What They're Saying About Joe Susan...

"While I'm sad to be losing such a valuable member of my coaching staff, I couldn't be happier for Joe Susan and my alma mater. Ever since Joe recruited me to play at Bucknell, the University has held a special place in both of our hearts. The Bison Football Family can rally behind this remarkable leader who will bring integrity, passion, and vision to the Bucknell Football program. I have always said that Joe is the type of man I would want to coach my own sons. I can't thank him and his wife, Cindy, enough for their loyalty and contributions to me and to Rutgers. I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations on this well-deserved opportunity. Go Bison!"

Greg Schiano '88, Former Bucknell linebacker (1984-87); current Rutgers head football coach (2001-present)

"Joe Susan contributed in so many ways to the success of our football program at Rutgers. He is a tactician, a motivator, and a gentleman. The future of Bucknell Bison football could not be in any more capable hands"

Tim Perneti, Rutgers Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

"I've known Joe Susan both on a personal and professional level for a number of years and have seen firsthand the work he has done at Rutgers. He's been a key part of a coaching staff that has really built something special at Rutgers. Their success has been a pivotal part of the overall success of the Big East, so I'm particularly appreciative of what Joe and the Rutgers staff have been able to do. I think Joe will be a tremendous fit at Bucknell and I wish him nothing but the best."

Nick Carparelli, Senior Associate Commissioner for Football, Big East Conference

"It is great to have Joe and his family returning to the Bucknell community. Joe brings his energy and passion back to the program, along with the countless relationships with former Bucknell players and fans. His dedication to the profession has prepared him well for this position. Through my years of working on the staff with Joe, I know he will bring a great understanding and appreciation for the scholar-athlete model we take such pride in."

Gene Depew '71, Former Bucknell defensive lineman (1967-70); Bucknell football assistant coach (1972-92); current head baseball coach at Bucknell (1982-present)

What it means to BE A BISON

"... THE PURSUIT OF ATHLETICS IN COLLEGE NEED NOT INTERFERE WITH A FELLOW'S STUDIES, AND IF YOU GIVE A BOY A WELL DEVELOPED BODY HIS BRAIN WILL GET THE BENEFIT OF IT."

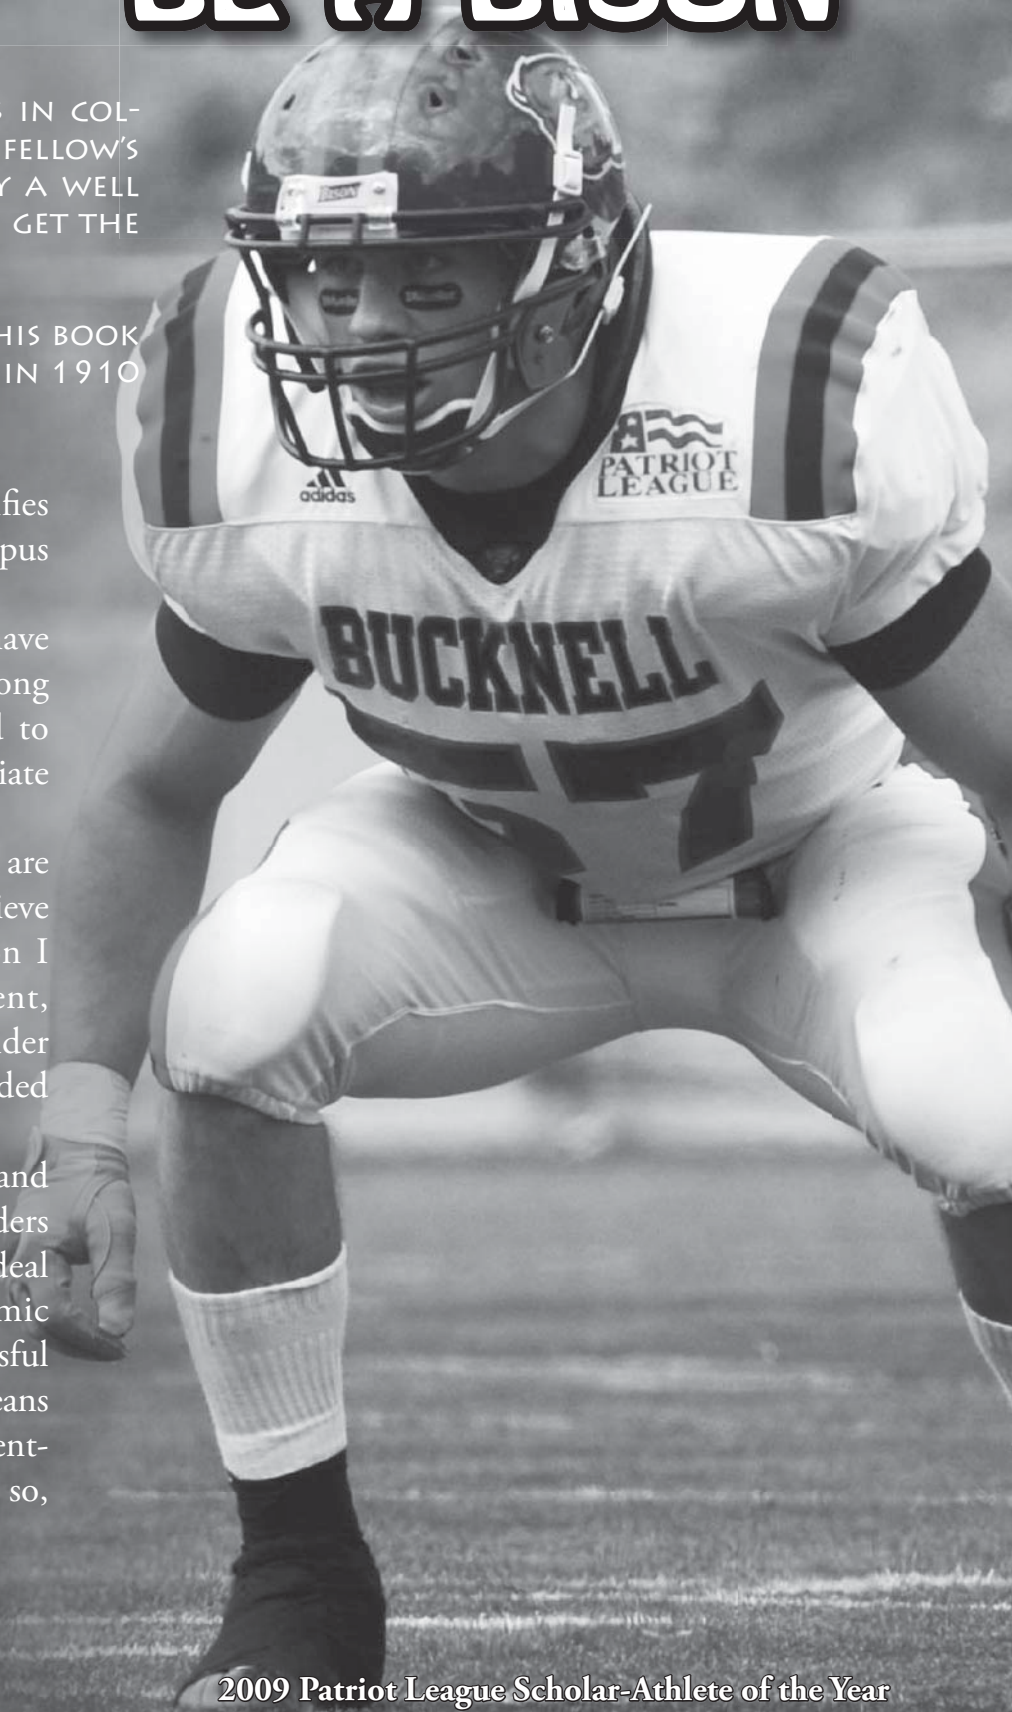

— CHRISTY MATHEWSON, IN HIS BOOK WON IN THE NINTH, WRITTEN IN 1910

The term "student-athlete" signifies something extraordinary on the campus of Bucknell University.

Being a Bison means that you have the rare blend of physical skills along with the drive and passion needed to succeed at the highest level of collegiate athletics.

Being a Bison also means that you are a scholar first and foremost. You believe that values associated with Division I athletics, such as time management, leadership, teamwork and grace under pressure, contribute to a well-rounded college experience.

At Bucknell, our students, faculty and staff pride themselves as national leaders in upholding the scholar-athlete ideal that balances a challenging academic program with the demands of successful Division I athletics. Being a Bison means that you have pledged to be a student-athlete in the purest sense. In doing so, you will be rewarded for a lifetime.

Bucknell Bison Athletics

Setting the Standard of Excellence

Bucknell takes great pride in its commitment to excellence on and off the playing fields. From Presidents' Cups to Academic All-Americans to graduation rates that are ranked annually in the national top-10, Bucknell is clearly at the head of the class when it comes to upholding the scholar-athlete ideal.

- According to federal data released by the NCAA each fall, Bucknell's student-athlete graduation rate annually ranks in the top 10 among all Division I institutions. Bucknell has led the nation in graduation rates twice in the last 10 years, and it ranked No. 2 in the 2008 study. In the most recent survey in the fall of 2009, Bucknell ranked No. 8 in the nation.
- Bucknell has claimed a league-high 118 Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year since the league's inception as an all-sports conference in 1990-91.
- A total of 366 Bison appeared on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2008-09 after recording a GPA of 3.2 or better during their sport's competition season. Among all BU student-athletes, 255 made the Dean's List with GPAs of 3.5 or better in the spring of 2009.
- In addition to the 118 ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans produced since 1970, Bucknell has also claimed 293 Academic All-District honorees over the same span, including a school-record 22 in 2008-09 and 17 more in 2009-10.
- With a school-record-tying eight Patriot League championships in 2009-10, Bucknell has now earned 81 crowns in 20 years in the league. In addition, Bucknell has had 109 conference players of the year, 89 PL coaches of the year and a whopping 491 individual league champions from sports such as cross country, track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and golf.

- 25 of Bucknell's 27 varsity squads posted team GPAs of 3.0 or better in the spring of 2010.
- Bucknell has captured the Patriot League Presidents' Cup, signifying the league's all-sports champion, 16 times in the 20-year history of the affiliation, including 12 of the last 13 years. Bucknell claimed the overall, men's and women's Cup titles in 2009-10. It was the 13th straight year and the 16th time overall that the Bison took home the women's title. In 2009-10, Bucknell won Patriot League titles in women's cross country, men's soccer, women's indoor track & field, women's outdoor track & field, men's outdoor track & field, women's rowing, baseball and softball. Additionally, the women's water polo team captured the CWPA Southern Division championship, and the wrestling team sent four student-athletes to the NCAA Championships and produced two All-Americans.
- Bucknell ranks FIFTH in the nation (to Nebraska, Notre Dame, Penn State and Stanford) in total number of ESPN The Magazine All-America selections with 118.
- A major element in ensuring Bucknell's commitment to athletics excellence is the Kenneth G. Langone Athletics & Recreation Center, which opened fully in 2003. One of the finest collegiate athletics facilities of its kind, the center includes the 4,000-seat Sojka Pavilion, the Olympic class Kinney Natatorium, the Krebs Family Fitness Center and the Berger Family Weight Room. A Hall of Fame area, a display of Bucknell's Medal of Honor recipients, a new Academic All-America wall, a sports medicine suite, modern offices for coaches and staff, and locker room and classroom space are also included in the facility's layout.

Bucknell Bison Athletics

A National Model in Promoting the Scholar-Athlete Ideal

Bucknell Athletics is first and foremost a student-centered organization, one that strives to be a national model when it comes to operating by a true scholar-athlete model. At Bucknell, student-athletes' academic programs are their first priority, and providing a competitive Division I athletics program only advances the mission, values and residential learning goals of the university. To that end, the Department of Athletics and Recreation proactively seeks ways to assist student-athletes in their daily academic pursuits. Below are just some of the student-athlete support programs currently in place.

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE: The faculty athletics representative (FAR) is a member of the faculty or administrative staff who is designated to represent Bucknell in its relationships with the NCAA and the Patriot League. Bucknell's FAR is Mitch Chernin, Professor of Biology. The FAR can enhance the student-athlete experience by promoting a balance between academics, athletics and the social lives of student-athletes, which affords them opportunities to enjoy the full range of collegiate experiences available to students generally.

SIDELINE COACH PROGRAM: This program is a truly unique initiative in Division I college athletics, and it involves the invitation of a member of the faculty, administration, staff or community by one of Bucknell's 27 varsity teams. The participant has the opportunity to discuss the overall program with the respective coaching staff, including practice preparation and strategy for the upcoming contest. The sideline coach attends a practice session and an actual intercollegiate competition, where he/she is introduced to the team and gains rarely seen insight into the relationships that exist between player-coach and player-player. The purpose of the Sideline Coaches Program is to foster a better understanding by the faculty and administration of the roles played by coaches and athletes in the university's competitive intercollegiate athletic arena.

ACADEMIC ENHANCEMENT CENTER: In the Fall of 2005, the Department of Athletics opened a study/computer lab for student-athletes on the concourse level of Sojka Pavilion. The center is outfitted with computers, a laser printer, four television monitors and a projection unit with computer, VCR and DVD player. Additionally, the study lab can be used as a meeting place for group projects, tutorial area or just a secluded and quiet study space before or after practice.

LAPTOP PROGRAM: The Department of Athletics owns a number of laptop computers that may be signed out by student-athletes for use on away trips.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE (SAAC): Representatives from each varsity team comprise the SAAC, which is designed to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare, and fostering a positive student-athlete image. The Committee is an invaluable resource for promoting communication between athletics administration and student-athletes; promoting communication between athletics and campus-wide administration; providing feedback and insight, as well as soliciting responses into department issues and proposed NCAA legislation; building a sense of community within the athletics program involving all athletics teams; organizing community service projects and efforts; creating a vehicle for student-athlete representation on campus-wide committees; serving as a collective voice of campus student-athletes; and disseminating information to the student-athlete body.

OTHER PROGRAMMING: The Department of Athletics, through the identification of outside speakers and periodic "Brown Bag Luncheons," thrives to enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience as well as to educate student-athletes on a variety of issues that may affect them throughout their collegiate career. Some recent topics of interest have been alcohol, nutrition, body image, hazing, sexuality, diversity, career development, study skills, religious life and gambling.

Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium

The Home of Bison Football

◆ Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium ◆

Bucknell plays its home games in a picturesque, 86-year-old stadium that pays tribute to one of its most distinguished alumni and to its numerous war veterans.

The stadium, dedicated in 1924 in honor of Bucknell men and women who served the United States in time of war, was renovated and renamed in 1989 to recognize perhaps Bucknell's most honored alumni and one of the true heroes of American sports.

Christy Mathewson was one of the five original members of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., but gained his initial athletic fame as a fullback, punter and dropkicker at Bucknell from 1898-1900.

One of the truly outstanding players of his era, Mathewson kicked a point after touchdown in the first varsity game of his freshman year, and in the next three years added 13 touchdowns and eight field goals.

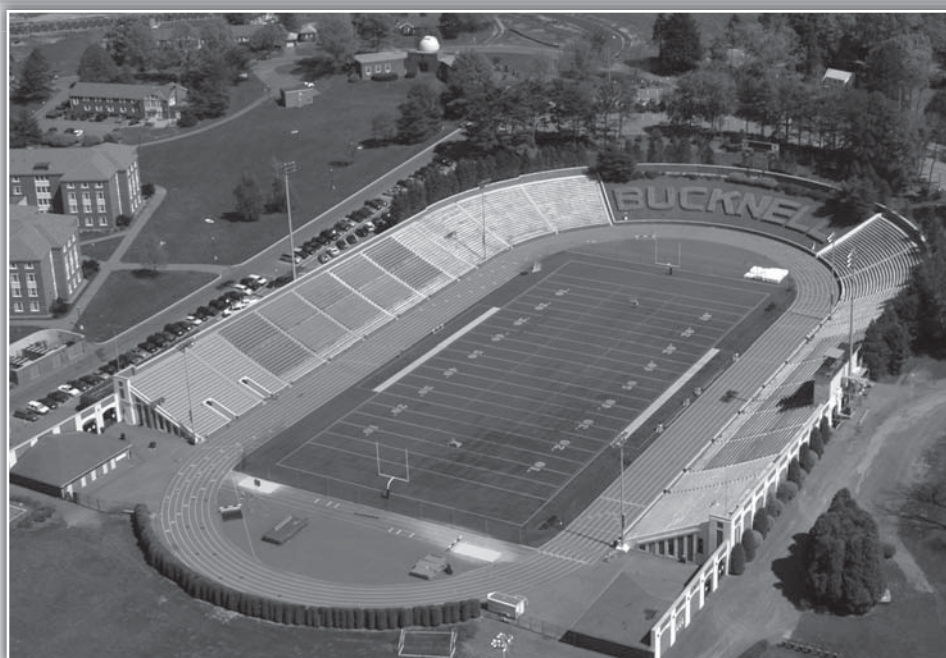

Mathewson gained national attention when he dropkicked two field goals against Pennsylvania in 1899 and added a 45-yard field goal against Army the following year. As a result, he was named the "12th man" on Walter Camp's 1900 All-America team.

Reports in Bucknell files indicate that Mathewson practiced his dropkicking hour after hour, and these reports also note that his punting was exceptional throughout his career, a three-year stretch during which he scored 106 points.

"Matty" was also a punishing runner, and one game account makes note of a 65-yard touchdown run and a 70-yard kickoff return.

The facility that bears Mathewson's name has seen plenty of transformation over the last 20 years. A new locker room and weight room were constructed in 1987. The Tom Gadd Weight Room was updated with brand new equipment in 1999, allowing Bison players an outstanding facility for daily use and weight training.

In 1988, the horseshoe edifice was totally resurfaced and new seating was added. New concession stands, rest rooms, ticket booths and souvenir stands were added a year later, along with an eight-lane, all-weather track, which was resurfaced in 2003.

The section at the south end of the stadium was landscaped in 1988, and a new scoreboard and message-board were added.

The most recent upgrades include new lights, which feature a nearly 10-fold increase in candle power, and a FieldTurf playing surface. The synthetic grass, a gift from Norm Garrity '63 and his wife, Mary Lou '64, was laid in the summer of 2001 and drew rave reviews in its initial seasons. Bucknell at the time was one of only a handful of Division I schools to install FieldTurf as a full-time playing surface in a football stadium.

◆ Kenneth Langone Athletics & Recreation Center ◆

The Bucknell University Department of Athletics and Recreation prides itself on setting the standard of excellence when it comes to success both on the playing fields and in the classroom. With 16 Patriot League Presidents' Cups in 20 years, national leadership in graduation rates, 118 Academic All-Americans since 1970 and 118 Patriot League Scholar-Athletes in 20 years, Bucknell is clearly at the head of the class in terms of upholding the scholar-athlete model.

The addition of the Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center, one of the finest collegiate athletics and recreation venues of its kind, ensures the continuation of that success.

The facility enhances each of Bucknell's 27 varsity programs and greatly expands the scope of its growing intramural and recreational sports offerings. A visually appealing structure located along Moore Avenue on the "downhill" side of campus, the Langone Athletics and Recreation Center was designed to reach out to all members of the campus community, including the student body, varsity student-athletes, faculty, staff and alumni.

Three primary venues lie within the facility: the Arthur D. Kinney Jr. Natatorium, the 4,000-seat Gary A. Sojka Pavilion and the Krebs Family Fitness Center. Other features include a new location for the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, a display of Bucknell's Congressional Medal of Honor recipients, a sports medicine and athletic training suite, classrooms, modern offices for coaches and staff and increased locker room space for varsity and recreational athletes.

The facility is named in honor of Ken Langone, a 1957 Bucknell graduate who, along with his wife Elaine, pledged $11 million toward the center's construction. Langone was a member of the university Board of Trustees from 1980 to 1996.

One of the special qualities of the Langone Athletics and Recreation Center is the manner in which it supplements the pre-existing facilities. The brand new construction surrounds Gerhard Fieldhouse and historic Davis Gymnasium, which has been restored as a competition venue for the Bison volleyball and wrestling teams, as well as intramural, recreation and other varsity practice activities.

As Bucknell continues to strive toward its mission of setting the standard of excellence in college athletics, the Langone Athletics and Recreation Center is the centerpiece in an already impressive cache of athletics facilities that includes the 13,100-seat Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium and its FieldTurf gridiron and 8-lane track surface; the scenic Bucknell Golf Club; Depew Field, the home of the Bison baseball team; the West Fields softball diamond; and Emmitt Field and Graham Field at Holmes Stadium, the new portion of the West Fields project that includes covered grandstand seats, ticket and concession areas, team rooms, a training room and a press box area for soccer, field hockey and women's lacrosse.

