who's clinched?

Heading into the final match of the regular season, Liberty, Delaware, Western Kentucky and FIU have all clinched spots in the CUSA tournament. Liberty has clinched the conference regular season championship, as well as the one seed. UD and WKU will clinch the two or three seed, while FIU looks to secure the four seed. Six teams compete for the final four spots as no team is mathematically eliminated from the tournament yet.

seeding scenarios

Delaware will clinch the No. 2 seed in the upcoming CUSA Tournament with a win over Sam Houston on Saturday. If the Blue Hens tie or lose on Saturday, they will need to wait until Western Kentucky plays Middle Tennessee on Sunday evening. A Delaware loss or tie with a WKU tie would earn the Blue Hens the No. 2 seed. A UD loss or tie, along with a WKU win, would drop the Hens to the No. 3 seed.

t time

They play games, hand out prizes, and meet fans from different cultures with the goal of creating an unforgettable experience, and a positive image of the Home Depot.

"This internship is so special, it's too perfect for me. As a fall athlete, it can be tricky to do summer internship," Bley said. "With the internship being the World Cup, it's the biggest sporting event in the world and the biggest sporting event of my lifetime. Being involved in this as a student-athlete is so unique. It's not that far away from campus because it's in Philadelphia. It's such an amazing opportunity to be so close to the world cup as a division I soccer athlete. I get to meet people from other countries, including people from my dad's country, the Ivory Coast. It gave me a sense of what loving a job feels like and now I feel affirmed in my choices for my majors, and what job I want to go to. I feel like I got to meet some of the home depot representatives, it was good to get to speak to them."

HEAD COACH KELLY LAWRENCE

Kelly Lawrence was named the women's soccer head coach on November 14, 2022. Lawrence begins her fourth season with the program.

Delaware women's soccer has achieved significant success and program milestones under Lawrence. In 2025, the Blue Hens excelled in their first season in Conference USA, opening with a program-record 7-0-2 start and earning back-to-back conference tournament appearances for the first time since 2012–13. The team received eight all-conference selections, six postseason academic honors, and spent much of the season regionally ranked.

In 2024, Kyla Burns became the first Blue Hen in program history to earn the conference goalkeeper of the year. Burns also earned first team All-Conference honors, along with Conny Viehmann, Carly Binn, Caitin St. Leger, Brooke Vogel and Olivia Bley all earned all-conference honors.

The Blue Hens' women's soccer program made big strides in its first year under Lawrence in 2023. She started off her coaching career in a big way, defeating Syracuse 1-0. It was the program's first ever win over a power-four school. The Blue Hens picked up a victory over La Salle on the road for the first time since 1994, and tied the program record for goals in a game in its 9-1 win over Hampton.

Prior to UD, Lawrence was the associate head coach at Penn State for one season in 2022. The Nittany Lions made an NCAA second round appearance.

Prior to Penn State, Lawrence served as the associate head coach at Boston University from 2019-22. While at Boston U, she helped coach the team to the 2021 Patriot League Spring North Division Champions and the 2021 Patriot League Regular Season Champions.

Previous stops for Lawrence include serving as the interim head coach/assistant coach at Syracuse University from 2015-19.

As an assistant coach at Monmouth from 2013-14, she helped the team win the 2013 MAAC Tournament Championship and earn back-to-back MAAC Regular Season Championships in 2013 and 2014.

Lawrence competed for Indiana University from 2006-10. While in college she was named to the Mac Hermann Watch List (2008), NCAA Sweet Sixteen Finalist (2007), First Team All- B1G TEN (2007), B1G Ten All-Freshman Team (2006), All B1G Ten Freshmen Team, and three-time NSCAA All-Region. She was the only player in Indiana History to win All-B1G Ten honors in all four years.

She played competitively for the Boston Breakers Reserves (2010) and the Orange County Waves Professional (2011) of the WPSL. Lawrence also played on the England National Team (U15-U23) and Team Great Britain.

Lawrence is married to Delaware Ice Hockey Head Coach Allison Coomey.

ASSISTANT COACHES

SHANNON COLEY

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Shannon Coley enters her fourth season with women's soccer as the program's goalkeeper coach. Since joining Delaware, Coley has helped elevate the Blue Hens into one of the program's most successful eras. The program earned consecutive conference tournament appearances for the first time since 2012–13.

In 2025, freshman Sophia Hall earned CUSA All-Rookie honors and national recognition as one of the country's top freshman goalkeepers. In 2024, Delaware secured its first CAA Tournament berth since 2019, highlighted by a 4-0 conference start, a five-game winning streak, and one of the conference's top defenses. Under Coley's guidance, Kyla Burns became the first Blue Hen to earn Conference Goalkeeper of the Year honors, while the team recorded eight shutouts and allowed just six goals in conference play. Coley's impact was immediate in 2023, helping Delaware earn its first-ever win over Power Five opponent Syracuse, and post one of the strongest defensive seasons in school history. Goalkeeper Kyla Burns led the nation in save percentage, becoming the first Blue Hen to lead the NCAA in a statistical category.

Before Delaware, Coley coached at the University of Rhode Island, Western Michigan, and Lawrence Tech, helping each program achieve on-field success and individual player recognition. A former standout goalkeeper at Oakland University, she ranks among the program's all-time leaders in wins and shutouts and helped lead the Golden Grizzlies to an NCAA Tournament victory over Ohio State in 2012.
