School Nickname

"Bronchos" was the nickname selected for Central Oklahoma in 1922 by Mrs. C.W. Wantland, wife of long-time UCO football coach C.W. Wantland. The name was chosen from a number of suggestions for the name of UCO's football team and became the nickname for all athletic teams at the school.

Mrs. Wantland was made an honorary member of the Letterman's Club for selecting the nickname, becoming the first woman admitted to that organization.

School Colors

Bronze and blue were chosen as UCO's school colors in 1895 by school president Edmund Dandridge Murdaugh. The first public display of the bronze and blue was in Guthrie when a student represented UCO in the first oratorical contest ever held in Oklahoma.

Production Credits

The 2018 UCO football media guide was written, edited and designed by Director of Sports Media Relations Chris Brannick. Photographs were provided by the UCO Photographic Services Department, under the direction of Dan Smith.

University of Central Oklahoma

Best of the Best

• UCO earned national recognition for its dedication to student engagement, ranking No. 6 on the list of "Top Schools for Engagement" in The Wall Street Journal/Times Higher Education College Rankings.
• The Military Times ranked UCO No. 21 among all surveyed four-year colleges and universities in the U.S. on its 2017 "Best for Vets: Colleges" list. Central was the only Oklahoma school recognized. Also, Victory Media named UCO to its 2017 "Military Friendly Schools" list for the fifth consecutive year.
• Oklahoma's largest and oldest college of education has graduated more than 50,000 teachers since 1890.
• The National Board for Professional Teaching Standards recognized Central as one of the top 50 alma maters in the U.S. for National Board Certified Teachers (NBCT) with 444 total certifications.
• The W. Roger Webb Forensic Science Institute became the only college in North America with three accredited undergraduate forensic science programs — forensic molecular biology, forensic chemistry and digital forensics. Central is the only institution in Oklahoma with undergraduate level accreditation from Forensic Science Education programs and joined Eastern Kentucky University as the first two universities in the nation to receive accreditation for an undergraduate digital forensics program.
• A broadcasting communication program annually recognized as one of the best in the region for technology.
• A theatre arts department specializing in providing opportunities for incoming freshmen on stage and production.
• The state's largest computing science department.
• Graduates from the department of nursing and pre-medical programs consistently score well above the state average of 88 percent passing.
• The only photojournalism degree in the state.
• Oklahoma's first and only funeral service program.
• The Academy of Contemporary Music at UCO (ACM@UCO) was started in 2009.

Campus Life

While activities are abundant in Edmond and nearby Oklahoma City, students will never be bored on the UCO campus. Last year alone, students experienced activities ranging from concerts, Greek Week, athletic and multicultural events.
• Homecoming Week – Cookout and Dodge Ball Tournament, Talent Show, Bronze and Blueberry Breakfast, Cheer & Dance, Bonfire, Parade, and much more
• BronchoThon – Throughout the academic year, students, faculty, and staff participate in fundraising and awareness events. The final event, BronchoThon, is held in April. The 8-hour marathon includes musical entertainment, student-led activities, and refreshments. Over $68,000 was raised last year.
• Concerts – Battle of the Bands, Broncho Idol, Open Mic Nights
• Recreation – Foam Party, Laser Tag, BINGO
• The Office of Diversity and Inclusion (ODI) advances cultural competence while implementing opportunities for diverse communities to learn, thrive and succeed. Met by implementing unique programs and services that promote the pursuit of academic success and encourage retention, while promoting the leadership development of students, ODI initiatives serve to expand students' cultural horizons and perspectives, honor respective cultural experiences and develop culturally competent citizens.
• Pride and Traditions – Build a Broncho, Chili Cook Off, Ping Pong with the Presidents, and other events to promote Central traditions

Greek Life

Join one of the 18 national sororities and fraternities that maintain active chapters at UCO. Lifelong associations and promotion of high standards of leadership are among the benefits members enjoy. Houses near campus provide a comfortable place to meet, yet allow the freedom to choose other housing options.

Edmond

Edmond is located in the heart of Oklahoma, just north of the state capital in Oklahoma City, and has a population of over 90,000 as one of the fastest growing cities in the state.

Edmond has the best of both worlds including, easy access to the city with just enough distance to maintain a close-knit community atmosphere.

The city offers outstanding hotels, nostalgic shopping areas and conveniently located attractions for your enjoyment. Known for its outstanding golf courses, Edmond has hosted some of the most exciting PGA and celebrity events in the past two decades at world-famous Oak Tree Golf Club.

Edmond is the fastest growing, most economically dynamic city in Oklahoma. Thriving technology firms, diverse retail and commercial opportunities, and small corporate office headquarters have enhanced its reputation as the affluent residential suburb to the metropolitan area.

There are many more activities in Edmond, with a variety of music, art, theatre, water and sporting events that make for spectacular family fun.

Heard on Hurd is a monthly festival where Downtown Edmond is transformed into an exciting mix of food trucks, family friendly excitement, and music that has become one of the premier, socially engaging events in the area.

Edmond also boasts one of the best Fourth of July fireworks shows in the country, and it's held right here at UCO. More than 125,000 people attend the event. LibertyFest has been previously chosen by CNN and USA Today as one of the top 10 places to be in America on July 4.

Another Edmond attraction is Lake Arcadia. Home to the Center for Outdoor Adventure Recreation, Lake Arcadia offers trails for running, hiking, and cycling, as well as 1,820 surface acres for boating, skiing, kayaking, and fishing, and 26 miles of shoreline for more fun.

Oklahoma City

The largest city in the state, Oklahoma City borders Edmond to the south and sits at the crossroads of I-35, I-40 and I-44, leaving OKC with more than 130 miles of federal and interstate highways.

More than 1.3 million people call metro Oklahoma City home.

The City, as it is commonly referred to around the state, offers numerous things to do on any given day of the week – or year for that matter. Whether it is sports, music, art, or just getting outside on a nice day, OKC offers it all.

Chesapeake Energy Arena in downtown Oklahoma City is not only home to the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder, but it also hosts concerts year-round, as well as other events such as pro wrestling, bull riding, and more.

Bricktown, the central hub of entertainment in downtown, is home to Bricktown Ballpark, where the Oklahoma City Dodgers – Triple-A affiliate to MLB's L.A. Dodgers – play ball. The ballpark also hosts high school games, collegiate tournaments, as well as concerts of its own.

There is plenty more to do, especially on the booming, Oklahoma River.

The UCO rowing team calls the river home and has a state-of-the-art boathouse on the river to prove it. Visitors can also enjoy the Riversport Adventure District, where you can challenge yourself through a white-water rapids course, zip line across the river, or bungee jump among other fun activities.

There are also five lakes in the greater OKC metro area that offer ample fun including fishing, running or cycling trails, and swimming.

There are also more than a dozen golf courses to choose from.

Along with art museums, a science museum, and many more, there is always something to do in OKC.

The Adventure District is just 10 minutes from UCO and offers many fun things to do.

Remington Park races horses more than half of the year, the Oklahoma City Zoo is always a top-pick, and it sits right next to the science museum.

If you venture west of downtown toward the fairgrounds, you can find more fun.

Home to the Oklahoma State Fair every September, as well as shows year-round, the fairgrounds offer countless entertainment options.

Oklahoma City is in a warm southwest climate. It sees more than 300 days of sunshine on average per year.

The average temperature annually is 60 degrees according to the Oklahoma City Visitors Convention Bureau. OKC also sees on average 32.03 inches of rain and nine inches of snow every year.

Wantland Stadium

Central Oklahoma will play its 54th season at Wantland Stadium in 2018.

The 10,000-seat facilty underwent massive renovations in recent years and now ranks as one of the finest football stadiums in NCAA Division II.

Artificial turf, new lighting and a scoreboard were added to Wantland Stadium in 2003, while a three-level press box and new stands on both sides of the field were installed in 2005. The playing surface was replaced with FieldTurf in 2012 and an updated, state-of-the-art scoreboard was added in the summer of 2014.

Named after long-time head coach C.W. Wantland, UCO played its first game in the stadium on Sept. 18, 1965, shutting out College of the Ozarks (Ark.) 31-0.

The Bronchos have had nine undefeated home seasons and are 170-98-5 in Wantland Stadium, a .632 winning percentage.

UCO's month-by-month record in the stadium is: August, 1-4 (.250 percent); September, 55-29-2 (65.1 percent); October, 69-41-2 (63.3 percent); November, 43-23-1 (64.9 percent) and December, 2-1-0 (66.7 percent).

UCO's longest winning streak at Wantland Stadium is 13, set from 1969-71.

The Bronchos are 5-1 in playoff games at Wantland Stadium, topped by a 14-11 win over Colorado Mesa on Dec. 18, 1982 in the NAIA national championship game that was televised live on USA Network.

Media Information

UCO Athletic Media Relations

The Central Oklahoma Athletic Media Relations Office is under the direction of Chris Brannick, who took over the position on Aug. 1, 2016.

Brannick's main duty is keeping local, state and national media informed about UCO's athletic department as well as handling the school's athletic website (www.bronchosports.com).

Chris came to UCO after three years as a sports reporter for The Oklahoman and NewsOK.com.

A native of Utica, N.Y. who grew up in Sallisaw, Okla., Brannick is a Central graduate. He received his bachelor's degree in mass communications in 2013 with a journalism major and creative studies minor.

Brannick served as sports editor of UCO's student newspaper (the Vista) and also worked as a sports anchor on the school's student-run broadcast news program (UCentral).

He won first- and second-place in sports reporting at the Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ) Oklahoma in 2013 and won the UCO Mass Comm Professional Media award the same year.

Brannick began working at The Oklahoman immediately after graduation.

Chris is married (Cori) and has one daughter (Elle).

Broncho on the Air

All UCO football games will be broadcast live on Oklahoma City radio station KRXO (104.5).

Local sports radio announcer Todd Lisenbee enters the 2018 season as Central's play-by-play announcer. A UCO sideline reporter for the past three seasons, Lisenbee will move to the booth for the first time this year.

