JINKS ERA STARTS AS FALCONS BEGIN SPRING PRACTICE

The Mike Jinks era will officially begin next Monday (Feb. 29) when the Bowling Green State University football team takes the field to begin spring practice. The Falcons will take part in 15 practice sessions over the next six weeks, culminating on Friday, April 8. BGSU will hold their annual spring game on Saturday, April 2. The time will be announced at a later date.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2015 SEASON

The 2015 season marked another milestone year for Bowling Green, as the Falcons won the Mid-American Conference Championship on their way to a 10-4 overall record. The MAC Championship marked BGSU's 12th in school history.

- BGSU won their second MAC Championship in the last three seasons.
- The Falcons faced Northern Illinois in the MAC Championship Game for the third consecutive season.
- Bowling Green made their fourth consecutive bowl appearance, squaring off with Georgia Southern in the GoDaddy Bowl (Mobile, Ala.).
- BGSU defeated two Big Ten Conference opponents on the road -- just the third time a MAC program has knocked off two Big Ten programs in the same season. Bowling Green also defeated two Big Ten teams in the 2003 season.
- For the third straight season, the Falcons ran the table against all the MAC East opponents on their schedule. Bowling Green has now won 17 straight games over MAC East foes.

JINKS ANNOUNCES STAFF FOR 2016 SEASON

- Former Texas Tech Associate Head Coach Mike Jinks, now in his first season at Bowling Green as the Falcons' Head Coach, has named his coaching staff for the 2016 season.
- Perry Eliano will serve as the Falcons' Associate Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator. Eliano will also coach the Bowling Green safeties. He comes to BGSU after spending the last five seasons at University of Texas-San Antonio.
- Kevin Kilmer, after spending the last nine (???) seasons at Texas Tech, will join Jinks' staff as Co-Offensive Coordinator. Kilmer will coach the Falcons' wide receivers. He has spent time on three staffs at TTU, coaching under Mike Leach, Tommy Tuberville and Kliff Kingsbury.
- Andy Padron comes to Bowling Green after serving as the Offensive Coordinator at Texas Lutheran University for the past six seasons. Padron will serve the Falcons as Co-Offensive Coordinator and will be responsible for the team's quarterbacks.
- Marcus White will be the Co-Defensive Coordinator, responsible for the defensive linemen, under Mike Jinks. White, who has spent time at Texas Tech, coached at Faulkner University during the 2015 season.
- Matt Brock will be the Falcons' Special Teams' Coordinator for the 2016 season. Brock has spent the last several seasons as a Defensive Quality Control coach at Texas Tech and is a 2010 graduate of Baker University.
- Two coaches originally from Dino Babers' staff will be part of Jinks' staff in 2016. Andrew Sowder will coach the Falcons' outside receivers, while Mike Mickens will mentor the cornerbacks.
- Two other assistant coaches round out Jinks' on-field coaching staff for the upcoming 2016 season. Benny Morrison will be responsible for the team's linebackers, while Stephen Hamby will coach the offensive line. Morrison has spent time as a graduate assistant at both UTSA and South Florida, after a playing career at Drake. Hamby played on the offensive line at Texas Tech and has spent the last several years on their coaching staff working with the offensive line.
- Four graduate assistants coaches will assist Jinks' staff with the on-field coaching for the 2016 season. Ben Olson (defense) was part of Babers' staff in each of the past two seasons, while Jinks' has hired Eddie Benavidez (defense), Seth Doege (offense) and Kenny Williams (offense) to join the staff.
- Ryan Downard will join the staff as the Chief of Staff/Director of Football Operations. Downard has spent each of the past two seasons with the Cleveland Browns and previously worked as a graduate assistant at Texas Tech.
- The Falcons will also hit the recruiting trails hard under the guidance of Jinks and his staff, thanks to the help of two recruiting coordinators. Nick Young (offense) and Luke Wagner (defense) will assist the Falcon coaching staff with recruiting operations.

Bowling Green State University Director of Athletics D. Christopher Kingston announced on Dec. 9, 2015 that he had tabbed Texas Tech Associate Head Coach Mike Jinks to lead the defending Mid-American Conference Champion football program. Jinks, who also coaches running backs for the Red Raiders, will become the 19th head coach in program history.

"I would like to welcome Mike to the Falcon family and the Bowling Green community," President Mary Ellen Mazey commented. "Mike understands the important leadership role he will play in developing our student athletes for their futures. He is a great role model and will take us onward and upward."

