CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

BROWN IN THE FIRST ROSE BOWL GAME

Since the late 1940s, Rose Bowl participants have been representatives of the Pacific-10 (and later Pac-12) and Big Ten Conferences. It has not always been so, however. It was under head coach Edward North Robinson, class of 1896, that Brown's 1915 squad journeyed westward to play in the first annual Tournament of Roses game in Pasadena, California.

The Bruins were chosen as the Eastern representatives after posting a 5-3-1 mark. Those losses came via a 7-0 setback to Amherst and a 6-0 loss to Syracuse, a 16-7 loss to Harvard and a scoreless game with Trinity. Brown outscored its opponents 167-32 that year, defeating URI, 38-0; Williams, 33-0; Vermont, 46-0; Yale, 3-0; and much heralded Carlisle, 39-3.

In that inaugural game, played January 1, 1916, Brown, with its brilliant Fritz Pollard, was opposed by the powerful team of Washington State. It was a muddy day, and Pollard was unable to cut loose as he had been accustomed to do on Eastern gridirons. WSU won 14-0, but Brown will always hold the distinction of having been the first Eastern team to play in the Rose Bowl.

Brown's Starting Line-Up: John C. Butler, le; Ramond B. War, lt; Edgar J. "Spike" Staff, lg; W. Kenneth Sprague, c; William Wallace Wade, rg; Mark Farnum, rt; Josh Weeks, re; Clair Purdy, qb; Frederick "Fritz" Pollard, lhb; Camp. Harold P. "Buzz" Andrews, rhb; Harold G. Saxton, fb.

The 1915 Brown football team played in the inaugural Tournament of Roses game, now known as The Rose Bowl Game.

THE 1926 IRON MEN OF BROWN

The only undefeated team in Brown history, the 1926 team earned even greater fame as the "Iron Men," so called because the starting 11 played 60 minutes without substitution on consecutive weeks against Yale and Dartmouth, and well into the fourth quarter against Harvard two weeks later. They lost their chance for an undefeated-untied season in the last game when Colgate earned a 10-10 deadlock. The team was ranked among the top nationally. Its members were Captain Hal Broda and Thurston Towle, ends; Ed Kevorkian and Paul Hodge, tackles; Lou Farber and Orland Smith, guards; Charles Consodine, center; Red Randall, quarterback; Dave Mishel and Ed Lawrence, halfbacks; and Al Comsweet, fullback.

1976: BROWN FOOTBALL'S FIRST IVY LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

For 50 Years, Brown fans heralded the Iron Men of 1926. But in 1976, there was another celebration as Brown won a share of the Ivy League title (with Yale) for the first time ever. A 28-17 victory over Columbia on the final day of the season clinched the title for the Bruins. Only a 7-6 loss to Penn stood in the way of a perfect season.

Ranked throughout the season as one of the top defensive teams in the nation, Brown's defensive unit was a major factor in early wins over Yale, Rhode Island and Princeton. Linebacker Scott Nelson led the defensive unit with a season high 93 tackles as Brown held its opponents to 102 points for the season.

Coach John Anderson's offense came on strong and sparked Brown to an 8-1 overall record and a 6-1 Ivy League slate. The offense broke eight Brown team season marks with quarterback Paul Michelko setting two game records and split end Bob Farnham surpassing two career highs.

1999: BROWN'S SECOND IVY LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

As the clock ticked down on Brown's 1999 football season a group of Brown players doused head football coach Phil Estes with a bucket of Gatorade, signaling that the game was over and Brown had captured the Ivy League Football Championship with a 23-6 victory over Columbia. Brown's Ivy title was its second ever, having captured the championships in 1976.

The victory capped a magical season that saw Brown post a 9-1 overall record, the most wins since the 1926 Iron Men (9-0-1). The Bears finished the season with a seven-game winning streak, capturing 15 of their last 16 games over two years. Brown shared the Ivy title with Yale, a last-second winner over Harvard, with 6-1 Ivy League records. Brown, which finished its season ranked 25th in the nation, defeated Yale 25-24 on the opening day of the season.

Brown's Class of 2000 ended its career as the most successful class of the last century, compiling a four-year 28-12 record, besting the 27 wins for Brown teams from 1976-1979.

It also marked the end of the career of senior quarterback James Perry, who finished his career as the finest passer in Ivy League football history, walking away with 10 Ivy League passing records and 18 Brown football records.

The end of the game set off a wild celebration, with the partisan Brown crowd storming the field, tearing down the goal posts on the Elmgrove Avenue end of the field. The goal posts' uprights would later be seen making their way down Tabor Avenue and onto the Brown Campus.

2005: BROWN'S FIRST OUTRIGHT IVY LEAGUE TITLE

In the spring of 2005, Bears head coach Phil Estes passed out a small card to all of his players with the words "Win It Outright" on one side and Brown's 2005 schedule on the other. He told his team to keep the card close and never forget the team's goal of an outright Ivy title.

Call it a premonition. Call it confidence. Whatever you call it, Estes' choice of a theme, "Win It Outright," made him a prophet of great things to come for the Brown football team.

The Bears hit a bump in the road in their first Ivy game against Harvard, outplaying the Crimson for over 59 minutes before falling in double overtime, 38-55, in Cambridge. Estes forcefully told the team after the game that the season wasn't over and that there was a lot of football to be played. Brown's dreams could come through if the team could stick together. What happened in Brown's last eight games would determine its fate. But the Bears needed a little help along the way.

Brown reeled off consecutive Ivy wins over Princeton at home, at Cornell, Penn at Brown Stadium, and at Yale, before clinching a share of the Ivy Championship with a victory over Dartmouth in Providence to go a game up in the Ivy standings.

Needing a win over Columbia for its first outright Ivy title, the Bears dominated the Lions in New York City for a 52-21 victory. All 19 Brown seniors--Noori Abdul-Ghani, Efen Blackledge, Carson Brennan, Greg Burlin, Rashad Collins, Mickey Cooper, Time Cotter, Pat Curran, James Frazier, Jamie Gasparella, Gene Hamlin, Nick Hartigan, Matt Hostetler, Alex Jury, John Kazanovicz, Jarrett Schreck, Steven Storrs, Max Tomatore, and David Turner--started the game for the Bears.