Color commentary will once again be provided by former UCO All-American John Fitzgerald.

Pregame coverage starts 15 minutes before kickoff each week, including interviews with coaches and players.

Press Credentials

The Wantland Stadium press box is reserved for working media only and requests for press credentials should be made at least a week in advance to the UCO Athletic Media Relations Office.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits or they will be left at the will call window, located at the ticket booth on the southwest side of Wantland Stadium.

Photographers

All photographers must have their photo passes visible at all times while on the sideline working UCO football games, with violators subject to removal from the field.

NCAA rules prohibit photographers from being in the team areas between the 25-yard lines. Use of tripods is restricted to the ends of the playing field. The third level of the press box may also be used.

Press Box Service

Complete individual and team statistics and a running play-by-play will be distributed in the press box after the completion of each game. A pregame meal will be available an hour before kickoff.

There are ample telephone/internet lines available for media use.

Broadcast Service

One courtesy line (405-974-3185) is available for the visiting team's flagship radio station, with space available for four people. All line charges are the responsibility of the visiting station.

Interview Policy

To arrange a player or coach interview prior to game day please contact the UCO Athletic Media Relations Office (405-974-2142) so that a time, convenient for both parties, can be arranged.

Athletic Administration

President
Don Betz, Ph.D.

Dr. Don Betz became Central Oklahoma's 20th president in August 2011, after having previously served as UCO's Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs from 1999-2005.

President Betz developed several initiatives and programs that helped transform Central into one of the leading metropolitan universities in the nation during his first stint at the school, and he's been the driving force in making UCO a destination of choice in higher education since his return to campus.

President Betz has enjoyed a distinguished career in higher education that spans more than 40 years, developing a reputation for teaching and encouraging students, leadership development and diplomacy through his international activities, most notably with the United Nations and its affiliated non-government organizations.

Prior to returning to UCO, he served as president of Northeastern State, a post he held for three years. He also served as chancellor at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls from 2005 until his appointment at NSU and as provost and vice president for academic affairs at Palmer College (Iowa) from 1994-99.

In the 23 years prior, he fulfilled various capacities at NSU, including the vice president of university relations and professor of political science. While at NSU, he also was the executive director of the educational foundation, assistant to the president, dean of continuing education and special programs, director of the Sequoyah Institute/Center for Tribal Studies, the founder and advisor of the university's President's Leadership Class and its Model United Nations program.

From 1982 through 2003, President Betz worked for and with the United Nations on Middle East issues. He founded and chaired the International Coordinating Committee on the Question of Palestine (ICCP), a UN-affiliated non-governmental organization (NGO) network pursuing peace in the Middle East based on UN resolutions.

A frequent writer and speaker, President Betz has addressed international, educational, motivational topics, and has worked with newspapers, radio and television. His life-long interest in global issues and his passion for promoting cross-cultural understanding has led him to more than 80 countries.

While president at NSU, he served as the chair of the Northeast Oklahoma Public Facility Authority, board member for BancFirst in Tahlequah, the Tahlequah Area Chamber of Commerce, Creative Oklahoma, Inc., and chair of the Regional University System of Oklahoma Council of Presidents. He is a member of the Oklahoma Academy, Leadership Oklahoma, Universities and Colleges President's Climate Commitment, International Association of University Presidents and has served as Chairman of AASCU's International Education Committee.

President Betz received his B.A. in Political Science and Philosophy from the University of San Francisco and his M.A. and Ph.D. in International Studies from the Graduate School of International Studies at the University of Denver. He also completed Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management.

Athletic Director
Eddie Griffin

Eddie Griffin returned to his alma mater as the new director of athletics in October of 2017.

Griffin comes to UCO after serving as the president of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and Jim Thorpe Association. He also served as an athletic director for Oklahoma City Public Schools and Northeastern State University, as well as head wrestling coach at Clemson University.

Griffin, who graduated with his Master of Education from Central and later became the head wrestling coach for the Bronchos, helped lay a foundation for success in athletics at UCO. He led the Bronchos to three of their first four national championships in wrestling. In 2008, Griffin was inducted into the UCO Athletic Hall of Fame.

Prior to coaching at Clemson University, Griffin's four-year run as UCO's head wrestling coach not only set the tone for the Bronchos to become one of the most revered programs in the country, but it rivals that of any coach in the sport.

He was named the Rookie Coach of the Year by Amateur Wrestling News in 1979. He coached 26 All-Americans, 11 individual national champions and put together a 40-18-1 dual record that included wins over Alabama, Arizona, Brigham Young, Oregon and Washington. Griffin was named NAIA National Coach of the Year three times in four seasons.

Griffin's 1981 team was perhaps the best in NAIA history, scoring a tournament-record 155.25 points and crowning six individual champions, while running away with the title. The Bronchos won again in 1982.

Griffin becomes the eighth athletic director at Central Oklahoma. The UCO Bronchos compete in nine women's and five men's sports as a member of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. The university's athletics program has a rich tradition of success, with 18 national championships and more than 400 All-Americans throughout its history.

Athletic Administration

Assistant Athletic Director/Operations
Gunnar Poff

Gunnar Poff is in his fifth year as Central Oklahoma's assistant athletic director for operations after serving the previous four years as coordinator of ticket sales for the Bronchos.

Poff took over his new role in May 2014 and is responsible for managing the day-to-day operations of UCO's Athletic Department. Gunnar also serves as sport supervisor for five sports and is responsible for the areas of athletic training, strength & conditioning, ticketing and game-day operations.

A native of Sayre, Gunnar was a pitcher for the Southwestern Oklahoma baseball team during the mid-2000s and earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from SWOSU in 2007.

Poff went on to earn a Master of Education in intercollegiate athletics administration in 2009 from the University of Oklahoma, working in the office of event management during his tenure at OU.

Gunnar is married (Tessa) and has three daughters (Presley, Piper and Devyn).

Assistant Athletic Director/Business
Britni Brannon

Serving as Central Oklahoma's assistant athletic director for business is Britni Brannon, who is also UCO's senior women's administrator.

An Oklahoma native, Brannon graduated from UCO in 2002 and spent the next five years working for an audio/visual company doing marketing, advertising and materials management.

A Certified Procurement Officer with the State of Oklahoma, Brannon returned to UCO in 2007 as a Buyer II in the Purchasing, Payment Services & Travel department and was in that capacity until moving to the athletic department as business manager in the fall of 2012.

Britni is married (Todd) and has one son (Alex).

Assistant Athletic Director/Compliance
Darnell Smith

In his ninth year as assistant athletic director for compliance at Central Oklahoma, Darnell Smith, manages the areas of NCAA compliance, student-athlete services and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), while also directing the student-athlete welfare programming and serving as Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Athletics.

A native of San Antonio, Texas, Smith was a four-year member and two-year starter of the Oklahoma State football team from 2002-06 at defensive end. A standout student-athlete, he was a three-time recipient of the Arthur Ashe Scholar award at OSU and earned second-team honors on the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America Team among other accolades.

Smith came to UCO from the University of New Mexico, where he served as director of compliance from February 2009 to June 2010. In his role with UNM he managed 11 sports by maintaining institutional control in all aspects of compliance.

Prior to his time at UNM, Smith served as a management development trainee from June 2008 to February 2009 with the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) in Colorado Springs, Colo.

He is married (Candace) and has one son (Darnell, Jr.).

Athletic Administration

Assistant Athletic Director/Sponsorships and Marketing
Brandon Baker

Brandon Baker is in his eighth year at Central Oklahoma as assistant athletic director for sponsorships and marketing.

He is responsible for corporate sponsorships and marketing for all athletic events on the UCO campus, working with local, regional and national businesses to create memorable experiences for both fans and sponsors.

Baker was at the Oklahoma City RedHawks for 10 years before coming to UCO, working with corporate sponsorships, baseball operations, game-day experience and ticket office management. He spent two years prior to that with the West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Cubs.

A native of Fulton, Mo., Baker is a University of Missouri graduate and was involved with the Mizzou chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Baker is married (Erin) and has two sons (Benjamin and Evan).

Director of Athletic Compliance
Jeremy Rogers

Jeremy Rogers joined the Central Oklahoma Athletic Department in November of 2012 and currently serves as director of athletic compliance.

A native of Medford, Rogers played football at Southern Nazarene University and earned all-conference honors at tight end. He received his Bachelor's degree in Sport Management from SNU in 2007.

Jeremy went on to earn his Juris Doctor from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2012. While at OU he worked as an intern for the Athletic Compliance Department and Office of Legal Counsel. Jeremy is licensed to practice law in the state of Oklahoma and is a member of the Oklahoma Bar Assocation.

Jeremy is married (Rachel) and they have two children - son (Mason) and daughter (Norah).

Director of Stampede Club
Al Jones

Al Jones took over as director of Central Oklahoma's Stampede Club in July 2014.

The Stampede Club is the athletic booster club for all UCO sports and helps support the athletic department through financial contributions and other events.

Jones, who has been involved with Broncho athletics in a variety of ways since the early 1960s, had served as executive director and membership coordinator of Alumni Relations at UCO for six years before joining the athletic department.

Jones was a student trainer and manager for the 1962 Central football team that won the NAIA national championship and he earned both bachelor's (1966) and master's (1974) degrees in education from UCO.

A past member of both the 45th Infantry Division Army National Guard and United States Air Force Reserves, Jones was a teacher for many years at Stillwater and Millwood in addition to serving as headmaster/superintendent at Oklahoma Christian Schools.

He worked in private business from 1998 until coming to UCO in April 2008 as executive director of Alumni Relations.

Al is married (Sharon) and has two sons (Jon and Jeff).

Director of Ticket Operations
Bill Shaw

Bill Shaw took over as Director of Ticket Sales for the University of Central Oklahoma Athletic Department in September of 2017.

