- The Eagles returned to Florida the following weekend for five games in the Snowbird Classic in Port Charlotte before opening the Atlantic Coast Conference slate in Tallahassee against No. 2/3 Florida State.
- Because of a mid-March snowstorm, BC's instate contests at Holy Cross was postponed so the Eagles fly out to slightly warmer weather in Kentucky with another ACC series against No. 7 Louisville.
- Before settling into the friendly confines of Shea Field - more affectionately known as the "Birdcage" - the Eagles travel four miles down Commonwealth Ave. for a midweek tilt with Northeastern.

RUNS AT THE RECORD BOOKS

- The Eagles took two of three from the fourth-ranked Cardinals in Louisville's first-ever trip to Chestnut Hill on April 22-24, 2016. BC grabbed games one (6-1) and two (2-1), but could not complete the series sweep, as Louisville took the finale, 6-2.
- In the first game, current sophomore RHP Jacob Stevens allowed just one unearned run in a seven-inning start, issuing just one walk, striking out four and giving up seven hits. LHP Jesse Adams threw the final two innings, retiring all six batters he faced with two strikeouts. Senior INF Johnny Adams led the Eagles with a 2-for-3 day, driving in three runs and walking once while sophomore C Gian Martellini was 2-for-4.
- After Louisville tied the game at one in the third, the Eagles scored three in the bottom of the inning to retake the lead on a two-RBI base hit by Adams. Stevens and Jesse Adams shut out the Cardinal hitters for the remainder of the game to lift the Eagles to the series-opening win.
- The Eagles won the second game in walk-off fashion. With the game tied at one in the bottom of the ninth, junior OF Scott Braren singled to put on the winning run. Classmate INF Jake Palomaki got the runner to third with a base hit and C Nick Sciortino plated the game-winning run with a single past the diving second baseman.
- Sciortino was 2-for-3 with his first career walk-off hit. He also had a stolen base and picked off a runner.
- RHP Justin Dunn threw six innings, allowing six hits, one walk and striking out four. He gave up one run on a lead-off homer. Junior RHP Bobby Skogsbergh picked up his first win of the season, throwing the final two innings, allowing just one hit and striking out two.
- Louisville was able to collect the game three win as the Cardinals jumped out to an early, 4-0 lead in the fourth and answered each time the Eagles plated a run. UL starter RHP Kyle Funkhouser kept the BC bats at bay, allowing just two runs on four hits and two walks over six innings. Reliever Shane Hummel picked up the save, throwing the final 2.1 scoreless innings and striking out two.
- Sophomore RHP John Witkowski threw a career-high 2.2 innings of relief work and tied a career-high with three strikeouts. He retired seven of the eight batters he faced. Braren was 1-for-2 with an RBI, walk and hit by pitch to finish the series against Louisville 2-for-3.

LAST TIME OUT: FLORIDA STATE

- The Eagles picked up a series-opening win at No. 2/3 Florida State before falling in a doubleheader to drop the series last weekend.
- In the 8-5 victory on Friday night, the Eagles jumped out to an early 5-0 lead in the third and when the Seminoles threatened in the bottom of the inning, scoring two, BC got out of the inning with one of four double plays. FSU cut the lead to two in the seventh but with runners on second and third and two outs, junior LHP Carmen Giampetruzzi got pinch hitter Kyle Cavanaugh looking to get out of the inning and preserve the BC lead.
- Sophomore RHP Jacob Stevens allowed just two runs in his six-inning start, giving up four hits, five walks and striking out five. Junior RHP Donovan Casey picked up his first save of the season, pitching a 123 ninth and striking out the final out looking. He also went 2-for-3 with two RBIs, a run scored and two walks. Senior UT Michael Strem and junior 1B Mitch Bigras also tallied two RBIs on 2-for-4 nights.
- The four double plays turned by the BC defense were the most since turning four at Wake Forest on April 4, 2015.
- The BC bats fell silent on Saturday, as the Eagles fell, 11-1 and 13-0, in the doubleheader to lose the series. Bigras drove in the Eagles' only run of the day.
- In game one, FSU jumped out to an early, 4-1 lead and did not let up, scoring seven more as BC used five pitchers in the second game of the series. FSU starter LHP Tyler Holton allowed just one unearned run, two hits and two walks while striking out eight. The BC pitching staff allowed 11 walks in the game, the most since allowing issuing 11 to Wake Forest on March 22, 2014.
- In the second game, junior INF Jake Palomaki led the way for the Eagles at the plate with a 2-for-4 day, recording his third double of the season while Strem went 1-for-4 to reach base in the last 13 games, a team season high, and record a hit in the last five games.
- Trailing only 1-0, sophomore LHP Dan Metzendorf gave up six runs in the fourth on two walks, two hit batsmen, three hits and a sacrifice fly. The Seminoles were able to add on six more runs off three other BC pitchers to collect the series win. BC pitchers hit six Seminole batters in the game, a season high.
- The 13 runs allowed were the most by the Eagles since an 18-6 loss to Bryant on April 27, 2016 and the most to an ACC opponent since a 15-6 loss to Clemson on April 10, 2015. The game also marked the first shutout for the Eagles since the 6-0 loss to Georgia Tech in the 2016 ACC Championships on May 24.

