THE EVENTS CENTER

Completed in 2004, the 156,000 square foot complex is the largest sports facility of its kind within 75 miles of Binghamton. Basketball seating swells to 4,923 fans and includes courtside seating and a student section that seats more than 1,000 members of the boisterous student fan base.

The arena served as the host venue for the first three rounds of the 2005, 2006 and 2008 America East Men's Basketball Championships, the entire 2007 America East Women's Basketball Championship and the pinnacle event — the 2009 America East Men's Basketball Championship Game. A sellout crowd of 5,342 and a nationally televised ESPN2 audience witnessed Binghamton's 61-51 victory over UMBC. That win gave the Bearcats their first conference title and inaugural NCAA berth.

In 2015 and 2016, the first two rounds of the America East Women's Basketball Championship were held at the Events Center.

With unwavering campus and community support, the men's program led the America East in attendance for an unprecedented nine straight seasons between 2004-12 and the women's team has annually been among the conference leaders in attendance.

In addition to athletics, the Events Center has been the host for dozens of concerts, shows, festivals and other prominent area events annually.

"Binghamton is building from the ground up — literally. Their facility is one of the most beautiful mid-sized facilities in the nation, and Binghamton provided the most efficient and well-run conference tournament I've ever attended."

— ESPN.com writer Kyle Whelliston

"This campus has an academic reputation that is unmatched in our system. But it has needed this facility to round out the rest of the picture. This facility will say something to those who say, 'Do I want to come here?' I'm thrilled for the campus and I'm thrilled for the system."

— Jim Satalin, former color commentator,
America East Television

"This is a world-class facility. What this does for our community is just tremendous."

— Former New York State Senator Thomas W. Libous

HARVEY STENGER PRESIDENT

A native of upstate N.Y., Stenger was appointed president at Binghamton University in Nov. 2011, and assumed his duties Jan. 1, 2012. Prior to coming to Binghamton, he served as interim provost at the University at Buffalo, where he had been dean of the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences since 2006. A chemical engineer by training, he earned his bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from Cornell University in 1979, and his doctorate in the same discipline from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1983.

Prior to joining the administration at UB, Stenger was a professor at Lehigh University's College of Engineering and Applied Science, where he also served as dean for six years and served terms as co-chair of the Department of Chemical Engineering and director of the Environmental Studies Center.

As an administrator, his emphasis has been on expanding graduate programs and enrollment, adding academic programs, increasing international research and academic partnerships, strategically hiring faculty and increasing enrollment. Since his arrival at Binghamton, he launched the Road Map to Premier strategic planning process, involving more than 400 students, faculty, staff, alumni, community members and business leaders, and in 2017, updated the plan through the Road Map Renewal, which also involved hundreds of stakeholders; and established the new School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, which enrolled its first class in 2017.

With a focus on academic excellence, operational excellence and University growth, the University is moving forward on its journey to becoming the premier public university.

DENNIS KALINA INTERIM DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

A veteran Division I administrator, Dennis Kalina was named Interim Director of Athletics in April 2021, capping a steady rise in scope and stature in his first decade on campus. Named to succeed retiring AD Patrick Elliott, Kalina will serve in the interim role for 18 months before a national search commences. He carries more than 25 years of college athletics administrative experience and has built a track record of widespread accomplishments and trusted collaboration at Binghamton.

A native of Portage, Ind., Kalina was hired in 2012 and began by overseeing Binghamton's external relations area, including major gifts, the annual fund, marketing and promotions, corporate partnerships, ticketing, merchandising and licensing. In all, he was responsible for generating and overseeing a budget of $1.3 million annually.

Before Binghamton, Kalina served as an administrator at Bradley University, Northwestern State University and Indiana University.

Kalina worked extensively with the nationally-prominent men's and women's basketball programs at Gonzaga for six years and before that was a key contributor as associate AD at Bradley in Peoria, Ill.

At Gonzaga, Kalina managed the comprehensive external operations that included major gifts, the annual fund, basketball ticketing, marketing and promotions, communications, video services and website. He solicited gifts for capital projects and scholarship initiatives and as a member of the senior staff, was instrumental in the development of the department's 5-year Strategic Business Plan. Kalina also had oversight of special development projects and events for the athletic department.

A former Division I track athlete, Kalina earned his bachelor's degree in sports marketing and management at Indiana in 1995. He stayed in Bloomington and received his master's degree in athletic administration one year later.

Dennis and his wife, Dina, have two children: daughter Addison Shelby and son Canyon Marek.

THE AMERICA EAST ON ESPN NETWORKS

For the seventh straight season, all Binghamton University men's and women's basketball conference games will be available on the ESPN family of networks. The games, produced on each of the 10 member institution campuses, will air either on ESPN3 or ESPN+. The AE on ESPN is the home to more than 3,000 games from a variety of sports over the span of a decade.

Tim Heiman is the ESPN play-by-play announcer for both the Binghamton men's and women's basketball teams. He was the Bearcats' women's basketball play-by-play announcer for four seasons before taking over men's and women's calling duties for ESPN in 2019. Previously, Heiman was the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for the Binghamton Double-A baseball organization. In addition to his basketball duties, Heiman is the lead play-by-play announcer for BU soccer, lacrosse, volleyball, baseball and softball live streams on ESPN platforms.

Heiman will again be joined by color analyst Doug Walsh, a 20+ year veteran of radio and television broadcasting in the Scranton/Wilkes Barre area. He also coached collegiately at Lackawanna College, Keystone College and Marywood University.

HEAD COACH LEVELL SANDERS

Coming off a noted season of accomplishments and program progress, Level Sanders begins his second year as head coach in 2022-23.

In his first season at the helm after being promoted from assistant coach, Sanders led the Bearcats to a berth in the America East semifinals after the team was picked to finish last. Along the way, his team achieved the program's highest conference win total in 12 years and had a winning conference road record for the first time in 13 years.

After the season, Sanders was one of 15 finalists for the 2022 Joe B. Hall Award, presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

The 2021-22 Bearcats (12-17, 8-10 America East) led the America East in rebounding and 3-point defense and ranked second in field goal percentage defense and blocked shots. Of the team's losses, six were by five or fewer points or in overtime. Binghamton reached the semifinals with a riveting 72-69 road win over third-seeded New Hampshire in the quarterfinals.

The team's uprising drew nearly 25,000 fans to the Events Center this winter. In home conference games, BU drew an average of 2,023 fans, third-highest in the America East.

Sanders, 46, was hired in June 2019 and worked two seasons as an assistant coach before being promoted to head coach on March 1, 2021.

"Level Sanders possesses wide-ranging and successful experience as a player and coach, on both the intercollegiate and professional levels," then Director of Athletics Patrick Elliott said when announcing the promotion. "We are appreciative of Level's willingness to lead the program at this time, and are confident he will continue to develop BU basketball and our student-athletes to on-court success."

A Brooklyn native, he returned to the states after a noteworthy coaching career in the Czech Republic. For five years, he coached BK JIP Pardubice, leading the team to the elimination rounds of the 2017 FIBA Europe Cup and being named All-Czech Republic League Coach of the Year. His teams won at an 84 percent clip and captured bronze medals in the KNBL Czech League three straight years between 2015-18.

Sanders was selected to be a member of the coaching staff of the Czech Republic U18 National Team that competed at the 2017 European Championships.

As a player, Sanders scored 1,399 career points at Seton Hall before embarking on a successful 15-year professional career overseas. With the Pirates, Sanders averaged 12.4 points in 113 games and was named second team All-BIG EAST in 1998. A BIG EAST academic all-star, he graduated in 1998

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT COACH SANDERS ...

"I have taught, led, and coached many outstanding players and people over many years. Levell is as good as any when it comes to talent, integrity, intelligence, teammate, leader, and dependability. He embodies the definition of a Winner. He is the kind of teacher and leader our younger generation needs to learn from. On and off the court."

— Tommy Amaker, former Duke All-American, Seton Hall head coach and current Harvard head coach

"One of my biggest regrets leaving Seton Hall for the NBA was never having the opportunity to coach Levell. I've always been proud to follow his many achievements as a player and coach. He's a fantastic person and will do an excellent job for Binghamton University."

— P.J. Carlesimo, former Seton Hall, NBA and Olympic coach who recruited Levell Sanders to Seton Hall

"I have known Levell for some time and he has always been a hard worker and a high character person who connects with many different people. He is a class act!! He is a seasoned coach who can teach, recruit, and knows the game. I am excited that Levell has been given the opportunity to be the next coach at Binghamton. He will do a great job of representing the university both on the court and in the community."

— Adrian Autry, former Syracuse All-BIG EAST guard and current Syracuse associate head coach

"I have had the privilege of playing with Coach Sanders in college. Even as a freshman, Levell possessed great leadership skills but more than anything, he had an uncanny way of connecting with every single guy on our team. It doesn't surprise me of the success he's had as a player and as a coach."

— Adrian Griffin, former Seton Hall teammate, NBA guard and current Toronto Raptors assistant coach

"I truly felt cheated that I didn't have the opportunity to coach Levell for all four of his years at Seton Hall. He was an ambassador for Seton Hall basketball as well as being the epitome of a student-athlete and most importantly a great person. Levell's attention to detail and basketball intelligence were very impressive. He was driven to be the best player he could be ... all traits of a good future coach. Binghamton University and the community are very lucky to have a coach of Levell's character and caliber."

— Rob Jackson, former Seton Hall assistant coach and current San Antonio Spurs regional scout

"As a player Levell had many traits found in all successful coaches. The ability to communicate with his teammates and coaches, he was a student of the game, he was prepared for all situations, he had a strong work ethic and desire to get better. I am excited to watch Levell's journey as a head coach at Binghamton University."

— Bruce Hamburger, former Seton Hall assistant coach and current FDU associate head coach

"Binghamton has chosen a leader, teacher and father who will provide his players with life lessons that they will carry with them forever. They may not like the adversity while they are going through it but they will respect the process after they graduate."

— AJ Speaks, Seton Hall alumnus and current Miami Heat senior broadcast producer

"Levell was one of the hardest working players and one of the best teammates I've ever played with. His passion, hard work, strong character and his love for the game took him across the world, where he gained invaluable experience as a player, coach and human being. Not many American coaches had an opportunity to play and learn as a player and as a head coach in Europe. His knowledge, passion and fanaticism will make him one of the best coaches in college basketball and beyond."

— Rimas Kaukenas, Former Seton Hall teammate and professional basketball player

"I am so excited for Levell and the Binghamton program. Playing in the backcourt with him at Seton Hall, I just knew he would make an outstanding coach. His basketball intelligence and feel for the game were outstanding and he was a natural leader with an engaging personality. He will turn that program into a consistent winner and contender."

— Dan Hurley, former Seton Hall teammate and current UConn head coach

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH BRIAN JOHNSON

Johnson was hired in June 2019 and begins his fourth season at Binghamton in 2022-23 and second as associate head coach.

A native of Annapolis, Johnson came to Binghamton after serving as head coach at NCAA Division III Southern Vermont College in 2018-19. He led the Mountaineers to a 16-win season that was fueled by a pair of all-conference recruits.

