WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

Championships. BG picked up a 1-0 victory at Louisville in the opening round, marking the fifth NCAA Tournament victory in program history, and the first since 1997.

- BGSU achieved a feat that will be very difficult to repeat, as the Falcons advanced to the NCAA Championships twice in the 2021 calendar year. BG won the MAC regular-season title in the spring of 2021.

- The Falcons returned 17 letterwinners, including nine starters, from the fall 2021 team. The two departing starters, Jacob Erlandson and Zach Buescher, each were named to the All-MAC First Team, and Erlandson was chosen by the Columbus Crew in the MLS SuperDraft.

- The returning players combined to record 62 percent (21 of 34) of the team's goals and 78% (32 of 41) of the assists last fall. Additionally, the two goalkeepers who combined to play every second of last season's 20 matches both are back.

- Last year's balanced scoring attack featured six players who recorded between 11 and 16 points. Four of those Falcons returned, including Alberto Anaya, the team's top returning scorer. Anaya, the 2021 MAC Freshman of the Year, had five goals and 14 points in his first season with the Falcons.

- Kyle Cusimano and Sergi Martinez had 12 points apiece last year, while Nathan Masters had 11. Cusimano led the 2021 Falcons with eight assists, while Martinez, who had three goals and six assists on the season, was chosen as the United Soccer Coaches Division I Player of the Week last Sept. 22.

- Kale Nichols had eight points, including the lone goal in BGSU's national tournament win at Louisville. Defender Joey Akpunonu, who had six points, joined Anaya on the All-MAC Second Team.

- Logan Kowalczyk started each of the first 14 matches between the posts last season. He had seven shutouts and a goals-against average of just 0.89. Kowalczyk has kept 12 clean sheets in 26 career starts at BGSU.

- Brendan Graves played the final six contests of the 2021 season, and had two shutouts, a GAA of 1.61 and 15 saves in 560 minutes of work.

- BGSU scored as many as two goals in a match only three times in 13 games in the spring of '21. But, the Falcons recorded two or more goals 10 times in 20 matches last fall. The Falcons scored three or more goals six times in the fall after doing so only once in those 13 spring matches.

NOTES AND NUMBERS

- BGSU is 75-9-6 when scoring two or more goals in a match in the Eric Nichols Era.

- The Falcons are 54-28-19 in home matches since Nichols took the helm prior to the 2009 season. After going 4-8-2 at home in his first two years, the Falcons are 50-20-17 at Cochrane since the start of the 2011 campaign.

- BG is 32-10-11 at home since the start of the 2015 season and 26-8-11 (.685) since the beginning of 2016. BGSU went 8-1-3 at Cochrane in the 2021 calendar year.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR...

- BG went 5-1-2 at home and 6-5-1 on the road in the fall of 2021, and the Falcons outscored opponents by a 34-23 count last season.
- The 2021 Falcons posted six true road wins for the third time in the Nichols Era and the second time in three seasons. No BG team has won more than six road contests since the 1997 club went 8-3-0 in true road matches.
- Entering the MSU match, the Falcons have an overall record of 36-22-9 over the last 67 games, dating to midway through the 2018 season. Fourteen of the 22 setbacks in that time have come by a single goal.
- The Falcons have been picked to win the MAC regular-season title in 2022. BGSU received 19 points in the league preseason coaches poll, with both Akron and Northern Illinois garnering 18 points.
- With his goal vs. Louisville last November, Kale Nichols joined an exclusive list of players to record an NCAA Tournament game-winning goal for the Falcons. That short list includes Joe Burch (1995 vs. Davidson), Dan Kindl (1996 vs. Detroit), Brett Strang (1997 vs. Colgate) and Brandon Pelton ('97 at Marquette).
- Nathan Masters has been involved in the scoring of each of BGSU's last two NCAA Tournament goals. He scored the Falcons' goal in the 2020(-21) tournament match vs. Monmouth, and had the primary assist on the Nichols goal at UofL.
- Brendan Graves and BGSU Hall-of-Famer Scott Vallow are the only Falcon goalkeepers to record a shutout in the NCAA Championships. Vallow kept three clean sheets in the national tournament in his storied career, and Graves earned the win at Louisville.

CAPTAINS

- Jensen Lukacsko, Sergi Martinez and Kale Nichols are the captains of the 2022 Falcons. Lukacsko is a second-year captain.

THE OPPONENT

- Michigan State brings a 1-3-0 record into Friday's match. The Spartans opened the season with a 2-1 win over Army West Point, but have since dropped home matches to Notre Dame (3-2) and Western Michigan (1-0). Most recently, MSU opened the road portion of the schedule with a 2-0 loss at Akron on Monday. Four different Spartans have scored one goal apiece, while Owen Finnerty has played all 360 minutes in goal. Finnerty has 15 saves and a 1.75 GAA. Last season, the Spartans went 6-9-2 overall and 2-4-2 in the Big Ten Conference under head coach Damon Rensing.

THE SERIES

- BGSU trails Michigan State, 24-17-6, in the all-time series, but the Falcons captured last year's meeting to snap a long winless streak vs. the Spartans. The Orange and Brown went to East Lansing and picked up a 3-0 victory last year, BG's first win over the Spartans since 2001. The Falcons had been 0-16-1 vs. MSU since that 2001 meeting. BGSU's last home win over the Green and White came in 1998, and State has won the last nine meetings at Cochrane Stadium. The Falcons are 10-12-2 at home and 7-12-3 on the road vs. Michigan State over the years.
