2016 BGSU FOOTBALL

SETTING THE SCENE

* Bowling Green, the defending Mid-American Conference champions, will open the MAC portion of their schedule when they host the Eastern Michigan Eagles at 3:00 p.m. Saturday.

* The game will serve as the centerpiece for BGSU's 2016 Homecoming celebration and will be played on the 50th anniversary of the first game ever played at Doyt L. Perry Stadium. On Oct. 1, 1966, BGSU defeated the University of Dayton, 13-0.

* The Falcons are 25-11-1 all-time against the Eagles and have won 11 of the past 12 meetings dating back to 1990.

* BGSU and EMU last met in Ypsilanti, Mich. on Nov. 23, 2013. The Falcons won 58-7 and permitted just one completed pass, four first downs and 65 total yards during the game. The last game between the two at Perry Stadium occurred on Oct. 27, 2012. BGSU won 24-3 and allowed only 178 total yards.

* BGSU has won 27 of their last 35 MAC games, including two of the last three MAC Championship games.

* The Falcons' opponent, EMU, is 3-1 for the first time in 21 years and has wins this season over Mississippi Valley State, Charlotte and Wyoming.

THE 2,000 YARD MAN

* Bowling Green senior running back Fred Coppet has quietly positioned himself to become one of the Falcons' most prolific career rushers.

* Following a 47-yard performance at Memphis, Coppet now has 2,047 yards in his career, including seasons of 764 and 825 yards.

* He currently ranks 11th on BGSU's all-time list. He needs 90 yards to tie Joe Alls for 10th place and 517 to tie Fred Durig for fifth.

* Against MTSU, Coppet rushed 27 times for 117 yards. It was his fifth career 100-yard game and his second-highest single-game rushing total. He had 140 in Nov. 2014 versus Ball State. The 27 carries nearly doubled his previous career high (14).

FALCON FASTER

* Bowling Green is living up to its "Falcon Faster" mantra in 2016. The Falcons are 24th nationally with 79.3 plays per game.

* BGSU is one of only four teams whose average time between plays is less than 20 seconds. The Falcons rank fourth behind California (18.6 seconds), Missouri (18.9 seconds) and Baylor (19.6 seconds).

RAY GUY PUNTER OF THE WEEK

* Punter Joseph Davidson was named the Ray Guy Award National Punter of the Week Monday after averaging 47.4 yards per punt against Memphis.

* Davidson landed five of his eight punts inside the 20, booted a 68-yarder and a 60-yarder, and had his final punt of the night downed at the one.

ELIANO'S OPPORTUNISTIC DEFENSE

* Defensive coordinator Perry Eliano inherits an opportunistic defense that returns six key starters in 2016.

* The Falcons ranked eighth in the country in 2015 with 20 interceptions and 13th in total turnovers forced with 27.

* Brandon Harris had a 63-yard interception return for a touchdown in week one against Ohio State. Against North Dakota, he posted seven tackles and his first career sack, and he earned his first career pass break-up against MTSU.

* The linebackers are destined to be the backbone of the defense. Trenton Greene, a second-team All-MAC performer a year ago, had 16 tackles against Ohio State and nine more against North Dakota. He also led the Falcons with 11 tackles versus MTSU and eight against Memphis. Nationally, he ranks sixth with 11 tackles per game.

* Linebacker Austin Valdez, a first-team all-conference player last year, had 10 tackles and a pass break-up against Ohio State and another 10 tackles against North Dakota.

* Defensive end Terrance Bush will provide leadership as a returning starter along the line, while Alfonso Mack will do the same in the secondary.

* Mack is a former walk-on who made such an impact on the Falcons that Mike Jinks' first decision as head coach was to award him a scholarship on Dec. 10, 2015 in the initial team meeting. Mack led the team with six interceptions a year ago. He earned his first pick of 2016 against MTSU and returned it 47 yards, just one yard shy of a pick-six. Against Memphis, he contributed a pass break-up in the first quarter.

ROAD WARRIORS

* Bowling Green went 6-0 in true road games a year ago and won a total of seven games (including the MAC Championship) away from Doyt Perry Stadium.

* BGSU was the only team in the country to win six road games in 2015.

* The Falcons' six road wins tied the 1985 team for the most in a season in school history. The seven wins outside of Bowling Green, Ohio are a program record.

RUNNING TO PAYDIRT

* Bowling Green's 304 rushing yards against Middle Tennessee were the most by the team since totaling 337 at Ball State on Nov. 24, 2015.