The two prior years, Johnson was head coach at Prince George's Community College in Largo, Md. There, he led the Owls to the 2017 Maryland Junior Conference Tournament crown. His teams were Regional XX Championship finalists in back-to-back years and he was named the Finnestmag.com Maryland Junior College Coach of the Year in 2017 after leading PGCC to a 21-9 mark.

Johnson brought crucial conference experience, having served as an assistant at fellow America East school UMBC between 2013-16. There, he recruited and developed two elite UMBC guards in Rodney Elliott (2014 AE Rookie of Year) and Jarius Lyles (NBA G League).

Johnson scored 1,017 career points at University of Delaware before graduating with a degree in sociology in 2010. With the Hens, he earned CAA All-Rookie honors and graduated among the program's all-time top-10 in minutes played (2nd with 3,987), assists (3rd with 510) and 3-pointers (8th with 135).

Brian and his wife, Alison, have two daughters, Emery (2) and Giuliana (1).

ASSISTANT COACH MARLON GUILD

Veteran coach Marlon Guild joined the Bearcats program in June 2021 and begins his second year as an assistant coach in 2022-23.

The Brooklyn native has 14 years experience as a Division I assistant, having finished successful stints at Saint Peter's (7 years) and Rider (6). While at Saint Peter's Guild helped steer the Peacocks to the NCAA tournament in 2011. Guild has spent the last six years at Rider, where the Broncos averaged nearly 19 wins a season in a four-year stretch from 2016-20, featuring a MAAC regular season title and NIT berth in 2018.

"Marlon brings great basketball knowledge and coaching experience that has allowed him to excel in Division I Athletics for more than a decade," head coach Levell Sanders said of the hire. "He has the enthusiasm, love and patience required to develop student-athletes. We are lucky to have Marlon and his family join our Binghamton family!"

During his time at Rider, Guild helped steer the Broncos to three straight top-three finishes. The 2017-18 squad went 22-10, including a dominant 15-3 mark in the MAAC. After capturing the conference regular season crown, Rider advanced to the NIT tournament. His recruiting and development translated into seven all-conference selections in the MAAC.

At Saint Peter's, Guild focused on the development of the Peacock guards and under his tutelage, two of them (Wesley Jenkins and Nick Leon) surpassed the 1,000-point plateau and led the program to the 2011 MAAC tournament title.

He began his college coaching experience at Eastern Connecticut State in 2007. He also coached five years with the Connecticut Basketball Club AAU, now known as NE6 on the Under Armour Association circuit. During his time with the 17U club, 23 players moved on to Division I basketball.

Guild also served as a recruiting analyst with Rivals.com for two years and a college basketball consultant with ESPN for four years.

Guild earned his bachelor's degree in communication from University of Hartford in 2005. He received his master's degree in athletic leadership from Rider in 2018.

ASSISTANT COACH PATRICK NORRIS

Patrick Norris begins his fifth year at Binghamton in 2022-23 and second as assistant head coach.

Norris joined the Bearcats in 2018 and quickly earned two promotions with his hard work and attention to detail. He was the Director of Player Development for two seasons after beginning his tenure as the team's program assistant.

"I have witnessed Patrick do a wonderful job organizing everything for the program the last two years," head coach Levell Sanders said when announcing Patrick's promotion in 2021. "I also got the opportunity to know Patrick and realized he is a bright person with a lot of basketball knowledge who will help push our program in the right direction. Patrick being from Binghamton is just icing on the cake."

A native of Binghamton, N.Y., Norris completed his bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Notre Dame in 2017. He earned his master's degree in public administration from Binghamton in 2018.

While at Notre Dame, Norris was a student manager for the men's basketball program from 2013-16. During those three seasons, the Irish posted a record of 61-35, won an ACC Championship, and made back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight.

Norris was involved in every aspect of Mike Brey's program, and worked closely with several players who would go on to have success in professional basketball, including: NBA Champion Pat Connaughton, 1st Team All-American Jerian Grant, Demetrius Jackson, Bonzie Colson, and Zach Auguste, among several others.

Norris' family has strong ties to Binghamton Men's Basketball. His Uncle Jim served as the Head Coach from 1996-2000 while the program transitioned to Division I. He then worked for several years as a senior member of the athletics department, before ultimately becoming the Director of Athletics in 2009. He happily retired in 2011, and is a Binghamton Athletics Hall of Fame member. Patrick credits his passion for basketball to his uncle.

WITH STRONGEST ROSTER IN YEARS, BU SETS SITES ON CLIMBING INTO CONTENTION

SECOND-YEAR HEAD COACH SANDERS HAS DEEP LINEUP, EXPECTS BEARCATS TO CONTINUE RISE IN AMERICA EAST

Binghamton made significant strides during a 2021-22 campaign that featured eight conference wins ended with the program's second semifinal appearance in the last four years. But head coach Levell Sanders thinks this year's unit, led by first team all-conference selection Jacob Falko and All Defensive Team pick Christian Hinckson and boosted by several impact newcomers, is capable of accelerating BU's rise in the America East.

"We are much more talented and athletic up and down the roster than last year," Sanders said. "We have better on-ball defenders, which will help us become a better defensive team. And we are a more together, unified team."

America East coaches must agree with Sanders' optimism, having slotted Binghamton fourth in the preseason poll. It's the highest the Bearcats have been picked in six years and tied for highest in the program's 22-year Division I history.

In Sanders' first year at the helm last winter, BU posted its highest conference win total in 12 seasons and then upended No. 3 New Hampshire in the America East quarterfinals. Binghamton defeated every conference opponent at least once, save for the two tournament finalists (Vermont and UMBC).

With four starters back and three impact transfers in the fold, competition for minutes will be strong and Sanders will be afforded options that were previously limited.

Falko central to team's success

Senior guard Jacob Falko enters his second and final season at Binghamton with the chance to become the program's first-ever two-time America East first team all-conference player. In his BU debut season last winter, Falko averaged 15.4 points (49% FG) and 3.8 assists in conference play, scored 20 or more points seven times and spearheaded the postseason win with a gutsy 21-point performance coming off an injury. Falko was named to the preseason all-conference team and his ability to get to the rim and be a threat from beyond the arc (42% 3FG in postseason) makes him a potent offensive player.

"Jake does everything," Sanders said. "We ask him to score and also be a facilitator and he does so many things well. He's come into preseason lighter and more explosive and we will need him to be who he was last year and even better for us to take the next step."

Junior John McGriff returns to run the point after a solid first season with the program last year. McGriff averaged 12.1 points and shot 39 percent from 3-point range in conference play. He was able to break down opponents on the dribble and find the open man and like Falko, McGriff peaked down the stretch, shooting 46 percent over the final seven games of the season with three 15+ point games. He produced five or more assists five times, and delivered a clutch, acrobatic bucket for the deciding points in the quarterfinal win over New Hampshire.

Senior sharpshooter Dan Petcash has played 66 games as a Bearcat and returns after a solid 2021-22 season that was compromised by injury. Petcash missed eight games but averaged 31 minutes as a starter and remains one of the team's most reliable defenders. He also is the team's best pure shooter with career averages of 46 percent overall, 40 percent from 3-point range and 87 percent from the line.

"Dan does all the right things," Sanders said. "He's always in the right place and is a steady force for us. Dan is one of our better perimeter defenders and shoots at a very high percentage. We want him to be more aggressive with his shot this season."

Senior guard Jacob Falko

Freshman Masud Stewart and sophomore transfer Matt Solomon are also viable guards off the bench. Stewart hails from scholastic power Neuman-Goretti in Philadelphia, where he averaged 11.5 points and 2.2 assists and led the program to its ninth state title last winter. Solomon began his collegiate career at Cal State-Northridge after averaging 25.1 points as a senior at Newbury Park High in California. He is a scoring threat from beyond the arc.

Do-it-all Hinckson leads trio of outstanding wing players

Graduate student Christian Hinckson played a pivotal role in BU's success last season because of his ability to score, rebound and defend. Hinckson was the lone Bearcat to play all 29 games and in conference play, he produced 10.1 points, 7.6 rebounds and 1.1 blocks, becoming BU's first All-Defensive Team selection in four years. Hinckson shot 47 percent and had four double-doubles in conference play. He also pulled down 12 rebounds in 29 hard minutes during the quarterfinal win at UNH. A veteran who has played 106 college games, Hinckson will again log heavy minutes due to his work rate and versatility.

"Christian is a good rebounder who can guard anyone on the floor," Sanders said. "He can play multiple positions and shoots the ball well. We want him to be more aggressive on the offensive end this season."

A pair of transfers, Miles Gibson and Armon Harried, bring more firepower and athleticism to Binghamton's lineup this season.

Gibson played two seasons at Eastern Michigan (10.8 ppg.) and last year at MSU Denver (13.1 ppg.) and has quickly shown to be a two-way contributor. His ability to play the two, three or four spot on the floor has Sanders excited.

"Miles has been a pleasant surprise," Sanders said. "He's older, has a lot of experience and can probably play all five positions. He does so many things well and will see a lot of time on the floor. We are looking forward to getting him out there."

Harried is another veteran who has shined at this level, having played 77 games as a three year starter for fellow New York program Canisius. Last season, he averaged 11.2 points in nearly 30 minutes a game. Harried is a former first team All-Baltimore Metro scholastic player whose pedigree traces to his father, Herman "Tree" Harried, who starred up the road at Syracuse in the late 1980s.

Newcomer Balogun boosts post play

Six-foot-10, 240-pound junior transfer Tariq Balogun will provide a big boost to the interior group, which returns three players, including returning center Ogheneyole Akuwovo.

Balogun played 74 games over three seasons at Eastern Kentucky in the Atlantic Sun Conference. Last season he shot 58 percent from the floor and blocked nearly a shot and a half per game (team-high 30).

"Tariq is another guy we are really high on," Sanders said. "He's a load inside and is an explosive, athletic center who can score and block shots. I expect him to be one of the better 'big's' in the America East and because of his presence down low, we want to play inside-out."

Six-foot-9 Akowovo started 17 games for BU last season and registered a pair of double-digit scoring games down the stretch. He was a strong finisher in the paint (59%).

Senior Taveion White remains an outstanding post defender with great athleticism and work rate. He logged 32 minutes a game in back-to-back BU wins over Stony Brook and Maine last February.

Fourth-year BU veteran Ador Athuai gives the Bearcats another long body off the bench. A mobile 6-foot-11, Athuai is another shot blocker.

Schedule features games at Maryland, Fordham, La Salle

The 2022-23 schedule has 13 non-conference games before the 16-game America East slate begins on New Year's Eve.

Binghamton will play teams from six different conferences, highlighted by marquee games at Maryland, La Salle and Fordham.

The Bearcats open the season with a home game against Cazenovia on November 7. Binghamton will play seven non-conference games at Dr. Bai Lee Court at the Events Center, where the program has been among the league leaders in attendance for nearly two decades. Also coming to Vestal will be Sacred Heart (Nov. 19), Columbia (Nov. 23), Loyola (Nov. 30), Stonehill (Dec. 3), Colgate (Dec. 7) and Oneonta (Dec. 17).

The road games feature a Nov. 15 encounter with Big Ten member Maryland. It will be the first-ever meeting between the two programs. Atlantic-10 residents La Salle (Nov. 26) and Fordham (Dec. 9) represent two more formidable opponents.

