GAME 8 • MIAMI AT BOWLING GREEN

KENT STATE RECAP

Bolstered by the return of redshirt sophomore quarterback Gus Ragland, the Miami University football team earned its first win of the season last Saturday. Ragland finished the contest 10-for-21 with two touchdowns and 181 yards including a game winning drive with 90 seconds remaining in the contest. He also helped Miami on the ground game, leading the team in rushing with 36 yards.

The RedHawks defense held Kent State to only 262 total yards on the day, making several key plays to preserve the victory. Sophomore linebacker Junior McMullen led Miami with 10 tackles, while redshirt junior defensive lineman Zach Smierciak finished with seven tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss.

SMIERCIAK NAMED MAC EAST DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Zach Smierciak recorded a career-high seven tackles and 2.0 tackles for loss, helping the RedHawks hold the Golden Flashes to just 262 total yards, including a mere 99 through the air to earn MAC East Defensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career. The redshirt junior added a sack as Kent State was attempting to take the lead with under 60 seconds remaining in the contest to help to secure the victory.

THE ERASER

In the win over Kent State, Miami erased an 11 point deficit midway through the third quarter, scoring the game's final 15 points of the contest. The last time Miami came from down at least 10 points was in a 42-41 victory over UMass back in 2014, a contest they trailed 41-10 late in the second quarter.

BEEN A WHILE

If Miami were to win this week versus Bowling Green it would move the Red and White to 2-2 in conference play and give Miami its second straight win. The last time Miami was .500 or better midway through conference play was back in 2012 (2-2). The last time Miami won back-to-back games was on Sept. 22 and Sept. 29 of 2012.

DEFENSE CONTINUES TO SET THE TONE

Over the past three weeks, Miami's defense has played some incredible football. Versus Ohio, the Bobcats came into the contest averaging 36.8 points and 490.2 yards per game and finished the contest with 17 points (defense only gave up 7) and 197 yards. At Akron, the Zips did manage 35 points, but only recorded 299 yards (came into the contest averaging 437.6 per game). This past week versus Kent State, they held the Golden Flashes to a mere 262 yards of offense and 14 points.

IN THE MAC

As mentioned above, the Miami defense has been outstanding the past three games, all MAC contests. Here are a few more numbers on one of the best defenses in MAC play only.

- In MAC games only, Miami ranks first in the conference in total defense, allowing just 252.7 yards per game. Kent State is second at 336.7 yards.
- Miami ranks fourth in MAC games only, allowing 143.0 yards rushing per game.
- Miami ranks first in pass defense, allowing 109.7 yards passing per game in three MAC contests. They are second in pass efficiency in MAC games (100.9).

MACTION

The Red and White wrapped up its non-conference portion three weeks ago at Cincinnati. The contest with Bowling Green is Miami's fourth of eight straight Mid-American Conference games.

STATE OF THE PROGRAM

The RedHawks are in their third year of a massive rebuild under the leadership of Coach Martin. When Martin got to Miami on Dec. 3, 2013, the RedHawks were coming off an 0-12 season in which they averaged 9.8 points and allowed 35.7 points per game. Martin has used highly-ranked recruiting classes (top-3 class in the MAC in each of his three years) to rebuild depth and skill at each position. While the team is still extremely young, depth and athleticism should have Miami fans excited.

HOW YOUNG?

Miami entered camp back on August 8 with 108 players on its roster, with just 10 of them playing in their final season in Oxford, Ohio. A complete roster breakdown is below.

5th-Seniors	7 (6.5%)
Seniors	3 (2.7%)
R-Juniors	8 (7.4%)
Juniors	7 (6.5%)
R-Sophomores	20 (18.5%)
Sophomores	16 (14.8%)
R-Freshmen	14 (13%)
Freshman	33 (30.6%)

MY BALL

Four different times this season Miami has controlled the ball for over 31 minutes of action. In the contest at Iowa, Miami dominated time of possession, holding onto the ball for 36:21. Against EIU, Miami once again refused to return the ball, recording a time of possession of 35:37 and versus WKU, Miami had the ball for 35:45. Versus Akron, even with a true freshman quarterback, making his first career start, the RedHawks held onto the ball for 31:25.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

After throwing nine interceptions in his first 63 pass attempts of his career (1 INT every 7 throws), Billy Bahl has been taking care of the ball. In his final 157 passes of 2015 he turned the ball over just four times and has thrown 125 passes and four interceptions this season. In all, he has thrown just eight interceptions in his last 282 pass attempts (1 interception every 35.3 passes).