* The team's 61 rushing attempts were the most in one game by the Falcons in 18 years. BGSU ran the ball 77 times against Northern Illinois on Nov. 21, 1998.

CLEVELAND ROCKS

* Josh Cleveland's workload continues to increase, and the results are stunning.

* He carried the ball six times for 31 yards against Ohio State, then 11 for 44 against North Dakota.

* His coming-out party was against MTSU. Cleveland hauled the rock 18 times for 153 yards and his first career touchdown. Cleveland is the first BGSU player to rush for more than 150 in his first career 100-yard game since Willie Geter ran for 203 against Kent State in 2007.

* Cleveland now has 250 yards, 5.7 per carry and 62.5 per game. He ranks fifth in the MAC in yards per carry, seventh in total rushing yards and eighth in rushing yards per game.

THE POWER BACK

* In his second season of action, Donovan Wilson had his most productive game against MTSU. He set career single-game highs with 10 carries and 36 yards.

* Wilson also scored two touchdowns, tied for his most in a game. They were his first scores since he found the end zone twice last October against Akron.

* Wilson now has 71 yards in 2016, just 7 yards shy of his season high for rushing yards.

INTERCEPTION CONNECTION

* BGSU has picked off two passes in 2016 and the Falcons were just one yard shy of returning both for touchdowns.

* Brandon Harris had a 63-yard interception return for a touchdown against Ohio State.

* Alfonso Mack returned an interception 47 yards to the one-yard line Saturday against Middle Tennessee.

* BGSU's 110 yards on interception returns are first in the MAC. Akron is second with 73 yards on three interceptions.

* Bowling Green's defense picked off 20 passes and allowed only 19 touchdown passes during the 2015 season. Those 20 interceptions were tied with Oklahoma for eighth-most nationally.

MILLER TIME

* Wide receiver Scott Miller put on a show against North Dakota, reaching the end zone for the first time and setting career highs for receptions, receiving yards and all-purpose yards.

* Miller's first reception went for a 71-yard touchdown. The score was the first of his career, and his career receiving yardage to that point was 56.

* Miller added four more receptions during the game, including scoring catches of 51 and 11 yards. In all, he had five catches for 161 yards and three scores.

* Miller is also BGSU's primary kickoff and punt returner. He posted 60 kick return yards and 14 via punt return, to give him 235 all-purpose yards. That is the most in a game for a BGSU player since Roger Lewis had 261 last season against Memphis.

* Miller currently has an average of 127.5 all-purpose yards per game. That total ranks 44th nationally and third the MAC. Miller's 243 kick return yards are fifth in the MAC, and he ranks in the MAC's top ten in receiving touchdowns, receiving yards and receiving yards per game.

* The 71-yard touchdown reception against North Dakota is BGSU's longest play of the season to date.

BOWLING GREENE

* Redshirt senior linebacker Trenton Greene set a career high with 16 tackles at Ohio State. He added nine more against North Dakota and 11

THE JINKS IMPACT

* New Bowling Green head coach Mike Jinks' previous job was running backs coach for Texas Tech. His tutelage created a monster in the Texas Tech backfield.
 * After scoring just eight rushing touchdowns as a team in 2014, the Red Raiders scored 34 in 2015 – an improvement of 26, more than any other FBS school.
 * That led to a 14.6 points-per-game improvement for Texas Tech, as they improved from 52nd to second nationally in that category.
 * The team ran for 651 more yards in 2015, which led a total offensive improvement of 75.4 yards per game.

TEXAS TECH WENT TO WASHINGTON

* The Mike Jinks-led improvement in the Texas Tech running game in 2015 was headed by Deandre Washington.
 * Last season, Washington improved by 23 yards per game en route to a season total of 1,492 yards. He ran for 6.4 yards per carry and scored an impressive 14 touchdowns. He piled up 144.38 all-purpose yards per game and ranked second in the Big 12. He also ranked second in rushing yards and rushing touchdowns.

THE MORE THINGS CHANGE...

* While Bowling Green opens 2016 with its third head coach in four years, the Falcons will have new offensive and defensive coordinators for the fourth consecutive season.
 * BGSU is the only school in the country that has had new offensive and defensive coordinators in each of the past four years.
 * Including co-coordinators, BGSU has had seven offensive coordinators in the past four years.