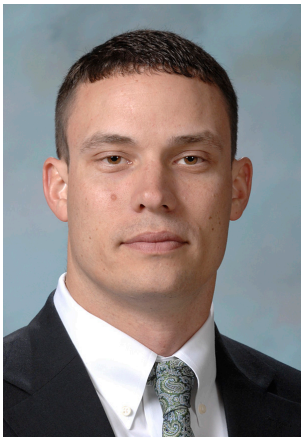

Shaw oversees all aspects of ticket sales both online, and at the box office of football, volleyball, soccer, wrestling, men's & women's basketball, and softball.

He returns to Central Oklahoma where he previously worked as the assistant coach for women's basketball. Shaw served under current head coach Guy Hardaker from 2008-14, helping the Bronchos reach the Sweet 16 in 2009 and 2011.

Shaw comes to UCO following three years in the private business sector. Bill is married (Patricia) and has two children (Andy and Hayden).

THE COACHES

Head Coach Nick Bobeck

Nick Bobeck leads the University of Central Oklahoma football program into the 2018 season entering his seventh year at the helm. He has a 30-37 career record coaching his alma mater.

Last season, Central Oklahoma finished 8-4. The Bronchos won the last six games and seven of the last eight. UCO ended the regular season 7-4 and earned a fourth-place finish in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association standings before beating Tarleton State in the inaugural Corsicana Bowl in Corsicana, Texas.

Bobeck coached a consensus All-American in 2017, guiding wide receiver J.T. Luper to earn top honors from five different outlets and a seventh-place finish in the Harlon Hill Trophy (Division II's top player) race.

A look at Central Oklahoma's record book shows a big footprint of Bobeck's work. There are five team records that have been set over the past six years under Bobeck, and an astounding 40 individual records set under Bobeck's leadership.

Bobeck also has kept the President's Cup in Edmond for the last four years, having beat rival Northeastern State by a combined 155-62 in that span. He is 4-2 overall against NSU since taking over as head coach in 2012.

Bobeck led the Bronchos to a wins over Missouri Western, Missouri Southern, and Northeastern State in 2016. In the win over Southern, the Bronchos scored 63 points. It was the most points scored in a win for Central since scoring 66 points in 1955.

Prior to 2016, the Bronchos put together back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2003-04.Nick led the team to a 7-5 finish in 2015, with the Bronchos rebounding from an 0-4 start to win seven of their last eight games. UCO ended the season with a five-game winning streak, capped by a 38-21 win over long-time rival Southwestern Oklahoma in the Live United Texarkana Bowl.

It was the second consecutive postseason appearance for the Bronchos, who went to the Mineral Water Bowl in 2014 while going 8-4 and finishing third in the rugged Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association after the team was predicted to come in 10th in the 12-team league by conference coaches.

It was UCO's first winning season since 2008 and the first eight-win campaign since 2004.

Bobeck became UCO's 13th head coach on Jan. 4, 2012 following a sparkling four-year head coaching stint at junior college powerhouse Navarro (Texas) College.

Nick, who played at UCO and then was a graduate assistant coach for the Bronchos, compiled a sensational 42-5 record at Navarro. The Bulldogs won the 2010 national championship along with three regular season Southwest Junior College Football Conference (SWJCFC) titles during his tenure there.

Bobeck was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at fullback for UCO from 1999-2002, earning first-team All-Lone Star Conference North Division honors as a senior.

He stayed on with the Bronchos as a graduate assistant coach the next three seasons, helping UCO go 20-12 during that stint, while making the NCAA Division II playoffs in 2003.

Bobeck went to Texas A&M as an offensive line coach in 2006, when the Aggies finished 9-4 and earned a berth in the Holiday Bowl. He moved on to Navarro the following season and served as offensive coordinator in 2007, when the Bulldogs went 9-3 and won the conference crown.

Nick took over as head coach the next year, with his first squad finishing 10-1 and ranked fourth in the final poll. An 11-1 campaign and No. 3 ranking followed in 2009.

Bobeck and the Bulldogs put it all together in 2010, following a season-opening loss with 11 consecutive wins to finish 11-1 and capture the NJCAA national championship. Navarro was 10-2 in 2011, finishing fifth in the final ranking.

Nick and his wife, Keely, have three children – a son (Tucker) and two daughters (Miller and Parker).

Assistant Coaches

Russ Pickett
Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator

In his seventh year as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Central Oklahoma is Russ Pickett.

Pickett, who coaches the defensive line and also serves as recruiting coordinator for the Bronchos, has coached 13 All-MIAA selections on the defensive side of the ball over the past six seasons. His defense saw a bit of a resurgence in 2017, intercepting 14 passes and recording 21 sacks. That after the defense tallied six interceptions and forced nine fumbles in 2016.

UCO's defense enjoyed a two-year stretch that helped the Bronchos post back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2003-04. UCO went 8-4 and finished third in the rugged Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association in 2014 before going 7-5 in 2015 after rebounding from an 0-4 start. The Bronchos held six opponents to less than 400 yards total offense in 2015 and seven defenders earned All-MIAA recognition.

Pickett was defensive/recruiting coordinator at Navarro in 2010 and '11, helping lead the Bulldogs to a 21-3 record, the 2010 junior college national championship and back-to-back conference titles.

Russ directed a unit that led the conference in defensive scoring both years at Navarro. He coached 12 all-conference players while with the Bulldogs, including one first-team All-American.

A native of Camden, Ark., Pickett was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Division II Ouachita Baptist, serving as team captain his senior year.

He started his coaching career at Division II Southern Arkansas, spending two years as a graduate assistant before taking over as defensive line coach in 2005 and then moving to the secondary in 2006. Pickett coached three players who signed with NFL teams during his tenure with the Muleriders.

Russ moved on to Fort Scott Community College as defensive coordinator in 2007, spending two years there.

The Greyhounds went 9-3 in 2007 as Pickett's defensive unit finished 10th nationally in total defense, with four players earning all-conference honors. Pickett's defense posted five shutouts and allowed a conference-low 6.9 points a game during a 9-2 campaign in 2008 as seven players earned all-conference honors and three were named All-American.

Pickett spent the 2009 season as defensive coordinator at Benton (Ark.) High School before going to Navarro College where he joined forces with Nick Bobeck. The two came to UCO together in 2012.

Russ, who received his bachelor's in physical education from OBU and his master's in educational leadership from SAU, is married (Kristin) and has three daughters (Lexie, Ella Grace and Embry).

Assistant Coaches

Christian Hood
Quarterbacks/Offensive Coordinator

Christian Hood has been with the University of Central Oklahoma in some capacity since the fall of 2011. He spent four years playing wide receiver for the Bronchos, then two years as a graduate assistant coach, and in 2017, became a full-time assistant coach, assisting with play-calling duties and coaching quarterbacks.

He'll lead the way as an offensive coordinator in 2018, aiming to continue the high-octane numbers the Bronchos have put up since Hood's arrival seven years ago.

Christian was a four-year starter for the Bronchos, finishing his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions with 185 while ranking third in career yardage with 2,077. He still holds the all-time receptions mark and is fourth in career yardage after guiding a record-shattering consensus All-American in 2017. Hood held a key role in UCO receiver J.T. Luper earning a seventh-place finish in the Harlon Hill Trophy race for Division II's best football player.

Hood has also helped in the Bronchos breaking numerous records over the past few seasons, including five team records for single game and single season, as well as nearly 40 individual records for single game, single season, and career marks.

Hood had an immediate impact at UCO as a true freshman in 2011 when he led the team in catches (54) and was second in yards (530). He was an honorable mention All-MIAA pick in 2012 after topping the Bronchos in receptions (47) and yards (573). Hood had 37 catches for 483 yards in 2013 and then grabbed 47 passes for 491 yards as a senior in again earning honorable mention All-MIAA honors. He caught at least one pass in 42 of 43 career games.

An All-State pick at Tulsa Union High School who caught the game-winning touchdown pass in the Class 6A state finals as a senior, Christian received his bachelor's degree in political science in the spring of 2015 and his master's degree in Adult Education in the spring of 2017.

Christian is married (Alexis).

Jason Smelser
Linebackers

Jason Smelser is in his fifth year with the Central Oklahoma program and serves as both the linebackers coach and the strength and conditioning coach.

Smelser, a former head coach, has coached a pair of All-MIAA linebackers in his time at Central. Smelser coached in 2015 linebacker Malcolm Howard, who earned second-team All-MIAA honors after racking up 140 tackles, the most by a UCO player since 1998 and the seventh-best season in school history.

Jason came to the Bronchos after a three-year stint as an assistant at NCAA Division II Henderson State. He coached running backs, tight ends and fullbacks in 2011 before becoming linebacker coach/strength and conditioning coordinator in 2012.

Smelser helped the Reddies to a 21-2 record the next two seasons, with HSU winning back-to-back Great American Conference championships in making consecutive trips to the Division II playoffs. He was named Samson Equipment's NCAA Division II Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by American Football Monthly after the 2012 season.

A native of Monroe, La., Smelser was a prep standout at Ouachita Christian High School before going on to play at Southern Arkansas. He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at running back for the Muleriders, earning All-Gulf South Conference honors once.

Smelser stayed on at SAU to start his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1999-2000 and then served as defensive line coach from 2001-04, helping lead the Muleriders to the Division II playoffs in 2003 when his line totaled 30 sacks.

Smelser became defensive coordinator at Iowa Wesleyan in 2005 and added head coaching duties the following season. He stayed with the NAIA-member Tigers until 2009 and then spent the 2010 season as defensive coordinator/head strength coach at Concordia (Mich.) before going to Henderson State.

Jason, who earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Southern Arkansas, is married (Wendy) and has two children (Madison and Slade).

Assistant Coaches

Nick Graham
Defensive Backs

In his third year as an assistant coach at Central Oklahoma is Nick Graham, a former Division I standout who went on to play several years of professional football.

Graham, coaches defensive backs for the Bronchos, and came to UCO after three years as an assistant at Tulsa. He has guided the Broncho secondary to pickoff 20 passes in his first two seasons as a coach.

Graham served as a student assistant coach for the Golden Hurricane in 2013 before spending the 2014 and 2015 seasons as defensive analyst.

