TODAY'S GAME

Delaware hosts the nationally-ranked Fairfield Stags on Saturday. The opening faceoff is scheduled for 12 p.m. at Delaware Stadium.

WE GOT HISTORY

This will be the 17th meeting between the teams with the Blue Hens holding a 11-5 all-time record against the Stags.

OWNING THE X

The Blue & Gold have been dominant at the X this season, ranking 1st in the CAA and 4th in the country with a 65.0 faceoff winning-percentage. OJ Morris leads the country in faceoff percentage at 70.1.

WATCH OUT FOR 15

Kevin Ellington was named to the 2025 Tewaaraton Award Watch List. The Tewaaraton Award annually honors the top male and female college lacrosse players in the country.

ON THE ATTACK

Brendan Powers ranks among the best in the CAA in goals per game (2nd/2.80) and points per game (2nd/3.80).

GROUND BALL MACHINE

OJ Morris is 2nd in the conference and is 26th in the country in ground balls per game with a 5.40 average.

STIFLING STOPPER

Kevin Ellington is 3rd in the CAA in saves per game (11.78) and save percentage (.531). Nationally, the grad student ranks 20th in saves per game and 32nd in save percentage. He also tallied his first-career assist at Towson.

MIDSEASON RECOGNITION

OJ Morris was named a Midseason All-American Honorable Mention by Inside Lacrosse. He is one of three players in the CAA to be named to this list in 2025, joined by Mikey Weisshaar (Towson) and Julian Radossich (Fairfield).

BUSY WEEK FOR BP

Brendan Powers was named CAA Men's Lacrosse Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against Stony Brook. He tallied seven points (five goals, two assists) to go with five ground balls and a caused turnover as Delaware defeated the Seawolves, 17-9. The Skaneateles, N.Y. native also earned a spot on the USILA DI Team of the Week.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All requests for interviews with Ben DeLuca and the Delaware student-athletes must be arranged through Eli Vaupen. Advance notice of at least 24 hours is preferred, but every attempt will be made to accommodate all requests. No one will be available for interviews on game day, except for post game interviews.

NEXT MAN UP

The Blue Hens will have to replace their top two scorers from a season ago, JP Ward and Mike Robinson. Ward led UD with 59 points, while Robinson was right behind him with 56. John McCurry led all returners with 33 points in a stellar freshman campaign.

DELAWARE IN THE (HE)NLL

Delaware placed a trio of Blue Hens into the NLL this season. UD was tied for a league-high three draft picks, matching a program high in 2022. Matt Acchione was selected 16th overall to conclude the first round by the Saskatchewan Rush. JP Ward was picked 28th overall pick by the Albany FireWolves in the second round. Cam Acchione was picked 39th overall by the San Diego Seals in the third round.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Junior Brendan Powers, who was fifth on the team in points a year ago, is the son of Delaware Athletics Hall of Famer, Randy Powers. Brendan was named to the 2023 CAA All-Rookie Team, while Randy was a three-time USILA All-American and is fourth all-time in goals (161).

NOT GOING ANYWHERE

Ben DeLuca signed a six-year extension through 2031. DeLuca was named Delaware's head coach in 2017, leading the Blue Hens to tremendous success over the past seven seasons. Entering the 2025 campaign, the Blue & Gold have gone 65-34 under DeLuca, including leading them to three double-digit win seasons in his first five full seasons, making him the first head coach in the history of the program to accomplish that feat.

NEW YEAR, NEW SCHOOL

In the modern era of college athletics, Delaware continues to utilize the transfer portal. This year, the Hens welcome Aiden Bodonyi (Ohio State), Cory Capri (Yale), Jack Kolbe (Merrimack), and Jackson Shields (York).

DELUCA'S DOMINANCE

Head coach Ben DeLuca owns a 52-15 record against teams on the schedule in 2025.

KEVIN'S CAGE

Kevin Ellington, the reigning CAA Defensive Player of the Year, started every game in cage for the Blue Hens in 2024. He was the only goalkeeper in the country to finish the season top-10 in goals against average (9.60), save percentage (.590), and saves per game (13.36) en route to an All-American Honorable Mention from both USILA and USA Lacrosse.

FRESH FACES

The Blue & Gold added 12 true freshmen to the roster this season: Duncan Barnes, Michael Dickinson-Tooman, Drew Duncan, Nathan Furgeson, Lange Gaspar, Keegan Lathrop, Ben Maynor, Bennett Parmer, Liam Powell, Colton Silverstein, Maverick Smith, and Matthew Warburton.

