A WIN WOULD...

- Move Boise State to 18-8 all-time in games against the Bulldogs.
- Keep the Milk Can in Boise for the fifth consecutive year.
- Keep the Broncos above .500 all-time when playing in Fresno.
- Advance Boise State's record to 12-2 all-time when the Milk Can is on the line.
- Drop Jeff Tedford under .500 all-time against Boise State.
- Be better than a loss.

OPENING KICKOFF

1 Got milk? Saturday's game in that other valley is not just a battle to remain in second place in the Mountain West standings, but it is a rivalry battle for the coveted Milk Can. Debuting in 2006, Boise State has claimed the Milk Can in 11 of the 13 meetings (the Milk Can does not change hands when the teams face each other in the conference championship game) and has held the trophy since 2018.

2 Boise State enters this week's action with an offensive line ranked 11th in the nation in sacks allowed, yielding only 1.00 sacks per game so far this year. That number is the third-best of a Boise State squad since 2012 (when the Broncos ranked sixth) and is just behind the 2022 mark when BSU allowed just 1.00 sacks per game to rank 10th in the nation.

3 Did you know that since the Mountain West began its Football Championship Game in 2013 that there have only been four occurrences where a team undefeated in conference play as advanced to the championship game? In six of the 10 MW Championship Games, the two teams competing for the league title have had one or more losses on their record.

4 So far this season Ashton Jeanty leads the nation with 72 broken tackles. That means this particular bucking Bronco is averaging 9.00 broken tackles per game as he refuses to go down to the turf.

5 Boise State is heading to California this week and the plane ride just added a little extra weight. Both Eric McAlister (Offensive) and Maddux Madsen (Freshman) claimed Mountain West Player of the Week honors following Boise State's 32-7 win over Wyoming. McAlister caught seven passes for 160 yards and a touchdown while Madsen was 12-for-15 for 147 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions.

DON'T SLEEP ON BOISE!

That's because there is no "Z" in our name. The correct pronunciation is "BOY-SEE" and not the often misstated "Boy-Zee."

THIS WEEK'S OPPONENT

SCOUTING FRESNO STATE

- Fresno State enters this week's contest with a 7-1 record (3-1 MW) after rallying for a 31-24 win over UNLV last week.
- Jeff Tedford, no stranger to The Golden State, is in his fifth season at Fresno State, amassing a record of 43-19 (.694) with the Bulldogs. This has followed 11 years at California with an 82-57 (.590) record. Overall, Tedford brings a 125-76 (.646221) career head coaching record into this week's game.
- Don't expect many turnovers, at least from the Bulldogs. Fresno State leads the nation with no fumbles lost.
- But this team knows how to take the ball away and they make it look as easy as taking candy from a baby. Fresno State ranks second in the nation with a 1.38 turnover margin and third nationally with 18 turnovers gained, including 12 passes intercepted which ranks them fifth nationally.
- Carlton Johnson leads the team with four interceptions, which leads the Mountain West and ranks him sixth in the country. While that may be exciting for Bulldog fans, it is disappointing for all others when he fails to execute the proper celebratory dance afterwards considering his last name is not Banks. Alfonso Ribeiro looks on disapprovingly, sir.
- The nickname Bulldogs came into use in 1921 when the student body president and friends were continually greeted by a white bulldog on campus. We assume they are happy a skunk didn't randomly come across the group on campus.
- Fresno State's school colors are red and blue, evolving out of an argument by women from Fresno Normal School and men from Fresno Junior College. The women were seeking blue and white to the men's red and white. A compromise was struck with the school adopting red and blue. But now the athletic teams predominantly wear red, proving male bulldogs continue to be bullheaded and stubborn.
- Fresno State has so far put together an impressive season with wins at Purdue and Arizona State. Their only loss to date was to Wyoming in a game played in Laramie proving altitude sickness might really be a thing.
- The school's official name is California State University, Fresno, and commonly goes by Fresno State. That makes sense, because it is part of the California State University system. But the school was founded in 1911 as Fresno State Normal School, then became Fresno State College in 1949 before it became a part of the state university system in 1961. So we're really not sure how the name "State" was adopted considering Fresno is not, to the best of our knowledge, the 51st state, unless our American history knowledge is not quite up to buff.
- Fresno State will be wearing white helmets with a script "Bulldogs" featuring a feather in honor of Native American Heritage Month. The script font and feather will have the U.S. flag behind it. So speaking of someone's American history knowledge not quite being up to buff...
- Fresno and the San Juaquin Valley are especially prideful of their agricultural production. The name "Fresno" is derived from the abundent ash trees that once were in the area and the region is known as the "Raisin Capital of the World." We're concerned the top product is a dried up piece of fruit but to each their own.
- It is nearly 950 feet to get from the visitor's sideline to the visitor's locker room at Valley Children's Stadium in Fresno, with a steel hill to navigate. So if the Broncos are a little out of breath to start the second half, just know that they got their steps in and closed a circle from halftime alone.

Broncos Defeated by Bulldogs in MW Championship

BOISE, Idaho — Boise State's quest for a Mountain West title was dashed with a 28-16 loss to Fresno State in the conference championship, Saturday, at Albertsons Stadium.

The Broncos got on the board first with a 26-yard field goal from junior kicker Jonah Dalmas with 10:16 left in the second quarter. After two back-to-back Bulldog touchdowns late in the quarter, the Boise State offense drove 45-yards in 1:16 to set up a 47-yard field goal from Dalmas to cut Fresno State's halftime lead to eight.

The Bronco defense forced a three and out, leading to a 44-yard field goal from Dalmas with 10:04 left in the third quarter. Then, the Bulldogs scored touchdowns on consecutive possessions in the fourth quarter.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Taylen Green connected with sixth-year senior wide receiver Davis Koetter on a 52-yard touchdown pass with 5:17 remaining, cutting the lead to 28-16. Boise State did not convert an onside kick attempt.

EVIL GENIUS? OR JUST PLAIN GENIUS?

Sure, it may be unconventional but the two-quarterback system that Boise State is currently employing is seemingly working for the Boys in Blue. Entering this week's game, the Broncos have an equal sample size of four games each and the numbers tell the story. Just see for yourself.

