School Nickname

"Bronchos" was the nickname selected for Central Oklahoma in 1922 by Mary Agnes Lindsey Wantland, wife of long-time UCO football coach C.W. Wantland. The name was chosen from a number of suggestions for the name of UCO's football team and became the nickname for all athletic teams at the school.

Mrs. Wantland was made an honorary member of the Letterman's Club for selecting the nickname, becoming the first woman admitted to that organization.

School Colors

Bronze and blue were chosen as UCO's school colors in 1895 by school president Edmund Dandridge Murdaugh. The first public display of the bronze and blue was in Guthrie when a student represented UCO in the first oratorical contest ever held in Oklahoma.

Production Credits

The 2019 UCO football media guide was written, edited and designed by Assistant Athletic Director – Media Relations Chris Brannick. Photographs were provided by the UCO Photographic Services Department, under the direction of Dan Smith.

University of Central Oklahoma

Best of the Best

• UCO earned national recognition for its dedication to student engagement, ranking No. 6 on the list of "Top Schools for Engagement" in The Wall Street Journal/Times Higher Education College Rankings.
• The Military Times ranked UCO No. 9 among all surveyed four-year colleges and universities in the U.S. on its 2019 "Best for Vets: Colleges" list.
• Oklahoma's largest and oldest college of education has graduated more than 50,000 teachers since 1890.
• The National Board for Professional Teaching Standards recognized Central as one of the top 50 alma maters in the U.S. for National Board Certified Teachers (NBCT) with 444 total certifications.
• The W. Roger Webb Forensic Science Institute became the only college in North America with three accredited undergraduate forensic science programs — forensic molecular biology, forensic chemistry and digital forensics. Central is the only institution in Oklahoma with undergraduate level accreditation from Forensic Science Education programs and joined Eastern Kentucky University as the first two universities in the nation to receive accreditation for an undergraduate digital forensics program.
• A broadcasting communication program annually recognized as one of the best in the region for technology.
• A theatre arts department specializing in providing opportunities for incoming freshmen on stage and production.
• The state's largest computing science department.
• Graduates from the department of nursing and pre-medical programs consistently score well above the state average of 88 percent passing.
• The only photojournalism degree in the state.
• Oklahoma's first and only funeral service program.
• The Academy of Contemporary Music at UCO (ACM@UCO) was started in 2009.

Campus Life

While activities are abundant in Edmond and nearby Oklahoma City, students will never be bored on the UCO campus. Last year alone, students experienced activities ranging from concerts and Greek, athletic and multicultural events.
• Homecoming Week – Cookout and Dodge Ball Tournament, Talent Show, Bronze and Blueberry Breakfast, Cheer & Dance, Parade, and much more
• BronchoThon – Throughout the academic year, students, faculty and staff participate in fundraising and awareness events. The final event, BronchoThon, is held in April. The eight-hour marathon includes musical entertainment, student-led activities and refreshments. More than $68,000 was raised last year.
• Concerts – Battle of the Bands, Broncho Idol, Open Mic Nights
• Recreation – Foam Party, Laser Tag, BINGO
• The Office of Diversity and Inclusion (ODI) advances cultural competence while implementing opportunities for diverse communities to learn, thrive and succeed. Met by implementing unique programs and services that promote the pursuit of academic success and encourage retention, while promoting the leadership development of students, ODI initiatives serve to expand students' cultural horizons and perspectives, honor respective cultural experiences and develop culturally competent citizens.
• Pride and Traditions – Build a Broncho, Chili Cook-off, Pingpong with the Presidents and other events to promote Central traditions

Greek Life

Join one of the 27 national sororities and fraternities that maintain active chapters at UCO. Lifelong associations and promotion of high standards of leadership are among the benefits members enjoy. Houses near campus provide a comfortable place to meet, yet allow the freedom to choose other housing options.

Edmond

Edmond is located in the heart of Oklahoma, just north of the state capital in Oklahoma City, and has a population of over 90,000 as one of the fastest growing cities in the state.

Edmond has the best of both worlds, including easy access to the city with just enough distance to maintain a close-knit community atmosphere.

The city offers outstanding hotels, nostalgic shopping areas and conveniently located attractions for your enjoyment. Known for its outstanding golf courses, Edmond has hosted some of the most exciting PGA and celebrity events in the past two decades at world-famous Oak Tree Golf Club.

Edmond is the fastest growing, most economically dynamic city in Oklahoma. Thriving technology firms, diverse retail and commercial opportunities and small corporate office headquarters have enhanced its reputation as the affluent residential suburb to the metropolitan area.

There are many more activities in Edmond, with a variety of music, art, theatre, water and sporting events that make for spectacular family fun.

Heard on Hurd is a monthly festival where Downtown Edmond is transformed into an exciting mix of food trucks, family-friendly excitement and music that has become one of the premier, socially engaging events in the area.

Edmond also boasts one of the best Fourth of July fireworks shows in the country. More than 125,000 people attend the event. LibertyFest has been previously chosen by CNN and USA Today as one of the top 10 places to be in America on July 4.

Another Edmond attraction is Lake Arcadia. Home to the Center for Outdoor Adventure Recreation, Lake Arcadia offers trails for running, hiking, and cycling, as well as 1,820 surface acres for boating, skiing, kayaking, and fishing, and 26 miles of shoreline for more fun.

Oklahoma City

The largest city in the state, Oklahoma City borders Edmond to the south and sits at the crossroads of I-35, I-40 and I-44, leaving OKC with more than 130 miles of federal and insterstate highways.

More than 1.3 million people call metro Oklahoma City home.

The City, as it is commonly referred to around the state, offers numerous things to do on any given day of the week – or year for that matter. Whether it is sports, music, art, or just getting outside on a nice day, OKC offers it all.

Chesapeake Energy Arena in downtown Oklahoma City is not only home to the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder, but it also hosts concerts year-round, as well as other events such as pro wrestling, bull riding and more.

Bricktown, the central hub of entertainment in downtown, is home to Bricktown Ballpark, where the Oklahoma City Dodgers – Triple-A affiliate to MLB's L.A. Dodgers – play ball. The ballpark also hosts high school games, collegiate tournaments, as well as concerts of its own.

There is plenty more to do, especially on the booming, Oklahoma River.

The UCO rowing team calls the river home and has a state-of-the-art boathouse on the river to prove it. Visitors can also enjoy the Riversport Adventure District, where you can challenge yourself through a white-water rapids course, zip line across the river, or bungee jump among other fun activities.

There are also five lakes in the greater OKC metro area that offer ample fun including fishing, running or cycling trails and swimming.

There are also more than a dozen golf courses to choose from.

Along with art museums, a science museum, and many more, there is always something to do in OKC.

The Adventure District is just 10 minutes from UCO and offers many fun things to do.

Remington Park races horses more than half of the year, the Oklahoma City Zoo is always a top-pick, and it sits right next to the science museum.

If you venture west of downtown toward the fairgrounds, you can find more fun.

Home to the Oklahoma State Fair every September, as well as shows year-round, the fairgrounds offer countless entertainment options.

Oklahoma City is in a warm southwest climate. It sees more than 300 days of sunshine on average per year.

The average temperature annually is 60 degrees according to the Oklahoma City Visitors Convention Bureau. OKC also sees on average 32.03 inches of rain and nine inches of snow every year.

Wantland Stadium

Central Oklahoma will play its 55th season at Wantland Stadium in 2019. The 10,000-seat facilty underwent massive renovations in recent years and now ranks as one of the finest football stadiums in NCAA Division II.

Artificial turf, new lighting and a scoreboard were added to Wantland Stadium in 2003, while a three-level press box and new stands on both sides of the field were installed in 2005. The playing surface was replaced with FieldTurf in 2012 and an updated, state-of-the-art scoreboard was added in the summer of 2014.

Named after longtime head coach C.W. Wantland, UCO played its first game in the stadium on Sept. 18, 1965, shutting out College of the Ozarks (Ark.) 31-0.

The Bronchos have had nine undefeated home seasons and are 173-100-5 in Wantland Stadium, a .631 winning percentage.

UCO's month-by-month record in the stadium is: August, 1-4 (.250 percent); September, 56-30-2 (.647 percent); October, 71-41-2 (.631 percent); November, 43-24-1 (.640 percent) and December, 2-1-0 (.667 percent).

UCO's longest winning streak at Wantland Stadium is 13, set from 1969-71.

The Bronchos are 5-1 in playoff games at Wantland Stadium, topped by a 14-11 win over Colorado Mesa on Dec. 18, 1982 in the NAIA national championship game that was televised live on USA Network.

Media Information

UCO Athletic Media Relations

The Central Oklahoma Athletic Media Relations Office is under the direction of Chris Brannick, who took over the position on Aug. 1, 2016.

Brannick's main duty is keeping local, state and national media informed about UCO's athletic department as well as handling the school's athletic website (www.bronchosports.com).

Chris came to UCO after three years as a sports reporter for The Oklahoman and NewsOK.com.

A native of Utica, N.Y. who grew up in Sallisaw, Okla., Brannick is a Central graduate. He received his bachelor's degree in mass communications in 2013 with a journalism major and creative studies minor.

Brannick served as sports editor of UCO's student newspaper (The Vista) and also worked as a sports anchor on the school's student-run broadcast news program (UCentral).

He won first and second place in sports reporting at the Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ) Oklahoma in 2013 and won the UCO Mass Comm Professional Media award the same year.

Brannick began working at The Oklahoman immediately after graduation.

Chris is married (Cori) and has one daughter (Elle).

Bronchos on the Air

All UCO football games will be broadcast live on Oklahoma City radio station KRXO (104.5 FM) and the iHeart Radio app.

Local sports radio personality Todd Lisenbee returns for the 2019 season as Central's play-by-play announcer. A UCO sideline reporter for three seasons, Lisenbee moved to the booth for the first time last year. Color commentary will be provided by former Broncho assistant coach Chuck Bailey. Pregame coverage starts 15 minutes before kickoff each week, including interviews with coaches and players.

Press Credentials

The Wantland Stadium press box is reserved for working media only and requests for press credentials should be made at least a week in advance to the UCO Athletic Media Relations Office. Credentials will be mailed if time permits or they will be left at the will call window, located at the ticket booth on the southwest side of Wantland Stadium.

Photographers

All photographers must have their photo/video passes visible at all times while on the sideline working UCO football games, with violators subject to removal from the field. NCAA rules prohibit photographers from being in the team areas between the 25-yard lines. Use of tripods is restricted to the ends of the playing field. The third level of the press box may also be used.

Press Box Service

Complete individual and team statistics and a running play-by-play will be distributed in the press box after the completion of each game. A pregame meal will be available an hour before kickoff. There are ample telephone/internet lines available for media use.

Broadcast Service

One courtesy line (405-974-3185) is available for the visiting team's flagship radio station, with space available for four people. All line charges are the responsibility of the visiting station.

