THE GREGORY P. BARBER '69 AND FAMILY HEAD COACH: JEFF HAFLEY

Jeff Hafley was introduced as The Gregory P. Barber '69 and Family Head Coach of the Boston College football program on Dec. 14, 2019.

Of the 24 coaches hired in the 2020 coaching cycle, Hafley enters the 2022 season tied for second among all Power Five head coaches with 12 victories. He has led the Eagles to bowl eligibility in each of his first two seasons at the helm.

On the recruiting trail, Hafley and his staff have signed two of the top recruiting classes in school history. The 2021 and 2022 signing classes earned ESPN's best ranking in program history since its rankings began in 2006. BC also earned its best showing in the 247 Sports rankings and was awarded its first Rivals top-30 class since 2004.

One of college football's top defensive minds, Hafley's defense ranked third nationally in passing yards allowed (173.5 per game) during the 2021 season. The Eagles were also top-30 nationally in six other defensive categories: total defense, red zone defense, first downs allowed, third down percentage, team passing efficiency, and defensive touchdowns. His disciplined squad led the ACC in fewest penalties and fewest penalty yards.

A total of 12 Eagles were All-ACC selections, led by First Team offensive linemen Zion Johnson and Alec Lindstrom. Johnson was named to seven different All-America teams and was selected 17th overall in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers, becoming the 21st first round pick in school history.

In his first season on the Heights in 2020, Hafley finished with the most victories of any first-year head coach in college football. More impressive than the marked improvement on both sides of the ball from Boston College in 2020 was how the program handled playing in the COVID-19 pandemic. BC's team had just one positive COVID-19 result in over 9,000 administered tests since the team returned to campus in June of 2020.

Hafley helped improve BC's defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense as the Eagles allowed 62 fewer yards per game than the previous year, prior to his arrival. Isaiah McDuffie ranked fifth nationally in total tackles while Max Richardson ended the season 11th as Boston College was one of two schools in the entire country with two players finishing in the top 11 in tackles.

Nine Eagles were named All-ACC in 2020, including the first wide receiver to be named All-ACC First Team in Zay Flowers since 2012. Tight end Hunter Long was named a Second Team All-American by multiple outlets as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions and finished the year second in receptions.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Boston College, Hafley led a dramatic turnaround in leading the defense for Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the 2019 Big Ten Championship and qualified for the College Football Playoff.

A finalist for the Frank Broyles Award and the 247 Sports Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Hafley was one of the architects of a Buckeye defense that ranked first nationally in yards per play, second nationally in total defense, third nationally in scoring defense, third nationally in sacks, seventh nationally in rushing defense, second nationally in passing yards allowed and first nationally in red zone defense.

A standout defensive backs coach throughout his career in the NFL and collegiate ranks, Hafley's work as the defensive backs coach at Ohio State led to impressive results. The Buckeyes totaled 15 interceptions in 2019, tied for ninth nationally, while allowing just 25 pass plays of 20+ yards.

Before arriving at Ohio State, Hafley spent the previous seven seasons in the NFL, the last three with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach.

Prior to his time with San Francisco, Hafley was the secondary coach for two seasons in Cleveland, the secondary/safeties coach with Tampa Bay in 2013 and a defensive backs assistant with the Buccaneers in 2012.

His coaching career includes 11 seasons in collegiate football before a move to the NFL in 2012, and then seven subsequent seasons there. After starting his career working as running backs coach for one season (2001) at Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic Institute, Hafley moved on to the University of Albany for four seasons as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach (2002-05).

He then coached at the University of Pittsburgh for five seasons (2006-10) where he worked under the direction of Dave Wannstedt and helped mentor Darrelle Revis into a Jim Thorpe Award finalist in 2006. Hafley was a defensive assistant/cornerbacks coach in 2006-07 and was secondary coach from 2008-10.

One season as the defensive backs coach at Rutgers, working under Greg Schiano, followed his positions at Pittsburgh. The Scarlet Knights ranked ninth nationally in passing defense in his one season there, 2011. Hafley helped develop future NFL standout defensive backs Duron Harmon and Logan Ryan during his time in Piscataway.

Hafley moved on to the NFL following his year at Rutgers and coached two seasons with the Buccaneers, serving as assistant defensive backs coach in 2012 and secondary/safeties coach in 2013. Two seasons with the Cleveland Browns followed under coach Mike Pettine.

Three seasons as defensive backs coach with the San Francisco 49ers – 2016, 2017 and 2018 – preceded Hafley's position with the Buckeyes. He worked under Chip Kelly in 2016 and under Kyle Shanahan the final two seasons. In 2018, the 49ers ranked 11th in the league in passing defense. They were 14th in 2016 after ranking 27th in 2015, the year before Hafley arrived.

Hafley and his wife, Gina, have two daughters, Hope and Leah.

John McNulty Offensive Coordinator

A veteran of the coaching industry who has over 30 years of experience in both the NFL and collegiate ranks, McNulty heads to Chestnut Hill after serving as Notre Dame's tight ends coach since 2020.

McNulty is set to begin his 17th season in the collegiate ranks in 2022 and has mentored seven All-Americans or freshman All-Americans during his career. He has also coached in the NFL for 15 seasons, including on the staff of former BC head coach Tom Coughlin in Jacksonville.

Earlier in his coaching career, he served two stints at Rutgers (2004-08, 2018), including three seasons as offensive coordinator. McNulty was Rutgers' play-caller in 2006 as the Scarlet Knights finished 11-2 overall and ended the season ranked 12th nationally.

He then directed one of the most prolific offenses in NCAA history in 2007, as the Scarlet Knights became the first team in FBS history with a 3,000-yard passer (Mike Teel), 2,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice) and a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt and Tiquan Underwood). That season, the Scarlet Knights set school records for scoring, first downs and total offense. In addition, Britt and Underwood were the first teammates in BIG EAST history with 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

McNulty's NFL experience includes serving as the tight ends coach for the Chargers for two years. He also coached the wide receivers for the Cardinals, including All-Pro Larry Fitzgerald.

McNulty played safety at Penn State from 1988-90, where he was a member of two Nittany Lion bowl teams.

He and his wife Kim have four daughters: Abigail, Allison, Megan and Kaitlyn.

Vince Oghobaase Defensive Line

Vince Oghobaase (oh-guh-BAH-see) begins his third season as the defensive line coach at Boston College. A former standout at Duke, Oghobaase returned to the ACC after a two-year stint at UCLA.

Oghobaase helped BC rank third nationally in passing yards allowed (173.5 per game) during the 2021 season. The Eagles were also top-30 nationally in six other defensive categories.

