RAYMOND WOODIE JR.

BETHUNE-COOKMAN '95

THIRD SEASON AT B-CU

Bethune-Cookman University Director of Athletics Reggie Theus announced on February 6, 2023, the appointment of Raymond Woodie Jr. as Head Football Coach. Woodie, 49, became the 16th head coach of Bethune-Cookman Football.

Woodie, a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker and 1996 graduate of Bethune-Cookman College, took the helm of Wildcats Football following an impressive career as an assistant coach at numerous Power 5 schools including Florida Atlantic University (2020-22), Florida State University (2018-19), the University of Oregon (2017) and the University of South Florida (2013-16).

Woodie has been recognized as one of the premier recruiters in college football, serving as an assistant under Head Coach Willie Taggart across multiple coaching stops. He has recruited seven players that were eventually selected in the NFL Draft.

In year two with the Wildcats, Woodie produced four all-conference Cats, including freshman phenom Dennis Palmer at running back who posted the best season at the position as a freshman by any Wildcat in program history, rushing for over 700 yards with a third-best in conference 78 yards per game. Other All-SWAC names included punter Anthony Frederique, return specialist Darnell Deas, and long snapper Clayton Thomas Jr.

In his first season at the helm of B-CU football, Woodie orchestrated a defensive turnaround for the Wildcats. Led by All-SWAC first team corner Omari Hill-Robinson, the team finished the season second in all of FCS football in tackles for loss per game at 7.8. The Wildcats concluded the season as the most disciplined

B-CU team in program history, averaging only 49 total penalties for an average of 35 penalty yards per game. Those marks shattered the previous program record of 64 total penalties and 53.5 penalty yards per game, set in 1988. Woodie's Wildcats finished the 2023 season 3-1 at home.

Prior to joining B-CU, Woodie previously served as Associate Head Coach at Florida Atlantic from 2020-2022, where he worked primarily with special teams and oversaw all aspects of recruiting in the role of recruiting coordinator for the Owls.

At FAU, Woodie tutored a linebacking corps that was part of a defense ranking among the top of NCAA and C-USA leaderboards in 2020. Under his guidance, the Owls totaled 25 sacks in just nine games, the most in C-USA and the 30th highest among all 2020 FBS teams. The unit allowed only 17.4 points per game, which was second in the league and 10th in the NCAA that season.

In the conference, the 2020 Owls ranked fourth in total defense and fifth in both rushing defense and passing defense. Following his success, Woodie was promoted to associate head coach and added special teams responsibilities in the offseason ahead of the 2021 season.

During the 2022 season, Woodie worked with a defense that ended the year ranked No. 8 in third-down conversion percentage, holding opponents to a mere 32 percent. His efforts with special teams also saw punter Matt Hayball flourish, posting an average of 45.7 yards per kick, which ranked the junior No. 16 nationally.

Woodie served on the Florida State staff from 2018-2019, primarily working with the linebackers.

In 2018, Woodie faced the challenge of a position group with only seven total starts among the entire linebacker corps. The group was led by Dontavious Jackson, who ranked second on the team with 75 tackles and became the first Seminole since 2001 to have multiple games with at least 14 tackles in the same season. Jackson, redshirt freshman DeCalon Brooks, sophomore Leonard Warner, and true freshman Jaiden Woodbey, who earned Freshman All-America honors while starting all 12 games at the STAR position, all displayed versatility.

This quartet filled the stat sheet with a combined 217 tackles, including 16.0 for loss, one interception, 14 pass breakups, 10 quarterback hurries, three forced fumbles, and one fumble recovery.

This quartet filled the stat sheet with a combined 217 tackles, including 16.0 for loss, one interception, 14 pass breakups, 10 quarterback hurries, three forced fumbles, and one fumble recovery.

The Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 20th in the NCAA, holding opponents to only 3.52 yards per rush. The run defense held nine of 12 opponents under their season yards-per-carry average, kept three teams from reaching 100 yards on the ground, and allowed only 16 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-lowest total in the conference. Additionally, the Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 17th in the NCAA in fourth-down defense. They also ranked fifth in the conference in rushing defense, third-down defense, and passes intercepted.

During the 2017 season, Woodie served as the outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator for the Oregon Ducks. During that season, he orchestrated a nearly perfect kicking game, with Oregon finishing the season 63-of-63 on PAT attempts and 9-of-12 on field goals. Additionally, the team's average of 22.73 yards per kickoff return ranked third in the Pac-12.

Under Woodie's guidance, long snapper Tanner Carew earned First Team All-America honors from Phil Steele and was invited to the Senior Bowl, while freshman Brenden Schooler was a First Team All-Pac-12 selection as an all-purpose/special teams player. Kicker Adrian Schneider broke Oregon's school record with 51 career made field goals

On defense, Woodie's outside linebackers made significant contributions to a unit that ranked 23rd in the country with 25 turnovers forced, 22nd with an average of 7.2 tackles for loss per game, and 24th in rushing defense, allowing just 128.5 yards per game on the ground. The team's total defense improved its national ranking from 126th in 2016 to 46th in 2017.