Nick was a prep standout at Millwood High School in Oklahoma City before going on to a stellar four-year career at TU, earning second-team All-Conference USA honors twice. He started in 30 of 50 games played with the Golden Hurricane and finished with 180 tackles, 20 broken up passes, seven interceptions, 8.0 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks and two forced fumbles.

Graham played six years of professional football after leaving TU, spending the first three years in the National Football League with the Philadelphia Eagles and Indianapolis Colts. He was out of football for a year before returning to play three years in the Canadian Football League with the Saskatchewan Roughriders and Hamilton Tiger-cats.

Graham retired in 2013 and returned to TU to complete his degree in communications and start his coaching career.

Nick is married (Candice) and has three children (Jaliyah, Nicholas and Jamison).

Tyler Holland
H-Backs/Special Teams

Tyler Holland returned to Central Oklahoma in 2017. The former Broncho defensive back and assistant coach is back for another stint at Central, and coaches H-backs and special teams.

Holland comes to UCO from Azle, Texas, where he coached the Azle High School Hornets defensive backs and special teams in 2016.

Prior to his time in Texas, Holland served as the Bronchos assistant coach from 2014-16, leading the defensive backs. He was also a defensive graduate assistant at Central from 2012-14 before his promotion.

Holland got his start in coaching in 2010, coaching the Norman High defensive backs for two years before coming to UCO.

Holland played safety at UCO in the early 2000s. He earned both of his degrees from the University of Central Oklahoma, getting his bachelor's degree in history and his Master of Education in the same subject. Holland played wide receiver and safety at Norman High before that.

Jarrail Jackson
Wide Receivers

Jarrail Jackson returned to Central Oklahoma in 2017 to coach the wide receivers under Nick Bobeck. Jackson was an assistant coach for the Bronchos in 2005.

The former Oklahoma wide receiver, who played for the Buffalo Bills and in the Arena Football League, spent last season at Mississippi State as an offensive analyst and recruiting specialist. Jackson spent one season at Davidson where he coached quarterbacks and three seasons at Washington State, where he worked as the director of player relations as well as working in recruiting.

Prior to Washington State, Jackson worked for six seasons with wide receivers at Dartmouth University.

Jackson has three children (Jalen, Acelynn and Brooklyn).

THE PLAYERS

Season Outlook

Central Oklahoma ended last season on a six-game winning streak, the longest such run in the Nick Bobeck era. Now the seventh-year head coach is trying to find a way to keep the streak going and improve on what was his second, eight-win season, and what was his third postseason appearance since he took over the reigns of his alma mater in 2012.

Here is a position-by-position look at the Bronchos.

Quarterback

UCO has a quarterback race heading into fall camp. Keats Calhoon, Chandler Garrett, and Will Collins – all sophomores – are all capable of taking the starting job. Calhoon has been at Central the longest, with Garrett following him a semester later, and Collins joining the fray this past spring.

Calhoon is brilliant, has good arm strength, and can put the ball in the receiver's hands anywhere on the field. Garrett has good play-making skills, and doubles as another running back in the backfield. Collins is a mix of the two. He has the arm strength, he has the high QB IQ, and he can run if needed. It will be a good race that could likely end up with multiple winners.

The Bronchos also have a redshirt freshman in the mix in Casey Base, and a true freshman in Camden Cargill. Both similar QBs that fit well in the Broncho program.

Bobeck says: "We're replacing one of the best quarterbacks in school history (Chas Stallard) and we need a leader at this spot. But I like the group we have and I know that someone is going to come out of here and put us in a great position to win some football games."

Running Back

The UCO run game starts with Clay McKenzie, who returns for a sixth season after missing 10 of 11 games last year. The powerful, bruising, back out of Texas has over 2,600 rushing yards in his career and 37 rushing touchdowns. He has over 3,200 all-purpose yards and is eager to prove himself one last time on the field after missing his senior season a year ago.

McKenzie will be spelled by Jake Standlee, who rushed for over 500 yards as a redshirt freshman last year before he also had a season-ending injury. Standlee is similar to McKenzie in that he doesn't run away from tacklers, he runs through them, but Standlee does have a little bit more speed to break away.

Bruce White came on late last season by necessity, but the 5-foot-tall, 140-pound true freshman shined. He became the second-leading rusher on the team and ended the year with over 200 yards in the Bronchos' bowl game victory.

Newcomers Justin Curry and Tyriq French will both get opportunities as well. Both are similar backs with a physical style of play that can help the Bronchos with depth.

Bobeck says: "We're really excited to have Clay back and for him to get another opportunity. We also like the guys behind him to step in and keep the level of play at a high rate."

Wide Receivers

L'liott Curry is the veteran on a young and inexperienced wide receiver corps for the Bronchos. Curry has eased into a prime role for UCO and has gotten better each year with just under 700 yards and seven touchdowns for his two-year career.

Dustin Basks also returns and though he hasn't played a full season for Central, presents a threat in the passing game with lightning quick abilities made evident when he scored two touchdowns in his season debut last year. Everett Jefferson is the only other receiver back with game time. He is a sophomore loaded with talent that, like Curry, will get better with more reps.

Central does have a slew of newcomers that are more than ready to be the next big target in Bronze & Blue. Ronald Turner Jr., a transfer, and Mekail Hall, a redshirt freshman, are two that have long reach, speed, and plenty of talent too. Kaden Mendenhall hasn't played yet for UCO either but the junior receiver is quick and can be dangerous with the ball.

Bobeck says: "We've got some talented kids in the group, just unproven. So we're just trying to figure out what their roles are and making sure that they're in a good situation to be successful."

H-Backs

Daxton Williams returns as the prominent leader of the tight-end group for UCO. A veteran junior capable of adding protection in the passing game, a powerful push in the run game, and also slipping out to catch a pass. Williams knows where to be and knows where others are supposed to be too.

Marshall Tolson began to accrue some time on the field last year and is expected to become a regular this year. He, like Williams, can be strong up front and is loaded with talent. Daunte McGee took a redshirt last season, and with a little more experience, is going to be great for the Bronchos. He might be the most talented in the bunch.

Bobeck says: "That's a key position in our offense. We feel good about that spot. We're going to be able to do some different things on offense because of this group. With their ability to both block and be flexible in what we're doing, this is a good position for us."

Offensive Line

Nick George, Noah Hammons and Tyler Stilwell all return as starters on the offensive line, leaving Bobeck to plug in a couple of newcomers to the front of his offense.

George at center makes the world turn for the Broncho offense and is one of the best in the country at leading the pack. Hammons and Stilwell are both physical players that possess the smarts to adjust on the fly.

David Seagle, Ben Raulston and Jacob Blair are all veterans waiting for their opportunity on the field. All can stand on their own in various spots. Seth Carmack, Chase Slack, and J.W. Morrow are all redshirt frehman who can do the same.

Bobeck says: "We feel good on the offensive line. It's a matter of staying healthy and having a plan. But we feel good about the group as a whole and we feel like that is going to be a strength of our offense."

Season Outlook

Defensive Line

Central faced some adversity at the defensive line position last season and is poised this year to combat that problem with depth. UCO also has more size up front in an effort to shut down the opponent in 2018.

Carson Smith, a senior, is set to end his brilliant Broncho career with a bang. The defensive tackle has tackled opponents for a combined loss of 51 yards in three seasons and is a force that requires a double team every play.

Justin Stewart is back on the outside and when paired with Smith on one side of the line, creates a bruising duo. Stewart tied for the team-high with five sacks last season.

UCO also has back Eli Hooks, Noble Lybrand, Jordan Stafford, and Trey Wormington. All have played valuable snaps and look to impose a toughness this year.

Redshirt freshmen Vaughn Appleman and Kaelin Murray, along with transfers Michael Rios, Kahewai Kaaiawaawa, Stephon Starks, and Tyler Cummings figure to be in the mix in the trenches for the Bronchos this season.

Bobeck says: "We really like this group because Coach (Russ) Pickett has done a great job getting not only more guys at the position, but bigger guys and guys that can really play. This is going to be big help for us this year. We like this group and we think they're going to help us a lot."

Linebacker

Two of the top returning tacklers from a year ago return to the Broncho linebacker group and are aiming for better seasons in 2018.

Colton Lindsey, a mike linebacker who made 100 tackles last season, and Alex Figueroa, a will linebacker with 79 tackles, a team-high 11.5 behind the line of scrimmage and a team-high five sacks, both return after receiving All-MIAA honors a year ago. They provide the leadership on and off the field for the Broncho defense to be a formiddable foe this season.

Chris Pogi also returns for his junior season and is one of the most talented players on the field. He'll compete for time with newcomer Bryan Burns, a JUCO transfer, for a starting spot at sam linebacker.

Langston Underwood also returns and will compete for more time as he continues to progress. He's a physical player by nature with room to improve. Brock Berus will get his first crack at playing time after redshirting last season and Dillon Hall, another JUCO transfer, will add depth to the rotation.

Bobeck says: "Colton and Alex are such a big help for us and both do it in different ways. Colton is so talented and we just line him up and let him go play football. Alex is such a force and teams run away from him. That helps us know where the ball is going when you have a player that offenses don't want to go at. But, we have more than those two. This position can be very good for us with guys like Chris Pogi and Bryan Burns and Langston Underwood."

Defensive Back

Central has a lot of players back on defense and the same goes for the defensive back position.

Malik Walker, O'Shay Harris, Addison Staggs, Stephon Robinson, Barry Higdon, and Dreyvon Christian are all back to provide veteran leadership to the Broncho defensive back field. All have played valuable roles, and multiple roles, for UCO over the past few seasons.

Walker and Staggs set a tone with a physical style of play. Walker has played a lot of snaps at corner and can not only shut down a receiver, but can go up and defend passes with the best of them. Staggs missed last season and has had more than one injury problem, but is a physical presence with a lot of talent that knows where to be on the field.

Robinson played both corner and safety last year and led the team with five interceptions. Robinson also led the team with 13 passes defended a year ago and is looking to improve in his senior season.

Harris made 75 tackles a year ago playing safety and also defended six passes and made one interception. Harris is a workhorse that shows up on every play and is eager to make a difference on the field.