Year	Off. Coord.	Def. Coord.
2013	Warren Ruggiero	Mike Elko
2014	Sterlin Gilbert Matt Mattox	Kim McCloud
2015	Sean Lewis Mike Lynch	Brian Ward
2016	Andy Padron Kevin Kilmer	Perry Eliano

SENIORS LOOKING FOR MORE

* Bowling Green's senior class is in position to go down in history as one of the best in school history. With 29 wins over the past 3+ years, BGSU needs eight wins to tie the program record for victories in a four-year span.
 * The 2015 senior class won 36 games, tied for second-most in school history. Only the 2004 class won more with 37 wins. The program also won 36 games from 1991-94.
 * Considering many student-athletes redshirt, Bowling Green's trend over five years has potential to be even more impressive. The Falcons need just six wins to tie the program record for victories over a five-year span.
 * The 2005 senior class won a school record 43 games in five years, while the 1994, 1995 and 2015 seniors won 41. The 1963 and 1964 classes each won 40. This year's group has 37 wins (and counting) in their five seasons.

MAC CHAMPS AGAIN

* BGSU won its 12th Mid-American Conference Championship in 2015, defeating Northern Illinois 34-14 at Ford Field.
 * It was the fourth time that Bowling Green played in the MAC Championship and third consecutive year. BGSU is 2-2 all-time in MAC title games.
 * BGSU has played four games at Ford Field in the past three years, three times in the MAC Championship Game and once in the 2013 Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl.

BGSU's Results In Ford Field (2013-15)

Date	Opponent	Score
Dec. 6, 2013	Northern Illinois	W, 47-27
Dec. 26, 2013	Pittsburgh	L, 30-27
Dec. 5, 2014	Northern Illinois	L, 51-17
Dec. 4, 2015	Northern Illinois	W, 34-14

YOUTH IS SERVED

* There's a lot of experience on the Bowling Green football team but youth still runs deep for the Falcons.
 * BGSU has just 16 seniors, redshirt seniors or grad transfers, tied for 19th fewest in the country.
 * Even better, the Falcons have only seven seniors, redshirt seniors or grad transfers on offense, tied for the 15th fewest nationally.

DAVIDSON IN THE RECORD BOOK

* Punter Joseph Davidson holds two single-season school records and a single-game school record, while also sitting in first all-time in career punting average.
 * Davidson set school records by punting 82 times in 2014 for 3,497 yards. His 46.0 yards per punt average in 2015 is second-best in school history, and his 42.6 yards in 2014 is seventh.
 * In a 2014 game against Ball State, Davidson averaged a school-record 60.5 yards per punt, including a career-best 78-yarder.
 * At Wisconsin in 2014, Davidson punted 11 times for 496 yards. The 11 punts is tied for third-most in a game in school history and the 496 yards ranks third all alone.
 * In 2016, Davidson is getting even better. He has 26 punts for 1,243 yards and a 47.8 average. That average ranks sixth nationally and first in the MAC. His career mark is now 44.6, the highest in school history.
 * Against Memphis, Davidson had a season-best 68 yard punt, and five of his eight efforts were downed inside the Memphis 20 yard line. On the season, ten of his 26 punts have gone for 50 or more yards and eight have been downed inside the opponents' 20.
DAVIDSON ALSO AN ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN
 * Joseph Davidson is one of the top punters in the country, but he has also been recognized as one of the brightest minds in college football.

KNAPKE CAN

* Redshirt senior James Knapke has started the first three games of the 2016 season, replacing last year's MAC Offensive Player of the Year Matt Johnson.

* Although he was the back-up for all of the 2015 season, Knapke has plenty of experience after starting 13 games in 2014 when Johnson sustained a season-ending injury in the opener.

* Against North Dakota on Sept. 10, Knapke had his sixth career 300-yard passing game with 315. He also equaled his career-high with three touchdown passes. He now owns a 9-7 career record, including BGSU's last two one-point victories.

* Knapke led Bowling Green to eight wins and an appearance in the MAC Championship game in 2014. He also did something Johnson never did -- lead the Falcons to a bowl game victory.

* Knapke earned the Bart Starr Award as MVP of the 2014 Camellia Bowl after passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns in the 33-28 win over South Alabama. His 78-yard touchdown pass with 1:04 to play put the Falcons ahead for good.

* Knapke holds three single-game school records as he led BGSU to a 45-42 victory over Indiana at Doyt Perry Stadium. His 46 completions and 73 passing attempts are both program highs, as was his 81 total plays. It was BGSU's first ever win over a Big Ten team in The Doyt.