BILLY FOOT"BAHL"

Billy Bahl made his first career start versus Ohio in the middle of the 2015 season, completing 8-of-23 passes for 150 yards and four interceptions in a 34-3 loss in Athens. A year later, the improvements are obvious.

- Bahl ranks fifth in the MAC in passing per game (230.8) and ninth in total offense (232.6). Bahl averaged 128 yards passing per game a year ago.
- He has thrown for eight touchdowns this season after throwing eight all of last year.
- Bahl is completing 55-percent of his passes this season, compared to 48-percent a year ago.
- Bahl currently ranks 17th nationally in yards per attempt at 9.2.

WEZENSKY MAKES FIRST CAREER START

With Billy Bahl nursing an injury, true freshman quarterback Noah Wezensky made his first career start at Akron. Wezensky completed 14-of-28 passes for 153 yards and one touchdown, while throwing two interceptions.

Versus Ohio, Wezensky played the entire second half after Bahl went to the locker room with that injury. Wezensky would complete 14-of-25 passes for 154 yards and one touchdown in his first action as a RedHawk (Bahl had taken every snap at quarterback up to that point).

GAME 8 • MIAMI AT BOWLING GREEN

IN GUS WE TRUST

In the win at Kent State Miami started its third different quarterback in as many games in redshirt sophomore Gus Ragland. In the win, the Cincinnati, Ohio, native completed 10-of-21 passes for 181 yards and two touchdowns ... all career bests. The remarkable part though is that Ragland suffered a torn ACL injury back on April 10 and had surgery on April 17. Less than six months later he was starting a Division I college football game.

WHO THIS WEEK?

Over the past three weeks Miami has started three different quarterbacks.

Week 1-5: Sophomore Billy Bahl

Week 6: Freshman Noah Wezensky

Week 7: Redshirt sophomore Gus Ragland

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES

Last season James Gardner had three catches for 72 yards as a freshman for the RedHawks offense. This season he already has more touchdown catches than he had receptions in 2015. The sophomore leads the team in catches (26), yards (461) and touchdowns (5). Gardner had scored touchdowns in four straight games this season. His five touchdown catches rank fourth in the MAC.

SHORT RECRUITING TRIP

Head Coach Chuck Martin was able to save on the recruiting budget when he signed running back Maurice Thomas a year ago. Thomas, a local product from Talawanda High School (located in Oxford, Ohio) is making Coach Martin happy he made the short trip. Versus Cincinnati the sophomore had a 94-yard kick return down to the Bearcats' 6-yard line, the longest kick return in school history that did not result in a score. Thomas is currently second on the team with five plays of over 20-yards this season and was tops on the team as a true freshman in 2015.

Retired Miami Numbers

#7 Ben Roethlisberger

Ben Roethlisberger took his place in Miami Football history when his jersey No. 7 was retired on October 13, 2007, becoming just the third in program history to have his number retired. Roethlisberger ended his three-year playing tenure (2001-03) as the most prolific passer in program history.

#40 Bob Hitchens

No. 40 was retired in 1973 to mark the accomplishments of tailback Bob Hitchens, who concluded his career as the most prolific runner in Miami history. At the end of his three-year tenure (1971-73), Hitchens owned Miami's season and career records for points, rushing touchdowns, rushing attempts and rushing yards.

#41 Travis Prentice

No. 41 was retired to honor Travis Prentice. Prentice ranks sixth all-time in NCAA history with 5,596 rushing yards and second in total touchdowns with 78. He continues to own four NCAA records.

#42 John Pont

Worn by halfback John Pont through three varsity football campaigns, No. 42 was retired by the Athletic Advisory Council following his senior season in 1951. Pont thus became the first athlete in Miami history to have his jersey retired.