PRE- AND POST-TWO QUARTERBACK SYSTEM STATS

ALL-AMERICAN ASHTON

It was nearly unanimous! Ashton Jeanty was named to the Midseason All-America First Team by five notable outlets while one placed him on the second team. Jeanty was the only Group of 5 player to receive multiple First Team accolades. The announcements, which came during Boise State's bye week, showed that Jeanty truly is one of the nation's best players - as if the stats didn't already prove that to be true.

HIGHWAY 20 RIDE

Punter James Ferguson-Reynolds may come from the Land Down Under but his time in America has the native Aussie humming a tune sung by a group from down in the Deep South. Boise State's punter enters this week's action in the top 10 nationally - and leading the Group of 5 - in several other punting categories.

FERGUSON-REYNOLDS IN THE RANKINGS

Category	Stat	National Rank	G5 Rank	MW Rank
Punt Average	49.7	1st	1st	1st
Net Average	43.4	7th	1st	1st
Inside the 20	15	T-8th	T-5th	1st
Touchbacks	6	T-3rd	T-2nd	1st
Downed	10	T-12th	T-8th	T-3rd
Longest Punt	71	T-9th	T-6th	2nd

THIS IS THE GREATEST SHOW

At least in the Treasure Valley. Boise State enters this week ranked 32nd nationally in attendance (by a percentage of capacity), making the Broncos just one of three Group of 5 programs (along with App State and James Madison) to rank in the top 35. BSU not only is in the top 35 but also leads the Mountain West. Fresno State, the next-best MW team, ranks 38th.

TWO HEADS ARE BETTER THAN ONE

While unconventional, Boise State is finding success with its two-quarterback system. Entering this week's action, the Broncos are averaging 427.6 yards of offense per game, ranking 42nd nationally and second in the Mountain West. That is the highest offensive output a Boise State team has registered since the 2019 Broncos averaged 429.0 yards per game, ranking 48th nationally and 4th in the MW that season.

SUCCESS IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

Now in its 13th season in the Mountain West, Boise State has lost just 16 games in conference play, and only five of those losses have come by more than seven points.

THIS AIN'T A SLOW K

With 183 yards from scrimmage against San Jose State on Oct. 7, Ashton Jeanty surpassed 1,000 all-purpose yards this season in just six games (1,010). He becomes just the third player in the FBS since 1996 to record 1,000 yards from scrimmage in the first six games and just the 12th player to record 1,000 all-purpose yards in the first six games since 1996.

WE'RE LOVIN' IT

No, opposing secondaries, you cannot have it your way. But we're loving what wide receiver Eric McAlister is doing to Boise State opponents so far this season. Not just a tall receiver, McAlister has become dynamic all over the field this season. EMac, as he is known, is a tough cover for opponents as he ranks tied for first nationally in contested catches and 11th nationally in receiving yards.

GROUNDED TO A HALT

How effective was Boise State's defense in the 32-7 win over Wyoming on Nov. 28? The Cowboys were limited to just 27 rushing yards on 24 attempts, the lowest rushing yardage output for Wyoming in over 13 years. The last time the Cowboys were held to a rushing yardage lower than that, it was … Boise State in 2010. The Broncos limited Wyoming to -21 rushing yards on 28 attempts on Sept. 18, 2010 in Boise. It also marked the first time Wyoming was held to under 30 rushing yards since the Cowboys were held to 28 rushing yards at Utah State on Nov. 30, 2013.

REMEMBER, REMEMBER THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

It appears that as the season gets longer, the Broncos get stronger. Since Boise State moved up to the FBS level in 1996, the Broncos have gone 78-20 (.796) when playing in the month of November, resulting in a total of 21 bowl bids (and bowl eligibility in all 23 years), 14 conference championships (eight in the WAC, four in the MW and two in the Big West) and appearances in six Mountain West Championship Games.

SILVER BELLS

Boise State doesn't embrace the cowbells like people in Starkville, Mississippi do but when Kaonohi Kaniho blocked a Colorado State field goal attempt on Oct. 14, Bronco fans could hear silver bells ringing. That extended a remarkable streak where Boise State has blocked a kick now in 25 consecutive seasons. Turn to Page 24 to see the year-by-year breakdown.

NO CAUTION HERE

Look down on the field Saturday and you are not likely to see much yellow, at least due to Boise State. The Broncos rank top 10 in the nation in all of the fewest penalty categories, ranking ninth in fewest penalties (33), fewest penalties per game (4.12) and fewest penalty yards (283) while ranking eighth in fewest penalty yards per game (35.38). The same may not be said for Fresno State as the Bulldogs rank in the 50s and 60s in those same categories.

ARE YOU NOT ENTERTAINED?

You never know what can happen in a Boise State game, especially this year. Of the eight games the Broncos have played so far, four games (50%) have been decided by three points or less while five of the games (63%) have been decided by one possession (eight points or less). That means fans should stay in their seats for the full 60 minutes because this team will keep you entertained.

DEFEND THE BLUE

There's not many places that are tougher environments to play on than the famous blue turf in Boise. Entering this week's contest, the Broncos have an .892 winning percentage on The Blue (133-16) since 2000. That marks the third-best home winning percentage of any team in the nation, trailing only Oklahoma (.910, 132-13) and Ohio State (.897, 139-16).

(THE) AUSSIE RULES

James Ferguson-Reynolds continues to flip the field and show why his leg, despite from being down under, is on top of the college football game. He smashed a 71-yard punt on Oct. 7 against San Jose State, marking the longest punt in the Mountain West this season at the time.

AT THE PEAK

POMP & CIRCUMSTANCE

Mountain West student-athletes who already hold a degree will have a little something extra on their jerseys this season. In conjunction with a program that started in 2019, student-athletes who have earned a degree, but have remaining eligibility will see the MW logo on their jersey replaced with one that incorporates both the MW mark and the word "GRADUATE."

Those from Boise State that have already graduated are listed below:

Cade Beresford	Garrett Curran
Billy Bowens	Cortez Hogans
Michael Callahan	DJ Schramm
Ethan Carde	Riley Smith
Stefan Cobbs	Koby Tryggestad
Tyler Crowe	Demitri Washington

WHO DOES NUMBER TWO WORK FOR?

Obviously it's The Blue. Not only did Boise State match its second-largest comeback in its FBS history on Oct. 7 against San Jose State, the Broncos did so in front of the second largest crowd in Albertsons Stadium history.