Interview Policy

To arrange a player or coach interview prior to game day please contact the UCO Athletic Media Relations Office (405-974-2142) so that a time, convenient for both parties, can be arranged.

President
Patti Neuhold-Ravikumar

Patti Neuhold-Ravikumar is the 21st president of the University of Central Oklahoma and the institution's first female president in its 129-year history. She has been a contributing member of the Central community since 2007. She served in a variety of roles during that time; most recently serving as the institution's Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer.

Her multidimensional experience in private business and higher education includes business operations, finance, human resources, organizational development, strategic planning, institutional budget development, business process improvement and governing board relations. As a result of her commitment to developing others, she led the creation of the award-winning UCO Management Development Program. Under her leadership, UCO's compensation structure and health insurance plan were modernized to help create a contemporary people-centered benefits culture.

Among her contributions to UCO, she has served as chair or member of a number of institutional committees and task forces. These include the university branding initiative, program prioritization, budget model exploration, Affordable Care Act implementation, the creation of the University Planning Council, strategic planning and enrollment management planning. She currently serves on the Strategic Enrollment Planning Council as well as the University Planning Council at UCO. She has served as the chair of the Regional University System of Oklahoma Business Officers, chair of the Pension Committee for the Regional University System of Oklahoma and vice chair of the Oklahoma Higher Education Employee Interlocal.

As UCO's vice president of finance and chief financial officer, she helped to navigate the financial turbulence created by the precipitous decline in enrollment and the significant loss of state funding. While the institution had lost more than $10.5 million in tuition revenue and $12.3 million in state funding by 2019, her leadership ensured the preservation of every job on campus and buffered our classrooms from negative impact. For her work in successfully guiding the institution through these rough waters, she was awarded the President's Award in Applied Leadership in 2018.

A champion for progress and improvement, she leads the university's pursuit of innovation in shaping the future of higher education. This includes educating for tomorrow's skills, growing more fully online programs designed and taught by our talented faculty, partnering with businesses in the metropolitan area to expand non-credit offerings and capturing opportunities for growth through institutional responsiveness to student demand and economic need.

President Neuhold-Ravikumar currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma, Oklahoma Center for the Advancement of Science and Technology (OCAST), and Oklahoma State Chamber. She serves as an ex-officio member of the Edmond Chamber of Commerce Board of Advisors.

Patti earned her bachelor's degree in psychology with an emphasis in management from Oklahoma Christian University. She earned her master's degree in industrial/organizational psychology from the University of Tulsa and is currently a doctoral candidate in organizational leadership at Concordia University – Chicago.

Athletic Director
Eddie Griffin

Eddie Griffin returned to his alma mater as the new director of athletics in October 2017.

Griffin comes to UCO after serving as the president of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and Jim Thorpe Association. He also served as an athletic director for Oklahoma City Public Schools and Northeastern State University, as well as head wrestling coach at Clemson University.

Griffin, who graduated with his Master of Education from Central and later became the head wrestling coach for the Bronchos, helped lay a foundation for success in athletics at UCO. He led the Bronchos to three of their first four national championships in wrestling. In 2008, Griffin was inducted into the UCO Athletic Hall of Fame.

Prior to coaching at Clemson University, Griffin's four-year run as UCO's head wrestling coach not only set the tone for the Bronchos to become one of the most revered programs in the country, but it rivals that of any coach in the sport.

He was named the Rookie Coach of the Year by Amateur Wrestling News in 1979. He coached 26 All-Americans, 11 individual national champions and put together a 40-18-1 dual record that included wins over Alabama, Arizona, Brigham Young, Oregon and Washington. Griffin was named NAIA National Coach of the Year three times in four seasons.

Griffin's 1981 team was perhaps the best in NAIA history, scoring a tournament-record 155.25 points and crowning six individual champions, while running away with the title. The Bronchos won again in 1982.

Griffin became the eighth athletic director at Central Oklahoma. The UCO Bronchos compete in nine women's and five men's sports as a member of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. The university's athletics program has a rich tradition of success, with 20 national championships and more than 500 All-Americans throughout its history.

Administration

Assistant Athletic Director/Operations
Gunnar Poff

Gunnar Poff is in his sixth year as Central Oklahoma's assistant athletic director for operations after serving the previous four years as coordinator of ticket sales for the Bronchos.

Poff took over his new role in May 2014 and is responsible for managing the day-to-day operations of UCO's Athletic Department. Gunnar also serves as sport supervisor for five sports and is responsible for the areas of athletic training, strength & conditioning, ticketing and game-day operations.

A native of Sayre, Okla., Gunnar was a pitcher for the Southwestern Oklahoma baseball team during the mid-2000s and earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from SWOSU in 2007.

Poff went on to earn a Master of Education in intercollegiate athletics administration in 2009 from the University of Oklahoma, working in the office of event management during his tenure at OU.

Gunnar is married (Tessa) and has three daughters (Presley, Piper and Devyn).

Assistant Athletic Director/Business
Britni Brannon

Serving as Central Oklahoma's assistant athletic director for business is Britni Brannon, who is also UCO's senior women's administrator.

An Oklahoma native, Brannon graduated from UCO in 2002 and spent the next five years working for an audio/visual company doing marketing, advertising and materials management.

A Certified Procurement Officer with the State of Oklahoma, Brannon returned to UCO in 2007 as a buyer II in the Purchasing, Payment Services & Travel department and was in that capacity until moving to the Athletic department as business manager in the fall 2012.

Britni is married (Todd) and has one son (Alex).

Assistant Athletic Director/Compliance
Darnell Smith

In his 10th year at the University of Central Oklahoma is Darnell Smith, assistant athletic director for compliance. Smith manages the areas of NCAA compliance, student-athlete services and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) while also directing the student-athlete welfare programming and serving as deputy Title IX coordinator for Athletics.

Smith has been active in professional organizations at UCO. He is a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance (NAAC), National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association (MOAA). In addition, he was selected as a member of the prestigious NCAA Leadership Institute (2015), and the D2 ADA Mentoring program. Smith currently serves on the Division II Ethnic Minority and Women's Internship Grant Committee, which seeks to provide funding for entry-level administrative positions at NCAA Division II schools and conference offices to encourage access, recruitment, selection and the long-term success of ethnic minorities and women.

A native of San Antonio, Texas, Smith was a four-year member (two-year starter) of the Oklahoma State football team from 2002-06 at defensive end. A standout student-athlete, he was a three-time recipient of the Arthur Ashe Scholar award at OSU, earned second-team honors on the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America Team, was selected as an ARA Sportsmanship Award finalists, and Big XII Community of Champions Award winner among other accolades.

While at Oklahoma State University, Darnell was named OSU's Senior of Significance and Outstanding Senior. In addition, he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics and a Master of Science in Natural & Applied Sciences from there and served as a Graduate Assistant for the Office of Athletic compliance (2007-08).

He is married (Candace) and has one son (Darnell Jr.)

Administration

Assistant Athletic Director/Sponsorships and Marketing
Brandon Baker

Brandon Baker is in his ninth year at Central Oklahoma as assistant athletic director for sponsorships and marketing.

He is responsible for corporate sponsorships and marketing for all athletic events on the UCO campus, working with local, regional and national businesses to create memorable experiences for both fans and sponsors.

Baker was at the Oklahoma City RedHawks for 10 years before coming to UCO, working with corporate sponsorships, baseball operations, game-day experience and ticket office management. He spent two years prior to that with the West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Cubs.

A native of Fulton, Mo., Baker is a University of Missouri graduate and was involved with the Mizzou chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Baker is married (Erin) and has two sons (Benjamin and Evan).

Director of Athletic Compliance
Jeremy Rogers

Jeremy Rogers joined the Central Oklahoma Athletic Department in November 2012 and currently serves as director of athletic compliance.

A native of Medford, Rogers played football at Southern Nazarene University and earned all-conference honors at tight end. He received his bachelor's degree in sport management from SNU in 2007.

Jeremy went on to earn his Juris Doctor from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2012. While at OU, he worked as an intern for the Athletic Compliance Department and Office of Legal Counsel. Jeremy is licensed to practice law in the state of Oklahoma and is a member of the Oklahoma Bar Assocation.

Jeremy is married (Rachel) and they have three children – son (Mason) and daughters (Norah & Sophie).

Director of Stampede Club
Al Jones

Al Jones took over as director of Central Oklahoma's Stampede Club in July 2014.

The Stampede Club is the athletic booster club for all UCO sports and helps support the athletic department through financial contributions and other events.

Jones, who has been involved with Broncho Athletics in a variety of ways since the early 1960s, had served as executive director and membership coordinator of Alumni Relations at UCO for six years before joining the athletic department.

Jones was a student trainer and manager for the 1962 Central football team that won the NAIA national championship and he earned both bachelor's (1966) and master's (1974) degrees in education from UCO.

A past member of both the 45th Infantry Division Army National Guard and United States Air Force Reserves, Jones was a teacher for many years at Stillwater and Millwood in addition to serving as headmaster/superintendent at Oklahoma Christian Schools.

He worked in private business from 1998 until coming to UCO in April 2008 as executive director of Alumni Relations.

Al is married (Sharon) and has two sons (Jon and Jeff).

Director of Ticket Operations
Bill Shaw

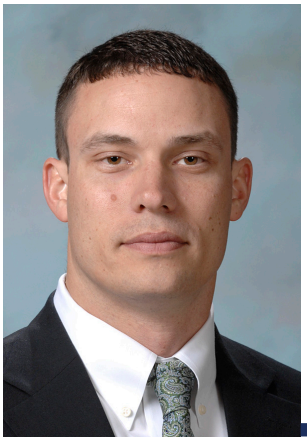
Bill Shaw took over as director of ticket sales for the University of Central Oklahoma Athletic Department in September 2017.

Shaw oversees all aspects of ticket sales, both online and at the box office, of football, volleyball, soccer, wrestling, men's & women's basketball, and softball.

He returns to Central Oklahoma where he previously worked as the assistant coach for women's basketball. Shaw served under current head coach Guy Hardaker from 2008-14, helping the Bronchos reach the Sweet 16 in 2009 and 2011.

Shaw comes to UCO following three years in the private business sector. Bill is married (Patricia) and has two children (Andy and Hayden) and one grandchild (Tatum).

COACHES



Head Coach Nick Bobeck

Nick Bobeck heads up the University of Central Oklahoma football program for the eighth season in 2019. He has a 38-41 career record coaching his alma mater.

Bobeck has coached Central Oklahoma to back-to-back eight-win seasons and has led the Bronchos to a winning season and postseason appearance in four out of the past five years. In 2018, UCO went 8-4 and won the Heart of Texas Bowl over former conference foe Angelo State – staging one of the better comebacks in school history. The Bronchos trailed ASU 31-13 in the fourth quarter before outscoring the Rams 28-3 over the final 13+ minutes.

Bobeck has kept the President's Cup in Edmond for the last five years, having beaten rival Northeastern State by a combined 217-62 in that span – including 62-0 last season. He is 5-2 overall against NSU since taking over as head coach in 2012. A look at Central Oklahoma's record book shows a big footprint of Bobeck's work, with 43 school records having been set under Bobeck's leadership.

