Series Record: Delaware leads, 17-16

Last Meeting: Feb. 15, 2025 (Rutgers 13, Delaware 9)

WHAT TO KNOW

- Rutgers women's lacrosse (0-1) faces Delaware (0-1) on Friday in Newark, Delaware. First draw from Delaware Stadium is set for 5 p.m., with the game streamed on ESPN+.
- Three of the Scarlet Knights' next four games occur on the road, including stops at Delaware, Villanova (Feb. 21) and No. 7 Princeton (Feb. 25).
- RU opened its season with a 19-14 loss to No. 21 Army last Friday inside the Busch Practice Bubble. Rutgers trailed by just one goal at halftime before the Black Knights outscored the Scarlet Knights, 10-6, in the final 30 minutes.
- Sophomore Caroline Ling produced a career-high six points on five goals and an assist, netting a hat trick in the first half. Senior Lily Dixon tallied five points on three assists and two helpers, while rookies Annalise Messina and Kate Theofield contributed two goals apiece.
- Senior Katie Buck secured a game-high eight draw controls against Army, becoming the 11th player in program history to hit 100 draw controls for her career.
- Head coach Melissa Lehman played five true freshman last Friday – Stella D'Ambro, Abigail Grove, Gabby Mariani, Annalise Messina and Kate Theofield. Messina and Theofield both scored twice, while Mariani caused a turnover and scooped up a ground ball.
- Including last week's matchup with Army, Rutgers is set to play eight programs ranked in the latest IWLCA Coaches Poll – No. 2 Northwestern, No. 6 Maryland, No. 7 Princeton, No. 8 Johns Hopkins, No. 17 Michigan, No. 18 Stony Brook, No. 20 Army and No. 23 Penn State.
- Since 2021, Rutgers has delivered 18 wins over ranked opponents. The list includes four wins over top-10 foes. RU beat both No. 16 Stony Brook and No. 21 Ohio State last season, with both wins occurring in Piscataway.
- With her three assists last Friday, Lily Dixon needs one assist to pass Meghan Flanagan (2007-10) for fourth on the all-time assists list at Rutgers.

Head Coach Melissa Lehman

The Lehman File

- 2022 Big Ten Coach of the Year
- 2022 IWLCA Mid-Atlantic Region Coach of the Year
- U.S. Women's Senior National Team Assistant Coach/Defensive Coordinator (2024-Present)
- 16 All-Big Ten selections
- 13 All-Region selections
- 11 All-America selections
- Two NCAA Tournament appearances (2021, 2022)
- Three Big Ten Players of the Year (Cassidy Spilis, 2022, 2024; Meghan Ball, 2023)
- 152 Academic All-Big Ten selections

Melissa Lehman enters her seventh year as head coach of Rutgers women's lacrosse in 2025-26. In just six seasons, Lehman has led the Scarlet Knights to two NCAA Tournament appearances after RU qualified for just one in its previous 43 years as a varsity program. Under Lehman's guidance, Rutgers has produced 16 All-Big Ten selections, 13 All-Region picks and has landed 11 student-athletes on All-America lists.

Since 2021, Lehman has coached the Scarlet Knights to 18 victories over ranked foes, including the program's highest-ranked win in school history when it downed No. 4 Northwestern, 13-5, in the semifinal of the 2022 Big Ten Tournament. Lehman has helped the program to six post-season wins (four Big Ten, two NCAA) since her arrival 'On the Banks.'

Lehman's student-athletes have also enjoyed success in the classroom. Rutgers has been named an IWLCA Academic Honor Squad in each season Lehman has been head coach (excluding the 2020 COVID-19 Pandemic shortened season). Sixty-three student-athletes have earned individual IWLCA Academic Honor Roll recognition during her tenure, while 152 have been named Academic All-Big Ten.

A native of the Garden State, Lehman was named the seventh head coach in program history on June 17, 2019 after she served as associate head coach and assistant coach at Penn from 2009-2019, helping the Quakers to 10 NCAA Tournament berths and eight Ivy League titles. Since her arrival, Lehman has earned both Big Ten (2022) and IWLCA Mid-Atlantic Region (2022) coach of the year accolades.

On the international level, Lehman has served as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator for the U.S. Women's Senior National Team since 2024, working under head coach Acacia Walker-Weinstein. With Lehman on staff, Team USA will compete at the 2026 Women's Championship from July 24 through August 2 in Tokyo. This past summer, Lehman helped Team USA to a gold medal at the 2025 Pan-American Women's Lacrosse Championship in Auburndale, Florida.

Rutgers wrapped up the 2025 season with eight victories, including ranked wins over No. 16 Stony Brook and No. 21 Ohio State. The Scarlet Knights advanced to the Big Ten Tournament for the fifth consecutive season under Lehman and faced 11 opponents who appeared in the IWLCA Coaches Poll this past spring. Lehman coached All-Big Ten goalkeeper Lexie Coldiron to All-America laurels in 2025, as the graduate transfer finished top 10 nationally in saves (196), saves per game (10.89) and save percentage (.505).