"We are so pleased that Mike Jinks and his family have accepted the offer to be here at Bowling Green State University to lead the football program," Kingston said. "Mike is a man of impeccable character and integrity. He places a high value on education and he is a winner. I am excited to see him guide this program to continued success in the pursuit of greatness."

Jinks, who comes to BGSU after spending the 2015 season as Associate Head Coach, has coached the Red Raiders' running backs for the past three seasons. Prior to his time at Texas Tech, he was a National Coach of the Year finalist while winning the 2010 Texas State Championship and compiling a record of 43-4 in his final three seasons at San Antonio powerhouse, Steele High School.

"I look forward to the opportunity to lead this incredibly successful program," Jinks began. "I am most excited about building on the winning culture and taking this incredible journey with the players and staff."

Known for their prolific offense, Texas Tech has seen great success this season with Jinks. The Red Raiders own the second-best offense in the country, totaling 7,134 yards in 12 games (594.5 yards per game). TTU also has the second-best passing offense. The Red Raiders are averaging 46.6 points per game (second in FBS) and have had 33 touchdown drives under two minutes this season. Texas Tech also ranks inside the top five nationally for third-down conversions (.519), first downs offense (346), and plays run (1,002).

Under Jinks, Texas Tech has seen incredible success in the running game. In just his second season, Jinks tutored DeAndre Washington, who became the first Red Raiders' running back since Ricky Williams in 1998 to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in a single season. Washington finished the season with 1,103 rushing yards and was named second team All-Big 12. This season, Washington has turned into the Big 12 Conference's most prolific rusher under Jinks, totaling a league-best 1,455 yards on the ground and 14 touchdowns. Washington is also second in the Big 12 in all-purpose yards (146.6 yards per game) behind only teammate Jakeem Grant (180.6 yards per game). The Texas Tech rushing attack averages 204.8 yards per game and has tallied 34 rushing touchdowns this season.

Jinks joined the Texas Tech program after a highly successful tenure at Steele High School in Cibolo, Texas – a suburb of San Antonio. Jinks was the first head coach at Steele when the school opened its doors in 2005, and it didn't take long for him to mold the program into a state powerhouse. While at Steele, Jinks compiled a 76-18 record overall, including an impressive 43-4 mark in his final three seasons. He led the Knights to the 2010 Class 5A Division II State Championship and to the state finals again in 2011.

His highly successful career at Steele led him to receiving the honor of coaching the West Team in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in January 2013. He was also a finalist for the Xenith National High School Coach of the Year Award.

While at Steele, Jinks coached former Texas Longhorn, and All-American running back, Malcolm Brown.

Prior to becoming the head coach in Cibolo, Jinks was the head coach at Burbank High School for a season. Prior to that, he had a highly successful career as a high school assistant coach and offensive coordinator at five different schools. Jinks' coaching career began in 1995 as the quarterbacks coach at Eillison High School. In 1998, Jinks then became the quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, Judson High School. Following that, he served as offensive coordinator at David Crockett High School, Galena Park High School and Robert E. Lee High School, all prior to his first head coaching position

Jinks is a graduate of Angelo State University where he earned his degree in kinesiology. He and his wife Meredith have three children – Jaden, Madison and Tristan.

PERRY ELIANO

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

Perry Eliano has been hired by Mike Jinks and will serve as the Falcons' Associate Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator, coaching the safeties. Eliano comes to Bowling Green after coaching the past five seasons at the University of Texas-San Antonio. At UTSA, Eliano was the special teams coordinator and coached safeties.

"My family and I are excited about the awesome opportunity we have to be a part of such a phenomenal university," said Eliano. "We are looking forward to embracing the great tradition here at BGSU. We will be relentless in everything we do!"

Last season, Eliano mentored a defensive backfield which had 14 interceptions. Under Jinks, Eliano will take over an already aggressive defense and turn up the heat, as the Falcons have had 20 interceptions in 2015. Eliano coached two players who earned All-CUSA honors in cornerback Bennett Okotcha (second team) and safety Michael Egwuagu (honorable mention).

In 2014, Eliano helped lead a defense that ranked in the Conference USA top five in five different statistical categories, including second in rushing defense (140.8 ypg). UTSA forced 19 turnovers (10 fumbles/9 INTs) with his safeties combining for seven of the picks. Free safety Triston Wade was one of 15 semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award (nation's top defensive back) — a program first — and he also garnered second-team all-conference honors after registering team highs for tackles (86), interceptions (4), pass breakups (10) and fumble recoveries (2). Wade signed with the Seattle Seahawks as an undrafted free agent in May 2015.

