PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

JP Ward and Mike Robinson were both named Inside Lacrosse Preseason All-American honorable mention.

PRESEASON RANKINGS

Delaware men's lacrosse opens the year ranked No. 12 in the Inside Lacrosse and USILA preseason poll and No. 14 in the USA Lacrosse Magazine preseason poll.

IT'S A FAMILY AFFAIR

Families run strong in Delaware lacrosse as the Blue Hens feature twin brothers Cam and Matt Acchione while Pat Gillin's sister Riley Gillin, plays for Delaware's women's lacrosse team. Transfer Donny Gayhardt and LSM Pat Gillin are first cousins.

PRESEASON CAA HONORS

JP Ward was selected at the Preseason CAA Co-Player of the Year. In addition, Mike Robinson, Cam Acchione, and Reed Kurtz were named to the Preseason All-CAA team.

IN THE HENLL

Back in September, Mike Robinson and Reed Kurtz were both selected in the second round of the 2023 NLL draft. Robinson was selected 28th overall by the Halifax Thunderbirds while Kurtz was selected 33rd overall by the NY Riptide.

Delaware currently has seven alumni in the NLL. Ty Kurtz ('23) and Brett Manney ('08) play for the Albany Firewolves, Owen Grant

('23) is on the Vancouver Warriors, Curtis Dickson ('10) and Jake Govett both play for the San Diego Seals and Kevin Lynch ('23) plays for the Philadelphia Wings

THE 2024 TEAM CAPTAINS

Mike Robinson, Drew Lenkaitis, and Tate Wasson were voted 2024 team captains

CHANGE IS ON THE HORIZON

Delaware men's lacrosse will have a new conference beginning July, 2025 as Delaware is leaving the CAA.

TO DELAWARE WE GO

Delaware men's lacrosse welcomed three transfers for the 2024 season as Donny Gayhardt (Colgate), TJ Gravante (The Mount) and Hank D'Ambrogi (Fairfield) all joined the Blue Hens family.

LET'S GO STREAKING

JP Ward has recorded at least one point in 42 straight games dating back to the 2022 season. Mike Robinson has recorded at least one point in 18 straight games dating back to the Hens' 17-11 win over UMBC on March 7 of last season.

A ONE-OF-THREE

JP Ward is looking to become only the third Blue Hens player ever to reach 100-career goals and 100-career assists, joining Tye Kurtz and Rich Mills.

Ben DELUCA

HEAD COACH | 7TH SEASON | CORNELL '98

Head coach Ben DeLuca enters his seventh season at the helm of the Blue Hens for the 2024 campaign.

DeLuca joined the University of Delaware as the head coach of the men's lacrosse program in 2017. He has enjoyed national success as a student-athlete, assistant coach and head coach throughout his career.

He is just the ninth coach in the 76-year history of the sport at the University of Delaware.

DeLuca's impact on the Blue Hens has been immediate and remarkable during his first five years at the helm of the program.

He's led Delaware to four double-digit win seasons in four of the last five full seasons, making him the first head coach in the history of the program to accomplish that feat. Additionally, he's led the Blue Hens to four straight CAA Tournament appearances and five consecutive winning seasons at Delaware Stadium.

DeLuca led the Blue Hens to their second straight CAA championship going 13-5 and 6-1 in conference play to capture UD's second regular season title as well. DeLuca and his staff were named Coaching Staff of the Year in 2023 as the Blue & Gold swept the major awards last season with Tye Kurtz taking home Offensive Player of the Year and Owen Grant receiving Defensive Player of the Year honors. JP Ward and Matt Kilkeary joined Kurtz and Grant with First Team CAA honors. Jason Seiter was named Second Team and Brendan Powers became the first All-Rookie Team member since Robinson, Cam Acchione, and Joe Speers were named All-Rookie in 2021.

The 2022 campaign under DeLuca was one of the most successful seasons in program history. The program's 13 wins was the most in 15 years. The Blue Hens went on to defeat Townson in the CAA finals, and were crowned tournament champions for the first time since 2011. In the NCAA tournament, the Blue Hens picked up multiple wins against Robert Morris and No. 2 Georgetown en route to an appearance in the quarterfinals. It was the program's first NCAA tournament win and appearance in the quarterfinals since 2007.