Bobeck coached a pair of All-Americans in 2018 and has coached seven All-Americans over the past seven seasons.

In 2017, Central Oklahoma also finished 8-4. The Bronchos won the last six games and seven of the last eight. UCO ended the regular season 7-4 and earned a fourth-place finish in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association standings before beating Tarleton State in the inaugural Corsicana Bowl in Corsicana, Texas.

Bobeck coached a consensus All-American in 2017, guiding wide receiver J.T. Luper to earn top honors from five different outlets and a seventh-place finish in the Harlon Hill Trophy (Division II's top player) race.

Bobeck led the Bronchos to wins over Missouri Western, Missouri Southern, and Northeastern State in 2016. In the win over Southern, the Bronchos scored 63 points. It was the most points scored in a win for Central since scoring 66 points in 1955.

Prior to 2016, the Bronchos put together back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2003-04.

Nick led the team to a 7-5 finish in 2015, with the Bronchos rebounding from an 0-4 start to win seven of their last eight games. UCO ended the season with a five-game winning streak, capped by a 38-21 win over longtime rival Southwestern Oklahoma in the Live United Texarkana Bowl.

It was the second consecutive postseason appearance for the Bronchos, who went to the Mineral Water Bowl in 2014 while going 8-4 and finishing third in the rugged MIAA after the team was predicted to come in 10th in the 12-team league by conference coaches.

It was UCO's first winning season since 2008 and the first eight-win campaign since 2004.

Bobeck became UCO's 13th head coach on Jan. 4, 2012 following a sparkling four-year head coaching stint at junior college powerhouse Navarro (Texas) College.

Nick, who played at UCO and then was a graduate assistant coach for the Bronchos, compiled a sensational 42-5 record at Navarro. The Bulldogs won the 2010 national championship along with three regular season Southwest Junior College Football Conference (SWJCFC) titles during his tenure there.

Bobeck was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at fullback for UCO from 1999-02, earning first-team All-Lone Star Conference North Division honors as a senior.

He stayed on with the Bronchos as a graduate assistant coach the next three seasons, helping UCO go 20-12 during that stint while making the NCAA Division II playoffs in 2003.

Bobeck went to Texas A&M as an offensive line coach in 2006 when the Aggies finished 9-4 and earned a berth in the Holiday Bowl. He moved on to Navarro the following season and served as offensive coordinator in 2007 when the Bulldogs went 9-3 and won the conference crown.

Nick took over as head coach the next year, with his first squad finishing 10-1 and ranked fourth in the final poll. An 11-1 campaign and No. 3 ranking followed in 2009.

Bobeck and the Bulldogs put it all together in 2010, following a season-opening loss with 11 consecutive wins to finish 11-1 and capture the NJCAA national championship. Navarro was 10-2 in 2011, finishing fifth in the final ranking.

Nick and his wife, Keely, have three children – a son (Tucker) and two daughters (Miller and Parker).

Russ Pickett
Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator

Entering his eighth year as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Central Oklahoma is Russ Pickett.

Pickett, who serves as recruiting coordinator, will return to coaching defensive backs in 2019 after coaching the Broncho defensive line for the past few seasons. During his tenure at Central, Russ has coached 17 All-MIAA selections on the defensive side of the football. He's also had a pair of players earn both All-Region and All-American honors on defense.

In 2018, Pickett's defense put together one of the more remarkable stretches in school history – posting three consecutive shutouts. It was just the second time in 40 years at Central that such a feat occurred and it was the only such stretch in the nation last year. UCO had a strong defense throughout the season, topping the MIAA in pass defense while opponents struggled to find the end zone through the air against the Bronchos. UCO allowed 160 rushing yards per game and just 196 passing yards per game while forcing 31 total turnovers.

Pickett's defense saw a bit of a resurgence in 2017, intercepting 14 passes and recording 21 sacks. That after the defense tallied six interceptions and forced nine fumbles in 2016.

UCO's defense enjoyed a two-year stretch that helped the Bronchos post back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2003-04. UCO went 8-4 and finished third in the rugged Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association in 2014 before going 7-5 in 2015 after rebounding from an 0-4 start. The Bronchos held six opponents to less than 400 yards total offense in 2015 and seven defenders earned All-MIAA recognition.

Pickett was defensive/recruiting coordinator at Navarro in 2010 and 2011, helping lead the Bulldogs to a 21-3 record, the 2010 junior college national championship and back-to-back conference titles. Russ directed a unit that led the conference in defensive scoring both years at Navarro. He coached 12 all-conference players while with the Bulldogs, including one first-team All-American.

A native of Camden, Ark., Pickett was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Division II Ouachita Baptist, serving as team captain his senior year.

He started his coaching career at Division II Southern Arkansas, spending two years as a graduate assistant before taking over as defensive line coach in 2005 and then moving to the secondary in 2006. Pickett coached three players who signed with NFL teams during his tenure with the Muleriders, including defensive tackle Cedric Thornton, who is currently on the Dallas Cowboys roster.

Russ moved on to Fort Scott Community College as defensive coordinator in 2007, spending two years there.

The Greyhounds went 9-3 in 2007 as Pickett's defensive unit finished 10th nationally in total defense, with four players earning all-conference honors. Pickett's defense posted five shutouts and allowed a conference-low 6.9 points a game during a 9-2 campaign in 2008 as seven players earned all-conference honors and three were named All-American.

Pickett spent the 2009 season as defensive coordinator at Benton (Ark.) High School before going to Navarro College where he joined forces with Nick Bobeck. The two came to UCO together in 2012.

Russ, who received his bachelor's in physical education from OBU and his master's in educational leadership from SAU, is married (Kristin) and has three daughters (Lexie, Ella Grace and Embry).

Christian Hood
Quarterbacks/Offensive Coordinator

Christian Hood has been with the University of Central Oklahoma in some capacity since the fall of 2011. He spent four years playing wide receiver for the Bronchos, then two years as a graduate assistant coach, and in 2017, became a full-time assistant coach, handling play-calling duties and coaching quarterbacks.

He led the way as an offensive coordinator and QB coach again in 2018, continuing the high-octane numbers the Bronchos have put up since Hood's arrival seven years ago.

Christian was a four-year starter for the Bronchos, finishing his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions with 185 while ranking third in career yardage with 2,077. He still holds the all-time receptions mark and is fourth in career yardage after guiding a record-shattering consensus All-American in 2017. Hood held a key role in UCO receiver J.T. Luper earning a seventh-place finish in the Harlon Hill Trophy race for Division II's best football player.

Hood has also helped in the Bronchos breaking numerous records over the past few seasons, including five team records for single games and single seasons, as well as nearly 40 individual records for single games, single seasons, and career marks.

Hood had an immediate impact at UCO as a true freshman in 2011 when he led the team in catches (54) and was second in yards (530). He was an honorable mention All-MIAA pick in 2012 after topping the Bronchos in receptions (47) and yards (573). Hood had 37 catches for 483 yards in 2013 and then grabbed 47 passes for 491 yards as a senior, again earning honorable mention All-MIAA honors. He caught at least one pass in 42 of 43 career games.

An All-State pick at Tulsa Union High School who caught the game-winning touchdown pass in the Class 6A state finals as a senior, Christian received his bachelor's degree in political science in spring 2015 and his master's degree in Adult Education in spring 2017.

Christian is married (Alexis) and has one daughter (Andie).

Jason Smelser
Linebackers/Strength & Conditioning

Jason Smelser is in his sixth year with the Central Oklahoma program and serves as both the linebackers coach and the strength and conditioning coach.

Smelser, a former head coach, played a pivotal role in helping the Bronchos post back-to-back winning seasons in 2014 and 2015, and again in 2017 and 2018.

Jason came to the Bronchos after a three-year stint as an assistant at NCAA Division II Henderson State. He coached running backs, tight ends and fullbacks in 2011 before becoming linebacker coach/strength and conditioning coordinator in 2012.

Smelser helped the Reddies to a 21-2 record the nex two seasons, with HSU winning back-to-back Great American Conference championships in making consecutive trips to the Division II playoffs. He was named Samson Equipment's NCAA Division II Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by American Football Monthly after the 2012 season.

A native of Monroe, La., Smelser was a prep standout at Ouachita Christian High School before going on to play at Southern Arkansas. He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at running back for the Muleriders, earning All-Gulf South Conference honors once.

Smelser stayed on at SAU to start his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1999-00 and then served as defensive line coach from 2001-04, helping lead the Muleriders to the Division II playoffs in 2003 when his line totaled 30 sacks.

Smelser became defensive coordinator at Iowa Wesleyan in 2005 and added head coaching duties the following season. He stayed with the NAIA-member Tigers until 2009 and then spent the 2010 season as defensive coordinator/head strength coach at Concordia (Mich.) before going to Henderson State.

Jason, who earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Southern Arkansas, is married (Wendy) and has two children (Madison and Slade).

Tyler Holland
H-Backs/Special Teams

Tyler Holland returned to Central Oklahoma in 2017. The former Broncho defensive back and assistant coach is back for another stint at Central, and coaches H-backs and special teams.

Holland comes to UCO from Azle, Texas, where he coached the Azle High School Hornets defensive backs and special teams in 2016.

Prior to his time in Texas, Holland served as the Bronchos assistant coach from 2014-16, leading the defensive backs. He was also a defensive graduate assistant at Central from 2012-14 before his promotion.

Holland got his start in coaching in 2010, coaching the Norman High defensive backs for two years before coming to UCO.

Holland played safety at UCO in the early 2000s. He earned both of his degrees from the University of Central Oklahoma, getting his bachelor's degree in history and his master's of education in the same subject. Holland played wide receiver and safety at Norman High before that.

Pat Hill
Defensive Line

In his first season with the University of Central Oklahoma is Pat Hill, who will coach the defensive line for the Broncho football team this season.

Hill comes to UCO from Angelo State, where he spent the past season coaching the Rams. Hill coached the national defensive player of the year and consensus All-American and also coached against the Bronchos in the Heart of Texas Bowl, which UCO won 41-34.

Hill had a quick stop at Eastern Michigan for the spring of 2018 following a two-year stint as the defensive line coach at Morehead State (2016-17). He started his coaching career Concordia-Chicago in 2008 and coached there until 2012. Hill helped Concordia-Chicago win a NATHC Championship in 2011. He also helped Adrian College to the 2012 MIAAC Championship with other stops at Concordia-Ann Arbor, West Virginia State, Ferrum College and James Madison.

Hill received his bachelor's degree in sports management and sociology from Concordia-Chicago in 2010 and earned his master's degree in sports leadership there in 2011.