* Knapke threw for a career-high 443 yards in a 47-42 win at UMass in 2014, the sixth-highest single-game total in program history.

* Among single-season records, Knapke ranks in the top 10 in program history with 483 passing attempts (fourth), 280 completions (seventh) and 3,173 passing yards (eighth).

THE BEASTS OF THE EAST

* Bowling Green went 5-0 against MAC East Division opponents a year ago and has now gone undefeated against divisional foes for three consecutive seasons.

* Since the start of the 2012 season, Bowling Green has a combined record of 21-1 against the MAC East.

* More impressively, BGSU has won 17 straight games against MAC East opponents dating back to a 2012 win over Buffalo in the regular season finale.

* With that success has come championships as the Falcons have won three straight MAC East titles.

MOORE RONNIE

* Ronnie Moore continued the 2016 season against Middle Tennessee with a reception in his 33rd straight game -- every contest since the 2013 MAC Championship Game.

* Moore had 72 catches for 951 yards a year ago, but there is potential for those numbers to look rather pedestrian by the end of the 2016 season.

* Of the Falcons top six in receptions a year ago, only Moore returns. Those five combined for 280 receptions.

* Moore now ranks ninth in program history with 2,326 career receiving yards, surpassing Steve Sanders. He needs just 59 more to tie Cole Magner for eighth place all-time and 1,124 to catch Charles Sharon (2002-05) atop the all-time leaderboard with 3,450 receiving yards.

* Moore now has 174 career receptions and resides in a tie with Kamar Jordan for ninth place in BGSU history. With 16 more catches this year, he would move into fifth place all-time, and he needs just 65 for second place, behind only NCAA record-breaker Freddie Barnes.

* Moore also needs just six receiving touchdowns to move into a tie for fifth on BGSU's all-time list.

* As a freshman in 2013, Moore's 19.5 yards per reception was the fourth-highest single-season average in program history.

* Against North Dakota, Moore scored the fourth rushing touchdown of his career. He now has 22 total career scores and needs only four more to tie for ninth in BGSU history.

* Moore caught six passes for 37 yards at Memphis. He has now caught at least one pass in 34 consecutive games. It is the eighth-longest active streak in FBS through games of Sept. 24. Here is the updated active catch streak list:

- 40 -- Robert Davis, Georgia State
- 40 -- Corey Davis, Western Michigan

- 40 -- Zach Pascal, Old Dominion
- 39 -- Zay Jones, East Carolina
- 37 -- Taquan Mizzell, Virginia
- 37 -- Nate Phillips, Arizona
- 36 -- Jonnu Smith, FIU
- 34 -- Ronnie Moore, BGSU

FALCONS IN THE NFL

* Several Bowling Green football alumni started the 2016 NFL season on active rosters.

* Center Kory Lichtensteiger will continue to play for the Washington Redskins in his ninth NFL season.

* Linebacker Gabe Martin will enter his second season with the Arizona Cardinals, as will cornerback Jude Adjei-Barimah with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

* Undrafted free agent wide receiver Roger Lewis will play his rookie campaign for the New York Giants.

* On Sept. 1, Lewis caught his first NFL touchdown in the Giants' final preseason game against New England. Later that night, Martin intercepted Denver Broncos' rookie quarterback Paxton Lynch and returned it for a Cardinals' touchdown.

FUTURE SCHEDULES

* During the offseason, BGSU announced an agreement with Northwestern to play a game on Sept. 16, 2017. That announcement completed the program's 2017 non-conference slate.

* BGSU also announced a contest at Georgia Tech on Sept. 29, 2018. Most recently, Bowling Green announced that it will host Eastern Kentucky on Sept. 15, 2018 to complete the non-conference schedule for that season. The Falcons will open the season Sept. 1 at Oregon and will host Maryland the next week.

* BGSU recently announced that the team will play a game at Tennessee on Sept. 4, 2021. The Falcons just played Tennessee a year ago, a 59-30 defeat to open the season.

2016 BGSU FOOTBALL

On Dec. 9, 2015, BGSU announced that it had tabbed Texas Tech Associate Head Coach Mike Jinks to lead the defending Mid-American Conference Champion football program. Jinks, who also coached running backs for the Red Raiders, became the 19th head coach in program history.

