THE GREGORY P. BARBER '69 AND FAMILY HEAD COACH: JEFF HAFLEY

Jeff Hafley was introduced as The Gregory P. Barber '69 and Family Head Coach of the Boston College football program on Dec. 14, 2019. Hafley, the co-defensive coordinator for Ohio State in 2019, was introduced on Dec. 16 inside the Yawkey Athletics Center.

Hafley is the 36th head coach in Boston College history.

Hafley led a dramatic turnaround in leading the defense for Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the 2019 Big Ten championship and qualified for the College Football Playoff.

A finalist for the Frank Broyles Award and the 247Sports Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Hafley was one of the architects of a Buckeye defense that ranks first nationally in yards per play (3.9), second nationally in total defense (247.6 yards per game), third nationally in scoring defense (12.5 points per game), third nationally in sacks (3.92 per game), seventh nationally in rushing defense (99.5 yards per game), second nationally in passing yards allowed (148.1 yards per game) and first nationally in red zone defense (64.2%).

Hafley's first season in Columbus saw Ohio State jump from 72nd nationally in 2018 to first nationally in 2019 in yards per play.

A standout defensive backs coach throughout his career in the NFL and collegiate ranks, Hafley's work as the defensive backs coach at Ohio State has led to impressive results. The Buckeyes totaled 15 interceptions in 2019, tied for ninth nationally, while allowing just 25 pass plays of 20+ yards.

Before arriving at Ohio State, Hafley spent the previous seven seasons in the NFL and most recently three seasons with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach.

Prior to his time with San Francisco, Hafley was the secondary coach for two seasons in Cleveland, the secondary/safeties coach with Tampa Bay in 2013 and a defensive backs assistant with the Buccaneers in 2012.

Hafley, who will coach his 20th season in 2020, has extensive ties as an elite recruiter during his coaching stops at Pittsburgh and Rutgers. A native of Montvale, N.J., Hafley played four seasons as a wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000, graduating cum laude in 2001 with a degree in history.

He earned his master's degree from Albany in 2003.

His coaching career includes 11 seasons in collegiate football before a move to the NFL in 2012, and then seven subsequent seasons there. After starting his career working as running backs coach for one season (2001) at Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic University, Hafley moved on to the University of Albany for four seasons as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach (2002-05).

He then coached at the University of Pittsburgh for five seasons (2006-10) where he worked under the direction of Dave Wannstedt and helped mentor Darrelle Revis into a Jim Thorpe Award finalist in 2006.

Hafley was a defensive assistant/cornerbacks coach in 2006-07 and was secondary coach from 2008-10.

One season as the defensive backs coach at Rutgers, working under Greg Schiano, followed his positions at Pittsburgh. The Scarlet Knights ranked ninth nationally in passing defense in his one season there, 2011. Hafley helped develop future NFL standout defensive backs Duron Harmon and Logan Ryan during his time in Piscataway.

Hafley moved on to the NFL following his year at Rutgers and coached two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving as an assistant defensive backs coach in 2012 and secondary/safeties coach in 2013.

Two seasons with the Cleveland Browns, under coach Mike Pettine, followed. In 2014, his second season with the Browns, the team led the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1), opponent completion percentage (57.1) and in passes defended with 99, plus ranked second in the league with 21 interceptions.

Three seasons as defensive backs coach with the San Francisco 49ers - 2016, 2017 and 2018 - preceded Hafley's position with the Buckeyes. He worked under Chip Kelly in 2016 and under Kyle Shanahan the past two seasons. In 2018, the 49ers ranked 11th in the league in passing defense. They were 14th in 2016 after ranking 27th in 2015, the year before Hafley arrived.

Hafley and his wife, Gina, have two daughters, Hope and Leah.

Aazaar Abdul-Rahim Defensive Backs/Def. Pass Game Coordinator

Aazaar Abdul-Rahim begins his first season as defensive backs coach/defensive pass game coordinator at Boston College. Abdul-Rahim comes to the Heights after spending the 2019 season at UMass as defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach.

The Washington, D.C., native is highly regarded for his coaching acumen and equally sought after for his established ability to evaluate and recruit. Abdul-Rahim has experience at the high school and collegiate levels, including Alabama and Maryland.

Prior to UMass, Abdul-Rahim spent the three seasons at Maryland working in the secondary. Abdul-Rahim developed Maryland's defensive backs into one of the strongest units in the Big Ten, with all-conference recognition given to Darnell Savage, Jr., and Antoine Brooks, Jr., in 2017 and 2018, JC Jackson in 2017 and Tino Ellis in 2018.

In addition to his coaching duties, Abdul-Rahim was instrumental in the Terps' recruiting efforts. He was a key factor in Maryland signing a consensus top-20 recruiting class in 2017 and a top-30 group in 2018. During his final two years as a member of the staff, Maryland inked 17 four-star student-athletes and eight members of the ESPN300 to National Letters of Intent. As a result, Abdul-Rahim was recognized by 247Sports in 2018 as one of the top recruiting assistant coaches in the Big Ten.

Overall, 2018 was a rousing success on the recruiting trail and in the secondary for the Terrapins. Abdul-Rahim oversaw the recruiting efforts as Maryland collected its consensus top-30 class before he helped the Terps' defense develop into one of the most disruptive in the nation. The defense recorded 23 turnovers forced, including 18 interceptions and five fumble recoveries, and added 32 pass breakups. The 18 interceptions rank tied for the fifth-most in FBS during the season.

In 2017, Abdul-Rahim was vital in aiding the Terps in landing nine of the top 20 players from the state of Maryland and three of the top nine players from Washington, D.C. Rivals.com and 247Sports recognized him as one of the top 25 recruiters nationally for the class of 2017.

Abdul-Rahim also made an impact coaching Maryland's defensive backs. In 2017, the Terps posted 10 interceptions on the year, which ranked as the most for a Maryland team since 2003.

Abdul-Rahim joined the Maryland staff in 2016 after a two-year stint at Alabama where he first served as a defensive analyst in 2014 before he was promoted to the assistant director of player personnel in 2015.

During his two seasons at Alabama, the Crimson Tide were selected for the College Football Playoffs in both years and won the national championship during 2015. Additionally, they collected the No. 1-ranked recruiting class in the nation during each season, according to 247Sports.

Abdul-Rahim, a Washington, D.C. native, made his mark in his hometown as the head coach of Friendship Collegiate Academy. After he founded the school's football program in 2004, Abdul-Rahim turned it into a national powerhouse and accumulated 62 wins during his tenure while he also led the team to a District of Columbia State Athletic Association championship in 2012. He helped over 100 players earn scholarships to play college football.

Abdul-Rahim is also the founder "Cover One", a defensive back training academy that works with dozens of NFL players on skill development.

Abdul-Rahim played three seasons at San Diego State (1997-1999) after a stint at Mesa Community College. After college, the Dunbar High School standout competed for the San Diego Riptide of the Arena Football League.

Matt Applebaum Offensive Line

Matt Applebaum enters his first season as offensive line coach for the Eagles. Applebaum comes to Boston College after a two-year stint at Towson University as offensive line coach.

In 2019, Applebaum oversaw the development of All-CAA second-team offensive lineman Aaron Grzymkowski for the second consecutive year. Towson's starting left guard played in all 12 games, helping protect all-CAA quarterback Tom Flacco and the Towson offense score 30.2 points per game, including at least 21 points in 10 contests.

Applebaum's line blocked for an offense that finished fourth in the CAA in scoring offense and quarterback Tom Flacco, who was second in the CAA in total offense. Grzymkowski earned All-CAA Second Team recognition, the second year running on the all-conference team. In addition, the line helped block for Flacco and running back Yeedee Thaenrat, each members of the all-conference team.

In 2018, his line helped Towson be ranked No. 1 in the CAA in scoring offense (34.5 points a game) and offensive yards per game (465.0). Right tackle Matt Kauffman was selected as an All-American by the Walter Camp Association, while guard Zane Ventimiglia earned CoSIDA Academic All-America. Kauffman was an All-CAA first-team selection.

He previously served two years as the offensive line coach at Davidson College. He was promoted to offensive coordinator for the 2017 season.

Prior to his time at Davidson, Applebaum spent one season as the offensive line coach at Southeastern Louisiana (2015) and one year as an offensive assistant with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014).

Applebaum got his start in coaching in 2008 at Central Connecticut State where he worked with the tight ends and served as the team's video coordinator.

He spent three years working with the Washington Redskins, starting as a pro personnel assistant, moved to college personnel assistant and finally to an offensive coaching assistant in 2010. He returned to college coaching following that season and spent two years as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami before spending a season as the offensive line coach at Bucknell.

Applebaum was a two-year starter on the offensive line at UConn before playing one season professionally with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers in AF2.

He graduated from UConn in 2007 with a degree in political science.

Frank Cignetti Jr. Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Frank Cignetti Jr. begins his first season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Cignetti has tutored Aaron Rodgers, Eli Manning and Sam Bradford during his 11 years in the NFL in addition to coordinating offenses on the collegiate level at Power Five institutions such as North Carolina, California, Pitt and Rutgers.