Oghobaase became UCLA's defensive line coach in January of 2018. He joined the Bruin staff after working the previous two seasons in the NFL as the San Francisco 49ers' assistant defensive line coach.

In year two at UCLA, the Bruin defensive front helped cut almost 0.5 yards per carry off of the opponent rushing average per carry from the previous season and held four teams under 100 yards rushing. The defense upped its sack total from 11 to 26 over a year's time. Osa Odighizuwa led Bruin linemen with 46 tackles and added a team-high tying 10.0 tackles for loss.

In 2018, Oghobaase tutored a young group of linemen, including five freshmen and sophomores in major roles, which helped to produce improved numbers in average gain per rush allowed (down over a yard per carry), total offense yards allowed per game (down by almost 40 yards per game), turnovers forced (+5) and points per game allowed.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Oghobaase served as a defensive graduate assistant at The Ohio State University for three years (2013-15). During his tenure at Ohio State, he tutored defensive end Joey Bosa, now in the NFL with the Los Angeles Chargers, who registered 26.0 career sacks, the third most in school history.

Oghobaase began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Duke in 2011, and helped the Blue Devils earn the program's first bowl game appearance since 1994.

Oghobaase was a four-year starter as a player at Duke from 2006-09. He registered 165 tackles during his career, and finished his career ranked sixth in school history in both sacks (14.0) and tackles for loss (36.5). During his college career, Oghobaase earned Freshman All-American honors in 2006 and was twice named honorable mention All-ACC (2008-09). He received third-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 2009.

A native of Houston, Texas, Oghobaase graduated from Duke in 2010 with a degree in sociology and signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins after attending the NFL Scouting Combine.

Steve Shimko Quarterbacks

Steve Shimko enters his third season at Boston College and first season leading the quarterbacks. Shimko spent his first two years at BC as tight ends coach after serving two seasons with the Seattle Seahawks as assistant quarterbacks coach.

Last season, Shimko helped mentor transfer Trae Barry into an All-ACC tight end. Barry earned Honorable Mention honors after ranking sixth in the ACC with 17.2 yards per reception while adding four receiving touchdowns. He earned a rookie mini-camp invite from the Arizona Cardinals.

In his first season at the Heights, Shimko made an immediate impact as he helped develop tight end Hunter Long into one of the leading tight ends in college football in 2020.

Long became the highest drafted Boston College tight end in school history after the Miami Dolphins selected him in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft. He was named a Second Team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America, AP, Sporting News, CBS Sports and The Athletic in 2020.

Long was the top receiving tight end in the nation in 2020. The New Hampshire native led all tight ends nationally in receptions (57) and ranked second in receiving yards (685) behind Florida's Kyle Pitts.

Prior to BC, the New Jersey native helped tutor Russell Wilson as he was named to the Pro Football Writers Association All-NFL team for the first time in 2019. Wilson finished the season throwing for 4,110 yards and 31 touchdowns with just five interceptions. He had a passer rating of 106.3 in leading the Seahawks to the NFL Divisional Playoffs.

Shimko joined Seattle after two seasons (2016-17) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Garden City (Kan.) Community College where he won the NJACC National Championship in his first season. Prior to Garden City, he spent one season each at the University of Georgia (2015), Western Michigan (2014) and his alma mater, Rutgers (2013).

Shimko played quarterback at Rutgers but a shoulder injury cut short his career. Under NCAA rules, he became a student assistant under head coach Greg Schiano until graduating with a degree in criminal justice & labor relations.

HISTORY OF BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

— Text by Reid Oslin, Boston College, '68 and Jason Baum

The 2021 season will be the 123rd year of intercollegiate football competition for the Boston College Eagles. Here are a few of the milestones that have been reached along the way:

1891 — The Boston College student body was granted permission, but no money, by President Edward I. Devitt, S.J., to organize a football team. Joseph F. O'Donnell (1892), a Dorchester, Massachusetts, native with some previous amateur football experience, helped organize a team that played an informal schedule the following year.

1893 — Boston College began formal football competition. The team's first game was a 4-0 victory over St. John's Institute, an amateur power of the day (touchdowns were scored as four points by existing rules). BC played its first intercollegiate game on Oct. 25, a 6-0 loss to Tech '97, an MIT class team. The first varsity game was a 10-6 victory over Boston University in the final contest of the year. Joseph C. Drum ('94) served as BC's first football coach and the team's captain was Bernie Wefers ('94), who briefly held the world record in the 200-meter dash and 220-yard dash.

1894 — The Boston College football team got its first compensated coach, William Nagle. The school adopted the team colors of maroon and gold.

1896 — Boston College and Jesuit rival Holy Cross met for the first time in a home-and-home series. Boston College won both games, by scores of 6-2 and 8-6.

1900 — College President W.G. Read Mullan, S.J., refused to allow a football team to play under the school's name. Students formed an independent team named "Boston Combination" that competed locally. Fr. Mullan relented and allowed a varsity team to be fielded the following year.

1903-07 — In a reaction to the growing public outcry against the violence of college football, as well as for economic considerations, the sport was dropped at Boston College. United States President Theodore Roosevelt summoned the leaders of college football to Washington and urged that the rules of the sport be tightened. The resulting rules committee evolved into the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

1908 — Varsity football was restored at Boston College. The team practiced on the Massachusetts Avenue Grounds, the site of a former city dump. Team members mowed the grass and lined the field before practice sessions.

1913 — The college moved from its original location on James Street in Boston's South End to a new campus in Chestnut Hill. The football team's locker room and equipment storage area were located in the basement of the "Recitation Building" (renamed Gasson Hall in 1952), but coach Hiker Joy's team walked to the public park in Cleveland Circle for daily practice.

1915 — The original Alumni Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 30; however, the inaugural game was won by arch-rival Holy Cross by a 9-0 score before some 5,000 fans. A week later, Boston College won its first on-campus game, defeating Fordham, 3-0. The stadium was located on Middle Campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

1918 — Because of required military training for students in preparation for World War I, the football team was forced to limit practice sessions to no more than one hour per day.

1919 — A returning war hero, Frank Cavanaugh, was hired as BC's football coach. Known as "The Iron Major," Cavanaugh had been badly wounded in the Battle of San Mihiel, but recovered to launch a coaching career that would eventually lead him into the College Football Hall of Fame. In his first season at BC, he led his team to a startling 5-3 victory over heavily favored Yale — the biggest win in school history to that point. A 1943 movie, "The Iron Major" starring Pat O'Brien, chronicled Cavanaugh's life story. Part of the film was shot at the former Liggett Estate (now O'Connell House) on BC's Upper Campus.

1920 — The Boston College football team adopted the nickname "Eagles." The season was capped by a stirring 14-0 victory over Holy Cross before 40,000 fans at Braves Field. The win gave the team a perfect 8-0 season and the school's first "Eastern Championship."

