Delaware: Monté Ross (Winston-Salem State '92), 10th season overall and at Delaware, 132-182

Elon: Matt Matheny (Davidson '92), seventh season overall and at Elon, 107-115

STORYLINES

• Delaware closes out its 2015-16 season on Senior Day against Elon, the second straight year UD will play its final home game against the Phoenix. UD seniors Sean Locke and Marvin King-Davis will be honored in a pregame ceremony.

• The Blue Hens suffered a 74-64 loss at Drexel on Thursday, as UD went winless in its conference road games for the first time since the 2009-10 season. Delaware has tied the school record with 15 conference losses, as the 2006-07 and 2009-10 squads each finished 3-15 in the CAA.

• Marvin King-Davis scored a game-high 24 points for Delaware, his sixth 20-point effort of the season. He has reached double figures in six consecutive games, averaging 18.3 points during that stretch.

• Kory Holden added 18 points and seven assists, but no other Blue Hen reached double figures.

• Elon has won all four previous meetings with Delaware, including all three since joining the CAA prior to last season.

• UD scored just 11 first half points and eventually fell to the Phoenix, 83-56, at Alumni Gym on Feb. 4.

• Anthony Mosley scored 23 points while Devonne Pinkard added a career-high 17, but neither Holden or King-Davis hit a field goal as the duo combined for just three points.

• The Blue Hens will be the No. 10 seed in next week's CAA Tournament in Baltimore. Delaware will face the No. 7 seed, either Northeastern or Charleston, on Friday at 8:30 p.m. at Royal Farms Arena in the first round of the tournament.

Last Time Out

Drexel used a 12-point run midway through the second half to take control as the Dragons posted a 74-64 victory over Delaware Thursday night at the Daskalakis Center.

Marvin King-Davis scored a game-high 24 points and grabbed eight rebounds for the Blue Hens, who dropped to 7-21 overall and 2-15 in the conference. Kory Holden added 18 points and seven assists on the night, while Cazmon Hayes chipped in with eight points and seven rebounds.

Drexel, which won its second straight contest, improved to 5-23 overall and 3-14 in league play. Terrell Allen led four Dragons in double figures with 19 points as he hit all 10 of his free throw attempts, while Tavon Allen added 18 points and Kazembe Abif notched a double-double with 10 points and 13 rebounds.

Drexel went 14 of 21 (66.7%) from the field during the second half and knocked down 15 of 21 free throws in the final stanza as the Dragons pulled away for the victory.

Delaware led by two points at the half and was still up a point at 41-40 following two King-Davis free throws with 11:12 to play, but Drexel exploded for 12 straight points to take a 52-41 lead and force a UD timeout with 7:23 to play.

King-Davis scored inside to end an 0 of 11 drought from the field for the Blue Hens, while Anthony Mosley banked in a three-pointer to cut the deficit to 54-46 a minute later. However the Dragons countered with four straight points and led by at least eight the rest of the way.

Delaware jumped out to an early 9-2 lead, but Drexel answered with six straight points and went ahead 17-13 on a three-pointer by Tavon Allen at the 7:17 mark. The Blue Hens battled back and used an 8-1 run to go in front by six, and eventually took a 29-27 halftime lead over the Dragons.

Delaware scored the first two baskets of the second period, but Drexel used an 8-0 run to go back in front and the game remained tight until the Dragons' decisive run.

Delaware vs. Elon

Elon has won all four previous meetings with Delaware, including all three since joining the CAA prior to last season. This year marks the second straight season the Blue Hens are playing the Phoenix on Senior Day.

Delaware vs. Elon First Meeting

Delaware scored just 11 first half points and was down 20 at the break as the Blue Hens eventually fell to Elon, 83-56, at Alumni Gym on Feb. 4.

The Phoenix took a 31-11 lead into the half and went up by as many as 38 points as Elon snapped a three-game home losing streak.

Anthony Mosley scored a game-high 23 points for Delaware, his second consecutive 20-point game, while Devonne Pinkard added a career-high 17 points, all but two after halftime. Barnett Harris led all players with a career-high 12 rebounds, while Pinkard grabbed a season-high nine of his own.

However Kory Holden was limited to just one point, while Marvin King-Davis had just two on the night as neither player converted a field goal. Delaware shot just 32.8 percent from the field and handed out only five assists while committing 16 turnovers.

Christian Hairston and Brian Dawkins led Elon with 12 points apiece, while Tanner Samson and Dainan Swoope each contributed 10 on the night.