PLAYERS

Season Outlook

Central Oklahoma looks to build off back-to-back eight-win seasons and back-to-back bowl game victories as it heads into the 2019 season. The Bronchos have put together winning records in four of the last five seasons and head football coach Nick Bobeck - in his eighth season leading the charge at his alma mater - is aiming to take it to the next level this season. UCO has nearly 40 returning lettermen this season, including 10 that started at least five games on the offensive side of the ball, and are using that to continue its rising trend.

"We're a little bigger this season and we have a really athletic team," Bobeck said. "We need to find out the right group with a lot of new faces, who is going to work well with each other. But we have a talented group as a whole and I know our coaches are going to be working hard to find the right people to put on the field."

Central Oklahoma has set dozens of school records since Bobeck took over as head coach in 2012 and with the wealth of returning offensive experience, this season figures to see more records fall. The Bronchos do have to consider a lot of fresh faces on defense. UCO returns 15 lettermen, including two starters on that side of the ball.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown of the 2019 University of Central Oklahoma football team.

Quarterbacks

Will Collins, Chandler Garrett, and Keats Calhoon all return under center in 2019. All three had success in 2018.

A quarterback battle like UCO hasn't seen in some time, Bobeck had three strong cadidates pushing for the starting job last season. Calhoon won the job in Week 1, but a Week 3 knee injury sidelined him for the rest of the season. He'll get his sophomore year back this fall and try to win the job again. Calhoon threw for over 500 yards and five touchdowns in two and a half games last season.

Garrett stepped in as a starter following Calhoon's injury and thrived, leading UCO to a win over Northwest Missouri in Week 4. But he too went down in Week 6, leaving the job to Collins for the rest of the season.

Collins, though, would be no consolation winner. He threw for over 1,700 yards and 14 touchdowns and led UCO to a win in the Heart of Texas Bowl.

All three will compete for the job this season. Casey Base also returns as a sophomore. He played one quarter of action last season, but didn't throw a pass. And newcomer Brandon George, also a sophomore, figures to be in the mix of the competition for snaps.

Bobeck says: "The great thing about these kids is that they are all winners. The top three all won a football game for UCO last season. So you've got a great group of kids. We'll see how camp plays out."

Running Backs

Central has a glaring spot on its list of returners – or a lack thereof – on offense, and that's the running back position. Saboor Daniels and his 71 yards rushing last season is the most of any running back. Garrett, Collins, and Calhoon did have a combined 600+ yards on the ground last season. So UCO will have some new faces carrying the load this fall.

Daniels will help, but T.J. Roberts and Payton Scott will likely be surging through the line for the Bronchos the most. Roberts is a junior college transfer who amassed over 2,000 yards in two seasons there. Scott, a former Oklahoma High School Gatorade Player of the Year, sat out last season during a redshirt year and is ready to jump in the mix and become a key contributor for the Bronchos this fall.

Bobeck says: "We are excited about the talent level in this group, but experience will be key. There are a few different guys who can step up and earn reps and once the games start, we'll see who can do it the best."

Wide Receiver

UCO is loaded at the wide receiver position, which should come as no surprise given the recent history of success the Bronchos have had at this spot. Dustin Basks returns. Mekail Hall returns. Tyrone Howell returns. Johnny Bizzell returns.

Central should have success this season because of the ability these four, plus a few newcomers, will bring to the passing game. It won't be easy for teams to cover the amount of athleticism the Bronchos are putting all over the field at wide receiver.

Basks is the top returning receiver with 909 yards last season and a team-high seven touchdowns. Hall had 698 yards and three touchdowns. Both earned All-MIAA honors. Howell, as a true freshman, had 242 yards and two scores, while Bizzell, as a redshirt freshman, had 128 yards on just eight catches.

Other returners, Kaden Mendenhall, Dawson Huddleston, and Diego Richards could find more time on the field this season. And newcomers Amonte Phillips, Josh Moore, Cole Taylor, and Clayton Cook should also add another loaded weapon to the Broncho offense on any play.

Bobeck says: "On paper, this is the most talented group of wide receivers we've had since I got here. Now that's only on paper and doesn't mean anything until you get out there and show yourself. But there's no question the talent is there. They just need to show up and make plays and I think they will."

Offensive Line

Central's success on offense over the past five seasons can be attributed to a dominant offensive line and the Bronchos have plenty of returning experience there this season.

Jacob Blair, Seth Carmack, Nick George, and Tyler Stilwell all return as regular starters. Ben Raulston also started at multiple positions last season.

George (at center) and Stilwell (at tackle) will be third-year starters up front. Both have been key pushers for a line that has helped UCO put up record-setting numbers. Carmack started last season as a redshirt freshman and showed his abilities well. Blair, who will be a sixth-year senior, started last season and has a large frame to help protect the quarterback. Raulston has been a solid workhorse for three years and figures to do the same this season.

Youngters Alex Eichler, Drew Rosko, J.W. Morrow, and Jacob Sitsler will also compete for time on the line this season.

Bobeck says: "This group has a chance to be really good.

Season Outlook

We're bigger than we've been and they're experienced. If they come together, they will be able to help us in a big way."

Defensive Line

On the defensive side of the football, UCO has a mix of newcomers and returning lettermen up front. The Bronchos return six up front that played last season and welcome seven newcomers who are competing for both playing time and a starting role.

Kahewai Kaaiawaawa and Joseph Roque, along with Stephon Starks, played the most of the six returners from a year ago. Kaaiawaawa and Roque are interior linemen and Starks was last year before an anticipated move to the end this season. Mike Rios, also an interior lineman, might be the best lineman on the team. He got hurt last season in Week 4 and is aiming to bounce back from that. Kaelin Murray and Vaughn Appleman are both physical and athletic ends that look to help there. Steven Krager enters his second year in the program and should push for playing time after sitting out a redshirt year last season.

Derek Shaw, Fanon Vines, Richerd Desir-Jones, Corey Brown, Devon Bajek, and Daryl French are all newcomers that should play a key role.

Bobeck says: "Our immediate goal is to find out which of these kids to play with each other. They are very talented and we have some good size. We just need to figure out who is going to work best with one another. I'm happy with the depth we have here too, that's a big necessity and a good thing for us this season.

Linebackers

UCO is also reloading at the linebacker position, but it still features a group of returners – six total and three that played a season ago. Add four newcomers to the mix and the Bronchos are geared up for another strong season defensively.

Bryan Burns, Jeremiah Hill, and Dillon Hall each played significant snaps last fall, and each will play a key role this season. Hall led the charge with 54 tackles, two and a half behind the line, and one sack. Burns followed that with 36 tackles and Hill had 16 stops. Hill also recovered a pair of fumbles. Marlo Hughes Jr., Jason Harris, and Christian Maloy all sat out last season as redshirts but will also fight for time on the field this fall.

Drequan Brown, Isaiah Feaster, Jack Onarecker, and Isaiah Major are all newcomers tha will also contend for time. Brown and Feaster are transfers that should see more reps. Onarecker and Major are be true freshman and redshirt candidates.

Bobeck says: "This is another group that we need to work on who is going to fit together and what is the best group that needs to be on the field. We've got some guys with experience and we've got some new guys that are pretty talented."

Defensive Backs

The return of All-American defensive back O'Shay Harris gives Central Oklahoma plenty to rave about at this position. Harris earned the honor from three different organizations a year ago and should contend for the same this season. A long, athletic, and speedy back, Harris will be able to take a part of the field away from opponents and force teams to go away from him, which allows the Bronchos to stack the deck. Harris has over 150 career tackles and last season had two fumbles forced and two more recovered, one of which he returned for a 70-yard touchdown.

After Harris, UCO still has other returners that will help. Daniel Baughman played a little as a redshirt freshman last season and also had a fumble scoop-and-score. He'll contend for time at corner. Kolby Underwood, who played solid minutes on the field as a redshirt freshman, will be in the mix again this season. Those two sophomores are athletic contributors.

Jakarri Hunt also returns to the DB group and had a solid season a year ago as he made it on the field for the first time. A hard-hitting strong safety, Hunt finds the ball with ease and can make a play. He'll help in a similar role this season.

Newcomers Adrien Cross and Chris Lewis should contend for time on the field and should help while there. UCO is deepest at this position and there's no lack of talent in the group.

Bobeck says: "With O'Shay coming back this season we know what we're going to get out of him. He's stepped up and become a leader in the back of the defense and he's doing a great job of that. Those other guys are really talented and whoever works the hardest and proves themselves is going to have an opportunity to play. It's a good group and we're excited to see what they can do."

Special Teams

The specialists group begins with junior kicker Alex Quevedo, who will enter his third year as the primary leg handling both field goals, PATs, and kickoff responsibilities for the Bronchos. Quevedo, an All-MIAA recipient, is 86-for-89 on extra point trys over the past two seasons and has hit 20 of 28 career field goals for a total of 146 points. But his strongest asset is his kickoff ability. He has over 7,900 yards of kickoffs in two seasons, and has become a marksman for putting the ball inside the 5-yard line and letting his kickoff coverage team do their job.

Jay Tedesco also returns and will handle punting duties this fall. Tedesco has a career average of just under 40 yards per punt and has almost 40 punts pinned inside the 20-yard line over the past two seasons.

Josh Autaubo helps both Quevedo and Tedesco as the team's long snapper. He's been in that role exclusively for three years and will do the same for what will be his senior season this fall.

Dustin Basks will handle a lot of kick return and punt return duties, which he did last season, and will be joined by the likes of Tyrone Howell and Diego Richards while others will compete for an opportunity there.

Bobeck says: "We're happy with our specialists right now. Josh Autaubo is so consistent, Alex Quevedo has continued to get better and so has Jay Tedesco. Those three have given us a strong special teams game and we hope that continues this season. In the return game, Dustin Basks is back and will help us again. We've got some other guys that could step in if needed and also help us out there.

Speedy and shifty senior wide receiver that serves multiple roles for the Bronchos ... Is a trouble maker in the electric passing game for UCO and also fields punts and kickoffs with the ability to break a big play at any time ... Can be useful in the short passing game, running sharp routes to open field ... Is lethal in the vertical game with speed that's hard to keep up with ... Gets behind defenders with quick first step ... Has grown in his role at UCO and is looking to continue to do so this fall.

2018: Played in all 12 games for the Bronchos as a junior and moved himself from role player to standout force to be reckoned with ... Hauled in 67 passes for the high-octane Broncho offense for a total of 909 yards and seven touchdowns ... His 909 yards is the ninth-most in one season in school history and his 67 catches is the sixth-most in one season at Central Oklahoma ... Basks' longest reception of the season was a 72-yard touchdown that put UCO ahead of Northwest Missouri 28-3 in the third quarter last September ... Central won that game, beating then fourth-ranked NWMSU for the first time since joining the MIAA in 2012 ... Basks also had four carries for 28 yards ... His 15-yard scamper at Missouri Western ended in a Broncho touchdown ... Basks added 18 punt returns for 217 yards with a long of 46 and nine kick returns for 220 yards with a long of 72.