1921 — The team's budding success drew national interest. The Eagles were invited to play Baylor in the dedication game of Dallas' Cotton Bowl stadium. The BC team, which made the 2,400-mile trip by train to play its first inter-sectional contest, responded with a 23-7 win over the Bears.

1926 — The final year of the Cavanaugh era produced another unbeaten season (6-0-2). The team captain was Joe McKenney, who would return to coach the Eagles from 1928-34.

1928 — McKenney's first year as head coach was a perfect 9-0 season and yielded another Eastern title. McKenney would later gain entrance into the College Football Hall of Fame as a highly respected college football official.

1936 — BC named Gilmour Dobie, another future College Hall of Fame member, as its head football coach. The Eagles' schedule was upgraded to include such national rivals as Kansas State, Kentucky, North Carolina State, Indiana and Florida, and home games were shifted to Fenway Park and Braves Field. Dobie's teams lost only six games in his three-year tenure.

1939 — On Feb. 7, Frank Leahy was named head football coach. "I have come here to succeed and to win football games," he told alumni a few days later. He did both, as the Boston College football team won 20 of 22 games played in the ensuing two seasons. The Eagles lost only one regular-season game in the 1939 campaign (7-0 to Florida) and became the first New England team in 20 years to earn a New Year's Day bowl invitation. The Eagles met Clemson in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, but lost a close 6-3 decision to the Tigers.

1940 — An undefeated (11-0) season, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship made this arguably the greatest season in Eagle football annals. On Nov. 16, BC handed Georgetown its first football loss in three years when "Chuckin" Charlie O'Rourke eluded a host of tacklers and took a safety in his own end zone as the clock expired to give the Eagles a memorable 19-18 victory. Sportswriter Grantland Rice described the contest as "the greatest game of football ever played."

1941 — On Jan. 1, the Eagles would lay claim to the national championship with a 19-13 victory over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. Again, O'Rourke provided the heroics, scoring on a 24-yard touchdown run with three minutes remaining in the game. Leahy had installed the game-winning play in the BC offense one day before the game. Leahy and five members of the Sugar Bowl championship team would eventually be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (HB O'Rourke, C Chet Gladchuk, E Gene Goodreault, FB Mike Holovak and G George Kerr). A crowd of 100,000 people welcomed the Sugar Bowl victors back to Boston's South Station, but Leahy would leave Boston College for Notre Dame within a month of the game.

1941 — From a field of 80 candidates, Denny Myers was named Boston College's new head football coach.

1942 — The Eagles were undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the land as they headed into the final game of the season against Holy Cross on Nov. 28. The Crusaders pulled off one of the biggest upsets in college football history that day, upending BC by a 55-12 score. Many BC players and fans were so bitterly disappointed that a planned "victory party" at Boston's Coconut Grove restaurant was canceled. The Coconut Grove was destroyed by fire that night, and 492 people lost their lives.

1943 — Again playing on New Year's Day, Boston College lost to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, 37-21. One bright point in the game for the Eagles was the play of Holovak, who scored all three BC touchdowns and averaged 15.8 yards every time he touched the football — an Orange Bowl record that stands to this day.

1943-45 — A large number of Boston College players and coaches departed to serve their country in the United States armed forces during World War II. The teams fielded on campus found competition against service teams such as Melville PT and Squantum Naval Air Station.

1946 — Myers returned as head coach after the war and the Eagles undertook a national schedule that included LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Penn State in following years. Two members of that September's freshman class — linemen Art Donovan and Ernie Stautner — would one day be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The roster also included lineman Ed King, who, after a brief pro football career, would later be elected Governor of Massachusetts.

1949 — On Nov. 26, Boston College scored its most lopsided victory, 76-0, over annual rival Holy Cross. BC fullback/kicker Ed Petela scored a record 34 points in the game — four touchdowns and 10 PATs.

1951 — Mike Holovak, who had played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears, returned to his alma mater as head coach. He later would be the head coach of the Boston Patriots and long-time general manager of the Houston Oilers.

1956 — After losing to Holy Cross, 7-0, on Dec. 1, Boston College was told that football games will no longer be played at Fenway Park. The school considered dropping the sport.

1957 — On Jan. 23, Boston College President Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., announced the decision to build a new stadium on campus. Athletics Director William J. Flynn and former head coach Joe McKenney led the successful $250,000 campaign to construct the new facility on the site of a filled-in reservoir on BC's lower campus. On Sept. 26, Alumni Stadium opened with a game against Navy that had been arranged with the assistance of then-U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy. The visiting Midshipmen spoiled the day, however, with a 46-6 victory before a standing-room-only crowd of 26,000-plus. The referee in the dedication game was the legendary Albie Booth.

1964 — The Eagles knocked off highly ranked Syracuse, 21-14, on Sept. 19 in the season opener as Larry Marzetti hit Bill Cronin with a 45-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play as time ran out. A freshman running back for the Orangemen that year was Tom Coughlin.

1968 — Joe Yukica took over as the Eagles' head coach. He served notice of things to come with a stunning 49-15 win at Navy in his BC coaching debut. Among the defenders for the Midshipmen in that game was end Tom O'Brien.

1970 — Fred Willis became the first running back in BC gridiron history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing (1,007) in a 10-game season.

1971 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats, an artificial surface was installed and lights were added for night play.

1974 — The Eagles, under Yukica and offensive backfield coach Jack Bicknell, were the hottest team in college football down the stretch, outscoring opponents by a 270-27 margin in the season's final six games. FB Keith Barnette was the nation's top scorer with 22 TDs on the season. However, the team's 8-3 record did not attract any bowl invitations to Chestnut Hill.

1975 — The Eagles opened the season with an ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" appearance against Notre Dame at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro. A record 61,000 fans filled the facility to watch the Irish take a 17-3 victory.

1976 — BC upended seventh-ranked Texas, 14-13, in a thrilling season opener at Alumni Stadium on Sept. 11. A key tackle by Kelly Elias on a Longhorn two-point conversion try with 4:38 remaining in the game proved the difference in this victory, the biggest for a BC team in years.

1978 — The Eagles suffered their worst season in history, losing all 11 games, including a 28-24 loss to Temple in a game played in Tokyo on Dec. 10.

1981 — Former BC assistant Bicknell was hired as head coach. He opened the season with a 13-12 home victory over Texas A&M on Sept. 19. Freshman Doug Flutie saw his first action — on one special teams play. Flutie would be named the team's starting quarterback by Bicknell and QB coach Tom Coughlin prior to the Navy game on Oct. 17.