ALL BY MYSELF...

Boise State's Ashton Jeanty can truly relate with Eric Carmen and his 1975 hit. That's because he is the only player in the country with 500-plus rushing yards AND 350-plus receiving yards. Jeanty is the seventh FBS player to do so over the last 25 seasons. See the full list on Page 9.

THIS IS IT. THIS IS THE LIST.

NO. 2 ON HIS CHEST, NO. 1 IN OUR HEARTS

His jersey may read Number 2 but we all know Ashton Jeanty is Number 1. The sophomore running back enters this week's contest leading the nation in multiple categories and doing so with what can only be described as "video game numbers". You can see the full list on Page 4. So we tip our cap to you, Mr. Jeanty. Obviously you've been hitting "up, up, down, down, left, right, left, right, B, A, Start" prior to every game.

RUN, RUN, AS FAST AS YOU CAN...

Can't catch him, he's the Jeanty-man! Boise State's Ashton Jeanty is quickly becoming one of the most dynamic players in the country as he enters this week's contest ranking second in the nation in all-purpose yards per game.

CLOSE CALLS

Entering this week's game, Boise State has played in more close games than almost anyone in the nation. To date, the Broncos have played in the second-most number of games decided by three points or less and the third-most number of games decided by one possession (defined by eight points or less) this season.

ESTABLISHING A LEGACY

The Broncos are the second-winningest football program by percentage in the country since 2000 (.808, 244-58), trailing only Ohio State (.835; 243-48).

STARTING A YOUTH MOVEMENT

Tim Keane deserves a tip of the cap. Entering the Nov. 4 game against Fresno State, Boise State has the third-most number of starts on the offensive line by freshman in the nation this year with two players totaling 15 starts.

DEFENDERS OF THE WEST. CRUSHIN' ALL PRETENDERS IN THE WEST

Since 2000, Boise State has been leader of the Team with the Broncos registering more wins (245) than any other west coast team by over 20 victories with Oregon (219), Southern Cal (201), Utah (198) and BYU (192) following. That's not a number to quack at. See the full list on Page 5.

ROAD WARRIORS

Boise State is one of four schools nationally to post a winning record on the road each of the last nine seasons. The other are college football royalty in Alabama, Georgia and Ohio State. The Broncos are 18-2 in their last 20 Mountain West road games and 39-9 all-time in Mountain West road games.

FLIP THE SCRIPT

Credit James Ferguson-Reynolds for flipping the field this season. The sophomore punter from the Land Down Under ranks first nationally with an average of 49.7 yards per punt. He punted seven times for an average of 52.1 yards per punt in the season-opener against Washington, the second-highest single-game total in program history. 17 of his punts have traveled over 50 yards and 18 have been downed inside the 20-yard line.

MCALISTER RANKS FOURTH

With a stellar 170 receiving yards on only five catches against San Jose State on Oct. 7, Eric McAlister registered an impressive 34.0 yards per catch against the Spartans. That mark ranks fourth in school history for a single game, just behind Lou Fanucchi's 34.8 yards per catch against Northern Iowa on Sept. 9, 2000. It was also the most yards per catch by a Bronco since Thomas Sperbeck averaged 35.6 yards per catch (5-178) at Colorado State on Oct. 10, 2015.

DOUBLE DOUBLE TOIL AND TROUBLE

No, you're not seeing double, but Boise State and offensive coordinator Bush Hamdan are brewing up a spell. The Broncos have shifted two a two-quarterback system in order to maximize the team's offensive output. This system is not new to Boise State as Bart Hendricks and Nate Sparks shared snaps in 1997 and 1998. Then in 2017, Brett Rypien and Montell Cozart tag teamed the QB spot. Nor is this idea new to college football this year, as you'll see the teams employing this system below.

WE HANG BANNERS HERE

The Broncos currently have 14 league titles since 1996, when they joined the Football Bowl Subdivision, tied with Oklahoma for the most in the country during that time. Ohio State (13) and Florida State (11) are the only other schools in the country to win double-digit conference titles during that time. The Broncos have won 35 conference championships all-time, including four in the Mountain West, eight in the WAC, two in the Big West, six in the Big Sky and 15 in the Intermountain Collegiate Athletic Conference (ICAC).

MANE EVENT

The most famous Clydesdales in the world carry Budweiser beer at official Anheiser-Busch events. The second-most famous Clydesdales in the world pave the way for Broncos to carry the ball into the end zone. Known for its big man package dubbed the "Clydesdale" package, Boise State can be seen lining up near the goal line with up to a trio of defensive linemen in the game as Braxton Fely, Michael Callahan and Herbert Gums contribute on both sides of the ball.

SENSATIONAL SPECIALISTS

So far this season, kicker Jonah Dalmas and punter James Ferguson-Reynolds have been superb for the Broncos. Boise State is the only team in the nation to have a kicker that has made a field goal of 49 yards or longer and a punter averaging over 49 yards per punt. Dalmas tied a program record with a 56-yard field goal against UCF while Ferguson-Reynolds leads the country with an average of 49.7 yards per punt. Ferguson-Reynolds has averaged over 50.0 yards per punt in five games this season.

BUCK THIS

Boise State cornerback Markel Reed refused to allow his career be concluded by a knee injury last year. Instead, the redshirt senior has valiantly worked his way back onto the field and, for his efforts, been named to the 2023 Comeback Player of the Year Award Watch List. Hailing from Temple, Texas, Reed one of 49 players to advance to the next stage of the watch list, which began with 100 student-athletes. DALMAS CONNECTS Kicker Jonah Dalmas has established himself as a threat anytime he steps on the field and that was reaffirmed on Sept. 9. The senior from Meridian is practically hitting field goals from Meridian after tying the Boise State school record with a 56-yard field goal made against UCF. That ties for the fourth-longest in the country this year, ties for the second-longest field goal made by a Mountain West kicker this season and ties for the fourth-longest field goal made in MW history.

That also marked the fourth time in his career Dalmas has converted a field goal attempt of 50 yards or longer.