Cignetti comes to the Heights after spending his last seven years coaching in the NFL. A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Cignetti spent the 2018 season coaching the quarterbacks with the Green Bay Packers. During his one season with the Packers, Rodgers threw for the second-highest single-season yards of his career as he threw for 4,442 yards and 25 touchdowns. Rodgers' two interceptions under Cignetti's tutelage were the lowest during a season in his career as a starter.

Cignetti came to Green Bay after spending two seasons in the same role with the New York Giants in 2016-17. Prior to his time there, he was with the St. Louis Rams for four seasons (2012-15), serving as the quarterbacks coach for the first three years and then as offensive coordinator for his final season. Cignetti also has NFL experience with the San Francisco 49ers (2007), New Orleans Saints (2000-01) and Kansas City Chiefs (1999), along with 19 years of experience coaching at the college level.

During his two seasons with the Giants, Cignetti tutored QB Eli Manning, helping him register the second-highest completion percentage of his career (63.0) in 2016. Manning completed 377 of 598 passes for 4,017 yards, 26 TDs and 16 INTs for an 86.0 passer rating that season as the Giants finished with an 11-5 record, a six-game improvement from 2015. He was one of only six QBs in the league in '16 to register 4,000-plus passing yards, 25-plus passing TDs and a completion percentage of 63.0 or greater.

Prior to joining the Giants, Cignetti spent the previous four seasons (2012-15) with the St. Louis Rams, working with the quarterbacks for his first three seasons before serving as the team's offensive coordinator in his final season. In 2015, Cignetti helped the Rams rank No. 7 in the NFL in rushing (122.3 ypg), No. 6 in yards per carry (4.56) and tied for No. 6 in rushing TDs (16). Rookie RB Todd Gurley ranked No. 3 in the league with 1,106 rushing yards and was tied for No. 2 with 10 rushing TDs. Cignetti guided the offense to a No. 1 ranking in the league in sacks allowed with 18, the fewest ever given up by the Rams in a 16-game season. In 2014 as quarterbacks coach, Cignetti integrated QBs Austin Davis (eight starts) and Shaun Hill (eight starts) into starting roles after QB Sam Bradford sustained a season-ending knee injury in a preseason game. Davis and Hill combined for 3,658 passing yards and 20 TDs with a 63.4 completion percentage, helping the Rams post the seventh-highest single-season percentage (63.5) in franchise history.

In 2013, Bradford was enjoying the best season of his career to that point before a knee injury ended it after just seven games. He was tied for No. 5 in the league with 14 TD passes and ranked No. 9 in completions (159), with a 90.9 passer rating that was his highest through seven games to that point in his career.

Under Cignetti's direction, QB Kellen Clemens started the final nine games of the season and set career highs in passing yards, TD passes and completions. In Cignetti's first season as quarterbacks coach with the Rams, Bradford threw a career-best 21 TD passes and posted 3,702 passing yards, a career high at that point.

Cignetti spent the 2011 season as the offensive coordinator at Rutgers working on the same coaching staff with Hafley, helping the Scarlet Knights rank No. 4 in the Big East in scoring (26.4 ppg) and No. 3 in passing offense (241.2 ypg) as they finished with a 9-4 record. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set a Big East single-season reception record and ranked No. 4 in the country with 115 catches for 1,206 yards (10.5 avg.) and seven touchdowns.

From 2009-10, Cignetti served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Pitt, again on the same coaching staff with Hafley. In his first season as the Panthers' play caller, the team scored 417 points, the highest point total by Pitt in a season since 1977 (428). Running back Dion Lewis ranked No. 3 in the country with 1,799 rushing yards, the second most in a season in school history behind only Tony Dorsett's 2,150 yards in 1976, while wide receiver Jon Baldwin registered 1,111 receiving yards, the sixth-best single-season total in school annals at the time. In addition, Bill Stull threw for 2,633 yards and 21 TDs with just eight INTs as the Panthers finished with a 10-3 record.

In 2008, Cignetti was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of California, where he helped the Bears average 32.6 points per game and finish 9-4, including a victory over Miami (Fla.) in the Emerald Bowl. Jahvid Best rushed for 1,580 yards and 15 TDs on just 194 carries, an 8.1 average that ranked No. 2 in the nation, while Shane Vereen added 715 yards and four TDs on 142 carries (5.0 avg.).

Cignetti served as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 2007. Prior to joining the 49ers, he was the offensive coordinator at the University of North Carolina (2006) and Fresno State University (2002-05). In 2004, he helped Fresno State average 52.8 points over its final six contests and become just the sixth team in NCAA history at that point to score 50-plus points in four consecutive games. The Bulldogs twice finished in the top 10 in the country in scoring during Cignetti's tenure, averaging 40.2 points per game in 2004 (No. 5) and 37.8 in 2005 (No. 6). The 40.2-point average in '04 was the best mark by Fresno State since 1991 (42.8 ppg).

From 2000-01, Cignetti coached the QBs for the New Orleans Saints. In his first season, Cignetti tutored veteran QB Jeff Blake, who posted the best passer rating of his career (82.7), and second-year QB Aaron Brooks, who was seeing his first career action. Brooks started the final five regular season games in 2000, posting an 85.7 passer rating in those contests, along with a Wild Card victory over the Rams that saw him throw for 266 yards and four TDs for a 111.5 passer rating. In 2001, Brooks threw 26 TD passes, which was tied for No. 5 in the league.

Cignetti entered the NFL coaching ranks in 1999 as a quality control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs. From 1990-98, Cignetti was on his father's staff at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, his alma mater. He coached wide receivers (1990-92), secondary (1993-94) and quarterbacks (1995-96) before serving as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks for his final two seasons. During his tenure, IUP advanced to the NCAA Division II national title game two times and earned a berth in the semifinals four times.

Cignetti began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under head coach Mike Gottfried at the University of Pittsburgh in 1989. At IUP, Cignetti was an all-conference safety before earning his bachelor's degree in 1988.

His father, Frank Sr., was a Pitt assistant from 1966-68 and later the head coach at West Virginia (1976-79) and IUP (1986-2005). Frank Sr., who is the winningest coach in IUP history with 182 victories, was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2013. Cignetti's older brother, Curt, is currently the head coach at James Madison University.

Born Oct. 4, 1965, in Pittsburgh, Pa., Cignetti attended Indiana Area High School in Indiana, Pa. He and his wife, Ellen, have a son, Frankie, and three daughters, Alyssa, Gabrielle and Ella.

Joe Dailey Wide Receivers

Joe Dailey enters his first season as BC's wide receivers coach. A former standout quarterback at Nebraska and North Carolina, Dailey is one of the bright offensive minds in college football.

The New Jersey native comes to Boston College after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at New Mexico in 2019.

Prior to New Mexico, Dailey spent seven seasons on staff at Liberty.

At Liberty, he was on Turner Gill's staff since 2012, first serving as quarterbacks coach before becoming the offensive coordinator in 2014. In 2018 Liberty ranked 34th nationally in points per game, averaging 33.3 points per game.

The Flames ranked 46th in yards per game at 422.9, including 261.5 yards per game in the air, good for 33rd nationally. Liberty quarterback Buckshot Calvert was 25th nationally in yards per game at 255.7, throwing for 3,068 yards for the year. The Flames also had a 1,000-yard receiver in Antonio Gandy-Golden, who caught 71 passes for 1,037 yards.

Dailey tutored Liberty quarterback Josh Woodrum, who was one of just 22 FCS players invited to the 2016 NFL Combine, eventually going 25-for-36 in the preseason with 321 yards and four touchdowns. Over his seven seasons with Liberty, the Flames won four league titles, advanced to the FCS Playoffs once and never had a losing season.

After his first season with Liberty, Dailey was invited to attend and participate in the NFL-NCAA Coaches Academy. The organization provides an opportunity for current and former NFL players who are looking to continue their careers on the football sidelines to learn leadership, management, and administrative skills from football coaches at all levels.

Dailey got his start in coaching at the University at Buffalo, where he served as an offensive graduate assistant in 2008 before becoming tight ends coach in 2009, both seasons under Gill. In 2008, the Bulls captured their first Mid-American Conference title, finishing 8-6 and playing in the 2009 International Bowl in Toronto. In both of his seasons with Buffalo, the Bulls ranked in the top 40 in offense.

Dailey then moved to Kansas for a year, where he served as recruiting coordinator before serving as quarterbacks coach at Bethune-Cookman.

Dailey, one of the nation's most sought-after run-pass high school quarterbacks, started his collegiate career at Nebraska. As a sophomore at Nebraska, Dailey established new quarterbacking standards. In Nebraska's matchup against Colorado, he became the first quarterback in program history to throw 300 yards in a game and set a single-game passing record with 342 yards in a 59-27 victory over Baylor.

After starting all 11 games in 2004, Dailey finished the season with 2,025 passing yards, the third-best season passing mark in Nebraska history. Dailey was a team captain as a sophomore, as well as a two-time member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team.