OUR QB SACKED YOURS

On the opening series versus Cincinnati, defensive end Austin Gearing came around the edge to bring down the UC quarterback for his first career sack. While he is a fifth-year senior, the difference is that he was Miami's starting quarterback for the final three games of the 2013 season. That's right, a former starting quarterback now starts at defensive end for the Red and White. Gearing checked in a 6-foot-5 and 212 pounds back in 2013 and now is up to 257 pounds just three years later. Gearing added two sacks versus Ohio and has three sacks this season.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Middle linebacker Junior McMullen is thriving as a first-year starter for the Red-Hawks defense. He is second on the team with 50 tackles and is coming off a 10 tackle performance versus Kent State. He earned MAC Defensive Player of the Week after recording 14 tackles versus arch-rival Cincinnati a few weeks ago.

GOOD THINGS COME TO THOSE THAT WAIT

Sophomore linebacker Brad Koenig was gifted a surprise this offseason. Coach Martin awarded Koenig with a scholarship after finishing the 2015 season with 24 tackles and 1.0 sack. Koenig is currently fifth on the team in tackles (26) and first in tackles for loss (4.0). He also recorded his first career interception versus UC.

PLAYING WITH AN EDGE

JT Jones had a breakout season last year, earning second-team all-MAC honors, finishing the season with 52 tackles, 10.0 sacks and 14.5 tackles for loss. His sack total finished second-best in the MAC. His biggest game was a four-sack performance in a 28-13 win over Eastern Michigan in which he established a new school record for sacks in a game. Jones enters Saturday's action with 21.5 career sacks.

MIAMI PICKED TO FINISH FIFTH IN EAST

Members of the media picked Miami to finish fifth in the East Division in 2016. Bowling Green (136 points) was picked as a slight favorite over Ohio (134) in the East Division. Those two teams were followed by Akron (107), Buffalo (75), Miami (52) and Kent (42).

In the West Division, Western Michigan (144) was picked to advance to the MAC Championship contest. The Broncos were followed by Toledo (113), Northern Illinois (112), Central Michigan (98), Ball State (44) and Eastern Michigan (35).

IF YOU BUILD IT...

Miami's Athletic Director, David Sayler, has been busy in his first 44 months, adding several facilities for the department. The two newest installment can be seen just north of Yager Stadium. The new David and Anita Dauch Indoor Sports Center (DISC) opened in February of 2015 and features a full length 120-yard field and four sprint lanes.

Between Yager Stadium and the DISC will be the Gunlock Family Athletic Performance Center. The Gunlock Center will provide much-needed upgrades to Miami Football's locker room and offices while also hosting a state-of-the-art medical and athletic training facility that will serve all Miami's student-athletes. This construction is scheduled to be completed by January 2017.

CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

Miami will have no season-long captains for the 2016 season. Captains will be selected on a game-by-game basis.

GAME 8 • MIAMI AT BOWLING GREEN

Miami University, known world-wide as the “Cradle of Coaches,” contributed four alumni to Sporting News Magazine’s 50 Greatest Coaches, dominating all other universities.

PAUL BROWN (‘30) was named as the 12th greatest coach of all time by The Sporting News (TSN). Miamians WALTER ALSTON (‘35) and BO SCHEMBECHLER (‘51) ranked 35th and 36th on the list, while ARA PARSEGHIAN (‘49) was selected as sports’ 44th greatest coach. A fifth man with Miami ties, WOODY HAYES, ranked 27th on TSN’s list. Hayes served as Miami’s football coach from 1949-50.

The August 3, 2009 publication asked a panel of 118 top coaches, media and sports administrators to choose the Top 50 list.

Altogether, only four universities contributed more than one alumnus to the list. Miami’s four alumni topped Alabama (Paul “Bear” Bryant and Bobby Bowden), Minnesota (Bud Wilkinson and Herb Brooks) and Kansas (Dean Smith and Adolph Rupp), which each had two alums ranked among the Top 50. Purdue graduate John Wooden, the famed “Wizard of Westwood”, was ranked as the No. 1 coach of all time.

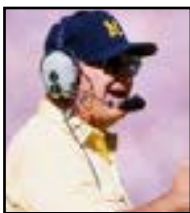

PAUL BROWN

An Ohio native who was a two-year football letter winner (1928-29), Paul Brown is a member of Miami’s “Cradle of Coaches” and excelled as a coach at the collegiate and professional levels. Brown was head coach at Ohio State (1941-43) and led the Buckeyes to their first national title in 1942. Brown then served as head coach at the professional level with the Cleveland Browns (1946-62) and Cincinnati Bengals (1968-75), winning championships in the All-America Football Conference and National Football League. Brown was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and the current home stadium of the Bengals bears his name.

