Points of Emphasis...

- Today is Hispanic Heritage Day and Breast Cancer Awareness Day. The Rams are wearing pink socks in honor of those who have battled and are battling Breast Cancer. BU also observes Hispanic Heritage Month and the great contributions made to our nation and our school by those of Hispanic Heritage. Throughout the game announcements will be shared regarding Breast Cancer and Hispanic Heritage.
- The 2022 football season marks 10 years of football at Bluefield University. The sport returned in 2012 as a varsity program. Football was previously played at Bluefield College but was halted after the 1941 season due to World War II and did not kick off again for 70 years. The first game of the BU varsity football program was on Aug. 28, 2012 against the University of Pikeville.
- The Appalachian Athletic Conference is the new home for Bluefield University Football, bringing all BU sports under the AAC umbrella. The AAC is sponsoring football for the first time this season and the members are all former members of the Mid-South Conference Appalachian Division.
- Nathan Herstich was this week's Appalachian Athletic Conference Football Offensive Player of the Week. Herstich passed for 329 yards and seven (7) touchdowns last week against Pikeville. It is the second time this season Herstich has won the award, and the fifth time in six weeks that a Bluefield University player has earned the top offensive honor. JaQuan Ebron has been honored twice, and Jewels Gray once. Defensively the Rams Sam Kirtley and Tyrese Wolfe have earned the honor, and on Special Teams Joey Dales has twice been named POTW, and Thomas Lee once.

HEAD COACH & COORDINATORS

Dewey Lusk Head Football Coach (Sixth season)

Dewey Lusk is the 10th head coach in Bluefield history and the third since the program was reinstated in 2012.

In his first year at Bluefield, 2017, Lusk guided the Rams to a 6-5 record, once more win than the team had in its previous five seasons combined. In 2018 the Rams played tough, but injuries had a toll and Bluefield finished the year 4-7. Three games were decided by a touchdown or less. The 2019 season saw Bluefield finish with a 3-8 record and the 2020 season, due to Covid, was played in the Spring of 2021 and Bluefield was 2-7. The 2021 campaign saw Lusk lead Bluefield University to a 6-5 record as the team won its last five games of the season.

Lusk came to Bluefield from Webber International University where he served as offensive coordinator in 2016. From 2011-15 he was head coach at UVa-Wise where he guided the Highland Cavaliers in the transition from an NAIA program to an NCAA Division II school. He was associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Wise 2008-10. During his stint as offensive coordinator UVa-Wise became one of the most vaunted offensive juggernauts in NAIA football. In 2008 the Highland Cavaliers offense was fourth in the NAIA in scoring and second in pass efficiency and total offense.

Lusk was offensive coordinator at Emory & Henry College 1991-2005 and was also the school's head baseball coach 1992-2003. He was also an assistant at Abingdon (Va.) High School (1990-91), Gardner Webb University (1985-87).

A native of Christiansburg, Virginia, and a graduate of Christiansburg High School, Lusk earned a B.A. in History from Emory & Henry College in 1985, and an M.A. in Physical Education from Gardner Webb in 1987. He is married to the former Mily Dover of Shelby, North Carolina, and is the father of a son, Gil, and a daughter, Landi.

Dino Kaklis Associate Head Coach/Defensive Co- ordinator

Dino Kaklis is in his sixth year at Bluefield University. He previously served on the staff at North Carolina A&T, was defensive coordinator at UVa-Wise and head coach at Bethel (Tenn.) University. Kaklis had an outstanding collegiate playing career at Purdue University where he was a four-year starter for the Boilermakers. He is married to Nicole Chicklo Kaklis and the father of two girls, Isabella and Gabriella.

Michael Ketchum Offensive Coordina- tor/Offensive Line Coach

Michael Ketchum begins his fifth season on the Bluefield coaching staff. He came to BU from Hampton University where he was defensive coordinator. Ketchum was head coach at his alma mater, Guilford College from 1991-2004, and won the school's only conference championship. During his tenure at Guilford he coached six All-Americans and 67 All-Conference players.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Rod Howard Defensive Line Coach

The 2022 season will be Rod Howard's sixth year on the coaching staff at Bluefield University. A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Howard played at the University of Memphis under former Virginia Tech head coach Justin Fuente. Howard lettered and registered at least one start at three levels of college football, NCAA Division I (Memphis), NCAA Division II (Harding, and NAIA (Lambuth).

Gil Lusk Running Backs Coach

Gil Lusk starts his sixth season on the Bluefield University coaching staff. Lusk graduated from UVa-Wise with a 3.67 GPA and a B.S. in Business Administration. On the gridiron he played slot receiver for four years. As a senior he earned the Charlie Price Award, given annually to the UVa-Wise football player who demonstrates dedication.

Devon Jackson Defensive Backs Coach

Devon Jackson, a Bluefield University alumnus, begins his third season on the Rams' coaching staff. Jackson was a four-year letterman for Bluefield, graduating in 2018. During his career he was a three-time Mid-South Conference Player of the Week, and was named to the Mid-South Conference Appala-

Phillip Dunford Special Teams Coach

Phillip Dunford enters his third season at Bluefield University. A 1993 graduate of Big Creek High School (War, W.Va.), and 1999 graduate of Concord University, Dunford guides the Rams' special teams. At BCHS he was a West Virginia All-State defensive end. At Concord he lettered in both football and baseball.

Bryan Carr Offensive Assistant Coach

Bryan Carr is in his first season as an offensive assistant for the Rams. Carr graduated from Concord University where he played tight end from 2011-12. He began his career at West Virginia Wesleyan College and later transferred to Concord University. He coached offensive line at Concord University from 2013-15. He currently is a firefighter and EMT for the City of Bluefield, West Virginia.