ADAMS CHOSEN TO WEAR NICTAKIS' NO. 8

- In 2011, head coach Mike Gambino started a new tradition at The Heights. Each season, a player who has battled adversity and represents the best qualities of BC Baseball wears No. 8 in honor of former player Peter "Sonny" Nictakis.
- Sonny was a two-time captain for the Eagles in 1998-99 and lost his courageous battle with Hodgkin's disease in the summer of 2000. His No. 8 had not been worn since the 1999 season and in the first year at the helm, Gambino tabbed Mike Sudol to be the first to don the number during the 2011 campaign.

- At the 2017 Baseball Night in Boston, Gambino announced senior INF Johnny Adams Gambino would be the first two-time recipient of the honor, donning No. 8 for the 2017 season. Adams was the first-ever junior selected a season ago.
- Adams, named a co-captain for the 2016-17 season, is a career .246 hitter with a .960 fielding percentage, mostly playing shortstop at The Heights. The Walpole, Mass., started all 57 games at shortstop for the Eagles in 2016. He was named to the 2016 Oxford All-Regional Team and earned Most Outstanding Player after going 7-for-12 with four doubles, three runs and three RBIs. He tied a career high with a 4-for-4 day in the regional championship against No. 15 Tulane, notched a team season-high three doubles, three RBIs and scored two runs as the Eagles swept the Regional. Adams led BC with 17 doubles and was second on the team with 60 hits and 80 total bases.
- Adams father, Jay, was a captain in 1987 under head coach Eddie Pellagrini and it is believed that they are the first father-son duo to both be captains at Boston College.
- Other former winners are: Kyle Prohovich (2012), Matt Paré (2013), Tom Bourdon (2014) and Travis Ferrick (2015).

ALL IN PERSPECTIVE

- What has Boston College accomplished as program in the last two years under head coach Mike Gambino?
- While a record 10 ACC teams made the NCAA Tournament in 2016, the Eagles were one of four (BC, Miami, Florida State and Louisville) to advance to a Super Regional. BC faced off against Miami in a conference tilt that went the maximum three games.
- BC was one of five schools (BC, Illinois, Florida, Tennessee and Louisville) to have first-round draft picks in the last two years (Chris Shaw, 31st in 2015 and Justin Dunn, 19th in 2016)
- BC is one of 19 schools to have at least one player on D1baseball.com's Top 100 Draft Prospect List (Donovan Casey) and two freshmen on D1baseball.com's Top 100 Freshmen Prospect List (Matt Gill and Dante Baldelli). BC is the only team from the Northeast on the list and one of six ACC Teams (Florida State, NC State, Miami, Virginia, Louisville).
- Along with BC, Louisville is the only other team in the ACC to have consecutive first-round draft picks the last two years, make the 2016 Super Regional, have two freshmen on the Top 100 Prospect List and at least one player on the Top 100 2017 Draft Prospect List.

