STARTING FIVE

- When it visits Missouri State Sunday night, Bradley will be trying for its first 3-0 start in The Valley since the 1995-96 Braves also opened 3-0 en route to their last league title.
- Coming off Wednesday's 60-58 win at Wichita State, Bradley has not won its first two Valley road games of a season since that same 1995-96 team opened the league season by winning at Creighton (75-62) and UNI (60-51).
- Bradley will be playing its first-ever game at the new, 11,000-seat John Q. Hammons Arena at Missouri State.
- Missouri State is the only Valley team with a winning record against Bradley, as the Bears will bring a 25-14 series advantage into Saturday night's game.
- Bradley has won four of its last five games and the Braves will be shooting for their first four-game winning streak of the season.

105TH SEASON

- Now in its 105th men's basketball season, Bradley ranks 26th in NCAA Division I history with 1,524 wins.
- Bradley played its first men's basketball game Jan. 1, 1903 defeating a YMCA program known as the Invincibles, 12-8.

POSTSEASON STREAK

- The Braves are attempting to reach the postseason for a fourth consecutive season, a streak the program has not enjoyed since 1994-97.
- In addition, Bradley has won at least one postseason game in each of the last three years, an accomplishment only previously achieved from 1949-51.

THREE IS THE KEY

- Due in large part to the loss of all-star big men Patrick O'Bryant (early entry NBA lottery pick) and Marcellus Sommerville (graduation) following the 2006 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 season, head coach Jim Les installed a "spread motion" offense modeled after the Phoenix Suns' system in 2006-07.
- Bradley has recruited to the system for three years and has assembled an athletic, skilled lineup that continues to fit with the uptempo style of play.
- The system often utilizes a four-guard attack and has helped Bradley rank third nationally with 771 3-pointers the last three years and finish among the two highest-scoring teams in The Valley the last two years.
- More notably, Bradley has won at least 21 games three consecutive seasons and is tied for eighth nationally with seven postseason wins the last three years.

NEW-LOOK BRAVES

- While returning seven lettermen from the 2007-08 squad, Bradley is working six newcomers and a redshirt freshman into the lineup this season.
- Bradley entered the season with only two scholarship players boasting more than one year of experience in the program -- fifth-year senior center Sam Singh and junior guard Andrew Warren, both of whom have missed games this season due to injury.

UNIQUE STAFF MAKEUP

- Bradley's coaching staff is believed to be one of just two in the country to boast two staff members with NCAA Tournament head coaching victories.
- Seventh-year head coach Jim Les led the Braves to the 2006 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, while second-year Bradley assistant Steve Merfeld coached Hampton to the second round of the 2001 NCAA Tournament.
- North Carolina assistant Steve Robinson led Tulsa (1997) and Florida State (1998) to NCAA Tourney wins.

GRADUATE PLAYERS

- For the fourth consecutive year, Bradley's roster features a player who already owns his degree.
- Fifth-year senior center Sam Singh received his bachelor's degree in communications-public relations during commencement ceremonies May 17, 2008.
- Previously, Brandyn Heemskerk ('05), Danny Adams ('06) and Daniel Ruffin ('07) all earned their degrees before completing their eligibility the following season.

WINNING IN THE VALLEY

- Bradley ranks third in The Valley with 72 victories the last four years, just three behind leader Creighton.
- Bradley is the only Valley squad to win at least 21 games each of the previous three seasons.

Team	Total	'08-09	'07-08	'06-07	'05-06
Creighton	76	12	22	22	20

INJURY BUG BITES AGAIN

- For the third consecutive year, the injury bug has taken a big bite out of the Bradley lineup.
- Junior guard Andrew Warren, the team's top returning scorer (13.2 ppg in 2007-08), has yet to suit up this season as he continues to recover from offseason surgery to repair a broken foot.
- Sophomore center Will Egolf, who was making his third career start, suffered a torn ACL in his right knee with 10:02 remaining Nov. 29 versus East Tennessee State and underwent season-ending surgery Dec. 18.
- Senior center Sam Singh suffered a broken nose Dec. 14 and missed the next two games after undergoing corrective surgery Dec. 17.
- The injury losses left the Braves with just three returning scholarship players during those two games.

NEWCOMER IMPACT

- With junior guard Andrew Warren (foot) likely out and sophomore forward Will Egolf (knee) unavailable, Bradley's rotation now features six newcomers and four returning players.
- The six newcomers -- Dunson (28.6 mpg), Chris Roberts (27.1), Eddren McCain (22.4), Taylor Brown (12.8), Darian Norris (13.2) and Anthony Thompson (5.1) -- have combined for 1381 of the team's 2600 total minutes played.
- The six rookies also combine to average 33.8 points per game, compared to 33.3 ppg by the four returning players in the current rotation.

