Bowling Green's 2025 football fact book was prepared by the staff of the BGSU strategic communications office to assist the news media in its coverage of the Falcons this fall. Requests for additional information, feature material and photographs should be made to the strategic communications office.

The BGSU strategic communications office is in Stadium East of Doyt Perry Stadium. Visitor parking is located in the parking lot north of the Sebo Center.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through the BGSU strategic communications office. It is requested that you allow the strategic communication office at least 24 hours, preferably longer, to arrange interview. No interviews will be arranged with players after Wednesday (or equivalent for non-Saturday games) the week of a game. Select players will conduct interviews during the same time period of coach Eddie George's regular Monday press availability. For other student-athletes not at the Monday press conference, arrangements will be made for telephone and in-person interviews at a time that is mutually agreeable to the reporter/broadcaster and the student-athlete, should there be a scheduling conflict.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

All practices are closed to media and fans.

PLAYER AND COACH BIOS

Bios for all student-athletes and coaches can be found at BGSUFalcons.com/Football. For player and coach name pronunciations, click on the ear located next to the name on the roster for an audio pronunciation of the name.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Bowling Green's locker room is closed to the media both at home and on the road. At Home: Coach George and BGSU players will be available for post-game interviews in the Sentinel-Tribune Room located between the two locker rooms, following the normal cooling-off period. BGSU observes a closed locker room policy. The Sentinel-Tribune Room is on the east side of the stadium (opposite the press box), and can be entered through the double doors on the East concourse, under the sky bridge to the elevator. On the Road: Coach George and requested players will be made available in a designated media room or just outside the locker room following the normal cooling-off period.

Requested payers will be brought to the media room following Coach George. BGSU strategic communications will solicit player requests late in the fourth quarter.

WORKING MEDIA

Bowling Green's press facilities are located in the Don Cunningham Press Box on the west side of Doyt L. Perry Stadium. Admittance to the press box is by official credential only and is strictly limited to members of the working media and event support personnel. A pregame meal is served 120 minutes before kickoff. The press box will close two-and-a-half hours following the conclusion of the contest.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials should be made to the BGSU Strategic Communications Office. Requests should be made at least one week in advance. Late requests will be honored if space is available, but parking cannot be guaranteed for requests less than one week in advance. Scouts and non-working media will be seated if space is available, dependent on league and national rules. Press passes left for pickup will be available two hours before kickoff at the Press Gate.

PRESS GATE

The press gate (Gate 4) at Doyt L. Perry Stadium is at the northwest corner of the stadium, a short walk from the media parking lot.

PARKING

A special media parking lot is located adjacent to Perry Stadium, near Cochrane (soccer) Field (Lot EE). Access to the media lot is by Stadium Drive. Admission to the media lot is restricted to people holding the correct credential acquired from the athletic communications office. All media members are asked to enter the stadium through the press gate (Gate 4) at the northwest corner of the stadium.

WEEKLY INFORMATION

Media members can access BGSU information via the internet at BGSUFalcons.com. Weekly game notes and statistics will be updated regularly. A PDF version of releases and statistics can be e-mailed to those outlets that would prefer to receive this information on a regular basis. Please notify the BGSU Strategic Communications s Office if you would like to be put on our primary media e-mail list.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

Football coach Eddie George will hold a weekly media press conference in the Wilcox Room on the third floor of the Sebo Athletic Center. All members of the media are welcome to attend. Out-of-town media should contact Vincent Briedis to schedule a phone interview with Coach George or players at least one day in advance. Audio and video of each weekly press conference will be available at BGSUFalcons.com shortly after the completion of the press conference.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Members of the media will be provided with game programs, flip cards, current statistics and last-minute pregame notes either in hard copy format or as .pdf documents prior to the start of the game. Statistical summaries will include play-by-play, quarter stats, halftime stats, complete team and individual stats and tackles. The BGSU press box does have wireless internet connection for all members of the media.

MEDIA FIELD POLICY

A general media pass will allow you access to the field during pre-game warmups and during the final five minutes of the fourth quarter only. Field access will be limited to working photographers and television reporters. No tripods allowed on the field to shoot. Monopods are allowed. No interviews may be conducted on the field and any attempt to do so may lead to the loss of your media pass.

EDDIE GEORGE (HEAD COACH)

First Season • @EddieGeorge2727

- 1995 Heisman Trophy Winner
- 2024 Big South-OVC Coach of the Year
- 2024 Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year (Runner-Up)
- College Football Hall of Fame (2011)
- NFL Pro Football Hall of Fame Semifinalist (2022, 2024)

From the turf of Ohio Stadium to the Super Bowl stage, the bright lights of Broadway, and now the sidelines of Bowling Green, Eddie George's journey is one of unrelenting excellence, fearless transformation and enduring impact. Named the 21st head coach in Bowling Green State University football history on March 9, 2025, George brings a legacy forged through athletic greatness, intellectual discipline and artistic exploration.

George brings a clear and passionate vision to his leadership at Bowling Green, instilling a culture he calls GUTS—an acronym that defines the foundation of how he expects his team to play. Under his guidance, the Falcons are expected to compete with Gumption, showing fearlessness and initiative in every situation. They must play with Understanding, recognizing the importance of preparation, discipline, and football IQ. His teams will show relentless Tenacity, never backing down regardless of the challenge. And above all, George demands a willingness to Sacrifice—to put the team above self and embrace the hard work required for collective success. This GUTS-driven mindset is central to the identity and performance of George's Bowling Green program.

A titan of the gridiron, George first rose to national prominence at The Ohio State University, where he captured the 1995 Heisman Trophy behind a breathtaking season—1,927 rushing yards, 24 touchdowns, and over 2,300 all-purpose yards. That same year, he earned the Doak Walker, Maxwell, and Walter Camp Awards, and was a unanimous All-American, forever etching his name in Buckeye lore. Inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2011, George's name remains synonymous with brilliance and consistency.

Drafted in the first round of the 1996 NFL Draft, George became the embodiment of durability and production for the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans, never missing a start in eight seasons. A four-time Pro Bowler, NFL Rookie of the Year, and the engine behind the Titans' run to Super Bowl XXXIV, George amassed 10,441 rushing yards and 78 total touchdowns. Alongside Jim Brown, he stands as one of only two backs in NFL history to eclipse 10,000 rushing yards without missing a single start.

Yet, Eddie George's story is not merely one of athletic conquest—it is a masterclass in reinvention. Armed with a Bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Ohio State and an MBA from Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management, George built a thriving post-football life. He is the founder of EDGE Group, a cutting-edge landscape architecture and design firm, and the managing partner of The Edward George Wealth Management Group, where he helps clients build lasting legacies. Through the Tamara and Edward George Legacy Fund, he champions youth empowerment, education, and community development.

In the realm of entertainment, George carved a unique niche on stage and screen. He brought charisma and command to the Broadway stage as Billy Flynn in Chicago, tackled dramatic material in Topdog/Underdog, and appeared in hit series like NCIS: Los Angeles, BET's The Game, and NBC's American Dream Builders. His natural presence extended to the classroom, where he has served as an adjunct professor at both Ohio State and Vanderbilt, teaching The Business of Professional Sports.

George's coaching journey began at Tennessee State University, where he inherited a struggling program and transformed it into a contender. After just two seasons, he led TSU to back-to-back winning campaigns in 2023 and 2024, including a share of the Big South–OVC Championship, a No. 19 national ranking, and the school's first postseason appearance since 2013. His efforts earned him Big South–OVC Coach of the Year honors and a runner-up finish for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award. He developed talent across the board, from 3,000-yard passers to All-Americans, proving his impact goes far beyond the huddle.

Now at the helm of Bowling Green, George arrives with a 24–22 career coaching record, but more importantly, with a vision rooted in discipline, development, and belief. He is only the fifth Heisman winner to become an FBS head coach, joining legends like Steve Spurrier and Pat Sullivan.

A proud member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., George is also deeply grounded in family. He is married to Tamara "Taj" George, a Grammy-nominated member of the R&B group

"Bowling Green is a special place. We loved our time there, and to this day, I always check the game scores to see how the Falcons perform each weekend. The passion and tradition of BGSU football are unmatched, and I can't think of a better ambassador for the Orange and Brown than Eddie George as the next head football coach. His track record of success—both on and off the field—along with his strong work ethic, leadership, and ability to inspire others make him an ideal fit. His experience as a player, coach, and mentor will bring invaluable knowledge and energy to the program, helping to continue to elevate BGSU football." - Urban Meyer

1 National Championship • 12 MAC Championships • 16 Bowl Appearances

SWV. Together, they are raising a legacy in their two sons—Eriq, who starred for his father's TSU defense, and Jaire, a former Vanderbilt running back.

Adding a unique dimension to his role at BGSU, George's son, Eriq, joined the Falcons' football team for the 2025, continuing his position as a defensive end. Eriq had previously led Tennessee State with 11.5 tackles for loss in 2024, earning second-team All-Big South–OVC honors. This father-son duo on the same collegiate team is a rarity. Moreover, BGSU's Director of Athletics, Derek van der Merwe, also has a son, Ian, on the team. Ian, also a defensive lineman, joined BGSU in 2022. This unique scenario marks the first time in FBS history that both a head football coach and an athletic director have their sons playing simultaneously on the same football team.

Eddie George is more than a coach. He is a renaissance man—a Heisman hero, an NFL ironman, a scholar, a businessman, an artist, and a mentor. With every chapter, he rewrites what it means to lead with integrity, live with intention, and inspire across arenas.

The 2025 college football season marks the 30th anniversary of when Eddie George won his Heisman Trophy.

GAME 13 • Arkansas State 38, Bowling Green 31
Dec. 26 • Mobile, Ala. (68 Ventures Bowl)

Game Notes

• Harold Fannin Jr. was named MVP of the game. He is the sixth Falcon all-time to be named MVP of a bowl game and the first since James Knapke (QB) in the 2014 Camellia Bowl.

• BGSU passed for 433 yards, which is a program bowl record, surpassing the 389 in the 2009 Humanitarian Bowl.

• With 213 receiving yards, TE Harold Fannin Jr. broke the FBS record for receiving yards in a season. The previous record was held by Texas Tech's Jace Amaro, who had 1,352 receiving yards in 2013. Fannin finishes the season with 1,555, which currently leads the nation.

• With 17 receptions, Fannin broke the FBS record for receptions in a season by a tight end. He passed Rice's James Casey who had 111 in 2008. His 117 receptions also lead the nation in 2024.