THIS BLUE HELLSCAPE IN BOISE

There's not many places that are tougher environments to play on than the famous blue turf in Boise, otherwise known as This Blue Hellscape in Boise," as coined by the Casper Star-Tribune's Ryan Thornton following Boise State's 32-7 demolishing of Wyoming on Oct. 28, 2023. Entering this week's contest, the Broncos have an .892 winning percentage on The Blue (133-16) since 2000. That marks the third-best home winning percentage of any team in the nation, trailing only Oklahoma (.910, 132-13) and Ohio State (.897, 139-16).

DON'T CALL IT A COMEBACK

Or do. Call it whatever you want except you can't call it a loss. Despite trailing 27-7 to San Jose State on Oct. 7 at Albertsons Stadium, the Broncos played the full 60 to rally for a 35-27 win over the Spartans. That matched the second-largest come-from-behind win in the program's FBS era (since 1996).

NO SURPRISE HERE

Boise State is the preseason favorite to win the Mountain West in 2023, marking the 16th straight season that the Broncos have been picked to claim either a conference or division crown, including every year since joining the MW in 2011. The Broncos earned 28 of 37 first-place votes to top the preseason poll with 433 points.

A RARE OCCURRENCE

On Sept. 9 at Albertsons Stadium, a sellout crowd witnessed something that had only happened twice before in NCAA history. The Boise State vs. UCF game was only the third time in the 154-year history of NCAA Football that opposing kickers hit field goals of 55-plus yards in the same game. It previously happened on Oct. 15, 1977 in the Texas vs. Arkansas game held in Fayetteville and then was repeated in the Arizona vs. Washington State game on Oct. 28, 2017 in Tucson.

WINNING WAYS

If you've read to this point, perhaps you're seeing a trend. Boise State knows a thing or two about football. In fact, the Broncos currently rank sixth in the nation in all-time winning percentage at the FBS level with a .725 mark. Wake up the Echoes because that is just one percentage point behind Oklahoma (.726), five percentage points behind Notre Dame (.730) and seven points behind the alleged Champions of the West, Michigan (.732). Ohio State (.734) has the best all-time winning percentage while Alabama is close behind at .733.

BLUE IS AN INTERNATIONAL COLOR

It has to be, considering the Broncos have four players on its roster that have come from overseas in order to play football at Boise State. So yes, it's more than just lip service when we proclaim that student-athletes come from far and wide to play on The Blue. BSU's roster features the following players with international roots: James Ferguson-Reynolds (Geelong, Australia), Ahmed Hassanein (Cairo, Egypt), Prince Strahan (Freeport, Grand Bahama) and Max Stege (Cologne, Germany).

BLOCK LIKE AN EGYPTIAN

Known for setting records, Boise State has achieved another first. Defensive lineman Ahmed Hassanein, who was raised in Cairo, Egypt, is the first player from Egypt to ever play Division I football. Even more remarkable, he did not even speak English until five years ago. Anyone who speaks to the bilingual Hassanein would be surprised to learn that fact as he is nearly fluent in English.

But how rare is that recruiting area? In all of Division I sports (not just football), there were only 53 Egyptians participating in intercollegiate athletics during the 2021-22 academic calendar year (the last year of data publicly available).

SAY WHAT?

If Boise State opponents think a little noise is going to throw off the Broncos defensive line, they might want to rethink that strategy. The unit led by Erik Chinander has learned to communicate regardless of the decibel level and that was the easy part. Across the line, Chinander's unit speaks a total of eight different languages including: English, Arabic, German, Spanish, French, Samoan, Greek and ASL. Each game, the unit affectionately named the "United Nations" looks to unite themselves with opposing quarterbacks. Ready, Set, Hutt! jahizi, jahizi, hut! Auf die Plätze, fertig, Hutt! Listo, listo, Hutt! À vos marques, prêts, Hutt! Sauni, Seti, Hutt! Έτοιμος, Σετ, Χατ!

THE MAGIC NUMBER IS 140

Boise State is 16-4 under Andy Avalos when rushing for 140 yards or more, including 7-1 last season (the only loss was to Fresno State in the Mountain West Championship Game).

YOU CAN'T STOP THIS STAMPEDE

Boise State has produced one of the most prolific and powerful offenses since 2000, a fact that should not surprise anyone. Since the turn of the century, the Broncos have averaged 37.191 points per game, a mark that ranks third in the nation behind only Oklahoma (38.789) and Oregon (37.503). See the top 10 list on Page 9.

PUTTING OUR HOOF DOWN

Thou shall not enter. That's what opposing defenses should know as they approach the Boise State offensive line. Entering this week's action, Boise State ranks 11th in the country in fewest sacks allowed with an average of just 1.00 per game, tied for the second-best mark the Broncos have registered since 2012. It matches last season's mark of 1.00 sacks allowed per game while the 2012 Broncos allowed only 0.77 sacks per game.

NOT EXACTLY THREE-AND-OUT

Last season Boise State won four consecutive games from Sept. 30 to Oct. 29 to extend one of the nation's longest streaks. The Broncos have won at least three straight games now for 24 consecutive seasons. Only Georgia has a longer active streak, putting together a streak for 25 consecutive years.

AMONG THE LEAGUE'S LEADERS

With four players hailing from overseas that have come to play football at Boise State, the Broncos rank tied for second in the Mountain West Conference with the most international players on their roster. Hawai'i (6 or 13) leads the way while Colorado State and New Mexico also have four each. No, we didn't forget how to read a globe. The difference of opinion in Hawai'i's number is because the Warriors have seven players on their roster from American Samoa which is actually a U.S. Territory and not an independent nation. Mrs. Morris in Ninth Grade World Civ would be proud we actually did pay attention in class.

SACK IT TO ME

Since 2010, Boise State's defensive line has maintained a close and personal relationship with opposing quarterbacks. During that span, the Broncos have registered 456 sacks, a mark that ranks eighth in the FBS and the highest of any Group of 5 program by 21 sacks as Marshall has tallied 435 in that time span.

DOLLAR DALMAS

Why should we call Jonah Dalmas by the nickname "Dollar"? Because he's money scoring one after touchdowns. Dalmas enters this game with 142 career points after touchdown, a mark that ranks fifth in school history. The school record for career PATs is Kyle Brotzman who successfully converted 238 PATs during his career form 2007-10.

More than that, the 142 points scored after touchdown ranks Dalmas ninth in the FBS among the active career leaders.