EAGLES WILL HONOR FRATES AT FENWAY

- The Boston College baseball team will play the Sixth Annual ALS Awareness Game at Fenway Park on Saturday, April 22 at 4 p.m. against Atlantic Coast Conference foe NC State.
- The game is played in honor of former captain Pete Frates who was diagnosed with ALS in March 2012.
- Tickets will be general admission for $10 with all proceeds benefiting the Pete Frates #3 Fund. Fans can purchase them by visiting redsox.com/ALSGame or at the gate the day of the game. The fund was created to aid in Frates' medical costs not covered by health insurance.
- The teams will also honor Chris Combs, who played baseball for NC State from 1994-97 and was diagnosed with ALS in May 2016. He is an associate director with the Wolfpack Club. He is also fighting to bring awareness and funds to the disease.
- Each year since Frates' diagnosis, the Eagles have held an ALS Awareness Game at Eddie Pellagrini Diamond at Commander Shea Field. In each of the last five seasons, over 2,000 fans have been in attendance to show their support for a cause very close the BC community's heart. Last year Frates' No. 3 was retired and in 2015, the largest crowd in Shea Field history, 3,033 fans, attended the Eagles' ALS game against Georgia Tech.
- The Eagles have played 36 times at Fenway Park, all in the Baseball Beanpot Tournament. They hold a 25-10-1 record in the iconic venue.
- Frates was diagnosed with Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) at 27 years old. Since then, he, along with his family and friends, have worked tirelessly to raise awareness and funds to find a cure for the disease. In the summer of 2014, Frates championed the Ice Bucket Challenge through the use of social media. Along with the amount of awareness brought to ALS, over $220 million was raised to help find a cure.
- Frates completed his own ice bucket challenge to cap off the historic August 2014 at Fenway Park and during the spring training game between the Eagles and Red Sox in 2015, the teams donned No. 3 jerseys in honor of Frates at JetBlue Park in Fort Myers, Fla. Both sets were put up for auction to benefit his fund. The Red Sox also signed him to a contract to make him part of the organization before opening day the same year.
- A Beverly, Mass., native, Frates played in the outfield for the Maroon and Gold from 2004-07. A captain his senior year, he finished his BC career with 107 starts, a .228 average, 88 hits, 56 RBIs, 11 home runs and 34 stolen bases.
- To learn more about Frates, visit www.petefrates.com and for Combs' story visit www.teamchriscombs.org.

FRATES: AN INSPIRATION FOR ALL

- In November 2016, the NCAA announced that former BC baseball captain Pete Frates, who has been battling ALS in the public spotlight for almost five years, was the recipient of the 2017 NCAA Inspiration Award.
- The Inspiration Award is presented to a coach or administrator currently associated with intercollegiate athletics, or to a current or former varsity letter winner at an NCAA institution. It is reserved for people, who when confronted with a life-altering situation, used perseverance, dedication and determination to overcome their trauma, and, most importantly, are role models giving hope and inspiration to others in similar situations.

- Normally, the award is presented to the recipient at the NCAA Honors Celebration at the NCAA Convention each year, but because it is very difficult for Frates to travel long distances, NCAA president Dr. Mark Emmert presented Frates the award in his home in Beverly, Mass., in front of his family, friends, former teammates, the entire baseball team, media and local government leaders.
- "This is just amazing," Emmert said, alluding to the fact the Frates household was filled with guests. "The fact that you have touched all of these lives so much that they wanted to be here for this moment is pretty impressive. This is an incredible crowd. It also speaks to what this award is about. The NCAA gives an inspiration award every year to someone in athletics, typically a former student-athlete, who has done something that has inspired people to go above and beyond themselves and this room says everything that needs to be said. Pete, you obviously have an extraordinary family, a beautiful daughter, a wonderful wife and a great support system. What you have been able to do to inspire so many people to support this cause is monumental. It is, in fact, inspirational. We couldn't be more proud to come here and present you and your family with this award."
- In January, Frates' father John and brother Andrew accepted the award on his behalf in Nashville, Tenn., at the annual dinner.