With the success from the 2022 season, Owen Grant, Tye Kurtz and Jake Govett were selected in the first round of the 2022 National Lacrosse League draft. It is the first time the Blue Hens had multiple athletes selected in the first round in the program's history. Grant was selected third overall by the Vancouver Warriors, Kurtz was selected 17th overall to the Albany FireWolves, and Jake Govett was selected 22nd overall to the San Diego Seals.

Since taking over the program, DeLuca has coached 24 All-CAA performers and five conference major award winners. He has additionally guided five Blue Hens who went on to earn USILA All-American honors. DeLuca's impact on the academic achievement of his student-athletes has been equally impressive, resulting in program records for highest overall semester, year and cumulative team grade point average while producing two USILA Scholar All America selections.

On the field, DeLuca has had Delaware's defense ranked inside the top-20 in the country over the past five seasons, while its offense has made major strides and finished inside the top-20 during the 2021 campaign. The Blue Hens were one of eight teams to finish in the top-20 on both offense and defense in the 2022 campaign.

The Blue Hens enjoyed a historic 2021 season under DeLuca's watch. Delaware finished the year with a 10-3 overall mark and a 7-1 record in conference play en route to being crowned the outright CAA regular season champions for the first time in program history. The three losses on the year were the fewest in program history, in a season with at least 10 games played, since 1999. The Blue Hens also set the CAA record for the most conference wins in a single season.

DeLuca had the Blue Hens clicking all season long as they were one of just seven Division I teams to finish inside the top-20 in scoring offense and scoring defense. He guided Charlie Kitchen '21 and Owen Grant to USILA All-American honors, marking the first time since 2010 that two Blue Hens earned the national recognition in the same season. Six Blue Hens collected All-CAA honors, while Owen Grant became the program's first-ever defensive player of the year. Mike Robinson earned the rookie of the year nod, the second consecutive season that a Blue Hens rookie captured the honor under DeLuca.

In a shortened 2020 season, due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, DeLuca had the Blue Hens off to a 4-2 start to the year. The defense was one of the best in the nation, ranking ninth in Division I in goals allowed and 11th in caused turnovers per tilt. Thomas Aloe was selected as the Colonial Athletic Association Scholar-Athlete of the Year and also honored as the CAA Leadership & Sport Excellence Award winner. Jake Hervada was honored as the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Award.

In 2019, the Blue Hens set a program record with seven student-athletes earning All-CAA Accolades. Tye Kurtz became the program's first CAA Rookie of the Year since 2004, while Charlie Kitchen was named the CAA Player of the Year. Matt DeLuca (no relation) earned the program's first All-American honor since 2011, ranking in the top-10 in both saves per game and save percentage.

In 2018, five student-athletes earned All-CAA accolades with Dean DiSimone, Austin Haynes and Charlie Kitchen earning first team recognition, while Matt DeLuca and Will Hirschmann were named to the second team.

Off the field, the Blue Hens were heavily involved in the community, working with the Mario St. George Boiardi Foundation, the B+ Foundation, the One Love Foundation, being weekly participants at a children's literacy program at nearby McVey Elementary and working with the Ferris School for an annual series of lacrosse clinics.

As a team, the Blue Hens earned over a 3.0 cumulative grade point average, marking the first time in program history that had been accomplished.

In addition, Will Hirschmann was named the recipient of the 2018 Edgar Johnson Award, given to the male senior letter winner at Delaware who has exhibited the qualities of hard work, dedication, leadership, fairness and striving for excellence.

DeLuca came to Delaware with an impressive history of success as a student-athlete and coach at three of the nation's top academic and NCAA Division I lacrosse-playing institutions - Cornell University, Duke University, and Harvard University. During that time, he led teams to 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, including a national championship title as an assistant at Duke, a national runner-up finish as an associate head coach at Cornell, and three other NCAA semifinal appearances as a head coach and as an assistant.