Dailey transferred to North Carolina where he finished the last two years of his playing career. In 2006, he started seven games as quarterback and led the program with 1,316 passing yards and seven touchdowns. The following year, Dailey finished his Tar Heel days as a starting wide receiver.

Dailey completed his collegiate playing career by throwing for 3,458 yards and 26 touchdowns while completing 52.7 percent of his pass attempts (274-of-520).

A native of Freehold, N.J., Dailey and his wife Carrie have four children, Stella, Noah, Myles and Tyson.

As a player at BC, Duggan played in 45 career games and was a captain in 2014. He was the sixth BC captain from St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati at the Heights, joining Pat Ross (2005), Nick Larkin (2007), Alex Albright (2010), Luke Kuechly (2011) and Ben Glines (2019). Tem Lukabu Defensive Coordinator

Tem Lukabu enters his first season as defensive coordinator at Boston College. A rising star in the coaching industry, Lukabu returns to the collegiate ranks after spending the 2019 season as the Cincinnati Bengals linebackers coach.

In his one season with the Bengals, Lukabu mentored linebacker Nick Vigil, who was second on the team in tackles with 111 stops. It marked his fifth year as a NFL coach in 2019 for Lukabu.

Lukabu came to Cincinnati after spending the 2018 season at Mississippi State, where he served as the linebackers coach.

In 2018, Lukabu helped Mississippi State's defense become one of the top units in college football. The Bulldogs' defense allowed just 144 points, the fewest in the country and the third-fewest in FBS over the last 10 seasons, while ranking sixth nationally in pass defense (164.2 yards per game), 10th in rush defense (104.3 yards per game), and third in total defense (268 yards per game). Additionally, the Bulldogs' 36 sacks ranked second in the SEC.

From 2016-17, Lukabu served as the defensive quality control coach with the San Francisco 49ers and worked alongside Hafley. He worked primarily with the 49ers' linebackers in 2016, before shifting his focus to the team's secondary in '17. He helped guide the secondary through an array of injuries in 2017, as two of his charges – CB Dontae Johnson (team-high 76 tackles) and S Eric Reid (66 tackles) – finished among the team's top-three tacklers.

In 2015, Lukabu served as the defensive line coach at Florida International University, where he guided defensive ends Michael Wakefield and Denzell Perine to all-conference honors. In 2014, he served as the outside linebackers coach at his alma mater, Colgate University.

COACHING STAFF

Prior to his time at Colgate, Lukabu spent two seasons (2012-13) as a defensive assistant for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and worked on the defensive staff with Hafley. In 2013, Lukabu helped Bucs LB Lavonte David to then-career highs in sacks (seven) and interceptions (three), en route to earning first-team All-Pro honors. In 2012, he helped guide the Bucs to a No. 1 NFL ranking against the run after finishing the '11 season last in that category. During his time in Tampa Bay, he worked with DT Gerald McCoy, who in 2012 and '13 earned his first two Pro Bowl nominations and first-team all-pro nods.

Lukabu joined Tampa Bay following two seasons (2010-11) at Rutgers University, where he coached outside linebackers. In 2011, Lukabu coached LB Khaseem Greene, who led the team with 144 tackles and earned conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year honors, the first player in Rutgers history to do so. Before working with the Scarlet Knights, Lukabu spent two seasons (2008-09) as linebackers coach at Rhode Island.

He began his coaching career working in player development at Rutgers (2006-08), where he was responsible for the academic growth and development of football players, monitoring the academic performance of specific players with special needs and assisting in the execution of plans and academic goals set for the team.

A former linebacker, Lukabu was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Colgate from 2000-03. During his time at Colgate, he helped the Raiders to back-to-back Patriot League titles and was named the conference's Defensive Player of the Year in both 2002 and '03, becoming the first player to claim that honor twice. He was a first-team All-Patriot League selection both seasons and was named a third-team Associated Press All-American. He was also a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the national defensive player of the year in Division I-AA.

Lukabu was born Aug. 6, 1981, in Kinshasa, the capital and largest city in the Democratic Republic of the Congo in central Africa. He earned a bachelor of arts degree in history with a minor in political science from Colgate in 2004.

He and his wife, Kate, have three children – daughters Zaida and Kamryn, and son Pax. Kate Lukabu was team captain for Colgate's women's soccer team, the Patriot League's 2003 Offensive Player of the Year. His first name is pronounced "TEMM," and his last name is pronounced "LUKE-uh-boo."

Vince Oghobaase Defensive Line

Vince Oghobaase (oh-guh-BAH-see) enters his first season as the defensive line coach at Boston College. A former standout at Duke, Oghobaase returns to the ACC after a two-year stint at UCLA.

Oghobaase became UCLA's defensive line coach in January of 2018. He joined the Bruin staff after working the previous two seasons in the NFL as the San Francisco 49ers' assistant defensive line coach. He played collegiately at Duke University and finished his career ranked among the top 10 at the school in both sacks and tackles for loss.

In year two at UCLA, the Bruin defensive front helped cut almost 0.5 yards per carry off of the opponent rushing average per carry from the previous season and held four teams under 100 yards of rushing in a game. The defense upped its quarterback sack total from 11 to 26 over a year's time. Osa Odighizuwa led Bruin linemen with 46 tackles and added a team-high tying 10.0 tackles for loss.

In 2018, Oghobaase tutored a young group of linemen, including five freshmen and sophomores in major roles, which helped to produce improved numbers in average gain per rush allowed (down over a yard per carry), total offense yards allowed per game (down by almost 40 yards per game), turnovers forced (+5) and points per game allowed.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Oghobaase served as a defensive graduate assistant at The Ohio State University for three years (2013-15). Working primarily with the defensive linemen, he helped coach a Buckeye defense that ranked among the top-10 in the nation in sacks during each of the three seasons (2015 - tied for ninth (38.0); 2014 - tied for seventh (45.0); 2013 - third (44.0)). During his tenure at Ohio State, he tutored defensive end Joey Bosa, now in the NFL with the Los Angeles Chargers, who registered 26.0 career sacks, the third most in school history. In 2014, Bosa recorded 13.5 sacks, which ranked fifth in the nation and as the second highest single-season total in school history.

Oghobaase began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Duke in 2011, and helped the Blue Devils earn the program's first bowl game appearance since 1994.

Oghobaase was a four-year starter as a player at Duke from 2006-09, seeing action in 44 games. He registered 165 tackles during his career, and finished his career ranked sixth in school history in both sacks (14.0) and tackles for loss (36.5). During his college career, Oghobaase earned Freshman All-American honors in 2006 and was twice named honorable mention All-ACC (2008-09). He received third-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 2009.

A native of Houston, Texas, Oghobaase graduated from Duke in 2010 with a degree in sociology and signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins after attending the NFL Scouting Combine. He later played with the Hartford Colonials in the United Football League and spent time on the Washington Redskins' practice squad in 2010.

HISTORY OF BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

– Text by Reid Oslin, Boston College, '68 and Jason Baum

The 2020 season will be the 122nd year of intercollegiate football competition for the Boston College Eagles. Here are a few of the milestones that have been reached along the way:

1891 – The Boston College student body was granted permission, but no money, by President Edward I. Devitt, S.J., to organize a football team. Joseph F. O'Donnell (1892), a Dorchester, Massachusetts, native with some previous amateur football experience, helped organize a team that played an informal schedule the following year.

1893 – Boston College began formal football competition. The team's first game was a 4-0 victory over St. John's Institute, an amateur power of the day (touchdowns were scored as four points by existing rules). BC played its first intercollegiate game on Oct. 25, a 6-0 loss to Tech '97, an MIT class team. The first varsity game was a 10-6 victory over Boston University in the final contest of the year. Joseph C. Drum ('94) served as BC's first football coach and the team's captain was Bernie Wefers ('94), who briefly held the world record in the 200-meter dash and 220-yard dash.

1894 – The Boston College football team got its first compensated coach, William Nagle. The school adopted the team colors of maroon and gold.

1896 – Boston College and Jesuit rival Holy Cross met for the first time in a home-and-home series. Boston College won both games, by scores of 6-2 and 8-6.

1900 – College President W.G. Read Mullan, S.J., refused to allow a football team to play under the school's name. Students formed an independent team named "Boston Combination" that competed locally. Fr. Mullan relented and allowed a varsity team to be fielded the following year.

1903-07 – In a reaction to the growing public outcry against the violence of college football, as well as for economic considerations, the sport was dropped at Boston College. United States President Theodore Roosevelt summoned the leaders of college football to Washington and urged that the rules of the sport be tightened. The resulting rules committee evolved into the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

1908 – Varsity football was restored at Boston College. The team practiced on the Massachusetts Avenue Grounds, the site of a former city dump. Team members mowed the grass and lined the field before practice sessions.

