WHAT TO LOOK FOR...

- UD is looking for its first win against Towson under fourth year head coach Kelly Lawrence. The previous three matches all ended in ties.

- The Blue Hens are looking for back-to-back wins against UMBC. UD defeated the Terriers 1-0 on the road in 2025.

-Forward Maggie Groh is looking to score a goal in her fourth-straight game.

groh-ing talent

Senior forward Maggie Groh has been a key piece of the Blue Hens offense for the last two seasons. The senior from Dallastown, Pennsylvania led the team in points (15) and was tied for the team lead in goals (five) and assists (five). She earned Third Team All-CUSA honors in 2025.

This season, she's already scored four goals, along with one assist. Groh scored in all three games to open the 2026 season, including her second career multi-goal game in the win over VCU. She also scored the game tying goal against Navy to help secure a 2-2 tie.

Groh started off last season in a big way, scoring three goals and adding two assists in the opening weekend. This led to wins over Mount St. Mary's and Bucknell, along with CUSA Offensive Player of the Week honors. She scored the game-winning goal with less than three minutes remaining in regulation against William & Mary, and scored her first CUSA goal against LA Tech.

In 2024, Groh was the Blue Hens leading goal scorer (three) and she leads all active Blue Hens in points (24) and goals (nine), and is second in assists (six).

Groh became the first Blue Hen since Sara D'Appolonia to score a goal in three straight games. The last Blue Hen to score a goal in four straight games was Natalie Zelenky during the 2014-2015 seasons.

The senior ranks in the top 10 in the country in goals per game, and points per game. Groh ranks first in CUSA in both categories.

returning talent

UD returns several key members to the squad for the 2026 season. Of the 26 athletes on the roster, 20 are returners who account for 87 percent of the programs minutes played, 85 percent of the teams assists, and 80 percent of the goals scored.

returning offense

Delaware returns three of its four leading goal scorers: Maggie Groh, Adiat Olaogun-Dickson and Brooke Vogel, all of whom scored five goals. The Blue Hens also return Gabby Riley, who led the team in assists (6) and minutes played among field players (1566).

returning defense

On the defensive side, UD returns three of its top defenders: Maura Fisher, Calista Collins and Ava Sallee. All three played over 1,300 minutes on the field in 2025. UD had seven defensive shutouts. Fisher recorded two assists, while Collins had one.

The Blue Hens welcomes Julia Hahn for the 2026 season. The junior defender from Columbus, Ohio spent her first two seasons with Drexel, where she appeared in 28 games, made 25 starts, and logged over 2,200 minutes of time on the field. The Dragons had seven defensive shutouts in 2025.

With her penalty kick goal in Sunday's contest against VCU, junior midfielder Gabby Riley broke the program record for most penalty kicks scored in a career with three.

Last year, Riley became the first Blue Hen since 2019 to score multiple penalty kick goals in a season.

They play games, hand out prizes, and meet fans from different cultures with the goal of creating an unforgettable experience, and a positive image of the Home Depot.

"This internship is so special, it's too perfect for me. As a fall athlete, it can be tricky to do summer internship," Bley said. "With the internship being the World Cup, it's the biggest sporting event in the world and the biggest sporting event of my lifetime. Being involved in this as a student-athlete is so unique. It's not that far away from campus because it's in Philadelphia. It's such an amazing opportunity to be so close to the world cup as a division I soccer athlete. I get to meet people from other countries, including people from my dad's country, the Ivory Coast. It gave me a sense of what loving a job feels like and now I feel affirmed in my choices for my majors, and what job I want to go to. I feel like I got to meet some of the home depot representatives, it was good to get to speak to them."

HEAD COACH KELLY LAWRENCE

Kelly Lawrence was named the women's soccer head coach on November 14, 2022. Lawrence begins her fourth season with the program.

Delaware women's soccer has achieved significant success and program milestones under Lawrence. In 2025, the Blue Hens excelled in their first season in Conference USA, opening with a program-record 7-0-2 start and earning back-to-back conference tournament appearances for the first time since 2012-13. The team received eight all-conference selections, six postseason academic honors, and spent much of the season regionally ranked.

In 2024, Kyla Burns became the first Blue Hen in program history to earn the conference goalkeeper of the year. Burns also earned first team All-Conference honors, along with Conny Viehmann, Carly Binn, Caitin St. Leger, Brooke Vogel and Olivia Bley all earned all-conference honors.

