THE NITTY GRITTY

TURKISH DELIGHT

The Blue Hens return 2019 CAA All-Rookie setter Ezgi Basaranlar who is the top returner in the conference in assists per set coming into the spring. She ranked second among all CAA setters and 44th nationally with 10.71 assists per set in her freshman season and played 103 of the team's 104 sets.

SERVING 'EM UP

In 2019, the Blue Hens were tied for first among CAA teams in aces per set, averaging 1.59 a frame as a team. Now-sophomore Lani Mason was ranked second in the conference with 0.35 aces per set in her freshman campaign.

TRENDING UP

As head coach Sara Matthews enters her fourth season in Newark, she has the Blue Hens heading in the right direction. She led the squad back to the post-season in 2019, for the first time since 2016, reaching the CAA Semifinals.

ROOKIES ARE READY

Under Matthews, the Blue Hens have proved to use their underclassmen and this year's newcomers will look to continue that trend. Delaware took home the first two CAA Rookies of the Week in 2019. This season's roster features five more rookies who will look to make an immediate impact.

WELCOME HOME

Delaware features three transfer student-athletes on the spring 2021 roster, two of them new this season. Both newbies are familiar with the Blue Hens as redshirt junior Michaela Putnicki had her career high against Delaware with Penn State in 2017 and classmate Katie Turner played her freshman season with CAA-foe William & Mary before spending last season with Missouri.

STICKING AROUND

The program is happy to welcome back the 2019 CAA Defensive Player of the Year and Delaware graduate Andie Hanus to the coaching staff in 2020-21. Hanus was a two-year standout for the Blue Hens after transferring in from Missouri, solidifying the Delaware defense. She serves as the program's graduate assistant and director of operations.

LAST TIME OUT

The Blue Hens will face the Dukes for the second-consecutive matchup, with only 450 days in between. JMU defeated Delaware in the 2019 CAA Semifinals after the Blue Hens. Delaware dropped the first two sets and came back to erase the deficit and complete the reverse sweep to reach the semifinals for the first time since 2016 when it was also the six-seed and advanced to the championship.

YOUNG & HUNGRY

This Delaware roster features only one true senior in Gabi Zelaya and 10 underclassmen. It doesn't mean the Blue Hens aren't experienced as six student-athletes on the roster saw substantial action in 2019.

SARA MATTHEWS

HEAD COACH | FOURTH SEASON

A rising star in the collegiate coaching ranks who has earned the reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters, Sara Matthews will enter her fourth season as the University of Delaware volleyball head coach in 2020-21.

A standout player at James Madison and Kansas, she served two seasons as an assistant coach at TCU and led the Blue Hens to a CAA Tournament semifinal appearance a season ago.

Matthews, a native of San Diego, Calif., played her first two collegiate seasons at Delaware rival James Madison in 1997-98, where she was an All-CAA standout. She transferred to Kansas for her final two seasons in 1999-2000, where she was a Dean's List student and served as team captain during her senior year. Matthews was a Jayhawk Scholar in 1999, and earned Big 12 All-Academic First Team honors in 2000.

Matthews earned her bachelor's degree in education, sports science from Kansas in 2002 and a master's degree in communications management from USC in 2010. The former Sara Kidd, she is married to Marcel Matthews and has two daughters, Layla and Avani.