1913 – The college moved from its original location on James Street in Boston's South End to a new campus in Chestnut Hill. The football team's locker room and equipment storage area were located in the basement of the "Recitation Building" (renamed Gasson Hall in 1952), but coach Hiker Joy's team walked to the public park in Cleveland Circle for daily practice.

1915 – The original Alumni Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 30; however, the inaugural game was won by arch-rival Holy Cross by a 9-0 score before some 5,000 fans. A week later, Boston College won its first on-campus game, defeating Fordham, 3-0. The stadium was located on Middle Campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

1918 – Because of required military training for students in preparation for World War I, the football team was forced to limit practice sessions to no more than one hour per day.

1919 – A returning war hero, Frank Cavanaugh, was hired as BC's football coach. Known as "The Iron Major," Cavanaugh had been badly wounded in the Battle of San Mihiel, but recovered to launch a coaching career that would eventually lead him into the College Football Hall of Fame. In his first season at BC, he led his team to a startling 5-3 victory over heavily favored Yale – the biggest win in school history to that point. A 1943 movie, "The Iron Major" starring Pat O'Brien, chronicled Cavanaugh's life story. Part of the film was shot at the former Liggett Estate (now O'Connell House) on BC's Upper Campus.

1920 – The Boston College football team adopted the nickname "Eagles." The season was capped by a stirring 14-0 victory over Holy Cross before 40,000 fans at Braves Field. The win gave the team a perfect 8-0 season and the school's first "Eastern Championship."

1921 – The team's budding success drew national interest. The Eagles were invited to play Baylor in the dedication game of Dallas' Cotton Bowl stadium. The BC team, which made the 2,400-mile trip by train to play its first inter-sectional contest, responded with a 23-7 win over the Bears.

1926 – The final year of the Cavanaugh era produced another unbeaten season (6-0-2). The team captain was Joe McKenney, who would return to coach the Eagles from 1928-34.

1928 – McKenney's first year as head coach was a perfect 9-0 season and yielded another Eastern title. McKenney would later gain entrance into the College Football Hall of Fame as a highly respected college football official.

1936 – BC named Gilmour Dobie, another future College Hall of Fame member, as its head football coach. The Eagles' schedule was upgraded to include such national rivals as Kansas State, Kentucky, North Carolina State, Indiana and Florida, and home games were shifted to Fenway Park and Braves Field. Dobie's teams lost only six games in his three-year tenure.

1939 – On Feb. 7, Frank Leahy was named head football coach. "I have come here to succeed and to win football games," he told alumni a few days later. He did both, as the Boston College football team won 20 of 22 games played in the ensuing two seasons. The Eagles lost only one regular-season game in the 1939 campaign (7-0 to Florida) and became the first New England team in 20 years to earn a New Year's Day bowl invitation. The Eagles met Clemson in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, but lost a close 6-3 decision to the Tigers.

1940 – An undefeated (11-0) season, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship made this arguably the greatest season in Eagle football annals. On Nov. 16, BC handed Georgetown its first football loss in three years when "Chuckin" Charlie O'Rourke eluded a host of tacklers and took a safety in his own end zone as the clock expired to give the Eagles a memorable 19-18 victory. Sportswriter Grantland Rice described the contest as "the greatest game of football ever played."

1941 – On Jan. 1, the Eagles would lay claim to the national championship with a 19-13 victory over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. Again, O'Rourke provided the heroics, scoring on a 24-yard touchdown run with three minutes remaining in the game. Leahy had installed the game-winning play in the BC offense one day before the game. Leahy and five members of the Sugar Bowl championship team would eventually be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (HB O'Rourke, C Chet Gladchuk, E Gene Goodreault, FB Mike Holovak and G George Kerr). A crowd of 100,000 people welcomed the Sugar Bowl victors back to Boston's South Station, but Leahy would leave Boston College for Notre Dame within a month of the game.

1941 – From a field of 80 candidates, Denny Myers was named Boston College's new head football coach.

1942 – The Eagles were undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the land as they headed into the final game of the season against Holy Cross on Nov. 28. The Crusaders pulled off one of the biggest upsets in college football history that day, upending BC by a 55-12 score. Many BC players and fans were so bitterly disappointed that a planned "victory party" at Boston's Coconut Grove restaurant was canceled. The Coconut Grove was destroyed by fire that night, and 492 people lost their lives.

1943 – Again playing on New Year's Day, Boston College lost to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, 37-21. One bright point in the game for the Eagles was the play of Holovak, who scored all three BC touchdowns and averaged 15.8 yards every time he touched the football – an Orange Bowl record that stands to this day.

1943-45 – A large number of Boston College players and coaches departed to serve their country in the United States armed forces during World War II. The teams fielded on campus found competition against service teams such as Melville PT and Squantum Naval Air Station.

1946 – Myers returned as head coach after the war and the Eagles undertook a national schedule that included LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Penn State in following years. Two members of that September's freshman class – linemen Art Donovan and Ernie Stautner – would one day be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The roster also included lineman Ed King, who, after a brief pro football career, would later be elected Governor of Massachusetts.

1949 – On Nov. 26, Boston College scored its most lopsided victory, 76-0, over annual rival Holy Cross. BC fullback/kicker Ed Petela scored a record 34 points in the game – four touchdowns and 10 PATs.

1951 – Mike Holovak, who had played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears, returned to his alma mater as head coach. He later would be the head coach of the Boston Patriots and long-time general manager of the Houston Oilers.

1956 – After losing to Holy Cross, 7-0, on Dec. 1, Boston College was told that football games will no longer be played at Fenway Park. The school considered dropping the sport.

1957 – On Jan. 23, Boston College President Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., announced the decision to build a new stadium on campus. Athletics Director William J. Flynn and former head coach Joe McKenney led the successful $250,000 campaign to construct the new facility on the site of a filled-in reservoir on BC's lower campus. On Sept. 26, Alumni Stadium opened with a game against Navy that had been arranged with the assistance of then-U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy. The visiting Midshipmen spoiled the day, however, with a 46-6 victory before a standing-room-only crowd of 26,000-plus. The referee in the dedication game was the legendary Albie Booth.

1964 – The Eagles knocked off highly ranked Syracuse, 21-14, on Sept. 19 in the season opener as Larry Marzetti hit Bill Cronin with a 45-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play as time ran out. A freshman running back for the Orangemen that year was Tom Coughlin.

1968 – Joe Yukica took over as the Eagles' head coach. He served notice of things to come with a stunning 49-15 win at Navy in his BC coaching debut. Among the defenders for the Midshipmen in that game was end Tom O'Brien.

1970 – Fred Willis became the first running back in BC gridiron history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing (1,007) in a 10-game season.

1971 – Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats, an artificial surface was installed and lights were added for night play.

1974 – The Eagles, under Yukica and offensive backfield coach Jack Bicknell, were the hottest team in college football down the stretch, outscoring opponents by a 270-27 margin in the season's final six games. FB Keith Barnette was the nation's top scorer with 22 TDs on the season. However, the team's 8-3 record did not attract any bowl invitations to Chestnut Hill.

1975 – The Eagles opened the season with an ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" appearance against Notre Dame at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro. A record 61,000 fans filled the facility to watch the Irish take a 17-3 victory.

1976 – BC upended seventh-ranked Texas, 14-13, in a thrilling season opener at Alumni Stadium on Sept. 11. A key tackle by Kelly Elias on a Longhorn two-point conversion try with 4:38 remaining in the game proved the difference in this victory, the biggest for a BC team in years.

1978 – The Eagles suffered their worst season in history, losing all 11 games, including a 28-24 loss to Temple in a game played in Tokyo on Dec. 10.

1981 – Former BC assistant Bicknell was hired as head coach. He opened the season with a 13-12 home victory over Texas A&M on Sept. 19. Freshman Doug Flutie saw his first action – on one special teams play. Flutie would be named the team's starting quarterback by Bicknell and QB coach Tom Coughlin prior to the Navy game on Oct. 17.

1982 – The Eagles opened the season with a smashing 38-16 victory over Texas A&M in College Station. Two weeks later, BC tied defending national champion Clemson 17-17 at "Death Valley," and once again Boston College football was drawing national attention. After beating Holy Cross 35-10 in the final regular season game, the Eagles were invited to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl in Orlando to play Auburn. Fans watching that game saw two future Heisman Trophy winners: BC's Flutie and the Tigers' Bo Jackson. Auburn won the Dec. 18 game, 33-26.

1983 – The Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-2 record, including the first win over Penn State (27-17 at Foxboro) and a last-minute 20-13 victory over Alabama on a rainy November night in Foxboro that was remembered as the game "that the lights went out."

Fortunately, power crews restored electricity just as officials were considering stopping the game and BC went on to score on its final possession to win. The Lambert Trophy champions were matched up against Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl on Dec. 29 – a game that was played in frigid, icy conditions. Each team scored three touchdowns in that game, but BC missed all of its extra-point tries, while the Irish converted one of three to account for the heart-breaking 19-18 final score.