WELCOME COACH KAPINOS

Delaware welcomes assistant coach Kacy Kapinos to the staff. Kapinos is a 2016 graduate of Ohio State University. He comes to UD with over 10 years of coaching experience, from the high school, club, and collegiate level, most recently at Lafayette College.

ROOKIE SENSATION

Bennett Parmer was named CAA Men's Lacrosse Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Utah. In his first collegiate game, the freshman attackman scored four goals, including the game-winner with under a minute to play in UD's 13-12 upset of the #18/19/18 Utah Utes.

YEAH, BABY!

Brendan Powers was named CAA Men's Lacrosse Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against St. John's. He netted a then career-high six goals as the #16/18/18 University of Delaware men's lacrosse team stormed past St. John's, 17-10.

MCCURRY MAGIC

John McCurry was named to the USILA Division I Team of the Week after he tied a career-high with five goals in the Blue Hens' 11-6 victory over High Point.

BRICK WALL

Kevin Ellington was named CAA Men's Lacrosse Co-Defensive Player of the Week for his performance against High Point. The Bel Air, Md. native made 14 saves in the cage to improve to 3-1 on the campaign as the Blue Hens took down the Panthers, 11-6.

HE'S GOT THE POWER(S)

Brendan Powers was named CAA Men's Lacrosse Co-Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against Towson. He netted a career-high seven goals to go with two assists in the Blue Hens' 19-18 overtime loss to the Tigers.

NOW THEY ALWAYS SAY CONGRATULATIONS

Kevin Ellington was named a Preseason All-American Honorable Mention by USA Lacrosse. Ellington was also voted Preseason All-CAA, while sophomore John McCurry earned an honorable mention nod from the league after a stellar rookie campaign.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN!

Delaware will be led this season by captains Kevin Ellington, Jason Kolar, and Logan Premtaj.

HIGH SCHOOL CONNECTIONS

Duncan Barnes, Tyler Owings, and Riar Schell played at the Boys' Latin School of Maryland.

Wells Bergstrom and Bennett Parmer played at Manheim Township.

Kevin Ellington and Liam Powell played at Loyola Blakefield.

Louie Atkinson and Patrick Gillin played at The Haverford School.

Aiden Bodonyi and Matthew Warburton played at Western Reserve Academy.

COACHING POWER COUPLE

Ben DeLuca and his wife Laurie DeLuca have proven to be a formidable duo in the lacrosse world. Ben, the successful head coach of the Blue Hens men's lacrosse program is joined in the coaching ranks by his better half, Laurie, who was named the first head coach of the Boston Guard in the Women's Lacrosse League (WLL). Laurie led the Guard to the first-ever WLL championship series title in February. Laurie was a star goalkeeper at the University of Delaware for women's lacrosse. She was named the America East Rookie of the Year in 1999 before earning IWLCA Third-Team All-American Honors in 2002.

REMEMBERING NUMBER EIGHT

Dan Harley (1983-86), a former Blue Hen, passed away this January. To honor his memory, UD will don his number eight on a sticker on its helmets for the 2025 season. Harley was a highly touted defenseman coming out of Massapequa, N.Y. Dan was a four-year starter at close defense and was a critical component of the Blue Hens' run of success in the mid-80's. The program won three-consecutive ECC championships.

MOVIN' ON UP

On November 28, 2023, Delaware announced it would be moving to Conference USA effective July 1, 2025. This will push Delaware football to the FBS level. As a result, men's lacrosse will be moving to the Atlantic 10 Conference.

CARRYING THE HARD HAT

Patrick Gillin carries the hard hat this season for UD. Established during Coach DeLuca's time as an assistant at Cornell in 1999, the hard hat award is a tangible symbol of the work ethic and mentality that the program embodies. The yearly winner is voted on by the coaching staff as the program's hardest working and most team first player.

ACTION JACKSON

Eight-year old Jackson Gabrielli is a member of the Delaware men's lacrosse family by way of Team IMPACT, an organization that matches children facing serious illness and disability with college sports teams, creating a long-term, life-changing experience for everyone involved. When Jackson was two-years old, he received a liver transplant at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. After the transplant, Jackson was full of energy and thriving until a transplant complication arose in May 2023, when Jackson was diagnosed with Lymphoma and Leukemia. Jackson completed an aggressive six-round treatment regime, spending most of those six months inpatient at CHOP, where he picked up the nickname Action Jackson. On November 15, 2023, Jackson and his family received the news that he was cancer-free and in remission.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER

With over 1,100 schools across three divisions in the NCAA, the Blue Hens are one of two institutions with the nickname in the hen family. Pomona-Pitzer, a division III institution, is nicknamed the Sagehens. Both South Carolina and Jacksonville State have the nickname Gamecocks and Coastal Carolina is the Chanticleers, which both fall in the rooster family.