AND I GUESS THAT'S WHY THEY CALL IT THE BLUE(S)

Under Andy Avalos, Boise State opponents have reached the red zone 96 times. Over half the time, those possessions have resulted in three points or the opponent coming up empty. The Broncos' defense has allowed 77 scores, 47 of which were touchdowns. To put another way, in the red zone, Bronco opponents kicked 30 field goals and failed to score 19 times – three or zero on 49 of 96 trips inside the Boise State 20-yard line (51% of the time). Last season, Boise State gave up 12 field goals and 16 touchdowns on 35 opponent possessions inside the 20-yard line.

NONE FOR US, THANK YOU

Boise State enters this week's contest with a Mountain West-leading 333 games played without being shut out. More than just leading the next best MW team by 190 games, the Broncos record of consecutive games scoring ranks eighth in the nation while ranking sixth nationally among active streaks.

TWO-FOUR GOING FOR THREE

Redshirt senior George Holani has bookended his career with 1,000-yard rushing seasons, recording 1,014 yards on the ground during his freshman season in 2019 and then grinding out 1,157 yards last season. Entering the 2023 campaign, Holani is looking to hit four figures on the ground this year to become the first Bronco to do so in back-to-back seasons since current Minnesota Viking Alexander Mattison achieved the feat on The Blue in 2017-18.

HE'S NOT THE ONLY ONE

George Holani posted six performances last season where he recorded 100 yards or more on the ground, including a season-high 157 yards against Fresno State on Oct. 8, 2022. That gives the redshirt senior 12 performances of 100-plus yards on the ground in his career entering the 2023 season.

HE SCORES OTHER WAYS TOO

Don't think that Jonah Dalmas has it easy though. He is also just as successful at kicking field goals. Going into this week's game, Dalmas has 66 field goals and needs only one more field goal to tie Kyle Brotzman for the school record of 67 field goals in a career. His 66 career field goals ranks Dalmas fourth in FBS among the active career leaders in field goals made.

OUR SPECIAL TEAMS ARE SPECIAL

PUNT RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN

Boise State is one of only three schools nationally (San Diego State and Kansas State) to have a punt return for a touchdown in each of the last six seasons. The Broncos extended their streak last year with a blocked a punt for a score against New Mexico when Andrew Simpson broke through the Lobos' line and Deven Wright recovered in the end zone.

BOISE BLOCKS

Last season Kaonohi Kaniho blocked a field goal at Nevada on Nov. 12. That block gave the Broncos multiple blocked kicks in five consecutive seasons, the longest active streak in the nation. Kaniho repeated that feat this season on Oct. 14, blocking a field goal attempt at Colorado State to extend Boise State's streak to 25 consecutive years blocking a kick.

BOISE BLOCKS - PART II, ELECTRIC BOOGALOO

In 2021, the Broncos tied for 10th nationally with four blocked kicks. Last season Boise State stopped two kicks to rank 36th nationally. That extended another streak as Boise State has blocked a punt in eight consecutive seasons entering the 2023 campaign.

CHAMPIONSHIP COORDINATES

Trying to find your way to the conference championship trophy? Adventurers everywhere need only plug in the coordinates 43.6028° N, 116.1959° W. Those coordinates will lead you to none other than Albertsons Stadium in Boise.

That's not just wishful thinking, either. The Broncos currently have 14 league titles since 1996, when they joined the Football Bowl Subdivision, tied with Oklahoma for the most in the country during that time. Ohio State (13) and Florida State (11) are the only other schools in the country to win double-digit conference titles during that time.

The Broncos have won 20 conference championships all-time, including four in the Mountain West, eight in the WAC, two in the Big West and six in the Big Sky.

RANKINGS INFO

Boise State entered the 2023 season receiving votes in both the AP and Coaches Poll.

The Broncos have finished the year ranked after opening the season unranked eight times - 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2014, 2017 and 2019. In two of those seasons, 2006 and 2014, the Broncos capped the year with a victory in the Fiesta Bowl.

A BRONCO LEADS THE BRONCOS

Boise State is in its third season with Andy Avalos at the helm of the program. As a Bronco student-athlete, Avalos was a four-year letterwinner, served as team captain, earned a pair of first-team all-conference accolades at linebacker and was a member of the All-Blue Team – a selection of the 30 greatest players in school history, as voted on by the Bronco fan base, in the 30th anniversary season of the world-famous turf. Avalos initially returned to The Blue in a coaching capacity in 2012 as defensive line coach, took over as linebackers coach in 2014 and was then promoted to defensive coordinator in 2016. After three seasons leading the Bronco defense, Avalos left for Oregon, where the Ducks captured a Rose Bowl victory in his first season and earned a spot in the Fiesta Bowl in his second.

DRIP DEFINED

We're so blue collar that our blue collars say "BLUE COLLAR".

Boise State unveiled a new look for the 2017 season, the first time the Broncos had overhauled their Nike uniforms since 2011.

Included in the new slate were blue, orange and white, and the jerseys featured new stripes on the sleeves and "Blue Collar" on the inside ofthe neck. The Broncos added a black set of uniforms that were unveiled against Air Force, Sept. 20, 2019.

The uniforms are from the Nike Vapor Untouchable line, with stretch woven material, a seamless front and shoulders and laser perforation fabric instead of mesh. The uniforms combine materials and science designed for speed and comfort for the players, based on four core principles – fit, durability, weight and core body temperature.

BRONCPROS

There are currently 12 Broncos on National Football League rosters, and eight teams had at least one former member of the Boise State football team on their roster. At least one Bronco has been selected in the NFL Draft in each of the last 14 seasons, and 31 players have been drafted during that time - including nine in the first two rounds.

THE HAMMER

Boise State selects one player to lead the team onto the field with The Dan Paul Hammer each game. The Hammer was renamed prior to the Hawai'i game, Oct. 12, 2019. Dan Paul, a former fullback from 2009-12, passed away in July of 2019, and symbolized the blue collar culture of the Boise State football team. Traditionally, the honor has gone to the individual that made the best special teams play the week prior. However, the offensive line has been selected in the past, and the entire team entered the field with The Hammer in the MW Championship Games from 2017-20.

HEAD COACH ANDY AVALOS

Andy Avalos is in his third season as the head football coach at Boise State. He is a former Bronco student-athlete, assistant coach and defensive coordinator.