In the game's waning moments, the coaches were doused in Gatorade, and the Brown faithful stormed the field in a wild celebration at game's end. The presentation of the Ivy trophy took place at the center of the field in front of a national television audience on the YES Network. Family, friends, alumni and fans joined the Brown team in celebrating the title. It seemed as though everyone in attendance had a photo taken with the Ivy trophy, forever preserving a piece of history--the outright Ivy title.

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

2008: BROWN'S FOURTH IVY TITLE; THIRD IN 10 YEARS

The Brown Class of 2009 came into the 2008 season looking to become the first class in Brown football history to earn two Ivy League Championships. But the talented upperclassmen had never beaten Harvard and knew the opening game against the Crimson might dictate the success of the squad.

The Bears and Crimson played a thrilling game in a driving rainstorm at Brown Stadium, with Brown pulling out a 24-22 victory over Harvard. Brown's defence provided the theatrics in the game's waning moments, halting Harvard's two-point conversion attempt by a full yard to preserve the victory.

Solid wins over Princeton and Cornell gave the 3-0 Brown team its best start ever, setting up a showdown with unbeaten Penn at Franklin Field before a national television audience on the Versus Network. Facing the nation's top defence, which had allowed just 13 points per game, Brown's high-scoring offence wasn't fazed, exploding for 34 points in a 34-27 victory over the Quakers.

Brown's bid for a perfect Ivy League season was derailed by Yale, 13-3, at Brown Stadium, but the Bears knew that wins over Dartmouth and Columbia in the upcoming weeks would assure them of the Ivy title.

Coach Phil Estes' Brown football team entered Memorial Field at the start of its game against Dartmouth with a fierce determination to take care of business. The first-place Bears needed wins in both of their last two games to be assured at least a share of the Ivy league title, and had struggled in recent years against the Big Green in Hanover. Brown scored on its first four offensive possessions and intercepted a pass for a touchdown to cruise to a 45-16 win over the Big Green.

Playing in sub-freezing temperatures on the frozen tundra at Brown Stadium, Brown played like a champion and came away with a 41-10 victory over Columbia before a Brown Stadium crowd of 7,865, earning Brown's third Ivy title in the last 10 years, and fourth-ever League Championship.

THE GOVERNOR'S CUP

Brown celebrates its victory over URI in the 43rd Governor's Cup at Centreville Bank Stadium in Pawtucket on October 3, 2025.

The Governor's Cup is a trophy that has been handed out to the winner of the Brown-University of Rhode Island football game since 1981. The rivalry on the gridiron between the two Ocean State rivals goes back much further, with the first football game contested in 1909. Every year, the governor of the state of Rhode Island hosts a press conference at the State House the week of the game to kick off the festivities, and often attends the game to present the trophy to the winner.

The first Governor's Cup game on November 7, 1981 was a historic one, as it was the first time the two schools played in Kingston, with all previous matchups having taken place in Providence. URI entered the game ranked No. 10 in the nation in that week's 1-AA Football Committee poll, after having beaten No. 2 New Hampshire the previous week, but Brown prevailed with a 10-8 upset victory to win the first Governor's Cup.

Ever since, the Bears and Rams have played for the Governor's Cup every year except 1992 and 2020. Although Brown holds an overwhelming advantage in the all-time series, the matchup has seen much more parity since the trophy's introduction in 1981.

The 43rd edition of the Governor's Cup in 2025 marked another historical moment in Rhode Island, as the two schools faced off in the first-ever American football game at the brand new Centreville Bank Stadium in Pawtucket. Brown pulled off another historic upset of the No. 8/10 Rams, forcing four turnovers in a 28-21 win, giving the Bears their first win over URI in eight years, their first ranked win in 16 years, and their first win over a nationally-ranked top-10 opponent since defeating URI back in the inaugural 1981 Governor's Cup.

The Governor's Cup is actually not the first football rivalry trophy played for between the two schools. In 1971, the William T. Broomhead '35 Trophy was first presented to the Brown-URI winner, and continued to be issued for several years until the trophy mysteriously vanished sometime in the mid-late 1970s.

ADELAIDE PARK

Located on the other side of Providence in what is now a residential neighborhood between present-day Adelaide Avenue, Broad Street, Hamilton Street, and Sackett Street, Adelaide Park, also known as Adelaide Avenue Grounds, was Rhode Island's first enclosed baseball grounds. A frequent home to Brown baseball games, as well as semi-pro and pro baseball teams, the field also played home to Brown football games in the 1880s and 1890s. Brown Football held a record of 8-7-2 in games confirmed to have taken place at Adelaide Park between 1891 and 1898.

LINCOLN FIELD

Lincoln Field in the 1890s

A John McLaughry painting of a game at Lincoln Field

Lincoln Field was Brown University's first on-campus athletic complex, Lincoln Field was laid out in the spring of 1880 in what was until then, a swampy part of back campus adjacent to Waterman and Thayer Streets. Originally home to Brown's baseball team, Lincoln Field became the home of Brown football and other athletic events until it was replaced by Andrews Field in 1899. Today, the site is occupied by the Ruth Simmons Quadrangle behind Sayles Hall. Brown football posted a record of 22-4-1 in games confirmed to have taken place at Lincoln Field between 1892 and 1898, including undefeated marks in 1894, 1895, 1896 and 1898.

ANDREWS FIELD

A game at Andrews Field in 1900

Opened in 1899, Andrews Field served as the home for Brown football for 26 seasons. Located between Camp and Ivy Streets, the site plan made the utmost use of the available land with the juxtaposition of the football field and the baseball diamond, in which second base was on the goal line. Around the playing fields was the quarter mile track, with six hydrants placed so that the entire track could be watered with 100 feet of hose. The field was enclosed by a 10-foot fence, 2,110 feet in length. The original grandstand had seating for 1,200 people, with one removable section for 500 which was erected during football season, to not interfere with baseball play. A new football stand erected by the Athletic Association in 1910 increased the capacity by an additional 1,050 (2,750 total). A small structure, painted red and green and outfitted with hot and cold water and showers, was erected near Camp Street and stood until 1907. On Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 1912, Andrews Field was the site of Jim Thorpe's last game with the Carlisle Indians. Brown amassed a strong 129-23-1 (.825) record at Andrews Field before moving to its new stadium in 1925.