2017: Played only the second half of the season, appearing in five games at wide receiver for the Bronchos ... Had 14 receptions for 83 yards and two touchdowns ... Both scores came in a 63-33 win over Missouri Southern ... Scored from 18 and nine ... Long reception was an 18-yard touchdown against Missouri Southern ... Returned three kicks toward the end of the season for a 53 yards (17.7 per return).

2016: Did not see action.

2015: Sat out redshirt season.

High School: Played a variety of positions during standout career at Claremore High School and was an Oklahoma Coaches Association All-State selection at defensive back as a senior ... Two-time team MVP ... Made 63 tackles during final season.

Personal: Kinesiology major ... Enjoys fishing as hobby ... Lists the San Francisco 49ers as his favorite professional team ... Brothers (Jordan and Da'Koda) both wrestled for UCO, with Jordan earning All-America honors in 2013 ... Names Drake as his top musician ... Birthdate is Oct. 28, 1995.

2018 REVIEW

Game-by-Game Recap

Game 1

PITTSBURG STATE 21
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 7

UCO opened the 2018 season with a loss to Pittsburg State. Central's offense sputtered in the first half, causing a big deficit for the Bronchos. UCO went three & out on its first three possessions, ran just four plays on the next drive and then went three & out again on the fifth drive of the game. The Bronchos finished the first half with only four first downs, and 61 yards of offense on 26 plays.

The Bronchos got a glimpse of momentum with a Colton Lindsey interception in the first quarter, but Central then missed a 34-yard field goal after another quick drive (four plays, seven yards).

Pitt State scored on their first possession with a six-yard run that capped off a 10-play, 78-yard drive. The Gorillas then made it 14-0 with a 20-yard touchdown pass with just over four minutes to play in the first half.

Pittsburg then got a big boost. The Bronchos went three & out again and on the punt, Pittsburg State return man KiAnte Hardin made every Central player miss a tackle on his way to a 59-yard punt return for a touchdown to make it 21-0. That's how the game went to halftime.

Central got some offense going in the third quarter, but still couldn't put the ball in the end zone. Keats Calhoon orchestrated most of the offense, earning 35 yards passing in the frame and another 38 yards rushing. But Central also had a three & out on the opening possession of the half, then turned the ball over on downs after a 10-play, 46-yard drive.

A 51-yard touchdown pass from Calhoon to L'liott Curry with 9:43 to play made it 21-7, giving Central some late hope. The score was set-up by a forced turnover, UCO's second of the game. Jeremiah Hill shot through the line and jumped on the ball after the Pitt State quarterback mishandled the snap.

The Bronchos would get two more tries with the ball, but couldn't finish.

Calhoon finished 12-for-29 with 127 yards and one touchdown. He was also the leading rusher on the day. The sophomore tallied 59 yards on 15 carries in his first career start. Curry's three-catch, 89-yard day highlighted the stat sheet for the Bronchos. Justin Curry also had three catches for 26 yards.

Lindsey led the Broncho defense with eight tackles on the night (four solo, four assisted) to go with his one interception. Chris Pogi and Tyrell Cummings each had seven stops, and Justin Stewart added four tackles to go with a sack he made in the first quarter, the lone sack of the game for the Bronchos.

Game 2

NEBRASKA KEARNEY 31
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 27

The Bronchos dropped a close battle with Nebraska-Kearney in home-opener of the 2018 season.

Central quarterback Keats Calhoon misfired on a pass to Dustin Basks with 22 seconds remaining on 4th & 12 from the Kearney 30-yard line. Calhoon didn't misfire much. He hooked up with Basks 11 times for 136 yards, including once for 26 yards on the final drive that put the Bronchos in great position for the game-winning score. That was the longest pass play of the game for Central. Basks' receptions and yards were both career marks.

Calhoon finished 21-for-30 with 236 yards and one touchdown. He threw a perfect corner endzone spiral to L'liott Curry for a score earlier in the night. Calhoon, starting in just his second career game, also ran the ball nine times for 29 yards.

Curry chipped in in the passing game with six catches for 74 yards and the one score. His 9-yard touchdown catch was his second score in as many weeks to start the season.

Chandler Garrett was the leading rusher for the Bronchos Thursday. He had 12 carries for 50 yards and two touchdowns.

Garrett got the game going, capping off a brilliant game-opening scoring drive for the Bronchos. UCO took the ball to start the game, and methodically marched down the field – 75 yards in seven plays – taking a 7-0 lead after Garrett charged in from six yards out.

Nebraska-Kearney answered though, going up 14-7 after the first quarter. The Lopers scored on the game's second possession, then again with 1:41 to go in the opening stanza.

UCO got the touchdown from Curry in the second quarter, as well as a 30-yard field goal with 32 seconds to play in the half, to go up 17-14 at halftime.

Kearney led 24-20 after three quarters, but it appeared the Bronchos were going to come away with a hard-fought win in the fourth. after Garrett scored his second touchdown of the night on a 2-yard run with only 3:18 left on the clock. But again, Kearney had an answer. The Lopers went down the field in 1:59 seconds, scoring to go up 31-27.

Derek Loccident led the defensive charge for the Bronchos with seven tackles. O'Shay Harris had a big game with 6.5 tackles. The Bronchos forced three fumbles on the night, recovering two of them.

Game 3

CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 52
LINDENWOOD 42

Central earned its first win of the season at Lindenwood.

The Lions marched down the field in the first quarter and scored the game's first touchdown after just three and a half minutes. After the Bronchos managed a field goal on its first drive to make it 7-3, Lindenwood again marched right down the field to score and go up 14-3 with 2:58 to play in the opening quarter.

But Keats Calhoon was poised and ready to strike. He got a lot of help from his offensive line and in the opening quarter, went 4-for-4 with 101 yards including a touchdown to Dustin Basks that made it 14-10.

Tyrone Howell added a nifty 8-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter that gave the Bronchos the lead, and Basks caught his second score of the night - a 12-yard pass from Calhoon - to put Central up 24-14 with 1:38 to play in the first half. Lindenwood took the ensuing kickoff back for a touchdown to cut into the lead. At halftime, Central led 24-21.

Central would need to respond again in the third after Lindenwood re-took the lead 28-24. Clay McKenzie was up to it.

The sixth-year senior running back, who missed nearly all of last year with a knee injury, ran into the end zone for his first touchdown since scoring against Lindenwood in August of 2017 and gave the Bronchos a 31-28 lead with 4:34 to play in the third quarter.

Chandler Garrett went on to throw a 62-yard touchdown pass to Howell in the fourth quarter, and a 37-yard strike to Ronald Monroe.

Daniel Baughman capped off the night, and the win, with a 58-yard fumble return with 1:37 to play that put Central up 52-35. Lindenwood added a score on the game's final play to make it 52-42.

Calhoon finished the night 14-for-16 with 213 yards and three TDs. Garrett was 4-for-11 with 105 yards and two touchdowns. McKenzie finished with 14 carries for 73 yards and a touchdown. Basks had a team-high seven catches for 89 yards and two scores. Howell had five catches for 152 yards and two scores. McKenzie had two receptions for 25 yards and Monroe finished with just the one catch for 37 yards and the score. Chris Pogi led the team with eight tackles Saturday. O'Shay Harris also had eight tackles to go with his one interception.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game 4

CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 31
NORTHWEST MISSOURI 21

For the first time since joining the MIAA, Central Oklahoma beat Northwest Missouri. UCO topped the fourth-ranked Beacats 31-21.

Chandler Garrett, a sophomore from Mustang, Okla. making his first career start, was brilliant in the win. He was 17-for-33 passing with 274 yards and four touchdowns. He also ran the ball 18 times for 59 yards, including a game-high 27-yard scamper.

The effort by Garrett started early. The Bronchos got the ball after forcing Northwest to punt on its first possession. Garrett then found L'liott Curry for a 9-yard pass completion, and then an 11-yard pass completion. After Clay McKenzie ran the ball for eight yards to the Northwest 43, Garrett launched a pass back Curry's way. The junior receiver hauled it in, muscling past the Bearcat defense and into the end zone for a touchdown.

That put UCO up 7-0. The Bronchos never trailed Saturday.

Central's defense – which Garrett deferred credit to after the game – played its biggest and best effort in recent memory, halting Northwest early and often.

Garrett capped a 15-play, 65-yard scoring drive that spanned the final six minutes of the opening quarter and ended a minute into the second stanza when the Broncho QB found McKenzie on a 2-yard rollout pass in the end zone to make it 14-0.

The Bronchos went to halftime up 14-3 and after a pair of punts to open the third quarter, Garrett led the Bronchos on the drive of the game.

UCO led a Northwest punt go around the 10-yard line and it took a Bearcat bounce, coming to a stop at the UCO 1-yard line. 12 plays and 6:06 later, a pass from Garrett to Ronnie Turner capped a 99-yard scoring drive and made it 21-3 UCO. Garrett found a sprinting Dustin Basks down the left sideline on the next possessionfor a 72-yard touchdown that made it 28-3 Bronchos with 2:29 to play in the third quarter.

Northwest Missouri grabbed a pair of touchdowns and a field goal in the fourth quarter to make a game of it. Alex Quevedo pelted a 45-yard field goal too to keep UCO ahead. The Broncho defense handled the rest.

Chris Pogi led the Broncho defense with 10 tackles including 1.5 behind the line of scrimmage. He also forced a fumble. Dillon Hall added nine tackles including one sack, and Justin Stewart also had a sack to go with his four tackles.

Game 5

FORT HAYS STATE 15
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 0

Central Oklahoma lost 15-0 to Fort Hays State in what was the first shutout against the Bronchos in seven years.

Central's defense was led by Colton Lindsey's nine tackles. Chris Pogi, Alex Figueroa, and O'Shay Harris each had seven tackles. The Bronchos came up with stop after stop on FHSU's drives, forcing the Tigers to kick six field goals on the night. But by the game's end, Central's offense just couldn't connect.

The Bronchos totaled 234 yards of total offense, on 59 plays. It only had the ball for 23:33 in the game.

Chandler Garrett, who was named MIAA Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts last week, finished Saturday 16-38 for 175 yards and threw two interceptions. He was also the Bronchos' leading rusher with 37 yards on 14 carries.

UCO had the ball three times in the first quarter and went three & out on each possession, failing to get a single first down. The Bronchos tallied just 18 yards on nine total plays. The time of possession reflected the Hays dominance. UCO had the ball just 4:40 of the opening quarter.

The Broncho defense held tough though. Fort Hays State, in 10:20, had 142 yards of offense on 14 plays but only managed a 3-0 lead after the first quarter.

The second quarter featured more of the same.

Hays went up 6-0 with a second field goal on the second play of the second quarter, this time a 39-yard field goal. UCO then went three & out again (four plays if you count a holding penalty). And Hays then made it 9-0 with 10:59 to play in the second with its third field goal of the game.

UCO went three & out again for the fifth time in as many possessions, but forced the same from Fort Hays State on the next trip out. And after the Bronchos failed to get a first down on the sixth consecutive possession, Hays again kicked a field goal to go up 12-0.

