64-61 upset of Holy Cross in which he tallied a game-high 23 points and ended his career to a thunderous standing ovation.

PHIL POWELL '552001

After a standout schoolboy career at Mission High in Roxbury, where he was tutored by Frank Power, Powell enjoyed an equally impressive collegiate career at The Heights. Slowed by an ankle injury suffered in his first varsity contest, Powell saw glimpses of action in 20 of the team's 22 games in his sophomore season. The following season, with Don Martin having assumed the head coaching duties, Powell rose to prominence. In fact, Coach Martin described the 6-3 Powell's rise to fame as "phenomenal." Powell, who commuted to school from his home in Jamaica Plain, became known for his uncanny offensive and defensive rebounding ability. Labeled BC's own "Mr. Rebounder," Powell grabbed 30 rebounds in one game (against Brandeis on Dec. 16, 1954) and averaged 19.0 rebounds per game in 1954-55, his senior season. He also was recognized for his "deadly accurate one-hand push shot." Not satisfied with his basketball duties, Powell was also active in intramural football and softball during his days at The Heights.

FRANK POWER '431975

Power is among the most celebrated men in the annals of BC basketball. He spent 32 years as a scout, recruiter and assistant to six different head coaches. He also served as head coach for the 1962-63 season while Bob Cousy played his final NBA season. Today, the Frank Power Award is presented annually to the BC player who exemplifies the spirit and love for Boston College that was characteristic of Coach Power. In addition, the current team practices in Power Gymnasium, another tribute to a man whose dedication to his alma mater will always be remembered.

DOMINIC PRESSLEY '862003

Pressley played for the Eagles from 1982-86. In his collegiate career, Pressley impressed BC fans and foes with his quickness and defensive prowess. He played in 119 career games, starting 109. He missed just two games in his four years at The Heights. While his tenacity on the defensive end became his trademark, Pressley's offensive output was often overlooked. He finished with 967 career points. Pressley's contributions played a key role in the Eagles gaining two NCAA Tournament bids (1983, 1985) and one NIT berth (1984) during his career. He played one game in the NBA in 1988-89.

RICH SHRIGLEY '821989

A three-sport star at Nashua (N.H.) High School, this tough 6-5 forward turned down a scholarship offer from his uncle, Norm Sloan of Florida, to enroll at BC. Shrigley started from day one at The Heights, and played in virtually every game during his four seasons. As a senior in 1981-82, he was a captain, and chipped in 12 points in an NCAA Tournament victory over San Francisco, filling the void left by a foul-plagued John Bagley. During Shrigley's basketball career, the Eagles averaged 21 wins a year. BC went to the NIT in 1979-80, where Shrigley earned all-star accolades. The Eagles made the NCAA Tournament the next two years. After finishing his senior season, he remained at BC and joined the football team the following fall, playing tight end for BC's first bowl-bound squad in 40 years.

VARSITY CLUB HALL OF FAME

JOHN SILK '53

A high-scoring forward with exceptional quickness, Silk scored 859 points in his three varsity seasons. Among his many memorable moments while wearing the maroon and gold was a BC victory over defending NCAA champion CCNY before a capacity crowd at Madison Square Garden. Silk led BC scorers in that game, the Eagles' first in "The World's Most Famous Arena." The following year, he scored 24 points in helping BC to its first win over archrival Holy Cross in 27 years. He was also captain of the 1953 squad.

1978TOM VERONNEAU '70

A junior starter on coach Bob Cousy's 24-4 NIT runner-up team of 1968-69, this big man began his career at BC as a walk-on. Fortunately, Cousy saw something in Veronneau, who went on to set an NCAA field-goal percentage record of 68.7 percent in 1968-69. Despite finishing with the BC career field-goal percentage mark, Veronneau was known primarily as a defensive stopper, guarding the likes of Spencer Haywood and Wes Unseld during his magical junior campaign. He served as team captain as a senior, and gained Academic All-America second-team honors after the season.

1988GERRY WARD '63

The captain of the 1963 squad, this big man averaged 15.6 points and 13.3 rebounds per game over his varsity career. Although his teams never played in the postseason, Ward's feats on the court were tremendous. During his senior year, Ward averaged 20 points per game in legendary coach Frank Power's one season as head man. After graduation, he was a first-round draft pick of the St. Louis Hawks.

1970MEL WELDON '76

Although he played just two years on The Heights, Weldon had a tremendous impact on the program's fortunes. BC was mired in a four-year postseason drought when he arrived from junior college and breathed life into a listless 11-14 team. In Weldon's first year, the 1973-74 Eagles improved to 21-9 and reached the NIT quarterfinals. The following year, he served as team captain. Led by his speed and defensive play, BC again recorded a 21-9 mark and reached the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. He averaged more than 10 points per game and served as the team's main playmaker. Perhaps Weldon's finest individual performance came against Providence in Roberts Center, when he scored 30 points, including the last 10 of the game from the free throw line. After graduation, Weldon played professionally in Venezuela before returning to live in his native New Jersey.

1991WILLIE WOLTERS '67

A starter in every game during his BC career, Wolters captained the 1966-67 team for coach Bob Cousy. The Eagles won 67 of 82 games with him in the lineup. His teams were twice invited to the NIT and earned one NCAA Tournament bid. As a sophomore, he pulled down a record-setting 30 rebounds against Seton Hall, and finished his career with 979 boards. Upon graduation from BC, Wolters played briefly for the NBA's Seattle Supersonics.