1984 – Perhaps one of the most storied seasons in Boston College football history, an early highlight was the Eagles' stunning 38-31 victory over Alabama in Birmingham before a national television audience on Sept. 8. The Eagles scored on their final possession of the game to beat the Crimson Tide – an omen of rallies to come. On Nov. 22, at the Orange Bowl, Flutie and Boston College football went into the storybooks as No. 22 threw a 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass to WR Gerard Phelan on the game's final play to give BC a memorable 47-45 victory over the Miami Hurricanes. A week later, Flutie completed one of his final college football goals by throwing a touchdown pass to his brother Darren, a freshman, in the final game of the regular season at Holy Cross on Dec. 1. He then flew to New York City where he was presented with the Heisman Trophy later that night.

1985 – Boston College scored its first postseason victory since the 1941 Sugar Bowl with an impressive 45-28 victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. The Eagles were ranked No. 4 in the final college football poll and won the Lambert Trophy as Eastern Champions for the second consecutive year.

1985 – Appearing in the Kickoff Classic, the Eagles lost to high-powered Brigham Young, 28-14, in the college football curtain-raiser, but NG Mike Ruth chased Cougar QBs all over the field en route to eventually winning the Outland Award as college football's top lineman that season.

1986 – After thrashing Holy Cross by a 56-26 score in Worcester on Nov. 22, the Eagles were invited to play Georgia in Tampa's Hall of Fame Bowl on Dec. 23. There, QB Shawn Halloran hit WR Kelvin Martin with a 5-yard scoring pass with just 32 seconds left in the game to give BC a 27-24 victory. Two months later, Holy Cross abruptly canceled the BC-HC rivalry that had begun in 1896.

1988 – A rebuilt Alumni Stadium with matching upper decks and state-of-the-art press facilities was dedicated in a nationally televised game against Southern Cal. On Nov. 19, Boston College and Army made sports history by playing the first American college football game in Europe. The Eagles topped the Cadets 38-24 in that contest, played at Dublin's Lansdowne Road Stadium.

1991 – Coughlin was hired away from the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants as BC's newest head football coach. BC played the first BIG EAST Football Conference game at Rutgers on August 31, the coach's 45th birthday.

1992 – BC scored three consecutive shutout victories (vs. Northwestern, Navy and Michigan State) on the way to an 8-2-1 regular season and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Tennessee. The Vols won the Sugar Bowl "rematch" by a 38-23 score.

1993 – The Eagles bounced back from losses in the first two games of the year to reel off eight consecutive victories and earn another postseason invitation. Highlighting this drive was a magnificent 41-39 victory at Notre Dame on Nov. 20, when David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal with no time remaining to shock the No. 1-ranked Irish. The Eagles' final 8-3 showing earned them a slot in the Carquest Bowl in Fort Lauderdale, where they beat ACC representative Virginia, 31-13, on New Year's Day.

1994 – Alumni Stadium was expanded to its current capacity of 44,500 and was completely refurbished. Unfortunately, as had happened on three previous occasions, the Eagles lost the dedication game, this time, 12-7, to Virginia Tech on Sept. 17. BC made up for the loss, however, by scoring an impressive 30-11 victory over Notre Dame in Chestnut Hill on Oct. 8 – the Eagles' first win in their new lair. BC went on to cap the season with a Christmas Day appearance in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where the Eagle defense led the way to a 12-7 victory over Kansas State.

1995 – Boston College was again invited to participate in the Kickoff Classic at the

HISTORY OF BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Meadowlands, but fared no better than in their 1985 appearance and lost to Ohio State by a 38-6 count. All 12 of the Eagles' games were on network television that year.

1996 – Tom O'Brien was named head coach at Boston College on Dec. 13.

1997 – O'Brien recorded his first victory as a head coach on Sept. 13, as BC beat West Virginia, 31-24. It was the first time the Eagles had defeated the Mountaineers in Chestnut Hill since 1976.

1998 – Mike Cloud rushed for a BIG EAST and then-BC single-season record 1,726 yards to become Boston College's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards. He became a consensus first-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back of the Year Award. The Kansas City Chiefs selected him in the second round of the NFL Draft.

1999 – Boston College engineered the third-best turnaround in major college football by finishing the regular season with an 8-3 record and ranked 22nd nationally. BC received an invitation to play in the Insight.com Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 1994.

2000 – Boston College made its second straight trip to a bowl game as the Eagles defeated Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the Aloha Bowl. William Green became the third-straight Eagle back to rush for 1,000 yards or more in a season and offensive tackle Paul Zukauskas earned first-team All-America honors and was later picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

2001 – The Eagles posted an 8-4 record and earned back-to-back bowl game wins with an impressive 20-16 win over Georgia in the Music City Bowl. Green rushed for 1,559 yards and earned first-team All-America honors. Green (16th, Cleveland) and OT Marc Colombo (29th, Chicago) were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

2002 – BC's 51-25 win over Toledo in the Motor City Bowl, an unprecedented third consecutive bowl victory, sent the 2002 senior class out with 32 victories in four years (32-17), tied with the 1981-84 group for the most wins in a four-year period in 60 years of Boston College football. One of the top highlights of the season occurred on Nov. 2, when the Eagles marched into Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the previously undefeated, fourth-ranked and green-clad Fighting Irish, 14-7, to end ND's dreams of a national championship.

2003 – On Oct. 12, 2003, BC President William P. Leahy, S.J. and Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo held a press conference to announce that Boston College accepted an offer to become the 12th member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles notched impressive victories over Notre Dame, No. 25 Penn State and No. 12 Virginia Tech en route to winning their 40th game in five seasons, tying an all-time school record. On New Year's Eve, the Eagles appeared in a school-record fifth consecutive bowl game at the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Their 35-21 victory over Colorado State made the Eagles the first team in BC football history to win seven or more games for five consecutive seasons and the only team in college football to have won a bowl game the past four years in a row. Senior running back Derrick Knight became BC's all-time rushing leader, finishing his career with 3,725 yards.

2004 – The Eagles rolled to another 9-3 season, winning a share of the BIG EAST Conference championship and missing a Fiesta Bowl bid only by a loss to Syracuse on the final day of the 2004 campaign. Senior QB Paul Peterson engineered a thrilling 24-23 victory at Notre Dame with a last-minute 30-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez setting up the stunning victory. Peterson was injured two weeks later in a win against Temple, but the Utah native returned to the lineup to lead the Eagles to a 37-24 victory over future ACC rival North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte.

2005 – After season-opening victories at Brigham Young and Army, Boston College played its first ACC game – a nationally-televised contest against Florida State on Sept. 21. ESPN's "Game Day" crew was on hand to broadcast from campus prior to the much-anticipated ACC match-up. The Eagles lost to Bobby Bowden's powerful Seminoles 28-17 in their league debut, but introduced themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ACC with a 16-13 overtime victory at Clemson a week later. BC finished with another impressive 9-3 record and went on to play Boise State in the Humanitarian Bowl where they handed the host Broncos a rare defeat, 27-21, on their home blue turf.

2006 – Another successful year for BC football, as the team finished with a 10-3 record, including a pair of double-overtime victories over Clemson (34-33) and Brigham Young (30-23) on back-to-back September Saturdays. The big news of the year, however, came in December as Coach Tom O'Brien left Chestnut Hill to become head coach at ACC rival North Carolina State. Defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani took over leadership of the team for the Meineke Care Bowl against Navy in Charlotte and recorded his first head coaching victory as linebacker Jolann Dunbar recovered a Midshipman fumble late in the game and QB Matt Ryan led the Eagles back into scoring range where kicker Steve Aponavicius booted a 37-yard field goal to give BC a narrow 25-24 victory.

2007 – With new coach Jeff Jagodzinski – a former BC offensive line coach and NFL assistant – at the helm, the new-look Eagles rolled off eight straight victories to start the year – the best of them a stunning 14-10 win at Virginia Tech that featured two Matt Ryan touchdown passes in the game's final 2:11 – the game-winner a 24-yard scoring strike to RB Andre Callender with just seconds to play. The victory propelled BC to the No. 2 slot in the national rankings and helped them finish the regular season with a 10-2 mark, earning a spot in the ACC Championship game in Jacksonville vs. Virginia Tech. The Eagles lost to the Hokies, 30-16, in the title game, but bounced back to trim Michigan State, 24-21, in Orlando's Citrus Bowl, giving the team an 11-victory season, the most wins at Chestnut Hill since the legendary Sugar Bowl Champions of 1940.

2008 – As All-America QB Matt Ryan departed for the NFL (he was the first round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons), the Eagles regrouped quickly to post another 9-3 regular season that included a 17-0 shutout of Notre Dame – the Eagles' sixth consecutive win over the Irish. BC again won the ACC Atlantic Division crown and advanced to the league's title game again where Virginia Tech won a second straight championship at BC's expense. After losing to Vanderbilt, 16-14, in Nashville's Music City Bowl, Jagodzinski looked into NFL job possibilities and departed Chestnut Hill.

2009 – A longtime BC defensive assistant, Frank Spaziani became the school's 34th head football coach, inheriting a team that was picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earning a spot in San Francisco's Emerald Bowl against Southern California.