Garrett connected with Ronald Monroe on 1st & 10 for a 40-yard gain to finally get the Bronchos a first down in the game. But UCO only gained two yards after that. Alex Quevedo lined up a 46-yard field goal, but that came up short.

It continued in the third quarter. UCO went punt, punt, interception, in the quarter and Fort Hays State kicked another field goal to make it 15-0. The quarter was a near exact replica of each of the first two quarters as UCO's offense continued to struggle.

Dustin Basks led the UCO receiver corps with 56 yards on six catches. Mekail Hall (3-53), Tyrone Howell (2-18), and Clay McKenzie (2-9) all made efforts in the Broncho passing game. McKenzie added 22 yards on seven carries - all in the first half.

Game 6

CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 33
CENTRAL MISSOURI 26

UCO earned a come-from-behind 33-26 win over Central Missouri in a back-and-forth affair at Wantland Stadium.

It didn't appear UCO would need to come from behind to beat Central Missouri for the second season in a row. The Bronchos got the ball after Central Missouri missed a 49-yard field goal on the game's opening possession.

Will Collins got the start at quarterback, his first as a Broncho, and the sophomore was quick to put up a highlight. Collins connected with Mekail Hall on a 9-yard pass, then Dustin Basks for an 11-yard pass. On the third play of the drive, Collins dropped back to pass, but quickly executed the QB draw up the middle, where he sprinted through open field on his way to a 48-yard touchdown run.

After forcing a Central Missouri punt on the next possession, Collins was at it again. He connected with Clay McKenzie for a 23-yard gain and then found Ronald Monroe for a 59-yard touchdown that made it 14-0 Bronchos. Collins was 4-for-4 with 102 yards and two touchdowns and he had completions to four different receivers.

All in 4:17.

The Bronchos punted the next time they got the ball, but the defense again made a stop. UCO punted on its fifth possession of the game again, and this time, Central Missouri's return-man muffed the punt. Josh Autaubo recovered the fumble on the UCM 12-yard line and two plays later, McKenzie punched in a 2-yard touchdown run to make it 21-0 UCO.

Central then kept it going, forcing a safety on the next play to go up 23-0.

But UCM would score 26 unanswered points, 20 in the second quarter, and six more in the third, to take a 26-23 lead over the Bronchos.

Collins orchestrated an 8-play, 77-yard drive that included a huge 3rd & 8 conversion that was a 51-yard pass from Collins to Hall. Collins threw his second touchdown of the game, a 2-yard toss to Justin Curry in the front corner of the end zone, and the Bronchos went back in the lead 30-26 with 12:03 to play in the game.

Central Oklahoma added an 18-yard field goal on a bruising 12-play, 85-yard drive that took 6:03 off the fourth quarter clock.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game 7
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 17
MISSOURI WESTERN 16

The Bronchos beat Missouri Western 17-16 on the road in Week 7.

Dustin Basks had a 15-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second quarter and Chandler Garrett added a 7-yard touchdown just a few minutes later to give UCO a big first half lead. Alex Quevedo's 19-yard field goal just before halftime made it 17-0 Bronchos.

Kolby Underwood made his first career interception and returned it to the Missouri Western 16-yard line. Three plays later, Garrett scampered in the end zone to make it 14-0.

On the next possession, Dreyvon Christon made his first career interception and UCO took over at its own 46 with just over five minutes to play in the first half.

The Bronchos then orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that ended with Quevedo's field goal to make it 17-0.

UCO's best offensive possession came to end the first quarter. The Bronchos went nine plays and 78 yards, the last 15 of which was Basks' run to open the second quarter and put the Bronchos on the board.

Basks took a reverse from teammate Ronald Monroe and got a big block from Garrett inside the 5-yard line to get the score.

Garrett was the leading rusher for the Bronchos. He had six carries for 65 yards and the touchdown. His last carry though, a 21-yard rush, was his last. In the second quarter, Garrett broke free over the middle, but injured himself on the play and did not return. Clay McKenzie added 59 yards on 19 carries.

UCO's defensive effort came from all over the field. O'Shay Harris led the team with 10 tackles and added one pass breakup. Colton Lindsey, Central's leading tackler on the season, made nine stops including one behind the line of scrimmage. Malik Walker added eight tackles and Jakarri Hunt made six stops.

UCO needed a stop in the end. Missouri Western added two second-half touchdowns to bring it 17-14. The Griffons then looked to tie or go ahead within two minutes to play in the game. Western drove down the field before the Bronchos got the stop. Harris forced a Griffon ball carrier out of bounds on 3rd & 10 and Missouri Western lined up for a field goal.

Jordan Stafford then tipped the 45-yard field goal attempt and the Bronchos took the ball back. But UCO still needed to run out the clock.

The Bronchos downed it three times, then on 4th & 16 with seven seconds to play, UCO punter Jay Tedesco took a snap and ran out the clock, stepping out of the back of the endzone as time expired. That made it 17-16, but the game was over.

Game 8
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 34
WASHBURN 0

UCO won its third straight game with a 34-0 whipping of Washburn for its first shutout since Oct. 4, 2014. The Broncho defense held Washburn to only 231 total yards of offense, a season low. The Ichabods managed 100 yards on the ground and 131 through the air.

Central forced one turnover, an early fumble, but also held Washburn to just 2-for-6 on fourth-down attempts.

Kolby Underwood, Colton Lindsey, and Dillon Hall all led the defensive effort for the Bronchos, each making eight tackles. Underwood forced the fumble in the first quarter. After Jeremiah Hill recovered, the Bronchos earned three of its 34 points on the day. Underwood also had one tackle for a loss Saturday. Lindsey, the team's leading tackler on the season, added a pass break-up.

UCO's offense wasted no time getting going Saturday. The Bronchos took the opening possession 9-plays, 75-yards in 3:50 to strike first.

Clay McKenzie ran the ball three times on the first four plays of the game. The third, an 8-yard scamper to the Washburn 10-yard line, gave the sixth-year senior from Callisburg, Texas more than 3,000 career rushing yards. McKenzie is the eighth player in UCO history to achieve the milestone.

Central quarterback Will Collins, who connected with Mekail Hall for a big 40-yard gain on the second play of the day, found Ronald Monroe in the front corner of the end zone for a 7-yard touchdown pass to make it 7-0 UCO in the first quarter.

UCO got the ball back quickly, forcing Washburn to punt after only seven plays, and drove down the field in a hurry again. Hall had a 37-yard gain through the air – again on the second play of the drive – to jumpstart the Bronchos. Central got all the way to the Washburn 3-yard line before settling for a field goal that made it 10-0.

UCO kicked another field goal on the first play of the second quarter to go up 13-0. It stayed that way throughout the second frame.

In the second half, the Bronchos went down the field in six plays (3:01) to find the end zone again. This time it was McKenzie, who punched in a 2-yard score to make it 20-0. McKenzie's rushing touchdown was the 40th of his career, which is tied for third-most in school history.

Collins found Dustin Basks for a 56-yard touchdown score and added a 4-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to make it 34-0.

Game 9
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 31
MISSOURI SOUTHERN 0

Central beat Missouri Southern 31-0 for the second consecutive shutout for the Bronchos, who are now 6-3 on the season. It's the first time since 1979 Central has recorded back-to-back shutouts.

Colton Lindsey grabbed an interception on the first defensive possession of the game to set the tone for the Broncho defense on the day. UCO responded going down field all the way to the MSSU 5-yard line before settling for a 24-yard field goal to make it 3-0.

The UCO defense kept the pressure going, forcing punt after punt in the first half, four on each of the next four possessions.

In the second half, Central forced punts on the first five possessions for MSSU. On that fifth, Southern recovered a fumble to get the ball back at midfield, but soon after, on 4th & 3, Lindsey made a stop and forced a fumble. O'Shay Harris scooped it up and raced 70 yards to the end zone for the score. That made it 31-0 with two minutes to go in the game.

Lindsey led the Bronchos in tackles Saturday, making 10 stops on the day. Bryan Burns and Jakarri Hunt each made nine stops. Tyrell Cummings made just two stops on the day but had the only sack for the Bronchos.

The Bronchos got their only second quarter points on one big play, a 44-yard touchdown pass to Dustin Basks. Will Collins connected after he handed the ball of to Justin Curry, who turned a tossed it back to Collins. Basks trotted into the end zone untouched after beating the defense for his fifth touchdown of the season.

Clay McKenzie rushed for his fourth touchdown of the season from 15 yards out to make it 17-0 in the third quarter. That drive, the senior running back had four carries for 59 yards including a 36 yard rush that setup his touchdown run on the next play. The Broncho scoring drive was four plays for 59 yards.

Curry also found the end zone in the third, on a 28-yard scamper that made it 24-0 with just over four minutes to play in the frame. That drive was also a showcase drive for a Broncho back. Curry had all three plays (runs) for 37 yards and the score. A big Basks punt return set up great field position for the Bronchos.

Curry was the top rusher for the Bronchos on the day. He ran for 111 yards on 13 carries and the one touchdown. He had a long run of 34 yards Saturday. McKenzie finished with 92 yards on 12 carries and a score.

Collins was 19-for-29 for 227 yards and a touchdown. He was 16-for-22 with 210 yards and a touchdown in the first half.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game 10
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 62
NORTHEASTERN STATE 0

Central Oklahoma retained the President's Cup for a fifth-straight year after burying Northeastern State 62-0 in Week 10. It was the third straight shutout for the Bronchos.

Will Collins connected on a 66-yard touchdown pass to Mekail Hall on the Bronchos' fourth offensive play of the game and that was a sign of things to come in the 103-year old rivalry game. Collins would throw three touchdown passes Saturday. He hit Hall on a 65-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter too.

Hall had six catches for 200 yards to go with the two touchdown catches.

Izaiah Jackson also had a touchdown catch, a five-yard score in the second quarter. Dustin Basks had four catches for 36 yards and Johnny Bizzell had a catch for 37 yards.

The Broncho run game was also a huge factor in the big win Saturday.

Justin Curry had a team-high 157 yards rushing and three touchdowns on 18 carries. He had touchdown runs of 3, 2, and 46 all in the second half to lead the way.

Clay McKenzie added two touchdowns in the ground attack. The sixth-year senior from Callisburg, Texas had 86 yards on 22 carries with scores of 1 & 4, both in the first half.

Central's defense was just as big Saturday, earning the Bronchos a third straight shutout for the first time since 1979 and just the second time since 1942. The Broncho defense held Northeastern State to 159 yards of offense on 60 plays. NSU managed 40 yards passing and 119 yards on the ground.

Kolby Underwood, O'Shay Harris and Colton Lindsey all had interceptions. Lindsey took his 19 yards back for a touchdown. Lindsey also recovered a kickoff that NSU let bounce around the 20-yard line. Langston Underwood had a team-high six tackles on the day. Chris Pogi and Kahewai Kaaiawaawa both had five stops.