WALTER ALSTON

Always displaying a calm, professional demeanor, the unflappable Walter Alston managed the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers for 23 seasons (1954-76), winning seven National League pennants and four World Series championships. His squads would win 2,040 games during his tenure, the seventh-highest win total among major league managers. He helped to establish a “Dodger Way,” which many of his former players later used to become successful managers themselves.

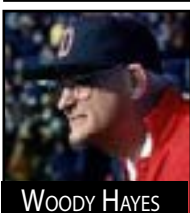

BO SCHEMBECHLER

A member of Miami’s “Cradle of Coaches” and the College Football Hall of Fame, Bo Schembechler was a two-year letter winner (1949-50) and head coach (1963-68) with the Red and White. During his six seasons as head coach, Schembechler led Miami to a 40-17-3 record and back-to-back conference co-championships (1965-66). Schembechler then became the head coach at the University of Michigan (1969-89) and led the Wolverines to 13 Big Ten titles.

ARA PARSEGHIAN

A member of Miami’s “Cradle of Coaches” and the College Football Hall of Fame, Ara Parseghian was a football letter winner (1946-47) before moving to the sidelines as an assistant coach (1950) and head coach (1951-55). During his five seasons as Miami’s head coach, Parseghian compiled a 39-6-1 record and won back-to-back Mid-American Conference Championships (1954-55). Parseghian went on to coach at Northwestern (1956-63) and Notre Dame (1964-74) where he was named National Coach of the Year in 1964.

WOODY HAYES

A member of Miami’s “Cradle of Coaches” and the College Football Hall of Fame, Woody Hayes served as the head coach of Miami during the 1949-50 and 1950-51 seasons. In his last year as head coach he led the RedHawks to a 9-1 record and a MAC Championship, and also led his team to a victory in the Salad Bowl. Hayes went on to coach at the Ohio State University (1951-78) where he became a fixture for the Scarlet and Grey and quickly became recognized as one of the greatest coaches of all time. At OSU he compiled a 205-61-10 record (.761) and led the Buckeyes to five national titles, 13 Big Ten championships, and four bowl victories. He is a three-time winner of the College Football Coach of the Year Award.

GAME 8 • MIAMI AT BOWLING GREEN

Chuck Martin
Head Coach
Second Season
Coaching Record: 80-32
Record at Miami: 6-25
Milliken, 1990

Chuck Martin was named the 36th head football coach in Miami history on Dec. 3, 2013.

Martin, who has more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience, brings seven years of head coaching experience to the RedHawk program. He has twice been named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National Coach of the Year, earning the honor in 2005 and 2006, and has coached in seven national championship games in the past 15 seasons. In addition to his head coaching experience, Martin has served as a coordinator on both sides of the ball. Of those seven national championship game appearances, he has been a part of four national championship wins, with two titles under his direction as head coach/offensive coordinator and one as a defensive coordinator.

In Martin's first year, he laid a strong foundation for the future. Martin led the RedHawks to a 2-10 record, while snapping a 21-game losing streak with a remarkable 42-41 win over UMass last October.

This past year the rebuild of the RedHawks' football program was in full swing as the RedHawks closed 2015, winners of two of its final three games under Martin.

Prior to joining Miami, Martin spent four seasons at Notre Dame, serving as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2012-13) and defensive backs/recruiting coordinator (2010-11). In 2012, he orchestrated an offense that played in the BCS National Championship game versus Alabama. In 2011, he was named one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation by ESPN.com and was named to Rivals.com's Second-Team Assistant Coach Dream Team.

In Martin's two years calling plays, Notre Dame combined to go 20-5 overall and was one of the most balanced offenses in the country, averaging 26.4 points, 170.0 rushing and 235.6 passing per game.

Prior to arriving in South Bend, Martin was head coach and offensive coordinator for Grand Valley State University from 2004-2009 and compiled a 74-7 (.914) record, including an impressive 16-4 record in the NCAA Division II Playoffs. He and the Lakers won back-to-back national championships in 2005 and 2006 and finished runner-up in 2009. He directed Grand Valley State to 48 consecutive regular-season victories and 45 straight wins in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC). He also guided the Lakers to a Division II record 40-game winning streak from 2005-07. Martin produced seven Associated Press First-Team All-America players as head coach.