• Fannin's 17 receptions tied the FBS record for most receptions by a tight end in a game. He shares the top spot with New Mexico State's Emilio Vallez (1967), Northwestern's Jon Harvey (1982), and Penn State's Tyler Warren (2024).

• Fannin's 17 receptions and 213 receiving yards are both tight end FBS records for a bowl. The 213 receiving yards broke O.J. Howard's (Alabama, 208) mark set in the 2016 CFP title game against Clemson in Glendale, Ariz.

• With 390 passing yards, QB Connor Bazelak became the 49th player in FBS history with 12,000 career passing yards. The 390 passing yards were a season high.

• Bazelak's 390 passing yards are a bowl record for the Falcons, passing Tyler Sheehan's 2009 Humanitarian Bowl performance. The three touchdown passes are tied for No. 2 all-time in BGSU's bowl records, sharing the top spot with Matt Johnson who also had three passing touchdowns in Mobile in 2015 when the bowl was the GoDaddy Bowl.

Scott Mruczkowski and Mike Thaler celebrate the Falcons' 28-24 Motor City Bowl win over Northwestern in 2003. It marked the first-time in MAC history that a league school ever faced a Big Ten opponent in the post-season.

Since Frederick G. Beyerman, an instructor in the physical education department and the first athletic director, announced in July 1919 that Bowling Green State Normal College would field an intercollegiate football team, a rich tradition has developed.

From that very first team, to the first squad to go unbeaten in 1928, to the first perfect record of the 1959 national college division champions, to back-to-back seasons of nationally-ranked football across the new millennium.

From former head coach Warren Steller, to Max Minnich – the first BGSU player to be drafted by a professional team. From Fred Durig – the first All-America selection – to legendary head coach Doyt Perry. From Paul Miles, the only football player ever to have his jersey retired, to Dave Preston, the career rushing leader. From record-setting quarterback Brian McClure, to an unknown head coach by the name of Urban Meyer, to Biletnikoff finalist Freddie Barnes, the NCAA record holder for catches in a season (155), the Bowling Green State University football program has a tradition as rich as any in the Mid-American Conference.

Since 19 of the 30 males enrolled at Normal College banded together to form that first team, many different figures have combined to mold the lore of football at BGSU.

The program got off to a rocky start losing its first seven games played. Franklin Skibbie scored the first touchdown with BG's only points in the 10-6 loss to Findlay in the 1920 season opener. That team would post a 7-0 win over Kent State Normal College (Kent State) in the season finale to record the first win.

The 1921 squad was the first to win a conference title, capturing the Northwest Conference championship with wins over Defiance, Findlay, and Toledo. BG posted a shutout of Findlay, scoring a school-record 151 points in one of the most talked-about games in school history. In the season opener against Kent State, played behind what is now Ridge Street School, the Falcons played possibly the quietest game in school history. All fans were prohibited from making noise because of an illness in the neighborhood.

The following season, BG held its first homecoming game on Nov. 4, 1922, which was played at the Fairgrounds. Bowling Green and Toledo battled to a 6-6 tie.

After having a different coach in each of its first five seasons, Warren Steller was selected to coach the 1924 squad, the beginning of a very successful 11-year tenure, the second-longest in school history. Steller was the first BGSU head coach to have an assistant when Paul Landis was hired in 1925.

Led by Chet Chapman, the first BG player to earn first team All-Ohio honors, the 1928 team posted the first unbeaten record while allowing just 18 points in seven games.

In 1936, the federal government offered to help Bowling Green financially in the construction of a new football stadium and the Board of Trustees accepted the offer. University Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 23, 1937 and served as the home of Falcon football until 1966 when Doyt L. Perry Stadium was built. University Stadium was located in what is now the center of campus directly west of Jerome Library.

In 1941, Robert Whittaker was named the head coach at Bowling Green after compiling an 11-year record of 89-19-2 at Sandusky High School. Whittaker's first of his 14 teams (the longest tenure in school history) tied Case Western Reserve for the Ohio Conference title and was thought to be one of the best teams ever, scoring 173 points while allowing just 40.

After back-to-back losing seasons in 1953 and 1954, Doyt Perry began his legendary career as the Falcon head coach in 1955 and made an immediate impact. BG posted a 7-1-1 record, scoring 224 points while allowing only 53. This came on the heels of a 2-7 record the previous season.

Perry, whose teams never lost more than two games in any of his 10 seasons, led his 1959 team to the first perfect record in school history at 9-0-0. In the process, the Falcons were named the mythical small college national champions by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

Brian McClure is one of only two players in MAC history (both from BG) to earn league MVP honors twice.

BG's closest game that season was a Mid-American Conference victory at Ohio University by a 13-9 count to wrap up the perfect season and national honor.

The following season, BG came within one game of repeating as national champions, losing only to OU by a score of 14-7. The Bobcats would claim top national honors that year.

In 1961, Bowling Green played in its first bowl game, the Mercy Bowl at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The game against Fresno State was played to raise money to help the families of 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team. The 16 players perished in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport after a 1960 game against BG. The game netted $170,000 for the memorial fund.

The arrival of a skinny, much-heralded quarterback from Ravenna, Ohio in 1982 signaled the beginning of an 11-year period in which the Falcons would make four bowl appearances.

The quarterback was Brian McClure and all he would do in the next four seasons was lead the Falcons to a 34-12 record, and a 19-1 record at home. McClure also led the Orange and Brown to two bowl games, and became only the second quarterback in NCAA history to pass for over 10,000 yards.

He became the starter in the third game of his freshman season, and despite missing the last two games of the regular season, he became the first freshman to be named a first-team all-league quarterback.

He would rewrite the BG and MAC record books before his career was over, setting five NCAA records as well. McClure still holds numerous school and MAC records.

One of the most significant wins in school history was the 17-13 victory over 18th-ranked Purdue in 1972. A fourth quarter field goal by Don Taylor was the difference for Coach Don Nehlen and his Falcons.

In 1991, Gary Blackney was tabbed as the 14th head football coach, and much like the arrival of McClure, he made an immediate impact on the program. In his first season, he took a team which compiled a 3-5-2 mark the previous season and molded them into an 11-1 squad, going undefeated in the MAC while winning the program's first bowl game.

The following season was more of the same, as the Falcons were again perfect in league play. A win over Nevada in the first Las Vegas Bowl made it back-to-back bowl victories. The 1993 squad would extend the conference winning streak to a league-record 19 games, while going unbeaten in the first 22 MAC games of Blackney's tenure.

Urban Meyer took over the reins of the Falcon program in 2001 and engineered the top turnaround in the FBS. The Falcons opened the Meyer era with an impressive road win at Missouri and followed that up with wins over Buffalo and Temple, surpassing their victory total of the previous year.

BGSU posted its first winning season since 1994 when it reeled off three straight wins to end the season. The Falcons' 43-42 victory at Northwestern made them the first MAC team to ever defeat three teams from BCS conferences in a single season. The Falcons ended the season six days later with a 56-21 pasting of MAC champion Toledo.

In 2002, BGSU roared to an 8-0 start, including wins over Missouri and Kansas and were ranked in both the AP and Coaches polls at the same time for the first time in school history.

Meyer's offensive coordinator, Gregg Brandon, took over as head coach in December of 2002 and guided the Falcons to their first-ever MAC West title and Motor City Bowl championship. That team finished ranked in the top 25 (No. 23) in both major polls at the end of a season for the first time in school history.

One player who links Blackney, Meyer and Brandon was All-American quarterback Josh Harris. The Westerville, Ohio native came to BGSU with the intention of sitting out the 2000 season as a redshirt, but was pressed into duty when injuries decimated the Falcon backfield. Serving as a running back and kick returner for the bulk of the season, Harris showed signs of greatness in glimpses, and even started his first career game on ESPN against Toledo.

Meyer took over the program the following season and inserted Harris into the starting lineup for good in the ninth game of the season and watched his team win 11 straight games over the next two seasons to earn

On Oct. 24 and 25, 2003, ESPN's College Gameday made its home south of Doyt L. Perry Stadium. That marked the first time in MAC history that the nation's most watched college football pre-game show visited a league venue.

Paul Miles is second on the BG career rushing list with 3,238 yards while he is also the only football player to have his number retired. At the time of his graduation, he was only the third running back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.

its first national ranking since 1985. The Motor City Bowl MVP guided the Falcons to a 6-1 record in three seasons as a starter against BCS competition.

The 2003 season gave BGSU its highest national profile and elevated the program to new heights. Longtime Falcon fans have viewed the program's 1972 win over the Boilermakers as one of the biggest in BGSU history.

Well, lightning strikes twice. While Purdue entered the day ranked No. 16 with BCS aspirations, the Falcons kept the ballgame close throughout. BGSU converted twice on fourth down, capped by a 32-yard miracle pass-and-catch from Harris to Charles Sharon with 2:08 remaining to post a 27-26 win.

The Falcons were back into the national spotlight with a No. 23 ranking by the AP, and a showdown with undefeated No. 12 Northern Illinois showed so much promise that ESPN's College Gameday made Bowling Green its home for the weekend. For the first time in 20 years, Doyt Perry Stadium was sold out and the game was shown on ESPN2.

All-American Janssen Patton set an NCAA record by picking off three passes in a game for the third time in his career. Harris directed the BGSU offense flawlessly, as the Falcons prevailed by a score of 34-18 in just the second-ever regular season meeting between two nationally-ranked MAC schools. The Falcons would spend the next seven weeks in both national polls and were ranked 24th in the final BCS standings.

In what would be one of the most meaningful games in the history of the BGSU-Toledo rivalry, another sellout crowd would witness the first meeting in which the two schools played the final game of the regular season for an outright championship.

The Falcons rallied in the fourth quarter to post a 31-23 win over archrival Toledo. That would secure the Falcons' first-ever MAC Championship Game appearance at home against No. 12 Miami.

In the MAC's first battle with the Big Ten in post-season play, Harris earned MVP honors completing a bowl-record 38 passes, as the Falcons registered a 28-24 win over Northwestern. The victory allowed the Falcons to finish the 2003 season in both the AP and Coaches polls for the second time in program history.

In 2004, BGSU once again enjoyed the national spotlight when they opened the season on the road at Oklahoma in a game that was televised by ABC. While the Falcons fell 40-24 to a team which would play for the national title, a new era was ushered in that day.