His second year at the helm of the Broncos witnessed a perfect record in conference play with eight consecutive Mountain West wins to host the MW Championship Game and a Frisco Bowl Championship. That marked the 25th-consecutive season the Broncos have been bowl eligible courtesy of a squad that ranked sixth nationally in total defense (292.5 ypg). Boise State ranked 14th in the country with 15 interceptions on the year, a number that led the Mountain West.

In 2021 - Avalos' first season - Boise State was bowl eligible (7-5) for a 24th-straight season while being ranked 12th nationally in points allowed (19.0 per game) and 17th in turnover margin (+0.67).

Avalos, a team captain and all-conference linebacker during his playing career (2000-04) under head coaches Dirk Koetter and Dan Hawkins, is just the second graduate of Boise State to lead the Broncos' football program (Bryan Harsin). He previously coached at Boise State from 2012-18 under head coaches Chris Petersen and Harsin, ascending to defensive coordinator for the 2016-18 seasons before accepting the same role at Oregon for the 2018-19 seasons under then-head coach Mario Cristobal.

In addition to coaching stops at Boise State (2012-18) and Oregon (2019-20), Avalos also spent time working under Hawkins at Colorado (2006-08), and also at Sacramento State (2011) and at Nebraska-Kearney (2009-10).

The Broncos achieved bowl-eligible status for the 24th-consecutive season in Avalos's head coaching debut, ultimately receiving an invitation to the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Boise State's 24-straight seasons of bowl eligibility is the third-longest streak in the country, trailing only Ohio State (33) and Georgia (25). The Broncos also picked up a pair of road wins over top-25 teams for the first time in school history, and defeated five bowl-eligible teams, tied for the 14th-most in the country during the 2021 regular season.

The Broncos' 13 selections to All-Mountain West Teams were the most among Mountain Division schools in 2021, including first-team honorees Jonah Dalmas (K), John Ojukwu (OL) and Khalil Shakir (WR). Additionally, five student-athletes were named to the NCAA Division I CoSIDA Academic All-District First Team, the most among all schools in District 7, which encompasses Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

Shakir and fellow team captain, Kekaula Kaniho, received invitations to the Reese's Senior Bowl and the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl, respectively, slated to take place following the conclusion of the season.

During his five seasons as a defensive coordinator, Avalos established himself as one of college football's premier coordinators. He was named a semifinalist for the Broyles Award, which honors college football's top assistant coach, during his first season at Oregon in 2019.

The Ducks won Pac-12 championships each season with Avalos in charge of the defense, adding to three Mountain West Championships the Broncos captured with Avalos on staff (2012, 2014 and 2017) and two Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference championships while at Nebraska-Kearney (2009-10). As a student-athlete, Avalos won three Western Athletic Conference championships (2002, 2003, 2004) in his four years as a starting linebacker.

In Avalos' two seasons at Oregon, the Ducks earned a victory in the 2020 Rose Bowl and played in the 2021 Fiesta Bowl, a game the Broncos also appeared in during the 2014 season, defeating Arizona (38-30) for Boise State's third victory in the game. With Avalos on staff, Boise State also appeared in the Las Vegas Bowl (2012 and 2017), the Hawai'i Bowl (2013), the Poinsettia Bowl (2015) and the Cactus Bowl (2016), and was selected to play in the First Responder Bowl (2018). While Avalos was playing for the Broncos, Boise State appeared in the 2002 Humanitarian Bowl, the 2003 Fort Worth Bowl and the 2004 Liberty Bowl, a game in which he returned an interception 92 yards for a touchdown.

Avalos has overseen the development of 50 student-athletes that have garnered all-conference honors, and multiple All-Americans, of whom several will be familiar to Bronco Nation - DeMarcus Lawrence, Curtis Weaver and Leighton Vander Esch. Ducks defensive end Kayvon Thibodeaux picked up All-America accolades this past season, in addition to being one of four student-athletes to earn Freshman All-America honors in Avalos' two seasons with Oregon (linebacker Noah Seweill in 2020, and Thibodeaux, defensive back Verone McKinley III and linebacker Mase Funa in 2019). Thibodeaux and Sewell were named Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons (2019-20).

Vander Esch was named MW Defensive Player of the Year for the Broncos in 2017 before declaring early for the National Football League Draft and ultimately being selected in the first round by the Dallas Cowboys. Lawrence and Weaver also opted to forego their final seasons of eligibility with the Broncos, being selected in the second and fifth rounds, respectively.

Oregon led the Pac-12 in sacks over the course of his two seasons as coordinator, and ranked third in the conference in both rush defense and total defense. Oregon finished the 2019 season ninth in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 16.5 points per game. The Ducks ranked 13th nationally in rushing defense (108.93 yards per game) and 22nd in total defense (329.1 YPG). Avalos' defense disrupted opposing offenses, finishing second in the country in interceptions (20), sixth in passes defended (76), 13th in sacks (41.0) and 21st in tackles-for-loss (97.0).

Prior to joining the Oregon staff, Avalos spent seven seasons coaching at Boise State, including the final three as defensive coordinator. During his time as coordinator the Broncos led the MW in sacks, ranked second in rush defense and third in total defense. While at his alma mater he also served as defensive line coach (2012-13) and linebackers coach (2014-15).

Avalos started his coaching career in his hometown of Corona, Calif., where he coached linebackers at Corona High School. He then spent three seasons as a graduate assistant at Colorado before coaching two seasons at Nebraska-Kearney and one at Sacramento State.

A four-year letterwinner for the Broncos, Avalos earned first-team All-WAC honors at outside linebacker in each of his final two seasons. He completed his career ranked fourth all-time with 355 tackles, and led the Broncos in the statistical category in each of his final three seasons. He was named to the All-Blue Team during the 2016 season, a list of the 30 greatest players at Boise State since the inception of The Blue in 1986.

Avalos and his wife Summer had their first child, a daughter named Paityn, Jan. 31, 2014, and added a second daughter, Paige, April 12, 2016.

SEATTLE, Wash. - Boise State head coach Andy Avalos wanted a fast start from his team to start the season and they delivered. Unfortunately it wasn't sustained when No. 10/11 Washington responded in the second quarter as the Huskies claimed a 56-19 win Saturday afternoon at Husky Stadium.