The Blue Hens' women's soccer program made big strides in its first year under Lawrence in 2023. She started off her coaching career in a big way, defeating Syracuse 1-0. It was the program's first ever win over a power-four school. The Blue Hens picked up a victory over La Salle on the road for the first time since 1994, and tied the program record for goals in a game in its 9-1 win over Hampton.

Prior to UD, Lawrence was the associate head coach at Penn State for one season in 2022. The Nittany Lions made an NCAA second round appearance.

Prior to Penn State, Lawrence served as the associate head coach at Boston University from 2019-22. While at Boston U, she helped coach the team to the 2021 Patriot League Spring North Division Champions and the 2021 Patriot League Regular Season Champions.

Previous stops for Lawrence include serving as the interim head coach/assistant coach at Syracuse University from 2015-19.

As an assistant coach at Monmouth from 2013-14, she helped the team win the 2013 MAAC Tournament Championship and earn back-to-back MAAC Regular Season Championships in 2013 and 2014.

Lawrence competed for Indiana University from 2006-10. While in college she was named to the Mac Hermann Watch List (2008), NCAA Sweet Sixteen Finalist (2007), First Team All-BIG TEN (2007), BIG Ten All-Freshman Team (2006), All BIG Ten Freshmen Team, and three-time NSCAA All-Region. She was the only player in Indiana History to win All-BIG Ten honors in all four years.

She played competitively for the Boston Breakers Reserves (2010) and the Orange County Waves Professional (2011) of the WPSL. Lawrence also played on the England National Team (U15-U23) and Team Great Britain.

Lawrence is married to Delaware Ice Hockey Head Coach Allison Coomey.

ASSISTANT COACHES

EDWARDS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Becky Edwards enters her second season with the Delaware women's soccer program in 2026. Edwards helped lead Delaware's offensive resurgence in 2025, as the Blue Hens scored 30 goals—the program's highest total since 2019 and a 12-goal improvement from the previous season. Nine players scored goals, with five recording at least three. Several returners posted career-best offensive seasons as well.

Prior to Delaware, Edwards spent three seasons at Tennessee, helping the Volunteers reach three consecutive NCAA Tournaments and capture a share of the 2022 SEC East title behind one of the conference's top offenses. She also coached at Penn and Florida State, contributing to successful postseason runs and conference championships.

Beyond the collegiate level, Edwards serves as an assistant coach for the U.S. U-20 Women's National Team, helping the program earn medals at both the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup and CONCACAF U-20 Championship. • Served as the Bulldogs' Recruiting Coordinator and was elevated to Associate Head Coach in 2022.

A former standout player at Florida State, Edwards was a two-time First Team All-American, a member of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame, and the 12th overall pick in the 2010 Women's Professional Soccer Draft. During a nine-year professional career, she won championships with FC Gold Pride, Western New York Flash, and Portland Thorns, while also representing the United States internationally, including captaining the U.S. to the 2008 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup title.

SHANNON COLEY

HEAD COACH

• Enters her fourth season with women's soccer as the program's goalkeeper coach. Since joining Delaware, Coley has helped elevate the Blue Hens into one of the program's most successful eras. The program earned consecutive conference tournament appearances for the first time since 2012–13.

In 2025, freshman Sophia Hall earned CUSA All-Rookie honors and national recognition as one of the country's top freshman goalkeepers. In 2024, Delaware secured its first CAA Tournament berth since 2019, highlighted by a 4–0 conference start, a five-game winning streak, and one of the conference's top defenses. Under Coley's guidance, Kyla Burns became the first Blue Hen to earn Conference Goalkeeper of the Year honors, while the team recorded eight shutouts and allowed just six goals in conference play. Coley's impact was immediate in 2023, helping Delaware earn its first-ever win over Power Five opponent Syracuse, and post one of the strongest defensive seasons in school history. Goalkeeper Kyla Burns led the nation in save percentage, becoming the first Blue Hen to lead the NCAA in a statistical category.

Before Delaware, Coley coached at the University of Rhode Island, Western Michigan, and Lawrence Tech, helping each program achieve on-field success and individual player recognition. A former standout goalkeeper at Oakland University, she ranks among the program's all-time leaders in wins and shutouts and helped lead the Golden Grizzlies to an NCAA Tournament victory over Ohio State in 2012.

RICHARDSON