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MARTIN JARMOND

Martin Jarmond was named the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics on April 24, 2017, becoming the eighth athletic director in Boston College history. At 37, Jarmond became the youngest athletic director of a Power Five conference institution in Division 1 athletics.

Jarmond, who has more than 15 years of experience in the Big Ten, came from The Ohio State University where he served as the Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief of Staff to Buckeyes' athletic director Gene Smith. Jarmond spent eight years in Columbus after spending seven at Michigan State.

At Ohio State, Jarmond directed external and internal relations and day-to-day operations at an athletics program that had approximately 1,100 student-athletes in 36 sports and 375 employees. He also oversaw the business advancement of the department, managing a budget of $170 million.

He served as sport administrator for football, men's basketball, baseball, and men's and women's golf, and was responsible for football scheduling. Jarmond was also a member of the AD's executive leadership team where he participated in strategic planning and directed search committees for coaches and administrators.

Jarmond joined OSU in 2009 as the Associate Athletic Director for Development and helped raise more than $120 million in three years. He oversaw the Buckeye Club, major gifts, stewardship and donor relations, gift processing, and community relations.

He was also a member of the University Development Senior Leadership team for the $2.5 billion "But for Ohio State..." capital campaign. In addition, he chaired the Athletics District Master Plan which included $200 million in athletics construction projects.

Jarmond was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. Sports Business Daily Journal recognized his contributions to intercollegiate athletics by naming him to its prestigious Forty Under 40, Class of 2017.

Prior to joining OSU, Jarmond served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Development and Director of Regional Giving at Michigan State University. He helped the Spartan Fund set new fundraising records in each of his seven years in East Lansing and was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team.

He also served on the athletic director's executive leadership team and was the liaison between Michigan State's University Development and Alumni Association leadership.

A native of Fayetteville, N.C., Jarmond graduated from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in communication studies. He was a two-time captain of the basketball team, earned All-CAA Academic honors and helped the Seahawks gain their first NCAA tournament appearance in 2000. He earned both an MBA (2002) and a master's in sports administration (2003) from Ohio University.

He is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist and they have a daughter, Scarlett.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press credentials for 2017-18 Boston College home basketball games should be made at least two days prior to the game in question. Please direct all credential requests to: Mike Laprey, Associate Director/Communications, Boston College, Conte Forum 238, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts, 02467; Email: lapreym@bc.edu; Telephone: 617-552-2193.

Please include your name, affiliation, address, phone number and email address on all requests.

All credentials should be picked up at the press will call table outside the first floor elevator on the south side of Conte Forum.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with Boston College basketball student-athletes or coaches must be arranged through the athletics communications office. Student-athletes are not to be called (or contacted via text message) on their cell phones, nor should they be contacted via email or social media.

PRESS FACILITIES

Boston College provides a limited number of telephones along press row and additional telephones in the Media Center on the first floor (north side) of Conte Forum. In addition, there is wireless access (login required) throughout the arena and ethernet access in the Media Center. All phones should be shared by media representatives.

Pregame notes, team rosters and game programs will be distributed at courtside and/or in the Media Center prior to each game. Complete statistical information, including play-by-play, halftime and final box scores, are provided in the Media Center.

WEB INFORMATION

Information about Boston College and the other 15 ACC institutions is available at www.theacc.com. There are two Twitter sites — @BCEagles and @BCMbb — that might be of interest. The former provides frequent news and notes on each of the school's 31 varsity programs, while the latter focuses solely on the men's basketball program.

BOSTON COLLEGE IMG SPORTS NETWORK

IMG College, the exclusive radio rights holder for Boston College Athletics, produces home and away broadcasts for Boston College men's basketball.

Entering his eighth season, Jon Meterparel will serve as the Eagles' play-by-play voice. He is joined courtside by Danya Abrams, who is entering his fifth season. Boston College fans can listen to the IMG Sports Radio Network on Flagship station WEEI 850 AM, on any one of 14 additional stations throughout New England, or globally on Sirius/XM Satellite radio. Additionally, all games are streamed live over the internet, free of cost, via bceagles.com.

Meterparel has spent 13 seasons as the voice of Boston College football and is also entering his eighth season calling Boston College basketball. The Weston, Massachusetts, native began his career at WFNZ in Charlotte, North Carolina. He spent 12 years as a member of the Dennis and Callahan show on Sports Radio WEEI in Boston from 2000-12. Meterparel called Harvard University football on TV and Harvard basketball on radio. He was also the voice of the New England Revolution. For his work on BC football, he was named the Lindsey Nelson Northeast Sportscaster of the Year in 2007. Jon and his wife, Heather, are the proud parents of sons Ben and Nick.

Abrams was a three-time All-Big East and NABC All-District I selection and is one of just six players in Big East history to have recorded more than 2,000 points (2,053) and 1,000 rebounds (1,029). He ranks seventh on the Eagles' all-time scoring list and third on the all-time rebounding list, and ranks second in free throws made (698) and ninth in field goals made (671). In 122 collegiate contests, he scored in double figures 101 times, including six 30-point contests. He was inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Athletic Hall of Fame in 2010. Upon graduating from The Heights with a Bachelor's degree in sociology in 1997, Abrams spent 12 seasons playing professionally in Greece (three seasons) and Spain (nine seasons) where he averaged over 14 points and six rebounds per game during his career.