UCO now owns a 49-27-2 advantage in the all-time series and has won 12 of 21 since the team's began playing for the President's Cup in 1998. Saturday also marks the second largest win in the series. The Bronchos beat NSU 83-0 in 1915, the first time the schools ever met on the gridiron.

Game 11
EMPORIA STATE 35
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 28

UCO fell short in a feverish comeback attempt with a 35-28 loss to Emporia State in Week 11.

The Bronchos took the opening drive of the game 74 yards to the Emporia 1-yard line before a fumble ended the drive. This became an unfortunate theme for Central Saturday. ESU responded with an 8-play, 99-yard scoring drive to go up 7-0.

UCO responded with an 11-play, 75-yard drive to score a touchdown and tie the game, then took a 14-7 lead with 6:47 to play in the second quarter after a 10-play, 92-yard scoring drive.

But the next two Broncho possessions ended with fumbles and one of those resulted in ESU tying the game back up at 14, and Central missed a field goal – the equivalent of a turnover according to Bobeck – with eight seconds left in the first half.

Emporia then came out of the locker room after halftime and marched down the field in the blink of an eye to go up 21-14 with 14:09 to play in the third quarter. The Bronchos tied the game for the third time, 21-21, with 5:49 to go in the third, but a late rally by the Hornets ended UCO's hopes.

ESU scored the go-ahead score with 4:39 to play in the fourth, then grabbed an interception on the next drive and followed that with a 1-play, 46-yard scoring drive to go up 35-21 with 1:18 to play in the game.

Central got a late touchdown with just eight seconds left on the clock, but couldn't recover the onside kick and Emporia knelt on the final play for the win.

Clay McKenzie led the Bronchos Saturday. The sixth-year senior from Callisburg, Texas scored three of four touchdowns for UCO. He had a 7-yard receiving touchdown to tie the game 7-7 in the second quarter. He had a 6-yard rushing score to give Central a 14-7 lead in the second. And he added a 2-yard touchdown run to tie the game 21-21 in the third quarter.

McKenzie finished the day with 105 yards rushing on 28 carries and had one catch for seven yards. His 112 all-purpose yards moved him over the 4,000-yard mark for his career. McKenzie has 3,306 rushing yards to go with 743 receiving yards. He's just the fourth player in Central Oklahoma history to eclipse the 4,000-yard mark.

Game 12
Heart of Texas Bowl
CENTRAL OKLAHOMA 41
ANGELO STATE 34

Central Oklahoma beat Angelo State 41-34 in the 2018 C.H.A.M.P.S Heart of Texas Bowl following a furious 18-point fourth-quarter comeback.

Angelo State went up 31-13 with 14:39 to play in the fourth quarter. But Central Oklahoma responded in a big way, mounting one of the biggest comebacks in recent memory for the Bronchos.

A trick-play where Johnny Bizzell caught a screen pass and immediately heaved the ball down field to a wide open Clay McKenzie to kick-start a quick scoring drive. The 58-yard play set up a 5-yard touchdown pass on the next play from Will Collins to Daunte McGee to make it 31-20 with 13:25 to play.

The defense held Angelo State to a 21-yard field goal that made it 34-20 with 10:13 to play.

Then, after a big fourth-down conversion for the Bronchos, a 53-yard touchdown pass from Collins to Dustin Basks made it 34-27 with 7:22 to play in the game.

Collins found Basks again to tie the game, 34-34.

On the next possession, he then found Mekail Hall Hall for a 53-yard touchdown.

Angelo State drove all the way down to the UCO 30-yard line on the final possession. ASU made one last heave to the end zone as time expired and Colton Lindsey grabbed his team-leading fourth interception of the season to end not only the game, but his career, with a game-saving highlight pickoff.

Collins finished the day 25-for-43 with 367 yards passing and four touchdowns - all in the fourth quarter. With Bizzell's 58 yard pass, an eight-yard pass from Garrett, and Collins' 367 yards passing, the Bronchos totaled 433 yards passing Saturday. That mark ranks fifth in school history for most passing yards in one game. Basks had 10 catches for 160 yards and two touchdowns. Hall had three for 109 yards and one score.

Lindsey led the Bronchos with nine tackles on the day. Dreyvon Christon had eight and Justin Stewart and O'Shay Harris each had seven. Stewart added one sack. Harris added a fumble forced and a fumble recovered.

HISTORY

All-Conference Players

In 116 seasons of football, Central Oklahoma has had 414 players earn all-conference honors a combined 564 times.

The Bronchos have been members of the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference, District Nine, the Lone Star Conference, the LSC North Division and the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. Only four players – John Adams, Alex Aguilar, Dale Alexander and Steve Tate – have been four-time all-conference performers, while 27 players have won all-conference recognition three times.

A year-by-year look at UCO's all-conference players:

All-Region Players

Central Oklahoma has had 59 players earn All-Region honors a combined 80 times since selection for those teams started in 1993.

The Bronchos have had three players earn All-Region recognition three times -- defensive lineman Claude Davis (1998-99-00), offensive lineman John Fitzgerald (1998-99-00) and running back Joshua Birmingham (2010-12-13).

UCO had nine players named All-Region in 1998, including seven first-team selections.

Here's a year-by-year look at the All-Region players:

Playoff History

Central Oklahoma has qualified for the playoffs 10 times in its history, winning two national championships.

UCO made it to the NAIA playoffs six times, capped by championship seasons in 1962 and 1982, and has made four NCAA Division II playoff appearances. The Bronchos are 10-8 in the playoffs – 11-7 with a forfeit – and 5-1 at home.

Central made its first playoff appearance in 1962, winning two games to capture the university's first-ever national title. The Bronchos qualified again in 1972, '79, '82, '83 and '85, finishing runner-up in 1979 and winning their second national title in 1982.

UCO first qualified for the Division II playoffs in 1996, then made back-to-back showings in 1998-99 before going back in 2003.

A brief look at UCO's playoff appearances:

1962 NAIA Playoffs

First Round

OKLAHOMA CITY – Top-ranked Central Oklahoma had no problem in its first-ever playoff contest, advancing to the NAIA national championship game with a 20-0 rout of College of Emporia (Kan.) in a battle of unbeatens at Taft Stadium.

The Bronchos limited the Hornets to 163 yards total offense while rolling up 324 yards rushing, topped by R.L. Briggs' 23-carry, 151-yard performance.

Jim Davis put UCO on top early in the second period when he recovered a fumble in the end zone and the Bronchos went ahead 13-0 later in the quarter on a one-yard TD run by Briggs and Jack Kieder's extra point.

It stayed that way until midway through the fourth quarter when Briggs scored from two yards out for a 20-0 lead that wrapped up the win.

Championship Game

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Central Oklahoma wrapped up a perfect 11-0 season and secured its first NAIA national championship by rallying past Lenoir Rhyne (N.C.) 28-13.

The top-ranked Bronchos of head coach Al Blevins fell behind 6-0 in the first quarter, but came back to take a 14-6 halftime lead. No. 3 Lenoir Rhyne made it a 14-13 game early in the third quarter, but UCO took over down the stretch.

R.L. Briggs' two-yard TD run gave the Bronchos a 7-6 lead early in the second quarter and a 57-yard scoring dash by George Hughley upped UCO's advantage to 14-6 by intermission.

Lenoir made it 14-13, but Mike Rollins hit Billy Jones with a 28-yard scoring toss late in the period to give the Bronchos a 21-13 lead. UCO clinched the victory on a 62-yard Rollins-to-Jones TD pass late in the game.

1972 NAIA Playoffs

First Round

COMMERCE, Texas – In its first playoff appearance since the 1962 championship season, Central Oklahoma was no match for powerful Texas A&M-Commerce as the Lions rolled to a 54-0 victory.

The Bronchos lost six fumbles and were outgained 509-160 in finishing the season 9-2.

1979 NAIA Playoffs

First Round

KEARNEY, Neb. – Clifford Chatman scored three touchdowns and Steve Tate two as Central Oklahoma scored 28 unanswered points in a 42-22 first-round road win over Nebraska-Kearney.

Tate had a 12-yard scoring run and Chatman a one-yard TD plunge while Kearney had two long-distance scoring plays as the two were deadlocked at 14-all early in the second period. Chatman, who rushed for 174 yards on 21 carries, broke the tie with a 67-yard scoring dash that gave UCO a 20-14 halftime lead.

UCO moved ahead 28-14 in the third period on Chatman's one-yard score, with Tate's two-yard TD midway through the fourth quarter making it 35-14.

The Bronchos completed their scoring moments later when Sylvester Moore scored on a 24-yard run with a lateral after an interception.

Semifinals

EDMOND – Quarterback Scott Burger ran for three touchdowns and passed for another as Central Oklahoma coasted past Presbyterian College 28-6 at Wantland Stadium in advancing to the NAIA championship game for the second time.

Burger got UCO on the board late in the first quarter, scoring on a short quarterback sneak and adding the extra point and he made it 14-0 in the second period with a five-yard run and another PAT.

The Bronchos went ahead 20-0 in the final minute of the first half on a 32-yard TD pass from Burger to Ben Young, and UCO wrapped up its finals berth in the third quarter on Burgers' five-yard option keeper and Clifford Chatman's two-point conversion run.

Championship Game

McALLEN, Texas – Perennial power Texas A&M-Kingsville denied Central Oklahoma its second NAIA national championship, prevailing in a wild 20-14 contest that went to the wire.

The Bronchos finished with 459 yards, but had seven turnovers. The Javelinas racked up 451 yards total offense and lost six fumbles.

UCO took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a five-yard run by Clifford Chatman, but TAMUK went ahead 12-7 by halftime with a pair of second-quarter scores.

The Javelinas went ahead 20-7 in the third quarter with a 100-yard interception return and a two-point conversion pass.

UCO got within 20-14 with 4:14 left to play when Scott Burger hooked up with Bennie West for a 72-yard scoring pass, but TAMUK held on for the win.

Playoff History

1982 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

PUEBLO, Colo. – Colorado State-Pueblo was simply no match for Central Oklahoma in the first round of the 1982 NAIA playoffs as the fifth-ranked Bronchos scored in two plays to open the game and went on to a 61-20 rout.

UCO, which barely qualified for the playoffs after starting the season 3-2, racked up 411 yards in the first half to take a 40-7 lead and was never threatened.

The Bronchos needed just two plays to score the game's first touchdown, with quarterback Randy Page hitting Willie Henderson from 35 yards out. Page later scored on a one-yard sneak and added a 31-yard TD pass to Henderson as UCO opened up a 20-0 lead.

Steve McKeaver tallied on a 45-yard run and Page tossed a 32-yard pass to Henderson for his third TD reception of the half en route to 40-7 halftime lead.

Linebacker Ed Desherow amassed 25 tackles to lead UCO's defensive efforts.

Semifinals

TAHLEQUAH – Central Oklahoma overcame a 10-0 deficit and six turnovers to subdue unbeaten Northeastern State, 28-17, in a freezing semifinal battle.