A NEW ERA

The University of Delaware will join the Atlantic 10 for men's lacrosse, effective July 1, 2025.. The Blue Hens become the league's seventh men's lacrosse team joining the University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, and affiliate members High Point University, Hobart College, and University of Massachusetts.

"This is a very exciting opportunity for our men's lacrosse program," Director of Athletics, Community, and Campus Recreation Chrissi Rawak said. I'd like to thank Commissioner McGlade and the athletic directors in the Atlantic 10 for the opportunity to join the league. We are committed to competing for championships in men's lacrosse and the A-10 will be a terrific fit for us and our goals."

No stranger to the national scene, Delaware has appeared in the NCAA Tournament eight times, including back-to-back appearances in 2022 and 2023. The program's 76-year history was highlighted by a trip to the NCAA semifinals in 2007 and a 10-9 upset victory over No. 2-ranked Georgetown in the first round of the 2022 tournament to advance to the quarterfinals.

"The University of Delaware has appreciated our 23 seasons in the CAA immensely," said Delaware men's lacrosse head coach Ben DeLuca. "As we conclude our tenure in the CAA following the upcoming 2025 season, we look forward to a new and exciting chapter for our program in the Atlantic 10 Conference," DeLuca continued. "The A-10 features several very competitive, nationally ranked teams and a few familiar opponents. We are grateful for this opportunity and excited for the future of our program."

The Blue & Gold's storied history dates back to its inaugural 1948 season. Since then, the program has amassed 24 conference titles with three consecutive regular season CAA crowns from 2021 to 2023 and back-to-back championships in 2022 and 2023.

Throughout its 76-year history, the program boasts 73 All-America selections and has produced 29 professional players including the likes of Tye Kurtz, Charlie Kitchen, Curtis Dickson, Owen Grant, Matt DeLuca and John Grant Jr.

Delaware will remain in the Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) through the 2024-25 school year and will be eligible for both a league title and NCAA postseason competition.

"Delaware's men's lacrosse program has a long history, highlighted by 76 years of success and eight NCAA Tournament appearances," stated Atlantic 10 Commissioner Bernadette V. McGlade. "They will be a great addition to Atlantic 10 men's lacrosse."

Throughout its history, Delaware has played 45 games against A-10 opponents with a combined 41 contests against Saint Joseph's and UMass. The Hawks and Minutemen were Delaware's most recent Atlantic 10 opponents having faced both teams back in 2021.

About the Atlantic 10 Conference
The Atlantic 10 Conference was founded in 1975 and consists of 15 diverse members across nine states and Washington, D.C. The mission of the Atlantic 10 is to provide an enhanced student-athlete experience through 22 nationally competitive championship sports. The basketball-centric conference is committed to integrity, educational excellence and providing quality equitable championship experiences for its student-athletes, coaches, and support staff. The membership consists of Davidson College, the University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, George Mason University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, Loyola University Chicago, the University of Massachusetts, the University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University and Virginia Commonwealth University.

Ben DELUCA

HEAD COACH | 8TH SEASON | CORNELL '98

Ben DeLuca joined the University of Delaware as the head coach of the men's lacrosse program in 2017, with his first season at the helm coming in 2018. He has enjoyed national success as a student-athlete, assistant coach and head coach throughout his career.

He is just the ninth coach in the 75-year history of the sport at the University of Delaware.

Upon his hiring, Delaware Director of Athletics, Community, and Campus Recreation Chrissi Rawak said:

"I am so excited to have Ben and his family as part of our Blue Hens family. Ben believes strongly in the pursuit of excellence on and off the field and embodies the core values that drive the decisions we make every day in Delaware Athletics. He brings to us an incredible knowledge of the game of lacrosse and an understanding that the University of Delaware is a very special place. We have such a passionate group of Delaware lacrosse alumni and I know Ben will build a strong connection with them. There is absolutely no doubt that Ben makes our men's lacrosse program, this department, and this University better."