Rutgers advanced to its fourth consecutive Big Ten semifinal in 2024 after the Scarlet Knights defeated No. 7 Maryland in the conference quarterfinals in College Park. RU tallied eight wins on the season and faced eight teams who advanced to this year's NCAA Tournament, including national runner-up Northwestern. RU appeared as high as No. 22 in the rankings during the regular season.

Standout Cassidy Spilis continued to excel under Lehman's guidance, as Spilis wrapped up her collegiate career as the program's all-time leader in career points (281), goals (266) and draw controls (313). This past season, Spilis tallied 79 points on 74 goals and five helpers to go along with 98 draw controls, 40 ground balls and 36 caused turnovers, earning first team All-America, all-region and all conference recognition along with being named the 2024 Big Ten Midfielder of the Year. Spilis, a two-time conference player of the year, four-time First Team All-Big Ten selection, three-time IWLCA All-American and three-time IWLCA All-Region pick, was bestowed the Big Ten Medal of Honor - the conference's most prestigious accolade.

Playing one of the toughest schedules in the country in 2023, Rutgers finished with eight victories and its third consecutive Big Ten Tournament Semifinal appearance during the 2023 campaign. The Scarlet Knights picked up wins against three ranked opponents – No. 6 Stony Brook, No. 16 Johns Hopkins, and No. 19 Jacksonville – and closed the season receiving votes in the final IWLCA Coaches Poll - its third consecutive season appearing in the final IWLCA rankings.

The 2022 season was the best in program history, as the Scarlet Knights finished with a program-record 16 victories and a final No. 10 ranking in the IWLCA Coaches poll - their highest final ranking ever. RU knocked off six ranked opponents for the second consecutive season and defeated No. 4 Northwestern to advance to its first Big Ten Tournament final. Lehman was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, as five student-athletes - Meghan Ball, Jessica Beneducci, Stephanie Kelly, Taralyn Naslonski and Cassidy Spilis - netted all-conference accolades. Rutgers advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and registered an opening-round win over No. 23 Saint Joseph's.

Several Scarlet Knights earned national recognition after the 2022 season. Ball, Naslonski and Spilis were named IWLCA All-Americans, with Spilis becoming the first RU student-athlete to land on the first team in program history. Ball, Naslonski, Spilis and Marin Hartshorn landed on the IWLCA All-Region team, while Ball, Naslonski, Spilis and Stephanie Kelly were named All-Americans by ILWomen. Naslonski became the program's all-time leader in points (266) and goals (187) and finished with a team-record 79 career appearances. Her 90 points passed Denise Reed (1990) for the most in a single season, while her 22 points in four career NCAA Tournament games solidified her as the top postseason scorer for RU in its history.

During Lehman's first full season, Rutgers closed out the 2021 season with a final No. 14 ranking in the IWLCA Coaches Poll – its highest ranking since 2010. The Scarlet Knights picked up their first ever wins over Big Ten Conference foes Johns Hopkins, Maryland and Penn State and advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals for just the second time since it began league play in 2015. RU's performance earned it an at-large selection to the 2021 NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999 and just the second time ever. Rutgers produced its first ever NCAA Tournament victory with its 16-13 win over No. 10 Drexel in the first round to finish its season with six victories over ranked opponents.

Individually, Rutgers produced two All-Americans – Cassidy Spilis (coaches & media) and Meghan Ball (media) – to close out the season, its first All-America laurels since 2007. Ball, Spilis, Taralyn Naslonski and Dana Pena earned all-Big Ten recognition to give RU its most individual Big Ten honorees since it joined the league, while Ball, Naslonski, Spilis and Marin Hartshorn collected IWLCA All-Region recognition – the most for the Scarlet Knights in a single season since 2011.

The success in 2021 was spring boarded by the program's performance during Lehman's first season in 2020, as Rutgers jumped out to a 4-0 start for its best record to open a season in 10 years. The Scarlet Knights added one more victory before the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Lehman arrived "On the Banks" in the summer of 2019 after working under legendary head coach Karin Corbett at Penn, where she focused on the midfield and defense. During her tenure, 10 midfielders and defenders earned All-America honors, while combining for 25 All-Region selections. In addition, 35 Penn middies and defenders captured All-Ivy League accolades. She also managed the team's mentor program, facilitating relationships between current players and alumnae.

Lehman was instrumental, both as a coach and player, in helping Penn make 13 consecutive NCAA Championship appearances, the fifth-longest streak in the nation. An All-America midfielder and two-time All-Ivy selection from 2005-08, she captained the Quakers' 2008 team that advanced to the NCAA national final. Penn won back-to-back Ivy titles in 2007 and 2008 and twice advanced to NCAA Championship Weekend.

In total, Lehman accumulated 11 Ivy League Championships and 14 NCAA Championship berths during her tenure in University City. She was named the IWLCA Division I Assistant Coach of the Year in 2014.

A Newark Star-Ledger First Team All-State selection at Shore Regional High School, where she also starred in soccer and basketball, Lehman was a First Team All-American on the lacrosse field before attending Penn. After earning an economics degree in 2008, she spent the 2009 season as an assistant at Brown University before returning to her alma mater.