Binghamton will continue longstanding series' with in-state rivals Cornell (Nov. 29) and Colgate (Dec. 7) and will also keep recent opponents Sacred Heart (Nov. 19), Columbia (Nov. 23) and Loyola (Nov. 30) on the schedule. For the first time in 16 years, BU will face MAAC member Niagara (Dec. 21).

The 16-game America East slate consists of a home-and-home matchup against the eight other members, including first-year conference member Bryant. The conference slate begins in late December and runs through the end of February. The top eight teams will advance to the America East tournament, which begins with quarterfinals on March 4.

Junior guard John McGriff

America East might be more talented than ever this year

Perennial conference power Vermont and potent newcomer Bryant were slotted 1-2 in the preseason poll but thanks to the transfer portal and continuity among the league's head coaches, many think the overall talent is the highest it's ever been in the conference. Binghamton is among several teams who will be challenged to mesh high-level newcomers with returning players into a cohesive group by the time America East play begins in January.

"We want to build our defensive identity early in the season," Sanders said. "We have to cut down on our opponents' scoring to get to the top of the league. We have a ton of guys who can do a lot and now it's a matter of finding our combinations and attacking and 'winning' every day. We want to put ourselves in position to be champions and that takes preparing like champions every day. If we do that, we will be fine at the end."

TEAM TIDBITS

- Head Coach Levell Sanders starred at Seton Hall in the late 1990s, where he squared off against BIG EAST (and NBA legends) Allen Iverson (Georgetown), Ray Allen (UConn), Rip Hamilton (UConn), Kerry Kittles (Villanova) and Lawrence Moten (Syracuse).
- The Bearcats have the oldest team in their program history this season and one of the oldest in the country. The 12 players will begin the season with an average age of 22. Only one player is younger than 21 (freshman Masud Stewart) and the roster has a combined 28 seasons of NCAA basketball (avg. 2.3).
- Graduate forward Miles Gibson is the oldest Bearcat at 24 1/2 years old. Gibson is from Richmond, Va. and his college path has taken him from Northwest Kansas Tech College to Eastern Michigan University to Metropolitan State University of Denver (MSU Denver) and now Binghamton.
- Graduate forward Christian Hinckson has the most NCAA Division I experience of any Bearcat, having played in 106 collegiate games between Manhattan College (63 in two years) and Binghamton (43 in two years).
- Senior guard Jacob Falko is the only returning all-conference player (of 15) in the America East, which has had significant turnover (individuals and teams) from last season. Falko was a first team all-conference selection and is on the five-man preseason all-conference team.
- Falko also is a trained pianist. He started playing at age 5 and was taught by his grandfather. Falko's mom and all seven of his siblings can play. He has been known to perform for his teammates on hotel lobby pianos and can read music and play by ear.
- Junior forward Armon Harried is the son of former Syracuse standout Herman "Tree" Harried, who helped lead the Orange to four NCAA tournaments, capped with a title game appearance in 1987. His dad coached Armon in high school at Lake Clifton High in Baltimore. Armon's childhood nickname is "Nuke," given by his mother.
- Junior center Tariq Balogun is well-traveled. He was born in Italy and raised in England. Balogun came to the States as a sophomore in high school and then played his final two scholastic seasons at Miller School of Albemarle in Charlottesville, Va. From there he played his first three NCAA seasons at Eastern Kentucky University.
- Graduate center Ogheneyole "Savior" Akuwovo won a New Jersey state championship and Tournament of Champions title for legendary coach Bob Hurley at St. Anthony's as a sophomore. The school closed after his junior year and he finished his scholastic career at Ranney School.
- Akuwovo's legal guardian is former Seton Hall legend and NBA player Terry Dehere.
- Akuwovo is a fashion designer and tailor. He learned to sew and hem clothes from his father, who is a tailor in Nigeria.
- Senior center Ador Athuai has 14 siblings — seven brothers and seven sisters.
- Freshman guard Masud Stewart hails from Newumann-Goretti High in Philadelphia, one of the most fabled high school basketball programs in the country. Stewart helped lead the program to its ninth state championship last winter. Neumann-Goretti was ranked No. 11 by MaxPreps in its listing of the top 100 scholastic basketball dynasties.
- Binghamton has led the America East in home attendance in 10 of the last 17 years.
- Binghamton was picked fourth in the America East Coaches' Preseason Poll. It equals the highest the team has ever been picked in 22 years of America East membership. Previously, the program was picked fourth in 2005-06, 2007-08 and 2016-17.

The Bearcats had a resurgent season that ended with a trip to the America East semifinals after the team was picked to finish last. Along the way, the Bearcats achieved the program's highest conference win total in 12 years and had a winning conference road record for the first time in 13 years.

The team produced a first-team all-conference selection (Jacob Falko) for the first time in 12 years, its first All-Defensive Team selection (Christian Hinckson) in four years and beat every team in the America East except the two championship finalists. Despite having to utilize 13 different starting lineups during the season, the team's depth resulted in six different players scoring 20 or more points in a game - second-most in the entire nation.

The Bearcats led the America East in rebounding and 3-point defense and ranked second in field goal percentage, defense and blocked shots. Of the team's losses, six were by five or fewer points or in overtime.

Binghamton reached the semifinals with a riveting 72-69 road win over third-seeded New Hampshire in the quarterfinals.

The team's uprising drew nearly 25,000 fans to the Events Center. In home conference games, BU drew an average of 2,023 fans, third-highest in the America East.

First-year head coach Levell Sanders garnered national attention when he was named as one of 15 finalists for the 2022 Joe B. Hall Award. The award is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

2021-22 NOTABLES

AMERICA EAST TOURNAMENT HISTORY

2004 TOURNAMENT (BOSTON)

Quarterfinals – March 6

#4 Maine 79, #5 Binghamton 77 (OT)

In a hotly contested America East Conference Tournament quarterfinal game, Maine was awarded two decisive free throws with 3.9 seconds remaining in overtime, and advanced with the win at Walter Brown Arena in Boston. The Black Bears went 6-for-6 from the line in the final 59 seconds to pull out the win.

The game was tied 77-77 with time running out in the overtime period when Maine's Eric Dobson launched a three-point shot that missed. In the ensuing scramble for the rebound, BU was whistled for a foul and the Black Bears sank the decisive free throws.

Trailing 53-41 with 12:58 left, the Bearcats went on a 19-7 run in a span of 5:19 to tie the game up at 60-60. Binghamton then took a 68-63 lead with 1:35 remaining in the second half, but was unable to put the Black Bears away and the game went into overtime.

Leading 75-73 with 57 seconds remaining in overtime, junior guard Billy Williams was whistled for a foul and classmate Nick Billings received a technical foul for arguing the call. Maine sank all four free throws to take a 77-75 lead. Sophomore guard Joel Casseus tied the game with 41 seconds to go, setting up the controversial finish.

2005 TOURNAMENT (BINGHAMTON)

#5 Binghamton 76, #4 Albany 70

Sophomore guard Troy Hailey scored a game-high 19 points and junior guard Andre Heard added 18 points, leading fifth-seeded Binghamton to a 76-70 win over fourth-seeded Albany in an America East Championship quarterfinal game. The win marked Binghamton's first-ever triumph in the America East Championship and secured a spot in Sunday's semifinal against top-seeded and two-time defending champion Vermont.

Junior forward Sebastian Hermenier added 13 points and had a team-high seven rebounds. Freshman guard Mike Gordon chipped nine points and senior center Alex Adediran also had seven rebounds.

Binghamton broke a 9-9 deadlock by going on a 10-2 run in a span of 3:45 to take a 21-11 lead with 9:07 remaining in the first half. Heard drained two three-pointers during the run. The Great Danes climbed back to within 24-22 with 4:44 left before the intermission but BU stretched the lead back to 34-26 at the break.

The Bearcats continued their momentum in the second half, going up 48-34 with 13:32 remaining. From there, Binghamton was able to keep a double-figure lead for most of the next 12 minutes and with 1:22 left to go, it held a 67-57 advantage.

The remaining 86 seconds, however, saw Albany get back into the game as the Bearcats went 6-for-13 from the free throw line. The Great Danes took advantage of the Bearcats' misses and got to within 73-70 on a three pointer by senior forward Aquawasi St. Hillaire with eight seconds left.

Heard, however, hit a critical free throw with seven seconds to go and Hermenier made two attempts with four seconds remaining to seal the win.

2005 TOURNAMENT (BINGHAMTON)

Semifinals – March 6

#1 Vermont 76, #5 Binghamton 65

Inspired by a deafening home crowd of 5,003 at the Events Center, fifth-seeded Binghamton gave it everything they had before succumbing to No. 1 Vermont 76-65, in the semifinals of the America East Championship.

Led by their super senior tandem of Taylor Coppenrath (34 points, 12 rebounds) and T.J. Sorrentine (25 points), the Catamounts shot 53% and withstood a late charge from the Bearcats. Binghamton, which led for much of the first half, trailed by 18 points with 6:17 left in the game before stringing together a 9-0 run with two steals and subsequent three-pointers. The run cut BU's deficit to nine, 68-59, with 3:34 left. But Vermont sank six free throws in the final 2:23, and BU made just two of its final nine shots.

Senior center Alex Adediran scored a career-high 21 points in his final collegiate game, and junior guard Andre Heard added 20 points for BU, which played inspired basketball against the two-time defending conference champions. During the regular season, BU had lost twice to Vermont by a combined 57 points.

The televised game was a college basketball fan's dream, as a raucous Events Center crowd featuring nearly 800 Binghamton students created a noise level that shook the basketball floor. Both teams were hot out of the gate, with the Catamounts hitting four of their first five shots and the Bearcats answering with 6-of-10 shooting to forge a 14-10 lead seven minutes into the contest. Binghamton led 25-21 with 8:08 left in the half before Vermont and specifically, Coppenrath and Sorrentine took over. The duo combined for 15 points to spark a 20-8 UVM run that ended the half and gave the Catamounts a 41-33 lead. Before missing its final two shots of the half, Vermont was shooting 63% from the floor, including 50% from beyond the arc (10-of-20).

Back-to-back buckets to start the second half brought the Bearcats to within four, 41-37, but UVM answered with an 8-0 run. Binghamton never came any closer than nine points the rest of the way.

2006 TOURNAMENT (BINGHAMTON)

Quarterfinals – March 4

#2 Binghamton 71, #7 Maine 62

Second-seeded Binghamton used a decisive 10-0 run late in the game to push past No. 7 Maine, 71-62, in the quarterfinals of the America East Championship. With the win, Binghamton advanced to the semifinals for the second consecutive season.

Senior guard Andre Heard scored 19 of his game-high 24 points in the second half and sparked the run with three points, including a highlight-reel dunk. With BU clinging to a 47-45 lead with 7:43 left, Heard made a free throw to begin the 10-0 run. Junior forward Duane James grabbed an offensive rebound off Heard's second free throw and his lay up made it 50-45. Heard took a fast-break pass from sophomore point guard Mike Gordon and his dunk pushed the lead to 52-47. Junior guard Troy Hailey added a three-pointer with 4:34 left to extend the margin to 55-45.

Heard hit 6-of-18 from the floor, including a pair of three-pointers, and sank 10-of-11 free throws. He was equally sharp on the defensive end, registering four steals, including three in the decisive second half. Heard also pulled down seven rebounds, good for second on the team.