During his time with Oregon, Woodie was named the No. 1 recruiter in the PAC-12, as well as No. 13 in the nation by 247 Sports. Woodie led the way in signing the American Athletic Conference's top-ranked classes in 2014 and 2015, in addition to the top class in the Sun Belt Conference in 2010 and 2011. Woodie was named AAC Top Recruiter by Rivals in 2014, and Sun Belt Recruiter of the Year by Scout/FoxSports.com in 2012.

Prior to his time at Oregon, Woodie held the title of assistant head coach for two seasons as USF, including coordinating the Bulls' defense during their record-breaking 2016 season. That year, the Bulls won a school-record 11 games, while the defense forced 26 turnovers to rank 18th in the country and returned three for touchdowns, tied for the 19th-highest total in the nation.

He also oversaw the linebackers at USF, coaching two players to All-Conference recognition.

In 2014, Nigel Harris led the country and broke a school record with six forced fumbles under Woodie's guidance.

He also tutored Reshard Cliett, the Houston Texans' sixth-round selection in the 2015 NFL Draft, and helped DeDe Lattimore and Harris reach the NFL.

In 2015, Woodie was responsible for the Bulls' special teams and coached the sixth-best kickoff return unit in the country, with USF finishing the year with a program-record average of 26.66 yards per return.

Kickoff returner Rodney Adams was a Second Team All-Conference selection after leading the American Athletic Conference and ranking sixth in the NCAA with an average of 29.1 yards per return. Adams was selected in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Woodie's first foray into college coaching came at Western Kentucky from 2012-2012. Woodie served two seasons as defensive ends coach, before he was promoted to linebackers coach for the 2012 season.

With WKU, he recruited Venice, Florida, native Forrest Lamp and Lakeland, Florida, native Andrew Jackson to Bowling Green. Lamp was a second-round pick by the Los Angeles Chargers in the 2017 NFL Draft and Jackson was selected in the sixth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. They are two of seven Hilltoppers recruited by Woodie to play in the NFL.

Before entering college coaching, Woodie was a high school head coach in South Florida for 13 seasons

He was the head coach at Palmetto High School from 2007-09 and led the Tigers to a district title in 2008

From 1997-2006, Woodie was the head coach at Bayshore High School (following one season as the team's defensive coordinator) and led the Bruins to the state playoffs seven times

When he took over as head coach he was only 23 years old, making him the youngest head coach in the state at the time.

In his time as a student-athlete at Bethune-Cookman, Woodie was a two-time Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) First Team Defense selection, as well as a two-time Football Championship Subdivision (formerly Division I-AA) All-America selection. He was also the first Bethune-Cookman student-athlete to be named a GTE Academic All-American and have $25,000 donated to the University in his name.

1973 SIAC Co-Champions

A TEAM OF DESTINY

The 1973 Bethune-Cookman football team is considered by many to be one of the greatest collection of talent and coaching in school history. It was one of the most successful football teams and seasons in school history as well.

For the first time since 1952, the Wildcats enjoyed a victory over in-state rival Florida A&M, and did it in Tallahassee to boot, on the strength of a 21-13 decision at Bragg Memorial Stadium.

Under the direction of first-year head coach Charles Wesley Moore, Bethune-Cookman captured the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) championship by posting a 9-2 overall record, and a perfect 6-0 mark in league play.

Running backs Randy Walker, commonly referred to as "Sweetback", teamed with Wayne Allen to pace a frenetic wishbone offensive attack that averaged well over 350 yards per game. Meanwhile, the defense surrendered just 174.9 yards per game. Offensively, Bethune-Cookman never scored less than 13 points in any game during the 1973 season.

Of Bethune-Cookman's two losses on the year, both were seven-point setbacks, including a game at Jackson State in which Randy Walker did not play due to injury.

The season ended with a four-game win streak.

Honors and awards poured in following the championship campaign. Charles Wesley Moore garnered SIAC Coach of the Year honors, later joined by 15 players on the all-conference team. Eight players went on to receive All-America status.

It was also the year former Wildcats great Boobie Clark was named NFL Rookie of the Year. Drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the fourth round, Clark was the AFC's fourth-leading rusher with 988 yards and caught 45 passes for 347 yards.

1973 RESULTS 9-2, 6-0 SIAC

1984 MEAC Champions

HALL OF FAME TITLE RUN

In his second season back at his alma mater as head football coach, NFL Hall of Famer Larry Little led the Wildcats to their first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship.

The Wildcats were 7-3 overall and 4-0 in conference play, clinching the title with a thrilling 24-23 victory over South Carolina State in Orlando.