He's led Delaware to four double-digit win seasons in his first six full seasons, making him the first head coach in the history of the program to accomplish that feat. Additionally, he's led the Blue Hens to six straight CAA Tournament appearances and six consecutive winning seasons at Delaware.

The 2024 season saw the Blue Hens finish as the CAA Championship runner-up with an overall record of 9-5. Mike Robinson became the program's all-time leading scorer with 185 goals. Robinson was named second-team All-CAA as he was one of eight Blue Hens to earn All-CAA honors including JP Ward, Aidan Fritz, Reed Kurtz, Matt Montgomery, John McCurry, and Louie Atkinson. Senior Kevin Ellington was named the CAA Defensive Player of the Year, the first of many honors for the goaltender. Ellington went on to earn both USILA and USA Lacrosse All-America recognition. DeLuca had the pleasure of coaching Delaware's third player to reach both 100-career goals and 100-career assists in Ward.

In 2023 DeLuca was named CAA Coach of the Year and helped lead the Blue Hens to their second straight CAA Championship with a win over Stony Brook. With a 13-5 season, the Blue Hens made it back to the NCAA tournament, advancing to the second round after a win against Marist 25-10. Delaware was ranked 2nd in the NCAA for total goals (254) and scoring margin (5.65). The Blue Hens brought home two major awards in 2023 as Tye Kurtz was named CAA Offensive Player of the Year and Owen Grant was named the conference's Defensive Player of the Year. Grant was the first Blue Hen to ever win three consecutive Defensive Player of the Year awards and the first Blue Hen since Jon Grant Jr. to earn First-Team All-America status. Kurtz joined Grant as Delaware's other men's lacrosse All-American.

The 2022 campaign under DeLuca was one of the most successful seasons in program history. The program's 13 wins was the most in 15 years. The Blue Hens went on to defeat Towson in the CAA finals, and were crowned tournament champions for the first time since 2011. In the NCAA tournament, the Blue Hens picked up multiple wins against Robert Morris and No. 2 Georgetown en route to an appearance in the quarterfinals. It was the program's first NCAA tournament win and appearance in the quarterfinals since 2007.

With the success from the 2022 season, Owen Grant, Tye Kurtz and Jake Govett were selected in the first round of the 2022 National Lacrosse League draft. It is the first time the Blue Hens had multiple athletes selected in the first round in the program's history. Grant was selected third overall by the Vancouver Warriors, Kurtz was selected 17thoverall to the Albany FireWolves, and Jake Govett was selected 22nd overall to the San Diego Seals.

Since taking over the program, DeLuca has coached 34 All-CAA performers and seven conference major award winners. He has additionally guided nine Blue Hens who went on to earn USILA All-American honors. DeLuca's impact on the academic achievement of his student-athletes has been equally impressive, resulting in program records for highest overall semester, year and cumulative team grade point average while producing six USILA Scholar All America selections.

On the field, DeLuca has had Delaware's defense ranked inside the top-20 in the country over the past five seasons, while its offense has made major strides and finished inside the top-20 during the 2021 campaign. The Blue Hens were one of eight teams to finish in the top-20 on both offense and defense in the 2022 campaign.

The Blue Hens enjoyed a historic 2021 season under DeLuca's watch. Delaware finished the year with a 10-3 overall mark and a 7-1 record in conference play en route to being crowned the outright CAA regular season champions for the first time in program history. The three losses on the year were the fewest in program history, in a season with at least 10 games played, since 1999. The Blue Hens also set the CAA record for the most conference wins in a single season.

DeLuca had the Blue Hens clicking all season long as they were one of just seven Division I teams to finish inside the top-20 in scoring offense and scoring defense. He guided Charlie Kitchen '21 and Owen Grant to USILA All-American honors, marking the first time since 2010 that two Blue Hens earned the national recognition in the same season. Six Blue Hens collected All-CAA honors, while Owen Grant became the program's first-ever defensive player of the year. Mike Robinson earned the rookie of the year nod, the second consecutive season that a Blue Hens rookie captured the honor under DeLuca.

In a shortened 2020 season, due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, DeLuca had the Blue Hens off to a 4-2 start to the year. The defense was one of the best in the nation, ranking ninth in Division I in goals allowed and 11th in caused turnovers per tilt. Thomas Aloe was selected as the Colonial Athletic Association Scholar-Athlete of the Year and also honored as the CAA Leadership & Sport Excellence Award winner. Jake Hervada was honored as the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Award.