Higdon and Christian bring a lot of talent to the reserve role. Derek Loccident played a little as a redshirt freshman last season and will grow with more time.

Newcomers Jakarri Hunt and Isaiah Gray are also looking to get into the rotation and cause some disruptions in the pass game.

Bobeck says: "We are deep at this position and lot of our guys have been on the field. They have a lot of talent and they all have different talents. We need to figure out who is going to be there and who is going to step up and do the work, but this is a good group."

Special Teams

Alex Quevedo returns for his sophomore season to handle kicking duties for the Bronchos.

The Azle, Texas native was solid in his kickoff responsibilities as a true freshman last season and also made nine field goals with a long of 46 and hit 40-of-42 PATs. He'll serve the same role this season.

Jay Tedesco stepped in at punter last year and did well, averaging just under 40 yards per punt. With room to improve, the junior is looking to better his average this year and keep opponents out of the end zone a little more this year.

Both will rely on deep snapper Josh Autaubo.

The return game for UCO is a toss-up heading into camp. Bobeck is looking for kick-return guys that will hit the holes and hit them hard. He's looking for a punt-return guy to just catch the ball.

Bobeck says: "Alex did a great job for us as a true freshman before he got hurt. He'll need to stay healthy for us this year. Jay Tedesco also did very well. He has a great ability and we're looking forward to him progressing. All of our kicking and punting really comes down to Josh Autaubo. He is so important to what we do and he has done great in his first two seasons."

UCO won its season opener 35-14 against Lindenwood in front of 5,961 fans at Wantland Stadium.

Chas Stallard threw four touchdown passes to lead the way. Clay McKenzie added a rushing TD to give the Bronchos a 1-0 start to the 2017 season.

Stallard went 11-of-22 passing for 157 yards and four scores. He also ran the ball 11 times for 78 yards. The fifth-year quarterback connected on touchdown passes of 36, 6, 37, and 13 to three different receivers.

L'liott Curry hauled in the game's first score on a 36-yard catch with five minutes to play in the first quarter. Lindenwood then evened the score with 18 seconds to play in the first, and took a 14-7 lead with 10 minutes to play in the second. But UCO responded.

McKenzie, who finished with 94 yards on 21 carries, ran in a 12-yard touchdown with 4:55 to play in the first half to make it 14-14. UCO then forced a big three-and-out, sparked by a huge tackle on the kickoff by Riley Galyon – who led the team with eight tackles on the night. Then the Bronchos struck again with just 44 seconds left in the half on a six-yard touchdown pass to Josh Crockett to make it 21-14.

UCO scored on a 37-yard J.T. Luper touchdown catch, and a 13-yard score by Crockett in the second half to reach the final tally. Bobeck cited big plays by Galyon on the defensive side of the ball as a big reason why.

The Bronchos have nine days until their next game, a Saturday, Sept. 9 affair in Pittsburg, Kan. against Pitt State. The Gorillas are 0-1 after losing 28-23 to Central Missouri Thursday.

Game 2
PITTSBURG STATE 31
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 28

UCO fell short 31-28 at MIAA rival Pittsburg State in Week 2.

Chas Stallard threw for 267 yards and two scores, and ran for another, but the Bronchos defense came up one stop short of giving the quarterback a chance at a last minute effort.

The Bronchos fought back all game long. UCO was down in the first quarter after allowing the game's first score from a Pitt State 2-yard run after just three minutes.

UCO got some help from a pair of 15-yard penalties on the next drive and answered back. The Bronchos started at the 50 thanks to a 35-yard return by J.T. Luper and a 15-yard late hit penalty. UCO got help from another 15-yard personal foul penalty and the Bronchos eventually scored after only gaining 20 yards of offense on the drive, when Clay McKenzie forged his way into the end zone for his second touchdown in as many games to make it 7-7 with 6:29 to play in the quarter.

Later in the first quarter, UCO on defense forced a punt, and the home crowd roared when the ball bounced out at the Broncho 5-yard line. However, Chas Stallard found J.T. Luper on a quick screen, and Luper took if 38 yards to get the pressure off. UCO kept it going, scoring after an 11-play, 95 yard drive that spanned just under five minutes. Stallard finished the drive off with a 1-yard touchdown run and take a 14-7 lead with 11:37 to go in the second quarter.

Pittsburg State then responded with a touchdown and a field goal to take a 17-14 lead into the locker room at halftime.

In the second half, Josh Crockett scored on a 6-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter to give the Bronchos a lead, 21-17. But Pittsburg State scored on a big, 60-yard score with five minutes left in the third, then, again on a blocked punt return for a touchdown that made it 31-21.

UCO made it interesting in the fourth though. Luper caught a big time 86-yard touchdown with 2:39 to play to make it 31-28. UCO however, couldn't get one more stop as Pitt State ran out the clock.

Game 3
FORT HAYS STATE 31
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 24

Chas Stallard launched a hail mary as the final seconds ticked off the clock, but the pass was broken up in the end zone and No. 21 Fort Hays State handed the Bronchos a 31-24 loss.

Stallard threw for 293 yards and became UCO's all-time leader in total offense, but was just one play short Saturday.

Stallard passed T.J. Eckert for most combined offensive yards in school history. After UCO and Fort Hays State traded punts to start Saturday's game, Stallard connected with J.T. Luper on a 75-yard pass play to move to the top of the list.

Stallard would run in 15-yard touchdown – two plays after Luper's catch – to put the Bronchos up 7-0 against the nationally-ranked Tigers.

UCO then forced its first turnover of the season on the next drive, a Trey Wormington interception behind the line of scrimmage, to give UCO first-and-10 at the Fort Hays 17-yard line. Stallard followed with his second touchdown of the game from three yards out to make it 14-0.

The Bronchos then allowed Hays to not only get back in the game with a lone second-quarter touchdown, but take a lead in the third quarter following 21 unanswered points.

UCO closed the gap with a big, 46-yard field goal with 11 minutes left to play in the fourth quarter. Freshman Alex Quevedo nailed his first career attempt, into a 15 miles per hour south wind, to make it 21-17.

The Bronchos then forced Hays to punt, and took over at their own 36 with 9:27 to go. Stallard hit Luper for a quick 13-yard gain on first down, then went deep to L'liott Curry on the next play. Curry drew a pass interference call and put the Bronchos on the FHSU 36 with first down.

Stallard connected with Curry three plays later for a 12-yard touchdown to give UCO a 24-21 lead with more than seven minutes to go.

Fort Hays tied it with a field goal on the next drive, and forced the Bronchos to punt with 1:27 on the clock in the fourth. Four plays later, Hays' Monterio Burchfield caught a pass and raced 64 yards for what would be the game-winning touchdown.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game 4
MISSOURI WESTERN 41
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 37

Chas Stallard heaved a pass to the end zone as time expired for the second Saturday in a row, and like last week, the pass was broken up.

Missouri Western beat UCO 41-37.

Stallard took the Bronchos down the field from their own 31 with 24 seconds left in an attempted game-winning drive. He targeted J.T. Luper in the front corner of the end zone before a Missouri Western defender ran in front of the pass and knocked it down.

Luper continued his brilliant start to the season. He caught eight passes – two touchdowns – and tallied 253 yards, which is the second most by one receiver in a single game in school history. Luper had catches of 85 and 83 Saturday.

Missouri Western struck first as the teams alternated scores in a wild first quarter. MWSU scored on a 25-yard pass before Chandler Garrett made it 7-7 on a 1-yard run. Then MWSU scored on a 71-yard run and Quan Hogan responded with a 75-yard run. It was 15-14 Western at the end of the first quarter.

Stallard connected with Luper to give the Bronchos a 20-15 lead after an 85-yard score. And Quevedo hit a 24-yard field goal on the Bronchos' first possession out of halftime to make it 23-15. But on the next possession, Missouri Western got six points back.

Missouri Western then scored in the fourth. The PAT was blocked and the Griffons led 27-23.

Hogan put the Bronchos ahead 30-27, but Missouri Western responded quickly, scoring on a 48-yard pass play to go up 34-30 with 3:23 on the fourth quarter clock.

UCO, not willing to rollover and give up, took back the lead after Stallard hit Luper for an 83-yard score with 2:24 to go to make it 37-34.

Western though answered again, scoring in four plays in just under a minute, finished off by a 68-yard passing touchdown that moved it to 41-37.

Game 5
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 53
EMPORIA STATE 52

Josh Crockett converted a two-point conversion with 20 seconds left in the game and the Bronchos beat Emporia State 53-52 at Wantland Stadium.

UCO trailed by 15 points with five minutes left to play before a series of frantic and thrilling events led Central Oklahoma to victory.

With the Bronchos trailing 52-37, J.T. Luper caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Chas Stallard with 3:29 to go. Then Stallard found Caleb Moss for a two-point conversion to make it a one score game.

Chris Pogi recovered an onside kick to give the Bronchos one more chance with just over three minutes to go.

Stallard then executed a 9-play, 54-yard drive that ended with a 13-yard touchdown pass to Luper before Crockett converted the game-winning two-point try.

Saturday's MIAA game came packed with action from the get-go. Emporia State marched right down the field for a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive to open the game. UCO responded with four-straight touchdown scoring drives.

Stallard found Caleb Moss on a 2-yard pass to tie the game, and found Romel Price for an 11-yard score to give the Bronchos a 14-7 lead.

ESU tied it up briefly, but Chandler Garrett's 1-yard rush gave UCO a 21-14 lead. A safety followed that made it 23-14, and a 33-yard score to Luper made it 29-14. Emporia added a late score to make it 29-21 at halftime.

Emporia scored three times in the third to take a 38-29 lead and then went up 45-38 with another score early in the fourth quarter.

Luper caught his second touchdown of the day and the Bronchos converted the first of three two-point conversions to make it 45-37. ESU scored one more time to go up 52-37 before the Bronchos made their final push in the final few minutes of the game.

Game 6
NORTHWEST MISSOURI 17
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 10

UCO lost 17-10 to No. 1 Northwest Missouri State to fall to 2-4 on the season, just missing out on ending the back-to-back national champion's 35-game win streak. UCO has lost all four games this season by just one possession.