1982 — The Eagles opened the season with a smashing 38-16 victory over Texas A&M in College Station. Two weeks later, BC tied defending national champion Clemson 17-17 at "Death Valley," and once again Boston College football was drawing national attention. After beating Holy Cross 35-10 in the final regular season game, the Eagles were invited to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl in Orlando to play Auburn. Fans watching that game saw two future Heisman Trophy winners: BC's Flutie and the Tigers' Bo Jackson. Auburn won the Dec. 18 game, 33-26.

1983 — The Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-2 record, including the first win over Penn State (27-17 at Foxboro) and a last-minute 20-13 victory over Alabama on a rainy November night in Foxboro that was remembered as the game "that the lights went out." Fortunately, power crews restored electricity just as officials were considering stopping the game and BC went on to score on its final possession to win. The Lambert Trophy champions were matched up against Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl on Dec. 29 — a game that was played in frigid, icy conditions. Each team scored three touchdowns in that game, but BC missed all of its extra-point tries, while the Irish converted one of three to account for the heart-breaking 19-18 final score.

1984 — Perhaps one of the most storied seasons in Boston College football history, an early highlight was the Eagles' stunning 38-31 victory over Alabama in Birmingham before a national television audience on Sept. 8. The Eagles scored on their final possession of the game to beat the Crimson Tide — an omen of rallies to come. On Nov. 22, at the Orange Bowl, Flutie and Boston College football went into the storybooks as No. 22 threw a 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass to WR Gerard Phelan on the game's final play to give BC a memorable 47-45 victory over the Miami Hurricanes. A week later, Flutie completed one of his final college football goals by throwing a touchdown pass to his brother Darren, a freshman, in the final game of the regular season at Holy Cross on Dec. 1. He then flew to New York City where he was presented with the Heisman Trophy later that night.

1985 — Boston College scored its first postseason victory since the 1941 Sugar Bowl with an impressive 45-28 victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. The Eagles were ranked No. 4 in the final college football poll and won the Lambert Trophy as Eastern Champions for the second consecutive year.

1985 — Appearing in the Kickoff Classic, the Eagles lost to high-powered Brigham Young, 28-14, in the college football curtain-raiser, but NG Mike Ruth chased Cougar QBs all over the field en route to eventually winning the Outland Award as college football's top lineman that season.

1986 — After thrashing Holy Cross by a 56-26 score in Worcester on Nov. 22, the Eagles were invited to play Georgia in Tampa's Hall of Fame Bowl on Dec. 23. There, QB Shawn Halloran hit WR Kelvin Martin with a 5-yard scoring pass with just 32 seconds left in the game to give BC a 27-24 victory. Two months later, Holy Cross abruptly canceled the BC-HC rivalry that had begun in 1896.

1988 — A rebuilt Alumni Stadium with matching upper decks and state-of-the-art press facilities was dedicated in a nationally televised game against Southern Cal. On Nov. 19, Boston College and Army made sports history by playing the first American college football game in Europe. The Eagles topped the Cadets 38-24 in that contest, played at Dublin's Lansdowne Road Stadium.

1991 — Coughlin was hired away from the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants as BC's newest head football coach. BC played the first BIG EAST Football Conference game at Rutgers on August 31, the coach's 45th birthday.

1992 — BC scored three consecutive shutout victories (vs. Northwestern, Navy and Michigan State) on the way to an 8-2-1 regular season and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Tennessee. The Vols won the Sugar Bowl "rematch" by a 38-23 score.

1993 — The Eagles bounced back from losses in the first two games of the year to reel off eight consecutive victories and earn another postseason invitation. Highlighting this drive was a magnificent 41-39 victory at Notre Dame on Nov. 20, when David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal with no time remaining to shock the No. 1-ranked Irish. The Eagles' final 8-3 showing earned them a slot in the Carquest Bowl in Fort Lauderdale, where they beat ACC representative Virginia, 31-13, on New Year's Day.

1994 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to its current capacity of 44,500 and was completely refurbished. Unfortunately, as had happened on three previous occasions, the Eagles lost the dedication game, this time, 12-7, to Virginia Tech on Sept. 17. BC made up for the loss, however, by scoring an impressive 30-11 victory over Notre Dame in Chestnut Hill on Oct. 8 — the Eagles' first win in their new lair. BC went on to cap the season with a Christmas Day appearance in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where the Eagle defense led the way to a 12-7 victory over Kansas State.

1995 — Boston College was again invited to participate in the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands, but fared no better than in their 1985 appearance and lost to Ohio State by a 38-6 count. All 12 of the Eagles' games were on network television that year.

1996 — Tom O'Brien was named head coach at Boston College on Dec. 13.

1997 — O'Brien recorded his first victory as a head coach on Sept. 13, as BC beat West Virginia, 31-24. It was the first time the Eagles had defeated the Mountaineers in Chestnut Hill since 1976.

1998 — Mike Cloud rushed for a BIG EAST and then-BC single-season record 1,726 yards to become Boston College's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards. He became a consensus first-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back of the Year Award. The Kansas City Chiefs selected him in the second round of the NFL Draft.

1999 — Boston College engineered the third-best turnaround in major college football by finishing the regular season with an 8-3 record and ranked 22nd nationally. BC received an invitation to play in the Insight.com Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 1994.

2000 — Boston College made its second straight trip to a bowl game as the Eagles defeated Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the Aloha Bowl. William Green became the third-straight Eagle back to rush for 1,000 yards or more in a season and offensive tackle Paul Zukauskas earned first-team All-America honors and was later picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

2001 — The Eagles posted an 8-4 record and earned back-to-back bowl game wins with an impressive 20-16 win over Georgia in the Music City Bowl. Green rushed for 1,559 yards and earned first-team All-America honors. Green (16th, Cleveland) and OT Marc Colombo (29th, Chicago) were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

2002 — BC's 51-25 win over Toledo in the Motor City Bowl, an unprecedented third consecutive bowl victory, sent the 2002 senior class out with 32 victories in four years (32-17), tied with the 1981-84 group for the most wins in a four-year period in 60 years of Boston College football. One of the top highlights of the season occurred on Nov. 2, when the Eagles marched into Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the previously undefeated, fourth-ranked and green-clad Fighting Irish, 14-7, to end ND's dreams of a national championship.

2003 — On Oct. 12, 2003, BC President William P. Leahy, S.J. and Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo held a press conference to announce that Boston College accepted an offer to become the 12th member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles notched impressive victories over Notre Dame, No. 25 Penn State and No. 12 Virginia Tech en route to winning their 40th game in five seasons, tying an all-time school record. On New Year's Eve, the Eagles appeared in a school-record fifth consecutive bowl game at the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Their 35-21 victory over Colorado State made the Eagles the first team in BC football history to win seven or more games for five consecutive seasons and the only team in college football to have won a bowl game the past four years in a row. Senior running back Derrick Knight became BC's all-time rushing leader, finishing his career with 3,725 yards.