RICHARD GOUSE FIELD AT BROWN STADIUM

Opened: September 26, 1925

Capacity: 20,000

Largest Crowd: 33,000 (11/24/1932 vs. Colgate)

Former Names: Brown Amphitheatre, Brown Field, Brown Stadium

Brown Football Record (thru 2025): 272-225-13 (.546)

For 100 years, Richard Gouse Field at Brown Stadium has served as the home for Brown University Football on the east side of Providence. At a current capacity of 20,000, it is the largest stadium in the state of Rhode Island.

Constructed under the working name Brown Amphitheatre, the new stadium was the centerpiece of a brand-new athletic complex. Original designs called for a capacity of 32,000 in two mirror-image stands, but modifications resulted in a capacity of 27,646 upon its opening, including more than 7,000 in temporary wooden bleachers on the ends. Construction was funded entirely by subscription, raised by the Amphitheatre Committee led by Clinton C. White, Class of 1900. Over $500,000 was raised by the start of construction, but the final cost of the stadium was only $350,000.

Brown played a 10-game home schedule in 1925 with the stadium opening on September 26, 1925, with a 33-0 victory over Rhode Island. No special ceremonies marked the first game at the new stadium. Two separate dedication days were later held, the first on October 24 against Yale, and a second on November 14 against Harvard, the latter of which served as the official naming of the facility as "Brown Field".

On Thanksgiving morning, 1932, Brown brought in portable bleachers for its game against Colgate that saw an estimated crowd of 33,000, the largest in the stadium's history. This is still believed to be the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Rhode Island.

Although never officially being renamed, Brown Field began to be referred to as "Brown Stadium" in the 1970s, and the name gradually became accepted as the facility's permanent name.

New aluminum bleachers were installed ahead of the 1978 season, commemorating the 100th anniversary of Brown football. In 1988, the stadium underwent a complete renovation, with work being done to restore and waterproof the concrete, as well as repaint the restrooms, press box and all the graphics throughout the stadium. A new home locker room, along with a reception room, were completed for the 1991 season.

The stadium played host to its first ever night game on September 25, 2010, when the Bears took on Harvard under temporarily installed lights. Brown defeated the Crimson 29-14 in front of 17,360 fans.

The stadium underwent another major facelift in 2021 with the addition of artificial turf, replacing the natural grass surface. At the season-opener against Rhode Island on September 18, 2021, the stadium was officially rededicated and renamed Richard Gouse Field at Brown Stadium in honor of Richard Gouse '68, P'02, the project's lead donor.

BROWN FOOTBALL TEAM AWARD WINNERS

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

Given each year to the varsity football player who is active in community service, and who exhibits the qualities of scholarship, leadership, and concern for others. This award is named in honor of Chris Perry, the mother of Linda, Bill '88, and Scott '91. Both sons played varsity football for the Bears. A loyal supporter, Chris was active in bringing alumni, parents and others together as members of the Brown community. Chris was the wife of Gordon Perry '55, a past president of the Brown Football Association, and a long-time proponent of providing the support needed by our student-athletes in their quest for excellence. This award was presented for the first time at the 2001 Brown Football banquet.

BROWN FOOTBALL TEAM AWARD WINNERS

ERNEST T. SAVIGNANO '42
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Ernest T. Savignano '42, for whom this scholarship is named, was a man for all seasons. He was a varsity letterman in football, baseball, basketball, ice hockey and boxing. Yet above all, Ernie was a man of leadership, integrity, ability and warmth. This scholarship was established in 1994 by his '42 teammates, his former players and his friends to memorialize him through the Brown University Scholarship Program. A new recipient is chosen each year, with preference given to academically qualified students who are exceptional leaders and are heavily involved in extracurricular activities, especially the sport of football.

NATIONAL HALL OF FAMERSCharles "Rip" Engle

March 26, 1906 - March 7, 1983

College Hall of Fame Class: 1973

Charles "Rip" Engle was the head coach of the Brown gridiron teams from 1944 through 1949, and then head mentor at Penn State until his retirement following the 1965 season. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame in January, 1973. Recognized as one of the top coaches in his profession, Engle guided Brown to a 28-20-4 record in six years, including marks of 7-2-0 and 8-1-0 his final two seasons. His success at Penn State, where he compiled a 104-48-4 record, was amazing. He guided Penn State to post-season bowl appearances almost every season, or so it seemed, and he coached in all-star games too numerous to mention. Engle learned his football under the old master, Dick Harlow, while at Western Maryland. He graduated in 1930 and moved into the high school ranks, where he coached at Waynesboro High (Pennsylvania) for 11 years. He joined the Brown staff in 1942 as an assistant to Neil "Skip" Stahley and when the latter entered the Navy, Engle was appointed head coach.