Delaware opened just 2 of 10 from the field in the early going, falling behind the Phoenix 16-4 eight minutes in following a layup by Sheldon Eberhardt. Later in the half the Blue Hens went scoreless for over five minutes, as the Phoenix scored nine straight to go up 27-9 with 4:55 to play in the stanza.

Pinkard ended the drought with a tough basket inside but Delaware would not score again the rest of the period, as two buckets by Dawkins gave the Phoenix a commanding 31-11 lead at the break.

Delaware went just 5 of 23 from the field in the opening half, hit only one of four free throw attempts, and committed 11 turnovers while not handing out an assist.

Mosley converted layups on consecutive trips early in the second period but Elon answered with a nine-point spurt, going up 42-15 with 16 minutes remaining. The lead grew to as much as 57-19 with 11:33 to play, and the Blue Hens did not cut the lead under 25 the rest of the way.

Injury Report

Sean Locke suffered an ankle sprain in practice three weeks ago, and is questionable for today's game.

Chivarsky Corbett suffered a torn right ACL at Temple, and will miss the remainder of the season.

Eric Carter suffered an ACL injury during preseason drills in September, and is also out for the season. Both Carter and Corbett will redshirt and retain sophomore eligibility next season.

Blue Hens Will Be No. 10 Seed in CAA Tournament

Delaware will be the No. 10 seed in next week's CAA Tournament in Baltimore. The Blue Hens will face the No. 7 seed, either Northeastern or Charleston, on Friday night at 8:30 p.m. at Royal Farms Arena in the first round of the tournament.

Holden On A Tear

Kory Holden has reached double figures in 23 of 28 contests this season. He currently ranks fourth in the CAA by averaging 17.4 points per game and second with a 38.8 three-point percentage. Among CAA games, Holden is tied for third in the league with an 84.1 free throw percentage.

King-Davis Producing For Blue Hens

Marvin King-Davis scored a game-high 24 points at Drexel, his sixth 20-point game of the season.

King-Davis has reached double figures in six consecutive games, averaging 18.3 points during that stretch.

Hayes Looking To Get Going

Cazmon Hayes reached double figures in 13 of his first 16 games of the season, but has scored in double digits in just three of his last 11 contests, averaging 8.2 points in that stretch.

However Hayes has grabbed at least six rebounds in five consecutive games.

Pinkard Scoreless in Consecutive Games

Devonne Pinkard scored 47 points in a four-game stretch from Jan. 30 through Feb. 11, including a career-high 17 points at Elon. However he has scored just eight points in the last four games, and did not score while playing 47 combined minutes in the last two games vs. James Madison and Drexel.

Johnson Contributes in First Week Back

Skye Johnson returned to the court on Feb. 18 vs. Charleston after missing 13 games with a concussion/skull fracture, recording six points, two rebounds and two blocks in 17 minutes of action.

Johnson again scored six points while grabbing three boards last Saturday at James Madison.

Holden Reaches 800-Point Mark

After scoring 18 points at Drexel, Kory Holden now has 846 career points at Delaware, 46th in school history. He is the seventh player in UD history to reach 800 points in his first two years, and just the second to surpass the total by the end of his sophomore season.

800 Points in First Two Years at UD

Player	Points	Years	Class
Jawan Carter	1,046	2008-10	Sophomore-Junior
Devon Saddler	1,014	2010-12	Freshman-Sophomore
Tony Tucker	885	1986-88	Junior-Senior
Lee Swayze	861	1970-72	Junior-Senior
Kory Holden	846	2014-16	Freshman-Sophomore
Peca Arsic	845	1994-96	Sophomore-Junior
Marc Egerson	814	2007-09	Junior-Senior

King-Davis Cleaning The Glass

Marvin King-Davis posted his 12th double-double of the season with 15 points and 10 rebounds vs. Charleston.

King-Davis has grabbed 535 career rebounds, good for 27th place in UD history. He is the sixth leading active rebounder in the CAA.

Wire To Wire

Delaware never trailed during the win over Charleston, the first time the Blue Hens did not trail in a game since the 73-70 win at William & Mary on Feb. 14, 2015.

Blue Hens Snap School Record Skid

Delaware's 69-60 victory over Drexel on Feb. 11 snapped a school record 15-game losing skid. The previous mark had been a 14-game streak during the 1964-65 campaign.

The win also snapped a 12-game conference losing skid, which was the longest in school history.