Little's high-powered offense centered around quarterback Bernard Hawk, whose 2,772 yards and 21 touchdowns still stand as single-season records.

Hawk and wide receivers Leon Gonzales and Remi Watson turned in one of the Wildcats' greatest single-game passing displays in a 43-33 loss to national power Georgia Southern in Jacksonville. Hawk set single-game records with 40 completions for 527 yards, while Gonzales caught a record 15 passes for 222. Watson registered his second four touchdown catch game of the season as well.

The season concluded with a 42-28 homecoming victory over Morris Brown that saw Hawk throw for 491 yards and five touchdowns.

On defense, John Bostic garnered MEAC

Defensive Player of The Year and All-American Honors. He would be drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in the sixth round of the 1985 NFL draft, but would spend three seasons with the Detroit Lions.

1988 MEAC Champions

A CLASSIC TITLE RUN

Despite a 5-6 overall record, the 1988 Wildcats were able to secure a share of the MEAC championship along with South Carolina State and Florida A&M.

The Wildcats won three of their final four games, including a 25-0 victory over Florida A&M in the Florida Classic that marked their first blanking of the Classic era as well as their first shutout of their archrival since 1976.

Kevin Finnie led the Wildcats' rushing attack with 804 yards and seven touchdowns, while Remi Watson caught 60 passes for 837 yards and scored a team-high 12 touchdowns.

Three players on that team were named MEAC All Conference – Michael Floyd, Jeffrey Alexander and Stevie Thomas. Thomas would later go on to an extensive Arena Football League career primarily with his hometown Tampa Bay Storm. Thomas was inducted in the AFL's Hall of Fame in 2011.

2002 MEAC Champions

ALL-STAR SQUAD MADE FOR TITLES

The most wins in a single season in Bethune-Cookman Football history. The first-ever trip to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs. The first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) football title since 1988. And the first Top 10 ranking in school history.

All of these accomplishments came during the magical 2002 MEAC title run under head coach Alvin B. Wyatt, Sr.

A team that was made up of several All-MEAC talents, in addition to an all-america defensive backfield that included future NFL Draft pick Rashean Mathis. That doesn't even count for the staff that included future Norfolk State head coach Pete Adrian as defensive coordinator.

The season began with nine consecutive wins, as MEAC Offensive Player of the Year Allen Suber led the Wildcats under center in the patented "Wyatt Bone" attack. The Wildcats rolled up an average margin of victory of 25 points through the first nine games of the season, until a late injury at North Carolina A&T. That injury would prove costly a week later at Hampton, as the Cats dropped their only MEAC game of the year in a 37-7 setback against the Pirates in Virginia, with Suber not in the lineup.

Nonetheless, the Wildcats rebounded with wins over Howard and rival Florida A&M in the Walt Disney Florida Classic to end the regular season.

The Wildcats earned their first-ever automatic bid to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, taking on Georgia Southern in Statesboro, Ga.

The season that began with so many first, also ended with so many. Alvin Wyatt earning his first MEAC Coach of the Year award, along with Suber earning offensive awards. Linebacker Steve Baggs and Rashean Mathis both earned end-of-year awards from the MEAC, as Baggs would later go on to play in the NFL and Canadian Football League.

2010 MEAC Champions

A GREAT YEAR OF FIRSTS

With first-year coach Brian Jenkins taking the helm, Bethune-Cookman enjoyed one of its most exciting seasons in the storied history of the program in 2010.

The Wildcats started the Jenkins era in 2010 with ten consecutive victories. With a dynamic spread offense, B-CU surpassed 60 points three times and ended South Carolina State's 21-game Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference winning streak en route to a share of the league title and the program's first playoff appearance since 2003.

The Wildcats were named HBCU National Champions by Black Athlete Sports Network. Among the numerous team records set were most points in a season (458) while the defense led the FCS in turnover margin (+2.25)

Jenkins was named MEAC Coach of the Year, while quarterback Matt Johnson earned MEAC Offensive Player Of The Year as well as the A.S Jake Gaither Award - the HBCU equivalent of the Heisman. The season ended with losses to archrival Florida A&M and New Hampshire in the FCS playoffs.

A PERFECT WAY TO GO

In just his third year at the helm in Daytona Beach, head coach Brian Jenkins orchestrated Bethune-Cookman's second Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) title in that span. He also registered the school's first 8-0 mark in league play, accumulating the first unblemished MEAC record for B-CU since going 4-0 in 1984 under NFL Hall of Famer Larry Little.

Bethune-Cookman raced its way to the NCAA FCS Playoffs, hosting Coastal Carolina at Municipal Stadium on Thanksgiving weekend. It was the third consecutive time B-CU has hosted a playoff game when entering the postseason. The Cats also entered the FCS rankings, staying in the national Top 25 for the remainder of the final four games of the campaign, as well as the end-of-year rankings by The Sports Network and FCS Coaches poll.