John W. Heisman

October 23, 1869 - October 3, 1936

College Hall of Fame Class: 1954

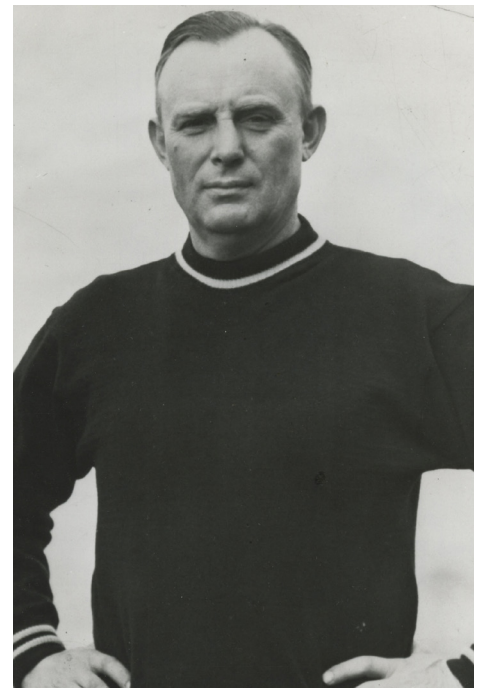

A name synonymous with quality football, John William Heisman attended Brown from 1887 to 1889 and became one of the leading coaches and a dominant personality in intercollegiate football during the ensuing 45 years until his death in 1936. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, he obtained his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania, then launched a football coaching career at Oberlin College that extended through a long series of successes at Akron, Alabama Poly, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Penn, Washington and Jefferson, and Rice. He did much to "open up" the game by use of the forward pass and the shifting line. At Georgia Tech, where he coached for 16 years, his teams of 1915-16-17 won 25 straight and rolled up 1,129 points to their opponents' 61. After retiring from coaching, he became Physical Director of the Downtown Athletic Club of New York and was one of the founders and first president of the Touchdown Club. In his honor, the Downtown A.C. established the Heisman Trophy, which is presented annually to the outstanding collegiate football player in the nation.

DeOrmond "Tuss" McLaughry

May 19, 1893 - November 26, 1974

College Hall of Fame Class: 1962

A 55-year association with football as a player, coach and administrator was duly acknowledged in December, 1962, when Tuss McLaughry was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. From the day he played his first football game at Sharon (Pa.) High School in 1907, Tuss and football were inseparable, except for distinguished service in World War II. As a standout player at Michigan State and Westminster, he began his coaching career at Westminster in 1915. He coached four years at Amherst (1922-25) and his last team there was the highest-scoring team in the history of the Little Three. He then moved to Brown, where he guided the famed Iron Men of 1926 to the only undefeated season in the school's history. His 1928 and 1932 teams lost only one game apiece. Before leaving Brown for Dartmouth in 1941, he had the pleasure of coaching his son, John. Later at Dartmouth another son, Bob, played for him. His 1948 and 1949 teams were the first in Dartmouth's history to win six major games. He coached East squads in the San Francisco Shrine Game four times, the New York Giants/College All-Star Game in 1940 and the Chicago All-Star Game in 1947. After retiring from coaching in 1954, Tuss continued to serve the American Football Coaches Association as secretary treasurer.

NATIONAL HALL OF FAMERS

Joe Paterno '1950

December 21, 1926 - January 22, 2012

College Hall of Fame Class: 2007

Longtime Penn State football coach Joe Paterno, Brown Class of 1950, impacted Brown University long before he began his coaching career for the Nittany Lions. A standout quarterback and defensive back for the Bears, Paterno completed his career on College Hill as one of the greatest in Brown football history and went on Penn State to become a nationally renowned coach, educator, and leader.

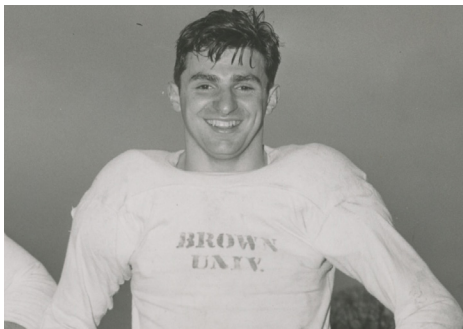

Under the tutelage of head coach Rip Engle, Paterno blossomed into the heady quarterback and corner back of the Brown football team that went 8-1 and was an Eastern powerhouse in 1949. Legendary sportswriter Stanly Woodward once described Paterno as a quarterback, "who can't run, can't pass - just thinks and wins."

"The best four years of my life were here at Brown," said Paterno at the 1990 Celebration of Brown's 1949 team. "I've been involved with kids who won national championships in football... none of it has meant as much to me as the Colgate game, the Princeton game in '48, the Harvard game in '49. We all did it together. We all depended on each other... we trusted each other...we grew up together. We gave something to Brown, Brown gave something to us, and we gave something to each other. Brown is a special place - I really believe that."

In addition to his role in the rushing and passing offenses, Paterno also returned punts and kickoffs, posting career averages of 8.8 and 20.1 yards, respectively. He had a 69-yard punt return for a touchdown against Holy Cross in 1949. An heady defensive back, Paterno still holds the Brown career interceptions record (14).

After his senior football season, Paterno took an offer from Engle to work on a part-time basis with the Brown quarterbacks while awaiting graduation. Shortly after, Engle was named the head coach at Penn State and Paterno joined him as an assistant coach, "for just a few years."

Paterno went on to win 409 career games as Penn State head coach, an NCAA Division I record.

Frederick Douglass "Fritz" Pollard '1919

January 27, 1894 - May 11, 1986

College Hall of Fame Class: 1954
Pro Football Hall of Fame Class: 2005
Rose Bowl Hall of Fame Class: 2015

Probably the greatest player ever to perform for Brown and one of the greatest black players ever to perform in the college ranks, Fritz Pollard was the star of Brown's 1915 team which played in the first official Rose Bowl Game (1916), and the '16 team which compiled an 8-1 record and ranks among the University's best. Walter Camp, whose All-American selections are regarded as the last word for the era he covered, ranked Pollard as "one of the greatest runners these eyes have ever seen."

In 1916 he scored all three touchdowns as Brown handed Yale its lone defeat of the season, 21-6, and he scored two and set up the other in the 21-0 victory against Harvard.

Following service in World War I, he joined the Akron Pros in 1919, who one year later joined the newly founded American Professional Football Association (later renamed the National Football League in 1922). With Pollard leading the charge, the Pros went 8-0-3 to win the league's first title in 1920. During that season, Pollard was one of just two African Americans in the new league. In 1921, he earned another distinction of becoming the first African American head coach in NFL history when the Pros named him co-coach of the team.

In 2004, Brown University and the Black Coaches Association joined together to co-sponsor an annual award for the male college coach of the year, to be named in Pollard's honor. The BCA selects the male Coach of the Year and presents the Fritz Pollard Award at its annual awards banquet.