TWICE AS NICE

- Not only will Boston College host the Sixth Annual ALS Awareness Game at Fenway Park, but the Eagles will play the annual Baseball Beanpot in the historic venue three days before, on Wednesday, April 19.
- It will be the 21st time the historic ballpark hosts the four-team tournament since its inception in 1990
- Ticket proceeds ($10, general admission) will also benefit the Pete Frates #3 Fund. They can be purchased at www.redsox.com/beanpot or at the gate the day of the game.
- The first round of the Beanpot will take place on campus locations on Wednesday, April 5 as BC will host Northeastern and Harvard will host Massachusetts. Both games will start at 3 p.m.
- April 19 will begin with the consolation game at 3 p.m. followed by the Beanpot Championship game approximately 45 minutes after the conclusion of the first game. Ballpark gates will open at 2 p.m.
- The Eagles are 35-16-1 in the Beanpot and have a record 11 titles. They have won the last two championships and three under seven-year head coach Mike Gambino. In 2006, Frates was named Beanpot MVP - an award no longer given out - after a 4-for-4 day with a home run into Fenway's right field bullpen, a double and three RBIs as the Eagles defeated Harvard, 10-2, for the title.

BIRDS IN THE CAPE

- Four members of the Boston College baseball team saw action in the prestigious Cape Cod Baseball League during the 2016 summer: senior INF Johnny Adams, juniors INF Jake Palomaki and OF/RHP Donovan Casey and sophomore RHP Jacob Stevens.
- Adams hit .254 for the Harwich Mariners, playing there for the second straight summer. He recorded 31 hits, including six doubles, a triple and one home run, nine RBIs and 11 walks over 33 games. He recorded a .943 fielding percentage. He was voted the winner of the Daniel J. Silva Sportsmanship Award by the league's umpires.

FIFTH ANNUAL WWP GAME SET

- BC baseball will team up with the Wounded Warrior Project (WWP) for the fifth straight year to honor current and former U.S. military members for the April 29 game against Miami.
- The Eagles will wear specially-designed Under Armour uniforms and local veterans will be honored during the game.
- On Thursday, April 27, the Eagles invite local military members to campus to engage in a softball game on Shea Field.

BC ON TV

- The Eagles are scheduled to be televised at least 16 times during the 2017 season, including an ESPNU broadcast for the Sixth Annual ALS Awareness Game at Fenway Park on April 22. The Eagles will host NC State at 4 p.m.
- BC will also appear on the ACC Network Extra, which is streamed online through WatchESPN, as well as Sooner

Sports TV at Oklahoma.

- All three games of the series at Florida State (March 10-12), at Louisville (March 17-19), at Duke (April 14-16) and at Wake Forest (May 5-7) will be on the ACCNE. The first game at Virginia Tech on March 31 will also be broadcast.
- A total of 374 Atlantic Coast Conference games will be broadcast across ESPN and regional networks, which is the most in league history and more than twice as many as the previous record of 176.
- The 2017 ACC Baseball Championship, scheduled for May 23-28 in Louisville, Ky., will be televised in its entirety.

BAND TOGETHER TO STRIKE OUT ALS

- For the second straight year, former BC captain and ALS patient and advocate Pete Frates is calling on baseball teams across the country to band together to raise awareness for amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS).
- In 2016, Frates and his family launched "Band Together to Strike Out ALS" to encourage teams to wear a special wristband in May, which is ALS Awareness Month, to raise awareness for Lou Gehrig's Disease, which Frates was diagnosed with in March 2012.
- Band Together to Strike Out ALS was formulated by the Frates family, BC head coach Mike Gambino, Wake Forest head coach Tom Walter and CollegeBaseballInsider.com co-founder Sean Ryan. The wristbands read "Strike Out ALS" and feature Frates' initials and number (PF3) and are available for purchase here. Proceeds from the wristbands support the fund raising efforts of Frates.
- BC and all the ACC programs donned the wristbands during the final weekend of the 2016 ACC season. In addition, the Boston Red Sox joined the Eagles in wearing the wristbands in the exhibition game in February. Across New England, college, high school and Little League teams supported Frates and raised awareness by wearing the specially-designed wristbands. Collegiate teams from the Big 12, MAC and Southern also participated.