Sophomore quarterback Omar Jacobs, in his first collegiate start, would hold his own with Heisman Trophy winner Jason White. Jacobs would go on to earn All-American honors and MAC Offensive Player of the Year recognition after throwing for a national-best 41 TD passes. He completed 309-of-462 passes for a BGSU record 4,002 yards.

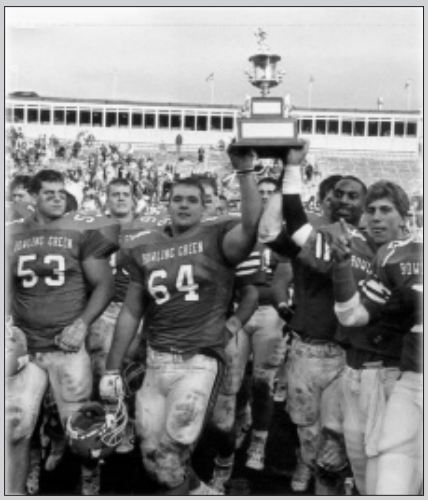
Following a 1-2 start, BGSU erupted for a 70-16 victory at Temple, won their next seven games, and were ranked by both AP and ESPN for the third straight year.

BGSU would earn its second straight bowl berth and played Memphis in the GMAC Bowl. In its first game ever against a Conference USA opponent, Jacobs would throw for five TDs and 365 yards and the Falcon defense would limit the Tigers to seven points in the second half as BGSU won, 52-35. The Falcons were one of a MAC-record five teams selected to participate in a post-season contest.

BGSU began the 2005 season ranked 23rd by Sports Illustrated and Jacobs was featured in ESPN The Magazine.

In 2007, the Falcons were picked to finish fifth in the Mid-American Conference East Division.

Coach Gregg Brandon and assistant coach Dennis Springer celebrate the Falcons' 27-26 win over No. 16 Purdue.



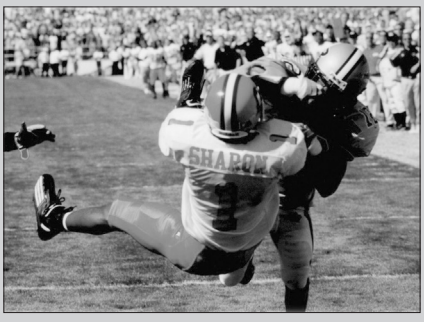
The Mid-American Conference title won by the 1991 team was the first of two consecutive championships. The 1991 team won all eight of its MAC games, the first of what would turn into a league-record 19-game winning streak.

But following a 32-31 win over Minnesota to open the season, the Falcons rolled to a MAC East co-Division championship. Bowling Green went 6-2 in the MAC, and advanced to its third bowl game in five seasons. The Falcons finished 8-5 in 2007.

The 2008 Falcons opened the season with a bang, downing No. 25 Pittsburgh, 27-17, for the Falcons' first win over a ranked team since 2003. That same season, the Orange and Brown hosted Minnesota, marking the first time in school history that a Big Ten team ventured into Doyt Perry Stadium. BGSU finished the 2008 season with a 6-6 record, ushering in a new era with the hiring of Dave Clawson on Dec. 12, 2008.

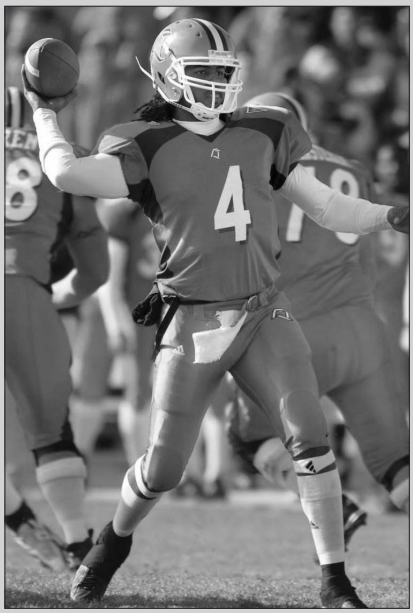
Clawson's first year was a memorable one, and the Falcons opened the year with a 31-14 win versus Troy. While finishing 6-2 in the MAC and advancing to the 2009 Humanitarian Bowl, Clawson helped lead an offense that saw Freddie Barnes grab 155 catches in 13 games. That total established a new NCAA record, breaking the old mark of 142 that had been held by Manny Hazard (Houston) since 1989.

Barnes' top moment came on Oct. 10, 2009 at Kent State when he caught 22 passes for 278



Charles Sharon hauls in this 32-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 left in BGSU's upset win over Purdue in 2003.

All-American quarterback Josh Harris takes a 48-yard TD pass from Cole Magner in the Falcons' 2003 win over Toledo. Harris was responsible for more than 100 TDs during his career.



All-American quarterback Omar Jacobs set an NCAA record by throwing 41 TD passes with just four interceptions in 2004. He was named MVP of the 2004 GMAC Bowl as BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35.

Tyler Sheehan finished his career with a 64.7 percent completion percentage, best in school history, while adding 10,117 yards and 70 touchdowns in three years as the Falcons' starting QB.

yards, one catch shy of the all-time NCAA record. Barnes was a finalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award that season, given to the nation's top wide receiver.

After three seasons of rebuilding in which the Falcons went from 2-10 (2010) to 5-7 (2011) to 8-5 (2012) and a loss in the Military Bowl to San Jose State, the Falcons were primed to make a run at the Mid-American Conference title.

Bowling Green opened the 2013 season with two straight wins, before suffering their only double-digit loss of the season at Indiana. The Falcons would bounce back with three straight wins at home to improve to 5-1. After a one-point loss on the road at Mississippi State and a three-point loss at home to Toledo, Bowling Green was just 5-3. Needing to run the table for a shot at the MAC Championship, the Falcons put together one of the most dominant stretches in program history. BGSU outscored its next four opponents 176-17, allowing just one offensive touchdown in that span, to advance to the MAC Championship Game against undefeated Northern Illinois, who was ranked No. 14 in the country.

The Falcons would defeat NIU, 47-27, to win their 11th MAC Championship and first since 1992. BGSU would advance to the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl to play ACC foe Pittsburgh.

On December 18, 2013, after the departure of Clawson to Wake Forest, Director of Athletics D. Christopher Kingston announced the hiring of Dino Babers as the 18th Head Football Coach in Bowling Green State University history.

In his first season at the helm, Babers led the Falcons to an impressive 8-6 record and a MAC East Championship. The Falcons won their first bowl game in 10 seasons – a 33-28 triumph over South Alabama in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl. Among the season's other highlights were a 45-42 victory over Indiana – BGSU's first win over a Big Ten Conference opponent at Doyt L. Perry Stadium.

The 2014 season, though, was just a taste of what was to come in Babers' second year.

With the return of 2013 MAC Championship MVP quarterback Matt Johnson, who missed the final 13 games of the 2014 season with an injury, and an explosive array of wide receivers, Bowling Green used the 2015 season to post video game stats and break MAC record after MAC record.

Despite a loss to Tennessee to open the season, the team knew something special was brewing as Johnson threw for 424 yards. The following week the Falcons traveled to Maryland looking for the second win over a Big Ten program in as many years.

The game was close for a half and the Terrapins held the Falcons' offense in check for 30 minutes, leading 13-6 at the break. But it took BGSU just 33 seconds to tie the game in the third quarter and the Falcons exploded for 42 second-half points in a 48-27 rout.

team that was nationally ranked for much of the year, the Falcons headed to Purdue with a 1-2 record. But senior Travis Greene, the all-time rushing leader at BGSU, scored with nine seconds left to break a 28-28 tie and give the Falcons their third victory over Big Ten opponents in two years.

That win kickstarted a seven-game winning streak that included blowout victories over UMass (62-38), Akron (59-10), Kent State (48-0) and Ohio (62-24). And for the third consecutive season, BGSU would face Northern Illinois for the MAC Championship.

The Falcons avenged a 2014 MAC Championship loss to Northern Illinois with a 34-14 win that gave BGSU its 12th MAC Championship. Greene was named MAC Championship MVP, while Johnson was the MAC Offensive Player of the Year and the Vern Smith Leadership Award winner. Sophomore wide receiver Roger Lewis was an FWAA Second Team All-American and an AP Third Team All-American. He was also given the Paul Warfield Tropy, as the nation's top receiver.

From 2016-18, BGSU brought in two of the highest ranked classes in program history and the Falcons tabbed Boston College offensive coordinator Scot Loeffler to take the reins in December of 2018.

While Loeffler's debut season was the beginning of a rebuild, he led the Falcons to a stunning 20-7 win over Toledo, snapping a nine-game losing streak to the Rockets, bringing home the I-75 Trophy, and evening the all-time series record between the two programs to 40-40-4.

The 2020 season was a unique once as the world battled the COVID-19 virus, limiting the Flacons to only five games due to a late start and MAC-only games. BGSU failed to win a game, but had the opportunity to play many young players as the NCAA granted a blanked waiver for an extra year of eligibility for all fall and winter student-athletes.

With one of the nation's youngest teams, BGSU took a big jump in 2021 which included the biggest upset of the year when the Falcons topped Big Ten foe Minnesota at Huntington Bank Stadium, 14-10. BGSU entered the game as a 31-point underdog. Placekicker Nate Needham earned first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America, marking only the third time a Faclon earned first-team accolades from the outlet.

Jordan Anderson (0) secured BGSU's 14-10 win at Minnesota in 2021 in the closing seconds with an interception.

Bowling Green continued its improvement in 2022 as it was one of four FBS programs whose win totals improved 4+ games from 2020 to 2021 and then improved 2+ more games from 2021 to 2022. Joining BGSU on the list was Kansas State, Oregon State and Tennessee as the Falcons are the only program from outside the "Power-5" to accomplish the feat. BGSU went 6-6 in the regular season, finishing in second place in the MAC East and playing in a bowl game for the first time since 2015 when the Falcons were invited to the Quick Lane Bowl in Detroit.

The goal of winning the MAC East went down to the very last game of the 2022 regular season for the Falcons in Athens, Ohio. The Bobcats came out on top to take the division.

BGSU had a few exciting wins in 2022, including a victory over Toledo in the "Battle of I-75" at the Glass Bowl.