James posted a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, and freshman forward Ian Milne chipped in 13 points on 5-of-9 shooting.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, each making just eight field goals in the opening frame. The Bearcats held an early 20-9 lead and carried a 25-21 lead into intermission.

2006 TOURNAMENT (BINGHAMTON)

Semifinals – March 5

#6 Vermont 66, #2 Binghamton 59

Sixth-seeded Vermont withstood an early barrage of three-pointers and refused to relinquish its conference crown in a 66-59 win over second-seeded Binghamton in the semifinals of the America East Championship. The Catamounts trailed by as many as 15 points in the first half but used a wide rebound advantage to take the lead for good early in the second half. Vermont then sank eight free throws in the final 1:35 to seal the win.

The Catamounts built a 44-29 margin on the glass and eased their way back into the game after BU jumped out to a 20-5 lead.

The Catamounts closed out the first half on a 14-1 run that was buoyed by an abundance of free throws. Binghamton was whistled for four fouls in a 1:42 span and Vermont capitalized at the line, sinking eight foul shots during the run and 24-of-33 for the game.

Senior guard Andre Heard exploded for 16 of his game-high 24 points in the first half, but was relatively quiet in the second before fouling out with 2:01 remaining. Heard missed his first shot of the game but then nailed five consecutive three-pointers — part of seven straight Bearcat treys. But the offense went cold late in the half during Vermont's 14-1 run, with BU going without a field goal for the final 6:29 of the half.

Heard hit 7-of-19 from the floor, including 6-of-10 from three-point range, in his final collegiate game. He concluded his two-year career at Binghamton with 911 points - the most of any BU player at the Division I level.

2007 TOURNAMENT (BOSTON)

Quarterfinals – March 3

#3 Boston 62, #6 Binghamton 58

Third-ranked Boston University rallied from 12 points down in each half to eliminate sixth-ranked Binghamton 62-58 in the America East quarterfinal game.

Boston guard Corey Lowe converted a driving lay up with 51 seconds left to break a 58-58 tie and after a BU miss at the other end, Carlos Strong sank two free throws with 20 seconds left for the final margin.

Senior guard Steve Proctor had forged the final tie of the game with a three-pointer with 2:13 left. Proctor scored a game-high 22 points on 8-for-13 shooting. But Binghamton couldn't stop Boston down the stretch and the Terriers converted four straight driving lay ups in the final five minutes.

Freshman forward Lazar Trifunovic collected 13 points and eight rebounds and junior guard Mike Gordon chipped in 11 points, five assists and three steals.

The Bearcats were sharp to start, jumping out to a 15-3 lead behind 11 points from Proctor. But after missing seven of its first nine shots, Boston put together a 17-4 run to take the lead 20-19. Binghamton, however, closed out the frame on a 7-0 run, punctuated with a Proctor three-pointer in the closing five seconds. After scoring Binghamton's first nine points, Proctor wound up with 14 points in the half.

AMERICA EAST TOURNAMENT HISTORY

2008 TOURNAMENT (BINGHAMTON)

Quarterfinals – March 8

#4 Vermont 65, #5 Binghamton 57

Fourth-seeded Vermont rallied from 11 points down in the second half to eliminate host and fifth-seeded Binghamton 65-57 in an America East quarterfinal game in the Events Center.

Senior guard Mike Gordon scored a game-high 23 points in his final collegiate performance, but the lack of another offensive option hurt the Bearcats down the stretch.

Nursing a 30-23 lead at the break, BU shot just 8-of-31 in the second half (26%) and the Catamounts erased an 11-point deficit before taking the lead for good with 4:58 to play. Sophomore forward Marqus Blakely, the America East Player of the Year, scored 11 of his team-high 18 points in the final frame. He converted a pair of free throws with 4:58 left to give Vermont a 51-49 lead and senior guard Kyle Cieplicki nailed a three-pointer 27 seconds later to push the margin to five, 54-49.

Binghamton missed eight of its final nine shots and the Catamounts sank three free throws in the final 34 seconds to seal the win.

In front of a boisterous crowd of 5,016, BU jumped out to a 30-19 lead late in the first half before the Catamounts trimmed their margin to seven at the break.

Sophomore forward Lazar Trifunovic added 10 points, seven rebounds and four assists, but hit just 5-of-18 from the floor, including 2-of-9 in the second half. Junior center Jaan Montgomery played a career-high 20 minutes and contributed seven rebounds and six points — both career-highs.

2009 TOURNAMENT (ALBANY)

Quarterfinals – March 7

#1 Binghamton 73, #9 Hartford 65

Top-seeded Binghamton (21-8) used a 20-6 second-half run to pull away from No. 9 Hartford (7-26) 73-65 Saturday night in an America East quarterfinal game from Albany's SEFCU Arena. The win was BU's ninth in a row and 11th in its last 12 and advances the Bearcats into Sunday night's semifinals against the winner of the No. 4 New Hampshire/No. 5 Stony Brook winner.

Junior guard Malik Alvin scored a game-and season-high 29 points and junior guard Emanuel Mayben added 21 points, six rebounds and five assists. Junior guard D.J. Rivera notched his seventh double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds.

The Bearcats led 55-35 with 6:28 left and still enjoyed a 14-point margin with 50 seconds left before the Hawks drained four three-pointers in the final 30 seconds to tighten the final score. Binghamton made 12-of-14 free throws in the final 1:11 to secure the win.

The Hawks trimmed a 13-point halftime deficit to six, 33-27, after scoring the first seven points of the second half. But BU sturried itself thanks primarily to Mayben and Alvin, who combined for 15 points during that 20-6 run that pushed Binghamton's lead up to 20, 55-35. The Bearcats limited the Hawks to just one field goal during a period of 11:09 (1-for-14).

The Bearcats got off to a sluggish start, misfiring on 8-of-10 to start the game. But BU's defense forced six Hartford turnovers in the first nine minutes and the offense kicked in halfway through the period. Mayben scored 10 of his 12 first-half points during a 19-4 run (in 7:45) that turned a 10-6 deficit into a 25-14 lead with 4:15 left. Alvin netted six of his 10 during that run and the Bearcats made 7-of-11 shots the rest of the way. Binghamton also got to the line, where they converted 11-of-14 in the first period to stake a 33-20 lead at intermission.

2009 TOURNAMENT (ALBANY)

#1 Binghamton 72, #4 New Hamp. 67

Junior guard D.J. Rivera stole an inbounds pass with 11 seconds left and his dunk propelled top-seeded Binghamton (22-8) to a 72-67 win over No. 4 New Hampshire (14-16) in the America East semifinals Sunday night from Albany's SEFCU Arena. The win, BU's 10th consecutive, advances the Bearcats into their first-ever America East championship game, which they will host on March 14 at the Events Center.

With BU clinging to a 68-67 lead and UNH setting up a potential game-winning shot in the closing 13 seconds, Rivera jumped into the passing lane just inside mid-court, stole the pass and raced to the basket before soaring for the jam in front of a frenzied BU student section. Junior guard Emanuel Mayben added two free throws with 6.6 seconds left to complete BU's 10-0 scoring run to end the game.

The Wildcats led 67-62 with 2:02 left before Rivera started the comeback by nailing a three-pointer. Senior forward Reggie Fuller grabbed an offensive rebound and his putback and ensuing free throw gave the Bearcats a 68-67 lead with 1:18 left. Mayben was called for a charge with 18 seconds left, however, giving UNH one final possession. But Rivera, who scored a game-high 26 points, rescued the Bearcats with his magical play.

The second half was tight as neither team led by more than five points. There were 16 lead changes and 13 ties in the game.

Rivera scored 17 of his 26 points after intermission, and also had eight rebounds and three steals. Mayben produced 19 points and three steals, and junior guard Malik Alvin added 10 points. Fuller wound up with a workmanlike nine points and seven rebounds in 28 minutes. Mayben had two key plays late in the game. When the momentum had swung to UNH after a three-pointer, Mayben dropped in a leaning 14-footer with 6:01 left and his free throw completed a three-point play that tied the game at 57. He then sank three free throws after being fouled attempting a three-pointer with 3:43 left and BU trailing 61-59.

2009 TOURNAMENT (BINGHAMTON)

Championship – March 14

#1 Binghamton 61, #6 UMBC 51

Top-seeded Binghamton (23-8) staved off defending champion UMBC (15-17) 61-51 to claim its first-ever America East championship Saturday afternoon from the Events Center. The win, BU's 11th consecutive, set off a wild celebration on the court and now sends the Bearcats to their first NCAA Tournament berth in 63 years of basketball.

In front of a raucous standing-room-only crowd of 5,342, BU shot 52% to take a nine-point halftime lead. Senior forward Reggie Fuller netted 14 points on 7-for-7 shooting in the half. After bumping the margin up to 14 early in the second half, BU's offense slowed, and UMBC began to tighten the gap. The Retrievers pulled to within six, 57-51, with 4:49 left. But BU, who went the final 8:16 of the contest without a field goal, clamped down defensively, holding the Retrievers scoreless the rest of the way and converted all four free throw attempts down the stretch to seal the outcome.

Fuller wound up with 19 points, 10 rebounds and two blocks. Junior guard D.J. Rivera scored 16 points and earned the Reggie Lewis Championship Most Outstanding Player honor. Junior guard Emanuel Mayben, who scored 45 points in the three tournament wins, joined Rivera and Fuller on the All-Championship team. Mayben pitched in five points, five rebounds and six assists in the title game.

UMBC senior Darryl Proctor, who recorded a double-double of 12 points and 11 rebounds, and classmate Jay Greene were also named to the team.

Junior guard Malik Alvin added 14 points and four assists.

NOTES

The sellout crowd of 5,342 was a school-record and the second-largest in the league's 30-year championship history, topped only by the 5,644 that Northeastern drew against Boston University at Matthews Arena in 1986... The game was broadcast live on ESPN2... Binghamton's school-record 11-game win streak is the third longest current streak in the nation (Memphis 22, American 12)... The 23 wins ties the most in school history ('93-94 Division III team was 23-7)... BU finished the season 12-2 at home... The Bearcats are ranked No. 24 in the latest CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 poll.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT (GREENSBORO, N.C.)

First Round – March 19

#2 Duke 86, #15 Binghamton 62

Second-seeded Duke (29-6) opened the second half with a 17-2 run and defeated 15th-seed Binghamton (23-9) 86-62 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament Thursday night at the Greensboro Coliseum. The Bearcats outshot the ACC champion Blue Devils 53% to 49%, but the Blue Devils hit 21-of-25 from the free throw line and advanced.

The loss close's BU's historic season which included both its first America East regular-season and tournament titles and the program's first 20-win season at the Division I level.

Binghamton carried an 11-game win streak, third longest current streak in the country, into its first NCAA appearance at any level in 63 years of basketball. But Duke showed why it is one of the premier programs in the nation. The Blue Devils jumped on BU to start the second half, hitting 5-of-8 field goals, including three three-pointers and a three-point play. In the 17-2 run that spanned 5:15, Duke stretched its lead to 62-36 as the Bearcats were held scoreless for 4:52. Binghamton didn't get inside 20 points the rest of the way.

