Scouting the Opponent

University of Mississippi: Ole Miss is 7-1 so far this season with the only loss coming from OVC conference member UT-Martin. The Rebels are returning eight letterwinners, six starters, as well as welcoming seven newcomers in 2015. In the first week of competition Nakeyta Clair was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week and Aubrey Edie earned SEC Setter of the Week honors. Junior setter Aubrey Edie was named tournament MVP this last weekend finishing with 126 assists, 10 kills, 21 digs and 9 blocks. Senior middle blocker was Ty Laporte was also named to the all-tournament team after recording 18 kills and 13 blocks on the weekend.

Southern Mississippi: Southern Miss is undefeated so far this season with a 9-0 record and taking home the Southern Miss Invitational and the Bama Bash. Stephany Purdue was named C-USA Co-Offensive Player of the Week after recording 94 kills with an average of 4.95 per set average while hitting .254 for the week, posting three double-doubles for the week. Mary Pursell earned C-USA Defensive Player of the Week after finishing out the week with 119 digs for a 6.26 per set average.

Buffalo: Buffalo starts the season off 0-5 after facing two nationally ranked team, Penn State and Washington. Sophomore middle blocker Cassie Shado is leading the team with 32 kills, averaging 2 per set, while senior setter Marissa Prinzbach has tallied up 110 assists and sophomore libero Niki Bozinowski leads the defense with 54 digs.

Bruiser Showcase

Belmont put together a solid two wins this weekend to take their record to 2-4. With a four set victory over UTEP and a five set victory over Memphis the Bruins took home the championship of the Bruiser Showcase.

Week Two Top Performers

Sophomore Brie Lewis was named the MVP of the tournament, Lewis finished the weekend with 41 kills, 5 aces, 28 digs and three block assists. Sophomore Arianna Person was also named to the All-Tournament team finishing the weekend with 47 kills, seven aces, 43 digs and six block assists.

Conference Leaders

Person is ranked 5th in the conference in kills averaging 3.27 per set, leads the conference in aces averaging 0.58 per set, 8th in digs averaging 3.77 per set, and 3rd in points with an average of 4 per set. Sophomore Emma Price is currently ranked 4th in the conference in assists averaging 9.40 assists per set. Sophomore Ellie Ivancich is 9th in the conference in aces with an average of 0.38 per set.

2014 Season in Review:

Despite a slow start to the season recording a record of 4-9 Belmont came on strong during season finishing the year with a 13-3 record in conference. The Bruins finished the regular season ranked second in the conference and fell just short of an NCAA appearance when they lost to Murray State in the OVC Championship.

2014 Postseason awards:

Along with receiving the OVC Sportsmanship Award for the second year in a row, the Belmont volleyball team had three players receive postseason awards. Arianna Person was named the OVC Freshman of the Year as well as being placed on the All-OVC team and All-Newcomer team. Alex Martin (who as since graduated) was named to the All-OVC team and Emma Price was named to the All-Newcomer team.

2015 Preseason Awards:

Belmont was predicted to finish second in the 2015 season. Tony Howell enters his second season as the head coach of the Bruins and will have eight letterwinners returning from 2014. Sophomore outside hitter Ariana Person earned Preseason All-OVC honors. Senior middle blocker/rightside hitter Jocelyn Youngdahl (Stillwater, Minn.) will also be back on the court for the Bruins this year. She ranked ninth in the league with a team-leading .271 hitting percentage last season. Youngdahl also ranked third on the team with 256 kills. Sophomore setter Emma Price (Fort Mill, S.C.) is also returning for 2015 after finishing last season third in the OVC with 10.31 assists per set.
