SYRACUSE NEWS AND NOTES

PUCK DROP
- Syracuse will return with another AHA matchup against Delaware on Thrusday, Oct. 29 and Friday, Oct. 30. Thursday's game is set to begin at 5 p.m. and Friday's puck drop is at 3 p.m. Both games will be streamed live on FloHockey with live stats available on Cuse.com.
- Brian Idalski begins his first season as head coach, alongside Brendon Knight as associate head coach as he heads into his eleventh season with the Orange. New assistant coach Patricia Elsmore will also join Syracuse for her first season.
- Both games will be played at Tennity Ice Pavilion.

ORANGE CAPTURE FIRST RANKED WIN IN FIVE YEARS
- Syracuse beat No. 4 Penn State 5-4 in overtime on Oct. 9 at Tennity Ice Pavilion. It was the Orange's first win over the Nittany Lions since 2024 and its first win over a ranked opponent since 2021. It was also the teams' first meeting under head coach Brian Idalski.
- Jocelyn Fiala scored twice, including the game-winner 1:36 into three-on-three overtime, for the first two-goal game of her career. Her power-play goal early in the third period put Syracuse up 4-2.
- Syracuse was outshot 44-18 but won behind a season-high 40 saves from Ava Drabyk, who stopped 23 shots in a second period where Penn State held a 25-3 edge. The Orange also blocked 12 shots to Penn State's seven and killed three of the Nittany Lions' four power plays.

FIRST FOR GNADE, FOURTH FOR THE ORANGE
- After winning both games against Robert Morris, sophomore Emma Gnade was tabbed AHA Forward of the Week. This was Gnade's first AHA weekly award.
- The Orange took down Robert Morris on Oct. 16 and 17 with a total of eight goals on the weekend. Gnade had an assist in each game and added 15 faceoff wins. Including her impact on the front line, Gnade had a block in the second game against RMU.

WHATS BETTER THAN ONE PLAYER OF THE WEEK? TWO.
- Ava Drabyk was named AHA Goaltender of the Week for week 1 after stopping 36 of 37 shots (.973) in Syracuse's season-opening sweep of Stonehill, including a 17 save shutout in Friday's win. It's her fourth career AHA Goaltender of the Week award and sixth weekly honor overall, after she earned five as a freshman (three Goaltender, two Rookie).
- Jessica Cheung was named AHA Defenseman of the Week for week 1 after scoring twice and blocking four shots against Stonehill, with a goal in each game. Her second period power-play goal Friday doubled the Orange's lead. It's the first weekly award of her career, and she was an AHA All-Rookie Team selection in 2024-25.

O' CAPTAIN MY CAPTAIN
- Ahead of the 2026-27 season opener, head coach Brian Idalski announced the team's captains and alternate captains for the upcoming season.
- Junior Celia Wiegand and senior Nea Tervonen will serve as team captains. This marks Tervonen's second season earning the level, while Wiegand will serve as captain for the first time.
- Rylee McLeod and Jackson Kinsler will serve as alternate captains. This is Kinsler's second year with the honor while it is McLeods first letter of her career.

SYRACUSE IN THE WINTER OLYMPICS
- Two Orange alum competed in Milan for gold in this year's Olympic Winter Games. Melissa Piacentini '16 as Team USA's Video Coach, and Akane Hosoyamada '15 played for Team Japan making her third Winter Olympics appearance.
- USA finished 4-0 in the preliminary group round outscoring opponents 20-1 over the four matches. Including a 5-0 win over Canada to finish the group stage. The US did not given up a goal in playoff matches defeating Italy 6-0 in the Quarterfinals and Sweden 5-0 in the Semifinals. In a wild finish, USA defeated Canada 2-1 in overtime to secure the US's third ever gold medal in women's ice hockey.
- Japan finished 1-3 in Group B, the lone win coming from a 3-2 victory over France. Unfortunately, Hosoyamada and Japan did not continue into the quarterfinals as the team failed to qualify and finished in ninth place.