A closer look behind the walls of the Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center:

Ramer Schaffner Memorial Hall

Ramer Schaffner Memorial Hall greets guests as they enter the Langone Athletics and Recreation Center. The entry hall features the busts of 2nd Lt. George H. Ramer and 1st Lt. Dwite H. Schaffner, Bucknell's Congressional Medal of Honor recipients, and provides access to Gerhard Fieldhouse and the Krebs Family Fitness Center on the ground level. Guests may proceed to the second level to enter Davis Gym, administrative offices and the Hall of Fame, which celebrates Bucknell's Patriot League championships and other athletics accomplishments.

Krebs Fitness Center

Promoting lifetime wellness, the Krebs Family Fitness Center contains state-of-the-art cardiovascular and strength conditioning equipment. The 16,000-square-foot center includes over 175 positions for equipment within three distinct areas. The first-level cardiovascular and pin-select equipment is open for student, faculty and staff use at all times. Directly above, the mezzanine also contains cardio equipment, with scenic views of the campus and natatorium. In July 2008, a new Mondo floor was installed.

The third area, the Berger Family Weight Room, sits on the former site of Freas-Rooke Pool, and is used for instructional free-weight training and varsity workouts.

Kinney Natatorium

Kinney Natatorium features a 50-meter by 25-yard Olympic class pool, which accommodates four varsity programs — men's and women's swimming and diving and men's and women's water polo — while enhancing the recreational aquatics opportunities for the Bucknell community. The pool itself features two moveable bulkheads, allowing for multiple team practices and recreational swimming to occur simultaneously.

Natatorium amenities include seating for 500 spectators, restrooms, separated varsity and visiting team locker rooms, a poolside classroom, sauna, steam room and concession stands.

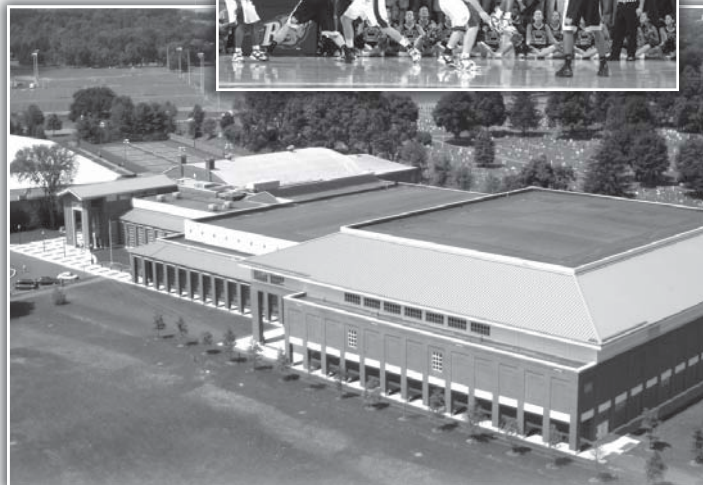

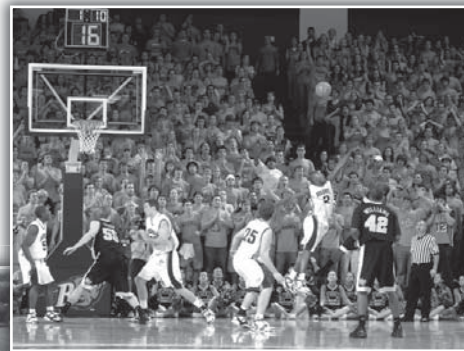

Already Kinney Natatorium has played host to several major events, most notably the 2005 NCAA Men's Water Polo Championship. The facility has also served as host of the four Patriot League Swimming and Diving Championships, the 2004 Eastern Women's Water Polo Championship and an exhibition game against the U.S. women's water polo national team, drawing rave reviews at each. Beginning in the spring of 2005, the Pennsylvania state swimming championships moved to Kinney Natatorium.

Sojka Pavilion

Sojka Pavilion provides the Bison men's and women's basketball programs with one of the finest arenas in the East. A "first-class" venue capable of seating 4,000 spectators for sporting and other campus events, the pavilion has walk-down access to all seats and unobstructed views of the playing surface or concert stage for all spectators. The seating bowl features approximately 1,500 fixed seats and 2,500 retractable seats, enabling an "expandable" open floor area with sufficient space for three basketball courts for recreational activities and varsity practices. The spacious upper-level concourse includes two concession areas, restrooms, handicapped seating and several suites that overlook the floor.

Behind the scenes, on the floor level, Sojka Pavilion provides a green room for performance acts and other functions, a catering kitchen for special events, ticket windows, locker room space for home and visiting teams and officials, and a loading dock capable of accommodating team buses and production trucks for televised events.

More than 20 nationally televised basketball games have already been aired from Sojka Pavilion, including the ESPN broadcast of the 2006 Patriot League championship game and an ESPN360.com airing of the Bucknell-Villanova men's game that drew a school-record crowd of 4,433.

◆ Athletic Facilities ◆

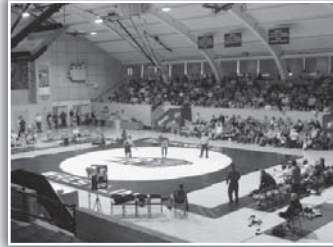

Whether it is the varsity student-athlete, the intramurals participant or the fitness buff looking for a nice workout, members of the Bucknell community benefit from a wide array of first class athletics facilities. The completion of the Kenneth Langone Athletics & Recreation Center in 2003 highlighted a facilities boon at Bucknell. Sojka Pavilion, Kinney Natatorium and the Krebs Family Fitness Center are the centerpieces of the sparkling indoor facility, nicely complementing the renovated Davis Gym and Gerhard Fieldhouse, all of which lie under the same roof. Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium is the largest of the outdoor facilities, with 13,100 seats surrounding the FieldTurf playing surface and recently resurfaced 8-lane track. Holmes Stadium, completed in 2007, is an impressive covered grandstand located at the West Fields complex. It features all chair-back seating and accompanying support facilities (locker rooms, athletic training room, press box, concession/merchandise stand, etc.) that service both three-year-old Emmitt Field, the home of Bison soccer, and the AstroTurf Graham Field, which is the home field of the field hockey and women's lacrosse squads. Also located on the western end of campus are numerous grass fields for intramurals and recreation, as well as Bucknell's own highly regarded 18-hole golf course. The Bison rowing team has its own boathouse located about 10 miles south of campus, along the scenic Susquehanna River. The quality and location of these venues makes Bucknell one of the most sports-friendly campuses in the nation.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY
CLASS OF 1942

Bucknell University

WE COMBINE THE PERSONAL ATTENTION OF A SMALL COLLEGE WITH THE RESOURCES OF A LARGE UNIVERSITY

An aerial photograph of the Bucknell University campus, showing various academic buildings, green spaces, and a large tree in the foreground. The title 'THIS IS BUCKNELL' is overlaid in a stylized font.

THIS IS BUCKNELL

Bucknell University is one of the top liberal arts colleges in the nation. Our academic programs encompass:

- The traditional liberal arts disciplines—arts, humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences.
- Professional programs in accounting, education, engineering, management and music.
- Preprofessional programs in law and medicine.

With more than 3,500 undergraduates and nearly 150 graduate students, we combine the personal attention of a small college with the resources of a large university.

The Campus: Beautiful and Centrally Located

- More than 100 facilities for learning, living, and recreation.
- Recent additions: music building, residence hall, geology/psychology building, engineering building, and athletics center. The new West Fields complex is home to field hockey, women's lacrosse, and men's and women's soccer.
- Approximately three hours from Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia, and Washington, D.C.

Academics: Broad Learning Opportunities

- More than 50 majors leading to Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Engineering, Bachelor of Science in Education, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, or Bachelor of Music.
- Arts and Sciences Departments and Programs: Animal Behavior, Art and Art History, Biology, Cell Biology/Biochemistry, Chemistry, Classics, Comparative Humanities, Computer Science, East Asian Studies, Economics, Education, English, Environmental Geology, Environmental Studies, French, Geography, Geology, German, History, International Relations, Latin American Studies, Management, Mathematics, Music, Neuroscience, Philosophy, Physics and Astronomy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Russian, Sociology and Anthropology, Spanish, Theatre and Dance, Women's and Gender Studies.
- Engineering Departments: Biomedical, Chemical, Civil and Environmental, Computer Engineering, Computer Science, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.

The Faculty: Focused on Students

- More than 330 full-time faculty.
- More than 95% of faculty members hold doctoral degrees.
- Undergraduate learning is highest priority.
- Faculty members are active scholars who conduct research, produce creative works, and publish their findings, often in collaboration with students.

Undergraduate Research: Hands-On Learning

- Students conduct research in the lab and off campus in conjunction with faculty mentors.
- High degree of independence.
- Great preparation for graduate school and career.

Campus Life: Never a Dull Moment

- Learning outside of class: academically oriented student organizations, guest lecturers, campus publications, concerts, art exhibitions, theatre, trips off campus, and more.
- More than 150 student-run organizations to suit nearly every interest, from a capella singing to Zen Buddhist meditation.
- Volunteer and service projects on- and off-campus, including abroad.
- 13 fraternities and 8 sororities.
- Diverse religious life programs.
- Athletics: varsity intercollegiate program, club sports for both men and women, and intramural programs.

Residential Colleges: Housing Options with an Academic Twist

- Seven themed programs open to first-year students: arts, environmental global, humanities, language and culture, social justice, and society and technology.
- Students take a course together, live together, and participate in out-of-class activities such as informal discussions, guest lectures, and off-campus trips.

Career Services: Preparation for the Future

- Full- or part-time internships at companies, non-profits, or governmental agencies.
- Resume writing and interviewing guidance.
- Two-day job shadowing externships.
- On-campus employment expos and off-campus networking nights.

Visit Campus: See Bucknell for Yourself

- Tours are offered five times daily on weekdays and three times on Saturdays.
- No appointment is necessary for tours; other options may require reservations.
- See an award-winning virtual tour at <http://community.bucknell.edu>
- Please go to www.bucknell.edu/admissions/calendar or call 570-577-1101 for more information.

→ Bucknell ranked eighth nationally in student-athlete graduation rate according to the NCAA's fall 2009 report. Bucknell has led the nation in graduation rate on several occasions and annually ranks in the top 10.

→ Seventeen Bucknell varsity athletics programs boasted perfect 100 percent Graduation Success Rates (GSR), factoring student-athletes who entered school between the 1999-2000 and 2002-03 academic years.

→ All 27 Bucknell varsity programs easily meet the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate (APR) standards. In fact, 18 Bison programs, including football, earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of all teams in their respective sport according to APR scores.

→ A student-athlete Academic Enhancement Lab is open six days a week throughout the school year. Fully equipped with computers and audio/video technology, the study center is conveniently located on the Sojka Pavilion concourse.

BUCKNELL

REVIEW

Lewisburg, Pa. One of the Best Small Towns in America

Bucknell's hilltop campus slopes into Victorian Lewisburg, population roughly 6,000, a town in which historic preservationists have influence. Lewisburg enjoys ornamental vanities that are not part of modern architecture. Gingerbread porches, carved wooden doors and three-globed street lights that make this town memorable.

Historical roots are important in Lewisburg. The town celebrates the holidays with the annual Victorian Holiday Parade and exhibits at the Packwood House Museum and the Slifer House Museum. Its many historical sites include an Underground Railroad station. A weekly market brings Amish farmers to town in horse-drawn wagons.

Lewisburg is ranked 15th in the nation in the book, The 100 Best Small Towns in America, written by Norman Crampton. The town earned this ranking by scoring high in areas such as the number of physicians per 100,000, the percentage of college-educated residents, the lowest number of serious crimes, and its location near state parks as well as being host to an institution of higher learning.

The borough of Lewisburg began its early life as "Derrstown" named for its settler, landowner, and miller Ludwig Derr. While the date remains obscure, the historians point out that in English, the German name for Ludwig is Lewis.

The town's growth from 1785 until well into the 19th century was slow due to the lack of transportation, until a ferry was built to carry wagons across the Susquehanna River and a canal was completed in 1833. Lewisburg, surveyed in 1769, was not officially founded by Ludwig Derr until 1785. The borough was incorporated on March 31, 1812. Located on the Susquehanna, it has benefited with every development in transportation: turnpike, canal, railroad and now, highways.

Enhanced by the chartering of Bucknell University on February 5, 1846, and the seating of the county government on October 9, 1855, the community expanded its development past Fifth Street to what is now Route 15. Most of the builders of this community are protected through historic district regulation.

In addition to Bucknell, the Lewisburg Federal Prison System and Evangelical Community Hospital enhance the area's financial stability.

Education has always played a primary part in Lewisburg's social society. As early as 1790 the basics were taught in private homes. In 1805 the "Log Cabin Academy" was built. In 1835 three new schools were added, while the present system consists of two elementary schools, a middle school — which was recently named the top middle school in the state — and a high school. Sixty-five percent of Lewisburg's high school graduates go on to college.

Bucknell No. 1 in Salary Potential Among U.S. Liberal Arts Colleges

Graduates of Bucknell University have the highest earning potential in the nation, a new research survey revealed in July 2008. The 2008 Education and Salary Report, prepared and released by Seattle-based PayScale Inc., named Bucknell graduates No. 1 among graduates of top U.S. liberal arts colleges by salary potential.

The top liberal arts college category showed that the starting median salary for Bucknell graduates was $54,100, while the mid-career median salary was $110,000. Bucknell was followed by Colgate University at $52,800 and $108,000 and Amherst at $54,500 and $107,000, respectively.

The salary report, the first issued by the company, also ranked Bucknell 13th among all Northeastern colleges and universities for salary potential. Dartmouth College, Princeton University, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Yale University, and Harvard University were Nos. 1-5, respectively. Except for Cooper Union (No. 9), Bucknell was the only predominantly undergraduate institution in the top 14 in this category.

National Reputation

A number of recent reports have served to underscore Bucknell's national reputation:

- In 2007, The Washington Monthly ranked Bucknell No. 7 among the best liberal arts colleges in the country when it comes to fostering research and promoting an ethic of service and social mobility.
- In 2008, the Peace Corps listed Bucknell at No. 6 on its top 25 list of small colleges and universities producing Peace Corps Volunteers.
- In 2008, Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine rated Bucknell as the 11th best value in private liberal arts colleges.

◆ Plan for Bucknell/Athletics Mission Statement ◆

Bucknell is a unique national university where liberal arts and professional programs complement each other, where 3,583 full-time students are educated for a lifetime of critical thinking and strong leadership. For 160 years, the University has remained true to its fundamental purpose: to educate and prepare students for lives that make a difference and have a positive impact on the world.

In keeping with that purpose, the University has developed The Plan for Bucknell, which includes its collective vision — “To provide students with the premier undergraduate experience in American higher education.”

The Plan comprises five strategies.

Strengthen the Academic Core aims to ensure that a Bucknell education is challenging and engaging, with openness to new ideas and a culture of innovation;

Deepen the Residential Learning Experience will provide a residential learning and living experience that complements the academic program, integrates the athletics and recreation program and promotes personal growth and development and civic and ethical responsibility;

Enhance Diversity is a commitment to diversity in all its forms within a civil and supportive environment of open exchange to prepare Bucknell graduates to live and work in a globally integrated and intercultural world;

Build Bridges will bring the world to Bucknell — through visiting scholars and sports teams, international students and alumni, guest speakers, international focus semesters, and electronic communications — and bring Bucknell to the world through strategic partnerships and community engagement activities as well as opportunities for off-campus study and faculty research;

Secure Our Financial Future will secure resources necessary to engage new opportunities, lessen dependence on tuition, and ensure our financial future.

The Plan for Bucknell was unanimously approved by the Board of Trustees on April 29, 2006, having previously been approved by the students and faculty. We have begun implementing it and are determined to make it a reality over the next decade. To read the complete version of The Plan for Bucknell or to request a published version, see <http://www.bucknell.edu/ThePlanforBucknell>.

The Department of Athletics and Recreation strives to set the standard of excellence for intercollegiate and intramural programs in higher education, thereby advancing and drawing attention to the mission, core values, and educational goals of Bucknell University.

The Department believes that student-athletes' academic programs must be their first priority. It is therefore committed to maintaining Bucknell's high national ranking for student-athletes' graduation rates and for producing Academic All-Americans, and to continued leadership of the Patriot League in Academic Honor Roll nominations, based on grade-point averages. The coaches' and staff's paramount responsibility is maintaining academic priorities and supporting student-athletes' education, even while providing the rigorous and serious NCAA Division I athletic opportunities Bucknell student-athletes seek.

Further, the Department promotes the personal growth of student-athletes and the general student body by encouraging personal health, development, and balance among intellectual, social, civic, and physical pursuits; by celebrating challenge and competition; and by preparing participants for service and leadership in the world. Coaches and staff direct a rich array of athletic programs and recreational opportunities aimed at increasing student engagement, as well as strengthening character, healthy living, teamwork, sportsmanship, and spirit. In creating shared experiences for students, faculty, and staff, as well as alumni, family, and friends, the Department's programs add substantially to Bucknell's sense of community and foster life-long relationships with Bucknell.

The Department embraces the University's decision to compete at the highest extramural level, in Division I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). Division I membership is valuable not only because this level of competition maximally challenges student-athletes, but also because it signals clearly Bucknell's high standards and seriousness of purpose in all extracurricular endeavors and it helps position Bucknell apart from other National Liberal Arts Colleges. Likewise, the competitive success the Department seeks, measured in part by consistent contention for the Patriot League Presidents' Cup, reflects positively upon Bucknell's student-athletes and the University alike, and it brings distinction and national recognition to Bucknell.

A student-centered operation, the Department is committed to providing equitable opportunities to women and men, as well as members of minority and majority groups of all kinds. The Department subscribes to, and complies with, all principles and regulations of the Patriot League, the Eastern College Athletic Conference, and the NCAA.

◆ Bison Club ◆

Former Bison football players and members of the current coaching staff at the Bison Club Spring Athletics Reception this past May.

Bucknell has continued its long tradition of academic and athletic excellence in large part because of the Bison Club, which provides support for all of Bucknell's varsity intercollegiate athletics programs.

Membership in the Bison Club helps the Bucknell athletics programs defray expenses of recruiting, equipment purchases and team travel.

The Bison Club also sponsors the annual Senior Athletic Awards Banquet, one of the highlights of the athletic year at Bucknell. At the banquet, each qualified senior student-athlete is presented with a Bucknell ring or watch in recognition of his or her achievements. Special awards honor the most outstanding student-athletes in the senior class.

In addition, the Bison Club sponsors the Bucknell Athletic Hall of Fame, which now includes 211 members and is located on the second floor of Bucknell's Gerhard Fieldhouse.

Todd Newcomb, Bucknell Class of 1988, is in his 10th year as the director of the Bison Club. He is the second full-time director of the organization since it was founded nearly 50 years ago, following Jim Campbell, who served in that capacity for 11 years before retiring in the summer of 2000. In addition to his duties as associate director of athletics for external affairs, Newcomb coordinates fundraising efforts for all 27 men's and women's varsity sports, alumni functions and special events.

Working closely with Newcomb and the director of annual giving to identify and solicit new annual donors to the Bison Club are managers of athletics fundraising Tom Harvey and Terry Conrad. In addition, former Bucknell Hall of Fame lacrosse coach Sid Jamieson has served as a fundraising assistant for the past five years.

For more information on supporting the Bison Club, please call Todd Newcomb at 570-577-1771.

◆ Gridiron Club ◆

The Bison Gridiron Club is an organization of alumni, parents and friends of Bucknell Football whose primary purpose is to promote a heightened awareness of and an active interest in the Bucknell Football program. The main support group of Bucknell Football, the Bison Gridiron Club will operate under the umbrella of the Bison Club and the Office of Development and Alumni Relations. The purpose of the Bison Gridiron Club is twofold; to serve as a conduit for Bucknell players, both past and current, to unite behind the program they have built by reconnecting and reengaging in Bison Football; and most importantly, to support and augment the Bucknell Football program with championship level financial and personal assistance. Community Projects

Bucknell head coach Joe Susan is a big believer in building positive relationships through community service. In recent years the Bison football team has participated in several community events, with much more to come in the future. A sampling of community service events the Bison have participated in over the last few years includes:

- Cleanup of the Lewisburg Cemetary
- Bone Marrow Donorship event
- Lewisburg Children's Center Visit
- American Red Cross blood drive
- "Light the Night Walk" to raise runds and awareness for leukemia and other forms of cancer
- Postgame autograph sessions
- Lewisburg Community Pool Water Safety Day
- Lewisburg Little League Cleanup Day
- "Football Day" at Lewisburg Community Child Care Center
- Highway Cleanup at Mile Run Road
- Canned food drive
- Chaperoned Big Brothers Big Sisters Farewell Picnic
- "Sleepover Day" at the Donald Heiter Community Center
- Homework Club at Eichhorn Middle School
- Drug/alcohol awareness program at Mifflinburg Elementary School

Bucknell football players are regularly involved in many community service activities.