For his efforts and more, Jenkins was tabbed MEAC Coach of the Year, as well as AFCA Region 2 Coach of the Year. Terrance Hackney earned the inaugural MEAC Offensive Lineman of the Year award, while several other Wildcats made their way onto the first- and second-team for

A SWEET REPEAT PERFORMANCE

Head coach Brian Jenkins earned his second Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Coach of the Year award, and Bethune-Cookman claimed its second consecutive league title as the Wildcats mustered up a 7-1 league record in 2013.

For the first time in school history, the Wildcats played every game of a football season ranked amongst the Top 25 in either The Sports Network or FCS Coaches poll. B-CU got as high as 12th on two occasions throughout the campaign.

The Cats collected their first-ever win over a member of the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) as they took down FIU in Miami by a score of 34-13. In the season opener, B-CU avenged a 2012 setback against Tennessee State, earning a hard-fought 12-9 victory against the Tigers as part of the annual John Merritt Classic in Nashville, Tenn.

A season of "repeats" continued for Jenkins as the Wildcats as B-CU earned a second consecutive trip to the FCS Playoffs, just the first of its kind since 2002-03. B-CU traveled to Coastal Carolina for another clash with the Chanticleers, the second of its kind in as many years.

The only league setback came at the hands of Norfolk State, who took a 27-24 decision at Municipal Stadium, ending an 18-game MEAC winning streak for the defending champions.

The Homecoming showdown with South Carolina State produced the second-best crowd in B-CU Homecoming history, as well as one of the most exciting games in Municipal Stadium history, with the Cats defeating the Bulldogs, 14-3.

However, two of the most underrated highlights of the season may have been a visit to eventual BCS National Champion Florida State, as well as defeating rival Florida A&M for a third consecutive season. It was only the second time in B-CU history they have taken down the Rattlers in three-straight games.

2014 MEAC Champions

THE THIRD TIME IS THE CHARM

For the third time in as many years, Bethune-Cookman earned at least a share of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) title, sharing it amongst a five-way tie to conclude the 2014 playing season.

Erik Williams and LeBranden Richardson at the defensive end positions, added DiShawn Ray and Rony Barrow at the tackles, and the defensive line for the 2014 Wildcats could go down as one of the best in recent years, especially under head coach Brian Jenkins.

Defense was truly the focal point of the 2014 edition of Wildcats football, including linebackers Ralph Williams, Donald Smith and Tavarus Dantzler. All three linebackers were a force to be reckoned with.

Offensively, the Wildcats used two quarterbacks with Quentin Williams and redshirt freshman Larry Brihm to lead the charge.

Not only did B-CU collect the school's second win over a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent, defeating FIU in the season-opener, but the Wildcats also defeated Grambling State at home. It was just the second time in B-CU history the Cats had defeated their counterparts from the Bayou State.

Mixed in were league wins over a host of schools, while a loss to South Carolina State and Hampton kept the Wildcats out of the playoffs, while seeking a third consecutive appearance.

B-CU concluded the year with a thrilling overtime victory over rival Florida A&M in the annual Florida Blue Florida

Classic. It was the first game played inside the newly renovated Citrus Bowl Stadium in Orlando.

In the contest at South Carolina State, Bethune-Cookman played its 800th game all-time in the sport of football.

2015 MEAC Champions

A FIRST TIME FOR THE FOURTH TITLE

While it may have been at least a share of four consecutive Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) titles, it was the first of its kind as a head coach for first-year man Terry Sims. The longtime assistant to former head coach Brian Jenkins had been a part of four MEAC crowns since his arrival in Daytona Beach back in 2010, but that first one as head coach just feels different. "I have to thank so many people for this accomplishment, but it starts with my staff and the student-athletes," said Sims after the Florida Blue Florida Classic.

Despite a slow start to the season at Football Bowl Sub-division (FBS) member University of Miami, the Wildcats rolled off five consecutive wins after that. Along the way, a memorable come-from-behind 56-53 win away to Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) opponent Grambling State for what would be just the third-ever win against the HBCU giants - and the second in a row for the Wildcats against the Tigers.

Wins against Lane, Savannah State and North Carolina Central followed, respectively, before a hard-fought contest in Daytona Beach went in favor of the Wildcats on an ESPN Thursday night football affair against conference power South Carolina State. However, a setback against eventual inaugural Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl winners North Carolina A&T ensued in Greensboro, as the Aggies used future NFL running back Tarik Cohen to grab a 24-14 win from the Cats in what was the first meeting between the two sides since 2012.

Bethune-Cookman won its final four games of the year, including the fifth consecutive over in-state foe Florida A&M to conclude the year at 9-2 overall, and earning a share of the MEAC title with North Carolina A&T and Morgan State, respectfully.
