EAGLES LOOK FOR FIRST CONFERENCE WIN

- The Boston College field hockey team has won all seven of its non-conference games, including four ranked opponents, but the Eagles are still looking for their first conference win.
- The Eagles have lost Syracuse, at North Carolina in overtime and at Virginia, all ACC teams ranked in the top 10.
- After each BC loss, the Eagles responded with victories in the following games, including two shutouts, defeating Providence, 4-0, then 18th-ranked William & Mary on the road, 3-0, and a 5-4, double-overtime win against Pacific.

STICKING TO THE TOP 10

- The Eagles started the season ranked 12th in the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) preseason poll, but quickly moved up to the No. 8 spot after a 4-0 start. BC also received one first-place vote.
- After dropping to No. 10, they returned to the eighth spot last week and are No. 9 this week.
- The Eagles have played seven ranked teams and have defeated four of them with two wins against higher-ranked teams.
- All seven Atlantic Coast Conference teams are ranked in the top 20 for the fifth straight poll. Duke is in the No. 2 spot with Virginia just behind at No. 3. North Carolina is fifth, Syracuse seventh and BC ninth. Louisville and Wake Forest round of the conference at 12th and 13th, respectively.
- BC plays six more teams ranked in the top 25 in 2017, including top-ranked Connecticut (Oct. 29), No. 14 Harvard (Oct. 8) and No. 22 Boston University (Oct. 15).
- The Eagles are 4-3 against ranked teams this season, falling to three top-10 opponents.
- The win over then-No. 6 Maryland was the seventh time under head coach Kelly Doton BC beat a top-10 team.

YOUNG GUNS

- The Eagles freshman class has scored 14 of the team's 26 goals in 2017.
- The first-year class has also amassed 32 of the team's 69 total points.
- Freshman Jaime Natale leads the way with four goals while classmate Caroline McGovern is the only BC player to have two gamewinners. Freshmen Elizabeth Warner and Fusine Govaert have one apiece, accounting for five of the Eagles' seven total.
- Warner is also tied for second on the team with three goals.

SPREADING THE LOVE

- Through the first half of the season, the scoring has been spread out among 12 different Eagles.
- Freshmen Jaime Natale leads the way with four goals each.
- Four different Eagles - senior Brooke Matherson, junior Lucy Lytle and freshmen Elizabeth Warner and Fusine Govaert - have three each.
- McGovern has two of the Eagles' seven game-winners with Matherson, Natale, Warner, Govaert and Lytle each scoring one.
- Two BC players have logged three assists each - senior Alesandra Miller and junior Ymke Rose Gote - while senior Chelcie Mendonca, junior Frederique Haverhals and freshman Caroline McGovern have two.
- In all, 14 of the Eagles' 21 who have logged minutes have recorded at least one point.

EXTRA, EXTRA

- Four of the Eagles' 10 games have gone to extra time with BC winning three of them.
- The Eagles are 3-0 in double overtime games in 2017 and lost one bid in overtime.
- After a 2-1, double OT win against Albany (Aug. 27) in New York, BC took Northwestern to double overtime in Lancaster, Pa., pulling out a 3-2 victory (Sept. 1).
- BC forced overtime against the Tar Heels in North Carolina with the equalizing goal in the 61st minute, but could not pull out the extra-time victory (Sept. 16).
- The Eagles combined with Pacific to score a season-high nine goals in a 5-4, double overtime win (Sept. 24), rallying from down one three times to win on senior Brooke Matherson's first career game-winning goal.

THE ONE AND ONLY

- Sophomore Sarah Dwyer is the only goalie on the BC roster in 2017.
- She logged just over six minutes in her freshman campaign as Audra Hampsh's backup.

- Her 35 saves is second in the ACC.

CELEBRATING CHAMPIONS

- The BC field hockey team will honor the 1997 Big East championship team at the Eagles' game against Louisville on Friday, Oct. 6. It marks the 20th anniversary of one of BC's three conference tournament titles. It is also Boston College's Homecoming Weekend.
- The Eagles will honor the 1997 team at halftime of the ACC contest at the Newton Campus Complex, which starts at 6 p.m. There will also be a post-game reception for all field hockey alumnae.