◆ Bud Ranck-Tom Gadd Memorial Kickoff Classic ◆

More than 250 golfers returned to campus last July for the 14th Annual Bud Ranck-Tom Gadd Memorial Kickoff Classic. The premier highlight of the Bucknell football program's offseason, the event attracted a diverse mix of former Bison players and coaches, along with numerous fans and supporters of the program.

The tournament was founded by the late Bucknell head football coach Tom Gadd, and it has developed into a fun annual event. The weekend also includes a Sunday night dinner that features a season preview from the coaching staff along with a raffle and silent auction.

In the tournament's second year, Gadd named the event after good friend Bud Ranck, who had died earlier that year. To memorialize Gadd after his passing in March 2003, the Ranck family announced at the Sunday evening dinner that the tournament will now bear the names of both Bud Ranck and Tom Gadd.

Another highlight of the Sunday dinner is the announcement of the Bud Ranck-Tom Gadd Award winner, which honors annually an outstanding supporter of the Bucknell football program. The 2009 winner was Alex McClinchie, a 1964 graduate of Bucknell.

As for the golf tournament, winners and runners-up were crowned in both the Ranck and Gadd flights in three divisions: Master's, Open and Gross.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON-MEMORIAL STADIUM PRESS BOX

The press box at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium is available to working members of the media only. Cheering is not permitted, nor tolerated. The press box is located atop the West stands of Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium. Also located in the press box are radio, game operations and video booths, coaches booths and an athletic director booth. Admission to the press box is by credential only.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for working media credentials for Bucknell home games are required and are issued to working members of the press only. Season credentials will be granted to members of the media that cover Bucknell football on a regular basis. Requests for single-game credentials should arrive no later than three days prior to the game. All single-game credentials may be picked up in the Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium press box on game day. Please contact Todd Merriett to request a credential.

MEDIA SERVICES

Working media at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium will receive the following:

- Game program, pregame notes, flipcard
- Live statistics monitors
- Quarterly "quickie" statistics
- Complete final statistics
- Complete final play-by-play

MEDIA PARKING

The Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium press box is located on the west side of the stadium (nearest Route 15). Members of the media are permitted to park in the area closest to the press box behind the stadium.

RADIO INFORMATION

There are two booths for electronic media in the Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium press box, one of which is reserved for the Bison Sports Network. The remaining booth will be reserved for the official station of the visiting team, as designated by that institution's sports information director. If there are more than two stations broadcasting the game, or if the game is on television, then at least one broadcast crew may have to work from the main press box.

Permission to broadcast the game is granted through the Bucknell Office of Athletic Communications and arrangements for use of a phone line should be made at least two weeks prior to a game. Bucknell reserves the right to deny access to an organization for not following procedure. All long distance phone calls must be charged to a credit card or other third party.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The NCAA has a sideline control policy to keep those areas free from congestion. Only photographers on assignment and working members of the television media are issued sideline passes. Per NCAA rules, photographers are not permitted between the 25-yard lines.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The postgame interview room is located under the east stands adjacent to the Bucknell team locker room. Media members will be escorted by a member of the Athletic Communications staff to and from the interview room.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Members of the media are invited to attend practices at all times if accompanied by a member of the Athletic Communications staff. Please contact the Office of Athletic Communications 24 hours in advance to determine the status of practice and gain clearance into the workout. As long as it does not interfere with practice or class schedules, interviews can be conducted prior to or after practice.

MIDWEEK INTERVIEWS

To arrange a telephone interview with coaches and student-athletes, please contact Todd Merriett in the Athletic Communications Office. Every effort will be made to coordinate an interview as long as it does not interfere with practice or class schedules.

PHOTO REQUESTS

The Bucknell Office of Athletic Communications maintains a digital photo library of its student-athletes and coaches, and head shots and action shots are available on request to members of the media.

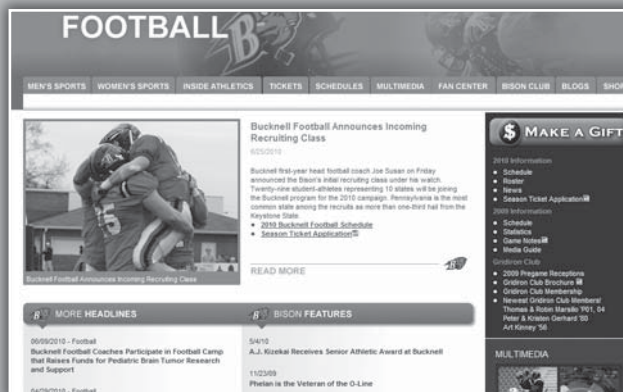

BUCKNELLBISON.COM

Bucknell's official athletics website — BucknellBison.com — is the best place for news on the university's 27 intercollegiate programs, including Bison football. The site is updated daily with the latest news, videos, photos, results, statistics, roster and features. During the football season, members of the media can find weekly game notes, game recaps, box scores, cumulative statistics, depth charts, player bios and breaking news. BucknellBison.com also features live and archived broadcasts of the radio play-by-play of all Bucknell football games, home and away, as well as live and archived video of all home games and live statistics on GameTracker for all home contests.

GAMEDAY AT WWW.BUCKNELLBISON.COM

On football Saturdays, www.BucknellBison.com should be a fan's only destination. During each game of the 2010 campaign, Bucknell's official Web site will include links to live audio, game notes and features, complete game statistics and a complete game recap with video highlights. The site will also provide live statistics via GameTracker during all six home games and a live video broadcast will be available for all home games that are not nationally televised as well.

FOOTBALL INFORMATION

Information on the Bucknell football program can be obtained throughout the year at BucknellBison.com. The comprehensive football site includes current and past press releases, game notes, up-to-date statistics, player and coach profiles, video features, rosters, schedule and results and numerous photo galleries.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Live radio broadcasts of all 11 games on the Bison's 2010 schedule can be heard online free of charge through SportsJuice.com. Links to SportsJuice.com can be found throughout BucknellBison.com. The broadcasts will include the Bison Sports Network's information-packed pregame show and a thorough postgame session.

VIDEO BROADCASTS

Live video broadcasts of each Bucknell home game and road contests against Duquesne, Marist and Georgetown will be available through BucknellBison.com's Bison Vision service for a small fee in 2010. Monthly or year-long subscription packages are available. Other road games will likely have video available through opponent websites, and links will be included on BucknellBison.com, if applicable, the week of the game. Additionally, Bison Vision will be updated regularly with free interviews and other interesting and informative features on the Bucknell football program.

PHOTO STORE

In 2009, Bucknell partnered with Replay Photos and CBS College Sports to offer Bison fans the opportunity to purchase high-quality prints of photographs online. Fans can access select photos for sale via photo galleries throughout BucknellBison.com. Photo galleries will be posted along with the recap for most home games as well as select road contests.

ONLINE AUCTIONS

Another feature of BucknellBison.com is its online auctions. A number of fan experiences and Bison memorabilia are regularly available for bids. In recent years a Bucknell game-used football helmet and a number of game-worn football jerseys have been auctioned.

TELEVISION BROADCASTS

At least two Bucknell games will be on television in 2010:

- ⇒ Oct. 2 vs. Cornell (CBS College Sports)
- ⇒ Oct. 30 vs. Lafayette (Lafayette Sports Network: RCN-4, RCN-8, WBPB-60, delay on MASN)

RADIO BROADCASTS

Once again, Bucknell football games can be heard locally on Eagle 107 (WEGH 107.3 FM). Doug Birdsong will handle the play-by-play duties, while Kevin Herr, who is the operations manager at Sunbury Broadcasting, will serve as the color analyst for a third consecutive year. Ryan Unger, who is Bucknell's women's basketball play-by-play voice, is expected to return for another year as the sideline reporter.

Doug Birdsong

Manager Radio/TV and Marketing
"Voice of the Bison"

Bucknell football hits the airwaves again this fall on the Bison Sports Network. Radio broadcasts of all 11 Bucknell games will be carried live on the Bison Sports Network. The network's flagship station again this season is Eagle 107 (WEGH 107.3

FM). The pre-game show begins 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

The broadcasts also have a worldwide audience over the internet at BucknellBison.com.

Doug Birdsong enters his 11th season as the "Voice of the Bison." A 1987 Marshall University graduate who has called play-by-play for college and high school athletics for 24 years, Birdsong was named Radio/TV Coordinator and Marketing Specialist at Bucknell in July 2000.

He is just the second full-time "Voice of the Bison," following in the footsteps of Bob Behler, who called the action for 13 years. In addition to calling the Bucknell football action, Birdsong also handles the play-by-play duties for men's basketball, in addition to numerous other Bison teams. He has worked NCAA Tournament contests in men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer and women's soccer during his tenure at Bucknell.

In 2008, Birdsong took on additional duties as he is responsible for all video shown on Bison Vision on BucknellBison.com. He interviews coaches and student-athletes and obtains highlights from most home Bison events to post on the popular Bison Vision, which has received rave reviews as it enters its third year in 2010-11.

Birdsong also helped initiate and served as host of Bison Live! and Bison Now!, former radio shows that originated from local restaurants.

Birdsong came to Bucknell from AVC Communications in Cambridge, Ohio, where, as the sports director, he managed the play-by-play crews on five radio stations for 12 years. He called play-by-play for Muskingum College football, men's and women's basketball, softball and volleyball, and also handled the same duties plus baseball for area high schools. Birdsong was also responsible for writing and producing 11 daily sportscasts focusing on the six area high schools and Muskingum College.

During his final five years at AVC, Birdsong coordinated advertising and posted an outstanding record, increasing sales by at least 10 percent each year.

Prior to his experience at AVC, Birdsong worked at WTCR in Huntington, W.Va., for a few years after graduating from Marshall. While he was a student at Marshall, he worked for WMUL as its Sports Director and called football, basketball and baseball for the Thundering Herd. In addition, Birdsong produced and hosted a weekly one-hour sports talk show.

He has won numerous awards, including citations from the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcasters for "Best Local Sporting Event Coverage" two years in a row. Birdsong has also won four Outstanding Sports Operation for Play-by-Play citations from the Associated Press in Ohio, and two from the Associated Press in West Virginia. In 1999, he was chosen as the Eastern Ohio Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association Media Person of the Year.

Bucknell President Dr. John C. Bravman

John C. Bravman began his official duties as Bucknell University's 17th president on July 1, 2010. He came to Bucknell from Stanford University, where he oversaw the undergraduate program as the Freeman-Thornton Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education and served as dean of the Freshman-Sophomore Residential College, which he founded in 1999. As vice provost for undergraduate education, Bravman helped lead a curricular transformation that introduced new pedagogies, invigorated Stanford's system of residential education, and created the Stanford Summer Engineering Academy for entering Stanford undergraduates from under-resourced school districts.

As one of Stanford's pre-eminent leaders, Dr. Bravman was a strong and visible presence on behalf of the university around the nation and the globe. A renowned scholar in the field of thin-film materials, he was the Bing Centennial Professor of Materials Science and Engineering and a professor of electrical engineering by courtesy of that department in recognition of his related achievements. He won almost every Stanford teaching and advising award, including the Walter J. Gores Award, Stanford's highest teaching honor, and the Kenneth M. Cuthbertson Award for Exceptional Contributions to Stanford. He is only the second person in Stanford's history to receive both honors. Stanford also established the John C. Bravman Family Scholarship Fund, securing more than $3 million for scholarships in a few short weeks before Bravman completed his tenure there.

Bravman received his bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees in materials science and engineering from Stanford. He is married to Wendelin Wright, who served as the Clare Boothe Luce Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering at Santa Clara University before joining the Bucknell faculty this past summer. Their first child, a boy, Cole Keating Bravman, was born April 8, 2010.

John P. Hardt Director of Athletics & Recreation

At the helm of a proud and flourishing Bison athletics program is director of athletics and recreation John Hardt, who is now in his 11th year at Bucknell and his 25th year in athletics administration. Hardt administers a broad-based sports program with a proud and successful history.

Since his arrival, Hardt has orchestrated one of the nation's most assertive facilities overhauls, built and maintained relationships with major donors, restructured the athletics administration in order to help Bucknell stay ahead of the curve in the fast-paced world of Division I athletics and built upon Bucknell's long-standing tradition of scholar-athlete excellence.

Hardt is privileged to oversee a varsity athletics program that has long been at the head of the class in the Patriot League, both on the playing fields and in the classroom. From Presidents' Cups to Academic All-Americans to the nation's best graduation rate, Bison Athletics carries a proud heritage.

While building on Bucknell's athletic and academic excellence is paramount, Hardt has also incorporated progressive ideas in the area of external relations. Initiatives such as the Bison Now radio program, a new graphics identity package, an informative and visually appealing athletics Web site and a revamped Bison Club all serve to bring Bison Athletics into the homes of its supporters.

Hardt reorganized the management structure of the department and implemented a sport management group, dividing the direct oversight of 27 men's and women's varsity programs among Hardt and four associate directors of athletics.

During his productive tenure at Bucknell, Hardt oversaw eight consecutive years of growth in Bison Club donations, and he has seen the program benefit from several major gifts. While the Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center is the crown jewel of a successful university fundraising campaign, other significant offerings include a $7.6 million donation from William Graham — one of the largest in university history — which was directed toward women's athletics and the successful restoration of wrestling to varsity status. Graham Field, the AstroTurf venue at the West Fields, was also a result of that gift.

Other major gifts have included the funding of the FieldTurf playing surface and new lighting in Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium, a new natural grass soccer pitch that opened in 2005, Holmes Stadium, the new stadium/press box facility that now supports both Graham Field and Emmitt Field, as well as endowments for football, track and field, swimming and diving and water polo.

While much has been achieved in the last nine years, Hardt's vision for Bison Athletics carries well into the future. Working with campus and department leadership, he has developed a long-range plan for Bucknell Athletics that meshes with former President Brian Mitchell's strategic plan, entitled The Plan for Bucknell. Hardt's plan focuses on future facilities upgrades, places an emphasis on diversity and gender equity, and promises the continued commitment to a student-centered athletics and recreation program that adheres to the student-athlete ideal.

Hardt, who received the Gen. Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director Award in March 2008 the All-American Football Foundation's 91st Banquet of Champions, also remains very active in athletics governance at the national level. In 2006-07 he served as chair of the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Committee, and in 2008 he joined the Division I Baseball Committee.

He began his tenure at Bucknell on February 15, 2000, after serving four years as associate director of athletics at Michigan State University. While there, Hardt supervised the sports medicine staff, strength and conditioning, equipment operations, computing and tech services and NCAA/Big Ten rules compliance. In addition, he handled legal and contractual issues for the department.

Prior to his tenure at MSU, Hardt spent five years at Syracuse University as director of athletic compliance and four years with the NCAA's national office as a compliance representative.

A native Iowan, Hardt is a 1984 honors graduate of the University of Iowa, and he was a member of the Hawkeyes' 1982 Rose Bowl football team. He later earned his law degree from Iowa and is a doctoral candidate in Iowa's College of Education.

Tim Pavlechko Senior Associate Director of Athletics

Tim Pavlechko, a 1991 Bucknell graduate, is in his 11th year as a member of the Bison athletics staff, and his ninth as Senior Associate Director of Athletics.

A former Bison student-athlete and graduate assistant coach, Pavlechko returned to Bucknell from the NCAA office in Indianapolis, where he spent three years as an assistant director of championships. At Bucknell Pavlechko serves as chief aide to the director of athletics in the management and leadership of the department.

Pavlechko supervises 15 sports, including football, at Bucknell. In addition, Pavlechko oversees the areas of facilities/game management, athletic training/sports medicine, strength and conditioning and equipment management. He has had primary oversight of Bucknell's recent athletics facilities boom, including the construction of the Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center and the multi-phase West Fields project, which includes Holmes Stadium, Graham Field, Emmitt Field, and most recently Depew Field and the Varsity Softball Field.

In 2006-07, Pavlechko began serving on the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Committee, and he recently completed a two-year stint as chair of the committee.

During his days at the NCAA office, Pavlechko was responsible for the administration and conduct of seven national championships, including Division I wrestling and men's lacrosse, which annually ranked among the top-five revenue producing championships within the association. He served as liaison to numerous coaches associations and sport governing bodies. In addition, Pavlechko handled corporate partner relations and was a group technology liaison with the championships division.

Prior to his work at the NCAA, Pavlechko spent five years working in the athletic department at UNLV. After spending the 1993-94 year as an internal affairs intern with the department, he became a game operations representative. In 1995 he was promoted to coordinator of game operations and athletic facilities, overseeing game operations for 15 sports while managing seven athletic facilities.

A native of Boalsburg, Pa., Pavlechko graduated from Bucknell with a bachelor of science degree in business administration, and he went on to earn a master of science degree in business administration from Bucknell in 1993. Pavlechko played center and guard on the Bison offensive line in 1989 and 1990, and he remained with the program as a graduate assistant for two years coaching the defensive ends and long snappers.

Pavlechko resides in Lewisburg with his two children, a 15-year-old daughter, Ella, and a nine-year-old daughter, Lauren.

Terrie Grieb Associate Director of Athletics, Business & Team Services

After 21 seasons and more than 300 victories as the head coach of the Bucknell softball program, Terrie Grieb turned her attention full-time to her administrative duties in the fall of 2000.

In her role as Associate Director of Athletics for Business and Team Services, Grieb is responsible for all accounting and business services and the department's overall budget and finance. She oversees purchasing, ticket operations, team transportation and lodging, human resources and the department's clerical and secretarial staff as well as the cheerleading program and pep band. Grieb also oversees the department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Grieb was a highly regarded head coach at Bucknell from 1978-2000. She began her tenure with the Bison as the head volleyball and softball coach and assistant women's basketball coach. Grieb holds the distinction of being the only woman in Bucknell history to coach three varsity sports in one season when she directed the softball, women's basketball and volleyball teams in 1980-81.

Excluding one sabbatical season, Grieb was the only coach Bucknell Softball had known. During her tenure, she was honored as conference coach of the year six times, collecting her final honor after the 1999 season. She garnered top mentor honors three times while a member of the Patriot League — a feat equaled by just one other league coach. Grieb compiled a 307-324-2 mark during her 21 years, including a Patriot League title in 1997. Grieb was also the first head coach of the Bucknell women's volleyball program, directing the squad from 1978 through the 1984 season. Over those seven years, the Bison compiled a 90-96-1 mark, capped by a 22-11 season in 1983.

After two seasons as the assistant women's basketball coach, Grieb directed the women's basketball team to a 7-12 mark in 1980-81. Following that season, she served as an assistant for the program until 1991.

Grieb began her administrative duties as assistant athletic director for business services in 1997, establishing her relationship with the University's finance, procurement and payroll offices. A native of Loganton, Pa., Grieb graduated from Lock Haven University in 1977 with a bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation. She was a standout basketball and softball player for the Eagles.

Dr. Mitch Chernin NCAA Faculty Representative

In May 2003, Dr. Mitch Chernin, professor of biology, accepted an appointment to become Bucknell's new NCAA Faculty Representative, replacing colleague Dr. Gary Sojka, who served in that capacity for two years.

Chernin, a member of the Bucknell faculty since 1985, is tasked with representing Bucknell and its faculty in relations with the NCAA and the Patriot League. In addition, he provides campus leadership on athletically-related issues and acts as a liaison with the University's governance system. Chernin has been a member of the university's Committee on Athletics since 2001 and recently oversaw its successful NCAA re-certification process.

A fundamental believer in Bucknell's commitment to the scholar-athlete model, Chernin firmly believes that a student's college education extends well beyond the confines of the classroom or laboratory.

"It is the university's responsibility to provide opportunities for students to develop leadership, self-awareness, confidence and discipline," he said. "It seems to me that many, if not all, of these qualities can be attained by participating in athletics at the highest level."

Chernin arrived at Bucknell in the fall of 1985 after a post-doctoral stint at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons. He received his bachelor's degree in marine biology from the University of Massachusetts-Dartmouth in 1973, before going on to earn a master's degree in tropical marine biology from the University of Guam in 1979 and a Ph.D. in molecular biology from Clemson University in 1982.

Promoted to associate professor of biology in 1991 and to the Herbert L. Spencer Professorship in Biology in 1997, Chernin has taught courses in molecular biology, developmental biology, organismal biology, biochemical methods, introduction to molecules and cells, genetics, virology and general biology.