Born in Chicago, he was elected into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1954, the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 2005, and the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2015.

Edward North "Robbie" Robinson '1896

October 15, 1873 - March 10, 1945

College Hall of Fame Class: 1955

If any man deserves recognition as "the father of Brown football," it is Edward North Robinson. His influence spans more than a quarter of a century — from 1892 when he entered Brown and helped put the game on a sound basis as an undergraduate, to 1925 when he wound up an illustrious coaching career that covered 24 seasons at his alma mater.

He won nine letters in his playing days, four in football. Robinson, who was born in Lynn, Massachusetts, is credited with helping the grid program take root when baseball was THE sport at Brown. He served three separate terms as head coach, the last covering 16 years, and won 140 games against 82 losses and 12 ties at a time when Eastern football was undisputedly the nation's best, and Brown was often called upon to meet the top grid powers with undermanned forces.

In 1943, Robinson's friends created the Edward North Robinson collection of Brown Athletics, which is housed in the archives of the John Hay Library. His coaching record at Brown follows:

Years	W	L	T	Pct.	PF	PA
1898-1901	24	17	3	.580	525	432
1904-1907	26	15	0	.634	742	191
1910-1925	90	50	9	.624	2255	1100
Totals	140	82	12	.624	3522	1723

NATIONAL HALL OF FAMERSEarl "Bill" Sprackling '1912

September 6, 1890 - May 27, 1980

College Hall of Fame Class: 1964

Brown's only three-time All-American, the 5'9", 150-pound Sprackling is rated by many as the finest all-around football player in the school's history. As a quarterback he could beat a team in many ways. George Trevor, the Ivy League historian, saw him as an "eye-dazzler in the open field, a flashy punt-handler and bulls-eye passer."

He was a brilliant runner, a heady field general and an adept (drop kick) field-goal kicker. He kicked three field goals against Yale in 1910. He owns the Brown record for most yards gained on kickoff returns in a single game with 147 against the Carlisle Indians in 1909. His three Brown teams won 21 games, lost 8 and tied 2.

The Cleveland, Ohio native was selected on Walter Camp's All-American teams in 1909-10-11 and in 1964 became the sixth man connected with Brown football to be elected to the National Hall of Fame.

Wallace Wade '1917

June 15, 1892 - October 6, 1986

College Hall of Fame Class: 1955
Rose Bowl Hall of Fame Class: 1990

A member of the 1915 Brown team that played Washington State in the first Rose Bowl game on January 1, 1916, Wally Wade earned a place among the great coaches of American intercollegiate football during an illustrious career that spanned 40 years, including stints as head coach at Alabama (1923-30) and Duke (1931-41, 1946-50).

After serving his apprenticeship as a high school coach and an assistant at Vanderbilt, he took over the head coaching reins at Alabama in 1923 and built the Crimson Tide into a major football power, winning 61 of 74 games and taking three of his teams to the Rose Bowl. He compiled a record of 110 victories, 36 losses and 10 ties through 1950, when he retired to become the Commissioner of the Southern Conference.

Wally made the cover of Time Magazine on Oct. 25, 1937, and the stadium at Duke was named in his honor on Sept. 30, 1967. In addition to his achievements in the field of coaching, he distinguished himself in service during two World Wars. He interrupted his tenure at Duke at the age of 53 to serve as a lieutenant colonel in the artillery during World War II, taking part in several major battles in the European Theatre.

During his coaching career, he coached five Rose Bowl teams (1926, 1927, 1931, 1939, 1942), with his victory in 1926 coming over Washington State, who he lost to as a player while at Brown in the 1916 Rose Bowl.

NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD WINNERSPAUL J. CHOQUETTE '60*YEAR HONORED*1985

Paul J. Choquette put together an impressive career as a member of the football team and was one of three Brown players picked for the All-Ivy Team of the Decade. As a fullback, Choquette led the team in rushing all three years and was among the top 10 ball carriers in the nation in his junior and senior seasons. He was also a fine defensive back, a steady punter, and a highly competitive player, one who could inspire a team by his example both on and off the field.

Choquette was a two-time All-Ivy selection, earned All-East honors, and was named Rhode Island Athlete of the Year by Words Unlimited. He also was the recipient of the National Football Foundation Student-Athlete Award. Choquette is a member of the Brown University Athletics Hall of Fame, the Providence Gridiron Club Hall of Fame and was named to the Brown Football 125th Anniversary Team.

Choquette joined the Gilbane Building Company in 1969, serving a General Counsel. He was elected Vice President in 1971 and served in that office until his appointment as Executive Vice President in 1975. He served as Gilbane's President from 1981 to 1997, at which point he was elected its chairman and Chief Executive Officer. In 1992, Choquette was named the recipient of the National Football Foundation Rhode Island Chapter Distinguished American Award.

Prior to joining Gilbane, Choquette was associated with the law firm of Edwards & Angell in Providence and served as legal counsel to Rhode Island Governor John H. Chafee for two years.

STEVE JORDAN '82YEAR HONORED*2007

Steve Jordan '82 enjoyed a distinguished undergraduate career at Brown on the playing field and in the classroom. As a three-year tight end for the Bears, Jordan was a two-time First Team All-Ivy selection and Honorable Mention All-American his junior year. He also set Brown records for receiving yards in a game (188 vs. Penn in 1981), and receiving yards in a season (693 in 1981).

After earning a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering, Jordan put his career as an engineer on hold to pursue an All-Pro career in the National Football League. Jordan played for 13 years with the Minnesota Vikings and was recognized as a member of the All-Pro Team for six consecutive seasons, from 1987 to 1992. In 2002, he was recognized as a member of the Vikings' 40th Anniversary Team. During his NFL career, he held various positions with the NFL Players Association as a Player Representative, Executive Board Member, and VP-Executive Board Member.

Following his retirement from professional football in 1995, Jordan joined the Ryan Companies, an industry leader as a one-stop building development and construction company. Jordan served as Senior Project Manager for Ryan Companies Inc., where he coordinated client construction activities among architects, engineers, subcontractors and superintendents on Ryan Companies' projects.