2010 – The defensively powerful Eagles qualified for a school-record 12th consecutive postseason bowl game, returning to San Francisco to meet Nevada in the re-named Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2011 – For the first time in more than a decade, the Eagles slipped below .500 and missed out on postseason play. The season spotlight belonged to two-time All-American LB Luke Kuechly who made a "clean sweep" of national defensive honors, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Lott Impact Trophy after leading all collegiate football players in tackles (191) and solo tackles (102) during the 2011 campaign. Kuechly entered the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round.

2012 – The Eagles slipped to a disappointing 2-10 season, the worst showing since the winless (0-11) season in 1978. At the end of the year, coach Frank Spaziani was replaced by former Temple head coach Steve Addazio, who was named BC's 35th head coach of football on Dec. 4.

2013 – Addazio wasted no time in returning the Eagles' football program to respectability. After tuning up with a 24-14 victory over feisty Villanova in his BC coaching debut, Addazio led the BC team to a successful seven win season and an invitation to play Pac-12 opponent Arizona in the Advocate v100 Bowl game in Shreveport, Louisiana on Dec. 31 – the Eagles' first post-season appearance since 2010. Along the way, BC scored ACC victories over Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, Maryland and North Carolina State. The 38-21 victory over the Wolfpack on Nov. 16, made the Eagles bowl-eligible and set off an enthusiastic celebration in Alumni Stadium, hailing the program's return to the ranks of college football's upper echelon. Running back Andre Williams was a key contributor to the resurgence, rushing for a school-record 2,177 yards and 18 touchdowns on a workhorse-like 355 carries. That tremendous offensive performance was not only the best of any of the nation's ball-carriers for the year, but also gave the soft-spoken senior entry into one of college football's most elite groupings: the 2,000-yard season rusher. Williams was accorded consensus All-America honors; won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back; and became BC's first Heisman Trophy finalist since the glory days of Flutie nearly 30 years earlier.

2014 – Addazio kept the Eagles on track with another winning season and another postseason bowl trip. BC went 7-6, highlighted by an electric, 37-31 upset over ninth-ranked Southern California in Alumni Stadium on Sept. 13. The Eagles topped the Trojans for the first BC victory versus a top-10 team in seven years and the first win for an unranked BC team against a top-10 team since 2002. The Eagles were nearly perfect on the road, winning the first four contests before dropping a 20-17 decision to top-ranked Florida State in Tallahassee with just three seconds to play in the final road game of the season. BC became bowl eligible on Nov. 1 with a three-point victory at Virginia Tech and later earned a berth to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium against Penn State on Dec. 27. The Eagles lost, 31-30, in overtime to the Nittany Lions on a missed extra point. Both the rushing offense and defense were stellar on the year. The defense ranked second in the nation, allowing just 94.5 yards per game and the offense finished the season 14th with 254.7 yards per game, setting a BC school record with 3,311 total yards. Quarterback Tyler Murphy made a lasting impression in his one season at The Heights, setting both the Boston College and Atlantic Coast Conference records for rushing yards by a QB with 1,184.

2015 – Although the team went 3-9 to miss out on a bowl game for the first time in three seasons, it was led by the nation's best defense. The Eagles held defending national champion Florida State to only one offensive touchdown and kept the Eagles within a touchdown of winning five games. The Eagles ranked first in total defense and first downs defense and fourth in scoring defense.

2016 – The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the third time in four seasons under Addazio. Boston College won its first bowl game since 2007 after a 36-30 victory over Maryland in the Quick Lane Bowl. The Eagles finished the season with three consecutive victories and featured the nation's ninth-best defense. Junior Harold Landry earned All-America honors from the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation as he led the nation in sacks (16.5) and forced fumbles (seven).

2017 – The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the fourth time in five seasons under Addazio. Boston College was just one of two bowl teams nationally to play 10 teams who qualified for a bowl in 2017. Only Clemson (6-0) and Boston College (5-1) won at least five of their last six in the regular season among ACC schools. Addazio has led the Eagles to four bowls in his first five years, the first head coach in BC history to do so. Boston College had the seventh-most improved scoring offense among Power 5 teams nationally. The Eagles featured ACC Rookie of the Year AJ Dillon, the nation's second-leading rusher among freshmen and the country's No. 7 overall rusher with 1,589 yards and 14 touchdowns. Dillon was BC's first ACC Rookie of the Year. He had 1,099 rushing yards over the last six regular season games, the most of any player in the country. Dillon's 1,589 rushing yards are the second-most by any ACC freshman in conference history. Dillon tied for the most All-ACC votes with reigning Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson. Dillon had four games of 190+ yards of rushing in 2017. Boston College had nine players earn All-ACC honors, tied for the most in school history. Seven of the nine All-ACC selections return in 2018. Three Eagles earned All-America accolades (Lukas Denis, Walter Camp Second Team; AJ Dillon, Freshman All-America; Ben Petrula, Freshman All-America).

2018 – The Eagles won seven games (7-5) and returned to a bowl game for the fifth time in six seasons under Addazio. The Eagles made their first appearance in the College Football Playoff Top 25 rankings, returned to the national AP and coaches' polls for the first time since 2008 and hosted College GameDay for the third time in school history. BC started the season 7-2 overall and spent four weeks in the national rankings, the most weeks ranked since the 2007 campaign. The Eagles tied for the fifth-highest scoring offense in BC history (120 seasons) at 32.0 points per game in 2018. Anthony Brown's 20 touchdowns were the second-most by any sophomore in BC history (Glenn Foley threw 21 TDs as a sophomore in 1991). BC opened the 2018 season with 40+ points in its first three games, the first time in 120 seasons of football at The Heights. Four players captured All-America honors (Hamp Cheevers, Chris Lindstrom, Michael Walker and Zach Allen) while BC tied a modern-day record with four players selected in the 2019 NFL Draft (Chris Lindstrom, Zach Allen, Will Harris, Tommy Sweeney). Lindstrom became the 20th first-round pick in school history going 14th overall to the Atlanta Falcons.

2019 – Boston College finished the regular season 6-6 overall and AD Martin Jarmond announced a change in leadership following the win over Pitt in the regular season finale. Jarmond appointed Ohio State defensive coordinator Jeff Hafley as the program's 36th head coach in history on Dec. 14, 2019. Hafley's first season in Columbus saw Ohio State jump from 72nd nationally in 2018 to first nationally in 2019 in yards per play.

AJ Dillon and John Phillips earned All-ACC first-team honors following the season while Dillon finished fourth in ACC history in career rushing yards. He was a second-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the 2020 NFL Draft and an AP All-American third-team selection.

RETIRED NUMBERS

Never again will a Boston College football player wear the No. 22 or No. 68. Those two retired numbers belonged to quarterback Doug Flutie (1981-84) and nose tackle Mike Ruth (1982-85), respectively. Flutie won the 1984 Heisman Trophy, given annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the outstanding college football player in the nation, and the Walter Camp Award, given by the Walter Camp Football Foundation of New Haven, Connecticut, to the nation's most outstanding player.

Ruth was the winner of the 1985 Outland Trophy, given to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America.

These two numbers were retired in a ceremony on Oct. 8, 1998, as the Eagles played Virginia Tech.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Ten other former Boston College football players have received the honor of having their jerseys retired – Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Luke Kuechly, Lou Montgomery, Charles O'Rourke, Matt Ryan, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban.

A four-year letterwinner at end and team captain in 1923, Urban played on Boston College teams that compiled an overall record of 25-7, including the 1920 team that went 8-0 and gave the school its first Eastern Championship. He was a consensus first-team all-America selection in that season.

O'Rourke's Boston College teams compiled a cumulative record of 26-3-2. "Chuckin' Charlie" helped lead the Eagles to an 11-0 record in 1940, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Holovak's Boston College teams finished 26-5 and he is known as one of the top running backs in school history. He scored all three Eagle touchdowns in the 1943 Orange Bowl and averaged 15.8 yards per carry in that contest against Alabama. A consensus first-team all-American in 1942, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

Thurman was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1984 as a defensive back and still holds the school career records for interceptions in a game (3), season (12) and career (25).

Flynn, who was honored in ceremonies at 1999's Miami game, was associated with Boston College athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and director of athletics. He played football at Boston College from 1936-38, serving as team captain in '38. He also played hockey and became the first Boston College player to score 20 goals in a season.

Flynn returned to the University in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach and seven years later became the Alumni Association executive secretary. Flynn was the director of athletics for the Eagles from 1957-90, and during his tenure, Boston College expanded its varsity sports programs and constructed most of its major athletics facilities.

Donovan, who was honored at the 1999 Pittsburgh game, was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1946-49 and was an outstanding lineman for his teams that went a combined 20-13-3.

In the professional ranks, he played on two world championship teams in 12 seasons as a perennial all-pro selection at defensive tackle for the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

Goodreault, who was honored at 2001's Pittsburgh game at Alumni Stadium, was a member of the Boston College football team that won the 1941 Sugar Bowl.