Duke put six players in double figures and owned a 38-20 rebound advantage. The Blue Devils hit 7-of-12 three-pointers in the decisive second half.

Junior guard D.J. Rivera scored a game-high 20 points on 9-of-14 shooting. In his final collegiate game, senior forward Reggie Fuller hit 6-of-7 for 12 points. Fuller extended his consecutive field goals streak to 18-for-18 before missing a turnaround jumper midway through the second half. He was perfect from the field in the America East tournament (13-for-13) and made his first five shots against Duke. Junior guard Emanuel Mayben scored 11 of his 13 points in the first half and added seven assists.

The Bearcats won the opening tip and scored the game's first points on a Malik Alvin lay up 27 seconds into the contest. But BU was whistled for six fouls in the first 3:13 and the early fouls led to a parade of Duke trips to the free throw line, where the Blue Devils hit 15-of-18 for the half (BU was 0-for-2).

After trailing by 14 with 6:12 left, BU went on a 12-4 run fueled by four points from Fuller and back-to-back threes from Mayben and sophomore guard Brandon Herbert. The last three from Herbert pulled the Bearcats to within six, 37-31, with 3:28 left in the half. Mayben drilled another trey with 53 seconds left and BU went into the break down 45-34 after outshooting the Blue Devils 54% to 48%. Mayben wound up with 11 points on 3-for-6 shooting from beyond the arc. Binghamton was hurt by 13 turnovers, including three in the last three minutes when they were making a move on the scoreboard.

2011 TOURNAMENT (HARTFORD, CONN.)

First Round – March 3

#9 Binghamton 91, #8 UMBC 65

In a rematch of the 2009 conference championship game, ninth-seeded Binghamton (8-22) drained a tournament-record 17 three-pointers and rolled past eighth-seeded UMBC (5-25) 91-65 in the first round of the America East Tournament Thursday night from Hartford's Chase Arena.

Seniors Greer Wright and Moussa Camara combined for 61 points and the Bearcats broke records galore in the lopsided win. Wright hit for a career-high 31 points and added nine rebounds and six assists. Camara drilled a school-record-tying eight three-pointers (8-of-14) en route to a career-high 30 points. The Bearcats put up a season-high 91 points on 52% shooting and led the entire game, pushing the margin to as many as 35 points.

Along with Wright and Camara, senior forward Mahamoud Jabbi chipped in eight rebounds, a career-high seven assists and six points. Sophomore guard Jimmy Gray added seven points, five boards and three assists.

The Bearcats came out sizzling, hitting 9-of-11 shots, including 7-of-9 three-pointers and roaring to a 25-6 lead in the game's first 7:09. They were raining threes from all over the floor, hitting them on seven straight possessions at one point and breaking the tournament record for threes in a half with 13-of-23 accuracy (57%). Camara drained five en route to 15 first-half points and Wright added four treys to produce 16 points. Binghamton shot 60% - the best half of shooting all season - and took a 52-29 bulge into the break.

2011 TOURNAMENT (HARTFORD, CONN.)

#1 Vermont 57, #9 Binghamton 46

Top-seeded Vermont (23-7) withstood a game effort from eighth-seeded Binghamton (8-23) and pulled away late for a 57-46 win in the quarterfinals of the America East Tournament at Hartford's Chase Arena. Despite shooting just 26% and being outrebounded 49-27, BU was within three points with eight minutes to play before an injury to all-conference post player Mahamoud Jabbi left them severely shorthanded in the interior. The Catamounts closed the game with a 13-5 run, including multiple putbacks born of offensive rebounding. Vermont compiled 17 offensive boards and exploited its height advantage, especially after Jabbi's departure with an ankle injury. Senior Moussa Camara scored 10 of his team-high 15 points in the second half and his two free throws pulled BU to within three, 44-41, with 7:39 remaining. But with Jabbi on the bench, the Catamounts took over the offensive glass. Senior forward Greer Wright added 14 points and six rebounds in 38 exhausting minutes. Unlike the first round game when BU was blazing from the start, the Bearcats misfired on 8-of-10 to start and dug themselves an early 16-5 hole. But with a pesky defense forcing nine Catamount turnovers and Wright getting to the free throw line (7-of-8), BU ran off eight straight points and finished the half on an 18-8 run to pull within one, 24-23. Wright tallied 11 points and despite managing just six field goals and being outrebounded by a 24-9 margin, BU hit the locker room nearly dead-even with the heavily-favored Catamounts.

2012 TOURNAMENT (HARTFORD, CONN.)

First Round – February 29

#9 Binghamton 73, #8 UMBC 67 (OT)

Junior guard Jimmy Gray scored eight points in overtime, including three free throws in the final 19 seconds to lift ninth-seeded Binghamton (2-29) to a 73-67 overtime win over eighth-seeded UMBC (4-26) in the America East first round from Hartford's Chase Arena.

After watching an 11-point lead evaporate in the final eight minutes of regulation, BU had to hang on with one final defensive stand to force overtime. Freshman forward Ben Dickinson, who led all scorers with 21 points, held his ground on a final UMBC drive to the basket with three seconds left and a last-second Retrievers tip attempt was off the mark.

In overtime, UMBC took its last lead on a three-pointer with 3:30 left, 63-62. But Dickinson's second effort on a tip-in with 2:59 left started a 7-0 run and gave BU a 64-63 lead. Classmate Jabrille Williams had a putback of his own with 2:00 remaining and Dickinson followed with a driving layup with 1:22 left that gave the Bearcats a 69-63 lead.

UMBC scored four straight to pull within three, 70-67, but freshman forward Omar Richards hit 1-of-2 free throws with 0:37 left and Gray added his three foul shots in the final 19 seconds to close out the scoring. Binghamton's defense limited UMBC to one field goal over the final 3:29.

Dickinson hit 8-of-20 from the floor and added team highs of nine rebounds, five assists and two blocks. Gray wound up with 14 points and five rebounds and Williams and fellow freshman Chris Longoria chipped in 11 points apiece.

AMERICA EAST TOURNAMENT HISTORY

2012 TOURNAMENT (HARTFORD, CONN.)

Quarterfinals – March 2

#1 Stony Brook 78, #9 Binghamton 69

Binghamton men's basketball gave top-seeded Stony Brook all it could handle before coming up short in a 78-69 loss in the America East quarterfinals Saturday afternoon at Hartford's Chase Family Arena. The ninth-seeded Bearcats, who defeated UMBC in the first round to reach the quarters, shot 55 percent in the second half to put a scare into the Seawolves in the first-ever postseason meeting between the two SUNY Centers.

Stony Brook needed 10 free throws (10-of-13) in the final 1:27 to fend off a gallant effort from a BU team that was minus its leading scorer, Robert Mansell.

Down 34-28 at half, BU opened the second half with a 12-4 run to pull ahead, 40-38, with 15:45 to play. A three-pointer from freshman guard Chris Longoria made it 47-43, with 12:17 remaining. Stony Brook responded with an 8-0 run to take the lead for good midway through the period.

A pair of threes from junior guard Jimmy Gray bookended a 13-6 Bearcats run that pulled them to within six, 72-66, with 0:43 left. But the Seawolves held steady at the free throw line, making 6-of-8 in the final 43 seconds. Stony Brook, which shot just 39 percent in the first half, jumped that mark up to 63 percent in the second half and held a 36-25 rebound margin.

Dickinson led all scorers with 20 points on 8-of-14 shooting. Longoria hit 6-of-8 shots (3-of-4 3-pt.) for 17 points. Gray added 16 points and a season-high nine assists.

The Bearcats shot 50 percent for the game but didn't make a single trip to the free throw line in the decisive second half, whereas Stony Brook went 20 times and netted 12 points.

2013 TOURNAMENT (ALBANY)

Quarterfinals – March 9

#1 Stony Brook 72, #8 Binghamton 49

The Binghamton men's basketball team fell to top-seeded Stony Brook 72-49 in the quarterfinals of the America East Tournament, Saturday night at Albany's SEFCU Arena. The Seawolves shot 53 percent and forced 15 Bearcat turnovers en route to the 23-point victory. Binghamton was led by freshman Jordan Reed's game-high 16 points.

Stony Brook, who is fifth in the nation in field goal percentage defense, stymied the Bearcats to 40 percent shooting while committing just five turnovers. The Seawolves were in command throughout as Binghamton valiantly tried to chip away at the large halftime deficit. However, Stony Brook exceeded its first half shooting percentage by pouring in 58 percent of its shots in the second half. The Seawolves lead grew to as many as 31 in the final 30 minutes of play.

Reed was blanketed by two-time America East Defensive Player of the Year Tommy Brenton whenever the two were on the floor and double-teamed much of the night. The recently named third team all conference selection still managed 6-of-13 shooting while going a perfect 4-for-4 from the free throw line. Reed collected eight rebounds in 38 minutes of action.

Seniors Jimmy Gray and Taylor Johnston added 13 and 11, respectively for the Bearcats. Johnston scored all 13 of his points in the second half, as the duo combined for six second-half three pointers.

2014 TOURNAMENT (ALBANY)

Quarterfinals – March 8

#3 Hartford 69, #6 Binghamton 42

Third-seeded Hartford (17-15) used 15-point runs early in each half to advance past sixth-seeded Binghamton (7-23) 69-42 in an America East quarterfinal game from Albany's SEFCU Arena. The Hawks shot 52 percent and used a stifling defense to force 16 turnovers and limit BU to just 29 percent shooting.

The Bearcats cut an 11-point deficit to seven less than a minute into the second half on a pair of three-pointers from freshman guard Yosef Jacob. But the Hawks responded with a 17-2 run and never looked back, ending BU's season.

Binghamton's leading scorer and the No. 2 scorer in the conference, Jordan Reed, was held scoreless until midway through the second half and BU never got comfortable, managing just seven field goals in each half.

"It was a rough start to the game for the Bearcats, who misfired on 7-of-8 and found themselves down 17-3 eight minutes into the contest. Hartford hit 7-of-12 to start and BU compounded its problems with three turnovers in the first five minutes. Sophomore guard Karon Waller hit a three and a pair of free throws and freshman guard Marlon Beck II followed with a layup and three to key a 10-3 BU run that trimmed the deficit to seven, 20-13, with 6:12 left in the half. But the Hawks kept up their sharpshooting with three three-pointers in the final 3:01 and Hartford took a 31-20 lead into intermission. The Hawks shot 55 percent and made 6-of-10 threes.

Yacob scored a team-high 10 points.

2015 TOURNAMENT (STONY BROOK)

Quarterfinals - March 4 #3 Stony Brook 62, #6 Binghamton 57

Third-seeded Stony Brook (22-10) used a 14-0 run early in the second half to seize the lead and the host Seawolves withstood a gutsy effort from sixth-seeded Binghamton 62-57 in an America East men's basketball quarterfinal game Wednesday night at the Island FCU Arena.

The Bearcats (6-26), who led at the break, had a three-point shot to tie the game with 26 seconds left but it rattled out. After missing four straight free throws to leave the door open, the Seawolves made 4-of-4 in the final 26 seconds to seal the win. Twice in the last two minutes, BU cut its margin to three, the last on an offensive rebound and layup from sophomore forward Magnus Richards with 1:11 that made it 58-55.