Formerly the biology department chair, Chernin has published and presented numerous papers on his research, earning an impressive list of grants along the way. A wrestler in high school, Chernin has served as a faculty sideline coach for the Bucknell football and field hockey teams, and he has been a strong advocate for the department's faculty sideline coaching program. In 1986 he organized a biology department tailgate at a Bison football game, and over the years the tailgate has grown immensely in popularity and is now a staple on Bison football Saturdays in Lewisburg.

Michael McFarland
Associate Director of Athletics,
Facilities & Event Operations

Michael McFarland, a familiar face in Patriot League athletics circles, is in his sixth year at Bucknell and just last year was promoted to Associate Athletic Director for Facilities and Event Operations at Bucknell. McFarland came to Bucknell from the Patriot League headquarters in Center Valley, Pa., where he had served as associate executive director since 2000.

In his role at Bucknell, McFarland serves as the day-to-day supervisor of athletic facilities and coordinator of all facility scheduling. He monitors marketing and promotional activities for all 27 Bison varsity sports and also handles scheduling, maintenance, preparation and event management issues for all activities. He also oversees Bucknell's Recreation Services. He is tasked with managing Bucknell's facilities for all athletic events, university functions and outside special events. In addition, McFarland acts as the liaison with the campus facilities division and other university offices, such as reservations and conference scheduling, admissions and public safety, and he oversees the official licensing of Bucknell athletics merchandise.

McFarland wore many hats as a veteran member of the Patriot League office. Chief among them was the operations oversight for each of the 23 league-sponsored championships, including the popular men's and women's basketball tournaments. McFarland also managed the conference's basketball television package, including the scheduling and production of games.

Responsible for the promotion and publicity of the Patriot League, McFarland oversaw the league's marketing and sponsorship strategy while supervising the league's media relations team. He also acted as the chief liaison with several Patriot League committees, including facilities and operations, sports information, sports medicine, marketing, ticketing and television.

Before joining the Patriot League staff, McFarland spent five and a half years at the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) in Mission, Kan., first as the communications director and later as the assistant executive director. He was responsible for the editing of the NSCAA's Soccer Journal, a coaching educational periodical, managing the scholastic and collegiate rankings programs, sponsorship fulfillment and the association's publications.

McFarland is a 1991 graduate of Lindenwood University in St. Charles, Mo., where he received a degree in corporate communication and was an all-conference soccer player. He received a master's degree in sport administration from Western Illinois University in 1994.

He also served as sports information director while at Western Illinois. In addition to his responsibilities of media coverage for the 18 varsity programs at WIU, he handled marketing, promotions and fundraising projects. Previously he worked in the sports information offices at Lindenwood and West Virginia Wesleyan College.

McFarland, who has remained active in the sport of soccer as a youth coach, resides in Lewisburg along with his wife, Cari, and daughters nine-year-old Raely and seven-year-old Aydan.

Todd Newcomb
Associate Director of Athletics,
External Affairs & Bison Club

Todd Newcomb, a 1988 Bucknell graduate, is in his 12th year as a member of the Bucknell staff and his 10th as Associate Director of Athletics for External Affairs and Director of the Bison Club.

After two years as the department's director of athletic communications, Newcomb now focuses his efforts towards this important position within the department. He is responsible for managing and directing the department's fundraising, development and alumni relations programs. He works closely with the Development and Alumni Relations staff and is responsible for assisting to coordinate annual, planned, capital and special gifts for the department of athletics and recreation. Under Newcomb's watch, the Bison Club topped the $1 million mark in donations for the first time in 2003-04, then upped that total to more than $1.25 million in 2004-05 and over $1.5 million in each of the last five years.

While the director of athletic communications, Newcomb served as the primary contact for the Bison football program and oversaw all publicity and media relations for the school's Division I athletics program.

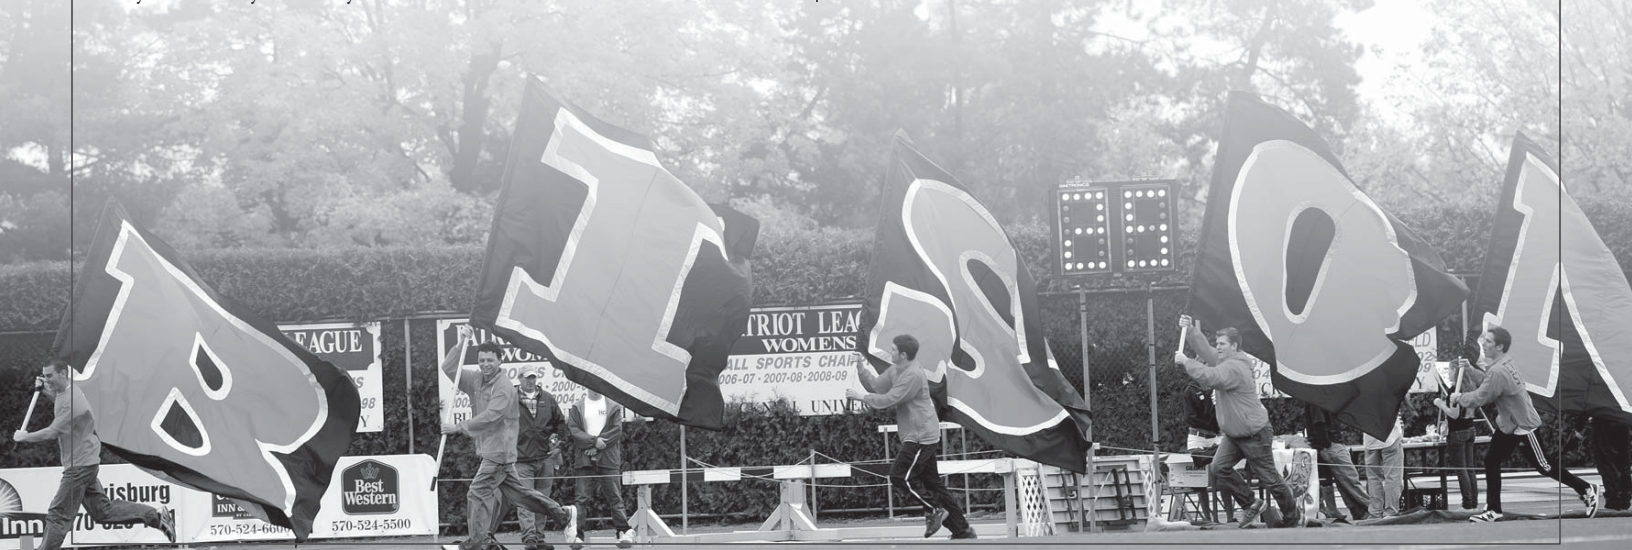

Under his direction, recruiting brochures for all sports were redesigned and produced in an 8 1/2 x 11 format for the first time. The Bucknell football and men's and women's basketball media guides were increased in content by over 20 percent.

Newcomb also oversaw the transition of the athletic department's website from an in-house operation to a partnership with the Official College Sports Network (now CBS College Sports). The site has continued to receive high praise from Bucknell coaches, student-athletes, alumni and fans.

Newcomb returned to Bucknell after working for 10 years in the Patriot League office. During the last six months of his stint in the conference office, he served as interim executive director of the Patriot League. Prior to the interim position, Newcomb was associate executive director of the Patriot League from July 1997 to January 1999, and was assistant executive director of the league from August 1989 until June 1997. In those two positions he was responsible for the promotion and publicity of the league, its activities and the accomplishments of its student-athletes.

Newcomb began his career as an athletic communications intern with Bucknell and the Patriot League in 1988-89. He is a member of the National Association of Athletic Development Directors, has been an active member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and served on the executive board of the Eastern College Athletic Conference Sports Information Directors Association (ECAC-SIDA) from 1994-2001, including a stint as president of ECAC-SIDA in 1999-2000.

A native of Port Jefferson, N.Y., Newcomb lives in Lewisburg with his wife, Karen, and their three children: Courtney (16), Drew (13) and Brett (9).

Calvin Symons Associate Director of Athletics, NCAA Compliance Services

Calvin Symons, who had served as the director of the NCAA Initial-Eligibility Clearinghouse since 1993 and was the author of that organization's widespread database, was named associate athletics director for NCAA compliance services in November 2007.

Symons has been involved in amateur athletics for more than 20 years, including a stint with the United States Olympic Committee, and through his 14-year association with the NCAA Initial-Eligibility Clearinghouse, he gained expertise in the area of NCAA rules compliance.

At Bucknell, Symons directs the department of athletics' compliance and rules education program for coaches, student-athletes, departmental staff, boosters and university offices, as well as coordinate and monitor the certification of student-athletes' eligibility and financial aid.

Symons is credited with designing and implementing the original database for the NCAA Initial-Eligibility Clearinghouse, which processed more than 150,000 student-athletes each year. He oversaw the Clearinghouse operation grow from a staff of seven at its inception in 1993 to an operation of more than 100 employees. As Clearinghouse director, Symons gained a thorough understanding of the NCAA's structure, philosophy, programs and policies. He served in an advisory capacity to several NCAA committees and represented the Clearinghouse at national educational seminars and presentations to state and national high school groups and college associations across the country.

Symons, who has a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Pittsburgh and a pair of master's degrees in public administration and sports administration from Penn State University, worked with the U.S. Olympic Committee as a project manager and operations manager from 1985-89. He was responsible for planning and logistics for the U.S. Olympic Festival and was a member of the operations staff for the Pan American Games in 1987 and the Olympic Games in 1988.

Later, Symons worked with the State of Maryland, authoring a feasibility study and bid document for the state to host a U.S. Olympic Festival. He also consulted with the Carnegie-Mellon University athletics department and the Colorado Amateur Sports Corporation on athletic administration affairs.

Symons' initial work specific to NCAA rules compliance came with the Syracuse University athletics department, where he helped create an innovative adaptation of an NCAA Compliance Manual.

From 1978-84, Symons served as coordinator of programs in the department of student affairs at Penn State. In that capacity he supervised 15 resident assistants and designed programs and workshops to foster community building and conflict resolution.

Jon Terry Assistant Director of Athletics, Athletic Communications

Jon Terry, a 1993 Bucknell graduate, is in his 10th year as Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Communications.

In his capacity, Terry oversees all aspects of media relations, publication design and website development for Bucknell's 27-sport athletics program.

In 2000-01, Terry completed his sixth year as assistant director of media relations at the U.S. Military Academy, where he served as the primary media contact for the nationally ranked Army men's lacrosse team as well as the Army hockey team.

During his tenure at West Point, Terry also worked closely with the Black Knights' women's volleyball, wrestling, tennis and track and field programs, while serving as the media relations director for the Collegiate Sprint Football League. Also a contributing writer for the award-winning Army football game program, Terry has received numerous citations for both his writing and publication design at both Army and Bucknell, including a "Best in the Nation" award for his 2000 Army men's lacrosse guide and a district runner-up honor for his 2005-06 Bucknell men's basketball guide.

After graduating from Bucknell with a bachelor of arts degree in geology, Terry served as a sports information assistant at his alma mater from 1993-95. While a student at Bucknell, the Ellicott City, Md., native served as sports editor of The Bucknellian for two semesters and as a staff writer for three others.

At Bucknell and West Point, Terry has served in a media relations host capacity for a myriad of NCAA championship events, including the 1997 and 2001 men's lacrosse regional doubleheaders, the 2005 NCAA men's water polo championship, as well as gymnastics, swimming and golf regionals. He coordinated media operations for the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association Championships in 1999 and has overseen a host of conference championship events, including Patriot League men's basketball tournaments at Sojka Pavilion in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

Terry is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and ECAC-SIDA, and he is a six-year member of the CoSIDA Academic All-America Committee.

Terry and his wife, Carmen, a former athletic trainer at both West Point and Bucknell, reside in Lewisburg. The couple has a nine-year-old son, Dustin, and a six-year-old daughter, Emma.

Joe Santorine Assistant Director of Athletics, Recreation Services

Joe Santorine, former director of programs for the Phoenixville (Pa.) Area YMCA, is now in his 10th year as Bucknell's Coordinator of Recreation Services. Prior to the 2009-10 academic year he added responsibilities as an Assistant Athletic Director in the department.

With more than two decades of recreation services experience under his belt, Santorine is responsible for the administration and coordination of Bucknell's expanding recreation, intramural and club sports programs. In addition, he acts as the department's primary liaison with the university community regarding recreation services, and he works closely with the director of athletics in determining the university's recreational programming needs.

A 1983 graduate of Springfield (Mass.) College with a degree in commercial recreation, Santorine oversaw the daily physical programs at the Phoenixville YMCA's three program centers since May of 2000. Santorine also earned a master's of education from Springfield in 1985.

From 1998-2000, he served as director of intramurals and facilities at Cabrini College in Radnor, Pa. While at Cabrini Santorine was also an adjunct professor of sports science, teaching courses in facility management and sports management. For the previous six years he worked at Kettering University in Flint, Mich., as the assistant director of recreation services. He also served in the same capacity at Montclair State University from 1986-91. A member of the National Intramural Recreation Sports Association since 1985, Santorine has served on various national committees and has been a consultant to the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority at the Meadowlands Sports Complex.

Santorine is very active in civic volunteer projects, such as Relay for Life and Light the Night. He also volunteers as a downhill ski instructor for blind children.

Joe and his wife Marguerite, who is a program coordinator and study abroad advisor in Bucknell's Office of International Education, live in Winfield, Pa., with their two sons, Joseph (17) and Kyle (15).

THE 2010 BISON

Pages: 30-64

◆ Season Outlook ◆

"There's no place I'd rather be!" shouted new Bucknell head coach Joe Susan to no one in particular as he jogged to a new station in the midst of his first spring practice as Bison frontman this past March.

Like their new coach, who traded in the scarlet of Rutgers for the orange and blue of Bucknell, Bison fans are excited Susan is now manning the sidelines of Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium.

At Rutgers, where he coached under 1988 Bucknell graduate Greg Schiano, Susan helped orchestrate a tremendous turnaround in the Scarlet Knights' program. Prior to Susan's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had not posted a record above .500 for nearly a decade and had qualified for one bowl game in 131 years of football. Last year, Susan was on the sidelines for a fifth consecutive bowl game. Over his final five years at Rutgers, Susan was a member of a staff that guided the Scarlet Knights to a 43-21 overall record.

At Bucknell, Susan is charged with turning around a Bison program that has finished below .500 each of the last three years and is coming off a 4-7 mark in 2009. Luckily, Bucknell does not have as far to go as Rutgers did nearly a decade ago.

"If I were to compare the talent at Rutgers when we got there to the talent here as it compares to our opponents, we are more talented here," explained Susan. "I think we can be better sooner than a lot of people think. Obviously, though, talking about it is one thing and putting it on the field is another."

The upward momentum that Susan hopes to oversee actually started more than two months before the veteran mentor was hired. The Bison ended the 2009 campaign on a high note, defeating No. 13 Holy Cross, 23-17, in the season finale at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium. That victory can serve as a springboard toward a positive 2010 season.

In addition to building on that win, Susan tried to instill some of his own philosophies during his initial spring practice.

"One of my biggest philosophies is that we become a tougher football team," said Susan. "We did more physical drills during the spring than we would normally do. I wanted the team to come away from the spring knowing we had to be physical to be a good football team. With the physical demands during the season we have to be intelligent with regards to how much we do physically during a game week. Our goal is to be more physical than any team we play against."

"Another item we really emphasized during the spring was ball security on offense and ball disruption on defense. We have taken some strides in terms of ball security, but we still have to get better at throwing the football, especially to the right color (uniform)."

By the time preseason practice comes around, Susan will have been at the helm of the Bison for more than half a calendar year. At that point the rapport between him and the players will be very strong since it has been a focus from day one.

"The first goal we had as a coaching staff was to get to know the players and for them to get to know us," mentioned Susan. "We needed to gain their trust and they needed to gain ours. They know we demand a lot of them, but they also know we give a lot to them. They have learned a bit about what we want from them, but I think it is a continual learning curve."

Bucknell this season returns 35 lettermen and 14 starters. Below is a position-by-position look at the Bison heading into preseason practice.

Offense

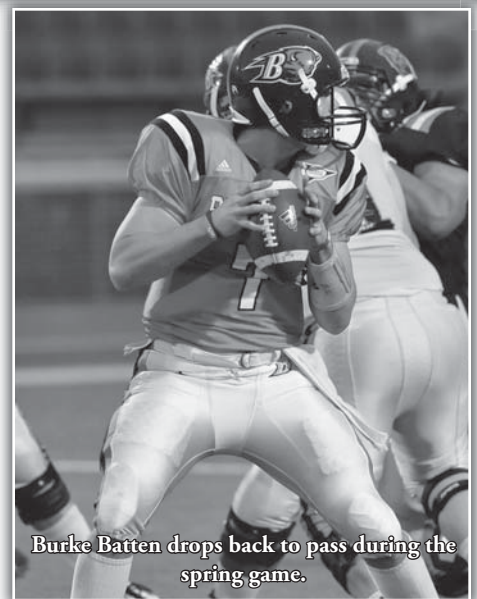

After running a couple variations of the option offense under former head coach Tim Landis for the last seven years, Bucknell will be utilizing a pro-style offense in 2010.

During Landis' tenure, the Bison piled up more than 63 percent of its offense on the ground. Tight ends were not used very often and the backfield was regularly loaded with an army of slotbacks. Now, plenty of tight ends and fullbacks dot the roster and the running/passing balance should be more evenly split.

"We anticipated our defense would be ahead of the offense due to the offensive changes," commented Susan. "We installed more of a pro-style attack in the spring and we will install it again in the preseason, so our team will go through two separate installs. As long as things are similar, it will be repetition for them, which is critical in what we are doing."

Quarterback

Thanks to the new pro-style offense, the quarterback position will be used quite differently from the past. While recently graduated Marcello Trigg ended his career among Bucknell's best all-time passers, the strength of the position in recent years has been the legs of its inhabitants. Daris Wilson (2001-04) broke school marks for rushing yards in a game, season and career by a quarterback, while Dante Ross posted more yards rushing than passing in 2005. Trigg, even, accumulated more than Burke Batten drops back to pass during the spring game.

400 yards rushing his first two seasons before being slowed by injuries the last two years.

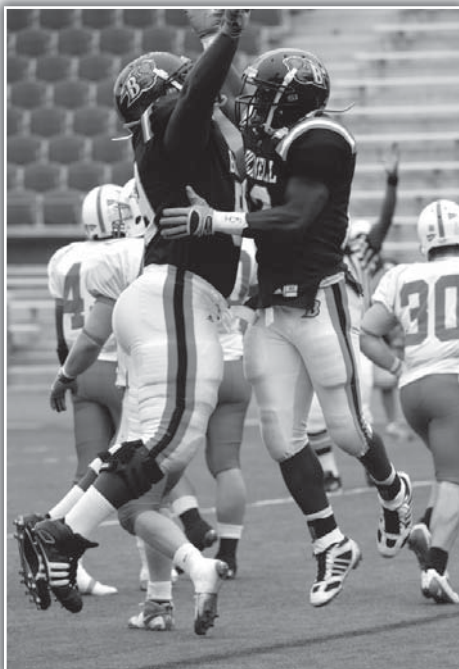

In his first two campaigns junior C.J. Hopson fit more into the running mold with 781 yards on the ground, including a team-high 633 last fall. In fact, he enters the second half of his career with more rushing yards than passing (731). However, he will now be called on to throw the ball significantly more despite four 100-yard rushing contests last season.

Hopson, who rushed for a career-high 189 yards in the season finale upset of No. 13 Holy Cross last November, would seem to have a leg up on the starting position this year given his eight career starts at quarterback, but Susan sees it as a tight competition between Hopson and classmate Burke Batten, who has appeared in just one game over his first two years at Bucknell.

"C.J.'s game experience does help him, but he doesn't have game experience in our current offense and that will make it an unknown until we get to the first game," predicted Susan. "There is a good possibility we will play more than one quarterback. I don't particularly care to do that, but if it is a necessity we will do it."

While Susan forecasts a Hopson-Batten battle, fellow junior David Noshay could also challenge for some playing time after finishing the spring well, including a 4-for-6 performance in the spring game. The Florida native missed last year after undergoing offseason hand surgery.

California native Lenny Magill is also in the mix at quarterback, as are freshmen Derek-London Dierkes and Brandon Wesley. Both Dierkes (6-3) and Wesley (6-2) bring size to the position.

"All of our quarterbacks have capable arms, but that must understand that throwing an incompletion or taking a sack isn't as bad as throwing to one of the opponents," said Susan.