Chas Stallard was 20-of-40 passing Saturday, throwing for 229 yards. But he couldn't connect on the big plays that have helped UCO this season. Stallard had at least five incomplete passes to the end zone.

Chandler Garrett threw UCO's lone touchdown on the day, connecting with Daxton Williams on a 2-yard score in the fourth quarter. Garrett also just missed on a big play. His first career pass was an attempt downfield in the second quarter. The pass fell just short of the receiver, who had the defender beat.

Those misses were the story of the game Saturday. Stallard underthrew L'liott Curry on a pass that would've made it 10-0 UCO in the first. Garrett's pass would have made it 10-7 in the second.

Close calls, paired with a hampered running game, left UCO without many options. The Bronchos totaled just 17 yards on 20 carries Saturday.

The UCO defense kept the Bronchos in contention with a team that hasn't lost since 2014.

Colton Lindsey led Central with nine tackles. Riley Galyon and O'Shay Harris each had eight, and Alex Figueroa made seven. The pressure forced Northwest to just 6-of-16 on third downs Saturday. The Bearcats punted seven times Saturday. That Broncho defense gave UCO a fighting chance in the end.

After Garrett found Williams for a touchdown with 1:34 to go, Alex Quevedo lined up for an onside kick. The Broncho freshman laid down a solid try, the recovering Bearcat muffed the reception and the ball popped up in the air. Unfortunately for Central Oklahoma, another Northwest player grabbed it, and Northwest Missouri ran out the clock.

UCO wide receiver J.T. Luper led the Bronchos on offense again. He made nine catches for 91 yards. Jake Standlee had five catches for 49 yards, and the redshirt freshman led UCO with 20 yards rushing on seven carries. Curry made four catches for 66 yards, and Josh Crockett had one for 15 yards.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game 7
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 27
NEBRASKA-KEARNEY 13

UCO worked out a tough 27-13 win over Nebraska-Kearney before 5,089 homecoming fans at Wantland Stadium.

Colton Lindsey led the Central effort on the defensive side of the ball. The junior linebacker made 10 tackles on the day. Stephan Robinson only made two tackles, but had the play of the game in the first half. Robinson, who usually plays cornerback, was shifted to safety due to the injuries in the Broncho secondary.

In the second quarter, 40 seconds on the clock and UCO leading 10-6, Kearney was marching down the field looking to go ahead before the half.

But on 2nd & 8 at the UCO 23, Kearney quarterback Steve Worthing rolled out and hurled a pass to the end zone. Robinson jumped in front of the ball and grabbed his second interception of the season at his own 2-yard line and sprinted in for the 98-yard interception return for a touchdown and UCO took a 17-6 lead into the locker room at the half.

The Bronchos got a handful of other big plays on defense. Justin Stewart picked up a sack, Chris Pogi also got an interception in the first half, and the Bronchos scrapped out eight pass break-ups on the day.

Offensively, Chas Stallard threw a pair of touchdown passes. He hit Josh Crockett on a 9-yard pass in the first quarter to put the Bronchos up 7-0. Stallard also connected with L'liott Curry on a 48-yard strike in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach for Kearney.

Stallard finished 20 of 31 passing with 189 yards and the two touchdown passes. He also threw one interception – just his third of the season.

Crockett finished with two catches for 16 yards. Curry had two for 53 yards. J.T. Luper hauled in 11 receptions Saturday. He finished with 89 yards. He nearly had a 55-yard touchdown, but the ball was about one foot in front of his outstretched arms as he dove into the end zone.

Jake Standlee led the charge on offense Saturday. The redshirt freshman running back, UCO's only running back in uniform Saturday, carried the ball 16 times for 135 yards. Stallard added 48 yards on 11 carries, and Chandler Garrett ran the ball seven times for 32 yards.

Game 8
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 63
MISSOURI SOUTHERN 33

The Bronchos scored early and often in a 63-33 rout of Missouri Southern State. Chas Stallard led the Bronchos in a superb game at quarterback. The senior was 24-of-27 for 355 yards with two touchdowns. He added eight carries for 48 yards, and caught a three-yard touchdown pass.

The Bronchos used a contingent of players in the run game to lead a balanced offense that totaled 649 yards, the third-most in school history.

Garrett was the leading rusher on the day, tallying 79 yards on eight carries including a 47-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to put the Bronchos up 14-9.

J.T. Luper led the Bronchos in the receiving game. The senior hauled in 10 passes for 137 yards and one touchdown. He had a handful of short-yardage plays before bursting out with a 73-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Standlee scored the game's first points on a 2-yard run just three minutes into the game. UCO had forced a three & out on defense, and then the Bronchos went five plays for 62 yards to go up 7-0.

Missouri Southern notched a field goal on the next drive to make it 7-3, and after forcing and recovering a fumble on the kickoff, scored a touchdown four plays later to go ahead.

Garrett checked into the game at quarterback took off to the races for a 47-yard score to put the Bronchos back in the lead. UCO did not trail again.

Stallard scored on a touchdown pass from Luper with 21 seconds left in the first quarter to put UCO up 21-9. A second Standlee touchdown with 3:37 to go made it 28-19, then Basks scored his first career touchdown with 38 seconds left to make it 35-19.

After Crockett's 75-yard catch to start the third quarter, Standlee found the end zone for the third time in the game to make it 42-19. Crockett then scored on a 45-yard reverse play to make it 49-19.

In the fourth, Luper hauled in his 73-yard score. Basks scored again on a 9-yard shovel pass from Keats Calhoon with five minutes to play.

Game 9
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 48
CENTRAL MISSOURI 30

Central Oklahoma beat No. 23 Central Missouri 48-30 before 5,328 fans at Wantland Stadium.

Alex Figueroa, Stephan Robinson, Colton Lindsey and Trent Ellis each picked off passes. The Bronchos held UCM to 58 yards rushing on 26 carries. They came into the game averaging 217 yards per game on the ground.

Offensively for UCO, the story of the day wasn't Chas Stallard completing 26 of 40 passes for 381 yards and four TDs. It wasn't that he hit J.T. Luper 11 times for 124 yards and a score, Josh Crockett seven times for 114 yards and a score, L'liott Curry six times for 133 yards and two scores.

The story of the day was Bruce White. A walk-on true freshman from Tulsa, Okla., thrust into the spotlight for the Bronchos following injuries to numerous Central running backs. He carried the ball 22 times Saturday for 134 yards and two scores.

Central Missouri scored first Saturday, capping off a 10-play, 72-yard drive with an eight yard TD run from Koby Wilkerson. The Bronchos responded, going 85 yards in seven plays, the final, a 13-yard TD run for White to make it 7-7.

Alex Quevedo hit a 41-yard field goal to give the Bronchos the lead they never relinquished.

Luper caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Stallard with seven minutes to play in the half to make it 17-7.

White added his second score of the day on the third quarter's opening possession – a bruising 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with White popping through the line for a 1-yard score.

The teams traded 25-yard field goals on the next two possessions and the Bronchos led Central Missouri 27-10 headed to the fourth quarter.

The Bronchos put up 21 fourth quarter points. Curry hauled in TD passes of 64 and 28 and Crockett scored on a 45-yard pass play. Central Missouri also scored three touchdowns in the fourth, its last with just under seven minutes to play made it the final, 48-30.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game 10
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 27
WASHBURN 10

UCO beat Washburn 27-10 to improve to 6-4 on the season and win its fourth straight game heading into the regular season finale.

UCO fumbled twice in the first half and lost both. But UCO also forced three fumbles and recovered all of them. The Broncho defense ended the day with seven total turnovers – two interceptions, three fumble recoveries, and two turnovers on downs.

Washburn scored first Saturday. After forcing a UCO fumble on the game's opening possession, Washburn drove a short 19 yards on six plays and kicked a 31-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead with 12:18 to play in the first quarter.

UCO went 73 yards on 14 plays on the next drive, however, Chas Stallard had a 40-yard touchdown run called back on a penalty, and the Bronchos then missed a 24-yard field attempt.

That's when the defense kicked into action.

Omari Cole forced a fumble three plays later, Lindsey recovered, and the Bronchos went to the end zone on an 8-play, 85-yard drive capped off by a 30-yard touchdown pass from Stallard to Josh Crockett.

Stewart's sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery halted the next Washburn drive, and UCO added a field goal to make it 10-3 with 13:28 to play in the second quarter. Alex Quevedo kicked his second field goal of the day on the Bronchos' next drive to make it 13-3. That's how the teams went to halftime.

Robinson grabbed his team-high fourth interception of the season on Washburn's first drive of the third quarter, and the Bronchos punctuated the win on the next possession.

Stallard hit J.T. Luper for a 6-yard gain, then ran for one yard on 2nd & 4. On third down, he hit Luper again, and the nation's leading receiver raced to the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown to give the Bronchos a 20-3 lead.

Washburn got its only touchdown with 6:27 to play, and the Bronchos answered with a 12-play, 75-yard clock-killing drive that ended with Chandler Garrett rushing in his fourth touchdown of the season to make it 27-10.

Game 11
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 62
NORTHEASTERN STATE 21

Central jumped out to an early lead and cruised to a 62-21 win over Northeastern State to retain the President's Cup for the fourth straight season.

The Bronchos got on the board in the first quarter after Chas Stallard hit Josh Crockett on a pass that the senior hauled in with a defender draped over his back. Crockett then burst away from that defender and raced for a 79-yard touchdown.

NSU quarterback Cade Yaeger threw a pass that Broncho defensive lineman Johnathan Preston batted at the line. The ball popped up and Noah Ingram was there to grab the interception and ran 20 yards to the end zone to make it 14-0 Central.

Northeastern punted for the fourth time in the quarter with two minutes to play. Stallard three plays later hooked up with J.T. Luper on a 38-yard touchdown pass to make it 21-0.

UCO cranked up the offense after a 21-0 first quarter, leading 52-7 at halftime.