Throughout his twenty-four-year coaching career, DeLuca has recruited, developed and shared in the success of teams which produced a multitude of All-America selections including well more than a dozen First Team honorees. He has coached over forty First Team All-Ivy League selections, several First-Team All-CAA and All-ACC selections, three Ivy League Rookie of Year selections, two CAA Rookie of the Year selections, seven Ivy League Player of the Year honorees, a pair of Lt. Raymond Enners Award winners (USILA Outstanding Player – Div. 1), an En. C.M. Kelly Award winner (USILA Outstanding Goaltender – Div. 1), a Schmeisser Cup award winner (USILA Outstanding Defenseman – Div. 1), three recipients of the Lt. j.g. Donald MacGlaughlin, Jr. Award (USILA Outstanding Midfielder – Div. 1), two Jack Turnbull Award winners (USILA Outstanding Attackman – Div. 1), and a pair of Tewarraton Award winners. DeLuca has guided defensive All-America honorees at four different institutions. Under DeLuca's tutelage, Rob Pannell graduated after breaking a handful of Cornell, Ivy League and NCAA records, becoming the all-time leading scorer in Division I history (354), as well as the Cornell all-time assist leader (204).

DeLuca has invested in development of the young men under his guidance outside the realm of lacrosse as well, spearheading several lasting team community service endeavors, mentoring numerous Academic All-CAA, Academic All-Ivy and Academic All-ACC selections, more than a dozen USILA Academic All-America selections, multiple ESPN / CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, and a pair of Lowe's Senior CLASS Award winners.

In the community, DeLuca's student-athletes have been heavily involved in the community, volunteering with such organizations as the Mario St. George Boiardi Foundation, B+ Foundation, One LOVE Foundation, HEADstrong Foundation, American Cancer Society, the American Red Cross, Children's Dream Factory of Central New York, Family Reading Partnership of Central New York, children's literacy, Team Impact, and the Army Ranger Lead the Way Fund.

DeLuca came to Delaware after two years serving as the Associate Head Coach at Harvard University. In his first season, DeLuca helped lead the Crimson to the Ivy League Championship game after knocking off top-seeded and No. 2 ranked Brown in the semifinals. At the conclusion of the year, three Crimson student-athletes were named to the USILA All-America teams, with a total of six individuals garnering All-Ivy League honors. In 2016, one Crimson player was recognized with USILA honors and three others earned All-Ivy League honors.

Prior to his time in Cambridge, DeLuca spent two seasons as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator under John Danowski at Duke University, helping the Blue Devils to the 2014 National Championship and the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship. DeLuca coached four defensive All-America honorees in his first season in Durham.

DeLuca began his coaching career at his alma mater and was an integral part of restoring the Cornell lacrosse program back to the upper echelon of Division I lacrosse during his time as an Assistant Coach, Recruiting Coordinator, Defensive Coordinator, Associate Head Coach and Head Coach. In total, DeLuca spent 17 years at Cornell, including four years as a player for the Big Red before serving as an assistant coach for two seasons. A brief two-year hiatus took DeLuca away from Ithaca and into the business world, but he returned in the summer of 2002 and he was promoted to the top assistant position and recruiting coordinator in the summer of 2003. He became the first Mario St. George Boiardi Assistant Coach of Men's Lacrosse the following year and was promoted to Associate Head Coach following the 2007 season. His efforts helped to guide the Big Red to nine NCAA Tournament appearances from 2004 to 2013. Cornell competed in four NCAA national semifinal games, a national championship game and captured ten Ivy League Championships in eleven years during that span. DeLuca was named as the IMLCA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2007.

In 2013 DeLuca led Cornell to an outstanding 14-4 record overall, losing three regular season games by a single goal. Cornell advanced to the NCAA Final Four with convincing playoff wins over the 6th and 3rd ranked teams in the country before falling in the National Semifinal to eventual National Champion Duke by 2 goals. Twelve student-athletes earned All-America recognition under DeLuca's tutelage, including five first team selections.

DeLuca's overall record as Cornell's Head Coach was 37-11 (.771), and 16-2 (.889) in Ivy League play.

Matt REWKOWSKI

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | SEVENTH SEASON | JOHNS HOPKINS, '05

Matt Rewkowski begins his seventh season as an assistant coach on Ben DeLuca's staff with the University of Delaware men's lacrosse program in 2023.

Since arriving at UD in June of 2017, Rewkowski has guided the Blue Hens' offense to new heights.