The visiting Broncos (0-1) struck first and held a 6-0 lead at the end of the first quarter thanks to Ashton Jeanty's seven-yard run that capped an explosive 10-play, 90-yard drive. The sophomore tailback finished the game with 153 total yards thanks to a career-best 109 receiving yard performance.

After the Huskies responded with a touchdown, Jonah Dalmas connected on a 39-yard field goal to retake the lead. Washington responded with an explosive second quarter, scoring 21 unanswered points. Dalmas hit a 34-yard field goal to cut the lead to 28-12 at the break.

Jeanty continued his stellar day in the third quarter, catching a career-long 50-yard touchdown pass from Taylen Green to cut the score to 28-19. But the 10th-ranked Huskies (1-0) scored 28 unanswered points to pull away in the third and fourth quarters.

BOISE, Idaho - UCF's Colton Boomer hit a 40-yard field goal as time expired to defeat Boise State 18-16, Saturday at Albertsons Stadium.

Boomer opened the scoring with a 50-yard field goal midway through the first quarter for the Knights (2-0), but Boise State countered with a five-play, 72-yard drive, capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Taylen Green to Ashton Jeanty.

UCF converted on a 33-yard field goal attempt from Boomer in the second quarter to trim the Broncos' (0-2) lead to one, but Boise State kicker Jonah Dalmas booted a 56-yard field goal to extend the lead to 10-6. The Knights responded a minute later with a 55-yard field goal to cut the lead to one as the two teams entered the locker room.

The scoring halted until 7:55 remained in regulation, when UCF running back RJ Harvey ran for a five-yard touchdown to give the Knights a 15-10 lead. UCF's two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful, as Harvey was stopped in the back field.

The Broncos responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive, capped with a 28-yard touchdown pass from backup quarterback Maddux Madsen to Stefan Cobbs to give Boise State a 16-15 lead with 1:49 remaining. UCF then drove 58 yards to set up the Knights' game-winning field goal.

BOISE, Idaho - Boise State's defense registered six sacks, forced two turnovers and held North Dakota to 183 yards and the Broncos won for the first time this season with a 42-18 victory over the Fighting Hawks, Saturday morning at Albertsons Stadium.

Offensively, Eric McAlister caught six passes for a career-high 143 yards and a pair of scores while Ashton Jeanty added three touchdowns on the ground.

On Boise State's second drive of the day, Taylen Green escaped the pocket to run for an 8-yard touchdown. North Dakota (2-1) responded on the first play of the second quarter with a 1-yard rushing touchdown by tight end Quincy Vaughn, who took a direct snap. The PAT was missed and the Broncos (1-2) led 7-6.

Ashton Jeanty continued the trend of short-yardage rushing scores, punching it in from two yards out to cap an 11-play, 85-yard drive. After Marco Notarainni's sack and forced fumble was recovered by Andrew Simpson, Jeanty barreled in for a 1-yard touchdown to give Boise State a 21-6 lead at the half.

The Broncos struck first in the third quarter, as Green hit McAlister in stride for a 28-yard touchdown. The Fighting Hawks responded with a pair of touchdowns off Bronco turnovers. Both times, the 2-point conversion failed and Boise State led 28-18 with 4:26 left in the third quarter.

Boise State put the game away on Jeanty's 1-yard scoring plunge with 10:48 to play and capped the scoring on a 27-yard pass from Maddux Madsen to McAlister with 3:43 remaining.

SAN DIEGO - Boise State sophomore running back Ashton Jeanty rushed for a career-high 205 yards and scored two touchdowns as Boise State defeated San Diego State, 34-31, at Snapdragon Stadium Friday.

The Broncos (2-2, 1-0 Mountain West) overcame a slow offensive performance after generating only 26 yards in the opening quarter. After allowing an early score on the second Aztec drive, Boise State evened the score early in the second quarter on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Taylen Green to Eric McAlister.

The Aztecs (2-3, 0-1) responded with a field goal two minutes later to take a 10-7 lead, but Jeanty exploded for a 58-yard rushing touchdown on the next possession to give the Broncos a 14-10 lead. San Diego State responded with a touchdown of its own, but Dalmas hit a 29-yard field goal to even the score as the two teams entered the locker room tied at 17.

Dalmas started the scoring in the second half with a 27-yard field goal to give the Blue and Orange a 20-17 lead. The Boise State defense notched its second turnover of the game on the ensuing drive when Ahmed Hassanein, allowing Jayden Virgin to recover. The turnover set up a short field, resulting in a 10-yard rushing touchdown from Green as the Broncos extended their lead to double digits.

San Diego State's Jaylon Armstead scored a 10-yard rushing touchdown early in the fourth quarter to bring the Aztecs within three points, but Jeanty scored his second touchdown of the day with 2:02 remaining to give the Broncos a two-possession lead. An Aztec touchdown with 42 seconds left wasn't enough as Boise State opened conference play with a win.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Ashton Jeanty found the end zone four times on Saturday, but Boise State wasn't able to capitalize falling to Memphis 35-32, Saturday.

The Broncos (2-3, 1-0 MW) got on the board first midway through the first quarter on a 19-yard field goal from Jonah Dalmas. Boise State added more in the second quarter, scoring on a four play, 82-yard drive capped off with an eight-yard touchdown run from Jeanty. Matt Lauter had the big play of the drive, catching a career-long 59-yard pass on a second and five to set up Jeanty's scoring play.

Jeanty scored his second rushing touchdown of the day, pushing the Boise State lead to 17 with just over six minutes left in the half. But with five minutes remaining in the half, the Tigers (4-1, 1-0 AAC) drove 75 yards in four plays, scoring a touchdown to get on the scoreboard. After a Bronco three-and-out, Memphis scored another touchdown right before the half to cut the lead to three.

The Tigers made a key play late in the third quarter, blocking a Dalmas field goal attempt and returning it 80 yards to take their first lead of the game. Memphis later expanded its lead to 11 with 11:16 remaining in the final quarter, scoring on a 59-yard touchdown pass.

Maddux Madsen led the Broncos on a five play, 80-yard drive with 8:54 remaining in the fourth quarter, finding Jeanty for a 15-yard touchdown reception and converting a two-point conversion to cut the Memphis lead to three. The Tigers sealed the game with a 13-play, 75-yard drive capped by a 1-yard touchdown from Blake Watson. A late Jeanty touchdown, his fourth of the game, wasn't enough to take the win.