Eliano's special teams also excelled in 2014, as the Roadrunners led the league in net punting (39.3 avg.) on the strength of honorable mention all-conference punter Kristian Stern, who set school records for punts (83) and punting average (41.2), and were tied for third in field goals behind second-team all-conference place-kicker Sean Ianno, who made 17-of-21, including a school-record 53-yarder against Florida Atlantic, along with registering 16 touchbacks on kickoffs. Deep snapper Jesse Medrano also collected second-team all-conference honors.

In 2013, Eliano helped lead UTSA to a 7-5 overall record, including victories over a pair of bowl teams. The Roadrunners finished second in the West Division with a 6-2 mark in their first season in Conference USA. He helped tutor a defense that forced 14 turnovers (6 fumbles/8 INTs), with the safeties combining for six of the picks, and allowed just 143.1 rushing yards per game. Wade led the team in tackles (94), solo tackles (54) and interceptions (two), while Nic Johnston was third in stops (70). On special teams, Ianno established a school record for touchbacks with 21 and connected on all 38 of his extra-point attempts.

Wade earned second-team All-Conference USA honors, while Johnston and Stern were honorable mention all-conference.

In 2012, Eliano helped lead UTSA to an 8-4 overall record and a 3-3 mark in its first and only season in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). The campaign was highlighted by historic wins against South Alabama, the program's first road and Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) victory, and New Mexico State, its first league win. The defense forced 29 turnovers (16 fumbles/13 interceptions), which led to 22 scores (15 TDs/7 FGs), and Wade garnered first-team All-WAC accolades.

In his first year overseeing special teams, the placekickers combined to make 15-of-19 field goals and all 45 PATs. Kenny Harrison finished second in the FBS in punt return average (17.3), had a program-record 79-yard TD return in the season-ending victory against I-35 rival Texas State and was an honorable mention all-league selection..

Eliano helped lead the Roadrunners to a 4-6 record during their inaugural campaign in 2011. The defense allowed just 21.4 points and 126.2 yards rushing per game and forced 21 turnovers (11 fumbles, 10 interceptions), which led to 15 scores. His safeties recovered six fumbles — three by Johnston — and picked off five passes. Additionally, three of the team's top five tacklers were in his unit — Mark Waters (68/2nd), Johnston (59/4th) and Mauricio Sanchez (44/5th).

Prior to his time on the Roadrunners coaching staff, Eliano was an assistant at Central Arkansas from 2006-10. He coached defensive backs throughout his tenure and was named associate head coach prior to his final season. Eliano coached the 2005 season as Sam Houston State's secondary coach after an earlier two-season stint at Central Arkansas as the running backs and wide receivers coach. Eliano coached wide receiver Mike Norvell at Central Arkansas, who was recently hired as Memphis' head coach.

A Killeen, Texas native, Eliano got his coaching start as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Stephen F. Austin, from 2001-02. Eliano played linebacker for the Lumberjacks from 1996-99. He was the team's Defensive Most Valuable Player and leading tackler in both 1998 and '99. Playing strong safety as a senior, he registered a team-high 99 tackles to help guide the Lumberjacks to the Southland Championship and was named all-conference following that campaign. He also was named the Ralph Todd Award (University Outstanding Male Athlete) winner the following spring.

A standout prep defensive back, Eliano was a three-year letterwinner at Ellison High School from 1993-95. He earned all-state honors following his senior season after helping the Eagles reach the Class 5A state quarterfinals.

Eliano earned his bachelor's degree from Stephen F. Austin in 2000 and a master's in secondary education three years later. He and his wife, Regenia, have two sons, Amari and Evan.

KEVIN KILMER Co-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/WIDE RECEIVERS

Kevin Kilmer will join the staff of new head coach Mike Jinks as the Co-Offensive Coordinator. He will work with the Falcons' wide receivers.

"I'm fired up to be part of the BG family," Kilmer commented. "I can't wait to get out on the field with the players. I'm very thankful for the opportunity from Coach Jinks and BGSU."

Kilmer spent last season at Texas Tech as the offensive quality control coach, after previously serving as an offensive graduate assistant for the Red Raiders.