Delaware Puts Five in Double Figures vs. Drexel

Delaware put five players in double figures during the home win over Drexel, the first time UD had five double figure scorers since the second game of the season against Iona. Marvin King-Davis (23), Cazmon Hayes (13), Kory Holden (12), Anthony Mosley (11) and Devonne Pinkard (10) accounted for all 69 Blue Hen points.

Blue Hens Shoot 50% vs. Dragons

Delaware went 19 of 38 from the field against Drexel, shooting 50 percent from the field. That tied for the Blue Hens' highest shooting percentage of the year, as UD also shot 50 percent at Iona (25 of 50) on Nov. 20.

Delaware's 38 field goal attempts are the fewest since UD attempted 37 at Vermont on Dec. 19, 2007.

Mosley With Another Big Game at Elon

Anthony Mosley, who had reached the 20-point mark once in the first 46 games of his career, surpassed 20 points in consecutive games at Towson and Elon. After scoring a career-high 28 points against the Tigers on Jan. 20, he poured in a game-high 23 at Elon on Feb. 4.

Mosley, who had never reached double figures in consecutive games prior to Dec. 29, has reached double figures in 14 of the last 18 contests.

UD Opponents Firing Away From Deep

Delaware's opponents are averaging of 28.5 three-point attempts per game, as 47.3% of their field goal attempts have come from behind the arc. The Blue Hens have attempted an average of 17.2 three-point shots per contest.

Seven consecutive UD opponents made at least 11 three-pointers from Dec. 12 through Jan. 7, while the last five in that stretch attempted at least 30 shots from behind the arc. The Blue Hens had not previously allowed more than two consecutive opponents to make at least 10 three-pointers since the start of the 2000 season.

UD's opponents have hit more three-pointers than the Blue Hens in each of the last 21 games.

Ross Second on UD Wins List

Blue Hen head coach Monté Ross has won 132 games throughout his 10 years in Newark, the second most in program history. Steve Steinwedel won 163 games during his 10 seasons guiding the Blue Hens from 1985-95.

King-Davis Leading Blue Hens

Marvin King-Davis currently ranks second in the CAA with 9.1 rebounds per game and 3.2 offensive rebounds per game, and is fourth with 6.0 defensive boards per contest.

King-Davis had reached double figures in scoring during each of the first eight games this season (his previous best was four straight) before scoring seven points at Boston College. He currently ranks second on the team and ninth in the CAA with a 14.6 scoring average.

King-Davis entered the season with four career double-doubles in 75 career games, and already has 12 this year. That puts him second in the CAA and tied for 35th in Division I this season.

Delaware Enjoys Major Free Throw Disparity

Delaware has averaged 23.9 free throw attempts per game this season, while its opponents have attempted only 19.0 per game. Delaware has committed 70 fewer fouls than its opponents and attempted 135 more free throws this season.

UD went 36 of 45 from the foul line during the game at Towson on Jan. 30, its highest number of free throws made and attempted this season.

Holden Handing Out the Assists Again

Kory Holden, who ranked second in the league with 5.0 assists per game and eighth with a 1.5 assist/turnover ratio a year ago, has picked up where he left off again this year.

Holden handed out eight assists at Iona, one shy of his career-high. He added seven in three other games, and currently ranks fifth in the CAA with 4.2 assists per game.

Last year Holden was one of only two Division I freshmen to average at least 12.0 points, 3.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists, along with D'Angelo Russell of Ohio State.

Harris Grabs Career-High Boards at Elon

Barnett Harris led the Blue Hens with a career-high 12 rebounds at Elon. His previous career-best had been nine boards at Drexel on Feb. 26, 2015.

Holden Sets Free Throw Mark at Towson*Delaware Basketball on the Internet

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through www.bluehens.com.

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats and live streaming are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the 12th straight season, all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on 94.7 WDSO. Scott Klatzkin (play-by-play) and Bill Harman (analyst) will call the action.

Additionally, some Blue Hen men's basketball games are broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

Blue Hens, Tigers Light Up Scoreboard

Delaware scored 97 points and allowed 101 points at Towson, UD's most points scored and allowed since a 108-107 overtime win over Bryant at Madison Square Garden on Dec. 21, 2013.

The Blue Hens scored their most points in a losing effort since a 113-111 defeat at New Hampshire on Feb. 26, 1995.

Holden, Mosley A Dynamic Duo at Towson

Kory Holden (33) and Anthony Mosley (28) combined for 61 points during the Jan. 30 loss at Towson. That marked the first game that two UD players scored at least 28 points since Davon Usher (30) and Devon Saddler (29) against Charleston Southern on Nov. 10, 2013.