In another dominant year for the Blue Hens in 2023 Rewkowski helped Delaware bring back the CAA title in back-to-back years. The Blue Hens offense was ranked 2nd in the NCAA in total goals with (254) and scoring margin (5.65). They were also ranked 3rd in total points (398), 6th in points per game (23.41), 6th in goals per game (9.29), and tied for 5th in shot percentage (.340). Delaware also ranked first in the CAA in multiple categories such as, total goals, goals per game, scoring margin, assists (144), assists per game (8.47), total points, points per game, and shot percentage. With a dominating win over Stony Brook in the CAA finals the Blue Hens went on to host Marist in the first round of the NCAA tournament and defeated Marist 25-10. With the success of the offense in 2023 Ty Kurtz was named CAA Offensive Player of the Year and was presented with All-American Recognition. Ty Kurtz also is now the top player in Delaware history in career goals (176), career man-up goals (19), career consecutive games with a point (63) and career points (278).

The 2022 campaign was one of the most successful seasons in Blue Hens history. Under Rewkowski, the Blue Hens offense ranked 16th in the NCAA in shot percentage (.316) and in scoring margin (2.63), 19th in assists per game (7.84), and 20th in scoring offense (13.42). In addition, the Blue Hens ranked first in the CAA in assists per game, points per game (21.26), tied for first in man down goals (0.11), and second in goals per game (13.42), shots per game (42.47), shots percentage (.316), man-up goals (1.37), and shots on goal (26.84). The Blue Hens offense scored a combined 30 goals in two CAA tournament games, including an 11-6 win over Townson in the CAA Championship Game. The Blue Hens cruised into the NCAA Tournament and defeated Robert Morris 20-8 in the opening round. The 20 goals are the most the Blue Hens have ever scored in an NCAA Tournament game. The Blue Hens followed that performance up with a win over No. 2 Georgetown 10-9, marking the first time the program made it to the NCAA Quarterfinals since 2007.

With the success of the 2022 season, Blue Hens forward Tye Kurtz was drafted 17th overall by the Albany Fire-Wolves. Kurtz finished second on the Blue Hens in goals with 52, assists with 15, and points with 67. He was a 2021 Second Team All-CAA honoree and the CAA's Rookie of the Year in 2019.

The Blue Hens enjoyed a historic 2021 season with Rewkowski on staff. Delaware finished the year with a 10-3 overall mark and a 7-1 record in conference play en route to being crowned the outright CAA regular season champions for the first time in program history. The three losses on the year were the fewest in program history, in season with at least 10 games played, since 1999. The Blue Hens also set the CAA record for the most conference wins in a single season.

Rewkowski had the Delaware offense ranked 17th in Division I in goals per game (13.38), the highest ranking in over 10 years for the program. Delaware was also just one of two Division I teams to have three players finish inside the top-50 nationally in goals per game. The Blue Hens ranked inside the top-20 nationally and top-three in the CAA in assists per game (7.69) and points per game (21.08) as well.

The three-headed attack unit of Charlie Kitchen, Mike Robinson and Tye Kurtz collected All-CAA honors, while Kitchen additionally earned USILA All-American recognition. Robinson, who had a breakout sophomore campaign under Rewkowski's watch, was named the CAA Rookie of the Year after finishing third nationally in goals per game and leading the CAA in goals scored. Robinson was the first Blue Hen since Curtis Dickson '10 to lead the CAA in scoring.

In 2019, Rewkowski mentored both junior Charlie Kitchen and freshman Tye Kurtz, the CAA Offensive Player of the Year and the CAA Rookie of the Year, respectively. Kitchen marked the first OPOY since Curtis Dickson in 2010, while Kurtz became the first ROY since Alex Smith in 2004. Kurtz also joined rookie Clay Miller on the College Crosses Freshman All-America team, while Dean DiSimone garnered First Team All-CAA honors.

As an offensive unit, the 2018 Blue Hens ranked second in the conference, putting 10.57 shots in the back of the net per game. Charlie Kitchen, Dean DiSimone and Will Hirschman all nabbed All-CAA honors under Rewkowski's tutelage.