Matt McDonald's 42-yard touchdown pass to Ta'ron Keith with just nine seconds left in the game lifted the Falcons to a 42-35 win over Toledo in a Mid-American Conference instant classic. BGSU led for nearly the entire game, but the Rockets drove 85 yards for the go-ahead score with just 51 seconds left. But, McDonald completed a pair of passes on third-and-long plays on the ensuing drive and needed only 38 seconds to go 72 yards to take the lead for good and secure BGSU's first win at the Glass Bowl since 2008 and only third since 1994.

Karl Brooks earned first-team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus, who graded Brooks as the best player in the nation at his position. His 49 hurries and 69 total pressures per PFF rank No. 1 in the nation among all FBS defenders. Brooks created a pressure 17.8 percent of his pass rushes. His 10 sacks (in 2022) and 27.5 career sacks both rank No. 3 on BGSU's single-season and career lists.

Brooks was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round (179 overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. Tight end Christian Sims (Rams) and Jakari Robinson (CFL's Calgary Stampede) signed free agent contracts.

The 2023 season marked another successful campaign under Loeffler's leadership, as the Falcons made impressive strides. BGSU secured a spot in the Quick Lane Bowl for the second consecutive year, facing off against the Minnesota Golden Gophers. This achievement marked the first time BGSU had participated in back-to-back bowl games since their four-year streak from 2012 to 2015. BGSU was the only school in the nation to improve from 2020 to 2021 with +4 wins, then +2 wins from 2021 to 2022 and +1 wins from 2022 to 2023. One of BGSU's wins was a 38-27 triumph at Georgia Tech, which served as the Falcons' first-ever win over an active ACC opponent and was BGSU's second "Power-5" win in three years. Georgia Tech went on to beat ranked Miami and North Carolina squads and lost to No. 1 Georgia by one score.

In 2023, BGSU led the nation with 28 takeaways, including four forced turnovers against the eventual national champion Michigan, who had only eight turnovers throughout the season. Notably, BGSU's defense intercepted Michigan quarterback J.J. McCarthy three times, marking the most interceptions surrendered by the 2024 first-round NFL Draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings in his collegiate career. These three interceptions accounted for half of the six total offensive turnovers Michigan yielded all season.

Matt Johnson was the MAC Championship Game Most Valuable Player in 2013 and then the MAC Offensive Player of the Year and Vern Smith Leadership Award winner in 2015.

The 2023 season also witnessed the recognition of 10 Falcons on the All-MAC team and 15 on the Academic All-MAC squad. The latter equaled the program record set in 2022, surpassing the previous record established in 2021. Under Loeffler's guidance over his first five years, BGSU has achieved five of its top six outputs in program history for representation on the Academic All-MAC team.

One standout performer in Loeffler's offense was Harold Fannin Jr., who earned first-team All-MAC honors and third-team All-America honors by CFN (College Football News). Fannin concluded the season ranked No. 6 nationally and No. 1 in the MAC among tight ends, boasting 623 receiving yards and six receiving touchdowns. His 44 receptions led the MAC and placed him 12th nationally among tight ends, while Fannin's 406 yards after the catch ranked him second in the nation among tight ends, trailing only Georgia's Brock Bowers, who secured back-to-back Mackey Awards. OLB Cashius Howell led BGSU with 9.5 sacks, which ranked No. 1 in the MAC and No. 16 nationally. Howell's sack total ranked No. 6 in the nation among linebackers.

The 2024 season will go down as a historic one for the Falcons, highlighted by tight end Harold Fannin Jr., who became the first player in program history to be named a consensus All-American after earning first-team honors from four of the five official All-America selectors. Fannin led the nation in receptions (117) and receiving yards (1,555), with both marks shattering the FBS single-season records for a tight end. He also won the MAC's Vern Smith Leadership Award (MVP) and Offensive Player of the Year, becoming the first FBS tight end ever to be named conference MVP. Fannin headlined a group of nine Falcons who earned All-MAC recognition.

Quarterback Connor Bazelak delivered one of the most efficient and productive passing seasons in program history. Behind consistent protection, he completed 269-of-402 passes for 3,044 yards and 18 touchdowns, adding two more scores on the ground. His 66.9 percent completion rate ranked second all-time at BGSU, first in the MAC, and 14th nationally. His 3,044 passing yards led the MAC, ranked 26th in the nation, and placed him ninth on BGSU's single-season list.

Cornerback Jordan Oladokun was a lockdown presence in the Bowling Green secondary throughout the season, earning First-Team All-MAC and College Football News Third-Team All-America honors. Starting all 13 games, he led the MAC and ranked fourth nationally with five interceptions. Among cornerbacks with 400 or more coverage snaps, he was one of only three in the country to not allow a single touchdown. He ranked second nationally in both lowest allowed reception percentage (42.6%) and fewest receiving yards allowed (219), while finishing eighth in fewest receptions surrendered (26). Oladokun's elite coverage ability made him one of the most statistically dominant cornerbacks in college football.

Fannin (Browns), Bazelak (Buccaneers), and Oladokun (Chargers) all signed NFL contracts in spring 2025, highlighted by Fannin's selection in the third round by the Cleveland Browns. He became the highest-drafted Falcon (67th overall) since Fred Sturt was taken 59th overall by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973.

As a team, BGSU went 6–2 in MAC play and earned a bid to the 68 Ventures Bowl in Mobile, Ala., where the Falcons faced Arkansas State. One of the season's biggest highlights came in the Battle of I-75, where BGSU defeated Toledo 41–26 at the Glass Bowl—marking consecutive road wins over the Rockets for the first time since 1992 and 1994. The Falcons also narrowly lost one-possession road games to then-No. 8 Penn State (34–27), a College Football Playoff semifinalist, and No. 25 Texas A&M (26–20).

In March 2025, BGSU named Eddie George as the 21st head coach in program history following Scot Loeffler's departure to become quarterbacks coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. A former Heisman Trophy winner at Ohio State and NFL Pro Bowler, George led Tennessee State to a 9–4 record and a share of the Big South-Ohio Valley Conference title in 2024.

As the Falcons turn the page to 2025, a new era begins under the leadership of Eddie George. His arrival signals both a bold step forward and a commitment to building on the program's rising trajectory. A proven leader with a decorated past, George brings instant credibility, a powerful network, and a competitive edge rooted in excellence. With a strong foundation in place and national attention growing, the Falcons are poised to elevate their standard and pursue MAC titles with renewed purpose.

Bowling Green won the Battle of I-75 against Toledo in 2022. It was also BGSU's first win at the Glass Bowl since 2008 and only the third since 1994. BGSU scored the game-winning touchdown with 51 seconds left on a 42-yard scoring strike to Ta'ron Keith. BGSU also won at the Glass Bowl in 2024.

Eddie George was named the 21st football head coach in Bowling Green program history in March 2025.

Harold Fannin Jr. became BGSU's first consensus All-American in 2024.

HAROLD FANNIN JR. - 2024

In 2024, Harold Fannin Jr. (Canton, Ohio) delivered one of the most dominant and historic seasons ever recorded by a tight end in college football history. The Bowling Green State University standout not only shattered FBS and program records but redefined the impact a tight end can have on an offense. A consensus All-American—BGSU's first in program history—Fannin led the nation in receptions (117), receiving yards (1,555), receptions per game (9.0), and receiving yards per game (119.6), becoming the first tight end in FBS history to pace the country in all four categories.

Fannin was a matchup nightmare who lined up across the field—43.6 percent in-line, 28.6 percent in the slot, and 27.8percent out wide—and torched defenses in every formation. He broke 21 Bowling Green records in 2024 alone, including single-season marks for receptions, receiving yards, touchdowns (10), and all-purpose yards (1,620). His eight 100-yard receiving games led all tight ends and tied for the national lead among all players, including Heisman Trophy winner Travis Hunter. Over his career, Fannin recorded nine such games—more than any tight end in school history.

The accolades piled up at a historic pace. Fannin earned first-team All-America honors from Walter Camp, AFCA, AP, FWAA, Pro Football Focus, USA Today, and Sports Illustrated, among others. He was a finalist for the Mackey Award and a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff, becoming the first tight end ever to be named the Mid-American Conference's Vern Smith Leadership Award winner, signifying the league's overall MVP. Fannin is the first tight end in FBS history to be named the overall MVP of his conference. He was also the MAC Offensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-MAC selection.

Fannin's explosiveness after the catch separated him from the field. He led all FBS players—not just tight ends—in yards after catch (873), broken tackles (34), and first downs (74). He became the top-graded offensive player in the country by Pro Football Focus (96.1) and was rated the top receiver overall (96.6), including an elite run-blocking grade of 73.7. His 3.76 yards per route run ranked No. 4 nationally.

A clutch performer, Fannin routinely delivered in high-leverage moments. He hauled in 22 fourth-quarter receptions, including five on fourth down that moved the chains. He added 658 receiving yards and 30 first-down catches in the second half and overtime, showcasing his durability and consistency. Against AP Top-25 opponents, he averaged 141.0 receiving yards and 9.5 catches per game.

He turned in multiple standout performances, including 11 receptions for 137 yards and a touchdown at No. 8 Penn State—breaking the Nittany Lions' 28-game streak of not allowing a touchdown on an opponent's opening drive. Against No. 25 Texas A&M, he torched the Aggies for 145 yards, including a 65-yard touchdown—marking the longest offensive score allowed by A&M since 2022.

He followed with 193 yards and two touchdowns on 12 receptions against Old Dominion, then capped his year with a record-shattering 213-yard, 17-catch effort in the 68 Ventures Bowl vs. Arkansas State—both the highest single-game totals in bowl season.

By the end of 2024, Fannin held 10 FBS records, including single-season tight end records for yards, catches, yards per game, and receptions per game. Nationally, his 117 receptions tied Alabama's DeVonta Smith (2020) for No. 24 in FBS single-season history—an almost unheard-of feat for a tight end.

Fannin's career numbers placed him among the all-time greats. He finished with 180 receptions (T-No. 10 all-time among FBS tight ends), 2,396 receiving yards (No. 7), and 66.6 receiving yards per game (No. 4). He also ranked No. 5 in FBS history in all-purpose yards by a tight end (2,555). In MAC history, he ended as the all-time leader in career receptions and receptions per game by a tight end and ranked second in career receiving yards at the position.

In recognition of his historic junior campaign, Fannin accepted an invitation to the prestigious Reese's Senior Bowl, cementing his status as one of the most decorated and dynamic tight ends in college football history.