NEW PLAYERS ON THE BLOCK
- The five members of the class of 2030 begin their careers with the Orange. Two come from the United States while three are from Canada, boosting the Orange's brand internationally.
- Syracuse welcomes forwards Nina Geric and Kendra Raypholtz. Joining our defense is Alara Murphy and Maryn Broderick. And rounding out the class is goaltender Cicely Harnum.
- The Orange also welcomed two transfer students both from Merrimack University. Graduate student, Sophia Hausberger and sophomore Kerttu Lehmus.

SYRACUSE NEWS AND NOTES

DRABYK AND CANADA TAKE GOLD

- With the 2025 IIHF U18 Women's World Championship concluded, sophomore Ava Drabyk and Hockey Canada won gold, topping the United States 3-0.
- Drabyk and Hockey Canada went untouched through the entire tournament in Vantaa, Finland, going 3-0-0 in Group B play, followed by a 17-0 win over Japan in the quarterfinals, a 4-2 win over Czechia in the semifinals and a 3-0 shutout against the United States to claim gold. Canada allowed just five goals the entire tournament.

WELCOME BACK

- The Orange welcome back 17 returners from the 2025-26 team.
- Syracuse retains six sophomores, seven juniors, and four seniors for this season.
- Syracuse added two players from the transfer portal, graduate student, Sophia Hausberger and sophomore Kerttu Lehmus.

ADDITIONS TO THE ORANGE COACHING STAFF

- Brian Idalski was named head coach of Syracuse Women's Ice Hockey in July 2026 and brings 25 years of head coaching experience across NCAA Division I, the PWHL and international hockey. Idalski joins the Orange with more than 400 collegiate and professional wins and a winning percentage above 62 percent. He spent this past season leading the PWHL's Vancouver Goldeneyes through their inaugural campaign, and before that led a turnaround at St. Cloud State (2022-25), earning 2022-23 USCHO National Coach of the Year. He coached China at the 2022 Beijing Olympics and guided the Shenzhen KRS Vanke Rays to a 77-17 record and the 2020 ZhHL Cup. Earlier stops include 10 seasons at North Dakota (2007-17), where he went 169-154-39 with two NCAA Tournament appearances, and UW-Stevens Point, where he went 108-21-11 (.881) and reached the 2004 NCAA DIII National Championship game. A former defenseman who won the 1993 NCAA DIII title as a player at UW-Stevens Point, Idalski has mentored 10 Olympians and nine All-Americans, and his programs have produced 12 Academic All-Americans.
- Brendon Knight returns for his eleventh year on the Syracuse Women's Ice Hockey coaching staff and is an associate head coach for Syracuse Women's Ice Hockey. Knight joined the program before the 2012-13 season after six years as head coach at Hamilton College and was promoted to associate head coach before 2019-20. During his 10 years on staff, the Orange have made two NCAA Tournaments, won two College Hockey America Tournament championships, one CHA regular season title and the 2022 Battle at the Burgh. The Orange have recorded at least 20 power-play goals in seven of his 10 seasons. He helped Syracuse win its first CHA Tournament title and reach its first NCAA Tournament in 2019, then won the program's first CHA regular season championship in 2022 along with another league tournament title and NCAA berth. At Hamilton, Knight led the team to 57 wins and six postseason appearances and mentored the program's first All-American and its first NESCAC Player of the Year (2008-09). He began at Hamilton as an assistant men's coach in 2005-06 and previously spent three years as an assistant at his alma mater, SUNY Potsdam (2002-05), where he handled most recruiting. As a player, he tallied 21 goals and 43 assists in 66 games at Potsdam (1998-2001), played in the 2001 East/West Senior All-Star game, spent 2001-02 with the Isle of Wight Raiders of the English National Premier League (27 goals, 40 assists in 44 games), and had 153 points in 120 games with the Cornwall Colts of the Central Junior Hockey League (1996-98). He was drafted by the Beauport Harfangs of the QMJHL at 16.
- Patricia Elsmore joins Syracuse Women's Ice Hockey as an assistant head coach, bringing more than two decades of coaching experience at the collegiate, junior, high school and international levels. She most recently served as goalie coach and business manager for the Minnesota Wilderness of the North American Hockey League, and previously spent 2016-19 as an assistant women's hockey coach at the College of St. Scholastica. Her resume also includes time at Rock Ridge High School, an assistant coaching role with the Swiss Women's National Team, and ownership of the Upper Midwest Elite Goalie Academy, where she is a partner. As a player, Elsmore was a member of three NCAA Division I National Championship teams (2001, 2002, 2003), won a Swiss Women's League title in 2000 and earned a bronze medal at the 1995 European Women's Hockey Championship. She represented Switzerland at the 2006 Olympic Winter Games, competed in eight Women's World Championships and earned Women's World Championship All-Star Goaltender honors in 1996 and 1997. She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in business management from St. Scholastica and a bachelor's degree in German studies, with minors in psychology and coaching, from the University of Minnesota Duluth.