Prior to his arrival at Delaware, Rewkowski spent the previous five seasons assisting at Georgetown where he served under former UD assistant coach Kevin Varne, following a two-year tenure on DeLuca's staff as associate head coach at Cornell.

"Matt has extensive experience and success playing and coaching lacrosse at the highest levels," DeLuca said. "He is a gifted teacher with a strong work ethic and knows what it takes for our program to be successful on the field, in the classroom, and in the community. Most importantly to me, I believe Matt is a man of high character and outstanding values."

Rewkowski is a 16-year veteran of the coaching ranks following an outstanding playing career at Johns Hopkins and pro career with the Denver Outlaws and New Jersey Pride of Major League Lacrosse. He was a senior co-captain for the Johns Hopkins team that captured the 2005 NCAA title and earned his degree there that same spring.

A native of Bethpage, New York, he began his coaching career at Denver East High School in 2006 before moving on to Delaware's CAA rival Hofstra where he served four seasons (2007-10) and led the Pride to 36 victories, two CAA titles, and three NCAA Tournament berths. He coached eight All-Americans and 27 All-CAA selections during his tenure and the 2010 team ranked No. 5 nationally in scoring (12.93 gpg).

Rewkowski moved on to Cornell and served for two seasons as DeLuca's associate head coach in 2011-12. He helped lead the Big Red to an NCAA Tournament quarterfinal berth in 2011 when the team won the Ivy League title, went 14-3 overall, and ranked No. 2 nationally in scoring at 12.7 goals per game. That squad was bolstered by USILA national Player of the Year Rob Pannell. Despite the loss of Pannell, the 2012 team still flourished on offense and ranked No. 9 in the nation in scoring (12.0 gpg).

While with the Hoyas, he led consistently high-scoring offensive units that averaged over 10 goals per game twice and helped lead the Hoyas to the Big East Tournament Championship game in 2015. He coached numerous All-Big East selections and mentored 2015 All-American Craig Berge.

Rewkowski and his wife, Julie, are parents to son, Ryan, and daughters, Anna and June. They reside in Middletown, Delaware.

Trey WILKES

ASSISTANT COACH | SEVENTH SEASON | OHIO STATE, '13

Trey Wilkes, a former standout faceoff specialist at Ohio State University, joined new University of Delaware men's lacrosse head coach Ben DeLuca and his staff as a volunteer assistant coach in the fall of 2017 before being promoted to an assistant coach in June of 2021.

Wilkes, a native of Ijamsville, Md. in Frederick County, works with the defensive unit and faceoff specialists.

In 2023, the Blue Hens brought home the second straight CAA Championship under Wilkes. The Hens ranked 3rd in the NCAA in goals allowed per game (9.29) and 5th in total caused turnovers (162). The Blue Hens ranked first in the CAA in goals against average (9.29), save percentage (.524), caused turnovers (162) and shots-on-goal (455). With a win of 13-10 over Stony Brook in the CAA finals, Delaware played Marist in the first round of the NCAA championships and won 25-10. Owen Grant was named Defensive Player of the Year for the third year in a row. Grant being the first Blue Hen ever to win the award in three consecutive years. He also was the first Blue Hen to achieve First-Team All-American recognition since Jon Grant. Owen Grant is now first in Delaware history in career caused turnovers (125) and season caused turnovers (36).

The 2022 campaign was one of the most successful seasons for the Blue Hens men's lacrosse program. Under Wilkes, the Blue Hens ranked 12th in the NCAA in clearing percentage (.887), 16th in scoring margin (2.63) and 19th in scoring defense (10.79). The Blue Hens also ranked first in the CAA in goals against average (10.76). With their success on defense, the Blue Hens went on to win the CAA tournament game against Townson 11-6. In the NCAA tournament, the Blue Hens defeated Robert Morris 20-8, and No. 2 Georgetown 10-9. It was the second time Georgetown was held under 10 goals in the 2022 season, and the first time in over two months. Between two CAA tournament games, and three NCAA tournament games, the Blue Hens held their opponents to 7.8 goals per game.

Thanks to the success of the 2022 season, defender Owen Grant was selected third overall by the Vancouver Warriors. Grant was the reigning two-time Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Defensive Player of the Year. Grant appeared and started in 19 matches, scored seven goals and added three assists. He earned Inside Lacrosse Second Team All-America accolades and received USILA All-America recognition this past season.

