*In 1983, 1985 and 1991, soccer players were selected to the At-Large team for Academic All-District & Academic All-America. Beginning in 2002-03, the CoSIDA Academic All-America program began recognizing soccer student-athletes individually.

*Beginning in 2022, all student-athletes nominated for Academic All-District received the honor, were no longer separated by first or second team designations, and were eligible to be named Academic All-American.

*CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America) was rebranded as CSC (College Sports Communicators) in 2022.

Arlene Gorton '52 Rookie of the Year

The Arlene Gorton '52 Rookie of the Year Award is named after a former Brown Associate Director of Athletics. Arlene Gorton was instrumental in keeping Brown women's soccer at the forefront and allowed Brown the opportunity to host the first-ever Ivy League Women's Soccer Championship and the first-ever collegiate women's soccer regional championship. She was a pioneer for all women's sports at Brown in the 70's and 80's. The Arlene Gorton '52 Rookie of the Year Award, initiated in 2015, goes to the outstanding newcomer in the program as voted on by the players. .