2017 CAPTAINS

- Senior INF Johnny Adams and junior RHP Bobby Skogsbergh were voted captains of the 2017 BC baseball team.
- "Leadership starts with character and integrity and those are off the charts with Johnny and Bobby. The leadership of our club last year - starting with Joe (Cronin) and Scores (Nick Sciortino), along with the other juniors and seniors - would be really hard to follow up but having these two boys step into those roles, I believe, is going to allow us not to miss a beat as far as our leadership. Just like last year, the captains have included the junior and senior class in a lot of the leadership of this ball club, which allowed the team to be successful, and this team will do the same thing. I love these two as leaders and I love the group of upperclassmen that we have." - Mike Gambino

NEW ADDITION TO THE STAFF

- Alex Trezza was named BC's associate head baseball coach in July.
- Coming to The Heights after a two-year stint at the helm of LIU-Brooklyn, Trezza spent time at Sacred Heart, New Haven, Adelphi University and Anna Maria College.
- Trezza, Stony Brook's first All-American, works with the BC pitching staff and catching core.
- He has been a featured presenter, including at the World Baseball Coaches' Convention, with presentations that include "The Hierarchy of Catching" and "The Prepared Catcher."
- Before his coaching days, Trezza was a standout player at Stony Brook, becoming the program's first All-American. He earned Freshman of The Year and New York State Baseball Conference Player of the Year honors in his first season in 1999. He holds several school records, including single-season home runs (23), career home runs (55) and career RBIs (176). Trezza was drafted in the 18th round by the Detroit Tigers following his junior year and played four seasons in the organization. He received the Most Improved Player award in 2003 in High Class-A Lakeland. Trezza graduated from Stony Brook with a bachelor's degree in political science in 2004.

seventh season
Boston College '99

Mike Gambino, a 1999 Boston College graduate, was named head baseball coach on July 19, 2010. In 2016, he brought the Eagles to the program's first NCAA Tournament in seven years and the team's third-ever Atlantic Coast Conference Championship appearance.

Gambino guided the 2016 Eagles to 35 overall wins, the most since 2005, tying for the second most in program history. They also tallied 13 ACC wins, the most since 2010, while their six conference series victories set a school record. BC swept the Oxford Regional as the three seed to advance to the program's first-ever Super Regional and move on for the first time in 49 years. BC also earned national ranking for the first time in school history, ending the season in the top 25 in all four major polls (15th - D1Baseball, 16th - Baseball America, NCBWA and 21st - USA Today/Coaches Poll).

For his efforts, Gambino was named the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Northeast Region Coach of the Year, was a D1Baseball finalist for Coach of the Year and earned a spot on the website's top-10 coaching performances of the season.

Gambino saw Justin Dunn garner All-America third-team honors, the first pitcher to do so since 2009, and newcomer Jacob Stevens collect freshman All-America honors from two media outlets, the first BC honoree since 2002. Stevens picked up New England Intercollegiate Baseball Association (NEIBA) Freshman of the Year accolades and All-ACC Freshman team honors, while Dun was named to the All-ACC Third Team and four players were named to the NEIBA All-New England team.

The 2016 Eagles ranked in the top five on 13 school record lists, including setting the program record for walks (240), tying the record for saves (14), and ranking second in opponent batting average (.245). Ten Eagles ranked on 26 of BC's career top-10 lists while eight Eagles found themselves 17 times on single-season, top-10 lists.

In his last two seasons, Gambino has mentored two first-round draft picks: Dunn, taken 19th overall by the New York Mets in 2016, and Chris Shaw, taken 31st overall by the San Francisco Giants. Shaw earned a spot on the Class A Advanced California League All-Star roster in 2016 and participated in the home run derby competition. The 2016 season saw five baseball players drafted - Dunn, Michael King (12th round), Jesse Adams (14th round), Nick Sciortino (19th round) and Joe Cronin (34th round).