Fannin was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the third round of the 2025 NFL Draft as the 67th overall pick.

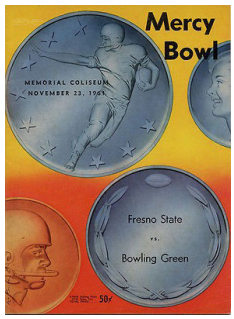
1961 MERCY BOWL

Fresno State 36, BGSU 6
Nov. 23, 1961 - Los Angeles Coliseum - 33,145



In a one-time game to help defray the expenses (burial and medical) of families of the 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash, Oct. 29, 1960, shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport, Bowling Green and Fresno State, the undefeated champion of the California Collegiate Athletic Association, met at the historic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Playing before its largest crowd in school history, the Falcons, six-point favorites, were guilty, uncharacteristically, of six turnovers, which was the difference in the game. BG's defense, which was ranked fourth in the nation, yielded 468 yards, 196 more than it had given up to any opponent during the season. Quarterbacks Beau Carter and Jon Anabo were thorns in BG's side all day passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns. Carter ran for two scores, also.

BG scored its only points early in the second stanza on the two-yard run by Ray Bell which was set up on a long pass play between Larry Smith and quarterback Jim Potts.

BG fumbled on its next two possessions with FSU turning the second miscue into a touchdown on a long pass play. Bowling Green did have a pass dropped in the end zone as the first half ended which would have given them the lead. Fresno State then scored 1:44 apart midway through the third period to put the game away, the second score set up by a fumbled snap on an attempted punt.The contest netted $170,000 for the memorial fund which aided the survivors and the relatives of the victims of the plane crash. Cal Poly SLO had played at Bowling Green the afternoon before the crash.

1982 CALIFORNIA BOWL

Fresno State 29, BGSU 28
Dec. 18, 1982 - Bulldog Stadium - 30,000

After a full week of events leading up to the meeting with the Pacific Coast Athletic Association champion Fresno State, the Falcons entered the game against the Bulldogs a two-touchdown underdog.

The Falcons also had to contend with a partisan sea of red squeezed into Bulldog Stadium, the home of Fresno State.

But, the Falcons drew first blood converting a Jac Tomasello interception on the final play of the first quarter into the first touchdown of the game, a Chip Otten four-yard run capping a 48-yard drive. The Falcons took a 14-0 lead to the locker room after driving 73 yards on their next possession. Sophomore quarterback Brian McClure connected with John Meek on the scoring play.

BG looked to be in the driver's seat after McClure connected with Shawn Potts from five yards out in the third stanza. But, Fresno State answered BG's score with their first of the contest later in the quarter.

Bowling Green came right back as Potts picked up a fumble by receiver Greg Taylor at the five-yard line and ran it in to put the Falcons back up by three touchdowns.

With Fresno State pinned back on its own 20-yard line and facing a third-and-ten, a Falcon stop might have put the final nail in the Fresno State coffin. But, FSU gained 15 yards on the third-down play and the comeback was on.

With future NFL receiver Stephone Paige running and catching a pass for a touchdown, FSU closed to within six points with three minutes left. BG used up just 1:05 of the clock on its next possession and FSU moved 45 yards in eight plays with Jeff Tedford finding Vince Wesson over the middle with 11 seconds left. Scott Darrow's PAT was the deciding point.

BG gained just 26 yards on nine plays in the fourth quarter while FSU gained 220 of its 453 yards in the final 15 minutes.

1985 CALIFORNIA BOWL

Fresno State 51, BGSU 7
Dec. 14, 1985 - Bulldog Stadium - 32,554

The tone for what was expected to be one of the most evenly-matched California Bowls, came earlier in the week when BGSU head coach Denny Stolz told the team before their Wednesday practice he would be leaving after the bowl game to accept the head coaching job at San Diego State.

An indication of what was ahead for the Falcons in the game came early in the first quarter when, trailing 7-0, they drove to the Bulldog one-yard line where they fumbled the ball away in the end zone, the first of five on the day and the same number they had committed in the first 11 games of the season. Fresno State would score the next 37 points before BG would hit paydirt.for a touchdown, FSU closed to within six points with three minutes left. BG used up just 1:05 of the clock on its next possession and FSU moved 45 yards in eight plays with Jeff Tedford finding Vince Wesson over the middle with 11 seconds left. 1991 CALIFORNIA RAISIN BOWL

BGSU 28, Fresno State 21
Dec. 14, 1991 - Bulldog Stadium - 34,877

Not even being a double-digit underdog against Fresno State could keep the Falcons from completing its storybook season under first-year head coach Gary Blackney. And the script for this game was all Hollywood.

The first quarter would have led the fans to believe it might take 40 or 50 points to win the game as the Falcons scored touchdowns on their first two possessions and the Bulldogs would get one of those back before the quarter was over.

The scoring continued early in the second stanza as BG's Erik White and Mark Szlachcic hooked up for a second time. But, FSU came right back on their next possession with Anthony Daigle running 57 yards to cut the deficit in half going to the lockerroom.

The defenses took over in the third quarter, each allowing just 65 yards total offense. Late in the quarter, FSU placekicker Derek Mahoney missed a 26-yard field goal, the most significant scoring opportunity of the quarter.

BG scored early in the final stanza moving 80 yards after the missed field goal to build another 14-point lead.

FSU came right back to score, driving 71 yards as quarterback Mark Barsotti completed five-of-six passes, connecting with tight end Marty Thompson from five yards out.

After three changes of possession, FSU started the final drive of the game from their one-yard line, after an interception, with 2:29 remaining.

FSU used its last time out with 24 seconds left and the Bulldogs just nine yards away from the needed touchdown. After a running play for six yards and two incomplete passes, the final play of the game would determine the outcome with three seconds left.

The BG defense rose to the occasion covering all FSU receivers and Barsotti threw incomplete with BG linebacker Kevin O'Brien pressuring.

BG won its 11th game, making Blackney only the third coach in NCAA history to win 11 games in their first season as a head coach.

1992 LAS VEGAS BOWL

BGSU 35, Nevada 34
Dec. 18, 1992 - Sam Boyd Silver Bowl - 15,476

In the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl, which replaced the California Bowl, the Falcons faced the high-powered offense of the University of Nevada.

In a game in which the punting game took center stage, the Falcons won the first half and Nevada the second half, but a late BG touchdown proved to be the difference.

The Falcons scored on their first four possessions to grab a 28-3 halftime lead. BG had 267 first-half yards to just 116 for the Wolfpack as they had an 18-6 edge in first downs.

In the second half, it was Nevada quarterback Chris Vargas' turn. He had engineered six Nevada comeback victories in three years coming off the bench, including an NCAA-record 35-point comeback against Weber State.

Nevada scored three touchdowns in the third quarter with punts of five and seven yards by BG setting up the first two scores. The Wolfpack's third score was set up by a high snap from center on a BG punt.

Nevada finally took the lead with 12:41 left in the game and looked to possibly put the game away with a field goal with 7:13 left, ending their run of 31 unanswered points.

Bowling Green then moved to the Nevada six-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. After holding the Wolfpack to one first down, Nevada punter Steve Lester had the center snap go through his hands setting up the Falcons at the Wolfpack 15-yard line with 1:45 remaining.

A 12-yard Erik White to Mark Szlachcic connection on first down put the Falcons on the three-yard line. After two runs and a pass did not net any yardage, White found Dave Hankins alone in the back of the end zone on fourth down with 22 seconds left. Placekicker Brian Leaver made the PAT for the winning points and BG's second consecutive bowl win.

2003 MOTOR CITY BOWL

BGSU 28, Northwestern 24
Dec. 26, 2003 - Ford Field - 51,286

Northwestern took away Bowling Green's running game. So Josh Harris beat the Wildcats through the air. Harris passed for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead Bowling Green to a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. It was the first postseason meeting ever between schools from the MAC and Big Ten.

Bowling Green took the lead for good on Harris' 3-yard touchdown pass to Cole Magner with 4:06 left. Harris, who also ran for a TD, set a Motor City Bowl and BGSU record for completions with 38 in 50 attempts. It also marked the third fourth-quarter rally for BGSU against a Big Ten squad (Northwestern in 2001 and Purdue in 2003). Magner also set a game record for catches, finishing with 12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

Jason Wright ran for 237 yards on 21 carries and finished with 336 all-purpose yards for Northwestern. He had a 77-yard TD run - the second-longest run in Motor City Bowl history - to give the Wildcats a 17-7 lead early in the third quarter and an 88-yard kickoff return early in the fourth to set up Noah Herron's 2-yard touchdown run that made it 24-21.

Bowling Green used two 80-yard scoring drives to take a 21-17 lead early in the fourth. Harris threw a 7-yard TD pass to Magner, and put the Falcons on top with an 11-yarder to Steve Sanders.

Northwestern opened the scoring on Herron's 40-yard fourth-down run in the first quarter, and made it 10-0 on Brian Huffman's 31-yard field goal. Bowling Green answered with a 67-yard drive, capped by Harris' 4-yard run.

2004 GMAC BOWL

BGSU 52, Memphis 35
Dec. 22, 2004 - Ladd Peebles Stadium - 29,500

Omar Jacobs went from Bowling Green's question mark to the Mid-American Conference's latest star quarterback. Jacobs capped a marvelous sophomore season by passing for 365 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Falcons to a 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl.

The Falcons (9-3) turned a shootout into a blowout after leading 35-28 at halftime to win their fourth consecutive bowl game. Jacobs got them started with four first-half touchdown passes - two apiece to Charles Sharon and Steve Sanders helped carry them the rest of the way. Pope ran 28 times for 151 yards and a pair of 1-yard touchdowns. He also caught a 13-yard pass for the only score of the third quarter. The Tigers (8-4), playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time, couldn't keep up with the nation's No. 4 offense, which totaled 558 total yards.

Jacobs, whose 41 touchdown passes led the nation and set a Mid-American Conference record, completed 26-of-44 passes with an interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

At halftime, the teams seemed poised to take aim at the 2001 GMAC Bowl, the highest scoring bowl game in history with 125 combined points for Marshall and East Carolina. The offenses stopped themselves early in the third quarter. Jacobs threw only his fourth interception of the season to give the Tigers the ball at Bowling Green's 41. Memphis tried to go for it on fourth down but was twice penalized for having 12 men on the field. Bowling Green made it 42-28 on the ensuing possession with Pope slipping underneath for a 13-yard touchdown catch on third-and-7. The Tigers then squandered another trip across midfield when a scrambling Wimprine fumbled the ball and Bowling Green's Mike Thaler recovered 31 yards behind the line of scrimmage to set up a field goal. Even the weather worked in the offenses' favor, however, with a driving rainstorm subsiding a few minutes before kickoff to clear the way for Jacobs and Wimprine to go to work. They took full advantage. Jacobs capped his four-touchdown half with a 17-yarder to Sanders, who reached over defensive back Cameron Essex in the end zone with 37 seconds left.