LOOK WHO'S BACK

- Syracuse's scoring core are running it back. All six of the Orange's top goal scorers from 2025-26 return, and together they accounted for 45 of the team's 69 goals, about 65 percent of the offense.
- Sophomore Emma Gnade leads the way after a breakout freshman year, firing home a team-high 9 goals.
- Peyton Armstrong and Jackson Kinsler are right behind her with 8 apiece, and Nea Tervonen and Jordan Blouin each chipped in 7. Stella Costabile rounds out the group with 6 goals.

AROUND THE WORLD, AROUND THE WORRRRLD

- Syracuse University continues to be a global brand, and that reputation stretches from the classrooms to the playing surfaces for Orange athletic programs.
-Syracuse ice hockey is no different, with representatives from four different countries among the players: United States (9), Canada (12), Austria (1), and Finland (2).

ALUMNI IN THE PROS

- Mae Batherson '23 (D): The New Minas, N.S., native won two Walter Cups with the Minnesota Frost. She was one of the first two players expansion PWHL Las Vegas signed, coming over from the Frost, and she went from 3 points as a rookie to 15 last season. She played 122 games at Syracuse and had 61 points (15 goals, 46 assists).
- Allie Munroe '19 (D): A two-time CHA Defender of the Year, she was taken in the ninth round of the inaugural 2023 PWHL Draft by Toronto. She is listed on the Toronto Sceptres for 2026-27.
- Jessica DiGirolamo '21 (D): She was a sixth-round pick of Boston in 2023 and now plays for the Montréal Victoire. She left Syracuse as the program's career leader among defensemen in goals (33), assists (62), and points (95).
- The PWHL has expanded to 12 teams this year, adding Detroit, Hamilton, Las Vegas, and San Jose.

BATHERSON PWHL CHAMPION

- Former Syracuse University women's ice hockey standout Mae Batherson helped the Minnesota Frost capture the 2024-25 Professional Women's Hockey League Walter Cup as the Frost bested the Ottawa Charge.
- The Frost captured their second-straight Walter Cup with a dramatic 2-1 overtime win at home over the Charge, claiming the series three games to one. Over 11,000 fans were on hand for the championship game at Xcel Energy Center.
- In her rookie season, Batherson played in three games during the 2025 playoffs, taking one shot. During the regular season, the Frost won 10 games, including five in overtime, dropping 11 games with four overtime losses.
- During her first season in the PWHL, Batherson played in 25 games, posting three assists and finishing with a +13 rating, the best plus/minus rating for PWHL rookies this season.
- Batherson played for the Orange from 2019-2023, seeing time in 122 games with 15 goals and 46 assists. The New Minas, Nova Scotia, Canada native scored five game-winning goals as well as six goals on the power play.
