QUICK HITS

- Last season, captain Alaina Giampietro ranked fourth in the AHA in goals with 17.
- Last year, Jessica MacKinnon was second in the conference in both assists (26) and points (41). She was named the AHA's Best Defensive Forward and earned a spot on the All-AHA First Team.
- Since the AHA adopted shootouts in the 2024-25 season, RMU is undefeated, owning a 5-0 record in shootouts. Alaina Giampietro leads the way with two shootout goals.
- Giampietro enters this week with 46 career goals. With four more, she'd become the seventh player in program history to score 50.
- RMU has killed off 20 straight penalties, dating back to their game in the Ice Breaker Tournament against Minnesota State.
- Maggie Hatch recently eclipsed 2,500 career saves, becoming the third netminder in program history to accomplish the feat. At Lindenwood, she earned her first shutout of the season and the 10th of her career. She's the second netminder in program history to reach double digit figures in shutouts. She also produced her first career assist.
- Forwards Taylor Storey and Greta Brezenski have each scored a natural hat trick this year. The fifth and sixth natural hat tricks in program history. This is the first time RMU has had two hat tricks in a campaign since 2019.

RMU LATELY

RMU (5-9, 2-6 AHA) is coming off a series split against RIT. In the series opener, the Colonials fell 4-1. Greta Brezenski scored RMU's lone goal with five minutes remaining, assisted by Rio Pierre and Mary Snyder, as the Colonials pulled within one before RIT added two late empty-net goals.

In the series finale, RMU bounced back with a 3-2 victory. Alaina Giampietro scored the game-winning goal and added an assist, while Thalia D'Elia tallied a power-play goal and was named the AHA Defenseman of the Week. Lindsey Smolen also found the back of the net in her first game back on the ice. Jessica MacKinnon recorded two assists, while Lucy Thiessen, Ava Vrana and Shayne Desjardins each added an assist. In net, Maggie Hatch made 35 saves, marking the 46th time in her career she has recorded at least 30 saves in a game.

Over 14 games, MacKinnon leads the team with nine assists and 15 points while Giampietro and Brezenski each have seven goals. MacKinnon along with defenseman Caroline Aufiero each have a team-high +5 plus/minus. The defensive pairing of Mya Kearns and Desjardins each have 22 blocked shots. In net, Hatch has started in 13 games, earning five wins and one shutout with a .906 save percentage.

RMU Under Bittle

Entering his fourth season as the programs head coach, Bittle helped the Colonials return to their past success, leading the team to the AHA semifinals in his first season. Bittle is no stranger to Colonial Hockey, as both a former student-athlete and assistant coach.

MILESTONE WATCH

Captain Alaina Giampietro is closing in on the 50-goal milestone for her career. Through 95 career games, the Strongsville, Ohio, native has recorded 46 goals, 34 assists and 80 points. Eight of her goals have been game-winners, tying her for fifth in program history, while seven have come on the power play. With four more goals, Giampietro would become just the seventh player in program history to reach the 50-goal mark.

SHORTHANDED SUCCESS

RMU has successfully killed off 20 consecutive penalties, dating back to its matchup against Minnesota State (Oct. 23) at the Ice Breaker Tournament. The Colonials currently own an 84.6% penalty-kill percentage, which would be their highest mark since the 2020-21 season.

ALL-TIME VS. DELAWARE

RMU is 5-0 all-time against the Blue Hens since Delaware launched its women's hockey program last season. The Colonials have recorded three shutouts in those five meetings while averaging 4.4 goals per game.
Last season, RMU traveled to Newark, Del., for the first time and swept the Blue Hens with a pair of 5-0 victories. The Colonials completed another series sweep at home, earning 3-2 and 6-0 wins. The teams also met in the play-in round of the AHA Tournament, where RMU secured a 3-2 overtime victory behind a game-winning goal from Jessica MacKinnon.

In five career games against Delaware, MacKinnon is averaging more than two points per game, totaling five goals and eight assists. That includes a career-high four-assist performance. Giampietro has also enjoyed success against the Blue Hens, recording five goals and four assists. On the blue line, Kaitlyn Schooley has contributed one goal and four assists, while D'Elia has tallied one goal and three assists. Shayne Desjardins has also recorded four assists against Delaware.

SCOUTING THE BLUE HENS

In their second season as a program, Delaware (4-9-1, 2-6 AHA) enters the week on a three-game losing streak after dropping two games to Mercyhurst and splitting a series at Syracuse. In the series opener against the Orange, the Blue Hens earned the first shutout victory in program history with a 1-0 win.

Freshman forward Katie Belk leads Delaware with three goals, while fifth-year defenseman Tiana McIntyre paces the team with six assists and eight points. McIntyre also owns a team-best +2 plus/minus rating and has recorded 28 blocked shots. Sophomore defenseman Lexie Lonask leads the Blue Hens with 40 blocks. In goal, sophomore Charlotte Payne has started 11 games, posting three wins and one shutout. She currently owns a 2.20 goals-against average and a .938 save percentage.