"What is open. What isn't open. Those are the things we need to continue to teach because it effects our turnover ratio. It starts with throwing to the right guys, the ones that are wearing our color shirt."

Tailback

There will be plenty of new faces on the field at the tailback position. With less reliance on the quarterback to run the ball, as well as more utilization of the fullback position, sophomore Tyler Smith is the most experienced tailback on the roster. Smith appeared in 10 games a year ago, starting one (vs. Marist) and was fourth on the team with 234 rushing yards. However, he missed most of the spring with an ankle injury and was surpassed on the depth chart by classmate Robert Owoyele and junior Jamil Crews.

The wiry Owoyele played in eight games and rushed twice for 19 yards. His first career carry went for 15 yards at Colgate.

"Robert has the potential to be a very good player for us," commented Susan. "He runs stronger than he is built and does a really good job catching the ball out of the backfield."

Crews is a strong and compact runner with plenty of speed, but Susan noted he must get better with ball security to be a factor in the offense. He missed most of last year with a knee injury, but showed he is healthy with 62 rushing yards and a touchdown in the spring game.

Sophomore Jeremiah Young, who is from the Harrisburg area, received plenty of praise after ending his high school career as Pennsylvania's all-time leading rusher. However, he tore his ACL in a high school all-star game and was unable to get on the field last fall. He is expected to be practicing at full speed when preseason camp commences.

Fullback

Last year's second-leading rusher Ryan Smith headlines the list of Bison moving to fullback in the new offense. The strong senior carried the ball 69 times for 283 yards, including a season-high 70 yards at Fordham. Smith also caught 13 passes for 74 yards.

"Ryan isn't a traditional two-back fullback and we will have to be smart about how we use him," explained Susan. "He catches the ball well and can run with the ball in this system."

Junior Brandon Besant will also play fullback, while sophomore James Carson will be moving from defensive line to the offensive side of the ball.

"The fullback position is multiple in this system," Susan detailed. "The fullback can be in there when one back is in the game and can be a receiver. He does have to block, though, he is not just another guard in the backfield."

Tight End

Another position Bison fans are not used to seeing on the field much is a tight end. In the past, Bucknell did not utilize a tight end much, preferring to load up the backfield.

Sophomore Terna Ityokumbul and senior Luke Massaro appear to be the frontrunners for the position. Susan believes Ityokumbul is the best line of scrimmage tight end, while Massaro will be used best in movement.

Sophomores Matthew Diles and Nick Gatto will move from defense to tight end this year, while Susan thinks freshmen Brian Copeland and Joe Sangimino can challenge for playing time.

All six tight ends have listed weights of at least

Wide Receiver

The wide receiver position will become considerably more spotlighted in 2010 than it has been in the past. The Bison have a strong list of candidates to choose from, including Shaun Pasternak, who was hampered by injuries last fall, but hopes to return to his record-breaking 2008 form. He was a Second Team All-Patriot League selection after breaking the Bucknell single-season receiving record with 1,083 yards. Pasternak missed spring practice and will be forced to work his way back up the depth chart.

Among the receivers who hope to compete for starting positions is senior Marlon Woods. Also a record-setting sprinter on the Bison track and field team, Woods has played in the backfield and receiver over the years, but has yet to find his niche.

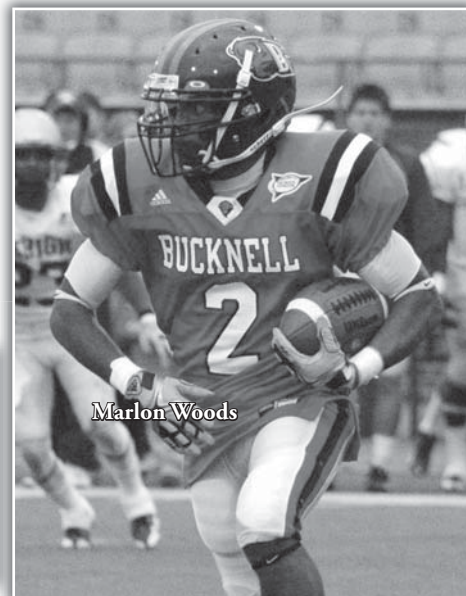

Junior Gabe Skwara, sophomore Brandon Pinnock and former defensive back Frank DeNick will also be in the mix for playing time.

Former running backs Alex Iwaskiw and John Gallagher, as well as former quarterback A.J. Pompliano, will also see time at wide receiver.

In addition to the veterans, the Bison inked a number of talented wideouts who will try to make an impact, including Jake Flaherty, Patryk Najbar, Tajh Turner and Victor Walker. Susan mentioned that all of the rookie wide receivers add speed to the position.

Offensive Line

Last year Bucknell had the same five starters on the offensive line in all 11 games. Three of those veterans return (Anthony Carter, Ian Dal Bello and Jason Vollmar), but the final lineup is still in flux.

Vollmar was the starter at right tackle last year, but he is expected to move to center this fall. Carter (right) and Dal Bello (left) are expected to hold down the guard positions for a third straight year. Both juniors moved into the starting lineup in the first game of 2008 and have been there 22 straight times.

The tackle positions will have new faces in them as junior Carson Rohrbaugh enters preseason practice No. 1 on the depth chart at left tackle, while classmate Josh Phillip is expected to start on the right side.

If the preseason depth chart holds, the Bison will have four juniors and a senior with a combined 55 career starts forming their offensive line.

Susan expects to have at least six or seven offensive linemen ready to play at any time with sophmores

Troy Steinhilber, Christopher Spahr, Brandon Morris and Brian Flynn, along with Andre Shields in the mix for playing time.

Interestingly, the projected backups (avg. weight: 285.5) possess much more size than the projected starters (avg. weight: 270.8).

A big addition to the offensive line is junior Clark Maturo, who transferred from Connecticut. The 305-pounder was a redshirt freshman with the Huskies last fall.

Defense

New defensive coordinator Clayton Carlin will try to expand on the success of the Bison defense in 2009. The defensive side of the ball was clearly the team's strength and expect that to continue in 2010.

Bucknell last year limited opponents to 23.6 points per game, its best figure since 2004, and a 7.2-point improvement from the previous season. Additionally, the Bison posted 66 tackles for loss, their best mark also since 2004. Interestingly, the last time Bucknell finished above .500 in Patriot League play was the 2004 campaign.

The Bison also accumulated 20 sacks and 15 interceptions. It was the most interceptions since 2005 and the most sacks since 2004.

Carlin is expected to switch the defense to a 4-3 setup and the front four will certainly be a strength. In fact, Susan thinks there are six legitimate starters for the four defensive line positions.

Despite only six returning starters on defense, experience will not be a problem as the 11 projected starters have appeared in 201 career contests with 117 career starts.

Defensive Line

The defensive line is probably the position group Susan has the least to worry about heading into the 2010 campaign. There are seven returning players who have seen regular game action in contention for the four starting spots. Additionally, Susan is high on freshman Orlando Eureste, who brings good size to the defensive tackle position at 6-3, 255 pounds.

While Second Team All-Patriot League selection Robert De La Rosa is back for a third year, the biggest news on the defensive line is the return of junior Josh Eden from a two-year Mormon mission. Eden started all 22 games as a freshman and sophomore in 2006 and 2007. During that time he was a First Team All-Patriot League choice (2007) and totaled 18 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks.

"Josh was a little rusty in the spring, but he is a leader of the defensive front and on the defense as a whole," lauded Susan. "He is as good as there is in the league. People will have trouble blocking him and will have to double team him."

De La Rosa was one of only two sophomore defensive players to be recognized on the All-Patriot League team last year. He piled up a career-high 43 tackles and 9.5 tackles for loss. He ranked second on the Bison and tied for fourth in the Patriot League in tackles for loss as he upped his two-year total to 14.5.

Susan forsees De La Rosa in the middle of the line and Eden as an end with both pressuring the quarterback on a regular basis.

De La Rosa and Eden will certainly be two standouts on the defensive line, but the cupboard is not bare after them. Senior Tyler Anderson, who was sixth on the team with 52 tackles at linebacker last year, will move to the end opposite Eden, while veterans Kyle Boline and John von Paris will see plenty of playing time.

Sophomore Samuel Oyekoya is someone who needs to continue to put on more weight, but he will be in the mix as well. Last year he played mainly in third-and-long situations and used his quickness to total nine tackles, four tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.

Sophomore Devin Gordon-Hamm, who weighs nearly 300 pounds, will also be an option in the middle of the line at nose guard.

Linebacker

Bucknell's best defensive group last year was its linebackers. However, the graduation of Greg Jones, Casey Williams, Brigham Farrand and Sam Nana-Sinkam leaves some holes to fill. Farrand and Nana-Sinkam missed the majority of 2009 with injuries, giving some other players, including Travis Nissley, a chance for extra playing time. Year, responded well with a career-high 93 tackles, including five double-figure tackle outings.

Nissley will be joined by a pair of first-time starters at the other two linebacker spots. Entering preseason practice junior Sean Rafferty, a former defensive back, and sophomore Beau Traber, were the frontrunners. However, Susan thinks junior Tim Bolte will work his way into the lineup after a 13-tackle season last fall.

"Because of how they are used in this system, our linebackers should be our most productive tacklers," predicted Susan. "Some of the schemes we run will get them to the quarterback and I think they, along with the defensive line, can be one of the strengths of our defense."

Defensive Back

In the defensive backfield, the Bison have both experience with multiple-year starters Bryce Robertson and Ahkeil White as well as youthful talent with sophomores Joseph Francis and Donald Quarles expected to appear in the starting lineup.

White was a Second Team All-Patriot League selection last year and has been a regular starter at safety each of the last two years. He was third on the team with 60 tackles and picked off a team-best four passes last fall. White's 24 career starts are the most among current Bison.

Susan thinks White's interception total could go even higher as he continues to improve at catching the ball, rather than batting it down to the ground.

Like White, Robertson is a two-year starter. The cornerback is just 5-9, but he posted 53 tackles and picked off one pass last year.

"Bryce has a chance to be one of the better cover corners in the league," commented Susan. "He is very good at man-to-man coverage. He knows what he is doing defensively and that leads to plenty of confidence. He is a very smart player."

Susan is high on Quarles as a cornerback as well after a solid spring season.

Francis, who produced well in limited playing time at both linebacker and safety as a freshman, should see plenty more time on the field as a sophomore. Susan expects to pressure with the safeties on a regular basis and the physical Francis will be a key component of that pressure.

Rob Gerlach was a starter at safety alongside White for much of 2009, but he suffered a late-season injury and missed spring practice, so Susan is still unsure of his impact in the defensive backfield.

Sophomore T.J. Kelly and junior Mike Cardinute will battle for playing time at safety, while athletic senior Jamal Briggs will see plenty of time at cornerback for a second straight year.

starter Will Carney, Drew Orth took over as the primary placekicker last year and was solid. He connected on five of six field goals and 17 of 19 extra points, converting 16 straight at one point.

"Drew has really singled himself out as the PAT/FG guy," said Susan. "As his self confidence grows, I think he can be a positive for our team."

Sophomore Bill Prendeville, who handled kick-off duties in a handful of contests as a freshman while Orth was recovering from an injury, will again push Orth. Susan likes the strength of Prendeville's leg, but mentions he must be more accurate.

The departure of Andrew Bell leaves a hole at punter. Prendeville, sophomore Ryan Gutowski and linebacker-sized freshman Alex Eckard appear to be the frontrunners to win the starting position.

There will be plenty of continuity from the position that will be snapping the ball to the kickers with senior Alex Iwaskiw back as the long snapper for a third year and junior Carson Rohrbaugh also in his third year as the short snapper.

While the kicking game will have some new faces, the biggest difference on special teams will be the loss of kick returner A.J. Kizekai. The Rhode Island native broke nearly every kickoff return record in Bison history before exhausting his eligibility. Susan mentioned the team did not work on kickoff and punt returns much during spring practice, but he said Marlon Woods and Bryce Robertson appear to be the main candidates to field kicks and punts. He also thinks Robert Owoyele and Donald Quarles have some ability.

"We'll find out in the preseason who has the savvy and courage to take a kickoff, make one move and go," said Susan.

The 125th Season of Bison Football

Bucknell will begin its 125th season of football at Duquesne on Sept. 4 in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Bucknell and Duquesne are no strangers to opening-day meetings. This will be the ninth season-opening game between the two in-state rivals since 1997, and the fifth in a row. The Bison have won six of the previous eight, including a 48-42 shootout two seasons ago at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium.

The 2010 Bucknell schedule will be very similar to the 2009 slate with 10 of the 11 teams remaining. Only Robert Morris departed and was replaced by Dartmouth.

In addition to the Big Green, Bucknell will also play Cornell and Penn, meaning the Bison will have three Ivy League foes on the schedule for the first time since 2004. All three Ivy League opponents — Dartmouth (Sept. 18), Cornell (Oct. 2) and Penn (Oct. 9) — will visit Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium.

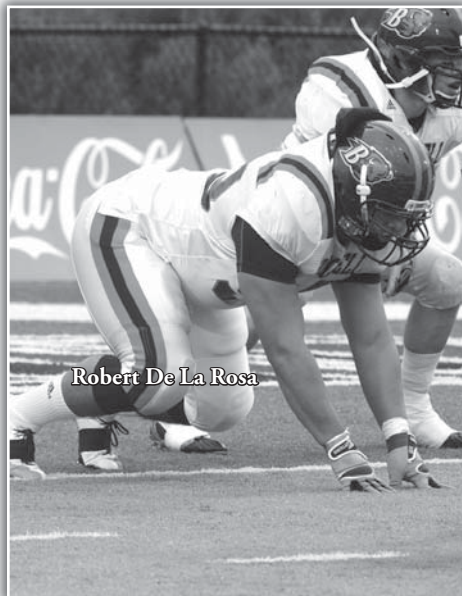

Bucknell's other three 2010 home games will come in successive weeks in Patriot League play. The Bison will host Lafayette on Homecoming on Oct. 30, Fordham on Nov. 6 and Colgate on Nov. 13.

Bucknell's open date will be Sept. 25, after which it will play five of its next seven games at home. The other away dates are Oct. 16 at Georgetown, Oct. 23 at Lehigh and the season finale Nov. 20 at Holy Cross.

New Coaching Staff

Bucknell will have a new coaching staff on the sidelines this year, including new head coach Joe Susan. Susan, who led Davidson to a 10-0 record in his only season as a head coach in 2000, came to Bucknell from Rutgers, where he was an assistant since 2001.

Susan's offensive coordinator is Bryan Bossard, while the defensive coordinator is Clayton Carlin. Bossard was formerly a Bison assistant in the early 1990s, while Carlin spent the last six years at Cornell.

Robert De La Rosa

Former Bison defensive lineman Matt Borich (DL), former Cornell assistant Ross Pennypacker (S) and longtime Valparaiso assistant Chip Taylor (S/ST) comprise the rest of the defensive staff, while returning assistants Mike O'Connor (QB/RB) and R.D. Montgomery (TE) as well as Chad Rogosheske (OL) and Rich Scarantino (RB) will handle offensive assistant coaching duties.

With the new coaching staff in place, Bucknell is expected to utilize a pro-style offense and a 4-3 defense that features more zone coverage.

First-Year Coaching Success

New Bison head coach Joe Susan will attempt to become the fourth straight Bucknell coach to post at least a .500 record in his first season at the helm of the Bison. Five of Bucknell's last seven head coaches have led the team to at least a .500 record in their first campaign.

Each of Bucknell's last four coaches, and six of the last seven, claimed his first game in his new post.

Coach	First Year (Record)
Tim Landis	2003 (6-6, 4-3 PL)
Tom Gadd	1995 (7-4, 4-1 PL)
Lou Maranzana	1989 (5-5, 2-2 PL)
George Landis	1986 (3-7, 1-3 PL)
Bob Curtis	1975 (5-4)
Fred Prender	1969 (3-5-1)
Carroll Huntress	1965 (6-3)

Eden Returns

While the new coaching staff was certainly one of the biggest changes of the offseason, the Bison on-field personnel certainly received a boost when 2007 All-Patriot League selection Josh Eden returned from a two-year mission. The hulking defensive lineman started all 22 games as a freshman and sophomore and posted 90 tackles, 18 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks.

Eden, who participated in spring football this past offseason, is expected to return to his starting defensive line position.

Another familiar face will be rejoining the Bison this fall as senior A.J. Pompliano returns. The now-wide receiver missed last season while serving the country in Iraq as part of the military. To honor his teammate, 2010 graduate Sam Nana-Sinkam wore Pompliano's No. 6 last fall.

Success in Close Games

Bucknell has had success in close games in recent years. In fact, the Bison have posted a 10-4 record in games decided by seven points or less since 2006.

Close Wins

Bucknell won nine games over the last two seasons and most have been close. The last nine Bison victories have come by a combined 37 points, an average of just over four points per game. The eight-point margin of victory over Georgetown last October marked Bucknell's largest win since a 14-point triumph in the 2007 season finale at Fordham.

Yellow Flags

Bucknell was the least-penalized team in the nation in 2007 and 2008 and finished second last year. In 2009, the Bison ranked second nationally in fewest penalties per game (3.64) and third nationally in fewest penalty yards per game (35.50).

Over the last 16 games, the Bison have been penalized 50 times for 470 yards, while their opponents have piled up 892 penalty yards on 99 penalties.

Returning All-League Players

Two of Bucknell's four All-Patriot League selections from 2009 will return this year. Senior defensive back Ahkiel White and junior defensive lineman Robert De La Rosa will be back in Orange and Blue after earning second-team citations a year ago.

White, who was named a Preseason All-American by Consensus Draft Services prior to the 2009 campaign, registered 60 tackles and a team-high four interceptions last year. He intercepted a pass in three straight games midseason, making him the first Bison to accomplish that since Erich Muzi in 1998.

One of only two sophomore defensive players to be recognized on the All-League team, De La Rosa piled up a career-high 43 tackles and 9.5 tackles for loss in 2009. He ranked second on the Bison and tied for fourth in the Patriot League in tackles for loss as he upped his two-year total to 14.5. De La Rosa registered at least 0.5 tackles for loss in nine of Bucknell's 11 games.

Position Changes

A number of Bison changed positions during the offseason. A complete list of position changes is below:

Tyler Anderson: LB⇒DE
 Brandon Besant: RB⇒FB
 James Carson: DL⇒FB
 Frank DeNick: DB⇒WR
 Matthew Diles: DL⇒TE
 John Gallagher: RB⇒WR
 Nick Gatto: LB⇒TE
 Alex Iwaskiw: RB⇒WR
 A.J. Pompliano: RB⇒WR
 Sean Rafferty: DB⇒LB
 Ryan Smith: RB⇒FB

Number Changes

Five Bucknell players changed numbers during the offseason. A complete list of number changes is below:

Brandon Besant: 40⇒22
 Jamil Crews: 34⇒20
 Robert De La Rosa: 93⇒24
 Matthew Diles: 99⇒89
 Donald Quarles: 18⇒4

Record Watch

Only one current Bison player shows up in Bucknell's career record book and that is WR Shaun Pasternak. The senior ranks 10th in program history in receiving yards (1,515) and is tied for 10th in receptions (96).

Pasternak is close to the career touchdown mark of 18 as he enters his senior campaign with 15 career touchdown receptions.

Also close to entering the Bison career record book is DB Ahkiel White. White has eight career interceptions, one away from tying Mike Augsberger, Nate Musselman and Justin Lustig for 10th place in that category.

Not Quite as Experienced

Entering last year, Bucknell was expected to have its most experienced team in years. This year is quite different. Last year, Bucknell's returning players had combined for 330 career starts. This season, that figure is down to 244.

Career Starts by Position	2009	2010
Quarterbacks	25	8
Running Backs	52	8
Receivers	51	30
Offensive Linemen	62	56
Defensive Linemen	27	59
Linebackers	63	15
Defensive Backs	50	68
Total	330	244

Opponents

Bucknell's 11 opponents posted a combined 61-69 record in 2009. Five opponents finished the season with above-.500 records.

Aiming for .500

Bucknell has posted three straight losing seasons for the first time since finishing under .500 four consecutive years from 1991 to 1994. The Bison have registered at least a .500 mark 10 times in the last 15 years.

Keeping Travel to a Minimum

Outside of Patriot League road contests at Georgetown and Holy Cross every other year, Bucknell has played all but two of its games since 2003 in its home state of Pennsylvania or New York. Over that span, the Bison are 4-11 in New York, 5-3 outside New York and Pennsylvania (at Georgetown, Holy Cross, Delaware State and Richmond) and 23-32 inside Pennsylvania.