The Blue Hens enjoyed a historic 2021 season with Wilkes on the staff. Delaware finished the year with a 10-3 overall mark and a 7-1 record in conference play en route to being crowned the outright

CAA regular season champions for the first time in program history. The three losses on the year were the fewest in program history, in a season with at least 10 games played, since 1999. The Blue Hens also set the CAA record for the most conference wins in a single season.

"Trey is an impressive young coach with a strong work ethic and a keen understanding of the intricacies of the game of lacrosse," said DeLuca. "Trey's values and character align perfectly with Delaware Lacrosse and our student-athletes will benefit greatly from his passion, dedication and knowledge."

During his career at Ohio State, Wilkes earned second team All-ECAC honors, was a 2013 Scholar All-American, a two-time All-Academic Big Ten selection, and a three-time Ohio State Scholar Athlete. He also earned the prestigious Lindner Memorial Scholarship for his character and work ethic. Wilkes helped Ohio State post a then-program record best No. 3 national ranking and an NCAA Elite Eight appearance against Cornell in 2013. He ranked among the top nationally in face-off percentage that season, winning 58 percent of his 300 attempts and leading the squad with 68 ground balls. Wilkes resides in Wilmington, DE with his wife, Hannah.

Mark BIEDA

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST SEASON | DELAWARE, '22

Mark Bieda enters his first season as a member of the men's lacrosse coaching staff.

Bieda rejoins the Blue Hens men's lacrosse family after a one-year stint with his brother Scott at Michigan.

Bieda, a Bridgewater, N.J. native, returns to Delaware where he was a four-year starting midfielder for the Blue Hens. Following graduation from UD in May of 2022, Bieda served as a volunteer assistant coach at Michigan for the 2023 season. With the Wolverines, Bieda worked as the face-off and wing coach for the No. 8-ranked face-off unit in the country. During his time in Ann Arbor, the Wolverines captured a Big 10 Conference Championship and put together Michigan's first winning season since 2018.

Bieda was dynamic in the Hens midfield for four years from 2018 to 2022. He was named team captain twice during his UD tenure and helped lead the Blue & Gold to the 2022 CAA championship and a berth in the NCAA tournament. The Blue Hens advanced to the quarterfinals that year before falling to Cornell, the eventual 2022 runners-up. Over his career, Bieda appeared in 41 contests, making 31 starts. He tallied 36 career goals with 43 assists for 79-career points. He put up a .670 shot on goal percentage with four game-winning goals. Throughout his career, Bieda garnered numerous accolades including CAA Player of the Week, Second-Team All-CAA, and earning a spot on the 2022 USILA Senior All-Star team.

Sammi SHIVOCK

DIRECTOR OF LACROSSE OPERATIONS | THIRD SEASON | LIBERTY, '14

Sammi Shivock joined the University of Delaware men's lacrosse staff as the new director of operations in July of 2021.

Shivock is no stranger to Delaware as she has been a part of the Blue Hen family since 2015 as an assistant softball coach for several years before transitioning into her most recent role as the club sports coordinator in 2018.

As the club sports coordinator she co-managed the daily operations for Delaware's 37 club sport teams, which consists of around 1,400 participants. Shivock additionally oversaw program community service efforts and was at the helm of the club sports BLUE (Building Leaders Utilizing Education) leadership program.

Prior to her time as the club sports coordinator, she served as an assistant softball coach at Delaware for three seasons. Along with her coaching duties, Shivock managed program operations for the team as well as camp preparation, development and execution for ages six to 18. She additionally played a major role in the planning and execution of specialty games, recruiting visits and community service events.

Before arriving at Delaware, Shivock spent one season as an assistant softball coach at Arcadia. While with the Knights, she helped prepare and plan team travel and special recruiting day festivities, facilitated community relations activities and fundraising opportunities, and aided with successful management of academics, athletics and overall wellbeing of the student-athletes on top of her regular coaching responsibilities.

Shivock also gained operations experience with Ripken Youth Baseball.

Shivock earned a degree in sport management from Liberty University in 2014, and was a four-year member of the Flames softball team.