2004 — The Eagles rolled to another 9-3 season, winning a share of the BIG EAST Conference championship and missing a Fiesta Bowl bid only by a loss to Syracuse on the final day of the 2004 campaign. Senior QB Paul Peterson engineered a thrilling 24-23 victory at Notre Dame with a last-minute 30-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez setting up the stunning victory. Peterson was injured two weeks later in a win against Temple, but the Utah native returned to the lineup to lead the Eagles to a 37-24 victory over future ACC rival North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte.

2005 — After season-opening victories at Brigham Young and Army, Boston College played its first ACC game — a nationally-televised contest against Florida State on Sept. 21. ESPN's "Game Day" crew was on hand to broadcast from campus prior to the much-anticipated ACC match-up. The Eagles lost to Bobby Bowden's powerful Seminoles 28-17 in their league debut, but introduced themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ACC with a 16-13 overtime victory at Clemson a week later. BC finished with another impressive 9-3 record and went on to play Boise State in the Humanitarian Bowl where they handed the host Broncos a rare defeat, 27-21, on their home blue turf.

2006 — Another successful year for BC football, as the team finished with a 10-3 record, including a pair of double-overtime victories over Clemson (34-33) and Brigham Young (30-23) on back-to-back September Saturdays. The big news of the year, however, came in December as Coach Tom O'Brien left Chestnut Hill to become head coach at ACC rival North Carolina State. Defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani took over leadership of the team for the Meineke Care Bowl against Navy in Charlotte and recorded his first head coaching victory as linebacker Jolann Dunbar recovered a Midshipman fumble late in the game and QB Matt Ryan led the Eagles back into scoring range where kicker Steve Aponavicius booted a 37-yard field goal to give BC a narrow 25-24 victory.

2007 — With new coach Jeff Jagodzinski — a former BC offensive line coach and NFL assistant — at the helm, the new-look Eagles rolled off eight straight victories to start the year — the best of them a stunning 14-10 win at Virginia Tech that featured two Matt Ryan touchdown passes in the game's final 2:11 — the game-winner a 24-yard scoring strike to RB Andre Callender with just seconds to play. The victory propelled BC to the No. 2 slot in the national rankings and helped them finish the regular season with a 10-2 mark, earning a spot in the ACC Championship game in Jacksonville vs. Virginia Tech. The Eagles lost to the Hokies, 30-16, in the title game, but bounded back to trim Michigan State, 24-21, in Orlando's Citrus Bowl, giving the team an 11-victory season, the most wins at Chestnut Hill since the legendary Sugar Bowl Champions of 1940.

2008 — As All-America QB Matt Ryan departed for the NFL (he was the first round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons), the Eagles regrouped quickly to post another 9-3 regular season that included a 17-0 shutout of Notre Dame — the Eagles' sixth consecutive win over the Irish. BC again won the ACC Atlantic Division crown and advanced to the league's title game again where Virginia Tech won a second straight championship at BC's expense. After losing to Vanderbilt, 16-14, in Nashville's Music

City Bowl, Jagodzinski looked into NFL job possibilities and departed Chestnut Hill.

2009 — A longtime BC defensive assistant, Frank Spaziani became the school's 34th head football coach, inheriting a team that was picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earning a spot in San Francisco's Emerald Bowl against Southern California.

2010 — The defensively powerful Eagles qualified for a school-record 12th consecutive postseason bowl game, returning to San Francisco to meet Nevada in the re-named Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2011 — For the first time in more than a decade, the Eagles slipped below .500 and missed out on postseason play. The season spotlight belonged to two-time All-American LB Luke Kuechly who made a "clean sweep" of national defensive honors, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Lott Impact Trophy after leading all collegiate football players in tackles (191) and solo tackles (102) during the 2011 campaign. Kuechly entered the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round.

2012 — The Eagles slipped to a disappointing 2-10 season, the worst showing since the winless (0-11) season in 1978. At the end of the year, coach Frank Spaziani was replaced by former Temple head coach Steve Addazio, who was named BC's 35th head coach of football on Dec. 4.

2013 — The Addazio era began with a 24-14 victory over feisty Villanova in his BC coaching debut. The Eagles turned in a successful seven-win season and an invitation to play Pac-12 opponent Arizona in the Advocare v100 Bowl game in Shreveport, Louisiana on Dec. 31 — the Eagles' first post-season appearance since 2010. Along the way, BC scored ACC victories over Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, Maryland and North Carolina State. The 38-21 victory over the Wolfpack on Nov. 16, made the Eagles bowl-eligible and set off an enthusiastic celebration in Alumni Stadium, hailing the program's return to the ranks of college football's upper echelon. Running back Andre Williams rushed for a school-record 2,177 yards and 18 touchdowns. Williams was accorded consensus All-America honors; won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back; and became BC's first Heisman Trophy finalist since the Doug Flutie nearly 30 years earlier.

2014 — Addazio kept the Eagles on track with another winning season and another postseason bowl trip. BC went 7-6, highlighted by an electric, 37-31 upset over ninth-ranked Southern California in Alumni Stadium on Sept. 13. The Eagles topped the Trojans for the first BC victory versus a top-10 team in seven years and the first win for an unranked BC team against a top-10 team since 2002. BC became bowl eligible on Nov. 1 with a three-point victory at Virginia Tech and later earned a berth to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium against Penn State on Dec. 27. The defense ranked second in the nation, allowing just 94.5 yards per game and the offense finished the season 14th with 254.7 yards per game, setting a BC school record with 3,311 total yards. Quarterback Tyler Murphy made a lasting impression in his one season at The Heights, setting both the Boston College and Atlantic Coast Conference records for rushing yards by a QB with 1,184.

2015 — Although the team went 3-9 to miss out on a bowl game for the first time in three seasons, it was led by the nation's best defense. The Eagles held defending national champion Florida State to only one offensive touchdown and kept the Eagles within a touchdown of winning five games. The Eagles ranked first in total defense and first downs defense and fourth in scoring defense.

2016 — The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the third time in four seasons. Boston College won its first bowl game since 2007 after a 36-30 victory over Maryland in the Quick Lane Bowl. The Eagles finished the season with three consecutive victories and featured the nation's ninth-best defense. Junior Harold Landry earned All-America honors from the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation as he led the nation in sacks (16.5) and forced fumbles (seven).

