First touch is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. at Cochrane Stadium, and admission is free.

FUN FALCON FACTS

• The Falcons return 15 letterwinners, including eight starters, from last season's club. The 2021 team went 11-7-3 overall and 8-2-1 in the MAC, and BGSU won both the conference regular-season and tournament titles.

• In 2021, BGSU achieved a feat that will be very difficult to repeat. The Falcons advanced to the NCAA Championships twice in the same calendar year. BGSU went 6-1-1 overall and 5-1-0 in the MAC in the spring, outscoring opponents, 17-3.

• Then, in the fall, the Orange and Brown allowed just six goals in 13 total matches against MAC opposition, with nine shutouts in those 13 contests. BGSU outscored MAC foes, 17-2, over the final month of play (Oct. 7 to Nov. 7, spanning seven regular-season and the two MAC Tournament matches).

• BGSU loses eight letterwinners from last year's club, including the 2021 MAC Offensive Player of the Year in Madi Wolfbauer and three-time All-MAC First-Team selection Nikki Cox. That duo combined for 16 goals last fall, while Cox had a team-leading eight assists.

• The returning Falcons combined to score 17 of the team's 35 goals and register 16 of the club's 33 assists last fall. In goal, Lili Berg returns after playing nearly 97 percent (1,900 of 1,962) of the total minutes last season.

• Berg has been named to the All-MAC Second Team in each of her first two seasons with the Falcons. Audrey Shea returns to anchor the defense after earning All-MAC First-Team accolades in 2021.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

• Lacee Bethea is the top returning scorer for the Falcons, after recording seven goals and 15 points last season. She was named the MAC Tournament MVP, while Shea joined her on the MAC All-Tournament Team.

• Shea had 10 points, including four goals, last season. Kennedy White totalled six points in 2021, with Katie Cox and Jasmijn Dijsselhof scoring five points apiece.

• The team's 11 newcomers include a trio of NCAA Division-I transfers in Lexi Czerwien (Xavier Univ.), Ellie Pool (Univ. of Toledo) and Madison Vukas (Univ. of Pittsburgh). XU went a perfect 7-0-0 in matches in which Czerwien saw action last season, while Pool led the Rockets with seven goals and 17 points and was named to the All-MAC Second Team.

• The Falcons have an overall record of 17-8-4 since Walker took the helm, and BGSU is 16-3-1 against MAC teams in that time. Since the beginning of the 2018 campaign, BGSU is 45-19-10 overall, 33-5-1 in MAC regular-season action and 40-5-3 in all games vs. league opposition.

SPECTACULARLY SUCCESSFUL AGAINST THE MAC

• Obviously, the Falcons have enjoyed great success in recent years, particularly against MAC competition. BGSU advanced to the MAC Tournament's championship match in 2017 before falling in overtime, and the Falcons then proceeded to win both the regular-season and tourney titles in both 2018 and '19.

• In 2020 (actually 2020-21), the Falcons went 5-1-0 in MAC regular-season action, then defeated Ball State in the MAC Championship to advance to the NCAA Championships for the third-straight season. And, BGSU captured the MAC's regular-season title last fall, before beating Buffalo and Kent State by a combined 4-0 count in the league tournament.

• Entering the 2022 season, the Falcons are 14-2-1 in the last 17 contests vs. MAC opponents, having outscored the foes by a 35-7 count in that span.

• The Falcons have a 58-26-11 overall record since the beginning of the 2017 season. BGSU is 39-9-2 in MAC regular-season matches and 48-10-4 in all games vs. conference foes in that time.

• Since the start of the 2018 campaign, the Falcons are 45-19-10 overall, 33-5-1 in MAC regular-season action and 40-5-3 in all games vs. league opposition.

SUCCESSFUL AT HOME

• The Falcons went a perfect 4-0-0 at Cochrane Stadium in the spring of 2021, with all four wins coming against MAC opponents. BGSU outscored the opposition, 10-1, in those four matches.

• And, BGSU was 6-3-2 at home last fall, including a 5-2-1 mark against MAC foes.

• BGSU enters 2022 with a record of 35-7-5 at home since the start of the 2017 season. The Falcons are 28-4-3 against MAC teams at Cochrane Stadium in that time.

• In those 35 contests vs. conference competition, BGSU has outscored the opposition, 71-23.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

SUCCESSFUL ON THE ROAD

- The Falcons have a record of 20-5-1 on the road against MAC opponents since the start of the 2017 season. BGSU is 17-2-0 in conference road contests since the beginning of the 2018 campaign, having outscored the opponents, 50-10, in those 19 games.
- The Falcons have scored at least two goals in 15 of those 19 matches, and BG has put at least three goals on the board in 11 of the 19 road contests.
- BGSU went a perfect 5-0-0 on the road in MAC matches last fall, outscoring the foes by an 11-2 count.

98 PERCENT OF THE TIME, SCORING TWO GOALS WORKS EVERY TIME
(alternate title: THE MORE GOALS, THE MORE BETTER)

- It would stand to reason that scoring goals increases a team's chances of winning. For the Falcons, that is most certainly the case.
- Since the start of the 2017 season, BGSU has a record of 50-1-1 when scoring at least two goals in a match. In that time, the Falcons are 8-25-10 when being held to fewer than two goals.
- The Falcons have won 30-straight matches when scoring two or more goals at Cochrane Stadium, since a 4-3 loss to Western Michigan on Oct. 20, 2016.

THE OPPONENT

- Michigan State is coming off a highly-successful 2021 campaign. The Spartans, picked to finish 13th in the Big Ten Conference last season, earned a number-four seed for the conference tournament. MSU went 10-4-3 overall and 5-4-1 in the league in head coach Jeff Hosler's first season, outscoring opponents by a 26-12 count in those 17 matches. Zivana Labovic is the team's top returning scorer, with four goals and 10 points last fall, while Lauren Kozal played every second between the posts and was named the Big Ten's Goalkeeper of the Year. Kozal had 75 saves and a goals-against average of just 0.68.

THE SERIES

- BGSU trails Michigan State, 17-1-3, in the all-time series. The Falcons battled the Spartans to a 1-1 draw last season (Sept. 2, 2021), as Maya Dean scored the tying goal with just 1:26 remaining in regulation. Lili Berg made seven saves on the night. BGSU's lone series win was a 3-2 OT decision in August of 1999 at Cochrane.

UP NEXT

- The Falcons will remain at home to face Cincinnati next Thursday (Aug. 25), in a 5:00 p.m. start at Cochrane.
- Then, the Orange and Brown will hit the road for the first time, facing nationally-ranked Tennessee on Wednesday night, Aug. 31.