Jordan established the Steve R. Jordan Endowed Scholarship for Minority Athletes at Brown in 2000. He also served on the Brown Sports Foundation Board of Directors and was a member of the engineering department's 150th anniversary campaign committee. He served as a term trustee emeritus of the corporation from 1993 to 1997 and a corporation fellow from 1998 to 2009. Other professional and civic contributions include: Member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, College Football Hall of Fame Advisory Board-Phoenix Chapter, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Leukemia Golf Classic Former Honorary Chairman, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation Honorary Board Member, Special Olympics volunteer, National Missing Children's Foundation, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Boys and Girls Clubs, Camp Confidence and Minnesota Attorney General's Office Alliance for a Drug-Free Minnesota.

NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD WINNERS

YEAR HONORED

2014

George Pyne '89 was an All-Ivy and All-New England offensive lineman who captained Brown during his senior season. He was awarded the team's Offensive Lineman Award in 1988.

Pyne is an American businessman and entrepreneur. Pyne is the former president of IMG's Global Sports and Entertainment business. His divisions were a driving force in the creation of meaningful shareholder value from Forstmann Little's initial investment in IMG for $750 million to its eventual sale to WME for $2.4 billion. Prior to joining IMG, Pyne was the Chief Operating Officer of NASCAR. His accomplishments with NASCAR included the sale of its media rights for $4.5 billion in 2005, the sale of the NASCAR Nextel Series entitlement for $750 million, the investment of 100 of the Fortune 500 companies in NASCAR, the creation of a $2 billion licensing program, and the recognition of NASCAR as one of the most admired brands in North America. Pyne served on boards of IMG, NASCAR, and 24-Hour Fitness, and also served on the board of the National Football Foundation.

Pyne has been routinely recognized as one of the most influential people in professional sports by Business Week, The Sporting News, and the Sports Business Journal. He has been inducted into the Sports Business Journal's Business Hall of Fame and recognized by Brandweek as one of the Top 100 Marketers in America. In September 2013, Pyne became the first inductee into the National Football Foundation's Leadership Hall of Fame. Subsequent inductees include Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, New England Patriots owner Robert Kraft, and New Jersey Governor Chris Christie.

Pyne serves on the Brown Football Association board, has coached youth basketball and is active in numerous charitable endeavors.

SIGNIFICANT DATES

November 13, 1878 - Brown plays its first game of intercollegiate football, traveling to Amherst to do battle with the Lord Jeffs.

October 8, 1892 - Brown plays its first on-campus game, beating WPI 8-4 on Lincoln Field.

November 29, 1894 - The first Thanksgiving Day game in Brown's history, a 20-4 victory over MIT at Adelaide Park, Providence.

1894 Season - Paced by its first set of touchdown twins, William Burr Hopkins and Charles D. Millard, Brown finishes the season 10-4 and is ranked fifth in the nation.

1896 Season - Brown may not have had the best team in the country, but it did have the richest manager - John D. Rockefeller, Jr. '97.

REMEMBERING 9/11

The Brown Football Family lost four of its former players during the terrorist attacks that struck the World Trade Center and the Pentagon on September 11, 2001 - David Laychak '83, Ray Rocha '95, Paul Sloan '97, and Charles Margiotta '79. Their families were presented with a framed uniform at halftime ceremonies of Brown's game against Dartmouth on November 10, 2001 at Brown Stadium.

David Laychak played defensive back at Brown, and graduated in 1983. He concentrated in organizational behavior and management. David lived in Manassas, Virginia, and was employed as a civilian budget analyst for the US Army Information Systems, working at the Pentagon.

Charles Margiotta, Brown Class of 1979, was a New York City fire-fighter who was not on duty on September 11, but rushed to the scene anyway to try to help save lives. Tragically, he lost his own life in the line of duty. He was inducted into the Brown Athletics Hall of Fame along with the entire 1976 Brown Ivy League champion football team.

Ray Rocha played wide receiver at Brown and graduated in 1995, concentrating in business economics. He was a member of Delta Tau Fraternity, and later became a BASC Alumni Interviewer for Brown. Ray lived in Malden, Mass, before moving to New York City, where he worked for Cantor Fitzgerald in the World Trade Center.

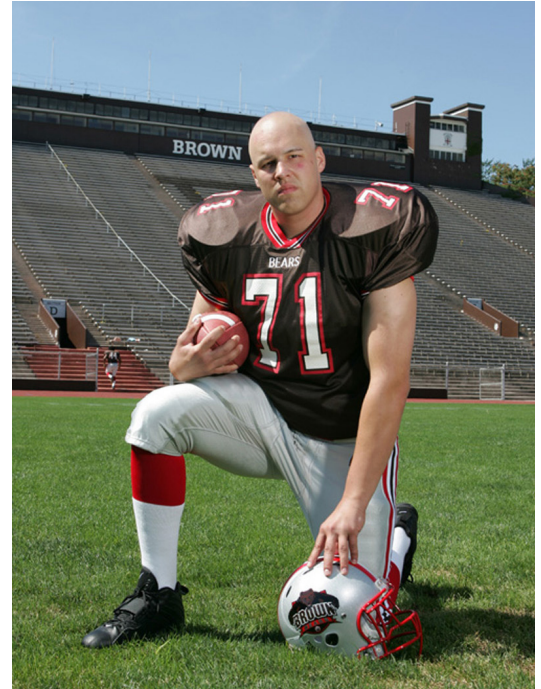

Paul Sloan played on Brown's offensive line and graduated in 1997, concentrating in history. He was a member of Delta Tau Fraternity at Brown. Originally from Novato, California, Paul lived in New York City, where he worked for Keefe, Bruyet & Wood, Inc., at the World Trade Center.