Not surprisingly, it was a night for offensive records. Jacobs set the MAC record with his 41st overall touchdown rushing or passing in the first quarter, adding four more. He also joined Ben Roethlisberger and Byron Leftwich as the league's only 4,000-yard passers. The Falcons also set the MAC record for scoring average in a season.

2008 GMAC BOWL

BGSU 7, Tulsa 63
Jan. 6, 2008 - Ladd Peebles Stadium - 36,932

Hurricane quarterback Paul Smith and the nation's top-rated offense turned a little charity into a lot of history in the GMAC Bowl.

Smith had his NCAA-record 14th consecutive 300-yard passing game, and Tulsa converted four fumble recoveries into first-half touchdowns on the way to a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2007 GMAC Bowl.

With all that help, the Golden Hurricane (10-4) ran up a 35-0 halftime lead and capped coach Todd Graham's first season by reaching 10 wins for the first time since 1991.

Smith passed for 312 yards and five touchdowns. He broke the record of 13 300-yard efforts in a row he shared with BYU's Ty Detmer, whose streak stretched over the 1989 and 1990 seasons.

He and Tarrion Adams joined Houston's David Klingler and Chuck Weatherspoon as the NCAA's only 5,000-yard passing and 1,000-yard rushing tandems.

Tulsa outgained Bowling Green (8-5) 562-229 in total yards.

Adams scored touchdowns running, passing and receiving before halftime and ran for 112 yards. Trae Johnson caught two scoring passes.

Bowling Green, which had won four consecutive bowl games, lost three fumbles in its own territory in the first quarter and never recovered.

Quarterback Tyler Sheehan was helped off the field with a left ankle injury with 24 seconds left in the first half and didn't return. Sheehan passed for 141 yards and ran for another 21.

Down 42-0, Bowling Green got on the board when Roger Williams scored on a 78-yard kick return early in the third quarter for the Falcons' only points. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

2009 HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Idaho 43, Bowling Green 42
Dec. 30, 2009 - Bronco Stadium - 26,726

The Bowling Green State University football team got a 51-yard touchdown from Freddie Barnes with 32 seconds remaining to take a 42-35 lead but surrendered a touchdown with four seconds to go, as well as a two-point conversion, to fall 43-42 to the Idaho Vandals in the 2009 Roady's Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho.

BGSU rallied back from 28-14 and 35-28 deficits to lead with 32 seconds to go but the Vandals drove 66 yards on three plays, including a 50-yard strike to open the drive to get within one at 42-41. After a timeout the Vandals elected to go for two, converting in the back of the endzone for the winning score.

The Falcons opened the scoring with senior quarterback Tyler Sheehan hooking up with Biletnikoff finalist Freddie Barnes on a 35-yard touchdown. Sheehan would call Barnes' number 16 more times, finishing with a Humanitarian Bowl records of 17 receptions for 219 yards, while Sheehan completed 33-of-47 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns.

Barnes would finish the season with 155 receptions, smashing the all-time NCAA mark of 142, held by Manny Hazzard (Houston) since 1989. For his efforts he was named BGSU's Roady's Humanitarian Bowl Most Valuable Player.

Idaho started the second half off with a bang, scoring a pair of touchdowns in a four minute span to go up 28-14 with 5:30 to go in the third quarter, a spot Bowling Green has seen before and answered.

First, Sheehan connected with fellow classmate Jimmy Scheidler on a 15-yard touchdown with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter and then found Barnes on an out-route at 12:15 in the fourth to knot the score at 28 apiece.

The Vandals would answer back with a 74-yard drive to once again take the lead, this time, 35-28 with 8:32 to go in the game.

A two-yard Geter touchdown, his second of the game, pushed the score to 35-35 and following a stop by the BGSU defense Sheehan and the Falcons marched 80 yards to take a 42-35 lead with 32 seconds remaining before the final winning drive by Idaho.

2012 MILITARY BOWL

San Jose State 29, Bowling Green 20
Dec. 27, 2012 - RFK Stadium - 17,835

San Jose State took advantage of a key turnover late in the fourth quarter to secure a 29-20 win over Bowling Green in the 2012 Military Bowl Thursday. The Falcon defense was stellar again on Thursday afternoon, holding the Spartans to -15 yards rushing on the afternoon.

San Jose State jumped out to a 7-0 lead with four play, 79 yard drive, capped off with a 33 yard touchdown pass from David Fales. The Falcon defense made the Spartans one-dimensional all game, as the Spartan rushing attack was ineffective.

The Falcons got on the board with a 28 yard field from Tyler Tate with 3:57 left to play in the first quarter.

After a Gabe Martin blocked punt, the Falcons would get to within one point with another field goal from Tate, this time from 33 yards out.

San Jose State would add a field goal before the half to take a 10-6 lead into the lockerroom.

After the Falcons punted to begin the second half, the defense would come up with a big play to help the struggling offense out. Charlie Walker's rush off the edge produced a huge hit on quarterback David Fales, causing him to fumble. All-American Chris Jones was there to pick it up and return it 21 yards to the San Jose State eight yard line.

On the very next play, Anthon Samuel would take a handoff and scamper into the endzone for the touchdown and a 13-10 Falcon lead.

After a three-and-out late in the third quarter, Brian Schmiedebusch's punt would be blocked by San Jose State's special teams. The ball would carry through the end zone for a safety.

On the very next drive, San Jose State would take the lead on an 18 yard pass from Fales to Chandler Jones.

The Falcons would come right back, as John Pettigrew would find a seam and go 37 yards on a handoff down to the San Jose State one yard line. On the very next play, Pettigrew would punch it in, giving the Falcons another lead at 20-19.

With 4:43 left to play in the game, San Jose State's Austin Lopez would knock home a field goal for a two point Spartan lead. On the next drive, Matt Schilz was hit from behind and would fumble. San Jose State was there to pounce on it.

The Spartans would convert for a touchdown following that turnover.

2013 LITTLE CAESARS PIZZA BOWL

Pittsburgh 30, Bowling Green 27
Dec. 26, 2013 - Ford Field - 26,259

Chris Blewitt's field goal with 1:17 remaining gave the University of Pittsburgh a 30-27 win over the Bowling Green State University football team in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl at Ford Field in Detroit, Mich.

Pitt freshman James Conner ran for 229 yards and a touchdown, while the Panthers' Tyler Boyd had 173 receiving yards and returned a punt 54 yards for a score.

The Panthers had 487 yards of total offense to the Falcons' 289. BGSU quarterback Matt Johnson threw for 272 yards and a pair of scores, completing 20 of 32 passes on the night. For Pitt, Tom Savage was 8-of-13 for 124 yards before leaving the game due to injury late in the first half. Chad Voytik was 5-of-9 for 108 yards in relief.

Pitt had a total of seven quarterback sacks in the game.

On BG's second drive, Johnson found Shaun Joplin for gains of 18 and 17 yards, respectively, on back-to-back plays. Joplin led the BG receivers with six catches and 86 yards vs. the Panthers. The Falcons got into the red zone before the drive stalled, and Tyler Tate kicked a 28-yard field goal fo give the Brown and Orange the early lead.

Trailing by a touchdown at halftime, BGSU drew even at the start of the second half, as BooBoo Gates returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for a score. Tate's PAT tied the game with only 11 seconds elapsed.

That Gates return tied the school record for longest kickoff return in history, matching Leon Weathersby's 94-yard return in a 1997 game at Perry Stadium.

The next drive, however, saw the Panthers kick what proved to be the winning field goal. On the second play of that drive, Voytik rolled out and gained 19 yards, giving Pitt a first down at midfield. Conner gained 20 yards on the following play. Voytik handed the ball to Conner on each of the next three plays, gaining a total of nine yards. On that third-down play, Conner was stopped for no gain, but on fourth down, Blewitt's 39-yard kick was good.

2014 CAMELLIA BOWL

Bowling Green 33, South Alabama 28
Dec. 20, 2014 - Cramton Bowl - 20,256

With 1:04 remaining in the game, quarterback James Knapke found freshman wide receiver Roger Lewis for a 78-yard touchdown to put the Bowling Green State University football team ahead for good, 33-28, over South Alabama in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

With 1:20 to play in the game, South Alabama had taken the lead on a three-yard rush by running back Terrance Timmons, overcoming a 13-point deficit to take a 28-27 lead.

But, on the first play from scrimmage, Knapke would find Lewis deep down the middle of the field and the freshman would do the rest for his second game-winning touchdown reception of the season.

James Knapke was named Bart Starr Most Valuable Player, passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns – both of which were to Lewis. Lewis finished with a team-high 137 yards receiving in the game, finishing his inaugural campaign with 1,093 receiving yards. He became just the seventh player in BGSU history to have a 1,000-yard season and was the first freshman to ever do so.

On the first drive of the night, Bowling Green would move the ball into South Alabama territory, but would face a 4th-and-2 from the USA 44 yard line. On the fourth down play, Knapke would drop back and find Lewis past his defender for a BGSU touchdown and 7-0 lead.

The Falcons would increase their lead to 14-0 later in the first quarter with a one-yard rush by Travis Greene, capping off a nine play, 93-yard drive for the score. The big play on the drive came on Gehrig Dieter's 53-yard reception from Knapke.

BGSU's Tyler Tate would add two field goals – of 39 and 22 yards – to give the Falcons a 20-7 lead going into the half.

South Alabama would score 14 straight points in the fourth quarter to take the lead, but Knapke's bomb to Lewis would allow the Falcons to come out victorious in the Camellia Bowl. The win for the Falcons marked the first bowl win for the Mid-American Conference since the 2012 season.

2015 GODADDY BOWL

Georgia Southern 58, Bowling Green 27
Dec. 23,2015 - Ladd-Peebles Stadium - 28,656

Georgia Southern scored 35 unanswered points in the second half to overcome Bowling Green's 27-23 halftime lead Wednesday evening to defeat the Falcons 58-27 in the GoDaddy Bowl.