He lettered for the Eagles from 1938-40 as an end and was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1940, including a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team.

Kuechly became the most decorated defensive player in BC football history after sweeping every major postseason award in 2012, including the Dick Butkus Award, the Lott IMPACT Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Award and the Rotary Lombardi Award. The two-time consensus first-team All-American finished his three-year collegiate career led the nation for two consecutive seasons in total tackles, tackles per game, solo tackles and solo tackles per game. He finished his collegiate career with a school-record 532 tackles and ranks among the NCAA career leaders in several defensive statistical categories.

He recorded at least 10 tackles in 34 of 38 games, including a streak of 33 straight games between 2009-11. He was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round (ninth overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft and has continued to rack up honors as a professional. In his first season, he was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and one season later, he was selected for the Pro Bowl and AP overall Defensive Player of the Year. In Carolina's 2015 Super Bowl run, he became the first linebacker in the Super Bowl era with multiple interception return touchdowns in a single postseason.

Ryan, nicknamed "Matty Ice," capped an illustrious Boston College career by being selected third overall by the Atlanta Falcons in the NFL draft, becoming BC's highest draft pick ever in any sport. During his standout senior season in 2007, he led the team to an 8-0 start and No. 2 national ranking en route to an 11-3 record (best since 1940), the ACC Atlantic Division championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the ACC Championship game. He was the winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award (given to the nation's top senior quarterback), the Manning Award (given to the nation's top quarterback), was ACC Player of the Year and finished seventh in Heisman Trophy balloting. He set the BC school record for single-season passing yards and when he completed 388-of-654 passes for 4,507 yards and 31 touchdowns in 2007. In eight seasons in the NFL, he has completed 2,915 of 4,530 passes (64.3 percent) for 32,757 yards and 202 touchdowns while posting a 90.9 passer rating. He owns franchise records for career passing yards, career pass attempts, career completions, career touchdowns, career passing rating, career completion percentage and career 300-yard games.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

1940 COTTON BOWL

Clemson 6
Boston College 3
Jan. 1, 1940 | Dallas, Texas

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

Leahy's team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl – the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

1941 SUGAR BOWL

Boston College 19
Tennessee 13
Jan. 1, 1941 | New Orleans, La.

In head coach Frank Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl.

The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zabliski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied at 13. Don Currievan blocked a UT field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

1943 ORANGE BOWL

Alabama 37
Boston College 21
Jan. 1, 1943 | Miami, Fla.

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back for a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Crimson Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

1983 LIBERTY BOWL

Boston College 18
Dec. 29, 1983 | Memphis, Tenn.

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16-of-37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a three-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a deadlocked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giaquinto fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles' leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

1985 COTTON BOWL

Boston College 45
Houston 28
Jan. 1, 1985 | Dallas, Texas

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years. Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead.

Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest. Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 halftime lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself.

Dec. 23, 1986 | Tampa, Fla.

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a five-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, Fla.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts – good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission. Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

1993 HALL OF FAME BOWL

Tennessee 38
Boston College 23
Jan. 1, 1993 | Tampa, Fla.

The first bowl appearance in six years fell short of a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the Vols a lead that could not be matched.

BC had outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

BC rallied with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's seven-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's closing effort.

1994 CARQUEST BOWL

Virginia 13
Jan. 1, 1994 | Miami, Fla.

Glenn Foley put on a masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage, 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing minutes of play. In his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards – nearly seven yards per play.

1994 JEEP ALOHA BOWL

Boston College 12
Kansas State 7
Dec. 25, 1994 | Honolulu, Hawaii

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold – completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses dueled in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left.

Dec. 30, 2004 | Charlotte, N.C.

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24. Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ryan Ohliger faked the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead. Jan. 9, 2011 | San Francisco, Calif.

Rishard Matthews caught a touchdown pass and returned a punt for another score, and No. 13 Nevada used its best defensive game of the season to beat Boston College 20-13.

Colin Kaepernick threw for 192 yards and a touchdown for the Wolf Pack (13-1), who snapped a four-game bowl losing streak by tying a school record for wins in a season, set when it played in what used to be Division I-AA.

The win was sealed by Khalid Wooten's interception on the final drive of the game for the Eagles (7-6).

The game matched BC's top-ranked rushing defense against Nevada's high-powered pistol attack that was third in the nation in rushing. The defense won that battle, holding the Wolf Pack to a season-low 114 yards on the ground, including just 22 for Kaepernick.

Freshman Chase Rettig completed 14-of-34 passes for 121 yards and two interceptions. Boston College played without leading rusher Montel Harris, who got hurt in pregame warmups.

2013 ADVOCARE V100 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Arizona 42
Boston College 19
Dec. 31, 2013 | Shreveport, La.

First-year coach Steve Addazio said Boston College had plenty to be proud of after a remarkable turnaround season that included a return to postseason play after a 2-10 record in 2012.

Not much went right for the Eagles in a 42-19 loss to Arizona in the Advocare V100 Bowl. Boston College running back Andre Williams, the Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman finalist who came into the game with 2,102 yards rushing, was held to 75 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

BC (7-6) kept things tight early, trailing just 7-6 midway through the second quarter. But Arizona scored two quick touchdowns just before halftime to take a 21-6 lead and the Eagles could never mount another challenge.

BC didn't score a touchdown until Williams' four-yard run early in the fourth quarter. Senior Alex Amidon established a Boston College career record for receptions (191) and receiving yards (2,800) in the game, recording 10 receptions for 129 yards against the Wildcats. Senior place-kicker Nate Freese connected on both field-goal attempts to conclude the season a perfect 20-for-20.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

2018 SERVPRO FIRST RESPONDER BOWL

Boston College

Boise State

Dec. 26, 2018 | Dallas, Texas

The SERVPRO First Responder Bowl between Boston College and No. 23 Boise State was canceled due to thunderstorms in the area of the Cotton Bowl. The game kicked off at 12:30 p.m. local time and entered a lightning delay at 1 p.m. After a one-hour and 20-minute delay, bowl officials called off the game due to severe weather.

Despite BC leading 7-0 through nearly 10 minutes of play, the game was officially a no contest and statistics did not count. AJ Dillon scored on the Eagles' first possession; a 19-yard touchdown run. He had 33 yards on six carries before the game abruptly ended with 5:08 left on the clock in the first quarter. Anthony Brown was 4-for-6 passing for 54 yards, while Kobay White made two catches for 35 yards.

Boston College ended the season at 7-5 overall after making its third consecutive bowl game and fifth in six years under head coach Steve Addazio. The Eagles remain 14-12 all-time in their bowl history.

The Bearcats led 17-0 at the half, outgaining the Eagles 187-102. Out of the break, which was shortened to a 10-minute halftime due to the first-quarter lightning delay, Cincinnati marched down the field in 12 plays to open the second half with a Ridder touchdown pass to Malik Mbodj from eight yards.

Trailing 24-0, BC blocked a 43-yard field goal attempt and returned it for a score to get on the board in the third quarter. Safety Mike Palmer was credited with his second career blocked kick and cornerback scooped the ball and went the other way for a 67-yard touchdown.

Cincinnati extended its lead back to 24 on a 13-yard scamper by Ridder early in the fourth quarter.

Ridder, the player of the game, 105 yards and three scores on 21 carries. In the air, he was 14-for-24 for 95 yards. Running back Michael Warren added 105 rushing yards on 21 carries.

2020 BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL RECORD BOOK

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS PATRICK KRAFT

Patrick Kraft, considered one of the best athletics administrators in NCAA Division I sports, was named the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics at Boston College, effective July 1, 2020.

Kraft, who has been credited with transforming Temple's athletics program through new coaching hires, investments in facilities, and a focus on student-athlete welfare and improved classroom performance, succeeds Martin Jarmond, who was named the director of athletics at UCLA in May.

As director of intercollegiate athletics at Temple, Kraft directed a $59 million budget, a department of 180 employees, and 500 student-athletes in 19 sports that compete in the American Athletics Conference, the Big East Conference, and the ECAC. He was responsible for all facets of athletics administration, including academics, NCAA Title IX compliance, diversity, finances, and athletics, and led the hiring of new head coaches in football, men's basketball and men's and women's soccer and field hockey.

Temple sports accomplishments during his tenure included a 2016 AAC football championship, five-straight bowl appearances for the first time in school history, a 2015-2016 Men's basketball AAC regular season championship, and the first NCAA Tournament appearance for women's basketball in five years.

Kraft also led an effort to improve student-athlete classroom performance that resulted in a 2018-2019 NCAA Academic Performance Rate of 993, fourth among Division I FBS institutions, followed by a school record 90 percent Graduation Success Rate for 2019. He led planning and fundraising efforts for more than $55 million in construction and renovation projects, including the Temple Sports Complex for men's and women's soccer, field hockey, lacrosse, and track and field, enhancements to locker room facilities for all 19 sports, an all student-athlete lounge, multiple student-athlete nutrition centers, and updated practice facilities for several sports.

