THE STARTING FIVE

Washington, D.C. and Princess Anne, Md. -

The Bethune-Cookman Wildcats return to the road for a two-game stretch continuing MEAC play against Howard University and UMES. BCU looks to improve its 1-8 road mark this season, and win at each of the programs for the first time since 2012

1 Entering this week, BCU leads the MEAC in offensive rebounds (13.58), blocks (57), and free throw attempts (260). Amongst the NCAA, it is 19th in offensive boards, 32nd in blocks, and 31st in free throw attempts

2 A pair of Wildcats achieved double-doubles vs. SC State, with Malik Maitland dishing out 11 assists and scoring 15, while Shawntrez Davis led the 'Cats with 17 points and 12 rebounds. It was the second time this season the duo recorded the recognition (vs. Johnson 11/10)

3 BCU claimed its MEAC opener with a victory for only the third time since 2011-12. That year's squad started conference play 2-0, and was the last team to win its first two conference games

4 Senior guard Brandon Tabb ranks in the MEAC's top 5 in four three-point statistical categories. For a more detailed, look see the chart on pg. 3

5 Tabb is fifth nationally and leads the MEAC at the charity stripe. He is converting 95.3% of his free throw attempts, and has only missed twice this season. His last miss was against Boston U on Dec. 8

QUOTE SHEET

"Coach (Ridder) has done a really good job with them. They (BCU) are probably trying to feel themselves out too, with a lot of new guys. They are going to be very good as they continue to play this season. Their team plays hard, and (Brandon) Tabb can flat-out shoot."

- Josh Pastner, Georgia Tech Head Coach

"There are 351 NCAA I men's basketball head coaching jobs, and for Ryan to have earned one of them, in this community, his hometown, is an unbelievable opportunity. It's going to be a lot of work. It's going to be a challenge, but I know he will do an incredible job ... I think they will really enjoy having Ryan as their coach, both on and off the basketball court."

- Steve Ridder, Embry-Riddle Head Coach

"Along with the rest of the Daytona State athletics family, I'm proud to see another member of our successful Falcon staff fly on to his next assignment ... Although we are sad to see Ryan go, we wish him nothing but success at BCU. He put a tremendous amount of hard work into getting our institution back on top as a men's basketball powerhouse."

- Will Dunne, Daytona State Athletics Director

Ryan Ridder was named Men's Head Basketball Coach at Bethune-Cookman University on March 31, 2017.

"I have watched and admired Ryan Ridder from his days as a stellar student-athlete in high school and college, and also witnessed his growth and success as a coach on the college level," said VP for Intercollegiate Athletics Lynn W. Thompson. "I know him. I know his family. His DNA is made up of integrity, passion and the ability to teach. He is an outstanding servant leader who just happens to be a phenomenal basketball coach. His progression as a college coach on each level has prepared him to accept this challenge. He is a local product with great knowledge and respect for our university and community, and we are proud to have one of the great young coaches in the nation to join the B-CU family."

No stranger to Daytona Beach area basketball as both a player and coach, Ridder comes to Bethune-Cookman after a four-year stint at Daytona State College. Ridder was successful in helping lead a resurgence of the Falcons program that produced 95 victories and four Mid-Florida Conference championships.

Additionally at Daytona State, Ridder coached 17 all-conference players, four all-region student-athletes, and one NJCAA Second Team All-America performer. Daytona State also finished the regular season ranked in the NJCAA National Poll in all four Ridder's seasons. Ridder was named Mid-Florida Conference Coach of the Year in each of his four seasons at the helm of the Falcons program.

Off the court, Ridder's student-athletes had a 100 percent graduation his first two years, and 96 percent overall across four years.

Daytona State was also the only team in its region to achieve a 3.0 cumulative grade point average (GPA) and one of 12 teams in the country to hold a 3.0 cumulative GPA during the 2014-2015 academic and athletic year. Sixteen of his players have gone on to play basketball at four-year schools, including Tanksley Efiandayi (UCF), Rashuan Stimage (DePaul) and Wesley Alcegaire (Bowling Green).

The son of legendary Embry-Riddle Men's Basketball Head Coach Steve Ridder, Ryan first made his mark as one of Volusia County's premier high school players under Ed Miller at Father Lopez High School. While playing for the Green Wave at Father Lopez, Ridder earned all-area accolades three times while scoring over 1,100 points and dishing out 300 assists. He was named an all-state honorable mention performer in both his junior and senior years, respectively.

After starting his collegiate career at Wooster, he transferred back home to play for his father at Embry-Riddle from 2006-08, starting at point guard and serving as team captain in his junior and senior season. He led the Sun Conference with a 4.24 assists average as a senior. He earned a degree in Aerospace Studies in 2008.

Upon graduation, Ridder moved to North Carolina where he remained involved with basketball on the skill development side. He trained players from youth to those with NBA aspirations while working for the Hoop City U basketball training academy. In addition, he was the head coach for a number of teams engaged in international competition with 365 Sports, and he served as the assistant boys' basketball coach at North Raleigh Christian.

He returned to Embry-Riddle, spending the 2009-10 campaign as a volunteer assistant, helping his father coach the Eagles to a 30-6 record and a quarterfinals berth in the NAIA National Tournament.

No stranger to the Division I level of athletics, Ridder served three years as an assistant coach at Campbell University in Buies Creek, North Carolina. During Ridder's three years with the Fighting Camels, the program's recruiting classes were among the highest ranked in the Atlantic Sun Conference. He helped the Fighting Camels knock off power conference members Iowa and Auburn, as well as in-state rivals East Carolina, Appalachian State and UNC Wilmington. Three of Ridder's players earned all-conference honors and one Freshman of the Year award.

Ridder earned his Master's Degree in Sports Management from California University of Pennsylvania in 2009.

He married Jen (Calnan) on May 6th, 2017, with Dominique Taylor and Jeff Clapacs in his wedding party.