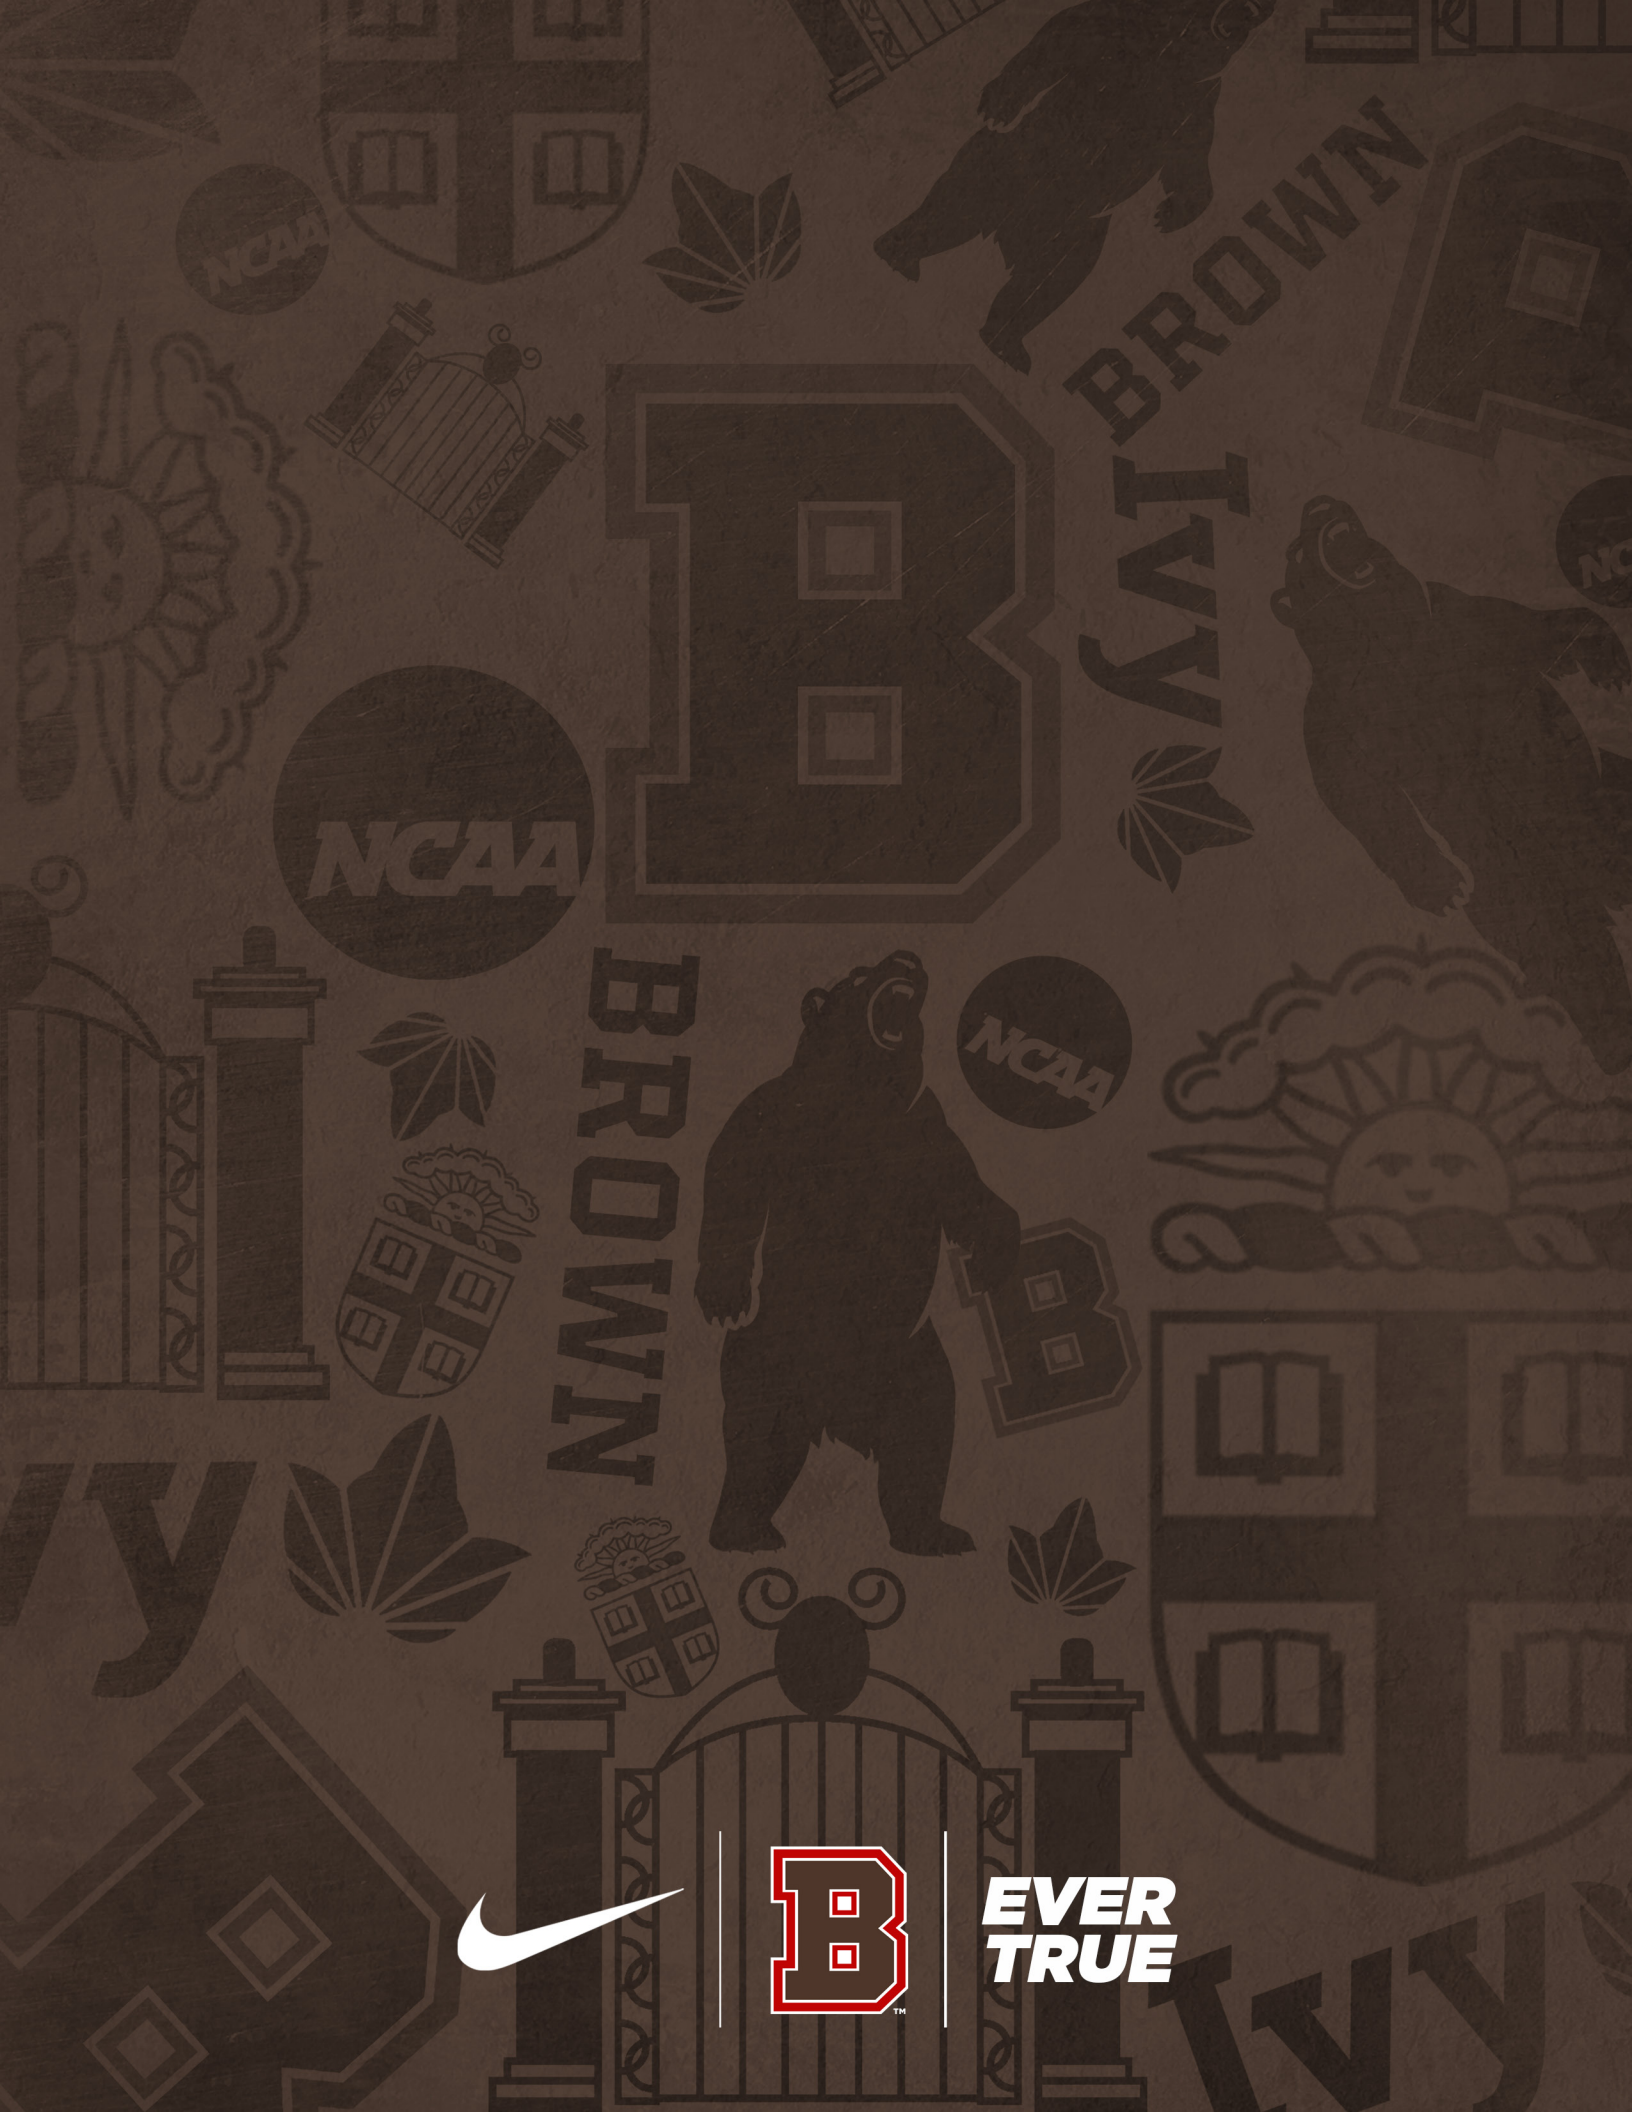

REMEMBERING LAWRENCE RUBIDA '05

Lawrence Rubida, Brown Class of 2005, a standout offensive lineman and tri-captain of the 2004 Brown football team, will be remembered for the way he lived and attacked the final battle for his life to overcome Ewing's Sarcoma cancer with the same zest and zeal that he played football for Brown. Rubida's indomitable spirit in battling cancer energized the Brown community, his Ivy League brethren, and cancer survivors throughout the country in a fundraising effort to help defray Rubida's medical costs and to increase awareness for Ewing's Sarcoma. Brown student-athletes purchased bracelets in support of Lawrence with the words, "Never Quit" engraved on them, signifying his brave approach in fighting the disease.

Today, Rubida's legacy and memory lives on through Brown football's annual Bench Press for Cancer. Started in 2007 by team manager Yelena Cashion (née Cvek), this player-driven event held on the University's Main Green has raised more than $200,000 as of 2025 for. Today, the event benefits the Brown University Health Cancer Institute and helps cancer patients in the greater Providence community through Miriam Hospital's Cancer Survivorship Programs.