Jinks, who came to BGSU after spending the 2015 season as Associate Head Coach, had coached the Red Raiders' running backs for the past three seasons. Prior to his time at Texas Tech, he was a National Coach of the Year finalist while winning the 2010 Texas State Championship and compiling a record of 43-4 in his final three seasons at San Antonio powerhouse, Steele High School.

Known for their prolific offense, Texas Tech saw great success with Jinks in 2015. The Red Raiders owned the second-best offense in the country, totaling 7,134 yards in 12 games (594.5 yards per game). TTU also had the second-best passing offense. The Red Raiders averaged 46.6 points per game (second in FBS) and had 33 touchdown drives under two minutes. Texas Tech also ranked inside the top five nationally for third-down conversions (.519), first downs offense (346), and plays run (1,002).

Under Jinks, Texas Tech saw incredible success in the running game. In just his second season, Jinks tutored DeAndre Washington, who became the first Red Raiders' running back since Ricky Williams in 1998 to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in a single season. Washington finished the season with 1,103 rushing yards and was named second team All-Big 12.

In 2015, Washington turned into the Big 12 Conference's most prolific rusher under Jinks, totaling a league-best 1,455 yards on the ground and 14 touchdowns. Washington was second in the Big 12 in all-purpose yards (146.6 yards per game) behind only teammate Jakeem Grant (180.6 yards per game). The Texas Tech rushing attack averaged 204.8 yards per game and tallied 34 rushing touchdowns.

Jinks joined the Texas Tech program after a highly successful tenure at Steele High School in Cibolo, Texas – a suburb of San Antonio. Jinks was the first head coach at Steele when the school opened its doors in 2005, and it didn't take long for him to mold the program into a state powerhouse. While at Steele, Jinks compiled a 76-18 record overall, including an impressive 43-4 mark in his final three seasons. He led the Knights to the 2010 Class 5A Division II State Championship and to the state finals again in 2011.

His highly successful career at Steele led him to receiving the honor of coaching the West Team in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in January 2013. He was also a finalist for the Xenith National High School Coach of the Year Award. While at Steele, Jinks coached former Texas Longhorn, and All-American running back, Malcolm Brown.

Prior to becoming the head coach in Cibolo, Jinks was the head coach at Burbank High School for a season. Prior to that, he had a highly successful career as a high school assistant coach and offensive coordinator at five different schools. Jinks' coaching career began in 1995 as the quarterbacks coach at Eillison High School. In 1998, Jinks then became the quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, Judson High School. Following that, he served as offensive coordinator at David Crockett High School, Galena Park High School and Robert E. Lee High School, all prior to his first head coaching position

Jinks is a graduate of Angelo State University where he earned his degree in kinesiology. He and his wife Meredith have three children – Jaden, Madison and Tristan.

2016 BGSU FOOTBALL

WEEK ONE

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Bowling Green State University football team took an early 7-0 lead but Ohio State rallied to defeat the Falcons 77-10 in front of 107,193 fans at Ohio Stadium to open the 2016 season.

BGSU received the opening kickoff and went three-and-out. After a Joe Davidson punt, Ohio State began their initial series on their own 42 yard line. Four plays later, the Falcons were on the board.

Facing 2nd-and-5 at the BGSU 41, J.T. Barrett rolled left and threw into the flat, where Brandon Harris was occupying space. Harris grabbed the ball out of the air at the 37 and weaved his way 63 yards for a touchdown. It was the first pick-six for Bowling Green since Dernard Turner on Nov. 4, 2014. OSU had not allowed a pick-six since October 2014.

Jake Suder came on for a successful extra point, the first point of his career, and the Falcons led 7-0 just 2:41 into the game.

By the time the first quarter ended, Ohio State led 21-7 and then added 14 points in the second quarter to take a 35-10 lead into halftime.

Starting quarterback James Knapke completed 12 balls for 110 yards before giving way to redshirt freshman James Morgan in the fourth quarter. Morgan completed nine of ten passes for 65 yards. Seven of those nine completions were to true freshman Marquis Zimmerman. Zimmerman led the Falcons with those seven catches in his first career game. Ronnie Moore led the team with 45 receiving yards.

In the backfield, Josh Cleveland's first six BGSU carries went for 31 yards, as he led the team with a 5.2 yards per carry average. Coppet's 28-yard jaunt led to a team-high 38 yards on 12 carries.