"I'm proud of who we've become," head coach Tommy Dempsey said. "Our kids have resolve ... to have a chance to win the game in the last minute, that's really encouraging. We trust each other and learned how to fight together. I feel we can compete with anybody in the league right now. I can't wait to get to the offseason ... we're growing in so many ways and I'm excited. This will be a fun team to watch over the next couple of years."

Freshman forward Willie Rodriguez scored a game-high 19 points and classmate Romello Walker added 10 points and eight rebounds. Binghamton's defense held the Seawolves to 39 percent shooting.

The Bearcats came out strong, hitting 6-of-10 shots to start the game. Binghamton trailed 16-13 midway through the half before using a 12-6 run to secure a 25-23 halftime lead. Rodriguez tallied eight points, including four straight during the run, and sophomore forward Magnus Richards hit 2-of-3 and grabbed a pair of big offensive boards. On defense, BU absorbed three charges, held SBU scoreless for more than six minutes and an active zone held the hosts to 31 percent shooting in the period.

2016 TOURNAMENT (NEW HAMPSHIRE)

Quarterfinals - March 2 #4 New Hampshire 56, #5 Binghamton 51

Fourth-seeded New Hampshire (19-11) turned 13 offensive rebounds into 14 more shot attempts and the Wildcats fended off fifth-seeded Binghamton men's basketball (8-22) 56-51 in an America East quarterfinal game Wednesday night at Lundholm Gymnasium.

Binghamton made three more field goals and held UNH to 27 percent shooting but the Wildcats sank five free throws in the last 1:03 to seal the win.

"Give New Hampshire credit ... they found a way to get it done on a night that I thought we guarded them well and defended at a high level," head coach Tommy Dempsey said. "They got offensive rebounds to extend some critical possessions and then made their free throws at the end."

The Bearcats held their last lead, 39-38, when sophomore forward Willie Rodriguez hit a three-pointer from the top of the key. New Hampshire, however, scored the next five points - three courtesy of foul shots - and the hosts never relinquished the lead thereafter.

Rodriguez wound up with a team-high 17 points, with 13 coming in the second half.

Freshman point guard Timmy Rose tallied a season-high 15 points and classmate Everson Davis added 12 points. The game was tied seven times and featured seven lead changes. Rose was hot out of the gate for the Bearcats. In just his second collegiate start, he hit his first three shots and tallied seven points in a 1:12 span early in the game.

The Bearcats made 4-of-7 to begin and led 14-10 after 5:40. Davis took over midway through the period and wound up with 10 points at intermission.

2017 TOURNAMENT (STONY BROOK)

Quarterfinals - March 1 #2 Stony Brook 70, #7 Binghamton 60

Second-seeded Stony Brook (18-12) opened the game with a 29-8 run and fended off seventh-seeded Binghamton men's basketball (12-20) down the stretch, 70-60 in an America East tournament quarterfinal game Wednesday night at the Island Federal Credit Union Arena. The Seawolves made 10-of-12 free throws in the final 1:34 to thwart a late BU rally.

Down 54-37 with 9:21 remaining, the Bearcats embarked on a 9-0 run in 2:49 to pull within eight. Senior guard Marlon Beck drilled a three-pointer that made it 54-46. Then with 2:22 left, sophomore guard Timmy Rose converted a driving layup that again brought the Bearcats to within eight. After a Stony Brook turnover, BU had two good looks at the rim to pull closer but each shot rolled off. The Seawolves then put the game away with 10 free throw makes in the final 1:34. Rose and Rodriguez combined for seven points in the final minute but the Bearcats couldn't pull closer than seven.

Junior forward Willie Rodriguez posted 20 points and a career-high 14 rebounds and classmate Bobby Ahearn added 15 points and seven boards. But no other player had more than two field goals and BU hindered its chances with 11 misses at the free throw line.

Despite being down 21 points 11 minutes into the game, the Bearcats won the battle on the glass against the bigger Seawolves (42-39) and held an edge in the paint, testament to their grit throughout the game..

AMERICA EAST TOURNAMENT HISTORY

2019 TOURNAMENT (STONY BROOK)

Quarterfinals - March 9
#7 Binghamton 78, #2 Stony Brook 72

Seventh-seeded Binghamton men's basketball (10-22) roared out of the gate, built a 24-point lead and held off second-seeded Stony Brook (24-8) 78-72 to advance to the America East semifinals for the first time in 10 years.

The No. 7 seed was 2-31 all-time vs. the No. 2 seed in the America East tournament.

But the Bearcats seized the lead early, stretched it to as many as 24 points and then hung on in the frantic closing minutes to defeat a heavily-favored Seawolves team that came in with 24 wins and votes in the national Mid-Major Top 25 poll.

Senior guard J.C. Show steadied BU down the stretch with 11 second-half points (19 for the game) and BU made just enough free throws to fend off the hard-charging hosts. Show drained a pair of 3-pointers in a 2:07 span to give BU a 69-55 lead with 4:43 left. He then made a pair of free throws with 2:22 left to lift the lead back up to double figures, 71-61. A string of four straight misses from the foul line allowed Stony Brook to bring it back to within three, 72-69, with 0:48 left. But senior guard Everson Davis made 3-of-4 free throws and freshman guard Sam Sessoms added three points in the final 17 seconds to seal the win.

A day after being named the league's Rookie of the Year, Sessoms hit 11-of-24 for a team-high 26 points and he just missed a double-double with nine rebounds. Senior forward Caleb Stewart added 16 points and three blocks.

2019 TOURNAMENT (VERMONT)

Semifinals - March 12
#1 Vermont 84, #7 Binghamton 51

Top-seeded Vermont (26-6) closed the first half with a decisive 30-5 run and defeated seventh-seeded Binghamton (10-23) 84-51 in the America East semifinals at Patrick Gymnasium.

The Bearcats were coming off a quarterfinal upset of second-seeded Stony Brook and only trailed by five, 22-17, with just over nine minutes remaining in the first half. But the regular season champion Catamounts exploded for 30 points in the final nine minutes, thanks in part to 10-of-15 shooting from 3-point range.

Vermont shot 68 percent in the first half (21-of-31), led 52-22 at the break and advanced to their fourth straight America East championship game.

Binghamton played a near-even second half but the damage was done. The Bearcats were led by senior forward Caleb Stewart, who had 16 points.

The game was the final collegiate game for BU seniors Stewart, J.C. Show, Everson Davis and Timmy Rose.

2021 TOURNAMENT (HARTFORD)

First Round - Feb. 27
#4 Hartford 77, #9 Binghamton 60

Host and fourth-seeded Hartford (12-8) used an 18-4 run midway through the second half to pull away from Binghamton 77-60 in an America East tournament first round game at Chase Arena.

The Bearcats were hampered by cold shooting all afternoon but used a 10-0 run to trim a 19-point deficit to nine, 49-40, with 11:37 to play. But Hartford responded with eight straight points and the larger, deciding 18-4 run was the difference. Binghamton shot 34% for the game and made just 6-of-35 3-point attempts.

Sophomore guards Dan Petcash (15 pts.) and Tyler Bertram (14 pts.) led the Bearcats. Classmate Hakon Hjalmarsson added 11 points and seven rebounds and senior center Thomas Bruce chipped in with nine points (4-for-4 FG) and five boards.

Hartford opened the game with an 18-9 run and led 34-24 at half. The Hawks then used a 15-6 run to open the second half, extending their cushion to 49-30, before Binghamton countered. The hosts shot 47% and made 10 3-pointers to keep BU at bay.

2022 TOURNAMENT (NEW HAMPSHIRE)

Quarterfinals - March 6 #6 Binghamton 72, #3 New Hampshire 69

Junior guard Jacob Falko scored a game-high 21 points and sophomore guard John McGriff converted an off-balance, driving layup with 30 seconds left to lead sixth-seeded Binghamton to a 72-69 upset win over third-seeded New Hampshire at Lundholm Gymnasium.

Falko returned to the lineup after an ankle injury kept him out of three straight games and his 15 second-half points lifted the Bearcats to their second semifinal berth in the last four years. Binghamton will head to top-seeded Vermont for a 7 p.m. game Wednesday in Burlington.

The back-and-forth game featured 12 lead changes before Binghamton used a 13-1 run to seize the lead late. After a 3-pointer from junior guard Tyler Bertram, BU led 70-64 with 1:31 left before the Wildcats made one final push. UNH scored five straight and hit a 3 to pull within one, 70-69 with 50 seconds left. But McGriff weaved his way to the basket and converted a difficult bucket to extend the lead to three, 72-69. After a series of UNH intentional fouls and a front-end miss by the Bearcats, UNH was off the mark with a 3-attempt at the buzzer.

Falko hit 4-of-9 from 3-point range and added five assists in 33 gutsy minutes, just days after his status looked bleak. As a team, BU made 11-of-23 from deep and improved to 9-1 when they reach 70 points.

Junior forward Christian Hinckson contributed nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds despite nursing foul trouble.

2022 TOURNAMENT (VERMONT)

Semifinals - March 9 #1 Vermont 74, #6 Binghamton 42

Top-seeded Vermont (26-5) built a 12-point halftime lead and went on to a 74-42 win over sixth-seeded Binghamton in an America East semifinal at Patrick Gymnasium.

The Catamounts, unbeaten at home this season and No. 60 in the country (NET), received 42 combined points from first team all-conference players Ryan Davis and Ben Shungu.

Binghamton trimmed its deficit to eight, 39-31, one minute into the second half. But the Catamounts responded with a 17-3 run to pull away.

Junior guard Jacob Falko led the Bearcats with 13 points. Sophomore guard John McGriff and junior forward Christian Hinckson added seven points apiece.

The Bearcats were within a point, 14-13, eight minutes into the game before the Catamounts used an 18-4 run spanning 6+ minutes to break away. Vermont was shooting at a 60 percent clip for much of the half and extended its lead to as many as 17 points before the Bearcats brought it back to 12, 39-27 at half.

The loss concluded a Bearcats season that featured its most conference wins in 12 years (8), an upset road win in the quarterfinals and a second trip to the semifinals in the last four years. All for a team that was picked to finish last in the 10-team standings.

Gene Kobylarz, Induction – Class of 2002

Jim Davis, Induction – Class of 2001

Mickey Greenberg, Induction – Class of 1996

GENE KOBYLARZ '52

Kobylarz was a three-sport athlete who also competed in baseball and ran track.

It was his basketball acumen, however, that drew the most attention. Kobylarz played 87 games in four years, and became the school's first 1,000-point scorer with 1,079 points. That scoring output stood atop the all-time list for 10 years.

Early in his freshman year of 1948-49, Kobylarz earned a starting role and helped TCC win eight games in only the program's third-ever season. He averaged 10.5 points per game and TCC ended its season by winning six of its final nine games.

In 1949-50, the Kobylarz-led Colonials went 14-8, finishing the season with victories in nine of the team's final 11 games. He averaged 11.2 points per contest.

A 10-win season followed in 1950-51 — thanks in part to Kobylarz, who scored 307 points for a team-high average of 13.9 per game.

As a senior, he was named team MVP after eclipsing the 1,000-point scoring plateau with 315 points. At the spring athletic banquet, Kobylarz was named the school's lone "Athlete of the Year."