In 2019, the Blue Hens set a program record with seven student-athletes earning All-CAA Accolades. Tye Kurtz became the program's first CAA Rookie of the Year since 2004, while Charlie Kitchen was named the CAA Player of the Year. Matt DeLuca (no relation) earned the program's first All-American honor since 2011, ranking in the top-10 in both saves per game and save percentage.

In 2018, five student-athletes earned All-CAA accolades with Dean DiSimone, Austin Haynes and Charlie Kitchen earning first team recognition, while Matt DeLuca and Will Hirschmann were named to the second team.

Off the field, the Blue Hens were heavily involved in the community, working with the Mario St. George Boiardi Foundation, the B+ Foundation, the One Love Foundation, being weekly participants at a children's literacy program at nearby McVey Elementary and working with the Ferris School for an annual series of lacrosse clinics.

As a team, the Blue Hens earned over a 3.0 cumulative grade point average, marking the first time in program history that had been accomplished.

In addition, Will Hirschmann was named the recipient of the 2018 Edgar Johnson Award, given to the male senior letter winner at Delaware who has exhibited the qualities of hard work, dedication, leadership, fairness and striving for excellence.

"My family and I want to thank President (Dennis) Assanis and Chrissi Rawak for this special opportunity and for the trust they have showed in inviting us to share in their mission to lead the renaissance of this great program together," said DeLuca. "I agree wholeheartedly with Chrissi's vision of comprehensive excellence in all facets of the student-athlete experience. We want to be great in the sport of lacrosse, but we want to be excellent in the classroom and leaders in the community as well. I take very seriously my role as an educator, mentor, and role model and will lead our central mission to develop young men into men and prepare them for life after college. Our program aspires to produce polished, accomplished, admirable men who will graduate and become ambassadors for the University of Delaware and Blue Hen Lacrosse. Hard work, integrity, character and a passion for greatness will be the hallmarks of our program. Well done is better than well said, and here at the University of Delaware we believe our actions will speak louder than our words."

DeLuca came to Delaware with an impressive history of success as a student-athlete and coach at three of the nation's top academic and NCAA Division I lacrosse-playing institutions - Cornell University, Duke University, and Harvard University. During that time, he led teams to 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, including a national championship title as an assistant at Duke, a national runner-up finish as an associate head coach at Cornell, and three other NCAA semifinal appearances as a head coach and as an assistant.

Throughout his 24-year coaching career, DeLuca has recruited, developed and shared in the success of teams which produced a multitude of All-America selections including well more than a dozen First Team honorees. He has coached over forty First Team All-Ivy League selections, several First-Team All-CAA and All-ACC selections, three Ivy League Rookie of Year selections, two CAA Rookie of the Year selections, seven Ivy League Player of the Year honorees, a pair of Lt. Raymond Enners Award winners (USILA Outstanding Player – Div. 1), an En. C.M. Kelly Award winner (USILA Outstanding Goaltender – Div. 1), a Schmeisser Cup award winner (USILA Outstanding Defenseman – Div. 1), three recipients of the Lt. j.g. Donald MacGlaughlin, Jr. Award (USILA Outstanding Midfielder – Div. 1), two Jack Turnbull Award winners (USILA Outstanding Attackman – Div. 1), and a pair of Tewaaraton Award winners. DeLuca has guided defensive All-America honorees at four different institutions. Under DeLuca's tutelage, Rob Pannell graduated after breaking a handful of Cornell, Ivy League and NCAA records, becoming the all-time leading scorer in Division I history (354), as well as the Cornell all-time assist leader (204).

DeLuca has invested in development of the young men under his guidance outside the realm of lacrosse as well, spearheading several lasting team community service endeavors, mentoring numerous Academic All-CAA, Academic All-Ivy and Academic All-ACC selections, more than a dozen USILA Academic All-America selections, multiple ESPN / CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, and a pair of Lowe's Senior CLASS Award winners.

In the community, DeLuca's student-athletes have been heavily involved in the community, volunteering with such organizations as the Mario St. George Boiardi Foundation, B+ Foundation, One LOVE Foundation, HEADstrong Foundation, American Cancer Society, the American Red Cross, Children's Dream Factory of Central New York, Family Reading Partnership of Central New York, children's literacy, Team Impact, and the Army Ranger Lead the Way Fund.