Kilmer, who graduated from Texas Tech with a Bachelor of Arts in History in 2011 and a Master of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies in 2015, has been at TTU since 2007. He began his coaching career as a student assistant under Mike Leach, who is currently the head coach at Washington State. He has also worked for Tommy Tuberville – currently at Cincinnati – and Kliff Kingsbury.

The Red Raiders have been to a bowl game in seven of nine seasons with Kilmer on the staff, as he is no stranger to postseason success. During his time with the program, he has coached the quarterbacks, wide receivers and running backs. Besides working under the three Texas Tech head coaches, Kilmer has worked alongside of Lincoln Riley (currently Offensive Coordinator at Oklahoma), Neal Brown (currently Head Coach at Troy) and most recently, Jinks.

Kilmer has been responsible for film breakdown and game planning during the past year as Offensive Quality Control. On game day, he charted the defense and also helped organize recruiting visits for the Red Raiders. He has also served as the Kliff Kingsbury Football Summer Camps Director, responsible for all aspects of the camp.

Kilmer, a native of Slaton, Texas, is married to his wife Jaryn. The couple was married in March of 2014.

MARCUS WHITE Co-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE LINE

Marcus White joins Mike Jinks staff at Bowling Green as the Co-Defensive Coordinator. White, who coached the 2015 season at Faulkner University, will coach the defensive line for the Falcons. Jinks and White previously worked together at Texas Tech, as White served the Red Raiders in an off-the-field role the two seasons prior.

"What an honor it is to be able to coach at such a prestigious university such as Bowling Green," White began. "It's not every day that you get to be a part of a program with such a storied tradition and record of excellence both on and off the field. I want to thank Coach Jinks, Chris Kingston and his administration for affording me and my family such a great opportunity."

White, a former player at Auburn and Murray State, joined the Faulkner staff as the defensive line coach prior to the 2015 season. In 2015, Faulkner went 7-3 and won their final four games of the season. The Eagles totaled 103.0 tackles for loss and 48.0 sacks. Freshman Qunn Johnson was named Mid-South Conference's West Division defensive Freshman of the Year, registering 45 tackles, 8.5 TFL, and 5.5 sacks. Additionally, defensive lineman Tony Threatt was named first team All-MSC after totaling 51 tackles, 11.5 TFL and 8.5 sacks. Johnson was named second team All-MSC.

Having originally signed with Auburn, White transferred prior to the 2003 season to Murray State, where he was an All-Ohio Valley Conference selection for three years. White was a member of the NFL's Tennessee Titans from 2005-2007 before concluding his professional career in the Arena Football League.

A graduate of Murray State, White was an offensive analyst at Texas Tech prior to his time at Faulkner. He served as an offensive quality control assistant at Houston in 2012, Tarleton State's offensive line coach in '11 and worked another year at Houston in '10 as an offensive graduate assistant. A Theodore, Ala., product, he was an assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal in Mobile, Ala., in '09 and the defensive line coach at Jackson Olin High in Birmingham, Ala., in '08.

White and his wife, Jaunelle, have three daughters - MaKiah, Jailyn, and Layla.

ANDY PADRON

Co-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Andy Padron comes to Bowling Green to join the coaching staff of head coach Mike Jinks after coaching the past six seasons at Texas Lutheran University. Padron will be the Falcons' Co-Offensive Coordinator, responsible for the quarterbacks.

"My wife and I are extremely excited to be joining the Bowling Green community and the Falcon coaching staff," Padron started. "We are ready to get to BGSU and continue building upon the winning tradition!"

Padron joined his father, TLU Head Football Coach Danny Padron, on the coaching staff of the Bulldogs when he accepted the head coaching position in January 2010. The younger Padron handled the play-calling duties in 2011 as the quarterbacks coach and has continued in that duty to present day. He was elevated to offensive coordinator following the 2011 season.

In his six seasons with the Bulldogs, Padron coached an offense and individual players that combined to set 49 new TLU team and individual records.

After inheriting a program that went 6-24 in the three previous seasons, Padron helped engineer a turn-around that produced a 38-22 overall record over the next six seasons.

The Bulldogs won three Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Championships, claimed a 2014 NCAA Division III Championship playoff berth, and received repeated Top 25 national rankings.

The 2015 TLU Bulldogs won a third straight Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Championship and led the SCAC in nearly every offensive category. The Bulldogs went 3-0 in the SCAC and 8-2 overall, just missing out on an NCAA DIII at-large playoff berth.