SCORING IN THREES

- Bradley is third nationally with 771 total treys since the start of 2006-07.
- Bradley became the first-ever Missouri Valley Conference team to make as many as 300 3-pointers in a season with 349 during the 2006-07 season and the Braves followed with 346 more last season.

ABOUT MISSOURI STATE

- Missouri State lost six lettermen, three starters and its head coach (Barry Hinson) off last year's team that finished 17-16 overall and tied for seventh in The Valley with an 8-10 league record.
- The Bears are under the direction of first-year head coach Cuonzo Martin and also have opened a new home facility, 11,000-seat John Q. Hammons Arena.
- The Bears have had plenty of opportunities to get used to their new home as Saturday's game will be their 10th home contest in 14 outings this season.
- The Bears are 6-3 at home so far this year, but dropped their final two games of a five-game home-stand to Middle Tennessee State (63-51) and Illinois State (72-69), the latter in overtime.
- Missouri State can claim the unofficial Arkansas state championship, sweeping four of the state's five NCAA Division I programs: Arkansas (62-57), Arkansas-Little Rock (59-37), Arkansas State (52-47) and Central Arkansas (63-46) -- MSU did not play Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

BRADLEY-MISSOURI STATE SERIES

- Saturday's game will be the 30th meeting in the all-time series between Bradley and Missouri State, which dates back to MSU's entry into the Missouri Valley Conference for the 1990-91 season.
- Missouri State owns a 25-14 lead in the all-time series and remains the only active Valley member with a winning record against the Braves.
- Bradley won just three of the 17 meetings at the Hammons Student Center and the Braves have not won in Springfield since a 64-60 victory Jan. 10, 2002, a streak of six consecutive road losses to the Bears.

FAMILIAR FOE TO START THE NEW YEAR

- Bradley and Missouri State are meeting in the first game of the New Year for the third consecutive season and for the fifth time in nine years.
- The Bears have gotten the best of the last three calendar openers against Bradley since the Braves earned a 64-51 home win against Missouri State Jan. 2, 2001.

FINDING VALLEY ROAD SUCCESS

- By winning at Wichita State Wednesday, Bradley improved to 9-8 in its last 17 Missouri Valley Conference road games.
- More recently, the Braves are 5-3 in their last eight Valley road games.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

- Bradley is 8-0 this season when holding the opposition to less than 70 points.
- The Braves have won 13 straight when limiting the opposition to fewer than 70 points, dating back to a 69-68 loss to Drake Jan. 16, 2008 at Carver Arena.
- Bradley also is 5-0 this season, and 10-0 the last two years, when limiting the opposition to less than 40 percent shooting from the field.

FREE THROWS COULD BE KEY

- Bradley enters Wednesday's game second in The Valley by averaging 24.9 free throw attempts per game.
- Bradley has outscored its opposition by 42 points at the free throw line, and the Braves have made just 20 fewer free throws than their opponents have attempted.
- Although shooting 69.4 percent from the stripe for the season, the Braves have made 41-of-46 (.891) attempts in the last two games.

EFFICIENCY AT THE LINE AIDS THE CAUSE

- Including a 41-for-46 (.891) combined effort in the first two Valley games, Bradley is 6-0 when shooting at least 70 percent from the free throw line this season.
- By contrast, the Braves are 2-5 when shooting less than 70 percent at the stripe.

LEADING THE PARADE TO THE LINE

- Senior forward Theron Wilson continues to lead the parade to the line.
- After easily pacing the Braves with 179 free throw attempts last season (4.8 FTA/gm), Wilson already has attempted 98 charity shots in the first 13 games (7.5 FTA/gm).
- Wilson already has been fouled 91 times in 13 games, drawing better than 32 percent of the total fouls (278) committed against the Braves.

WILSON SETS THE TONE

- Senior forward Theron Wilson's impact has been in direct correlation with the outcome of each of Bradley's first 13 games this season.
- The Braves are 8-0 when the Braves have at least matched the opposition in scoring during Wilson's time on the floor.
- Bradley also is 0-5 when the Braves have been outscored during Wilson's minutes.
- Wilson is the only Brave whose personal impact has matched the outcome of every game so far this season.

WINNING THE CLOSE GAMES

- While eight of Bradley's first 13 games have been decided by double-digit margins, the Braves are 4-0 in games decided by six points or less.