- All former players and their families are also invited to a pregame tailgate on Saturday, Oct. 7 before the BC football team takes on Virginia Tech at Alumni Stadium. The 1997 team will be honored during the game.
- To close out the weekend, the BC field hockey team hosts Harvard at 1 p.m. on Sunday.
- Field hockey alumnae can RSVP to the weekend's events at www.bceagles.com/BCFHHomecoming.

MURPHY'S LAW

- The Eagles will host its 11th annual MS Game in honor of former student-athlete Kathleen Murphy, a 2009 Boston College graduate, on Oct. 8 when the Eagles host Harvard.
- Murphy was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (MS) in April 2007, then a forward on the BC field hockey team. MS is a disease of the central nervous system that disrupts the flow of information between the brain and body.
- Refusing to let the disease win, Murphy played 79 games in her BC career, scored 11 times, recorded nine assists and racked up 31 points.
- Since 2007, the BC field hockey team has participated in the MS Walk each year as part of "Murphy's Law."
- Murphy's former coach Ainslee Lamb, who was at BC's helm for 10 years, will be in attendance as she is working with the Harvard field hockey team.

HAVERHALS EARNS PRESEASON HONORS

- Junior Frederique Haverhals was named to the Preseason All-Atlantic Coast Conference's Team. The Eagles' captain earned first-team All-America accolades a season ago.
- The Warmond, The Netherlands, native has started all 42 games in her BC career. She was an All-ACC Second-Team selection in 2016 and collected NFHCA All-Northeast Region Second-Team honors in 2015. Last year, Haverhals led the Eagles with seven assists and finished the year fourth on the team with 17 points, scoring five goals. She had a five-game point streak at the end of last season as BC made its fourth straight NCAA Tournament.
- Enrolled in the Carroll School of Management, Haverhals earned a spot on the NFHCA National Academic Squad and the All-ACC Academic Team.
- Seven of the 11 members of the preseason squad were named NFHCA All-Americans in 2016, including five who earned first-team honors.

WATCH THE EAGLES LIVE

- A total of 28 of Boston College's home, regular-season fall athletic events will be streamed on ACC Network Extra, part of the school's early-season schedule that was released Wednesday morning. ACC Network Extra broadcasts can be found on WatchESPN, ESPN's online home.
- Among the events being streamed in the fall are five field hockey games.
- Live streaming of Olympic sports will increase annually conference-wide, culminating with 1,300 total ACC events when the linear network launches in 2019.
- The field hockey games left to be streamed are: Louisville (Oct. 8), Harvard (Oct. 10) and Northeastern (Oct. 13).

NEW ADDITIONS

- Two new faces joined the BC field hockey staff since the team's fourth straight NCAA Tournament bid last season. Third-year head coach Kelly Doton hired Mark Foster and Nicole Cordero as assistant coaches.
- Foster joined in February, coming to The Heights after two and a half years with one of the top club programs in the country, WC Eagles, based in Pottstown, Pa. With WC Eagles, Foster was part of the coaching staffs of five teams that won the USA National Club Championships. He's also spent two seasons as a staff member with USA Field Hockey's National Indoor Team. Before coming to the U.S., Foster began his coaching career in England at his alma mater, Durham University.
- Cordero joined the staff in August after spending four years as the Oak Park Forest High School in her native Illinois. She played forward at Massachusetts from 2009 to 2013, earning NFHCA Second-Team Regional All-American honors and Atlantic-10 Conference First-Team honors as a senior.

2017 CAPTAINS

- Juniors Ymke Rose Gote and Frederique Haverhals were named the captains of the team for the 2017 season, head coach Kelly Doton announced at the team's annual banquet in the spring.
- "I firmly believe the success of a team starts with its leadership," head coach

Kelly Doton said. "Every spring, we go through a thorough captain selection process. Ymke and Frederique have been leaders since they stepped foot on our campus and have overwhelmingly impacted their teammates. And as a result, they were voted captains. With these two at the helm, I know the team will always be put first and they will strive to make sure everyone is living up to the standards of wearing a Boston College field hockey jersey."

USA EAGLES

- Sophomore Sarah Dwyer was selected to USA Field Hockey's Under-21 Junior National Camp. The goalie competed in the 2017 Young Women's National Championship, a five-day event that included most elite collegiate and post-collegiate field hockey players in the country at the Home of Hockey at Spooky Nook Sports in Lancaster, Pa.
- More than 130 athletes showcased their skills in front of coaches and selectors in order to progress within the Olympic Development Pipeline.
- Recent graduates Emily and Eryn McCoy, along with 2015 graduate Leah Settipane, were named to USA Field Hockey's Development Squad National Camp.

