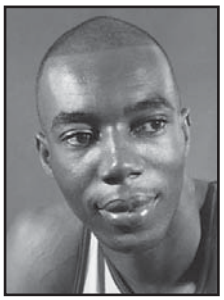
The Bowling Green State University basketball family had a double celebration in July, 1985 as two of their own - former player Nate Thurmond and long-time coach Harold Anderson - earned spots in the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

Anderson (left) is the winningest coach in BGSU history after pacing the Falcon sideline for 21 years (1942-63) and compiling a 362-185 mark. He guided six teams to the NIT and three squads to the NCAA Tournament. His 1944-45 team finished second in the NIT while his 1948-49 team was third in the same tournament. Under the guidance of Anderson, Bowling Green teams in the 40s were generally regarded as some of the top teams in the country. He coached 11 players who went on play in the NBA. Anderson passed away in 1967.



Thurmond (left/below) was an All-America center on two MAC championship teams at BGSU earning unanimous first-team All-MAC honors all three seasons. He is the only player in league history to lead the conference in rebounding three consecutive seasons. He is the only consensus NCAA All-American in school history.

He went on enjoy a 12-year NBA career in which he was voted to the All-Star team seven times. He averaged 15 points and 15 rebounds for his career during which he played almost 1,000 games. Thurmond was named one of the top 50 players in NBA history when the league celebrated its half-century anniversary in 1998.

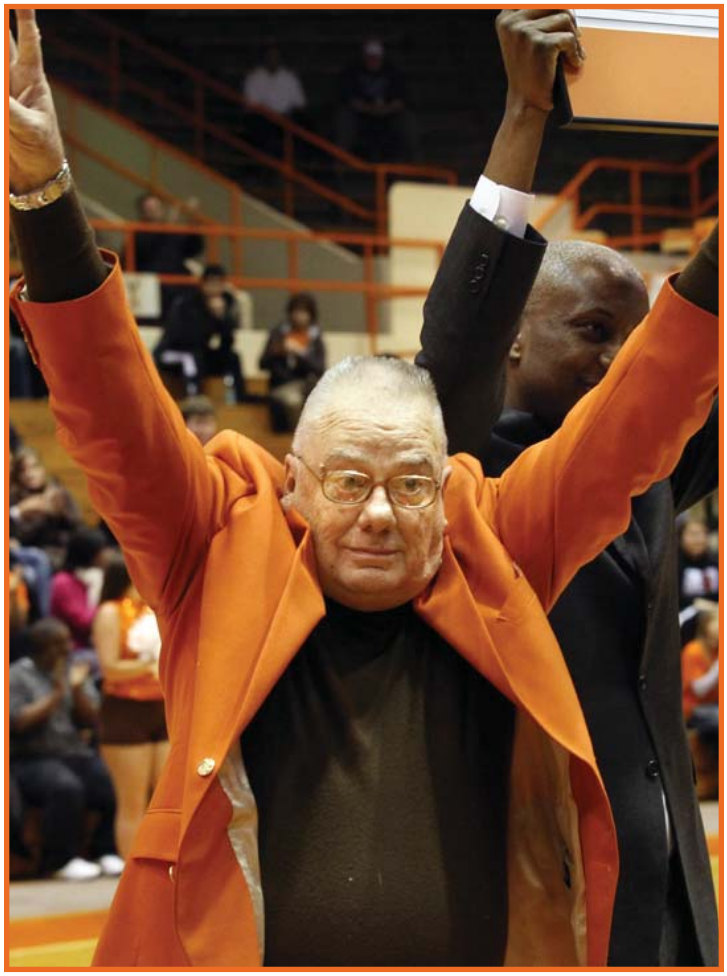
THANK YOU BILL!

• The generosity of Findlay native William Frack will always be remembered, as the value of his gift to the Findlay-Hancock County Community Foundation, benefiting the Bowling Green State University men's basketball program and community needs in Hancock County, nearly doubled to about $20 million since it was initially announced in 2011.
• Frack, representatives of the Community Foundation, and BGSU announced the increased endowment at a news conference in Findlay on April 9, 2014.
• According to Community Foundation President Katherine Kreuchauf, three-quarters of the annual distributions from the series of existing trusts will go to the BGSU's men's basketball program. The remaining proceeds will support the community needs in Hancock County.
• Frack, who followed BGSU basketball for more than six decades, had his father bring him to watch the Falcons play in 1948 in the old Men's Gym for the very first time, and he remained a devoted fan until his passing in the summer of 2014.
• "BGSU is truly blessed to have a friend like Bill Frack," said BGSU President Mary Ellen Mazey in April 2014. "Bill's generosity will allow us to give our coaches and student-athletes the resources they need to excel and compete at the highest levels."
• The court in the Stroh Center is named after Bill Frack.
• In 2014, the BGSU men's basketball program decided to honor Bill Frack by dedicating one game per season to William D. Frack. The game became known as the Bill Frack Challenge.
• In 2016-17, Bowling Green hosted the Bill Frack Tournament, which was a multiple-team event, featuring games against UMKC, Green Bay and Murray State.
• In 2017-18, the game returned to the single-game format. The Falcons beat Florida Gulf Coast, 83-80, on a Dylan Frye three-pointer with 0.9 seconds left.
• In the first two seasons of the Bill Frack Challenge, BG hosted Cleveland State (Dec. 13, 2014) and Cincinnati (Nov. 18, 2015).



Bill Frack's courtside seat will forever be reserved for him at all of the men's basketball home games in the Stroh Center.

A Frack #6 Falcon embroidered chair will ensure that Bill and his support and contributions will never be forgotten at BGSU!