As the team's quarterbacks coach, Padron guided TLU QB Trenton White to the 2015 SCAC Offensive Player of the Year award. White set the new TLU school record for career passing touchdowns (61).

White led the SCAC in passing yards, passing yards per game, completions (TLU single-season record 207), attempts, completion percentage and touchdowns. White finished second in TLU history in career passing yards (5,874) and completion percentage (62.7).

Among all NCAA DIII schools in 2015, the Bulldogs currently rank 22nd in total offense, 32nd in passing offense, 21st in scoring offense, 29th in first downs, 14th in red zone offense, 11th in time of possession, and 18th in completion percentage.

The 2014 TLU Bulldogs advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs as an at-large bid team. The 2014 NCAA playoff appearance was TLU's first in NCAA DIII and the first in program history since the 1976 NAIA-II national semifinal.

The Bulldogs, 17th in the AFCA Coaches' Poll at the end of the 2014 regular season, fell 27-20 in the NCAA Football Championship first round to No. 2-ranked University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, in a game played at UMHB's Crusader Stadium over a weather-delayed two days.

The Bulldogs won a second consecutive SCAC Championship in 2014 behind an offense that (after 11 games) was ninth nationally in total offense (498.0 ypg), 14th in rushing offense (261.8 ypg), 19th in scoring offense (40.5 ppg), fourth in first downs offense (288), 31st in red zone offense (.864) and 21st in time of possession (1,995 minutes).

TLU running back Marquis Barrolle led all of NCAA Division III in rushing after 11 games, posting 1,792 rushing yards (a school record) on 297 carries (another school record). In the DIII playoff game against UMHB, Barrolle carried the ball a conference and school record 50 times for 224 yards against the then No. 14-ranked UMHB run defense.

In 2012, Padron and Bulldogs set new school team records for passing yards (3,253), passing yards per game (325.3), total offense per game (480.9), total offense in a single game (616, vs. Sul Ross State on Oct. 13) and for touchdown passes in a season (29).

The record book onslaught by the TLU Offense continued in 2013. On their way to the SCAC Championship, the Bulldogs led the league in total offense, rushing offense, passing offense, scoring offense, turnover margin, passing efficiency, fewest turnovers lost, fewest passes intercepted, first downs, third and fourth-down conversions, red zone offense, and pass completion percentage.

Nationally, the Bulldogs of 2013 had the third-best total offense (521.2 yards per game) in all of NCAA DIII. The Bulldogs also ranked ninth in passing offense (326.7), sixth in scoring offense (46.1), 14th in team passing efficiency (155.84 rating), 33rd in first downs (237), 24th in fourth-down conversion rate (.613), 40th in time of possession, and 27th in completion percentage (.643).

Padron coached TLU quarterback Brent Peavy to multiple individual school records and to the SCAC Offensive Player of the Year award. The Bulldogs of 2013 set new school records for passing yards per game, total offense per game, points per game, TD passes, and TDs per game.

Padron is a 2007 graduate of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, where he starred as a quarterback and helped UMHB to the NCAA Division III National Championship game in 2004.

Padron was a part of Cru football squads that went 41-8 from 2003 to 2006 and won four American Southwest Conference Championships.

Padron and his wife Sarah, a Texas Lutheran grad, were married in 2013.

MATT BROCK

SPECIAL TEAMS' COORDINATOR/ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

Matt Brock joins the staff of head coach Mike Jinks after coaching at Texas Tech for the last three seasons. Brock will serve as the special teams coordinator and assistant defensive line coach for the Falcons in 2016.

"I am honored to be a part of Bowling Green State University and the football program," Brock stated. "I am grateful for the opportunity provided to me and my wife by Coach Jinks and Athletic Director Chris Kingston. We are very excited to be a part of this community, university, and the tradition of BGSU Football. I look forward to working with the staff that Coach Jinks has assembled and cannot wait to build on the winning culture that surrounds Falcon Football."

In each of the last three seasons, Brock served as a defensive quality control assistant for the Red Raiders. He also coached the defensive line in the Texas Bowl against LSU in 2015. Brock was promoted to inside linebackers coach early in the 2014 season following the departure of defensive coordinator Matt Wallerstedt and served in that capacity during the remainder of that season.

In 2015, Brock assisted with the defensive line and was responsible for presenting installation for the defensive unit and position groups. He also assisted in the on-campus recruitment of student-athletes and organized off-campus recruiting. Brock assisted a defensive unit that ranked 17th in the country in turnovers gained during the 2015 campaign.