Nine of Bucknell's 11 games this year will take place in New York or Pennsylvania with the only exceptions being road contests at Georgetown and Holy Cross.

Bison Good Sports

In 2006, the Bucknell Department of Athletics and Recreation announced its new "Bison Good Sports!" campaign, a sportsmanship awareness program designed to promote appropriate fan conduct at all Bison sporting events.

The objective of the campaign, according to Bucknell director of athletics and recreation John Hardt "is to thank fans for the tremendous energy and enthusiasm they bring to each Bucknell athletics contest while also empowering them as caretakers of the collegiate gameday experience. While the extremes of unwanted behavior and its impact on home and visiting fans are not commonplace at Bison athletics events, Bucknell and our visiting teams ask for our fans' help in keeping their support of our teams positive and cheer with positive encouragement, rather than supporting an atmosphere of intimidation that attempts to degrade opposing players and teams. We hope that our fans will continue to join our players, coaches and staff in helping all spectators find creative and ingenious ways to positively support our Bucknell student-athletes."

In addition to the announcement of the "Bison Good Sports Campaign," the department of athletics and recreation also focused specific student-athlete programming to discuss the role student-athletes and coaches play in fostering an environment of good sporting conduct. "The Speaking Specialists," leaders in the field in providing communications, leadership, speech and sportsmanship training to student-athletes at all levels came to campus last September. The comprehensive, interactive program was designed to generate thought and discussion among student-athletes facing the top issues of today. Specific emphasis was given toward practicing good sportsmanship both on and off the playing field and representing their school, team and themselves in a positive light in everything from helping in recruiting to job interviews.

♦ Head Coach Joe Susan ♦

Following a comprehensive national search, Joe Susan, a veteran of more than 30 years in the college coaching profession, was named the Bob Odell Head Football Coach at Bucknell University on Jan. 27, 2010.

Susan, 54, is Bucknell's 26th head coach since the program's inception in 1883, and he takes over a program that ranks 17th all-time in Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) victories with 564.

Susan, a 1977 graduate of the University of Delaware, served near-decade-long stints at Bucknell (1981-1990), Princeton (1991-1999) and Rutgers (2001-2009). He has had tenures at both the Football Bowl Subdivision (Rutgers, Memphis) and Football Championship Subdivision (Bucknell, Princeton, Davidson) levels.

A native of South River, N.J., Susan returned to Bucknell from Rutgers, where he spent the previous nine years as an assistant coach on Greg Schiano's staff. Schiano, a three-time letterwinner at Bucknell, was recruited by Susan, played for the Bison teams Susan coached and served as co-captain as a senior in 1987.

"I am thrilled for our student-athletes and football program to be able to welcome Joe Susan and his family back to Bucknell," said Hardt at the time of Susan's hiring. "His 30-plus years of successful experience in college football have prepared him exceptionally well to lead our program and reestablish the winning traditions of Bison Football. Through his student-focused approach, Joe has demonstrated an ability to recruit and mentor top-notch student-athletes at all levels of college football. Coach Susan has a passion for the sport of football and devotion for the young men he coaches on a daily basis. I know he is eager to get to work, and everyone associated with Bison Athletics is looking forward to welcoming him back to campus."

At Rutgers, Susan spent three years as the offensive line coach before adding tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator to his duties in 2003. As recruiting coordinator, he was integral in securing several highly touted and nationally ranked recruiting classes, including the 2009 group, which was ranked in the top 25 nationally by ESPN.com. His main recruiting areas were Central New Jersey, Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Florida, Delaware and Canada, although he directed Rutgers' national efforts.

Prior to Susan's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had not posted a record above .500 for nearly a decade and had qualified for one bowl game in 131 years of football. In 2009, Rutgers played in its fifth consecutive bowl game and finished 9-4.

Susan directed a deep corps of tight ends during his tenure at Rutgers that included former three-time All-Big East selection Clark Harris, a 2007 seventh-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers.

Prior to his time at Rutgers, Susan got his first chance as a head coach when spent one year as the frontman at Davidson in 2000. He led the Wildcats to a 10-0 record, the only unbeaten team in school history, and a single-season record for wins. Susan was named the Coach of the Year by the Division I-AA Independents Sports Information Directors Association. Additionally, he received a Presidential Citation from the University of Delaware for outstanding achievement.

At Princeton, Susan served as both the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for nearly a decade. In addition to recruiting duties at the Ivy League institution, he organized and implemented year-round strength and conditioning programs, developed and coordinated the spring football clinic and coordinated travel plans for away games.

Susan's initial tour of duty at Bucknell began in June 1981. From 1981 through 1988 he was in charge of the offensive line and served as strength coach for the Bison under head coaches Bob Curtis and George Landis. When Lou Maranzana was hired as head coach prior to the 1989 campaign, Susan was promoted to assistant head coach while still keeping his duties with the offensive line.

Susan's first foray into the coaching profession came at his alma mater where he was a graduate assistant on two separate occasions, separated by a one-year volunteer stint at Gettysburg.

Susan enjoyed an outstanding playing career at Delaware (1973-76), as his teams compiled a 36-12-1 record in his tenure there. The 1976 Newark Touchdown Club Offensive Lineman of the Year, Susan helped the Blue Hens to two Lambert Cups (1974, 1976) and the NCAA Division II national championship game.

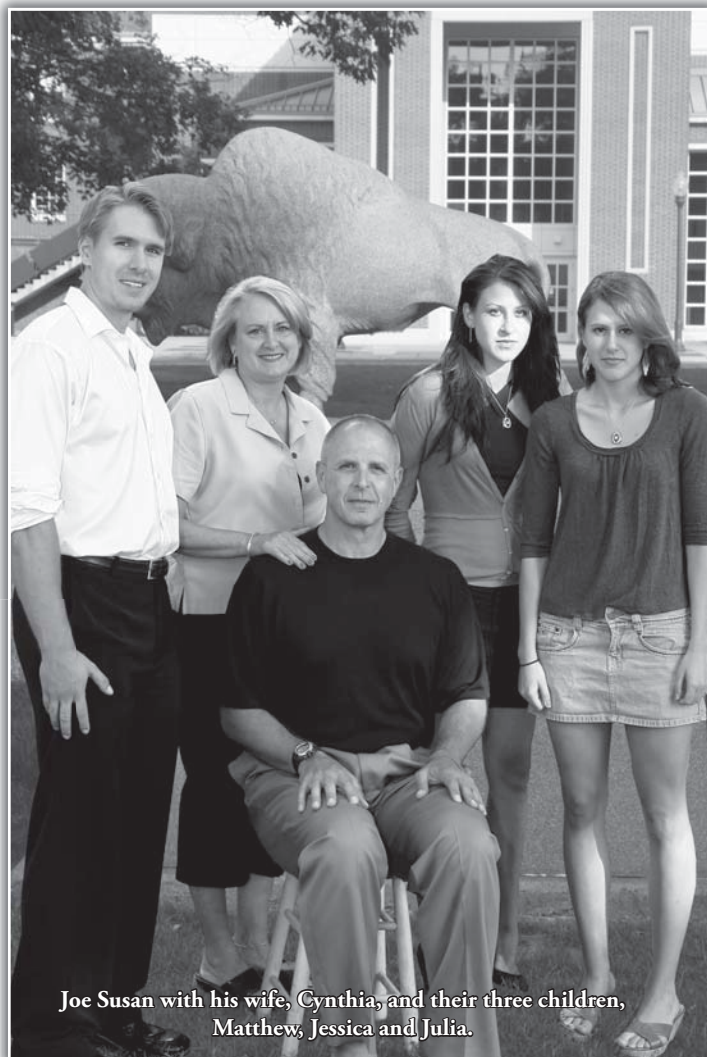

In addition to a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from Delaware, Susan earned his master's in physical education with an emphasis in exercise physiology from his alma mater in 1982.

Off the field, Susan is a member of the American Football Coaches Association, the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the University of Delaware Alumni Association and the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

Susan and his wife, Cynthia, have three children: 25-year-old son Matthew, 23-year-old daughter Jessica and 21-year-old daughter Julia.

The Bob Odell Endowment

BOB ODELL IS ESCORTED TO THE MONUMENT THAT WAS ERECTED IN HIS HONOR IN 2005.

Bucknell trustee emeritus Norman E. Garrity, a member of the Class of 1962, and his wife Mary Lou Roppel Garrity, a member of the Class of 1964, have established the Bob Odell Head Football Coaching Endowment. The Garritys' significant gift to the university permanently endows the head coach position for football, along with providing funds for the program.

Garrity played under Coach Odell and was a member of the 1960 team that won the Lambert Cup title as the best team in the Eastern United States. He also served as an assistant football coach during the 1963 season. Garrity has been a member of Bucknell's Board of Trustees since 1995. In 2004 he received the alumni Athlete Achievement Award, given to former Bucknell athletes who have achieved success in their chosen profession. Garrity served in a variety of manufacturing and engineering management positions with Corning Inc. In 2003 he received the Loyalty to Bucknell Award for extraordinary service to Bucknell as a Trustee, member of Reunion Gift committees and volunteer for the Career Development Center. Garrity was also awarded the Bud Ranck Award for his service and devotion to the football program. In addition to the Odell endowment, he funded the Garrity Family Scholarship and the state-of-the-art artificial surface for the football field.

Prior to the 2005 season finale against Holy Cross, the Bucknell football program and Bison Athletics honored Odell's service and friendship to Bucknell with a special monument, which was unveiled in the closed end of Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium.

Odell is a member of the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. As head football coach from 1958-64, Odell took over a struggling program and compiled a 37-26 record. He led the Bison to college football prominence, winning Lambert Cup titles in 1960 and 1964 while producing five straight winning seasons and a 32-13 record from 1960-64.

An All-American himself as a halfback at Penn, Odell won the Maxwell Trophy and finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1943. He later served as head coach at Penn from 1965-70 and at Williams from 1971-86. His overall coaching record stood at 136-104-5. A second-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1944, Odell served as a communications officer in the U.S. Navy during World War II before starting his football coaching career. He began as an assistant coach at Yale, then moved on to Temple and Wisconsin. Odell retired to Lewisburg and volunteered his time and football expertise back to the program on the field, in the radio booth and as a loyal supporter of the Bison football squad. And, thanks to the generosity of Norm Garrity, he will forever have his name associated with Bucknell's endowed head coaching position — The Bob Odell Head Football Coach."

Matt Borich

Assistant Coach: DL
Bucknell '01

Matt Borich will coach the Bucknell defensive line.

A standout defensive lineman and linebacker at Bucknell from 1997 to 2000, Borich earned three varsity letters, received the Coaches Award for Leadership and was a member of Bucknell's class with the most wins in school history

(29) during his time as a Bison. He totaled 62 tackles in 32 career games and graduated in May of 2001 with a degree in economics.

A native of nearby Winfield, Pa., who played football at Selinsgrove High School, Borich spent the last six years coaching the defensive line at Princeton. In addition to on-field coaching duties, he recruited student-athletes in 11 states, mainly in the Northeast and Upper Midwest.

No stranger to coaching in the Patriot League, Borich spent one year as a defensive line coach at Lafayette.

Borich broke into the coaching profession at Dickinson College. He was the outside linebackers coach at the Division III school in 2001 and 2002.

Northern New Jersey, Greater Atlanta Area, New York City, Eastern New York

Bryan Bossard

Assistant Coach: OC/WR/RB
Delaware '89

Bryan Bossard will serve as Bucknell's offensive coordinator and will coach the wide receivers and running backs.

Like Bison head coach Joe Susan, Bossard is a graduate of Delaware and a former Bucknell assistant, having played for the Blue Hens from 1985-88 and coached the Bison in 1992 and 1993. At Delaware, he was a three-time letterwinner and was voted the team's defensive MVP as a senior, when he was also a second-team all-conference selection and piled up 122 tackles.

Recently, Bossard has been on the staffs at Pittsburgh (2008-09) and Maryland (2005-07). At both places, he coached the wide receivers and returners, while also recruiting in the Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and Washington, D.C., areas.

While with the Panthers, Bossard worked under former NFL coach Dave Wannstedt. Bossard had previously worked for Wannstedt in a pair of NFL summer coaching internships with the Chicago Bears in 1996-97. Pittsburgh posted a solid 19-7 record and appeared in a pair of bowl games during Bossard's tenure.

Bryan Bossard

Two receivers Bossard coached were selected in the 2009 NFL Draft. Maryland's Darrius Heyward-Bey was a first-round pick of the Oakland Raiders, while Pittsburgh's Derek Kinder was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the seventh round. Heyward-Bey was a Freshman All-American under Bossard's watch in 2006. A year later he also helped Terps wideout LaQuan Williams earn Freshman All-America accolades.

Prior to his time at Maryland, Bossard spent three years coaching the receivers and returners at his alma mater. He helped lead the Blue Hens to the 2003 Division I-AA national title with a 15-1 mark. During that championship season, Delaware had three different receivers catch 50 passes or more. Bossard was also a member of the Blue Hens' coaching staff from 1994-98 in the same capacity, helping Delaware to three consecutive national semifinal appearances.

Bossard broke into the collegiate coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Delaware. He then coached defensive backs at Morehouse College (1991) and West Chester University (spring 1992), before arriving at Bucknell for a two-year stint in Lewisburg, where he worked with the defensive backs and returners.

In 1999, Bossard coached the receivers at Army before moving on to a defensive back coaching position at Wyoming during the 2000 and 2001 seasons.

Bossard's degree from Delaware is in agricultural business management.

Central Pennsylvania, Harrisburg Area, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina

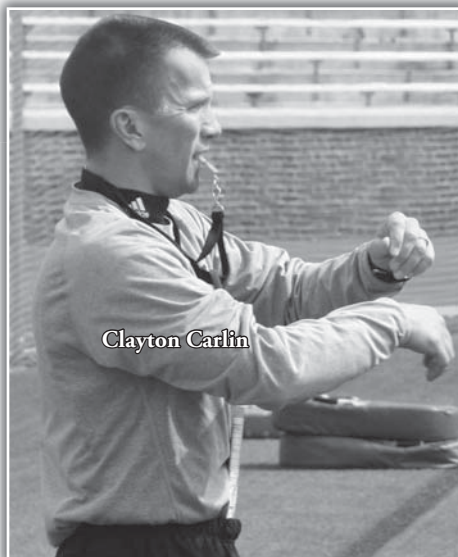

Clayton Carlin

Assistant Coach: DC/LB
Juniata '87

Clayton Carlin will serve as Bucknell's defensive coordinator and will also coach the linebackers.

Carlin, a 1987 graduate of Juniata College, returns to Pennsylvania after a number of stops at both the FCS and FBS levels. For the last six years he was an assistant coach at Ivy League institution Cornell. During that span he served two stints at defensive coordinator, covering four seasons. In his first year (2004) the Big Red finished seventh nationally in rush defense and 13th nationally in scoring defense (18.1 ppg). After a two-year tenure as the team's offensive coordinator, Carlin returned to the defensive side of the ball and was once again responsible for defensive play calling and game planning.

Clayton Carlin

For his last five years at Cornell, Carlin served as assistant head coach in addition to his coordinator duties. He also mentored the cornerbacks, safeties and wide receivers throughout his tenure.

While Carlin was Cornell's offensive coordinator, the Big Red ranked 10th nationally in rushing (2005), had two 1,000-yard rushers for the first time in program history and averaged better than 27 points per game (2005), the best at Cornell in more than 50 years.

Prior to Cornell, Carlin spent one year as the special teams coordinator, recruiting coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico State. It was his second stint with the Aggies, having also been wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator from 1997-99.

In between his stays at New Mexico State, Carlin spent one year as defensive backs coach at Villanova and two at Buffalo.

Carlin got his start at the Division I level as a graduate assistant at Nebraska under legendary coach Tom Osborne from 1994-96. During that span the Cornhuskers went 36-2 and won two national titles.

Following his graduation from Juniata with a degree in communications, Carlin, who also has a master's degree in educational administration from Nebraska, was a head coach at St. Joseph's Prep High School in Philadelphia, Pa., for four years. His first foray into college coaching came at Delaware Valley College, where he was the defensive backs coach in 1992 and 1993.

John Field

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator
Texas Lutheran '99

John Field, a 1999 graduate of Texas Lutheran, is in his third year as the football strength and conditioning coach at Bucknell. During the 2009 season he performed duties as a defensive assistant coach as well.

Field launched a successful offseason training regimen for the Bison and has encouraged more than 50 Bison players to stay on campus and train during the summer in each of his years at Bucknell.

Field is well-traveled in Patriot League circles, having served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Colgate in 2007 and completing a summer internship at Holy Cross in 2004. In 2004-05, Field was a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Springfield College while pursuing his master's degree in applied exercise science.

Prior to his strength and conditioning experience at the college level, Field spent 11 years as an assistant high school football coach and head strength and conditioning coach at Central Catholic High School in San Antonio, Texas.

◆ Coaching Staff ◆

R.D. Montgomery

Assistant Coach: TE
Wake Forest '04

R.D. Montgomery returns for a second season at Bucknell. He joined the staff last August and worked predominantly with the tight ends.

A 2004 graduate of Wake Forest, Montgomery was a four-year member of the Demon Deacons' football squad and also played one season of basketball.

Prior to his appointment at Bucknell, Montgomery worked for Friends of Terry McAuliffe as a field organizer. He acted as a campaign representative for McAuliffe's campaign for Virginia governor. Montgomery helped McAuliffe win 17 precincts as he managed the Get Out The Vote efforts.

Prior to his time in politics, Montgomery was a manager at Wilmington Ale House in Wilmington, N.C., and a management assistant at Enterprise Rent-A-Car.

Mike O'Connor

Assistant Coach: QB/RB
Lafayette '04

One of two returning members from last year's Bucknell staff is Mike O'Connor, who like new Bison head coach Joe Susan, previously coached at Rutgers under former Bison football player Greg Schiano.

A Lewisburg native and a former quarterback at Lafayette, O'Connor initially joined the Bucknell staff as an assistant coach in the winter of 2009. He spent the previous four years as a grad assistant and full-time assistant coach with the Scarlet Knights.

O'Connor, who started his tenure at Rutgers in 2005 as a player development graduate assistant, will coach the defensive line at Bucknell. While with the Scarlet Knights, O'Connor tutored the defensive ends, linebackers and safeties. He also assisted with all aspects of special teams and organized and prepared all film breakdowns and scouting reports. In 2007, with O'Connor a member of the defensive staff, Rutgers ranked fifth in the nation in pass defense.

A 2004 graduate of Lafayette, O'Connor was a two-year letterwinner with the Leopards. He earned Second Team Academic All-America honors in 2002 and was a two-time Patriot League Academic Honor Roll selection, posting a GPA of nearly 3.5 while majoring in economics and business.

Prior to attending Lafayette, O'Connor was a three-sport standout at Lewisburg Area High School where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball.

O'Connor began his coaching career at Columbia as a video coordinator in 2004 while working towards his master's degree in psychology.

O'Connor, who is the son of former Bucknell assistant football coach Mike O'Connor and the grandson of former Bucknell head coach Fred Prender, resides in Lewisburg with his wife, Emily.

RECRUITING AREAS:

Western Pennsylvania, Ohio

Ross Pennypacker

Assistant Coach: S
Millersville '05

Ross Pennypacker coaches the safeties at Bucknell.

Like Bison offensive coordinator Clayton Carlin, Pennypacker came to Bucknell from Cornell, having served as the cornerbacks coach for the Big Red in 2008 and 2009.

Prior to his stint at Cornell,

Pennypacker was a grad assistant and assistant coach at Villanova for two years. His duties with the Wildcats included serving as the team's video coordinator and assisting with the defensive backs. Pennypacker also recruited the state of Ohio for the Wildcats. He helped Villanova to a 6-5 mark in 2006 and a 7-4 record in 2007 in the powerful Colonial Athletic Association.

Before arriving at Villanova, Pennypacker was an intern assistant coach at Allegheny College where he coached the outside linebackers. He also was responsible for recruiting in Pennsylvania during his one-year stint at Allegheny.

Pennypacker began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Millersville. While at Millersville, he assisted with coaching the linebackers and safeties.

During his playing days, Pennypacker played linebacker at Millersville, where he graduated from in 2005 with a degree in social sciences.

Chad Rogosheske

Assistant Coach: OL
Hamline '99

A veteran mentor with 12 years of college football coaching experience, Chad Rogosheske coaches the offensive line at Bucknell after three years as a graduate assistant at Ohio State. During that span the Buckeyes won three Big Ten titles, competed in the Fiesta Bowl and Rose Bowl, and played in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game.

While at Ohio State, Rogosheske worked directly with the specialists, including long snappers, punters and kickers, coordinated the defensive scout team and assisted with the offensive line.