In 2015, Gambino logged his 100th career win as a head coach in the final game of the season with a walk-off, 10th-inning victory against No. 24 Notre Dame. The Eagles ranked in the top five on six school record lists, including the second-fewest walks (231), the third-best fielding percentage (.976) and the pitching staff recording the fourth-most strikeouts (433). BC also ranked sixth on the year in the ACC in stolen bases (63) and doubles per game (1.78), fifth for stolen bases per game (1.17) and walks per game (4.28) and second in fielding percentage.

Four players from the 2015 team were drafted in the MLB First-Year Players Draft, including Shaw, the first BC first-rounder since. Pitchers John Gorman (31st round) and Jeff Burke (32nd round) and infielder Blake Butera (35th round) were also taken. Four Eagles earned New England Intercollegiate Baseball Association (NEIBA) All-New England accolades while Gorman was named to the ACC All-Academic Team and Shaw collected All-ACC Second-Team, Perfect Game USA All-American Third-Team and American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) All-Northeast First-Team honors.

The Eagles went 17-33 in Gambino's first season at the helm, but he saw four players get selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft. In 2011, the Eagles improved to 20-33, winning 10 games in the highly-competitive ACC. In just one year, the team's batting average improved 19 points, slugging percentage 54 points and on-base percentage 27 points.

In his second year, Gambino saw infielder Anthony Melchionda and outfielder Tom Bourdon earn All-ACC second-team honors and take home ABCA All-Northeast Region and NEIBA All-Star accolades. Melchionda and classmate Matt Brazis were both drafted in the 2012 MLB Draft.

A young team in 2013, the Eagles regularly started five freshmen, and Gambino worked to improve through the year. The overall batting average, on-base percentage and slugging percentage all rose significantly from the first half of the season to the second and the Eagles doubled their win total.

In his fourth year at The Heights, Gambino saw the more improvement, recording 22 wins and tying for the most in conference, going 10-20 in the ACC. Shaw earned First-Team All-ACC and ABCA honors while pitcher Andrew Chin was drafted in the 15th round.

Since taking over at the Heights, Gambino has stressed off the field success as well, raising the team's GPA as a whole. Eagles have earned six spots on the All-ACC Academic baseball team and 52 on the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

Gambino, who was an assistant coach for the Eagles from 2003-05, came from Virginia Tech where he spent four seasons as an assistant coach under former BC head coach, Pete Hughes. He served as the Hokies' recruiting coordinator and also worked with the hitters and infielders. In his four years, he saw 15 players get drafted in the MLB Draft, including nine in 2010. From 1997 through 2006, only 13 Hokies were drafted in total.

Virginia Tech's batting average improved 40 points under Gambino's direction since the 2006 season. With his help, the 2010 Hokies made their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2000 and finished the season ranked No. 20 in the country.

Prior to working in Blacksburg, Gambino spent two years as a regional scout for the Detroit Tigers.

Gambino played for the Eagles from 1997-2000, starting 166 games in the middle infield. He held a career batting average of .313 with 22 doubles, eight homers, 87 RBIs and 117 runs. His 78 hits in 2000, which was No. 1 when he graduated, was tied for fifth, until 2011, when his own player, Bourdon, knocked it down one with 79 hits of his own. Gambino's 52 runs his final year is still tied for eighth.

The Garrison, N.Y., native was a first-team All-Big East, All-New England and All-Northeast region honoree following his senior campaign. He also earned second-team All-New England and Big East Academic Team accolades during his playing career.

Following his career with BC, Gambino played two seasons in the Boston Red Sox minor league system. He spent the 2000 season with the Augusta Green Jackets before splitting the 2001 season between Augusta and the Lowell Spinners. In 2002, the Red Sox hired Gambino as a special assistant to the Major League staff before heading back to Lowell for a coaching role with the Spinners just prior to the June draft. Following his stint in Lowell, the Red Sox sent Gambino to the MLB Scout Development Program.

In January 2003, Gambino returned to Boston College as an assistant coach under Hughes.

Gambino received his bachelor's degree from the Heights in English and theology. He currently lives in Newton, Mass., with his wife, Jill, and their son, Sonny.