In 2014, Brock spent the majority of the season as the inside linebackers coach, developing Sam Eguavoen, an All-Big 12 linebacker. He assisted in developing the game plan each week and was directly involved in analysis and evaluation on game day. During the 2013 season, Brock's first with the Red Raiders, he coached Will Smith who garnered All-Big 12 honors along with being named Holiday Bowl Defensive Player of the Game. Smith was drafted in the seventh round by the Dallas Cowboys.

Brock was the defensive quality control coach in his first season at Tech in 2013.

He went to Texas Tech following two seasons at Baker University, his alma mater, where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

He spent two seasons at Baker (2011-12) overseeing the team's linebackers and assisted Baker defensive coordinator Jason Thoren in the coaches' booth on game day. Brock was also the defensive coordinator of the Baker JV team. In addition, Brock assisted with the kickoff and punt teams.

Brock also coordinated Baker's strength and conditioning program during his tenure as a graduate assistant coach.

Brock was a linebacker during his collegiate playing career at Baker. He tallied 277 career tackles and posted seven interceptions while leading the league in total tackles and tackles per game in 2010.

A 2009 and 2010 all-conference pick, Brock was a two-time Academic All-American and earned several team most valuable player awards. Brock graduated from Baker in 2011 while majoring in physical education. Brock is married to his wife, Alyssa.

STEPHEN HAMBY

ASSISTANT COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE

Stephen Hamby joins the coaching staff of head coach Mike Jinks at BGSU in 2016. Hamby, who played at Texas Tech from 2004-08, will coach the offensive line for the Falcons.

"What an amazing time it is to be accepted into the nest of Falcons," Hamby commented. "With absolute gratitude I thank Head Coach Mike Jinks and Athletic Director Chris Kingston for making this a reality. God's path has led me to a very unique and special place. BGSU, it's time to get loud, physical and fast."

During the last three seasons, Hamby has served Texas Tech as the assistant offensive line coach under Kliff Kingsbury. Hamby has been directly responsible for coaching the team's centers, while assisting with on- and off-field instruction of the offensive line. During game weeks, the former Red Raiders center has helped with film breakdown and the run game planning. Hamby has also been directly involved in all aspects of Texas Tech's recruiting during his three seasons, analyzing offensive line prospects and assisting with all recruiting materials.

An offensive lineman with the Red Raiders, Hamby helped Texas Tech to a 37-16 record and four consecutive bowl appearances. TTU played in the Cotton Bowl twice, the Insight Bowl and the Gator Bowl during Hamby's four seasons in Lubbock. Following his career at TTU, Hamby was invited to training camp with both the Washington Redskins and New Orleans Saints.

Hamby graduated from Texas Tech in August 2009 with a degree in Agriculture and Applied Economics.

MIKE MICKENS

ASSISTANT COACH/CORNERBACKS

Mike Mickens enters his third year as an assistant coach at Bowling Green after coaching the previous two seasons under former head coach Dino Babers. Mickens will continue to coach cornerbacks for Mike Jinks.

The 2015 season featured another top season for cornerbacks on the Falcons' defense, as Alfonso Mack led the team in interceptions (6) after starting the last 12 games of the season.

The 2014 season featured several milestones for Mickens' cornerbacks. Jude Adjei-Barimah, who made the switch after playing rover in 2013, finished third on the team with 82 tackles. He was also third on the team with 12 passes defended. Mickens mentored two true freshman cornerbacks in 2014 who combined for nine interceptions. Nick Johnson finished the year with five interceptions – tied for most in school history among true freshman with Martin Bayless (1980). The pair of corners were the only two true freshmen in the nation to record more than four interceptions on the season.

Mickens came to Bowling Green from Idaho, where he coached under head coach Paul Petrino. He has previously coached at Indiana State and Cincinnati, in addition to Idaho.

He was drafted by Dallas in the 2009 NFL Draft. He wound up playing for both Tampa Bay and Cincinnati as well as the Calgary Stampeders before retiring because of injury.

As a collegian, he is Cincinnati's career leader in interceptions (14) as well as interception return yards (296). He was named an All-American in 2007 and 2008 and was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award. Additionally Mickens was named All-Big East four times during his career, twice on the first team and twice on the second team.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Mickens is a graduate of Wayne High School where he was a two-time All-Greater Western Ohio Conference cornerback and helped the Warriors to a 24-9 record as well as two league titles during his three seasons. He recorded 205 tackles, 10 interceptions and returned a kickoff for a touchdown and won the Ohio State 300-meter hurdles championship as a junior.

He earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cincinnati in 2011. He is married to his wife, Jessica.

BENNY MORRISON

ASSISTANT COACH/LINEBACKERS

Benny Morrison joins the staff of head coach Mike Jinks in 2016 and will be responsible for the Falcons linebackers. Morrison most recently served as a graduate assistant on the defensive side of the ball at the University of South Florida.

"It is an honor and blessing to join the Bowling Green State University Falcon family," Morrison said. "My wife and I are extremely excited to be members of such an outstanding program. I am especially thankful to Head Coach Mike Jinks and Athletic Director Chris Kingston for granting me this incredible opportunity. I look forward to building on the rich tradition of success here at Bowling Green."

During his season spent at South Florida, Morrison helped the Bulls to an 8-4 record, including a 5-0 record in the American Athletic Conference's East Division. He mentored defensive end Eric Lee, who was named second team All-AAC. The Bulls ranked 22nd in the country in scoring defense, allowing just 21.1 points per game.

Prior to coaching at South Florida, Morrison was a graduate assistant at UTSA under Perry Eliano. Morrison was a graduate assistant for three seasons with the Roadrunners, where he worked with the defensive linemen. He was responsible for breaking down and organizing opponents' film, instructing the scout team, generating practice schedules and scripts and assisting with the recruiting process.

In his final season at UTSA, Morrison helped the Roadrunners to the second-best rushing defense in CUSA. He coached second team All-CUSA defensive end Robert Singletary and honorable mention All-CUSA players Cody Rogers and Ashaad Mabry. In 2013, Morrison helped lead UTSA to a 7-5 overall record, including victories over a pair of bowl teams. The Roadrunners finished second in the West Division with a 6-2 mark in their first season in Conference USA. He helped mentor a defense that forced 14 turnovers (6 fumbles/ 8 INTs) and allowed only 143.1 rushing yards per game in 2013, including holding three opponents to less than 100 yards. The defensive linemen combined for 249 tackles, 25.5 tackles for loss, 17 sacks, 17 quarterback hurries and eight pass breakups. Defensive end Codie Brooks was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman team and earned honorable mention accolades alongside defensive tackle Ashaad Mabry and defensive end Robert Singletary.

In his first year with the Roadrunners in 2012, the program registered an 8-4 overall record and a 3-3 mark in its first and only season in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). The campaign was highlighted by historic wins against South Alabama, the program's first road and Football Bowl Subdivision victory, and New Mexico State, its first league win. The defense forced 29 turnovers (16 fumbles/13 interceptions), which led to 22 scores (15 TDs/7 FGs), and defensive tackle Franky Anaya earned second-team All-WAC accolades.

Morrison came to UTSA from Montana State, where he spent the 2011 season as the special teams intern. He helped the Bobcats to a 10-3 record, the Big Sky Championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs.

The Lincolnshire, Ill., native was a four-year letterwinner at Drake from 2007-10, where he played linebacker for then UTSA defensive coordinator Neal Neathery. He garnered second-team All-Pioneer Football League and conference all-academic team honors, was an Allstate AFCA Good Works Team finalist and won the team's Torchbearer Award — voted on by players and coaches as team's top leader — as a senior. Morrison ranked second on the team with 71 tackles (39 solo), including 5.5 for loss and a pair of sacks. He also had a 95-yard interception return for a touchdown and a fumble recovery to help the Bulldogs to a 7-4 record. The co-captain picked up Pioneer League co-Defensive Player of the Week accolades and was an honorable mention FCS Defensive Linebacker of the Week pick.

As a junior, Morrison was an honorable mention all-conference and academic honor roll selection. He ranked fourth on the squad with 75 stops (35 solo), including 14.5 for 48 yards in loss and 4.5 sacks. He blocked two kicks, forced and recovered three fumbles and intercepted one pass to help Drake to an 8-3 record. As a sophomore he led the Bulldogs in tackles with 55 and he topped the Pioneer League with 87 stops and three fumble recoveries as a freshman in 2007.

An active volunteer, he organized or participated in community service events at Blank's Children's Hospital in Des Moines, Iowa, the "Go Bulldog" Reading Program, Special Olympics, Ronald McDonald House and Boys & Girls Club.