BOISE, Idaho - Never count these Broncos out. Boise State rallied back from a 20-point deficit to stun San Jose State in front of a raucous crowd of 37,491 at Albertsons Stadium Saturday evening.

The Broncos (3-3, 2-0 Mountain West) trailed 27-7 before Maddux Madsen scored on an eight-yard designed run with 42 seconds in the first half as San Jose State (1-5, 0-2) took a two-score lead into halftime. It would not last long.

Boise State came out of the gate following intermission, holding the Spartans scoreless and limiting the visitors to a meager 110 yards over the final 30 minutes. The team that came out of the South end zone locker room had the same blue helmets and black jerseys on, but they brought a completely different energy to the game. It started slow as Taylen Green – one side of the two-headed quarterback monster deployed by Boise State Saturday – ran for a touchdown on a one-yard run with 5:34 remaining in the third quarter. Green would follow that up with an 11-yard run less than a minute into the fourth quarter to tie the game before Jonah Dalmas hit the fourth of his five points after touchdown to give Boise State its first lead of the game.

After San Jose State scored on five consecutive possessions in the first half, the script was flipped in the second half. Twice the Spartans were stopped on downs while two punts and a critical interception by A'Marion McCoy stymied the previously successful Spartan offense.

Riley Smith, one of two team captains for the Broncos, put the cherry on top with a two-yard touchdown catch with 3:30 left in the game to give Boise State a 35-27 lead. That score preceded McCoy's interception and the second fourth down stop by the Bronco defense, which only left the victory formation standing between Boise State and yet another home win.

Eric McAlister initially got Boise State on the scoreboard in the second quarter with an 83-yard touchdown pass from Maddux Madsen. The Spartans responded with 10-straight points for the 27-7 lead. Although he did not score, Ashton Jeanty ran for an impressive 167 yards on 24 carries and registered 16 receiving yards on a pair of catches. His final tally put him in rare company as he became just the third player in the FBS since 1996 to record over 1,000 yards from scrimmage in the first six games of the season, matching Tyrell Sutton (Northwestern) and Michael Crabtree (Texas Tech). No Mountain West player has ever achieved such a feat.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Colorado State's Dallin Holker's 33-yard tipped touchdown reception as time expired lifted the Rams to a 31-30, come-from-behind victory over Boise State at Canvas Stadium in Fort Collins, Colo., Saturday.

The Rams (3-3, 1-1 Mountain West) scored three touchdowns in the final 4:01 of regulation to take down the Broncos (3-4, 2-1 Mountain West).

The first half was dominated by the Boise State defense and Ashton Jeanty. The Broncos did not allow a Colorado State first down for nearly 20 minutes, limiting the Rams to 71 total yards in the half. Meanwhile, Jeanty gashed CSU for 167 rushing yards, scoring a pair of three-yard touchdowns on the ground. His touchdowns capped drives of 68 and 80 yards.

Late in the second quarter, Jonah Dalmas kicked a 49-yard field goal to extend Boise State's lead to 17 at the break. The Rams drove the field and had an opportunity to score with a 45-yard field goal, but Kaonohi Kaniho flew off the edge to block the kick.

The Rams scored the first 10 points of the second half to cut the lead to seven, but a pair of Dalmas field goals stretched the league back to 13. An Andrew Simpson interception set up Jeanty's third touchdown of the night to give Boise State a 30-10 lead with 6:12 remaining.

Colorado State responded quickly, scoring on a six-play, 75-yard drive with 4:01 left on the clock. After recovering an onside kick, the Rams scored another touchdown to cut the lead to six with 1:53 showing on the scoreboard.

The Broncos recovered a second Colorado State onside kick, but was forced to punt. With 33 seconds remaining, the Rams drove 88 yards in five plays to capture the comeback victory.

BOISE, Idaho -Boise State's defense showed up in a big way Saturday afternoon in front of 35,189 fans at Albertsons Stadium as the Broncos limited Wyoming to a season-low 112 yards en route to a 32-7 dismantling of the Cowboys.

The Broncos (4-4, 3-1 Mountain West) ran for 227 yards and threw for another 216 while Wyoming (5-3, 2-2) was held to just 27 rushing yards as part of a 112-yard total offensive performance, the lowest in the 18-game series between the two programs.

"There's nothing more rewarding for guys to go all in and do more, and then have the type of success they had tonight," Boise State head coach Andy Avalos said of his team's defensive effort. "I've coached defense here at Boise State for a while now and those are probably some of the more impressive numbers we've ever had in a single game."

Wyoming's only score of the game came late in the first quarter when the Cowboys took advantage of a muffed punt to start their drive in the Boise State red zone, scoring on a 19-yard pass on the next play. That would be Wyoming's only trip to the red zone throughout the entire game.

"We just got our butts kicked," Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl said.

Outside of that singular moment, the Boise State defense dominated throughout, holding Wyoming to 1 of 11 on third down conversions and registering seven tackles for a loss including two sacks.

"Honestly, don't know (what happened)," Wyoming defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole said. "(We) just kind of got beat in every phase of the game. That's really all I've got. We just lost everywhere."

Meanwhile, the two-headed monster that has become the Bronco offense surpassed 30 points for the sixth consecutive game, a first for the program since a period spanning the 2015 and 2016 seasons. Eric McAlister caught seven passes for 160 yards including a 49-yard haul from Taylen Green for the first score of the game. Matt Lauter would catch a pass from Colt Fulton on the ensuing two-point conversion to put the Broncos up, 8-0.

Jambres Dubar scored his first career touchdown late in the first half on a two-yard run up the middle and Green found the end zone early in the third quarter with a nine-yard run. Prince Strachan's six-yard touchdown catch from Maddux Madsen was a career first for the receiver to put Boise State up 29-7 before Jonah Dalmas connected on a 48-yard field goal for the cherry on top in the 32-7 final.

Outside of their one-play touchdown drive, the Cowboys averaged only 7.5 yards gained per drive and ended up punting a season-high nine times.

Andrew Simpson led the defensive effort for Boise State with six total tackles, with three tackles for a loss of 15 yards. That included one sack for a loss of eight yards while getting credited with a QB hurry. Simpson was one of six Broncos to register a tackle behind Wyoming's line of scrimmage.