JIM DAVIS '62

A 6-foot-3 forward with a deft shooting touch, Davis became the school's all-time scoring leader in his final collegiate game, and his 1,092 career points represented the most in the program's first 24 years. His 17.9 scoring average ranked sixth all-time in 55 years of basketball at Binghamton.

As a junior, Davis led Harpur to its best season in more than a decade, averaging 22.9 points per game for the 11-6 Colonials. His scoring average was among the nation's top-25 for College Division teams and ranked second in program history.

Davis scored in double figures all 17 games in 1960-61 and was named team MVP and Harpur's "Athlete of the Year."

In his final season, Davis led the Colonials to a 14-3 mark — still the highest win percentage in program history. In addition to his 17.3 points per game, Davis pulled down an average of 12.5 rebounds per contest, which ranks second all-time. Had rebounds been tracked during his first three collegiate seasons, Davis assuredly would have been among the career leaders in that category as well.

A two-time team captain, scoring leader and team MVP, Davis produced double-digit points in 51 of 61 career games, and he still appears among the top-10 in eight statistical categories.

MICKEY GREENBERG '63

A two-sport athlete as an upperclassman, Greenberg's most significant achievements came during his four years as a guard on the basketball court, where he became the school's first 1,000-point scorer - achieving the point total in just 60 career games.

During his junior season, Greenberg led Harpur to a 14-3 record - a winning percentage (.823) that stands as the best in the program's first 50 years.

In each of his final two seasons, Greenberg averaged more than 21 points per game and ended his career with 1,013 points.

His 25.1 scoring average as a senior ranks Greenberg second in school history and he also shares the single-game scoring mark, a standard he established with 45 points against Utica as a senior.

Greenberg was named back-to-back Harpur College "Athlete of the Year" in 1961-62 and 1962-63, and was the recipient of the very first Jake Pitler Award in 1963.

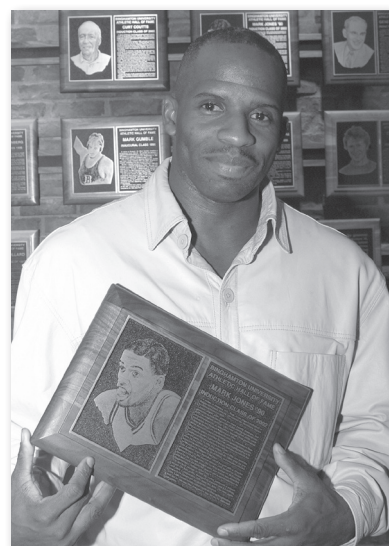

Following an illustrious career at Harpur, Greenberg later played for the Washington Generals, the touring opponents of the Harlem Globetrotters.

Tom Gomulka, Induction – Class of 1997

Ted Hull, Induction – Class of 2000

Mark Jones, Induction – Class of 2002

TOM GOMULKA '71

Gomulka was the first University athlete named first team All-New York State when he was selected by the sports writers in 1969-70. That year he averaged 28.7 points per game, which ranked 12th in the country for Division II and III athletes.

One of Binghamton's 1,000-point scorers, Gomulka has the highest career per game scoring average (24.1) of any basketball player in the school's 51-year history. He is the only player to ever lead Binghamton in scoring as a freshman, sophomore, junior and senior.

In four years, he scored 1,400 points and currently holds or shares six records — including most points scored in a single game. During the '69-70 season, he scored 45 points in one game, and also set the school record with 18 field goals in another contest.

Also an accurate free throw shooter, Gomulka converted 21-of-22 attempts in a 1969 game, and holds season and career marks for free throws made.

Gomulka, who also played varsity golf, was named Binghamton's "Athlete of the Year" in 1969-70. He also was a three-time team MVP, and was the school's Foundation Award winner in 1971.

TED HULL '79

A point guard and three-year captain who combined playmaking with an acute scoring touch, Hull scored 1,007 points in his four-year career — becoming just the sixth player in the program's first 33 years to reach the milestone. His trademark 25-foot jumpers — many of which he banked off the glass — were so commonplace, one can only imagine what his impact might have been in the current era of the three-point shot.

Hull's most productive season was in 1976-77, where he averaged a team-high 16.0 points per game and set a school single-season record with 146 assists. In an early season win, he poured in a career-high 35 points, and also scored 20 points against Colgate in Binghamton's first-ever meeting with a Division I opponent.

By season's end, Hull was chosen team MVP, and earned All-SUNYAC and All-State honors.

He graduated holding records for assists in a game, season and career (527). In 87 collegiate games, he averaged 11.6 points and 6.1 assists per game, and shot 73% from the free throw line.

MARK JONES '90

Jones played point guard for three varsity seasons, and graduated as both the top scorer (1,405 points) and assist man (547) in program history. His vast offensive skills were complimented by a defensive energy that motivated teammates and frustrated opponents.

Midway through his sophomore year, he converted a then-NCAA record 21 consecutive field goals spanning three games. The record, which stood for 15 years, was highlighted by a 13-for-13 performance against New Paltz that also included 7-for-7 marksmanship from the free-throw line.

Jones went on to tally 364 points, shoot 53% and lead the team to the ECAC title game in 1985-86. That year he was named honorable mention All-SUNYAC, and was also selected as the school's "Athlete of the Year."

As a junior, Jones exploded out of the gate with a 30-point performance in the season-opener, and scored in double figures in 24 of 25 games. His scoring average of 18.9 led the team for the second straight year, and Jones was rewarded with first-team All-SUNYAC honors and a repeat selection as Binghamton's "Athlete of the Year."

In his final season in 1987-88, Jones produced a school-record 231 field goals, averaged 21.9 points and 6.8 assists, and shot a remarkable 59% from the field. He was again honored as a first team All-SUNYAC selection.

His 1,405 career points ranks fourth all-time at Binghamton, and he is among the program's top-10 in 12 different categories.

Chris Jackey, Induction – Class of 2003

CHRIS JACKEY '90

Jackey was a 6-foot-3 sharp-shooting guard whose scoring prowess was second to none. In four years, including three as a starter, he compiled a school-record 1,721 points — an average of 19.1 points per game. That total remains the highest in 57 years of basketball at Binghamton. Jackey also ranks among the top-10 in 15 different offensive categories.

As a sophomore, Jackey was inserted into the starting lineup and proceeded to deliver a school-record 630 points for an average of 24.2 per contest. He scored 30 or more points eight times, including 36 apiece against Albany and Plattsburgh in an eight-day span. Jackey wound up leading the entire SUNYAC in scoring and was named first team all-conference. In 1988-89, he switched from shooting guard to point guard and still averaged 21 points per game, but also led the conference in assists with 172. He produced five more 30+ scoring performances, highlighted by a career-high 40 against SUNYAC rival Cortland. Jackey again was chosen as a first-team All-SUNYAC member.

He was named captain for his senior season, and responded with a 21.4 scoring average and career highs in steals and three-point percentage. A deadly outside shooter, Jackey nailed a three-pointer in 21 straight games, and produced a rare "triple-double" with 19 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds against Plattsburgh.

A scholar-athlete, Jackey was the school's first basketball player to become an Academic All-American, and also received an ECAC Merit Medal. He was the University's Jake Pitler Award winner in 1990.

Sherwin Telford, Induction – Class of 2004

SHERWIN TELFORD '96

Telford was a 6-foot-2 shooting guard who played three years at Binghamton after transferring from University of Rochester. His tenure represented the best three-year span in program history. His teams compiled an overall record of 61-23 and won three straight SUNYAC East Division titles. Telford poured in 1,685 points in three seasons, which ranks second all-time. He averaged 20.5 points per game, and shot a stellar 52% from the field, including 42% from three-point range.

In his first season in 1991-92, Telford led the Colonials to a 19-7 campaign — a 10-game improvement over the previous season. He earned first team all-conference honors after BU strung together a school-record 14-game win streak.

As a junior, Telford averaged 21.4 points for a 19-9 team that advanced to the SUNYAC Championship game for the first time in program history. He was honored as a first team all-conference and first team all-region selection, and was placed on the national All-America ballot as one of the top two guards in the entire East Region.

In his senior year, Telford and a veteran BU team rolled to a school-record 23 wins and captured the program's third consecutive divisional crown. He repeated as a first team all-conference and all-region selection, and led the team to runner-up honors in both the SUNYAC and ECAC.

In all, Telford produced two of the top three season scoring totals, and still ranks among the top-10 in 10 different offensive categories.

Telford was the University's "Athlete of the Year" all three years he competed.

Coach Dick Baldwin, Induction – Class of 2006

COACH DICK BALDWIN '91-96

Dick Baldwin coached men's basketball at Binghamton from 1991-96, capping a remarkable 45-year coaching career that began with 40 years at nearby Broome Community College.

After surpassing Adolph Rupp to become the nation's all-time wins leader at any level with his 876th career victory, Baldwin retired from BCC in 1987. Five years later at age 70, he took over a struggling BU program and brought instant respect, community support and national media attention.

In his first year in 1991-92, Baldwin's team rattled off a school-record 14 consecutive victories, captured the program's first-ever SUNYAC East Division title, won a school-record 19 games and defeated conference power Potsdam for the first time in 16 years.

In 1992-93, his team repeated as divisional champions, won 19 games and advanced to the SUNYAC Championship game for the first time in school history. In front of a capacity West Gym crowd, BU came within three points of earning an NCAA tournament berth. The team did receive an invitation to the ECAC Championship — the program's first bid in seven years.

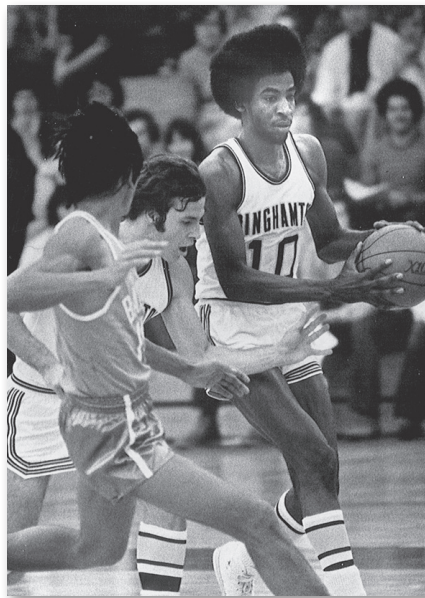

The highlight season was in 1993-94, when Baldwin's Colonials went 23-7, captured their third consecutive divisional title and advanced to both the SUNYAC and ECAC Championship games.

In 45 years, Baldwin's final numbers are staggering — 961 victories, a win percentage of 74% and 1,302 consecutive games coached.

Baldwin's contributions at Binghamton stretch well beyond the victories and accolades. The school's newfound basketball success under Baldwin and the groundswell of community interest served as the foundation for the University's historic and seamless move to Division I athletics.

JEFF MERRILL '94

A native of Binghamton, N.Y., Jeff Merrill played basketball at Binghamton from 1990-94. He earned his bachelor's degree with a double major in philosophy and psychology in 1994.

A 6-foot-4 forward and two-time team captain, Merrill graduated as the program's all-time rebounds leader (757) and ranked third in career points (1,603). His career field goal percentage of .589 remains the highest of any player after the first 61 years of basketball at the University.