A native of Minneapolis, Minn., Rogosheske is a 1994 graduate of Columbia Heights High School, where he was an all-conference running back and also played hockey and tennis. After playing in the Minnesota high school all-star game, he played football at Hamline University in St. Paul, Minn., from 1994-97.

Rogosheske earned all-conference and academic all-conference honors as a senior running back at Hamline and played one year of collegiate hockey. He graduated cum laude in 1999 with a degree in social studies and physical education and an education certification.

Rogosheske began his coaching career at Hamline as a part-time running backs coach for three years while he taught middle school physical education. He then spent one year as the receivers coach at Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa, before returning to Hamline for five seasons. Rogosheske coached the running backs in 2002 and 2003, served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2004 and defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2005 and 2006. In 2005, his defense led the nation in turnovers, averaging 4.1 takeaways per game.

RECRUITING AREAS:

Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Texas

Rich Scarantino

Assistant Coach: RB
King's College '86

Richard Scarantino joined the Bison coaching staff in the spring of 2010 and serves as running backs coach. A longtime resident of the Susquehanna Valley, Scarantino is a manager at the Allenwood Federal Prison, but has an extensive football coaching background.

Scarantino's most recent coaching experience came with the Milton Area High School football team when he was the special teams coordinator (2006) and the defensive coordinator (2005). Over the span Milton produced a solid 11-3-1 record.

For a decade (1994-2003), Scarantino was the head football coach of the Milton Panther Club, the Raiders. During that span he led the youth football team to three undefeated seasons and five league titles.

Scarantino's first foray into coaching came at Bishop Hoban High School in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., when he was the freshman head coach and varsity defensive coordinator in 1985 and 1986.

A 1986 graduate of King's College with a degree in criminal justice, Scarantino was a three-year football letterwinner at Pittston Area High School, played one year at East Stroudsburg University and was a member of the semi-pro Scranton Eagles squad that won a 1984 national championship.

In addition to his football coaching experience, Scarantino has also coached Little League baseball and youth and high school wrestling. He wrestled in both high school and in college.

Chip Taylor

Assistant Coach: CB/ST
Illinois State '02

Chip Taylor, who coaches the cornerbacks and special teams, spent six of the last seven years coaching at Valparaiso and has steadily moved up the staff, culminating in an appointment as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach this past fall. In his only year in that role,

Taylor helped the Crusaders improve upon their pass completion percentage, passing yards and touchdown passes from 2008.

Taylor got his start at Valparaiso as a graduate assistant in 2003. During his two-year stint coaching the wide receivers, Taylor was the main tutor for Second Team All-America wide receiver Rob Giancola, who broke 14 school records. Additionally, the Crusaders won the 2003 Pioneer League title and finished second in the nation in pass offense.

After a year (2005) as an assistant at Rose-Hulman, Taylor returned to Valparaiso and served as the squad's special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach for three years. During that stint he helped the Crusaders block five kicks and rank among the nation's leaders in pass defense (13th), punt returns (19th) and turnover margin (21st).

A 2002 graduate of Illinois State with a degree in physical education, Taylor was a three-year letterwinner with the Redbirds football program. He was both a wide receiver and cornerback and served as the team's starting punt returner in 2001. Illinois State experienced plenty of success during Taylor's career as he played on the first playoff team in school history in 1998 and helped the 1999 squad win the conference championship and advance to the national semifinal game.

Taylor owns a master's degree in sports administration from Valparaiso.

Terry Long

Equipment Manager

Indiana Univ. of Pennsylvania '06

Terry Long takes over as the Bison football equipment manager in 2010.

A 2006 graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), Long has been an equipment manager at Bucknell since the fall of 2008, but will be working with the football program for the first time this year.

Prior to his time at Bucknell, Long spent more than a decade working in radio and other multimedia outlets. For 10 years he was a sportscaster, disc jockey and public address announcer for a family of radio stations in St. Mary's, Pa. While there, he created both a sports radio show and television show and was involved with commercial production, marketing and sales.

In 2006, Long moved to California and was a producer and board operator for KNBR in San Francisco. At the same time he was a broadband production assistant, audio technician and producer for Yahoo! Sports.

Long has also spent time working for Sirius NFL Radio and as the play-by-play voice of Clarion University men's and women's basketball.

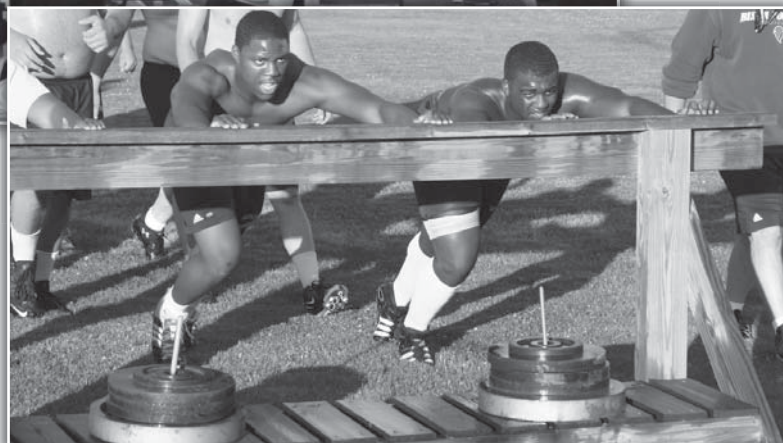

A current resident of Milton, Pa., Long got his start in the equipment room as a student at IUP in 2004.

Long has also spent time performing internships with Jim Kelly Enterprises and various radio stations. He was also the head baseball coach at Saratoga High School and the head basketball coach at Lawson Middle School in 2007.

Long and his wife, Regan, were married in Punxsutawney, Pa., on July 7, 2007. They welcomed their first child, Kendyl, in 2008. Their second child, Kaden, was born in 2010.

Mike O'Connor is one of two returning coaching staff members from 2009.

◆ Athletic Training ◆

Mark Keppler

Assistant Athletic Director/Head Athletic Trainer
Florida State '73

Assistant Athletic Director Mark Keppler, now in his 25th year as Bucknell's head athletic trainer, oversees Bucknell's athletic training and sports medicine program. Keppler coordinates the work of six professional staff members, a graduate assistant and a dedicated group of student assistants.

The head trainer at Carnegie Mellon University for 11 years before coming to Bucknell, Keppler is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is both state- and nationally-certified.

From 1982-84 he served as president of the Pennsylvania Athletic Training Society, and from 1984-97 he served with the Athletic Training Advisory Commission to the State Board of Physical Therapy. He is currently the Convention Chair for PATS and was inducted into that organization's Hall of Fame in June 2006.

Keppler is a 1973 graduate of Florida State University and holds a master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

After working with the football program for his first three years at Bucknell, Keppler moved to the fieldhouse training room to coordinate the athletic training office for the entire athletic department. In the fall of 1999, he once again took over as the primary football trainer, in addition to running the athletic training office. Keppler also serves as the primary athletic trainer for spring football, and supervises off-season rehabilitation programs for any injured Bison football players.

Keppler and his wife, Wanda, reside in Lewisburg and are the parents of daughters Sarah and Reta.

Bucknell's athletic training staff, headed by Mark Keppler, provides outstanding medical care for each of Bucknell's student-athletes. Keppler and his staff recently moved into a brand new, state-of-the-art athletic training room as part of the Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center design. There is also a fully-equipped athletic training facility in Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium, adjacent to the football team locker room, and satellite training rooms at Sojka Pavilion and Holmes Stadium. The philosophy of the Bucknell sports medicine team is a commitment to providing the best care for Bison student-athletes. Its injury and rehab protocols are developed to help decrease athletics-related injuries, increase injury recovery time, and combine strength and flexibility, endurance and sport-specific functional activities.

Every injured Bucknell student-athlete is attended by an athletic trainer at the time the injury occurs. Each of Bucknell's professional staff trainers are state and nationally certified, and they are assisted on-site by a quality team of student athletic trainers. The care for all Bucknell students ultimately falls under the direction of Dr. Donald Stechschulte, the director of the University's student health service. Athletes sustaining serious injuries requiring immediate attention in a hospital setting are sent to the emergency room of the Evangelical Community Hospital, located just two miles from the Bucknell campus.

Partnership with Geisinger Sports Medicine

In August 2005, Bucknell director of athletics and recreation John Hardt and Geisinger chief of sports medicine Daniel Feldmann, MD, announced a partnership that makes Geisinger Sports Medicine the exclusive sports medicine provider for Bucknell University Athletics. Geisinger's team of orthopaedic specialists, certified in a wide array of specialties, is responsible for the care and treatment of more than 700 Division I student-athletes participating in varsity athletics at Bucknell.

Geisinger Health System is an integrated, physician-led healthcare services organization that serves more than two million residents throughout central and northeastern Pennsylvania. It includes a 650-member multi-specialty physician practice, a tertiary/quaternary medical center and an acute-care community hospital, adult and pediatric trauma centers, a nationally acclaimed alcohol and chemical dependency treatment center, heart and cancer institutes, a neurosciences program, two research centers, 41 community practice offices and one of the largest not-for-profit rural HMOs in the country.

In addition to meeting the on-campus needs of the Bucknell student-athletes, Geisinger has just opened a comprehensive, multi-disciplinary sports medicine facility at Geisinger Medical Center Outpatient Surgery Center—Woodbine Lane (off Route 11 in nearby Danville). This one-stop complex features an open MRI for on-site diagnostics, a therapy pool and facilities for athlete rehabilitation. A black and white photograph of a football team lined up on a field. The players are wearing dark jerseys with light-colored numbers and light-colored helmets. They are arranged in a long line, facing the camera. A coach or official in a light-colored shirt and dark pants stands in the background, facing the team. The field has yard lines and numbers visible. The overall tone is serious and competitive.

Game 1

Duquesne 24, Bucknell 19
Arthur J. Rooney Athletic Field • Pittsburgh, Pa.
Sept. 5, 2009 • Attendance: 1,867

- Bucknell lost its season opener for the first time since 2005 and the Dukes snapped a five-game losing streak to the Bison.
- C.J. Hopson ran for a game-high 136 yards, becoming the 71st player in Bucknell history to record a 100-yard game.
- Both teams scored a touchdown in the opening 2:29.
- Bucknell and Duquesne each recorded the same number of first downs it did in the 2008 meeting that resulted in a 48-42 Bison victory.

- Bucknell never led and went nearly 30 minutes without recording a point.
- Marcello Trigg threw for exactly two touchdowns for the ninth time in his career.
- Bucknell failed to convert on a two-point conversion in the final minute and then could not recover an on-side kick.
- Bucknell turned the ball over three times (2 INT, 1 FUM) in Duquesne territory. The Dukes did not turn the ball over.

Game 2

Bucknell 26, Robert Morris 23
Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium • Lewisburg, Pa.
Sept. 12, 2009 • Attendance: 4,172

- Bucknell's defense intercepted five passes, two shy of the school record vs. both Lafayette and Temple in 1951.
- Bucknell's Brigham Farrand and Greg Jones returned interceptions for touchdowns 85 seconds apart early in the third quarter.
- Rob Gerlach became the first Bison to intercept two passes in a game since Todd Manjuck recorded a pair of interceptions against Marist in 2007.
- A sack by Will Braaf and Tyler Anderson helped the Bison to their first safety since the 2003 season.

- Bucknell improved to 92-30-1 all-time in home openers.
- Bucknell and Robert Morris combined for 11 tackles for loss.
- Bucknell improved to 9-4 in home night games since 2002 with the victory over RMU.
- Bucknell's defense scored all 16 of the Bison's second-half points.
- 175 of Robert Morris' 348 total yards came on three plays.

Game 10

#24 Colgate 29, Bucknell 14
Andy Kerr Stadium • Hamilton, N.Y.
Nov. 14, 2009 • Attendance: 3,822

- C.J. Hopson rushed for a game-high 134 yards on a career-high 27 carries. It marked his third 100-yard game of the season, the first Bison to accomplish that feat since Dante Ross in 2005.
- Travis Nissley recorded a game-high 12 tackles, his third straight double-figure tackle game.
- Colgate's 251 rushing yards marked the first time a Bison opponent has rushed for at least 200 yards in 2009.
- Bucknell had more penalties than its opponent for the first time since Oct. 18, 2008 against Georgetown, a span of 14 games.

- Bucknell rushed for a season-high 214 yards.
- Ahkiel White intercepted his fourth pass of the season and Greg Jones picked off his third.
- C.J. Hopson completed a 43-yard pass to Justin Pulgrano. It was the longest pass of Hopson's career and the longest catch of Pulgrano's.
- Colgate's Nate Eachus came one yard shy of giving the Raiders two 100-yard rushers in the same game.
- Colgate's Pat Simonds caught two touchdown passes, giving him 14 on the season, a new Raiders record.

Game 11

Bucknell 23, #13 Holy Cross 17

Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium • Lewisburg, Pa.

Nov. 21, 2009 • Attendance: 1,917

• Bucknell defeated a ranked team for the fourth time since 2000 with its win over the Crusaders.

Bucknell's wins over Ranked Teams (since 2000)

- Bucknell 31, No. 14 Fordham 10 (10/4/2003)
- Bucknell 42, No. 22 Colgate 7 (11/13/04)
- Bucknell 38, No. 18 Fordham 24 (11/17/07)
- Bucknell 23, No. 13 Holy Cross 17 (11/21/09)

• C.J. Hopson recorded his fourth 100-yard rushing performance of the season with a career-high 189 yards on 29 carries.

• Holy Cross QB Dominic Randolph was sacked and threw six incompletions on a potential game-winning drive in the final minutes. Freshman Joseph Francis broke up a pass in the endzone on the second-to-last play, while classmate Samuel Oyekoya recovered a fumble on the final play, sealing the outcome.

• Bucknell's defense recovered three fumbles, recorded three sacks and broke up seven passes.

• Bucknell won its final game of the season for the sixth time in seven years.

• The Bison held All-America QB Dominic Randolph to a season-low 271 yards passing, and Holy Cross' 17 points equaled a season low.

• Bucknell led or was tied the entire game against the Patriot League champions.

NOTES

• Bucknell finished 4-7 overall and 2-4 in Patriot League play in 2009. The Bison once again concluded the season on a high note as they defeated No. 13 Holy Cross in the season finale at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium. It was the sixth time in the last seven years Bucknell won its final game. It was also the fourth time in the last decade the Bison defeated a ranked opponent.

Bucknell's wins over ranked teams (since 2000):

Bucknell 31, No. 14 Fordham 10 (Oct. 4, 2003)
Bucknell 42, No. 22 Colgate 7 (Nov. 13, 2004)
Bucknell 38, No. 18 Fordham 24 (Nov. 17, 2007)
Bucknell 23, No. 13 Holy Cross 17 (Nov. 21, 2009)

• Four Bison were named to the All-Patriot League Team at season's end, including first-team selections A.J. Kizekai and Greg Jones. Kizekai earned his fourth career Patriot League honor as he was the first-team return specialist for the third consecutive year. Jones was named an All-Patriot League player for the first time. Additionally, DB Ahkiel White and DL Robert De La Rosa were named to the second team. The four citations were the most for Bucknell since 2006 when five Bison were honored.

Greg Jones (tackles)	40	9.2

• LB Sam Nana-Sinkam and LB Travis Nissley both earned prestigious academic awards in 2009. Nana-Sinkam was named a semifinalist for the William W. Campbell Trophy (formerly known as the Draddy Trophy). Also known as the "Academic Heisman," the Campbell Trophy is awarded to college football's top scholar-athlete. Nissley, a mechanical engineering major, was named the Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He was the first Bison to earn the honor since 2000. Overall, Bucknell has had a league-best seven scholar-athletes since the inception of the award in 1989.

• LB Greg Jones finished the 2009 campaign with a team-best 101 tackles, the first Bison to go over the century mark since Dorian Petersen in 2006. A three-year starter, Jones was second in the Patriot League in tackles and finished his career with 257 stops.

• QB C.J. Hopson posted four 100-yard rushing games in 2009. Only 16 other Bison have at least four career 100-yard outings. Hopson finished the campaign with a team-high 633 yards on the ground and rushed for a team-best five touchdowns.

• DB Ahkiel White recorded a career-high four interceptions last year to tie for the Patriot League lead. White now has eight picks in his career, the most by a Bison since Joe Glenn also totaled eight from 2001-04. The Somerset, N.J., native had one interception in three consecutive games midseason, making him the first Bucknell player to do that in more than a decade.

• RB A.J. Kizekai finished his career with Bucknell records for kickoff returns (109) and kickoff return yards (2,725). He challenged for the all-purpose yards record, but finished a close second to Rich Lemon with 5,536 yards, including 1,170 in 2009.

♦ Patriot League ♦

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 23 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown and MIT as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. The League finished at the top spot with 96 percent of its teams reporting a graduation rate of 85 percent or higher in the most recent data. In addition, 90 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Academic Performance Program Public Recognition Awards after posting academic progress rate scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

During the 2009-10 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams accomplished the following:

*11 Patriot League student-athletes earned CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors.

*50 Patriot League student-athletes received CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors.

*The Patriot League placed second among all Division I conferences with 90 teams receiving NCAA Public Recognition Awards for their performance in the classroom.

*Navy's Beth Reed and Mark Van Orden received NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.

*Reed was also named the CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Women's Soccer Academic All-American of the Year, and won the Patriot League Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award.

*Reed and American's Anne-Meike de Wiljes earned the Patriot League's nominations for the NCAA Woman of the Year award.

*Army's Andrew Maisano won the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for Men's Lacrosse, and earned the Patriot League Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year award.

*Other Candidates for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award: Marquis Hall, Lehigh (Men's Basketball); Andrew Kydes, Army (Men's Soccer); Elizabeth Betterbed, Army (Women's Soccer); Mandy Correale, Holy Cross (Softball).

*Army's Elizabeth Betterbed was selected as a Rhodes Scholar.

*Holy Cross' Olivia Pruszek earned a Fulbright English Teaching Assistantship

*Holy Cross' Dominic Randolph finished fifth in the voting for the Walter Payton Award, given to the Most Outstanding Player in the Football Championship Subdivision, and won the ECAC Player of the Year honor.

*Fordham's John Skelton became the first

Patriot League player taken in the NFL Draft since 1995.

*Lehigh's C.J. McCollum was named the ECAC Men's Basketball Rookie of the Year and received multiple national freshman honors.

*Navy's Adam Meyer was named the Mid-Major Swimmer of the Year by CollegeSwimming.com, and received Honorable Mention All-America honors at the NCAA Championship Meet.

*Bucknell won the 2010 Patriot League Presidents' Cup. The Bison also won the male and female trophies.

*Every Patriot League team won at least one championship for just the fifth time in League history.

*Army Men's Lacrosse defeated No. 2 Syracuse, 9-8, in double overtime in the NCAA Tournament first round.

*Bucknell defeated Princeton in the first round of the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament.

*Three teams were ranked in the final Sports Network FCS top 25 for the first time since 2005.

The Presidents' Cup

The Presidents' Cup signifies overall excellence in the 23 sports sponsored by the Patriot League, and Bucknell has won the Cup 16 times in its 20-year existence, including 12 of the last 13 years.

The Presidents' Cup is awarded annually to the institution that accumulates the highest point total over the entire academic year, with points awarded on the basis of the school's finish in each of the 23 Patriot League sports. If there is a league tournament in a sport, the points are awarded based on the average of the regular season and tournament finish, and if there is no post-season tournament, points are awarded based on regular-season standings.

Bucknell Football: More Than a Century of Tradition

The game bore little resemblance to what we now know as football, and even one of the school names has been changed. In November of 1883, a group of students from Lafayette College journeyed west to play a group from the University at Lewisburg in the relatively new sport of football. The sport was so new, in fact, that the majority of the dozen or so students from Lewisburg, who did not have a coach and had practiced only briefly, had never seen a game of football before playing in one.

The players from Lewisburg, whose school would be renamed Bucknell University in 1886, lost that first game, 59-0, and perhaps because of that experience, their school did not play another official game until 1887.

Still, the seeds had been planted for a program that would grow into one of the most respected programs in the East by the 1950s, and will celebrate its 125th season in 2010.

Scores of marvelous players have donned the Orange and Blue over the course of the 124 seasons of Bucknell football, and each season gives rise to new names, new heroes, new legends.

Here is a quick trip through the colorful tradition that is Bucknell football:

Still playing without a full-time coach, Bucknell gains its first victory ever with a 16-10 triumph over Lafayette. The Bison also defeat Cornell (4-0) and Penn State (12-10) on their way to a 6-2-1 record. The team includes Andrew Wyant, who later goes on to play for the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg at the University of Chicago and is a member of both the Bucknell Hall of Fame and the National Football Hall of Fame.