2017 — The Eagles won seven games (7-6) and returned to a bowl game for the fourth time in five seasons. Boston College was just one of two bowl teams nationally to play 10 teams who qualified for a bowl in 2017. The Eagles featured ACC Rookie of the Year AJ Dillon, the nation's second-leading rusher among freshmen and the country's No. 7 overall rusher with 1,589 yards and 14 touchdowns. Boston College had nine players earn All-ACC honors, tied for the most in school history. Three Eagles earned All-America accolades (Lukas Denis, Walter Camp Second Team; AJ Dillon, Freshman All-America; Ben Petrula, Freshman All-America).

HISTORY OF BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

2018 — The Eagles won seven games (7-5) and returned to a bowl game for the fifth time in six seasons. The Eagles made their first appearance in the College Football Playoff Top 25 rankings, returned to the national AP and coaches' polls for the first time since 2008 and hosted College GameDay for the third time in school history. BC started the season 7-2 overall and spent four weeks in the national rankings, the most weeks ranked since the 2007 campaign. Four players captured All-America honors (Hamp Cheevers, Chris Lindstrom, Michael Walker and Zach Allen) while BC tied a modern-day record with four players selected in the 2019 NFL Draft (Chris Lindstrom, Zach Allen, Will Harris, Tommy Sweeney). Lindstrom became the 20th first-round pick in school history going 14th overall to the Atlanta Falcons.

2019 — Boston College finished the regular season 6-6 overall and AD Martin Jarmond announced a change in leadership following the win over Pitt in the regular season finale. Jarmond appointed Ohio State defensive coordinator Jeff Hafley as the program's 36th head coach in history on Dec. 14, 2019.

AJ Dillon and John Phillips earned All-ACC first-team honors following the season while Dillon finished fourth in ACC history in career rushing yards. He was a second-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the 2020 NFL Draft and an AP All-American third-team selection.

2020 — In his first season on the Heights, Hafley finished with the most victories of any first-year head coach in college football in 2020 with a 6-5 record.

More impressive than the marked improvement on both sides of the ball from Boston College in 2020 was how the program handled playing in the COVID-19 pandemic. BC's team had just one positive COVID-19 result in over 9,000 administered tests since the team returned to campus last June.

Hafley, one of college football's top defensive minds, helped improve a BC defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense as the Eagles allowed 62 fewer yards per game than the previous year prior to his arrival.

Nine Eagles were named All-ACC in 2020, including the first wide receiver to be named All-ACC First-Team in Zay Flowers since 2012. Tight end Hunter Long was named a Second Team All-American by multiple outlets as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions and finished the year second in receptions.

2021 — Boston College started year-two under Hafley a perfect 4-0 in non-conference play, capped by an overtime win over Missouri from the Southeastern Conference at Alumni Stadium. The Eagles finished the year 6-6 and earned a bid to the Military Bowl in Annapolis, Md., which was ultimately cancelled.

A total of 12 Eagles earned All-ACC accolades, including first-team offensive linemen Zion Johnson and Alec Lindstrom. Both earned All-American status, while Johnson and was selected 17th overall in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers.

Pat Garwo, an All-ACC second team selection, became the 19th 1,000-yard rusher in BC history with 1,045 yards, which ranked fourth in the ACC.

RETIRED NUMBERS

Never again will a Boston College football player wear the No. 22 or No. 68. Those two retired numbers belonged to quarterback Doug Flutie (1981-84) and nose tackle Mike Ruth (1982-85), respectively. Flutie won the 1984 Heisman Trophy, given annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the outstanding college football player in the nation, and the Walter Camp Award, given by the Walter Camp Football Foundation of New Haven, Connecticut, to the nation's most outstanding player.

Ruth was the winner of the 1985 Outland Trophy, given to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America.

These two numbers were retired in a ceremony on Oct. 8, 1998, as the Eagles played Virginia Tech.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Ten other former Boston College football players have received the honor of having their jerseys retired — Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Luke Kuechly, Pete Mitchell, Lou Montgomery, Charles O'Rourke, Matt Ryan, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban.

A four-year letterwinner at end and team captain in 1923, Urban played on Boston College teams that compiled an overall record of 25-7, including the 1920 team that went 8-0 and gave the school its first Eastern Championship. He was a consensus first-team all-America selection in that season.

AWARD WINNERS

O'Rourke's Boston College teams compiled a cumulative record of 26-3-2. "Chuckin' Charlie" helped lead the Eagles to an 11-0 record in 1940, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Holovak's Boston College teams finished 26-5 and he is known as one of the top running backs in school history. He scored all three Eagle touchdowns in the 1943 Orange Bowl and averaged 15.8 yards per carry in that contest against Alabama. A consensus first-team all-American in 1942, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

Thurman was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1984 as a defensive back and still holds the school career records for interceptions in a game (3), season (12) and career (25).

Flynn, who was honored in ceremonies at 1999's Miami game, was associated with Boston College athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and director of athletics. He played football at Boston College from 1936-38, serving as team captain in '38. He also played hockey and became the first Boston College player to score 20 goals in a season.

Flynn returned to the University in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach and seven years later became the Alumni Association executive secretary. Flynn was the director of athletics for the Eagles from 1957-90, and during his tenure, Boston College expanded its varsity sports programs and constructed most of its major athletics facilities.

Donovan, who was honored at the 1999 Pittsburgh game, was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1946-49 and was an outstanding lineman for his teams that went a combined 20-13-3.

In the professional ranks, he played on two world championship teams in 12 seasons as a perennial all-pro selection at defensive tackle for the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

Goodreault, who was honored at 2001's Pittsburgh game at Alumni Stadium, was a member of the Boston College football team that won the 1941 Sugar Bowl.

He lettered for the Eagles from 1938-40 as an end and was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1940, including a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team.

In the fall of 1937, Montgomery was one of three Black students in the BC freshman class and became the first Black student-athlete on the Heights as a running back for the football team. He starred out of the backfield for coach Frank Leahy's squad in 1939 and 1940, but was forced to sit out the 1940 Cotton Bowl and 1941 Sugar Bowl due discriminating laws that prevented Black athletes from competing against white athletes in America's south.

In 1939, Montgomery averaged 9.68 yards per carry; a BC record that still stands over 80 years later. However, Montgomery played in just nine of 11 games for the Eagles, who finished the season 9-2. Montgomery was forced to sit out games against Florida and Clemson; BC's only two losses on the season.

Kuechly became the most decorated defensive player in BC football history after sweeping every major postseason award in 2012, including the Dick Butkus Award, the Lott IMPACT Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Award and the Rotary Lombardi Award. The two-time consensus first-team All-American finished his three-year collegiate career led the nation for two consecutive seasons in total tackles, tackles per game, solo tackles and solo tackles per game. He finished his collegiate career with a school-record 532 tackles and ranks among the NCAA career leaders in several defensive statistical categories.