Stallard had a 15-yard touchdown run. 28-0. Austin Dodd hit a 30-yard field goal. 31-0. Crockett caught his second touchdown pass of the day, this time a 17-yarder. 38-0. Bruce White ran in from 2-yards out. 45-0.

Following NSU's first score of the game, Stallard scored his second touchdown of the day from 7-yards out after a double-reverse led to Derek Reeves throwing to Stallard in the flats for the score. It was the second time this season Stallard has caught a touchdown pass.

The Riverhawks did outscore the Bronchos 14-3 in the third quarter, but the Central defense wasn't giving up any more.

Chandler Garrett added the game's final score in the fourth quarter to make it 62-21 with 11:22 on the clock.

UCO worked to run that clock out the rest of the game before hoisting the President's Cup to cap off a 7-4 season.

Game 12
Corsicana Bowl
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 38
TARLETON STATE 31

The University of Central Oklahoma beat Tarleton State 38-31 in the inaugural Corsicana Bowl at Tiger Stadium, beating its former Lone Star Conference foe.

Chas Stallard was named Most Valuable Player of the game after the senior quarterback capped off his career with a near flawless final game. Stallard threw for 165 yards on 18 of 24 passing with one touchdown. He also ran the ball 17 times for 111 yards and a touchdown.

He orchestrated six Broncho scoring drives, all more than 60 yards. His touchdown pass to L'liott Curry with 2:57 to play in the third quarter gave the Bronchos a 31-28 lead. Stallard escaped a sack in the backfield, spun out of trouble and fired a deep pass to Curry, who made the catch, then broke two tackles to get into the end zone for the 42-yard score.

Stallard scored his rushing touchdown after Tarleton tied the game up 31-31. He ended a 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown run. The drive took 4:43 of valuable time off the fourth quarter clock, and gave the Bronchos a 38-31 lead with 10 minutes to play.

As the clock turned to the final minute, TSU quarterback Zed Woerner dropped back to pass and fired a shot toward the sideline and wide receiver Cornelius Carrington. The pass hit Carrington in the helmet and bounced up into the arms of UCO defensive back Omari Cole.

Cole caught it, semi-unsure if he had a dead ball in his hands, or the game-sealing interception. The refs didn't blow a whistle though, and Cole took off, darting down the sideline toward the end zone. He stepped out of bounds at the 5-yard line. Central then lined up in victory formation, took a knee twice, and walked away winners.

Tarleton scored to take a 21-17 lead just 58 seconds into the half. UCO responded with a 3-play, 66-yard drive to re-take the lead 24-21.

The Bronchos scored on a 55-yard run from Bruce White. The freshman running back made his case for MVP, carrying the ball 23 times Saturday for 216 yards and the one touchdown.

Tarleton scored quickly again on a 3-play, 75-yard drive to go up 28-24, before Stallard found Curry on the big 42-yard touchdown pass.

HISTORY

All-Conference Players

In 115 seasons of football, Central Oklahoma has had 406 players earn all-conference honors a combined 554 times.

The Bronchos have been members of the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference, District Nine, the Lone Star Conference, the LSC North Division and the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. Only four players – John Adams, Alex Aguilar, Dale Alexander and Steve Tate – have been four-time all-conference performers, while 27 players have won all-conference recognition three times.

A year-by-year look at UCO's all-conference players:

All-America Players

78 Central Oklahoma players have been named All-American a combined 122 times in the school's 115-year football history.

The Bronchos have had players named to eight different All-America teams over the years. Four players – Clifford Chatman, John Fitzgerald, Mark Monroe and Steve Tate – earned All-America honors three times and there have been 16 two-time All-Americans.

Left: Jermelle Cudjo (73) played for Central Oklahoma from 2006-09 before moving on to the NFL. He joined the St. Louis Rams as a free agent in 2010 and spent four years with the team. Cudjo also played for the Detroit Lions in 2015.

Below: K.C. Asiodu (30) played for Central Oklahoma in 2008 before heading to the NFL. Asiodu played for both the Kansas City Chiefs and the New Orleans Saints.

Playoff History

Central Oklahoma has qualified for the playoffs 10 times in its history, winning two national championships.

UCO made it to the NAIA playoffs six times, capped by championship seasons in 1962 and 1982, and has made four NCAA Division II playoff appearances. The Bronchos are 10-8 in the playoffs – 11-7 with a forfeit – and 5-1 at home.

Central made its first playoff appearance in 1962, winning two games to capture the university's first-ever national title. The Bronchos qualified again in 1972, '79, '82, '83 and '85, finishing runner-up in 1979 and winning their second national title in 1982.

UCO first qualified for the Division II playoffs in 1996, then made back-to-back showings in 1998-99 before going back in 2003.

A brief look at UCO's playoff appearances:

1962 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

OKLAHOMA CITY – Top-ranked Central Oklahoma had no problem in its first-ever playoff contest, advancing to the NAIA national championship game with a 20-0 rout of College of Emporia (Kan.) in a battle of unbeatens at Taft Stadium.

The Bronchos limited the Hornets to 163 yards total offense while rolling up 324 yards rushing, topped by R.L. Briggs' 23-carry, 151-yard performance.

Jim Davis put UCO on top early in the second period when he recovered a fumble in the end zone and the Bronchos went ahead 13-0 later in the quarter on a one-yard TD run by Briggs and Jack Kieder's extra point.

It stayed that way until midway through the fourth quarter when Briggs scored from two yards out for a 20-0 lead that wrapped up the win.

Championship Game

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Central Oklahoma wrapped up a perfect 11-0 season and secured its first NAIA national championship by rallying past Lenoir Rhyne (N.C.) 28-13.

The top-ranked Bronchos of head coach Al Blevins fell behind 6-0 in the first quarter, but came back to take a 14-6 halftime lead. No. 3 Lenoir Rhyne made it a 14-13 game early in the third quarter, but UCO took over down the stretch.

R.L. Briggs' two-yard TD run gave the Bronchos a 7-6 lead early in the second quarter and a 57-yard scoring dash by George Hughley upped UCO's advantage to 14-6 by intermission.

Lenoir made it 14-13, but Mike Rollins hit Billy Jones with a 28-yard scoring toss late in the period to give the Bronchos a 21-13 lead. UCO clinched the victory on a 62-yard Rollins-to-Jones TD pass late in the game.

1972 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

COMMERCE, Texas – In its first playoff appearance since the 1962 championship season, Central Oklahoma was no match for powerful Texas A&M-Commerce as the Lions rolled to a 54-0 victory.

The Bronchos lost six fumbles and were outgained 509-160 in finishing the season 9-2.

1979 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

KEARNEY, Neb. – Clifford Chatman scored three touchdowns and Steve Tate two as Central Oklahoma scored 28 unanswered points in a 42-2 first-round road win over Nebraska-Kearney.

Tate had a 12-yard scoring run and Chatman a one-yard TD plunge while Kearney had two long-distance scoring plays as the two were deadlocked at 14-all early in the second period. Chatman, who rushed for 174 yards on 21 carries, broke the tie with a 67-yard scoring dash that gave UCO a 20-14 halftime lead.

UCO moved ahead 28-14 in the third period on Chatman's one-yard score, with Tate's two-yard TD midway through the fourth quarter making it 35-14.

The Bronchos completed their scoring moments later when Sylvester Moore scored on a 24-yard run with a lateral after an interception.

Semifinals

EDMOND – Quarterback Scott Burger ran for three touchdowns and passed for another as Central Oklahoma coasted past Presbyterian College 28-6 at Wantland Stadium in advancing to the NAIA championship game for the second time.

Burger got UCO on the board late in the first quarter, scoring on a short quarterback sneak and adding the extra point and he made it 14-0 in the second period with a five-yard run and another PAT.

The Bronchos went ahead 20-0 in the final minute of the first half on a 32-yard TD pass from Burger to Ben Young, and UCO wrapped up its finals berth in the third quarter on Burgers' five-yard option keeper and Clifford Chatman's two-point conversion run.

McALLEN, Texas – Perennial power Texas A&M-Kingsville denied Central Oklahoma its second NAIA national championship, prevailing in a wild 20-14 contest that went to the wire.

The Bronchos finished with 459 yards, but had seven turnovers. The Javelinas racked up 451 yards total offense and lost six fumbles.

UCO took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a five-yard run by Clifford Chatman, but TAMUK went ahead 12-7 by halftime with a pair of second-quarter scores.

The Javelinas went ahead 20-7 in the third quarter with a 100-yard interception return and a two-point conversion pass.

UCO got within 20-14 with 4:14 left to play when Scott Burger hooked up with Bennie West for a 72-yard scoring pass, but TAMUK held on for the win.

Playoff History

1982 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

PUEBLO, Colo. – Colorado State-Pueblo was simply no match for Central Oklahoma in the first round of the 1982 NAIA playoffs as the fifth-ranked Bronchos scored in two plays to open the game and went on to a 61-20 rout.

UCO, which barely qualified for the playoffs after starting the season 3-2, racked up 411 yards in the first half to take a 40-7 lead and was never threatened.

The Bronchos needed just two plays to score the game's first touchdown, with quarterback Randy Page hitting Willie Henderson from 35 yards out. Page later scored on a one-yard sneak and added a 31-yard TD pass to Henderson as UCO opened up a 20-0 lead.

Steve McKeaver tallied on a 45-yard run and Page tossed a 32-yard pass to Henderson for his third TD reception of the half en route to 40-7 halftime lead.

Linebacker Ed Desherow amassed 25 tackles to lead UCO's defensive efforts.

Semifinals

TAHLEQUAH – Central Oklahoma overcame a 10-0 deficit and six turnovers to subdue unbeaten Northeastern State, 28-17, in a freezing semifinal battle.

The Bronchos trailed 10-0 after one quarter, but Randy Page threw two touchdown passes and Randy Jones had a two-yard scoring run as UCO scored 21 unanswered points to take a 21-10 halftime lead.

NSU cut its deficit to 21-17 late in the third quarter, but Daric Zeno's 55-yard punt return to the two-yard-line early in the final period set up a one-yard Page-to-Willie Henderson TD pass and clinched the win.