At GVSU, Martin's offenses averaged 35.1 points, 208 rushing and 427 total yards per game. The Lakers ranked among the top-25 nationally in total offense in five of six seasons and ranked in the top-27 in scoring offense in all but one season. In that time, his offense scored at least 30 points in 56 of 81 games and scored at least 40 points in 34 contests.

Many of those offenses were led by quarterbacks who were developed under Martin. In six years, GVSU produced four Harlon Hill finalists, given annually to the NCAA Division II Player of the Year (Cullen Finnerty in 2006 and Brad Iciek from 2007-09). In that span, Laker quarterbacks threw 184 touchdown passes and just 41 interceptions.

His offenses were not just about the quarterback. In all six seasons, he produced a 1,000-yard rusher. In four of those seasons, a running back finished as a top-10 rusher in Grand Valley State history.

Before becoming head coach, Martin served as the defensive coordinator for the Lakers in 2003, helping GVSU win a national championship. Martin's defense allowed just nine total points in the final three games of the playoff run and among the ranked top-10 nationally in scoring, rushing and total defense that season.

Martin served as the defensive backs and outside linebackers coach at GVSU from 2000-02. Prior to arriving in Allendale, Mich., Martin spent time at Eastern Michigan (1998-1999, linebackers), Millikin University (1996-97, defensive coordinator/defensive backs), Wittenberg University (1994-95, linebackers) and Mankato State University (1992-93, graduate assistant/linebackers).

While attending Millikin (1986-90), Martin was an All-American safety and was selected as a GTE Academic All-American. He doubled as an All-American place kicker, received Academic All-District honors for the Millikin baseball team and was inducted into the Millikin Hall of Fame in 2008.

He graduated in 1990 with a degree in accounting and earned his master's degree in physical education from Mankato State University in 1993.

Martin and his wife Dulcie have two children, Max and Emma.

Despite a nearly three-hour weather delay and another solid offensive performance, the Miami University football team fell, 21-17, to Eastern Illinois University Saturday evening at Yager Stadium.

Sophomore quarterback Billy Bahl followed up his impressive season opener at Iowa with 250 yards and two touchdowns on 13-of-22 passing. After a slow start, the RedHawks' (0-2) offense eventually perked up in the home opener, posting 402 yards while holding possession for over 35 minutes.

Miami's defense had its best performance of the season, holding Ohio to 197 yards of offense, including just 56 yards through the air. Starting quarterback Billy Bahl opened the contest, but suffered an injury late in the second quarter and did not return. True freshman quarterback Noah Wezenky saw his first career action, helping the RedHawks to their only score of the game.

After an impressive opening drive, Miami University's football team was unable to maintain the momentum for the remainder of the game, falling to the University of Akron, 35-13, Saturday afternoon at InfoCision Stadium--Summa Field.

In his first career start, freshman quarterback Noah Wezenky went 14-of-28 for 153 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore running back Alonzo Smith turned in a solid performance with 86 yards, while junior tight end Ryan Smith caught five passes for 62 yards and one touchdown. The Miami offense posted 260 total yards and held possession for over 31 minutes.

Oct. 15, 2016

 Attendance: 15,160

Bolstered by the return of redshirt sophomore quarterback Gus Ragland, the Miami University football team earned its first win of the season, 18-14, over Kent State Saturday afternoon. The Red-Hawks improved to 1-6 overall and 1-2 in the Mid-American Conference. The Golden Flashes fall to 2-5 overall and 1-2 in the MAC.

Ragland returned only six months after suffering a severe knee injury in spring ball. He finished the game 10-for-21 with two touchdowns. He also helped Miami on the ground game, leading the team in rushing with 36 yards.

The RedHawks defense held Kent State to only 262 total yards on the day, making several key plays to preserve the victory. Sophomore linebacker Junior McMullen led Miami with 10 tackles, while redshirt junior defensive lineman Zach Smierciak finished with seven tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss. Kent State was able to move the ball down the field in its initial drive, but senior linebacker TJ Williams ended the threat when he picked off Golden Flashes' quarterback Nick Holley at the Miami eight-yard line.