The Bronchos trailed 10-0 after one quarter, but Randy Page threw two touchdown passes and Randy Jones had a two-yard scoring run as UCO scored 21 unanswered points to take a 21-10 halftime lead.

NSU cut its deficit to 21-17 late in the third quarter, but Daric Zeno's 55-yard punt return to the two-yard-line early in the final period set up a one-yard Page-to-Willie Henderson TD pass and clinched the win.

Championship Game

EDMOND – Central Oklahoma had probably its worst offensive game of the season, but came through in the clutch when it needed to in trimming previously unbeaten Colorado Mesa, 14-11, at Wantland Stadium to capture its second NAIA national championship.

UCO netted only 165 yards total offense against the Mavericks, but came up with a couple of crucial fourth-quarter interceptions to help secure the win.

Randy Page's 28-yard touchdown pass to Daric Zeno in the second period gave the Bronchos a 7-3 halftime lead before Mesa used a touchdown and safety to go ahead 11-7 early in the fourth quarter.

Randy Preston's interception and 37-yard return set up UCO's winning score, a one-yard run by Randy Jones midway through the final period.

Central Oklahoma won the 1982 NAIA national championship at Wantland Stadium following a 14-11 win over Colorado Mesa.

1983 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

EDMOND – Central Oklahoma's hopes of a second straight NAIA national title were dashed in the first round of the 1983 playoffs as Saginaw Valley rallied from a 13-0 fourth-quarter deficit to upset the Bronchos, 14-13, at Wantland Stadium.

UCO, which finished 8-1-1 and had a 16-game unbeaten streak ended, was on top 13-0 heading into the final 15 minutes, thanks to a four-yard touchdown run by Randy Page in the second quarter and a one-yard Bruce Vann TD burst in the third period.

But the Cardinals, with a stiff wind at their backs, drew within 13-7 early in the fourth quarter, then scored on a trick play -- a 48-yard pass-lateral -- to take the lead with just 1:28 left in the game.

UCO didn't give up, however, as Page completed passes for 36 yards to Daric Zeno and 20 yards to Willie Henderson in moving the Bronchos to Saginaw's 31-yard-line before he was intercepted with 26 seconds left.

1985 NAIA Playoffs
First Round

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. – Central Oklahoma's sixth and final trip to the NAIA playoffs ended in frustration as Henderson State kicked a 42-yard field goal with 1:42 remaining to topple the top-ranked Bronchos, 18-15, in the first round.

UCO totaled 379 yards total offense but 11 penalties and two lost fumbles helped stymie the Bronchos.

UCO took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a 16-yard TD pass from Glynn Walker to Clifford Burney. Henderson then scored the next 15 points on two touchdowns and a field goal to grab a 15-7 lead.

The Bronchos tied it 15-all in the third period on Eddie Goodlow's 53-yard run and a two-point conversion and it stayed that way until HSU's late kick.

Playoff History

1996 Division II Playoffs
First Round

EDMOND – Central Oklahoma celebrated its first playoff appearance since 1985 -- and its first-ever in NCAA Division II -- with one of the most dramatic wins in school history, pulling out a last-minute 23-21 victory over Chadron State.

Alton Lusk scored on a 38-yard pass from quarterback Stanley Pena on a third-and-10 play with only 1:11 remaining to give the Bronchos the lead.

The touchdown pass was tipped by two Chadron State defenders before it eventually ended up in the hands of Lusk, who sped the final 20 yards untouched for his only TD reception of the season.

CSC nearly came back, completing a pass to the UCO five-yard line on the final play of the game.

Tailback Jubarko Gaines scored UCO's first two touchdowns.

Quarterfinals

DAVIS, Calif. – California-Davis jumped on the Bronchos from the start, scoring three first-quarter touchdowns en route to a 26-7 quarterfinal victory that ended UCO's season at 9-3.

Davis quarterback Mark Grieb picked the Bronchos defense apart, completing touchdown passes of 49, 14, and 34 yards in the first 13 minutes of the game as the Aggies opened a quick 20-0 lead.

UCO's defense tightened after the three early scores and a four-yard TD run by Jubarko Gaines early in the second quarter got the Bronchos within 20-7.

Davis opened the third quarter with a lengthy scoring drive to take a 26-7 lead.

1998 Division II Playoffs
First Round

EDMOND – Chadron State missed a 52-yard field goal with less than a minute to play as No. 1-rated Central Oklahoma held on for a thrilling 21-19 victory in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

The unbeaten Bronchos, who won their school-record 12th game of the season, used turnovers to take a 14-6 halftime lead.

Strong safety Brandon Carder scored on a 47-yard interception return to give UCO a 7-6 lead and a Brad Shea fumble recovery at the CSC 20-yard line led to a 16-yard Reggie Donner touchdown run.

The Bronchos led 21-12 after Donner's seven-yard TD scamper early in the fourth period, but Chadron State scored with 2:33 remaining to make it 21-19 and then recovered the onside kick.

The Eagles moved to the UCO 35 before missing the long field goal try with 52 seconds left.

Quarterfinals

EDMOND – Lone Star Conference rival Texas A&M-Kingsville avenged an early-season loss to Central Oklahoma with an exciting 24-21 overtime victory in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

The Javelinas had possession first in the overtime and kicked a 37-yard field goal to break a 21-21 tie before getting a big sack in holding UCO scoreless in its offensive try.

UCO, which defeated TAMUK 38-9 in the second game of the season, took a 14-0 third-quarter lead on a 63-yard pass from Scott Condict to Todd Barnes and a four-yard Reggie Donner run.

The Javelinas stormed back with three straight scores to go on top 21-14, but UCO drew even on Condict's 39-yard scoring toss to Barnes with 2:24 remaining.

TAMUK later forfeited the game to the Bronchos for using ineligible players.

1999 Division II Playoffs
First Round

DAVIS, Calif. – California-Davis used a key second-half goal-line stand to hand Central Oklahoma a 33-17 setback in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs.

The Bronchos trailed 26-17 late in the third quarter when it drove to a first-and-goal at the UCD two-yard-line, but the Aggies held on four straight downs then drove 99 yards for the clinching score.

Quarterback Brett Manning had a 13-yard scoring strike to split end Todd Barnes late in the first half to get UCO within 19-17.

2003 Division II Playoffs
First Round

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. – Uriah Matthew forced a Colorado Mesa fumble that Jonathan Tate recovered at the UCO15-yard-line with 1:07 remaining as the Bronchos held off Colorado Mesa 20-15 in the first round of the 2003 playoffs.

UCO was limited to 242 total yards in the snow and cold but came up with the big play at the end to advance to the quarterfinals

The Bronchos were clinging to a 20-15 lead when the Mavericks drove to a fourth-and-two at the UCO 23. MSC ran for an apparent first down at the 15, but Matthew knocked the ball loose and Tate recovered to clinch the win.

UCO bolted to a 14-0 first-half lead, getting touchdown runs of 11 and 64 yards from Jarrod Manoy. The Mavericks closed to within 14-9 by intermission, then went ahead 15-14 in the third.

The Bronchos regained the lead late in that stanza on a nine-yard scoring pass from Erick Johnson to Dee Dee Carter and the defense did the rest.

KINGSVILLE, Texas – Texas A&M-Kingsville took control early and went on to rout injury-riddled Central Oklahoma 49-6 in the quarterfinals of the 2003 playoffs.

The Lone Star Conference champion Javelinas scored on their first three possessions of the game and led 32-0 at halftime as the Bronchos threw three interceptions.

TAMUK eventually built its lead to 49-0 before UCO avoided the shutout on a one-yard Erick Johnson touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

The UCO Athletic Hall of Fame

The University of Central Oklahoma Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1990 to honor and recognize the many outstanding student-athletes, coaches, administrators, and other supporters who have played a key role in the success of UCO athletics over the past 100-plus years.

UCO's 1962 NAIA national championship team was the first team inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2015, and in 2017, the 1982 national champs joined them. There are 145 individual members of the Hall of Fame, with 45 of those having played or coached football.

Here are the members of the UCO Athletic Hall of Fame with football ties.

THE MIAA

Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association

Central Oklahoma enters its eighth year as a member of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

The MIAA, a 14-member conference of NCAA Division II institutions in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma, was first organized in 1912 as the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Over the past 100 years, the MIAA has gained the reputation of being one of the top NCAA Division II conferences in the nation. MIAA schools have won 35 NCAA team championships and over 300 individual national championships over the past four decades.

The MIAA currently conducts championships in nine sports for both men and women.

For the men, champions are crowned in football, cross country, basketball, indoor and outdoor track & field, baseball, tennis, golf, and wrestling. The MIAA crowns champions in bowling, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track & field.

The MIAA turned a new page on July 1, 1992, when the NCAA Division II conference changed its name from the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

The decision to make the change originated in 1989, when Pittsburg State and Washburn became the first schools outside the state of Missouri to gain membership in the MIAA.

The conference was first organized in 1912 with 14 member institutions. Of those original members, Central Missouri and Northwest Missouri still remain a part of the MIAA.

The first change in membership came in 1924, when the MIAA reorganized to include only the five regional Missouri state colleges: Central Missouri, Truman (at the time known as Northeast Missouri State), Northwest Missouri, Southeast Missouri State and Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State).

Over the next 56 years, three schools joined the membership: Missouri School of Mines (later Missouri-Rolla) in 1935, Lincoln in 1970 and the Missouri-St. Louis in 1980.

Ken Jones became the first full-time commissioner of the MIAA in 1981 and would be in the position for 16 years, retiring in 1997. Ralph McFillen succeeded Jones, serving 10 years before his retirement in 2007.

Jim Johnson succeeded McFillen in July of that year and served as commissioner until September of 2010, when Dr. Bob Boerigter took over. Mike Racy is the current commissioner and began in January of 2017 following Boerigter's retirement.

Southwest Baptist brought membership back to eight schools in 1986, before the major expansion of the conference in 1989. Pittsburg State, Washburn, Missouri Southern and Missouri Western began competition in the 1989-90 season.

Southeast Missouri State left the MIAA following the 1990-91 season and was replaced by Emporia State in the 1991-92 season.

Missouri-St. Louis departed the MIAA in 1996, Missouri-Rolla left in 2005 and Lincoln forfeited its membership in 1999. Fort Hays State joined the MIAA in 2006, Nebraska-Omaha entered the league in 2008 and Lincoln re-joined the conference in 2010.

UCO, Lindenwood, Nebraska-Kearney and Northeastern State all become league members with the start of the 2012-13 academic year.

Nebraska-Omaha left the league in 2011 and Truman State did the same in 2013.

Southwest Baptist, which had not competed in football in the MIAA since 2014, and Lindenwood, departed the MIAA altogether in 2019. Lincoln, who like SBU had been competing as associate members without football, returned to fill the void left by Lindenwood to keep the MIAA with 12 football playing schools.

Newman (Kan.) and Rogers State (Okla.) also joined the league in 2019 to give the MIAA 14 total schools. Newman had been an associate member in wrestling.
