TOM MCELROY AWARD AN EAGLE FOR ALL-TIME

Tom McElroy was a very special young man. He came to the Heights from Boston College High, where he was an All-Conference midfielder. In the fall of his freshman year, Tom elected not to try out for the squad. His determination to focus on his studies exclusively, lasted less than a semester. He joined the team for the indoor soccer program that winter.

The culmination of the indoor season was the prestigious UConn tournament that attracted some 30 teams. BC was to participate, but almost withdrew because it lost its goalkeepers to injuries and exams. Into the breach stepped Tom. Playing a totally unfamiliar position, the converted midfielder led the Eagles to a surprising fourth place finish, and was named the all-tournament goalkeeper. Tom's collegiate soccer career had begun. Tom was a tireless worker, willing to make any sacrifice to become a top flight collegiate goaltender. His work ethic was without parallel, and by his senior year, 1979, he was a top college keeper, and a definite pro prospect.

In 1979 Boston College upgraded its schedule to include national powers St. Louis and San Francisco. St. Louis bested the Eagles, 2-0, but co-captain McElroy stopped three breakaways. San Francisco, defending NCAA champs, couldn't get the ball past him. In an early season snow-storm, the teams battled to a 0-0 tie, as Tom robbed four USF players of breakaway goals. "By 1979, he was the best I'd ever seen against the breakaway," commented Ben Brewster, BC's soccer coach.

In January of his senior year, Tom and his family learned that he was suffering from cancer. Treatments began, and things looked hopeful for awhile. Because he had only played three years of varsity soccer, Tom decided to return the next fall and play a final varsity season. Although he wasn't as physically strong as before, and had to miss some games for treatments or recuperation, Tom let on to no one. Only Coach Brewster and Bill Flynn, BC's Athletic Director, knew of his illness. Tom played half the games in a successful 15-3-3 season. His final appearance was a 3-1 ECAC play-off victory over Bridgeport, the Eagles' first soccer championship.

Tom was an outstanding goaltender, but what endures are the impressions he made on those who knew him: "Tom McElroy was the kind of person you would pick first if you were building a team from scratch. He was the first one at practice. If something had to be done he was always there. If you needed a smiling face to drop by, he invariably showed up. He was just a fabulous young man", commented Ben Brewster. "Every time we ran a clinic for a youth group, the kids would flock to him. They really loved him. He was a great teacher with incredible patience", noted a former teammate. Another teammate noted "...Hardly a day in my life goes by without some thought of Boston College; and I often remember fondly my friendship both on and off the field with Tom. In my mind, his memory is a challenge, not just to the recipients of the Scholarship, but to each of us as Boston College Alumni.... - to push ourselves a little harder - to be the best that we can be at work or play, or in our personal lives. Tom's zest for life is still with us who were fortunate to know him....." When Tom completed his career, he had set Boston College soccer records for most games played (43), most shutouts in a season (10) and career (20), and lowest goals against average in a career (1.05).

Tom died on July 17, 1981, at age 22, succumbing to cancer after a characteristically courageous battle. On October 23, 1987, Tom was inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame, the first soccer player so honored.

In September, 2000, almost 20 years after Tom died, the McElroy family received this note from another of Tom's teammates, "...I often think of Tom's passing in the summer between my sophomore and junior years at BC. My clearest memory of Tom off the soccer field is the way he befriended the freshman players on the soccer team each year. He always reached out to the new guys in a way that none of the other upper-classmen did..."

The McElroy family established the Tom McElroy Memorial Scholarship on November 16, 1983, with an initial balance of $3,095, representing contributions to Boston College in Tom's memory. In 2005, it became the first athletic memorial scholarship at BC to exceed $1m, and continues to be the number one athletic memorial scholarship. From inception through the end of the 2009-2010 academic year, 93 student-athletes have received aid totaling $840,967. Chris Ager, from Gjetttum, Norway, a second-semester freshman in the College of Arts & Sciences, is the 2010 soccer player who best demonstrates the qualities and attributes we remember so well in Tom. All recipients, including Chris, exhibit Tom's enthusiasm for soccer and dedication to excellence.