Following his playing career, Morrison was a student intern with Drake during the Spring 2011 season, where he assisted with the linebackers, defensive scout team and official recruiting visits.

Morrison earned his bachelor's degree in education from Drake in May 2011 and a masters from UTSA in December 2013. He is married to his wife, Danielle.

ANDREW SOWDER

ASSISTANT COACH/OUTSIDE WIDE RECEIVERS

Sowder begins his third year at Bowling Green, and will coach outside receivers in 2016. He joins Jinks staff after coaching under Dino Babers the last four seasons. Sowder also coached wide receivers last season, mentoring All-MAC picks Roger Lewis, Gehrig Dieter and Ronnie Moore.

At EIU, Sowder was responsible for the outside receivers. After serving as Director of Player Personnel & Recruiting in 2014, Sowder will be back on the field in a coaching role for the 2015 season.

A main role that Sowder filled on the Falcons' support staff is that of the recruiting coordinator. Under Sowder's direction, the Falcons' coaching staff secured 21 student-athletes in their 2015 recruiting class. Sowder was responsible for scheduling recruiting travel, official visits, and managing the recruiting process for the Orange and Brown.

2013 was a banner year for the receiving core at EIU. Sowder coached the outside receivers, as the Panthers caught 395 passes for 5,213 yards and 55 touchdowns. EIU's receivers averaged 13.2 yards per catch and 372.4 yards per game during the school-record breaking season.

During the 2012 season Sowder helped coach a wide receiver unit that hauled in a previous school record 341 passes for 4,019 yards and 34 touchdowns. The outside group was led by seniors Chris Wright and Chavar Watkins. Wright matched the OVC record for consecutive games with a touchdown reception as he finished in the EIU career top ten in yards, receptions and touchdown catches.

Sowder was a student coach at Baylor assisting Babers with the wide receivers and special teams in 2009 and 2010 following a playing career with the Bears.

During the 2011 season Sowder worked as the running backs coach at West Texas A&M with the team posting an 8-3 record including a win over Central Missouri in the Kanza Bowl. He coached running back Khiry Robinson who was the MVP of the Kanza Bowl and is now a member of the New Orleans Saints.

Sowder is very familiar with Babers' #FalconFast offensive system having played and coached under Art Briles. He was a tight end at Baylor during the 2007 and 2008 seasons. In August of 2009 he became a student coach assisting Babers with the wide receivers and tight ends. Baylor ended the season with an appearance in the Texas Bowl as the offensive unit ranked 12th in the nation in total offense.

Sowder earned his undergraduate degree from Baylor in 2011 in film/digital media.

RYAN DOWNARD

CHIEF OF STAFF/DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Ryan Downard joins the staff of new Bowling Green head football coach Mike Jinks as the Director of Football Operations. Downard comes to Bowling Green after serving as a defensive coaching assistant with the Cleveland Browns during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

"My family and I are extremely excited to be a part of the Falcon family," Downard started. "I look forward to being back in the Mid-American Conference with Coach Jinks and the incredible staff he has put together."

While with the Browns organization, Downard has assisted with both the defensive backs (2015) and defensive line (2014). He was responsible for working with the position groups during individual periods and conducted rookie meetings. He also led special teams drills for gunners, corners and safeties.

Another key administrative role that Downard filled while with the Browns was interviewing combine participants prior to the NFL Draft. He also recruited Free Agents for NFL Mini Camp. During the season, Downard was responsible for game week preparations, including game plan, film breakdown, practice cards, scouting reports and call sheets.

Prior to his two seasons with the Browns, Downard served as a graduate assistant at both Texas Tech and Toledo. While at Texas Tech, Downard worked with Co-Defensive Coordinator Mike Smith. He also coached two positions on the special teams' units and was involved with all on-campus recruiting visits and dinners. While at the University of Toledo as a graduate assistant, Downard assisted current head coach Jason Candel.

At Bowling Green, Downard will handle the non-coaching activities of the Falcon football program. This includes departmental budget, personnel and staffing, academics, team travel, summer camps and all other day-to-day operations. Downard will also be the football program's liaison to the University Administration and all other units within the BGSU Athletics Department.

A native of Lima, Ohio, Downard graduated from Shawnee High School and Eastern Michigan University. While at EMU, he earned multiple MAC Player of the Week awards, was a team captain, and earned freshman All-America honors as a defensive back. Downard is married to his wife, Julie, and the couple has a son – Jaxon.
