

BROWN WOMEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT AWARD WINNERS

Arlene Gorton '52 Cup

Presented to the female varsity athlete who most consistently displays the ideals of sportsmanship and fair play. It is named in honor of former Brown Associate Director of Athletics Arlene Gorton '52 in honor of her role in developing women's intercollegiate athletics at Brown.

1982: Pam Heggie '82
1986: Katie King '86
1993: Tracy Cisek '94
1999: Tania Belisle Leclerc '99
2002: Dawn Chuck '02

Bessie H. Rudd Award

Presented to the female varsity athlete who displays enthusiasm, spirit and leadership and is devoted to the quality of life at Brown and the surrounding community throughout the year. The award is named in honor of the former Director of Physical Education at Pembroke College (1930-1961), Bessie H. Rudd, in recognition of her leadership in the development of quality athletic programs for all women.

2000: Stephanie Hughes '00
2015: Maggie Jordan '16

Kate Silver '86 Award

Presented in memory of Kate Silver '86 to the outstanding first-year female athlete.

1986: Karen Dieffenthaler '90
1987: Darci Lamphere '90
1996: Megan Reha '99
1998: Jenn Lears '01

Marjorie Brown Smith Award

Presented to the most outstanding female varsity athlete of the year. It is named in honor of the former Director of Athletics at the Women's College of Brown University (1920-1926), Marjorie Brown Smith, in recognition of her generous support of athletics at Brown through the years.

1982: Elaine Palmer '84
1984: Elaine Palmer '84
1990: Jennifer Boyd '90
2003: Liz Daniels '04
2010: Bridget Ballard '10

Director's Award

Presented to one male and one female senior varsity athlete who have best represented Brown over his or her career by embodying excellence in scholarship, athletic performance, integrity, leadership and community outreach.

Senior Speakers

The Senior Class Speakers are representatives of the graduating senior class who have been selected to convey a special message about the student-athlete experience. These individuals have competed at the highest level on the playing field and in the classroom, and have demonstrated superior community service.