Matt Johnson threw three first half touchdowns and Travis Greene scored from five yards out with 36 seconds left in the first half to put the Falcons ahead 27-23.

Bowling Green built a 20-9 second-quarter lead as the Falcons moved the ball well in the first half. Georgia Southern scored the game's first touchdown but Johnson answered by improvising on a fourth-and-one after mishandling the football. He found Roger Lewis for a 45-yard touchdown but Georgia Southern went ahead 9-6 after blocking the extra point and returning it for two points.

Over the next two Georgia Southern drives, the Eagles had just nine yards on six plays and failed to pick up a first down. That gave the Falcons the opportunity to build a lead as Johnson found Ronnie Moore with a shovel pass on an end around for a 15-yard touchdown to make it 13-9.

On the first play of BGSU's first drive of the second quarter, Johnson found Gehrig Dieter streaking down the sideline for a 51-yard touchdown. The eight-second drive was the second-fastest of the season and gave the Falcons a 20-9 lead with 11:42 to play in the first half.

With just 1:27 left in the first half, the Falcons got the ball back and Greene took over. After a seven-yard pass to Dieter to the 41-yard line, Greene ripped off a 52-yard rush to the seven-yard line. Two plays later, he scored from five yards out to give the Falcons a 27-23 halftime lead.

Georgia Southern put the game away in the second half with three third-quarter touchdowns and two more in the fourth.

2022 QUICK LANE BOWL

New Mexico State 24, Bowling Green 19
Dec. 26, 2022 - Ford Field - 22,987

The Bowling Green Falcons took part in the 2022 Quick Lane Bowl and fell to the New Mexico State Aggies by a score of 24-19. The Aggies jumped out to a 17-0 lead, but Ta'ron Keith's electrifying 75-yard kickoff return put the Falcons on the board in the third quarter. BGSU trailed 24-7 entering the fourth quarter, but the special teams success continued as Mason Lawler kicked a career-long 49-yard field goal, then Davion Daniels blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety. Camden Orth threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Tyrone Broden to make it 24-19, but New Mexico State was able to run out the clock to secure the victory.

Bowling Green received the opening kickoff, with Jhaylin Embry returning it to the 25-yard line. The drive began with a 17-yard completion from Matt McDonald to Odieu Hiliare, then a nine-yard rush from Ta'ron Keith. An incompletion on second down gave the Falcons a third-and-one opportunity, but McDonald's pass over the middle was intercepted at the NMSU 30. On BGSU's next drive McDonald was knocked out of the game with a late hit out of bounds by the Aggies. Camden Orth went the rest of the way for the Falcons.

After Broden's touchdown with 6:27 remaining, NMSU started the next drive with a screen pass, but Darren Anders tripped Jamoni Jones for a gain of just one. Walter Haire got a hand on the second down pass attempt, then the Aggies called timeout before running their third-and-nine play. Diego Pavia scrambled for the first down and fumbled, but recovered it to maintain NMSU's possession. Haire brought down Jones in the backfield on first down, but Star Thomas gained seven yards on a rush up the middle. On third-and-five, the play was blown dead for a false start on the Aggies. Pavia scrambled yet again on third-and-10, diving out-of-bounds and picking up the first down. Two short rushes and a pair of BGSU timeouts put the ball at midfield with 2:58 remaining, then Pavia completed a slant to Kordell David to pick up the first down. The Aggies called their final timeout with 2:20 to play and a fresh set of downs. A first down jet sweep to Watkins was thwarted by Trent Simms, then Jones rushed for a seven-yard gain to bring on a third-and-two. Pavia kept it and gained three yards, then took a knee to run out the clock to secure the win for the Aggies.

2023 QUICK LANE BOWL

Minnesota 30, Bowling Green 24
Dec. 26, 2023 - Ford Field - 28,521

Minnesota's Darius Taylor returned from a leg injury to rush for a career-high 208 yards, and Minnesota beat Bowling Green 30-24 in the 2023 Quick Lane Bowl.

Minnesota, which was selected for the bowl because it had the best Academic Progress Rate among five-win teams, won its seventh consecutive bowl game overall and fifth in a row under coach P.J. Fleck.

Taylor, who had missed the Gophers' previous five games, had 35 carries, including a 17-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter that gave Minnesota a 30-17 lead. The 5-foot-11 running back, a Detroit native, averaged 176 yards during a three-game stretch in September, but had only played in one game since.

Taylor's return was crucial for Minnesota, which had senior Cole Kramer making his first career start at quarterback after Athan Kaliakmanis entered the transfer portal.

Kramer went 8-of-16 passing for just 26 yards, but he came through in the red zone, throwing for two touchdowns and running for another. The Gophers ran the ball 44 times for 255 yards while holding Bowling Green to 82 yards rushing.

Connor Bazelak threw for two scores and ran for one for Bowling Green, which lost the Quick Lane Bowl for the second year in a row.

The Falcons led 10-9 at halftime, but the Gophers took control in the third quarter. Kramer capped an 11-play, 78-yard drive by scoring on a 1-yard sneak. Bowling Green went three-and-out, and Minnesota scored six plays later on a 7-yard pass from Kramer to Jameson Geers.

Bazelak scored on a 2-yard run to get the Falcons within six points with 2:33 remaining, but Minnesota recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the clock.

Bowling Green struck first on a 46-yard pass from Bazelak to Odieu Hiliaire less than a minute and a half into the game. Kramer responded with a 4-yard strike to Elijah Spencer. The 2-point conversion attempt failed.

Kramer, who had thrown one pass — which was intercepted — during the regular season, connected on his first five passes.

Connor Bazelak threw for 221 yards and a touchdown for the Falcons (7-6), and Odieu Hiliare had 10 receptions for 152 of those yards. Hiliare caught the TD pass, and Bazelak and PaSean Wimberly each ran for a score.

2024 68 VENTURES BOWL

Arkansas State 38, Bowling Green 31
Dec. 26, 2024 - Hancock Whitney Stadium - 19,582

The Bowling Green State University football team concluded the 2024 season with the 68 Ventures Bowl in Mobile, Ala., against Arkansas State. The Falcons and Red Wolves traded offensive explosions with Connor Bazelak throwing for over 350 yards and three touchdowns while Harold Fannin Jr. broke multiple records in the game. In the end, Arkansas State pulled out a 38-31 final over the Falcons with BGSU concluding the season at 7-6.

For Fannin, he finished with 17 catches, 213 receiving yards and a touchdown. His totals pushed him to breaking the FBS single-season tight end records for both receiving yards and receptions. Additionally, his 17 catches broke the 68 Ventures Bowl record for receptions in a game. Fannin was named the Most Valuable Player of the bowl. The 17 receptions and 213 receiving yards were also a FBS bowl record for tight ends. The 213 receiving yards broke Alabama's O.J. Howard's 208 yards against Clemson in the 2016 CFP title game in Glendale, Ariz.

Fannin Jr. broke the FBS record for receiving yards in a season. The previous record was held by Texas Tech's Jace Amaro, who had 1,352 receiving yards in 2013. Fannin finished the season with 1,555, which also led the nation.

With 17 receptions, Fannin broke the FBS record for receptions in a season by a tight end. He passed Rice's James Casey who had 111 in 2008. His 117 receptions also led the nation in 2024.

Fannin's 17 receptions tied the FBS record for most receptions by a tight end in a game. He shares the top spot with New Mexico State's Emilio Vallez (1967), Northwestern's Jon Harvey (1982), and Penn State's Tyler Warren (2024).

Bazelak's 390 passing yards are a bowl record by a Falcon.

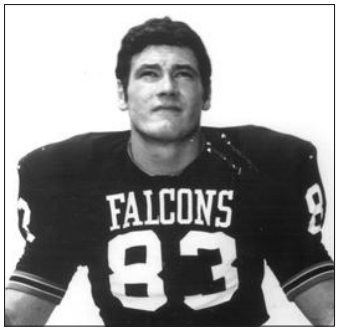
Kory Lichtensteiger, who hails from Van Wert, Ohio, was a two-time first-team All-MAC recipient during four years on the BGSU football team. He was also a 2007 Rimington Award Trophy finalist, awarded to the best center in college football.

Freddie Barnes was one of the top wide receivers in the history of Falcon football. In 2009 alone, Barnes broke the NCAA record for most receptions in a single season with an inconceivable 155 catches and was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award.

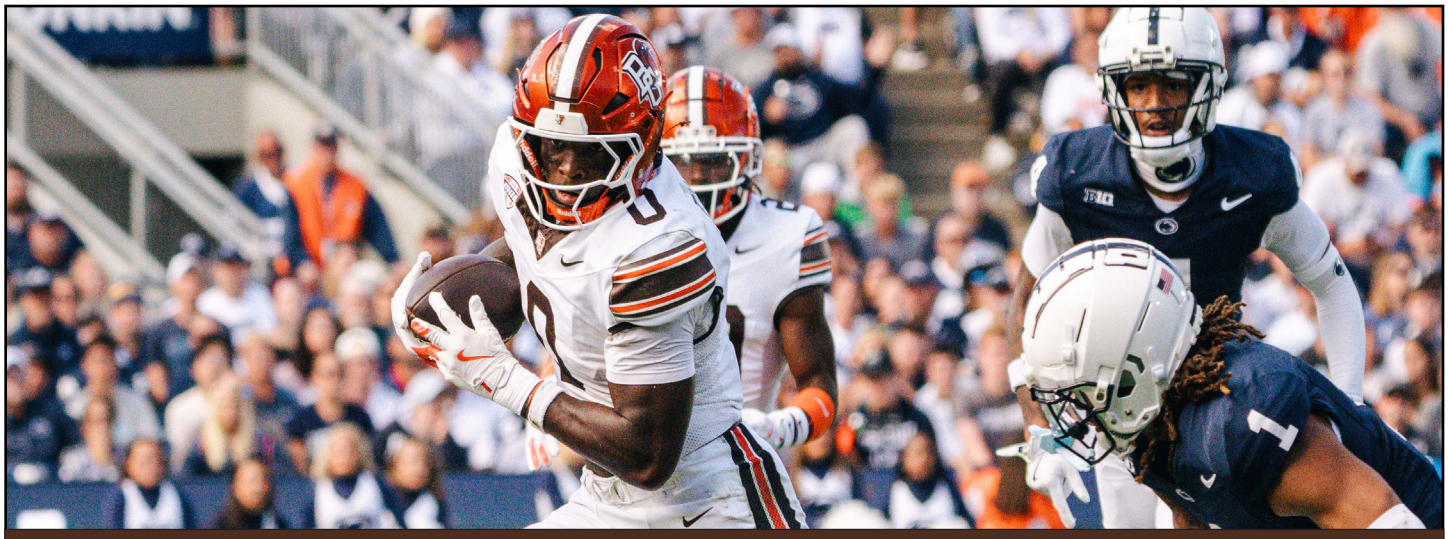
Probably the most honored football player ever at BGSU, Brian McClure earned first-team All-MAC honors four times and was twice named MAC POY. McClure completed his career second only to Doug Flutie in NCAA history with 10,280 yards passing and 9,774 yards of total offense.