The duo combined to score 26 of Delaware's final 28 points of the game, including all 14 in overtime.

Holden's 33 points were the second most in his career, behind his 35-point effort at Boston College on Dec. 19, while Mosley's 28 points were eight more than his previous career-best.

Blue Hens Productive At Foul Line vs. Towson

In each of UD's previous five games heading into the Jan. 30 contest at Towson, the Blue Hens had shot under 68 percent from the foul line. However Delaware went 36 of 45 (80.0%) from the line against the Tigers, as Kory Holden and Anthony Mosley combined to finish 26 of 27 from the charity stripe.

The Blue Hens' 36 free throws made and 45 attempted were each the most since UD went 41 of 50 from the line during a win at Old Dominion on Jan. 5, 2013.

Jeffers Sets Career-High in Blocks at Towson

Maurice Jeffers blocked a career-high six shots at Towson, to go with eight points and seven boards. Delaware blocked nine shots as a team vs. the Tigers, its highest total of the year.

Holden, Hayes Do First Half Scoring at BC, Nova

Kory Holden and Cazmon Hayes combined for all 35 of Delaware's first half points at Boston College on Dec. 19. Holden scored 22 in the opening period, while Hayes added 13.

The duo then scored the Blue Hens' first five points of the second half; UD's first points from another player came with 13:13 remaining when Marvin King-Davis converted a layup.

Holden (13) and Hayes (12) scored 25 of UD's 26 first half points during the following game at Villanova, with the lone other point coming on a Maurice Jeffers free throw at the 5:04 mark.

Hayes Sets Career-High at Columbia

Cazmon Hayes scored a career-high 24 points during the Dec. 6 game at Columbia, including 19 in the first half. In fact Hayes scored 16 of Delaware's first 18 points of the contest, while each of his career-high five three-pointers came in the opening stanza.

McRoy Goes From Manager To Starter

Curtis McRoy served as a team manager as a freshman in 2013-14, before joining the squad as a walk-on player last year. He entered the game at Columbia having played 14 total minutes in eight career appearances, and had never scored a point or grabbed a rebound.

But with Holden suffering from a migraine, McRoy was inserted into the starting lineup at the last minute and took advantage of his opportunity. He scored six points while knocking down both of his three-point attempts, collected four boards and dished out two assists in 23 minutes of action.

McRoy again started at Hofstra on Dec. 31, hitting a three-pointer in 11 minutes on the floor.

King-Davis Posts Monster Game vs. USF

Marvin King-Davis grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds while adding 16 points in the win over USF. His 18 rebounds were the most by a UD player since Janelle Hagins also had 18 against Drexel on Feb. 21, 2013.

Blue Hens Win Home Opener

Delaware had lost two consecutive home openers before the 73-72 victory over Fairleigh Dickinson.

Delaware is now 16-8 in home openers at the Bob Carpenter Center, including 4-6 under head coach Monté Ross.

2014-15 Review

Although the Blue Hens finished just 10-20 a year ago, Delaware was an even 9-9 in the CAA and won nine of its final 16 games of the season. Included in that stretch was an impressive 12-day run that featured victories over CAA regular season co-champions Northeastern, William & Mary and UNCW. The wins over the Huskies and Tribe each came on the road.

Delaware then battled eventual CAA champion Northeastern in a tightly-contested tournament quarterfinal game before eventually falling to the Huskies, 67-64.

Blue Hens Look To Replace Kyle Anderson

Delaware returns 10 of its 11 scorers from a year ago but lost guard Kyle Anderson, a third team All-CAA selection last year who led the Blue Hens with 14.4 points per game.

Anderson finished his career as UD's leader with 269 three-pointers made, and is 13th in school history with 1,292 career points.

Carter Redshirting Season With ACL Injury

Blue Hen sophomore forward Eric Carter suffered an ACL injury during preseason drills in September, and will sit out the season as a redshirt.

Carter appeared in 23 games while making three starts last year as a freshman, when he averaged 2.5 rebounds and 1.4 points per game. He ranked fifth among CAA freshmen in rebounding, and led UD with a season-high eight rebounds during the win at Charleston.

Transfers Bryant, Burns To Redshirt Season

Sophomore guards Darian Bryant and Tyler Burns will also sit out this season as redshirts after both players transferred to UD over the summer.