He recorded at least 10 tackles in 34 of 38 games, including a streak of 33 straight games between 2009-11. He was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round (ninth overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft and has continued to rack up honors as a professional. In his first season, he was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and one season later, he was selected for the Pro Bowl and AP overall Defensive Player of the Year. In Carolina's 2015 Super Bowl run, he became the first linebacker in the Super Bowl era with multiple interception return touchdowns in a single postseason. Ryan, nicknamed "Matty Ice," capped an illustrious Boston College career by being selected third overall by the Atlanta Falcons in the NFL draft, becoming BC's highest draft pick ever in any sport. During his standout senior season in 2007, he led the team to an 8-0 start and No. 2 national ranking en route to an 11-3 record (best since 1940), the ACC Atlantic Division championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the ACC Championship game. He was the winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award (given to the nation's top senior quarterback), the Manning Award (given to the nation's top quarterback), was ACC Player of the Year and finished seventh in Heisman Trophy balloting. He set the BC school record for single-season passing yards and when he completed 388-of- 654 passes for 4,507 yards and 31 touchdowns in 2007. In eight seasons in the NFL, he has completed 2,915 of 4,530 passes (64.3 percent) for 32,757 yards and 202 touchdowns while posting a 90.9 passer rating. He owns franchise records for career passing yards, career pass attempts, career completions, career touchdowns, career passing rating, career completion percentage and career 300-yard games.

Mitchell was a two-time first-team All-American, earning consensus honors in 1994. He is one of only 12 Boston College players to earn consensus All-America honors in school history. A two-time All-BIG EAST first-team performer, Mitchell led the conference in receptions in each of his last two seasons. At the time he completed his career at BC, he was the school's all-time leader in receptions (190) and receiving yards (2,388).

BOWL GAME HISTORY

1940 COTTON BOWL

CLEMSON	6
BOSTON COLLEGE	3

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

Leahy's team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl — the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

1941 SUGAR BOWL

TENNESSEE	13

In head coach Frank Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl.

The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zabliski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied at 13. Don Currivan blocked a UT field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive.

1943 ORANGE BOWL

ALABAMA	37
BOSTON COLLEGE	21

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back for a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Crimson Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

NOTRE DAME	19

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16-of-37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a three-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a deadlocked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giaquinto fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles' leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

HOUSTON	28

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years. Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead.

Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest. Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 half-time lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself.

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a five-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, Fla.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts — good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission. Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

TENNESSEE	38

The first bowl appearance in six years fell short of a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the Vols a lead that could not be matched.

BC had outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

BC rallied with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's seven-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's closing effort.

Glenn Foley put on a masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage, 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing minutes of play. In his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards — nearly seven yards per play.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

KANSAS STATE	7

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold — completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses dueled in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left.

The key play of that successful late drive was a 46-yard pass from Mark Hartsell to wide receiver Kenyatta Watson.

Leading 24-10 to start the fourth quarter, senior linebacker Ryan Burch intercepted a pass attempt by Griffin Goodman. Boston College celebrated New Year's Eve in the City by the Bay by winning its fourth consecutive bowl game, a 35-21 victory over Colorado State in the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

The Eagles scored early and often, taking a commanding 21-0 first-quarter lead. Will Blackmon started the game on a high note, returning the opening kickoff to the Colorado State 41. All-time rushing leader Derrick Knight dominated the opening drive and scored from the five to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 12:14 left. A 40-yard Bradlee Van Pelt scoring pass with seven minutes remaining in the third trimmed BC's lead to 21-14, but a Bobby Stancil interception led to a Paul Peterson-to-Larry Lester 19-yard TD pass to give the Eagles some breathing room and a 28-14 lead.

After an unsuccessful fourth down play for Colorado State, Knight iced the win, marching 28 yards to the end zone.

BOSTON COLLEGE	37
NORTH CAROLINA	24

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24. Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort.

UNC opened the third with a Connor Barth field goal to take a 24-21 lead. As the third quarter came to an end, Callender gained 38 yards to the UNC 10, setting up a one-yard touchdown plunge three plays later that gave BC a 27-24 lead.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ryan Ohliger faked the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead. BC's final points came when William Troost hit an 18-yard field goal with 4:09 left.

Rishard Matthews caught a touchdown pass and returned a punt for another score, and No. 13 Nevada used its best defensive game of the season to beat Boston College 20-13.

Colin Kaepernick threw for 192 yards and a touchdown for the Wolf Pack (13-1), who snapped a four-game bowl losing streak by tying a school record for wins in a season, set when it played in what used to be Division I-AA.

The win was sealed by Khalid Wooten's interception on the final drive of the game for the Eagles (7-6).

The game matched BC's top-ranked rushing defense against Nevada's high-powered pistol attack that was third in the nation in rushing. The defense won that battle, holding the Wolf Pack to a season-low 114 yards on the ground, including just 22 for Kaepernick.

Freshman Chase Rettig completed 14-of-34 passes for 121 yards and two interceptions. Boston College played without leading rusher Montel Harris, who got hurt in pregame warmups.

ARIZONA	42
BOSTON COLLEGE	19

First-year coach Steve Addazio said Boston College had plenty to be proud of after a remarkable turnaround season that included a return to postseason play after a 2-10 record in 2012.

Not much went right for the Eagles in a 42-19 loss to Arizona in the Advocare V100 Bowl. Boston College running back Andre Williams, the Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman finalist who came into the game with 2,102 yards rushing, was held to 75 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

BC (7-6) kept things tight early, trailing just 7-6 midway through the second quarter. But Arizona scored two quick touchdowns just before halftime to take a 21-6 lead and the Eagles could never mount another challenge.

BC didn't score a touchdown until Williams' four-yard run early in the fourth quarter. Senior Alex Amidon established a Boston College career record for receptions (191) and receiving yards (2,800) in the game, recording 10 receptions for 129 yards against the Wildcats. Senior place-kicker Nate Freese connected on both field-goal attempts to conclude the season a perfect 20-for-20.

BOSTON COLLEGE ATHLETICS

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Blake James was named the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics at Boston College, effective July 1, 2022.

James is an experienced, nationally respected athletics administrator who established a student-athlete approach at Miami that focused on academic achievement, athletic success, and individual development. James served as the school's director of athletics from 2013-2021, leading the Hurricanes to multiple NCAA and ACC championships across numerous sports. In his role, he oversaw 18 varsity sports involving more than 400 student-athletes, with a staff of more than 250 individuals and an annual budget of $123 million.

