Thomas Howard
1986 (11th pick) • San Diego Padres

Thomas Howard spent 11 years in the Major Leagues from 1990 through 2000. He started his career with the San Diego Padres before going on to play for the Cleveland Indians, the Cincinnati Reds, the Houston Astros, the Los Angeles Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals. Howard hit .264 for his career with 44 home runs and 264 runs-batted-in.

Jeff Urban
1998 (41st pick) • San Francisco Giants

Jeff Urban was selected with the 41st pick of the 1998 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Francisco Giants. He spent eight years in professional baseball and pitched in 214 games, including starts in 105 contests. From 1998 through 2004, Urban played in the San Francisco Giants system.

Larry Bigbie
1999 (21st pick) • Baltimore Orioles

Larry Bigbie became Ball State's third Major League Baseball first round draft pick when he was selected 21st overall in the 1999 MLB Draft by the Baltimore Orioles. Bigbie made his MLB debut in 2001 with Baltimore and also played at the big league level with the Colorado Rockies and the St. Louis Cardinals. He also played professional baseball in Japan for the Yokohama BayStars.

Bryan Bullington
2002 (1st pick overall) • Pittsburgh Pirates

Bryan Bullington, who was coached at Ball State by current Cardinals' head coach Rich Maloney, was the No. 1 selection in the 2002 Major League Baseball Draft. He was selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates and is the highest draft pick in Ball State and Mid-American Conference history. Bullington made his major league debut in 2005 for the Pirates. After sitting out the 2006 season with an injury, Bullington worked his way back up to the Triple-A All-Star Game in 2007 and was called up to the Pirates later that season, appearing in five games with three starts. Bullington pitched for the Cleveland Indians and Toronto Blue Jays in 2008. He stayed in the Blue Jays system in 2009 and in 2010 reported to the Kansas City Royals Spring Training. On Aug. 15, 2010, Bullington pitched eight shutout innings, while only giving up two hits against the New York Yankees in Kansas City for his first major league win. After the 2010 season, Bullington signed with the Hiroshima Toyo Carp of Japan's Central League and pitched there thru 2014. He is a member of the Oriz Buffaloes in Japan for the 2015 season.

Luke Hagerty
2002 (32nd pick) • Chicago Cubs

Luke Hagerty spent six seasons in professional baseball after being selected as the 32nd pick in the first round of the 2002 Major League Baseball Draft by the Chicago Cubs. He pitched in 45 games at the professional level and struck out 86 batters in 95 innings pitched. Hagerty was listed as the seventh best prospect in the Chicago Cubs organization in 2003.

Brad Snyder
2003 (18th pick) • Cleveland Indians

Brad Snyder became Ball State's sixth first-round draft pick when he was selected 18th overall by the Cleveland Indians in the 2003 Major League Baseball Draft. He made his first trip to the major leagues in 2006 when he was called up to the Indians late in the season. For the second year in a row in 2007, Snyder was called up to the major leagues with the Indians. In 2011, Snyder signed with the Houston Astros and in 2012 with the Arizona Diamondbacks. Snyder spent 2013 and 2014 in the Texas Rangers organization. He is a member of the Nexen Heroes in South Korea in 2015.

Kolbrin Vitek
2010 (20th pick) • Boston Red Sox

Kolbrin Vitek, one of three finalists for the College Baseball Foundation's inaugural John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award in 2010, was the 20th pick in the first round of the 2010 Major League Baseball Draft. Vitek was named the Mid-American Conference Player of the Year as a junior at Ball State before being drafted by the Boston Red Sox. He spent the 2012 season in the Red Sox minor league system.