As a sophomore in 1991-92, Merrill helped lead the Colonials to a 19-7 campaign — including a school-record 14-game win streak. He earned first team all-conference honors after leading the SUNYAC in field goal percentage (62%) and averaging 13.1 points per game.

One year later, Merrill averaged 17.7 points and 8.3 rebounds for a 19-9 team that advanced to the SUNYAC Championship game for the first time in program history. He recorded a "double-double" 10 times, eclipsed the 1,000-point scoring plateau and repeated as a first team all-conference selection.

In his senior year, Merrill and a veteran BU team rolled to a school-record 23 wins and captured the program's third consecutive divisional crown. He was named first team all-conference for the third straight year and also earned all-region accolades after lifting the team to runner-up honors in both the SUNYAC and ECAC.

An accomplished student as well, Merrill received the SUNYAC Sam Molnar Scholar-Athlete Award in 1994 and he also earned ECAC and regional Academic All-America honors.

GLENN McIVER '78

A highly-touted athlete from renowned Power Memorial Academy High School in New York City, McIver came to campus and ignited a program that had previously relied on local and unrecruited players.

McIver played in 78 career games and ranks among the program's top-10 in both scoring and rebounding. He is a member of the 1,000-point club (ninth with 1,101 pts.) and ranks fourth all-time with 699 career rebounds. His rebound average of 9.9 is third-highest in the school's 66-year basketball history.

As a freshman, McIver was named to the All-Tournament Team after leading Binghamton to a title in its inaugural home invitational. He scored 33 points in the tournament and twice more that season, eclipsed the 30-point scoring mark. His scoring average of 14.7 ranked second on the team.

In 1974-75, McIver's Colonials won 13 games — the most wins in 13 seasons — and Binghamton placed third in the SUNYAC East Division in its first year of conference membership. He was co-captain of the squad and averaged a team-high 15.0 points and 8.6 rebounds.

One year later, McIver shot 51% from the field to steer the team to a school record with 14 wins. He led Binghamton in rebounding (8.6) and chipped in 11.0 points per game.

In his senior season, McIver averaged 19.0 points and earned MVP honors at the Binghamton Invitational. The Colonials reached double-digit wins for the third straight year.

JOE GARBARINO '58

A native of Binghamton, Joe Garbarino played basketball and golf at Binghamton from 1955-58.

After playing one season at Scranton and then serving two years in the Army, Garbarino enrolled at Harpur College in February 1955. In just his second game for the Colonials, the 5-foot-9 guard scored 31 points against Mansfield and later poured in a then-school record 39 points in a win over Albany. Garbarino went on to average 24.7 points for the season — a mark that still ranks No. 3 all-time at Binghamton after the school's first 66 years of basketball.

Garbarino averaged 21.9 points in the 1955-56 season, surpassing the 30-point mark again with 34 against Utica. He repeated as the team's Basketball Player of the Year.

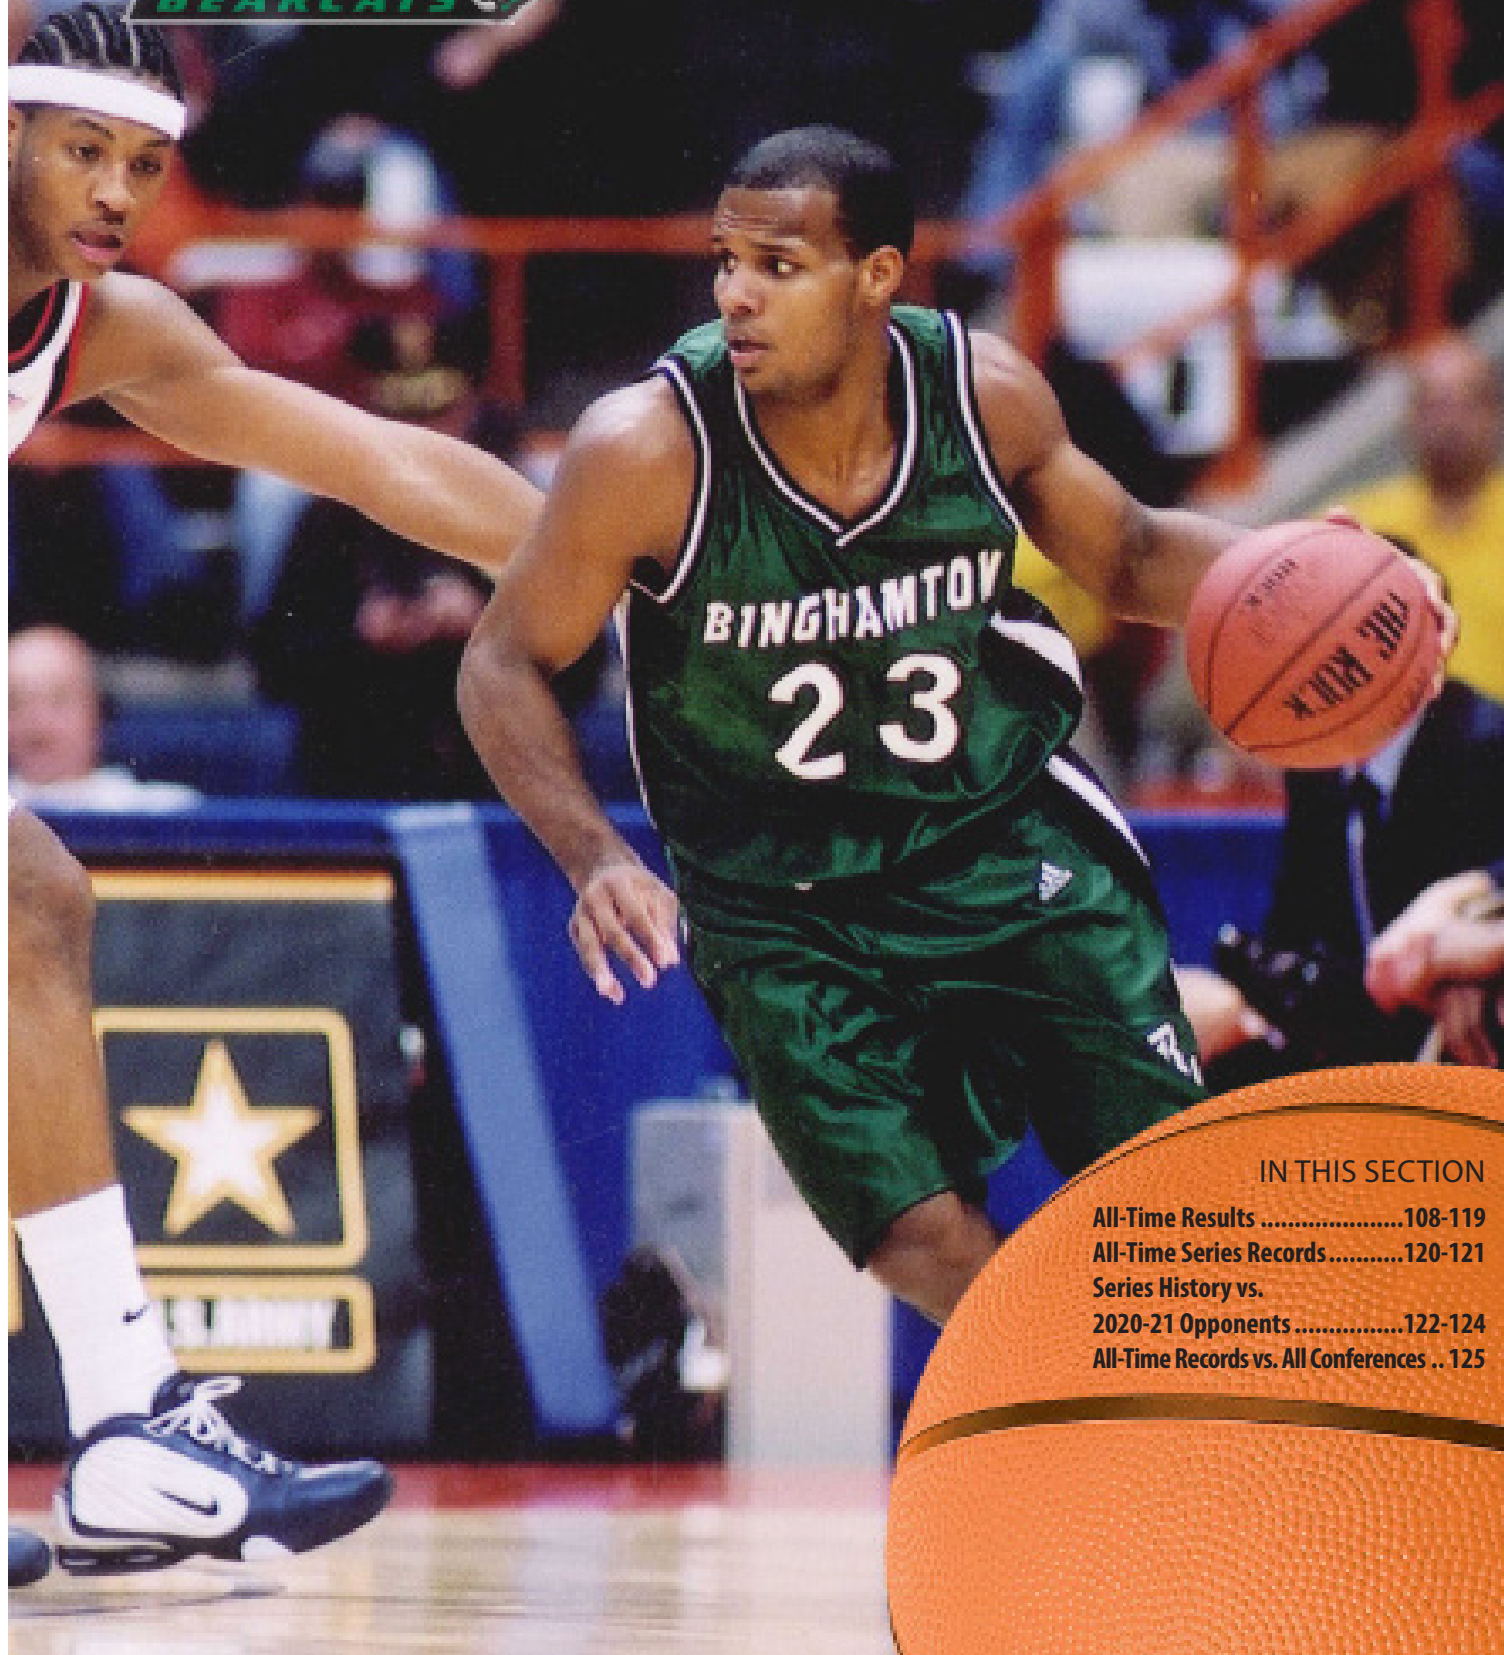

In his final collegiate campaign, Garbarino served as team captain and averaged 19.3 points. He notched 31 points against Rensselaer and led the team in scoring for the third consecutive season.

His career scoring average of 22.0 points per game still ranks No. 2 in Binghamton basketball history — and his scoring prowess came well in advance of the three-point shot.

A two-sport athlete who competed in golf for two seasons, Garbarino was selected as the school's Athlete of the Year in 1956-57.
