1,000 CAREER WINS: Head coach Rich Maloney hit the 1,000-win milestone with Tuesday afternoon's 13-10 triumph over Purdue Fort Wayne.

Maloney is the 10th active skipper to reach the milestone among NCAA Division I coaches. The group consists of Paul Mainieri (South Carolina, 1,519 wins), Danny Hall (Georgia Tech, 1,425), Elliott Avent (NC State, 1,272), Dave Van Horn (Arkansas, 1,270), Rich Hill (Hawaii, 1,185), Steve Owens (Rutgers, 1,053), Rick Heller (Iowa, 1,049), Tim Corbin (Vanderbilt, 1,041), and Mike Bianco (Ole Miss, 1,020). Of the nine ahead of Maloney, only Hall, Mainieri, Avent, Van Horn and Bianco have more wins at the Division I level.

Another milestone primed to be reached in the coming games for Maloney is 500 conference wins. The skipper is currently at 499, with 359 of those being in the MAC and 140 in the Big Ten.

GREGO HITS THE GONG: Junior shortstop Dylan Grego hit a walkoff solo home run in the ninth inning of Ball State's 10-9 win over Western Michigan on Sunday.

Grego led off the inning with a moonshot on the second pitch he saw that went a projected 431 feet. The junior also had the most recent walkoff knock for the Cardinals when he hit a game-winning single in the ninth inning on Feb. 17, 2024 to seal a 2-1 win over Merrimack in Charleston, S.C.

K'S FOR KEEGAN: Sophomore Keegan Johnson was named the Mid-American Conference Pitcher of the Week after striking out eight and allowing a run on four hits in 7.1 innings of work in Ball State's 3-1 win over Western Michigan on Friday.

The left-handed pitcher didn't allow a run until the eighth on his way to his third career weekly honor from the MAC office.

HIGH EXPECTATIONS: The 2025 Cardinals were picked to finish first in the recently released Mid-American Conference preseason poll. Ball State got six first place votes for the regular season and five to win the MAC Tournament.

The Ball State baseball program boasts the best winning percentage both overall (.636) and in conference play (.647) among MAC teams since 2019 entering the 2025 campaign.

PROFICIENT PITCHING: The Ball State pitching staff paces the league in ERA (5.03), WHIP (1.46) and fewest hits allowed per nine innings (8.38).

Johnson (3-0, 2.92 ERA, 25 strikeouts in 25.2 innings) and Jacob Hartlaub (3-1, 1.61 ERA, 27 strikeouts in 22.1 innings) have been leading the starting staff while Owen Quinn (2.51 ERA, two saves, 17 strikeouts in 14.1 innings) and Garrett Harker (3.86 ERA, five saves, 17 strikeouts in 14.0 innings) are holding down the back end of the bullpen.

RICHTER HOME RUNS: Senior Alex Richter has hit a home run in three straight games to move into a tie for second on the team with three total homers this year.

The third baseman launched a leadoff shot on Saturday against Western Michigan before drilling a two-run homer on Sunday. Richter kept the streak going with another solo shot in Tuesday's win over Purdue Fort Wayne.

CLEAN FIELDING: The Cardinals enters the weekend leading the MAC and ranking seventh in NCAA Division I in fielding percentage with a .985 average.

Ball State has committed nine errors in 608 opportunities this year through the first 17 games. The Cardinals were at the top of the national leaderboard in fielding percentage entering last weekend's series against Western Michigan. Ball State also paces the Mid-American Conference in double plays turned (16), which is No. 15 nationally.