Bryant appeared in 32 games for George Washington a year ago, averaging 1.2 points and 0.8 rebounds per game. He scored a season-high seven points vs. UMBC, and added five in three other games.

Burns recorded 36 points, 19 rebounds and 10 assists during his freshman campaign at King's College.

Delaware, NU CAA's Best Over Last Five Years

Since the start of the 2011-12 season Delaware and Northeastern lead the CAA with 50 regular season conference victories.

MONTÉ ROSS

HEAD COACH
10TH SEASON
WINSTON-SALEM
STATE '92

Monté Ross is currently in his 10th year as the head coach of the University of Delaware men's basketball program in the 2015-16 season.

Ross signed a new contract on Mar. 26, 2015 to remain at UD.

Ross, who pronounces his first name "mon-tay", is the 23rd head coach in University of Delaware men's basketball history and currently ranks second in school history with 125 career victories. This is his first head coaching position after an outstanding career as a Division I assistant coach for 13 seasons.

After two successful years in 2011-12 and 2012-13, Ross led the Blue Hens to one of the best seasons in school history in 2013-14, when he was named the Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year, NSSA Big House Gaines Division I Coach of the Year, and NABC UPS District 10 Coach of the Year. In February Ross was selected the Delaware Sportswriters & Broadcasters Tubby Raymond Coach of the Year, picking up his fourth award in an 11-month span.

Delaware finished the season 25-10, tied for the second most wins in a season in school history, and won its first 11 regular season conference games en route to the program's first CAA regular season title. The Blue Hens secured their eighth regular season league title in school history, while UD's 14 conference wins tied for the second most in a single season.

UD won 13 consecutive games from Jan. 1 through Feb. 12, tied for the second longest streak in school history, while the Blue Hens' 11 road victories on the year also ranked second in program history.

Delaware then won three straight contests in the CAA Tournament in Baltimore, including a dramatic 75-74 comeback win over William & Mary in the final, to claim the fifth conference tournament title in school history.

The Blue Hens earned the No. 13 seed in the East Regional, battling fourth-seeded and 11th ranked Michigan State before falling to the Spartans, 93-78, in an NCAA Tournament second round game in Spokane, Wash.

Ross was instrumental in the development of guard Devon Saddler, who set a school record and currently ranks sixth in CAA history with 2,222 career points. Saddler earned All-CAA honors during all four years of his career, and was named to the 2014 Lou Henson Mid-Major All-America Team.

Saddler was joined on the first team All-CAA and All-District 10 teams by fellow senior Davon Usher, who set a UD single season record by scoring 679 points during the 2013-14 season.

Despite losing all but one starter for the 2014-15 season and battling through some early season injuries, Ross helped the Blue Hens win 10 games, including a 9-9 mark in the CAA. Kyle Anderson was a third team All-CAA selection, while Kory Holden and Chivarsky Corbett each earned CAA All-Rookie honors. That marked just the second time in school history that UD featured two players on the conference All-Rookie team in the same season.

The Blue Hens' resurgence began in 2011-12 when Delaware posted a record of 18-14, finished fifth in the CAA with a record of 12-6, and qualified for post-season play. Ross led the Hens to the post-season for the first time since 2001 with a first round meeting with two-time defending NCAA runner-up Butler in the College Basketball Insider (CBI) Tournament.

The individual awards were plentiful for the Blue Hens as Saddler, the league's second leading scorer at 18.8 points per game, and Jamelle Hagins each earned second team All-CAA and second team NABC All-District laurels while guard Jarvis Threatt earned a spot on the CAA All-Rookie team.

Hagins, who set the school record for career blocked shots, was named to the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Defensive All-American team while Threatt earned a spot on the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Freshman All-American squad.

Ross followed up that successful campaign with an even better showing in 2012-13 as the Blue Hens finished 19-14 overall, placed second in the CAA with a 13-5 league mark, and advanced the CAA Tournament Semifinals for the first time in 10 years.

Included among those victories was a win at Virginia, the program's first over an Atlantic Coast Conference school in 50 years, as Delaware advanced to the semifinals of the NIT Season Tip-Off at Madison Square Garden.

Saddler led the CAA with 19.9 points per game, while earning first team All-Conference laurels in addition to NABC and USBWA All-District honors. Hagins, who became the school's career rebounding leader, was tabbed the CAA Defensive Player of the Year while also earning second team All-CAA and NABC All-District accolades.

Hagins was selected to participate in the prestigious Portsmouth Invitational following his outstanding career.