Phil Villapiano, a three-year starter at defensive end for the Falcons, was a first-team All-MAC selection as a junior and senior. In 1970, Villapiano's efforts were rewarded by being named MAC Defensive Player of the Year.

BGSU HISTORY • ALL-MAC PERFORMERS

1 National Championship • 12 MAC Championships • 16 Bowl Appearances



Harold Fannin Jr.'s 2024 season was one for the history books. He became the first tight end in FBS history to be named a conference MVP when the MAC honored him with the Vern Smith Award. Fannin led all tight ends nationally in more than 105 offensive categories and topped all receivers in over 20 offensive categories, including receiving yards and receptions. Additionally, he set 10 FBS records in 2024 and became BGSU's first consensus All-American.

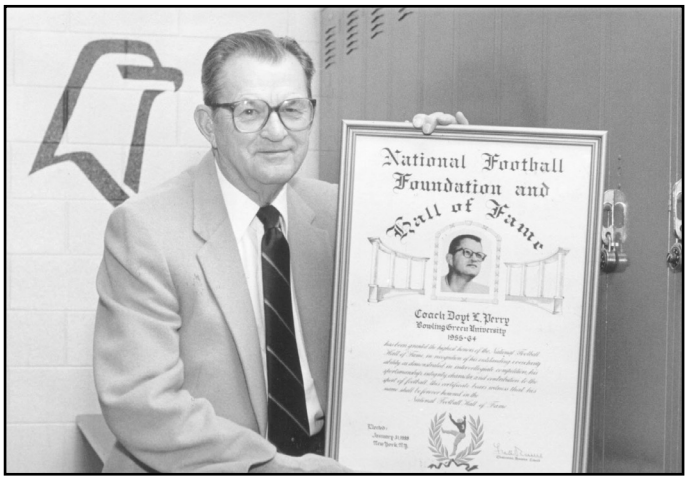
DOYT L. PERRY

1988 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee



The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by many who are associated with the football program at BGSU. That year Doyt L. Perry, a former player, coach and administrator was recognized by the National Football Foundation with its top honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Perry traveled to New York in December of 1988 for the Foundation's Hall of Fame dinner and was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in June, 1989, in ceremonies held at Kings Island, Ohio.

Perry's association with BGSU dates back to the 1920s when he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, Ohio native received his degree in 1932. He began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant at Ohio State in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater in 1955, leading the football program to a 77-11-5 (.855) record over the next 11 years. His teams won five Mid-American Conference titles and one national college division championship in 1959. Perry's winning percentage ranks fifth on the all-time NCAA list.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director, developed such outstanding coaches as Bill Mallory, Don Nehlen, Larry Smith, and the late Dave McClain. Many more of Perry's former assistants and players have gone on to enjoy success in the coaching profession.

Perry passed away in February of 1992. At his memorial service former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler, an assistant on Perry's 1955 staff, said, "I don't believe I can name a coach, anywhere, anytime, anyhow, who did it better than Doyt Perry."

A documentary on Perry's career was released in May of 1998. It was produced by WBGU-TV.

DON NEHLEN

2005 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

Don Nehlen played quarterback at Bowling Green from 1955-1957. He came home for his first collegiate head coaching job. He spent nine years at BGSU winning 53 games. After three seasons as an assistant to Bo Schembechler at Michigan, he took the West Virginia head coach job.

At WVU, he led the Mountaineers to a bowl bid in his second season and produced four consecutive top-20 teams. In 1988, he had an undefeated regular season and played Notre Dame for the National Championship in the Fiesta Bowl. He was named the 1988 Dodd Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Another undefeated regular season followed just five years later. In 30 seasons as a head coach he won 202 games, and had only five losing seasons.

He concluded his career with a head coaching record of 202-128-8.

URBAN MEYER

2025 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

Urban Meyer was selected as part of the 2025 College Football Hall of Fame class. Winning 85 percent of his games and claiming three national titles, Meyer guided four different FBS programs and became one of the most successful and transformative coaches in college football history. The Toledo, Ohio, native was the third from Bowling Green to enter the College Football Hall of Fame.

Meyer's coaching career began at Bowling Green, where he orchestrated a dramatic turnaround, making the Falcons the first Mid-American Conference (MAC) team to go 3-0 against BCS opponents in a single season (2001) and posting a 17-6 record during two seasons.

Meyer set a major college record with 165 wins in his first 15 seasons, and his 85.4 winning percentage ranks third all-time in college football history, trailing only Hall of Fame coaches Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy. His postseason success was equally impressive, with a 12-3 bowl record (78.5 percent win rate), the second-highest in FBS history. In total, Meyer coached 44 First Team All-Americans, 77 First Team all-conference players, four NFF National Scholar-Athletes (two at Florida, two at Ohio State) and two College Football Hall of Fame inductees. He won seven conference championships overall. He was named the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year in 2004, and he was named the conference Coach of the Year three times (MWC in 2003, 2004 and MAC in 2001).

Retired Jersey

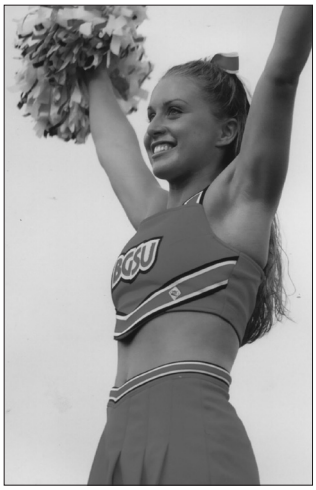
The only football jersey retired at Bowling Green is No. 29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

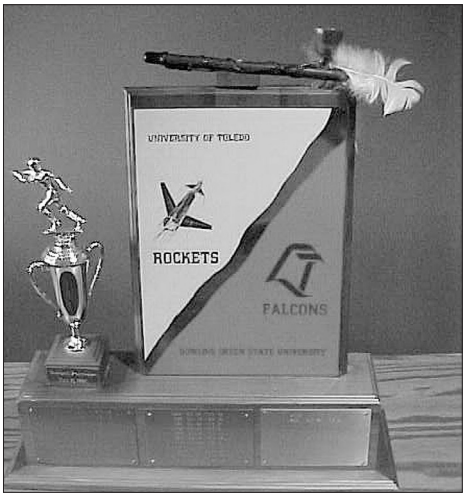
Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is unveiled at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?

The 2025-26 athletic year marks the 98th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."





PEACE PIPE AWARD

The Peace Pipe was a traveling award that went to the winner of the annual gridiron battle between Bowling Green and Toledo. The Peace Pipe tradition actually began on the basketball court during the 1947-48 season. At that time, the teams exchanged a six-foot long wooden peace pipe. The original basketball Peace Pipe disappeared, so, in 1980, the Peace Pipe was reinstated for football with former UT football player Frank Kralik creating the present trophy. Today's Peace Pipe is a smaller version of the original pipe, resting atop a trophy. The Peace Pipe was eliminated prior to the 2011 season and replaced by the "Battle of I-75" Trophy.

ANNIVERSARY AWARD

The Anniversary Award is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the football game between Bowling Green and Kent State. Established in 1985 by the respective alumni departments at BGSU and KSU, the Anniversary Award commemorates the founding of BGSU and KSU in the year 1910.

DOYT L. PERRY STADIUM

Doyt L. Perry Stadium has added lights, a new scoreboard, turf, chairback seating and the Sebo Athletic Center since 2001

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 24,000 seating capacity, is celebrating its 60th season as the home of Bowling Green State University football. In 2001 permanent lighting was installed at the venue and home attendance doubled. In 2007 FieldTurf and the Sebo Athletic Center were added and in 2012 a high definition video board in the south endzone was installed. A new synthetic turf surface, featuring Shaw Sports Turf's PowerBlade Pro system, was installed in the summer of 2016.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982 (Those bleachers have been removed to give way for the Sebo Athletic Center, giving BGSU the 24,000 current capacity). One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium set the conference record for single-game attendance.

On Oct. 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an average of 22,422. In 1994, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

In 2003, Falcon faithful attended sellout games against Northern Illinois and Toledo as ESPN broadcast three games live from the facility and brought its weekly college football show, College Gameday, to Bowling Green. That year, BGSU averaged more than 21,000 per home game and Perry Stadium remains the only MAC football stadium to have hosted College Gameday.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes locker rooms, equipment rooms, and some Athletic Department offices. The west side is the home of the BGSU Golf Training Center, filled with a 1,200 square foot putting green, locker rooms and hitting bays, as well as offices for both men's and women's soccer.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. The Stadium Club's 106 theatre-type seats provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President's Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for the University President and his guests, along with other supporters of Falcon football.

The construction of elevators on both sides of the stadium, completed in early 1998, has made the stadium more accessible for all fans. Renovations to all boxes on both sides and the stadium club have taken place over the last few years making for a more fan-friendly atmosphere. Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on Oct. 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 60 percent of their home games, compiling a 177-115-5 record in the 297 games played at Perry Stadium.

In the event that a BGSU player does not hold a record, the top Falcon performance is also listed.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is sixth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame), Frank Leahy (Notre Dame), Larry Kehres (Mount Union) and Jeff Devanney (Trinity, Conn.) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years (1965-71) after stepping down as football coach.

The football facility at BGSU was formally dedicated as Doyt L. Perry Stadium on Sept. 26, 1992. Present for the ceremony were (l-r) Perry's children D.L., Judy Perry McClain, David and Doyt's wife Loretta. They are joined by John Mahaney, former president of the Board of Trustees, former University President Paul J. Olscamp and former Athletic Director Jack Gregory.