Championship Game

EDMOND – Central Oklahoma had probably its worst offensive game of the season, but came through in the clutch when it needed to in trimming previously unbeaten Colorado Mesa, 14-11, at Wantland Stadium to capture its second NAIA national championship.

UCO netted only 165 yards total offense against the Mavericks, but came up with a couple of crucial fourth-quarter interceptions to help secure the win.

Central Oklahoma won the 1982 NAIA national championship at Wantland Stadium following a 14-11 win over Colorado Mesa.

Randy Page's 28-yard touchdown pass to Daric Zeno in the second period gave the Bronchos a 7-3 halftime lead before Mesa used a touchdown and safety to go ahead 11-7 early in the fourth quarter.

Randy Preston's interception and 37-yard return set up UCO's winning score, a one-yard run by Randy Jones midway through the final period.

1983 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

EDMOND – Central Oklahoma's hopes of a second straight NAIA national title were dashed in the first round of the 1983 playoffs as Saginaw Valley rallied from a 13-0 fourth-quarter deficit to upset the Bronchos, 14-13, at Wantland Stadium.

UCO, which finished 8-1-1 and had a 16-game unbeaten streak ended, was on top 13-0 heading into the final 15 minutes, thanks to a four-yard touchdown run by Randy Page in the second quarter and a one-yard Bruce Vann TD burst in the third period.

But the Cardinals, with a stiff wind at their backs, drew within 13-7 early in the fourth quarter, then scored on a trick play -- a 48-yard pass-lateral -- to take the lead with just 1:28 left in the game.

UCO didn't give up, however, as Page completed passes for 36 yards to Daric Zeno and 20 yards to Willie Henderson in moving the Bronchos to Saginaw's 31-yard-line before he was intercepted with 26 seconds left.

1985 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. – Central Oklahoma's sixth and final trip to the NAIA playoffs ended in frustration as Henderson State kicked a 42-yard field goal with 1:42 remaining to topple the top-ranked Bronchos, 18-15, in the first round.

UCO totaled 379 yards total offense but 11 penalties and two lost fumbles helped stymie the Bronchos.

UCO took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a 16-yard TD pass from Glynn Walker to Clifford Burney. Henderson then scored the next 15 points on two touchdowns and a field goal to grab a 15-7 lead.

The Bronchos tied it 15-all in the third period on Eddie Goodlow's 53-yard run and a two-point conversion and it stayed that way until HSU's late kick.

Playoff History

1996 Division II Playoffs
First Round

EDMOND – Central Oklahoma celebrated its first playoff appearance since 1985 -- and its first-ever in NCAA Division II -- with one of the most dramatic wins in school history, pulling out a last-minute 23-21 victory over Chadron State.

Alton Lusk scored on a 38-yard pass from quarterback Stanley Pena on a third-and-10 play with only 1:11 remaining to give the Bronchos the lead.

The touchdown pass was tipped by two Chadron State defenders before it eventually ended up in the hands of Lusk, who sped the final 20 yards untouched for his only TD reception of the season.

CSC nearly came back, completing a pass to the UCO five-yard line on the final play of the game.

Tailback Jubarko Gaines scored UCO's first two touchdowns.

Quarterfinals

DAVIS, Calif. – California-Davis jumped on the Bronchos from the start, scoring three first-quarter touchdowns en route to a 26-7 quarterfinal victory that ended UCO's season at 9-3.

Davis quarterback Mark Grieb picked the Bronchos defense apart, completing touchdown passes of 49, 14, and 34 yards in the first 13 minutes of the game as the Aggies opened a quick 20-0 lead.

UCO's defense tightened after the three early scores and a four-yard TD run by Jubarko Gaines early in the second quarter got the Bronchos within 20-7.

Davis opened the third quarter with a lengthy scoring drive to take a 26-7 lead.

1998 Division II Playoffs
First Round

EDMOND – Chadron State missed a 52-yard field goal with less than a minute to play as No. 1-rated Central Oklahoma held on for a thrilling 21-19 victory in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

The unbeaten Bronchos, who won their school-record 12th game of the season, used turnovers to take a 14-6 halftime lead.

Strong safety Brandon Carder scored on a 47-yard interception return to give UCO a 7-6 lead and a Brad Shea fumble recovery at the CSC 20-yard line led to a 16-yard Reggie Donner touchdown run.

The Bronchos led 21-12 after Donner's seven-yard TD scamper early in the fourth period, but Chadron State scored with 2:33 remaining to make it 21-19 and then recovered the onside kick.

The Eagles moved to the UCO 35 before missing the long field goal try with 52 seconds left.

Quarterfinals

EDMOND – Lone Star Conference rival Texas A&M-Kingsville avenged an early-season loss to Central Oklahoma with an exciting 24-21 overtime victory in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

The Javelinas had possession first in the overtime and kicked a 37-yard field goal to break a 21-21 tie before getting a big sack in holding UCO scoreless in its offensive try.

UCO, which defeated TAMUK 38-9 in the second game of the season, took a 14-0 third-quarter lead on a 63-yard pass from Scott Condict to Todd Barnes and a four-yard Reggie Donner run.

The Javelinas stormed back with three straight scores to go on top 21-14, but UCO drew even on Condict's 39-yard scoring toss to Barnes with 2:24 remaining.

TAMUK later forfeited the game to the Bronchos for using ineligible players.

1999 Division II Playoffs
First Round

DAVIS, Calif. – California-Davis used a key second-half goal-line stand to hand Central Oklahoma a 33-17 setback in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

The Bronchos trailed 26-17 late in the third quarter when it drove to a first-and-goal at the UCD two-yard-line, but the Aggies held on four straight downs then drove 99 yards for the clinching score.

Quarterback Brett Manning had a 13-yard scoring strike to split end Todd Barnes late in the first half to get UCO within 19-17.

2003 Division II Playoffs
First Round

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. – Uriah Matthew forced a Colorado Mesa fumble that Jonathan Tate recovered at the Central Oklahoma 15-yard-line with 1:07 remaining as the Bronchos held off Colorado Mesa 20-15 in the first round of the 2003 playoffs.

UCO was limited to 242 total yards in the snow and cold but came up with the big play at the end to advance to the quarterfinals

The Bronchos were clinging to a 20-15 lead when the Mavericks drove to a fourth-and-two at the UCO 23. MSC ran for an apparent first down at the 15, but Matthew knocked the ball loose and Tate recovered to clinch the win.

UCO bolted to a 14-0 first-half lead, getting touchdown runs of 11 and 64 yards from Jarrod Manoy. The Mavericks closed to within 14-9 by intermission, then went ahead 15-14 in the third.

The Bronchos regained the lead late in that stanza on a nine-yard scoring pass from Erick Johnson to Dee Dee Carter and the defense did the rest.

THE MIAA

Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association

Central Oklahoma enters its seventh year as a member of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

The MIAA, a 14-member conference of NCAA Division II institutions in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma, was first organized in 1912 as the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Over the past 100 years, the MIAA has gained the reputation of being one of the top NCAA Division II conferences in the nation. MIAA schools have won 17 NCAA team championships and, since 1964, over 160 individual national titles.

The MIAA currently conducts championships in eight sports for men and nine for women.

For the men, champions are crowned in football, cross country, basketball, indoor and outdoor track & field, baseball, tennis and golf.

The women compete for titles in volleyball, cross country, soccer, basketball, indoor and outdoor track & field, softball, golf, tennis and bowling.

The MIAA turned a new page on July 1, 1992, when the NCAA Division II conference changed its name from the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

The decision to make the change originated in 1989, when Pittsburg State and Washburn became the first schools outside the state of Missouri to gain membership in the MIAA.

The conference was first organized in 1912 with 14 member institutions. Of those original members, Central Missouri, Truman State and Northwest Missouri State still remain a part of the MIAA.

The first change in membership came in 1924, when the MIAA reorganized to include only the five regional Missouri state colleges: Central Missouri, Truman (at the time known as Northeast Missouri State), Northwest Missouri, Southeast Missouri State and Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State).

Over the next 56 years, three schools joined the membership: Missouri School of Mines (later Missouri-Rolla) in 1935, Lincoln in 1970 and the Missouri-St. Louis in 1980.

Ken Jones became the first full-time commissioner of the MIAA in 1981 and would be in the position for 16 years, retiring in 1997. Ralph McFillen succeeded Jones, serving 10 years before his retirement in 2007.

Jim Johnson succeeded McFillen in July of that year and served as commissioner until September of 2010, when Dr. Bob Boerigter took over. Mike Racy is the current commissioner and began in January of 2017 following Boerigter's retirement.

Southwest Baptist brought membership back to eight schools in 1986, before the major expansion of the conference in 1989. Pittsburg State, Washburn, Missouri Southern and Missouri Western began competition in the 1989-90 season.

Southeast Missouri State left the MIAA following the 1990-91 season and was replaced by Emporia State in the 1991-92 season.

Missouri-St. Louis departed the MIAA in 1996, Missouri-Rolla left in 2005 and Lincoln forfeited its membership in 1999. Fort Hays State joined the MIAA in 2006, Nebraska-Omaha entered the league in 2008 and Lincoln re-joined the conference in 2010.

UCO, Lindenwood, Nebraska-Kearney and Northeastern State all become league members with the start of the 2012-13 academic year.

Nebraska-Omaha left the league in 2011 and Truman State did the same in 2013, which leaves the conference with 14 schools. Lincoln and SBU are associate members and don't compete in football.

The UCO Athletic Hall of Fame

The University of Central Oklahoma Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1990 to honor and recognize the many outstanding student-athletes, coaches, administrators, and other supporters who have played a key role in the success of UCO athletics over the past 100-plus years.

UCO's 1962 NAIA national championship team was the first team inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2015, and in 2017, the 1982 national champs joined them. There are 139 individual members of the Hall of Fame, with 44 of those having played or coached football, and this year, former Broncho wide receiver Willie Henderson will join the hall.

Here are the members of the UCO Athletic Hall of Fame with football ties.