Taking over a program that had lost 20 games each of the previous two seasons, Ross had his struggles in his first season at the helm of the Blue Hens in 2006-07 as a young and depleted squad posted a record of 5-26 and went 3-13 in Colonial Athletic Association play to finish in 12th place.

But Ross guided an impressive turnaround in Year Two and made a strong case for CAA Coach of the Year honors. Still guiding a young squad, the Blue Hens were the second most improved squad in the league, posting a mark of 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA standings with a record of 9-9.

The Hens improved nine games from the previous season, tripling their league win total and posting just as many overall wins as the previous two years combined. Ross also led his team to a first round CAA Tournament victory as the Blue Hens knocked off long-time rival Drexel 60-51. Leading the squad was third team All-CAA forwards Herb Courtney and Marc Egerson, CAA All-Rookie pick Alphonso Dawson, and one of the league's top point guards in Brian Johnson.

Delaware won its first five league games during the season and among its CAA wins were a home win over league champion and NCAA Tournament participant George Mason, a home win over regular season runner-up UNCW, and an early season road win over tournament runner-up William & Mary.

Delaware went 13-19 overall and 6-12 during the 2008-09 season, but the year included impressive home victories over VCU and George Mason. The Blue Hens also posted an overtime win over Drexel, while Egerson was named first team all-conference and all-district. The following season, the Blue Hens posted a record of 7-24, including wins over America East champion Vermont and Patriot League runner-up Lafayette.

Delaware posted a seven-win improvement during last year, going 14-17 overall and placing seventh in the CAA with an 8-10 league mark. The Blue Hens won five straight games early in the campaign, including an impressive home victory over eventual league champion Old Dominion. Delaware advanced to the CAA Tournament Quarterfinals following a victory over Northeastern in the first round, while freshman Devon Saddler was named the league's Rookie of the Year.

Ross, 45, served as an assistant coach under Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University for 10 seasons before taking over at Delaware, helping to lead the Hawks to a record of 262-141, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and three National Invitation Tournament appearances. The 2003-04 team went 30-2 and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

A 1992 sport management graduate of NCAA Division II Winston-Salem State where he played for legendary head coach and Basketball Hall of Fame member Clarence "Big House" Gaines (828-447 record in 47 seasons from 1946-1993), Ross has been surrounded by championship basketball throughout his coaching career.

During his 13 seasons as an NCAA Division I assistant, Ross helped lead teams to nine winning seasons, seven campaigns with 20 or more victories, and a winning percentage of .650. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times and to the NIT Tournament three times while capturing five conference championships.

After beginning his career as an assistant at Lehigh in 1993-94, he spent two seasons as an assistant at Delaware's top rival Drexel, leading the Dragons to consecutive North Atlantic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 1995 and 1996 under head coach Bill Herrion. The 1995-96 squad, led by current NBA veteran Malik Rose, posted a record of 27-4 and upset Memphis in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Ross joined the Saint Joseph's staff in 1996-97 during Martelli's second season as head coach. The Hawks rose to national prominence under Martelli, participating in post-season action seven times, including each of the Ross' final six seasons on Hawk Hill. During Ross' tenure, the Hawks won four Atlantic 10 regular season titles, one conference tournament title, posted five seasons with 20 or more wins, and averaged 23 wins over his final six seasons.

The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times during his tenure, including a memorable 2003-04 season when Saint Joseph's posted a 30-2 record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Hawks were a national story, going through the regular season undefeated and earning a No. 1 national ranking late in the season.

Ross also helped Saint Joseph's advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997, to the NCAA second round in 2001, and to the NCAA first round in 2003. In 2005-06 Saint Joseph's went 19-14, advanced to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship game, and advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Saint Joseph's also made a run to the NIT title in 2004-05, going 24-12 and falling in the championship game. The Hawks won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 during Ross' first season on Hawk Hill in 1996-97.

Ross, who served as the Hawks' recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's point guards, was instrumental in bringing three current NBA players to Saint Joseph's, including two first round draft picks in 2004 consensus National Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and Delonte West.

Ross' tenure at Saint Joseph's was the third longest in school history for an assistant coach and he was honored in 2005 with the William J. Bennett Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He shared the award with fellow Saint Joseph's assistant Mark Bass.

In addition to his duties as an assistant at Saint Joseph's, Ross was active with the prestigious Sonny Hill League, serving as a head coach in the summer college league and as an assistant in the high school league.

Ross and his wife, Michelle, reside in Media, Pa. with their son Justin, and daughter Lauren.