At Miami, he set records for athletics fundraising and led the completion of major capital projects, including new indoor facilities for football, baseball, and golf, and facility enhancements for men and women's basketball. He negotiated and managed one of the largest collegiate sports apparel deals in the country, and significantly increased ticket sales for the school's football and basketball programs.

A proven leader within the NCAA and ACC, James served on the NCAA Board of Directors (2017-2019), NCAA Board of Governors (2017-2019), the NCAA Football Oversight Committee (2015-2017), and held leadership roles on the NCAA Student Athlete Experience Committee (2019-2021). He also served as chair of the NCAA Division I Council, the group responsible for the day-to-day decision making for all Division I athletics. Within the ACC, he served on the Football Committee, the NIL Committee, and the Finance and Audit Committee, and was named chair of the conference's athletics directors. He was selected as one of four recipients of the Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in 2016.

In announcing the appointment, University President William P. Leahy, S.J., praised James as an individual with the proven record of accomplishment to lead Boston College Athletics into the future.

"Blake brings extensive experience, understands the issues facing intercollegiate athletics today, and is committed to BC's mission," said Fr. Leahy. "I look forward to welcoming him to Boston College."

James said he is excited to become BC's next director of athletics and looks forward to beginning his role: "It is truly an honor to join the Boston College family as the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics," said James. "I am grateful to Fr. Leahy for the opportunity to lead the Eagles and for his confidence in me and in our shared vision for BC Athletics. We will strive for excellence in all of our pursuits in alignment with our Jesuit values. We will compete for championships with integrity, with incredible young men and women, and talented and compassionate coaches and staff supporting their journeys."

A graduate of Minnesota State University-Mankato with a degree in marketing, James earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University. He began his athletic career at the University of Miami in tickets sales and development before moving to Providence College to work in athletic development. He later served as director of athletics at the University of Maine where he directed 19 Division I sports programs from 2005-2010, before returning to Miami as interim athletics director and senior associate A.D. for Development and Ticket Operations. He was named Miami's Director of Athletics in 2013.

The Weston, Mass., native began his career at WFNZ in Charlotte. He spent 12 years as a member of the Dennis and Callahan show on Sports Radio WEEI in Boston from 2000-12. Meterparel called Harvard University Football on TV and Harvard basketball on radio. For his work on BC football, he was named the Lindsey Nelson Northeast Sportscaster of the Year in 2007. Meterparel is the proud father of two sons, Ben and Nick.

Cronan, a star defensive tackle and inside linebacker at Boston College who captained the 1976 Eagle entry, begins his 34th year as the color analyst for Boston College football. A second-round pick of Seattle, Cronan enjoyed a nine-year career in the NFL with the Seahawks (1977-81) and Redskins (1981-85). He has been the color commentator on the Boston College IMG Radio Network since 1988 and his broadcast partners have included Gil Santos, Dale Arnold, Dick Lutsik, Sean McDonough, Sean Grande, John Rooke and Jon Meterparel.

Mutryn, a quarterback at Boston College from 1994-98, is entering his 10th season on the Boston College broadcast team. Mutryn was a Parade All-American out of Saint Ignatius High School in Cleveland, Ohio and finished his BC career ranked among the school's top-10 quarterbacks in total career yardage, passing yards, attempts and completion percentage. Mutryn signed a free agent contact with the New England Patriots in 1999 and competed against Drew Bledsoe, John Friesz and Michael Bishop during preseason, but did not make the final cut.

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

The Boston College Athletic Communications Office is available to assist you with coverage of the BC football program.

The Athletic Communications Office is located on the second level of Conte Forum. For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the BC Athletic Communications Office at 617-552-3004, visit CollegePressBox.com or e-mail Brendan Flynn at flynnhu@bc.edu.

To assist in your coverage throughout the year, please read the media information on this page. All interviews must be arranged through the Communications Office at least one day in advance. All student-athletes, coaches and support staff will not take part in an interview unless scheduled by the BC Athletic Communications Office.

JEFF HAFLEY WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE

Jeff Hafley's weekly news conference is held at 11:45 a.m. Tuesday inside Fish Field House following BC's morning practice. Video of the press conference will be posted on BCEagles.com and the Boston College Athletics YouTube channel.

JEFF HAFLEY ZOOM MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES

Hafley is available the day after a game via a Zoom meeting along with Wednesday after practice. To gain access to the media opportunities, please e-mail Brendan Flynn.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The first 20 minutes of practice on Tuesday and Wednesday is open to the media. Student-athletes are made available for interviews following the conclusion of practice. The starting quarterback will speak after practice on Tuesday. All Wednesday meetings will occur over Zoom.

An attempt is made for telephone and Zoom interviews for media outside the Boston area if arranged in advance with the BC Communications office on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media credential requests must be submitted via www.sportssystem.com/bostoncollege. Credentials for Boston College home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations and demand. Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at Media Will Call (Media Entrance) at Gate D of Alumni Stadium.

1. The Athletics Communication Office will do its best to accommodate legitimate requests for game credentials. Criteria for media credentials vary, as they are dependent on the availability of media seating. Priority seating for any event is as follows: local beat media, opponent beat media, local media, opponent media, national media, state/regional media, professional scouts, recognized Internet media and unaffiliated media. Those members of the media who are credentialed are asked to comply with guidelines set forth by the Football Writers Association of America. There is no cheering allowed in the press box, where there is also a no smoking policy in accordance with University regulations. Violators in both instances will first receive a warning, and upon any repeat violation, will be asked to leave the press facilities.
2. When the press box is not expected to be at capacity, legitimate single-game credential requests will be granted. For those high-volume games, the criteria under No. 3 below are used in processing and approving credential requests.
3. Credentials for home and road football games for local media are dependent on its organization's coverage of the BC football and athletic program (all sports). To qualify for passes, the team must be covered on a regular basis, and media personnel need to make an effort to have a presence at press conferences and practices (when open). Newspapers must provide feature coverage; radio and television stations must occasionally cover practice and attend the weekly press conference (Tuesdays).

Media credentials are issued solely to the person identified on it. It may not be transferred or used by any other person. Acceptance of a media credential requires compliance with all Boston College rules and regulations applicable to the media credential. Any breach or failure to comply with these terms, conditions, rules and/or regulations may result in the cancellation and withdrawal of the media credential, including but not limited to expulsion from the athletics event for which it was issued, and denial of a media credential for any and all future athletics events.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Commonwealth Avenue parking garage. Use the St. Ignatius Gate on lower campus at Campanella Way to access the Comm. Ave. parking garage. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential. If time permits, both will be mailed to you. There is no day-of-game media parking list and therefore members of the media must have a media parking credential in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete NCAA statistics, play-by-play, and quote sheets from both teams are all regular services on gameday will be sent electronically. Upon your arrival, you will receive a flip card.