WEEK TWO

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio – The Bowling Green State University football team opened the 50th anniversary season of Doyt Perry Stadium with an exciting 27-26 win over the University of North Dakota on Saturday, Sept. 10. The Falcons benefitted from three touchdown receptions from Scott Miller but had to tip away a two-point conversion attempt in the final seconds to preserve the victory.

Miller finished the contest with five catches for 161 yards and three touchdowns. The scores were the first three of his career, and the yardage total nearly tripled his previous career total. His 71-yard reception is the longest play of the season to date for BGSU.

Moore scored BGSU's other touchdown on the fourth rushing score of his career. He also hauled in three passes for 39 yards. He has receptions in 32 consecutive games, and the 39 yards gives him 2,272. That total moves him into tenth place on BGSU's career reception yards list.

Janarvis Pough had four catches for 51 yards, while Deric Phouthavong added five for 41. All of those totals are career highs. Knapke fed his receivers to the tune of 23-of-40 for 315 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions. The three scoring passes ties Knapke's career high.

Antonyo Sotolongo and Austin Valdez led BGSU's defense with ten tackles; the total for Sotolongo was a career high and gives him 19 for the season, while Valdez has 20. Trent Greene added nine for a team-leading season total of 25. Gus Schwieterman had two sacks, and Brandon Harris added another. Those were the first career sacks for both players.

Overall, BGSU outgained North Dakota 417-383 and 327-219 through the air. They also allowed just 3.8 yards per carry despite 43 attempts by UND. The Falcon defense limited the Fighting Hawks to just 4-for-17 on third down attempts.

2016 BGSU FOOTBALL

WEEK THREE

BGSU led through much of the first half but ultimately fell to the Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders 41-21 Saturday at Doyt Perry Stadium. MTSU scored three touchdowns in the span of 2:01 surrounding halftime, and inclement weather limited offensive production in the second half, as the Falcons failed to score in the final 30 minutes.

Josh Cleveland rushed for 153 yards on 18 rushes and Fred Coppet added 117 yards on 27 carries. The Falcons ran for 304 yards on the ground in a driving rainpour.

Alfonso Mack made his first interception of the season and seventh of his career as the Falcons went ahead 21-14 just 1:46 into the second quarter. The rest of the game, however, belonged to the Blue Raiders.

BGSU ran 93 plays for 433 yards. Of those, 61 plays for 304 yards came on the ground. That is the most rushing yards for Bowling Green since Nov. 24, 2015 at Ball State. It is the first time BGSU has rushed the ball at least 60 times since 2014 against Kent State.

Cleveland's 18 carries and 153 yards were both career highs, and he posted his first career touchdown. Donovan Wilson also set career bests for carries (10) and yards (36). His two scores were his first since last October against Akron, and they tie for his most in a single game. Coppet's 27 carries were 13 more than his previous high, and his 117 yards were the second most in his career. It is his fifth career 100-yard game.

Defensively, Trent Greene had 11 more tackles and now owns 36 for the season. He was fifth nationally with 12.5 per game entering the contest. Alfonso Mack's interception is his first of the season and seventh of his career. Gus Schwieterman added a sack; he now has three in the last two games.

Four players (Hunter Folkertsma, Cameron Jefferies, Nilijah Ballew and Tavaurus Wade) all made their first starts for the Falcons today.

WEEK FOUR

BGSU concluded its non-conference schedule with a loss to the University of Memphis on Saturday evening at the Liberty Bowl. The Falcons are now 1-3 on the campaign following the 77-3 defeat.

Memphis got off to a quick start, as the Tigers covered 66 yards on seven plays for an opening-drive touchdown. The Falcons countered, however, with a field goal to pull within four points at 7-3.

James Knapke, who finished the game 8-of-15 for 82 yards, connected with Marquis Zimmerman for a 40-yard completion. The reception for Zimmerman was a career long. The play helped set up a 30-yard Jake Suder field goal.

The Falcons then forced a stop on the Tigers' ensuing drive, but on Bowling Green's next possession, a Knapke pass tipped off a receiver's hands on the first play of the drive, and went the other way for a 28-yard interception return to the end zone.

The Orange and Brown charged down to the Memphis 46 following the interception, but the Tigers forced a stop and quickly went up by a score of 21-3 with a touchdown drive.

Another tipped ball turned interception set up a fourth Tiger touchdown, and Memphis went on to seize control of the game from there, and moved to 3-0 on the season with the victory.

Morgan completed 17-of-34 passes for 126 yards. Zimmerman had a career day for the Orange and Brown, as he hauled in four passes for 75 yards.