DeLuca came to Delaware after two years serving as the Associate Head Coach at Harvard University. In his first season, DeLuca helped lead the Crimson to the Ivy League Championship game after knocking off top-seeded and No. 2 ranked Brown in the semifinals. At the conclusion of the year, three Crimson student-athletes were named to the USILA All-America teams, with a total of six individuals garnering All-Ivy League honors. In 2016, one Crimson player was recognized with USILA honors and three others earned All-Ivy League honors.

Prior to his time in Cambridge, DeLuca spent two seasons as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator under John Danowski at Duke University, helping the Blue Devils to the 2014 National Championship and the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship. DeLuca coached four defensive All-America honorees in his first season in Durham.

DeLuca began his coaching career at his alma mater and was an integral part of restoring the Cornell lacrosse program back to the upper echelon of Division I lacrosse during his time as an Assistant Coach, Recruiting Coordinator, Defensive Coordinator, Associate Head Coach and Head Coach. In total, DeLuca spent 17 years at Cornell, including four years as a player for the Big Red before serving as an assistant coach for two seasons. A brief two-year hiatus took DeLuca away from Ithaca and into the business world, but he returned in the summer of 2002 and he was promoted to the top assistant position and recruiting coordinator in the summer of 2003. He became the first Mario St. George Boiardi Assistant Coach of Men's Lacrosse the following year and was promoted to Associate Head Coach following the 2007 season. His efforts helped to guide the Big Red to nine NCAA Tournament appearances from 2004 to 2013. Cornell competed in four NCAA national semifinal games, a national championship game and captured ten Ivy League Championships in eleven years during that span. DeLuca was named as the IMLCA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2007.

In his first season serving as Cornell's Head Coach, DeLuca led the Big Red to a 14-3 record and became only the second coach in the history of the Ivy League to post an undefeated Ivy record in his first season, joining Ned Harkness (Cornell, 1966). After subsequently leading the Big Red to their first Ivy League Tournament Championship in program history, DeLuca became the first coach in the history of the Ivy League to lead his team to an 8-0 record in conference play as well as the first coach in Cornell history to lead the Big Red to the NCAA tournament in his first season.

The following year in 2012, despite losing Rob Pannell, the reigning USILA National Player of the Year, in just the second game of the season, DeLuca guided the Big Red as high as No. 3 in the national rankings and captured the program's historic 700th win in program history over upstate rival Syracuse. Cornell finished with a 9-4 record overall and a mark of 4-2 record in the league, good for a second-place finish in the league standings while advancing to the Ivy League Tournament semifinals.

In 2013 DeLuca led Cornell to an outstanding 14-4 record overall, losing three regular season games by a single goal. Cornell advanced to the NCAA Final Four with convincing playoff wins over the 6th and 3rd ranked teams in the country before falling in the National Semifinal to eventual National Champion Duke by 2 goals. Twelve student-athletes earned All-America recognition under DeLuca's tutelage, including five first team selections.

DeLuca's overall record as Cornell's Head Coach was 37-11 (.771), and 16-2 (.889) in Ivy League play.

DeLuca has gained invaluable international coaching experience representing the United States as a member the U.S. Men's National Team staff. DeLuca served as the Assistant General Manager for the 2018 U.S. Men's National Team that captured the gold medal in the Federation of International Lacrosse World Championships in Netanya, Israel. DeLuca was primarily responsible for coaching the goaltenders and face-off unit while assisting Head Coach John Danowski in all facets of the game. DeLuca also served as an evaluator and scouting consultant for the 2014 USMNT that earned the silver medal in the FIL World Championships in Denver, Colorado in 2014.

A four-year letter winner on defense for the Big Red, DeLuca played for three years under legendary coach Richie Moran, before becoming a captain his senior year under former head coach Dave Pietramala. He was voted as the team's Outstanding Senior Athlete for his leadership and dedication on and off the field, and was also honored with the Rick LaFrance Award given to the student-athlete who best combines mental and physical toughness along with honor and bravery despite injury. DeLuca earned a Bachelor of Science degree in nutritional sciences and biochemistry in 1998.

A native of Rochester, N.Y, DeLuca is married to the former Laurie Tortorelli, a former All-American goaltender and captain for the women's lacrosse team at the University of Delaware. Laurie was a four-year starter in goal in 1999-2002 and led the Hens to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 and an America East conference title in 1999. She still ranks No. 2 all-time at Delaware with 754 saves and No. 3 in minutes played (3,767).

The DeLucas have two daughters, Elizabeth and Anne.