A successful fundraiser, Kraft set records for the annual fund for five straight years, while consistently enhancing revenues from ticket sales.

University President William P. Leahy, S.J., praised Kraft as a person of integrity and accomplishment who is well suited to lead BC Athletics.

"Pat understands intercollegiate athletics today and has extensive experience as a player at Indiana University, as well as an administrator at Loyola University Chicago and Temple," said Fr. Leahy. "He brings with him obvious passion, and a desire to be a part of the BC community. I look forward to working with him."

Kraft said that he was humbled to be named the next director of athletics at Boston College and was eager to begin his career at the Heights.

"I am truly honored to be selected to serve Boston College as the steward of such a great intercollegiate athletics department," said Kraft. "The core values of Boston College are in alignment with how I live my life and how I approach my job, creating world-class experiences for student-athletes with the utmost of integrity, character, faith and love. We will compete for championships, we will continue to graduate young men and women who will go on to change the world, and we will represent BC with pride."

A native of Libertyville, Illinois, Kraft attended Indiana University where he played football as a walk-on before earning a football scholarship, and earned three degrees, including a Ph.D in sport management, a master's degree in sport marketing administration, and a bachelor's degree in sport marketing management.

Prior to being named director of intercollegiate athletics in 2015, Kraft served as deputy director of athletics at Temple, executive senior associate athletic director at Loyola University Chicago, and senior assistant athletics director for marketing at Indiana University. He has also served as clinical professor in the School of Business Administration at Loyola University Chicago, and as associate instructor in sport marketing and management at Indiana University.

A current member of both the NCAA Football Oversight and Football Competition committees, Kraft, 43, was recognized by Sports Bureau Journal as one of the top 40 sports executives under the age of 40 and by the Philadelphia Business Journal as one of the top young Business Executives in Philadelphia.

Kraft and his wife Betsy are the parents of two children: Annabelle (6) and Joseph (4).

Boston College 2020 Media Protocols

2020 Game Operations for Media During the COVID-19 Pandemic

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, media operations for Boston College football games at Alumni Stadium will be altered. Capacity in the Alumni Stadium press box, Conte Forum media suite and sideline will be greatly reduced or eliminated in 2020. These guidelines are prepared in conjunction with the ACC for the safety of all involved and may be adjusted based on the latest protocols.

Credentials

All credential requests must be submitted through BC's online credentialing site with SportsSystems. To apply for credentials, please visit www.sportssystems.com/bostoncollege. Roughly 12 seats will be available for the local media within the press box seating area due to social distancing.

To the extent possible with severe space limitations, priority will be given to media outlets based upon those which have regularly participated in BC news conferences, the reach of the entity and the history of coverage.

Football credentials to cover games will be issued on a single-game basis only. This will allow our office to monitor who comes to each game with our new, limited seating in the press box.

Media must go online to apply for credentials leading up to each game no later than Tuesday of game week.

Credentials which are not obtained in advance may be picked up at media will-call, located near Gate C of Conte Forum. We will not mail any credentials in 2020, they must either be picked up in the Athletics Communications Office at Conte Forum or at Gate C on gamedays. Parking will be distributed to media members attending games at Gate C as they check-in.

Acceptance of a credential acknowledges and assumes risks associated with the COVID-19 pandemic and the bearer agrees not to use the credential in the event that he or she is sick or symptomatic.

Media interested in covering BC on the road also need to make that credential request through BC, not through the opposing ACC school staff. Jason Baum (j.baum@bc.edu) will accept those road credential requests, then work with individuals and the opposing school to determine availability for a specific site as space will be very limited.

Health and Safety Protocols

Media attending events at Alumni Stadium must complete a short online health assessment on the day of the game. Temperature checks will be administered on site and individuals must affirm that they do not feel ill or have been in contact with an individual who has the COVID-19 virus, among other items in the short form to be completed online. Individuals with a temperature above 100.4 degrees will not be permitted into the facility. A link will be provided to those who receive credentials.

A multi-layered face covering must be worn at all times in the stadium and press box. Media representatives must bring their own face covering that fully covers their nose and mouth, plus any other personal protective equipment they wish to use. Rest rooms are available on the press box level for regular hand washing on levels five and six. Hand sanitizer dispensers and sanitizing wipes will also be available in the press box and Conte Forum Media Suite.

Seating

Individuals must sit in their assigned seat at the location of their place card or designated booth. Seats will be properly distanced and place cards may not be moved. A flip card will be provided at each seat. Game notes and statistics will be available online; there will be no printed copies provided in the press box. To the greatest extent practicable, everyone must adhere to physical distancing guidelines (at least six feet apart) while moving within the press box and must wear a face covering.

Photographers

ACC operations permit one designated pool photographer with access to shoot the game from the sidelines. The Boston Globe will provide those images for media editorial usage for coverage of the game and will be uploaded to the ACC Media Portal. There will be no sideline access for any additional photographers per ACC protocols during this pandemic period. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information.

Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the ACC Media Portal. The use of ACC game action provided through the ACC Media Portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines.

A small number of approved photographers will be permitted to shoot from an assigned location inside Alumni Stadium. The photo areas will be clearly marked on the concourse level in the end zone and at mid-field. Videographers and photographers are not permitted on the sidelines, concourses, suites, seating bowl or other areas of the stadium.

Conte Forum Media Suite

Space for just eight photographers will be permitted in the Conte Forum Media Suite workroom. Seats will be clearly marked and everyone must adhere to physical distancing guidelines (at least six feet apart) while moving within the media suite and must wear a face covering.

Sideline Access

Aside from the pool photographer, approved university staff and the televising network approved personnel, no other media representatives are permitted on the sideline. This includes all times including pregame, halftime and postgame, as well as during the competition.

Videographers

ACC operations permit one designated videographer with access to shoot the game from the sidelines, which will be provided by Boston College. While all BC games will air live on television, video highlights will be uploaded to the ACC Media Portal within about 90 minutes of the conclusion of the game. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information. Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the ACC Media Portal. The use of ACC game highlights provided through the ACC Media Portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines.

A small number of approved videographers will be permitted to shoot from an assigned location inside Alumni Stadium. The photo areas will be clearly marked on the concourse level in the end zone and at mid-field. Videographers and photographers are not permitted on the sidelines, concourses, suites, seating bowl or other areas of the stadium.

Visiting Radio

The visiting radio booth on the fifth floor of Alumni Stadium has room for three individuals inside the booth. There will not be any access to the sideline for visiting radio personnel.

Parking

Media parking is located in the Commonwealth Avenue parking garage. Use the St. Ignatius Gate on lower campus to access the Commonwealth Avenue parking garage. Take Campanella Way to the Commonwealth Avenue Garage. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential.

Game Notes/Statistics

Game notes and statistics will be available online at www.BCEagles.com in the 2020 Football Media Center. All notes, quotes, statistics will be distributed to the media digitally. Only a printed flip card will be available on gameday.

Live statistics will be available during the event online at www.bc.statbroadcast.com. A PDF of the final statistics will be posted postgame via BC's Football Media Center on BCEagles.com.

Postgame

All postgame interviews will be conducted online via Zoom. Coach Jeff Hafley and select BC student-athletes will be available as soon as possible following games for both home and away events. Links for the video conference, or phone numbers to dial into the conference, will be provided to approved media who request access from Jason Baum prior to kickoff.

Press Box Hours

The Alumni Stadium press box will open two hours prior to kickoff and will close two hours after conclusion of the game. Only those who make special arrangements with Jason Baum in advance will be permitted in the press box any earlier. If you anticipate needing additional time postgame, please check in advance with Jason Baum.

Coverage Without a Credential

While an individual may not receive a credential to physically be in attendance to cover a game during this pandemic period, there are still elements available to develop coverage:

1. All postgame interviews will be done online via Zoom with the opportunity to ask questions. Video files will be available upon request and some transcripts will be available at BCEagles.com.
2. Live statistics will be available during the event on bc.statbroadcast.com. A PDF of the final game book will be distributed via e-mail and posted on BCEagles.com post-game.

3. All games will be televised live as well as broadcast via radio.

4. Game notes and statistics will be available online via BC's media center by clicking here.

5. A group of still photographs will be provided electronically to approved media through the ACC Media Portal, as there is no field access beyond the assigned pool photographers.

6. Video highlights will be provided electronically through the ACC Media Portal and must be used in compliance with the ACC Highlight Policy.

Game Week Access

A weekly video teleconference with Coach Hafley will be held on Tuesdays at noon during the season via Zoom. Select student-athletes will be available post-practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays of game week via Zoom. Approved media representatives will be alerted with the appropriate links and times for the post-practice opportunities. Special requests for interviews may be made to Jason Baum (j.baum@bc.edu; cell: 201-966-6338).

CollegePressBox.com

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for ACC football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of the member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Any questions on these plans may be directed to Jason Baum or Brendan Flynn in the Boston College Athletics Communications Office. We appreciate your coverage and flexibility during this challenging time.