PLAYING THE PERCENTAGES

- Known for its 3-point shooting the last two seasons, Bradley has struggled with its long-range shooting so far this year.
- Bradley is shooting just 30.5 percent from behind the arc, while averaging only 5.8 treys per game.
- Including Sunday's 7-for-13 effort against Southern Illinois, the Braves are 4-0 when they shoot at least 30 percent from beyond the arc, but 4-5 when shooting less than 30 percent.

MAUI JIM 3-POINT CHALLENGE

- Peoria manufacturer Maui Jim is sponsoring Bradley's 3-point shooting in 2008-09, with proceeds to benefit the Jimmy V Foundation for Cancer Research.
- For every 3-pointer the team makes throughout the season, Maui Jim will donate $10 to the Jimmy V Foundation and the company is encouraging fans to join the challenge.
- For every pledge, participants will be entered into a postseason drawing for a pair of Maui Jim Sunglasses, as well as two tickets to the 2008-09 Bradley Basketball Postseason Banquet.
- For more information and to make your pledge, visit the men's basketball page at www.BradleyBraves.com and click on the Maui Jim 3-Point Challenge graphic.

FUTURE BRAVES

- Bradley signed a pair of 6-foot-8 high school players during the Early Signing Period Nov. 12.
- Milos Knezevic, Henderson, Nev., Liberty H.S.
- Averaged 14 ppg and 8 rpg as a junior
- Friends with Bradley guard Darian Norris, a freshman from Las Vegas Mojave High School.

LES IS MORE

- Three straight postseason appearances, including a trip to the 2006 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16
- Three straight 21-win seasons for the first time since 1959-60, 1960-61 and 1961-62
- The recruitment and development of a top 10 NBA Draft pick (Patrick O'Bryant -- ninth overall to Golden State in 2006)
- The graduation of 17 of the 18 seniors he has coached at Bradley (the 18th is on track to complete his degree in December)
- Four wins against the Top 25 the last three years.

Jim Les is in his seventh season as the head men's basketball coach at Bradley University, but his name has been synonymous with Braves hoops for the better part of two decades and his connection to the program goes back even farther. Since first arriving at Bradley in December 1983, Les has etched his name in Bradley history as one of the best players in program history, won the 1986 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Hall of Fame Award, enjoyed a seven-year NBA playing career and has now embarked on a coaching career that has produced seven postseason victories in the last three years.

Les first began patrolling the baselines at Robertson Memorial Fieldhouse, Bradley's former home arena, as a ball boy from 1972 to 1975 when his older brother, Tom, handled the point guard duties for the Braves. Jim Les returned to The Hilltop eight years later as a player and etched his place in Bradley Basketball lore as one of the best, if not the best, point guards in the program's proud history.

Following a nine-year professional playing career, which included seven seasons in the National Basketball Association, Les enjoyed a successful venture into the financial world before returning to his basketball roots. After three years of whetting his coaching whistle as an assistant for the WNBA's Sacramento Monarchs, Les returned to Bradley once more and was named the 12th men's basketball coach in Braves history on April 7, 2002.

DID YOU KNOW?

Jim Les is one of three active NCAA Division I coaches -- Matt Doherty and Lon Kruger -- to lead his team in scoring during an NCAA Tournament victory as a player, then direct his alma mater to a NCAA Tournament win as a head coach. Les scored 22 points in Bradley's 1986 first-round win against UTEP and coached the Braves to the 2006 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16.

- In the six games since Egolf's injury, Collins has rebounded by averaging 5.6 ppg and 4.1 rpg.
- Blocked 13 shots in a recent three-game stretch to equal his entire season total from a year ago.

SUMMER TRAINING

- Collins was invited to train with the Canadian Development Men's National Team this past summer, giving him the opportunity to work out with Philadelphia 76ers center Samuel Dalembert.

2007-08: JUNIOR AT BRADLEY

- Collins made his biggest impact during the non-conference season for the Braves, averaging 5.4 ppg and 3.6 rpg with 11 blocked shots in his 18 games outside of Valley play.
- Named the Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Week Nov. 19 after turning in a double-double, 10 points and 14 rebounds, in the South Padre Island Invitational opener versus Maryland-Eastern Shore.

- Although the first Canadian recruited by Les, Collins also is the third player from Ontario to play for Bradley's seventh-year head coach, joining Jason Faulkner (Etobicoke, 2000-04) and James Gillingham (Guelph, 2000-04).
- Along with 2001 MVC Defensive Player of the Year Jerome Robinson (Malton, 1997-2001), Collins actually is the fourth Ontario native to play at Bradley this decade.