ACC PRESEASON POLL

- The Eagles were picked to finish seventh in the league's preseason poll, voted by the conference's head coaches.
- North Carolina was chosen as the favorite to win the 2017 title.
- ACC teams have won 18 of the 36 NCAA field hockey titles, including 11 of the last 15, and at least one ACC squad has advanced to the national championship game for 18 straight years. Six ACC programs earned bids to the 2016 NCAA Championship and all seven finished the 2016 season ranked nationally.

2017 ACC Field Hockey Predicted Order of Finish

1. North Carolina (1) - 31
2. Duke (2) - 27
2. Syracuse (2) - 27
4. Louisville (1) - 22
5. Virginia (1) - 21

Head Coach Kelly Doton

Kelly Doton was promoted to head coach of the Boston College field hockey program on April 1, 2015. She is the eighth head field hockey coach in Boston College history.

In two seasons at the program's helm, Doton has led the Eagles to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2015 and 2016. She is the first coach in program history to lead the team to NCAA Tournament appearances in each of her first two seasons at the helm.

While leading the Eagles, she has produced four NFHCA All-Americans, including two each in 2015 (Emily McCoy and Leah Settupane) and 2016 (Frederique Haverhals and Ymke Rose Gote), as well as 12 NFHCA All-Northeast Region honorees and six All-ACC performers. In 2016, a program-record four Eagles earned all-conference accolades: Gote, Audra Hampsch, Haverhals and Emily McCoy.

The Greenfield, Mass., product has been with the Eagles since 2012 when she joined the program as associate head coach. She held the same position at Indiana prior to her arrival at The Heights.

In 2016, Doton's Eagles played the nation's second-toughest schedule and finished the year with a 10-10 mark. Of their 20 games, 14 were against ranked opponents – including all six ACC conference foes. Despite the challenge, BC went 3-3 in league play and tied its best-ever finish in the conference. The Eagles claimed the No. 3 seed in the ACC Championship. Boston College drew its fourth-straight NCAA Tournament berth, the longest run of consecutive appearances in program history.

In Doton's first year at the helm, the Eagles finished 13-9, defeating six ranked opponents and earning a 5-0 mark in overtime games. BC's highlights included the team's first-ever victory over Maryland, its first-ever ACC Championship victory and advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in program history and the first since 1998.

Before her promotion to head coach, Doton served as Ainslee Lamb's associate head coach for three seasons. After a three-year absence from the NCAA Tournament, the Eagles returned to the postseason in 2013 with a 12-8 record. In 2014, BC went 13-7 with five wins over ranked opponents, including upsets over No. 2 UConn, No. 4 Syracuse, No. 7 Louisville and No. 8 Virginia.

Doton came to BC from Indiana, where she had been coaching since 2008. She was an assistant coach for four seasons before being named the Hoosiers' associate head coach in 2011. In 2009, she was instrumental in helping Indiana reach the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history after finishing second in league standings and reaching the Big Ten Tournament title game.

A 2004 graduate of Wake Forest, Doton was an asset to the Demon Deacons on both sides of the ball during her collegiate career, helping to lead her squad to back-to-back NCAA championships in 2002 and 2003. Providing her team with her disciplined defensive skills, and quickly establishing herself as one of the best attack corner hitters in the country, she was honored as the 2003 Honda Award winner, the National Field Hockey Player of the Year.

In addition to being named the ACC Player of the Year in 2002, she was also a two-time NFHCA First-Team All-American and a three-time All-ACC honoree during her career.

In addition to her collegiate playing experience, Doton was a member of the U.S. Women's Senior National Team from 2005-10. In 2008, she was part of the U.S. squad that competed in the Summer Olympics in Beijing, China. She began her career with Team USA on the New Zealand Tour and scored her first international goal against Australia in 2005.

Prior to playing at Wake, Doton was a standout at Greenfield High School, where she broke the school's scoring record as a senior and was tabbed as the team's MVP in 1999. She earned all-league honors in 1997 and 1998, in addition to being named to the All-Western Massachusetts Squad. She also earned Northeastern All-American honors as a sophomore.

Doton earned her Master's Degree in Administrative Studies from Boston College in 2015.