1900

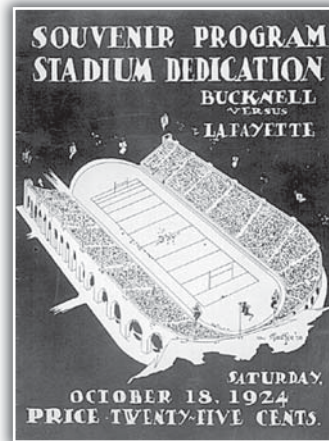

Christy Mathewson concludes his marvelous Bucknell football career and begins a professional baseball career that ranks among the best of all time. A hard-running fullback and tackler, "Matty" also excels as a kicker and gains national attention with two field goals against Army.

1918

Bucknell records the first of its three undefeated seasons. En route to a 6-0 record, the Bison are nothing short of dominant, outscoring opponents 236-7. The season ushers in a quarter-century of prosperity, as Bucknell enjoys 24 winning seasons in the next 26 years.

1924

The team sets a then-school record for victories with an 8-2 mark and meets Lafayette on October 18 in the first football game ever played in Memorial Stadium. Wally Foster, the captain of that Bucknell team, scores the first points in stadium history.

1931

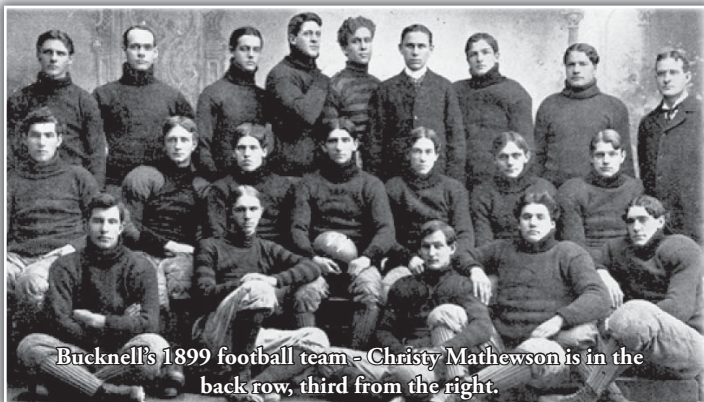

Led by future NFL Hall of Famer Clarke Hinkle, Bucknell rolls to an unbeaten 6-0-3 record. The Bison's undefeated mark is tested in the final game of the season, against also-unbeaten Fordham, but the Bison prevail, 14-13, in a classic at the Polo Grounds.

1934

Edward (Hook) Mylin leads the Bison to a 6-2-2 regular-season record and a berth in the first Orange Bowl game, on January 1, 1935. After a two-day train trip to Miami for the game, Bucknell hammers the University of Miami, 26-0.

1951

In the midst of a four-year stretch in which Bucknell goes 27-8, head coach Harry Lawrence and his team finish perfect at 9-0, perhaps the finest season in school history. The defense includes Little All-America defensive tackle George Young (long-time general manager of the New York Giants), while the relentless offense averages 463.3 yards per game. That breaks the Eastern record set in 1945 by a Davis- and Blanchard-led Army team.

◆ Bucknell Football History ◆

After opening the season at 2-2, Bucknell rolls past Lafayette, Lehigh, Colgate, Temple and Delaware — by a combined score of 107-14 — to finish 7-2 and win its first-ever Lambert Cup. Quarterback Paul Terhes earns Little All-America honors.

1964

Just four years after leading Bucknell to its first Lambert Cup title, head coach Bob Odell repeats that feat, as the Bison finish 7-2. After opening the season with a loss, Bucknell wins seven of the next eight games, including a 21-14 season-ending win at Delaware. The Bison squad features Little All-America end Tom Mitchell, who would later enjoy a fine pro career with Baltimore and San Francisco.

1968

Sam Havrilak sets a Bucknell single-game total offense record with 397 yards against Colgate, a mark that still stands. Havrilak, who would graduate with every Bucknell total offense record, later played with Tom Mitchell for the Baltimore Colts.

Sam Havrilak

Ken Jenkins arrives at Bucknell, and over the next four years, develops into one of the finest players in Bucknell history. He would set a school record with 1,270 rushing yards in 1980, and he later played with three NFL teams.

1986

Two years after formation of the league is announced, the Colonial League (later renamed the Patriot League) debuts with six members — Bucknell, Colgate, Lehigh, Lafayette, Holy Cross and Davidson. The Bison's first-ever league game is one for the ages. Trailing Colgate in the fourth quarter, 39-25, Bucknell rallies to take a 40-39 lead with 52 seconds left, but the Red Raiders drive for a game-winning field goal attempt with four seconds left. After a bobbled snap from center, Colgate completes an impromptu pass play that nearly goes for a touchdown, but Bison defensive back Robert Hawkins drags down the receiver at the 9-yard line on the final play of the game.

1989

Bucknell's newly-renovated stadium is rededicated in honor of Christy Mathewson. Much like the stadium's namesake, Bucknell opens play in the "new" facility with a victory, handing Dartmouth a 36-20 setback on September 30.

1995

The Tom Gadd tenure begins at Bucknell, and the Bison finish 7-4. Rich Lemon becomes Bucknell's all-time rushing leader on opening day.

Rich Lemon

1996

Fittingly, Rich Lemon concludes his remarkable career with a Patriot League title, as Bucknell outlasts Colgate, 28-27, in the heart-stopping season finale. The win gives Bucknell its first football title in over 30 years. Lemon graduated with 4,742 rushing yards, nearly 2,100 more than the previous record-holder.

1997

The Bison roll out to a 10-0 record before falling to Colgate in their season finale to finish 10-1. The 10 wins were the most in school history, and many came in thrilling fashion, as the Bison won seven times by seven points or less.

2001

Bucknell celebrates its seventh straight winning season, a first in Bison annals.

2003

After the legendary Tom Gadd loses a long battle with brain cancer, Bucknell turns to Tim Landis as its 25th head coach. Landis quickly restores the good fortunes of the Bison football program. After a 2-9/0-7 season in 2002, Bucknell finishes 6-6/4-3 in one of the nation's best one-season turnarounds.

2004

Bucknell wins its final four games of the season for the first time since 1975 to claim its first winning season since 2001 with a 7-4 record.

2006

Bucknell finishes with a 6-5 record and posts a five-game improvement from 2005, equaling the largest jump in program history.

2010

On Jan. 27, Joe Susan is introduced as the 26th head coach in Bucknell history.

A LOOK AT THE 10 MOST SIGNIFICANT BUCKNELL FOOTBALL GAMES EVER PLAYED... AND THE ONE THAT WASN'T

By Brad Tufts

Stephen Taylor wasn't able to observe a football team practicing as he made his way to Harrisburg early in 1846 with the proposed charter for the fledgling University at Lewisburg, but even before the name of the school was changed in recognition of benefactor William Bucknell, the sport had been introduced on campus and gained some popularity.

Today, the sport is a fixture on fall Saturdays, and its history is prominent in any accounting of Bucknell's athletic heritage. The Bison gridiron story (did you know that the word "gridiron" derives from the manner in which the field was formerly marked?) includes many notable games, and we could probably argue for the next 150 years as to which were the most significant.

Before designating the 10 most significant games, please permit a look back at some of the more noteworthy games played by Bucknell football teams.

In 1881, a group of students from Bucknell and State College (as Penn State was known in those days) played a game of football which, at one time, was recognized as the first contest in the sport by either school, though now both schools say that it was only an informal meeting.

Bucknell's first official football game came against Lafayette on Thanksgiving Day, 1883, but a lack of student interest following that initial venture curtailed play for four years. In 1887, the sport returned to stay as Bucknell played its first two official games with Penn State.

Within another four years, Bucknell was playing regular schedules, and by 1895, the university had its first head coach.

The 1900 team finished 4-4-1, but gained national attention in an 18-10 loss to West Point. All the scoring for Bucknell came on two field goals by a hard-running fullback named Christy Mathewson.

The New York writers covering the game spread the word about this talented athlete, whose 48-yard field goal in that game was the longest in the country that year. Mathewson, who went on to become one of the nation's most admired athletes as a pitcher for the New York Giants, liked football more than baseball, and if the National Football League had existed at the time, it is probable that baseball would have been deprived of one of its greatest and most famous players.

Bucknell originally played football on Loomis Field, now home of the University's Gateway residences. In 1924, the Bison moved into what is now Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium, and christened the new field against Lafayette before a crowd of 15,000. Lafayette won the contest, 21-3, despite a 43-yard field goal by Bison captain Wally Foster to open the scoring.

Late that year, Bucknell beat Navy, 6-0, and Rutgers, 12-7, to highlight the first of three seasons in which Bucknell was coached by "Uncle Charlie" Moran, who had led Centre College's "Praying Colonels" to a memorable upset of Harvard. The Bison finished 8-2 in 1924, which represented the most victories ever by a Bucknell team.

Moran's 1925 team visited President Calvin Coolidge in the White House while in Washington to play Georgetown, and the Bison were rolling along at 6-2-1 when they played at the University of Detroit on Thanksgiving Day. The Bison won that game, 7-0, but the flamboyant coach also had scheduled a game at Dayton two days later. The travel and two games in three days were too much, and the weary Bison dropped a 19-0 decision.

This was not the first time Bucknell encountered scheduling difficulties. The 1891 team, led by Hall of Famers Andrew Wyant and "Warhorse" Allen, opened the season with a 16-10 victory at Lafayette, but then had to play Lehigh the following day and suffered a 62-4 beating.

Future College Football Hall of Famer Carl Snavely made his debut as Bucknell coach in 1927, and promptly posted a 13-7 win over Penn State, the Bison's first win ever in State College. His teams went on to beat the Nittany Lions for the next three years, and then the future Big Ten power dropped Bucknell from its schedule for three years.

Times do change.

In 1929, Bucknell completed its second 8-2 season in history with a 78-0 win over Dickinson. In that game, future college and professional Hall of Famer Clarke Hinkle scored 50 points, still a Bucknell record.

A 7-6 loss to Temple on Oct. 10, 1930 was noteworthy, for it was the first regularly-scheduled night football game ever.

Bucknell went 6-0-3 in 1931 for its second of three undefeated seasons, and the record included season-ending wins over two of the powers of the day, Washington & Jefferson (10-6) and Fordham (14-13). The latter was played before a large crowd at the Polo Grounds, where Christy Mathewson had gained fame for the New York Giants.

The Bison of 1895... their legacy endures more than a century later.

Edward "Hook" Mylin arrived on the scene in 1934 and led Bucknell to a 7-2-2 record that included a 13-7 win over Penn State and a 26-0 rout of Miami in the Orange Bowl.

In 1938, the second season under Al Humphreys, the Bison won at Penn State, 14-0. It was the last time that Bucknell would defeat the Nittany Lions, who rose to national prominence following the end of World War II.

In 1949, Bucknell finished 6-2, and both losses (to Temple and Gettysburg) were by one point. Gettysburg scored the winning TD in its 34-33 win in the final 40 seconds.

Bucknell closed out the 1950 season with four straight wins, which set the stage for the 1951 campaign, in which the Bison rolled to a 9-0 mark. The perfect season concluded with a 21-20 win at Colgate and a 33-6 trouncing of Delaware in Memorial Stadium that led to a more than mild celebration on campus.

The 1951 team boasted several All-East and Little All-America players, and the Associated Press poll released on Nov. 20 listed Bucknell at No. 20 in the nation.

In 1954, BU beat Lehigh, 48-46, in a wild affair that produced the highest losing score ever by a Bison opponent.

One of the great eras in Bucknell football began in 1958 with the arrival of Bob Odell, and after a 1-8 mark in that first season, Odell led Bucknell to a 15-8 Homecoming win over Rutgers in 1959. The following year, a shutout of Delaware capped a 7-2 season and earned the first of two Lambert Cups for Odell's teams. The Bison reclaimed Eastern supremacy in 1964, winning the Lambert Cup with a 7-2 mark.

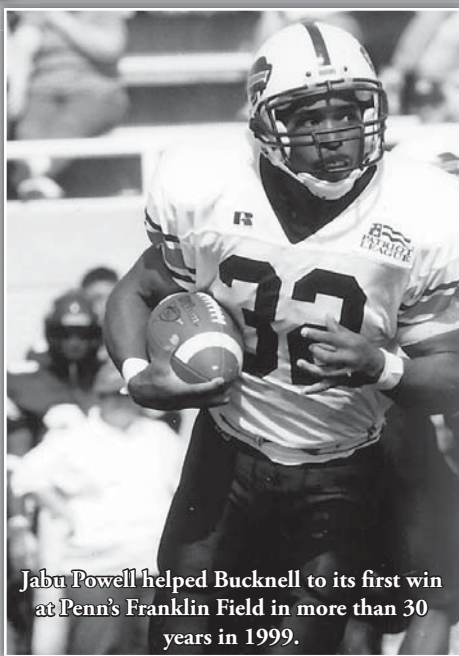

Bucknell won the Middle Atlantic Conference title in 1965 with a 26-14 win over Delaware, and closed the season with a 22-14 win over Davidson. In that game, All-America Tom Mitchell was chasing the national record for career receiving, and coach Carroll Huntress and his staff devised a formation designed to hit Mitchell with short passes while he was in the backfield. On the second attempt, a bad snap from center led to a big loss, and attempts at the record were abandoned.

Mitch Farbstein, a member of the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, was captured in the pages of Life after he led Bucknell to a 14-13 win over Gettysburg in 1971. That same year, the bruising fullback scored five touchdowns in a 33-0 win over Lafayette.

Bill Lane slashes his way through Villanova in 1936. The Bison's win dashed 'Nova's Rose Bowl hopes.

◆ Bucknell Football History ◆

Jabu Powell helped Bucknell to its first win at Penn's Franklin Field in more than 30 years in 1999.

A 39-yard field goal by Al Yuknus with 20 seconds left gave Bucknell a 19-17 win at Dayton in the 1982 season opener, the Bison's first visit to the southern Ohio city since "Uncle Charlie" tried to win two games in three days in 1925. The game was also one of the hottest in Bucknell annals, as gametime temperature on the artificial surface was 112 degrees.

In 1987, back-to-back home games with Holy Cross (a 48-10 loss) and Columbia (a 62-20 win) brought the national news media to Lewisburg in droves.

The media came first to chronicle the Frank Merriwell-like heroics of the Crusaders' Gordie Lockbaum, and then returned the next week as Columbia attempted to escape its collegiate-record losing streak.

The Lions attempted an onside kick on the opening kickoff, but that failed, and Bucknell led 28-0 by the end of the first quarter and the Lions went on to their 37th straight loss.

Lou Maranzana's first season as head coach in 1989 included a very special afternoon, as the Bison's home stadium was rededicated to the memory of Christy Mathewson. Matty would have been proud, as the Bison that day beat Dartmouth, Maranzana's alma mater, 36-20.

The Tom Gadd era began in 1995, and the 7-4 record included a dramatic 21-14 win at Colgate in the first overtime game in Bucknell history.

Did You Know?

- Bucknell played George Washington at home on Oct. 10, 1925, the day Christy Mathewson was buried in Lewisburg. In his memory, there was no cheering in the first quarter.
- Penn State dropped Bucknell from its football schedule for three years. It happened after the Bison beat the Nittany Lions three straight times between 1927-30.
- The 1935 Orange Bowl game between Bucknell and Miami featured the first-ever college football photograph transmitted over the wire by the Associated Press.

The drama of that contest, though, paled in comparison to the Bucknell-Colgate game in 1996, as the Bison and Red Raiders again played into overtime, this time with the Patriot League title on the line. In a game that will be long remembered by all in attendance, Bucknell battled to a 28-27 win when a Colgate two-point conversion pass in overtime was batted down by Brandon Little, who would later earn All-America honors.

Bucknell built on its championship season by winning its first 10 games the following fall and compiling a 12-game winning streak, the second longest in school history. In the process of posting more wins than any other Bison team, Coach Gadd's charges were nationally ranked and led the Patriot League in total defense for the third straight year. However, the memorable season and win streak came to an end with a 48-14 loss at Colgate in a game that again decided the Patriot League crown.

The Bison continued their winning ways in 1999, turning in their fifth straight winning season with a 7-4 record behind an offense that scored 320 points — the third-highest single-season total in school history. Quarterback Don McDowell turned in one of his career-best performances to lead the Orange and Blue to a 21-16 victory at nationally ranked Colgate, while Jabu Powell stepped in at running back and led the Bison to their first win at Penn's Franklin Field (23-16) in over 30 years.

In 2001 the Bison made it seven straight winning seasons — a first in the history of the program — while playing on their new state-of-the-art FieldTurf.

With their football fortunes reaching heights never before seen, the Bison were dealt a devastating blow when Gadd had to step aside in 2002 to battle brain cancer. He lost that battle in March 2003. Gadd tied the BU record for career coaching victories with 48, achieving that figure faster than any of his predecessors.

Tim Landis succeeded Gadd in 2003, and quickly restored Bucknell's recent tradition as a Patriot League contender. The Bison finished in third place with a 4-3 league record, just one year after finishing 0-7. In his second season the Bison improved to 7-4 and were 4-2 in the Patriot League to record their second consecutive third-place finish.

In 2006, Landis helped orchestrate an impressive turnaround as the Bison equaled the program record by posting a five-win improvement from the year before. Bucknell finished with a record of at least .500 for the third time in Landis' tenure as it alternated wins and losses the entire season for a 6-5 mark.

The final game of the 2007 season, an impressive 38-24 win over Patriot League champion Fordham, served as a springboard toward an improved 2008 campaign for the Bison, who finished 5-6, a two-win improvement over the previous season.

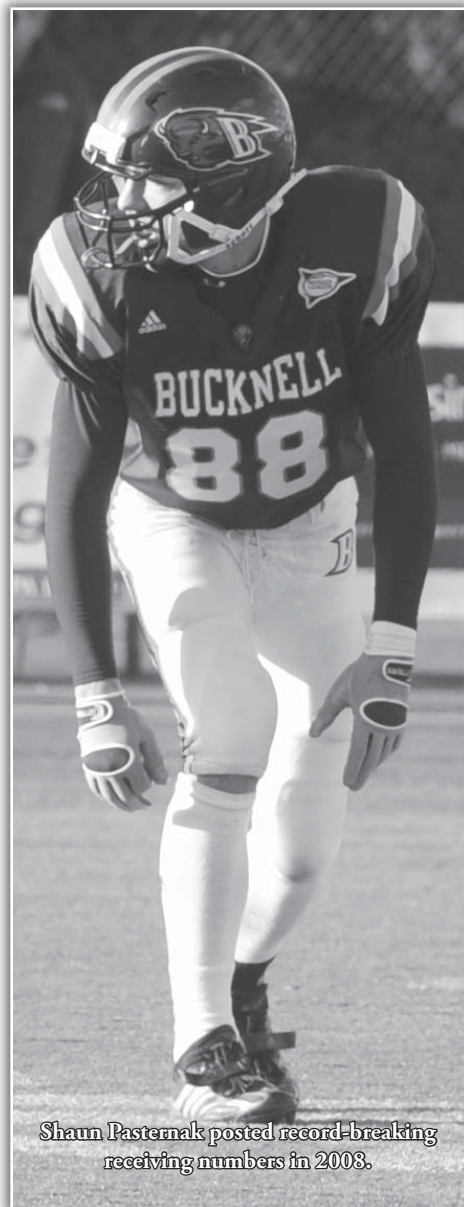

Bucknell is hoping a season-finale victory once again leads to an improved following campaign. Former assistant (1981-90) Joe Susan will be taking over the program coming off a 23-17 upset of No. 13 Holy Cross in the final contest of the 2009 schedule. The Bison finished 4-7 overall and 2-4 in Patriot League play in 2009 and they hope to up both win totals in 2010.

On the following pages are the 10 most significant Bucknell football games ever played, compiled in chronological order. There are certainly many more games that deserve consideration, but we had to make some tough choices. Let the friendly arguments begin.

BRAD TUFTS retired in the spring of 2000 after more than 30 years as a member of the University's athletic department staff.

◆ Bucknell Football History ◆

Lafayette 59, Bucknell 0 (November 30, 1883)

Certainly not a score for Bucknell followers to remember, but the game is historic because it was the first one. A brief excerpt from an account of the game indicates that the style of both play and writing have changed over the years:

"...At this point the time for the first inning was up, and a breathing spell of fifteen minutes was given. At the beginning of the second inning, the University team came up somewhat discouraged, but nevertheless determined to make the other side work for whatever they might secure.

"They now used several of Lafayette's tricks with good result, and showed that it was but want of skill and practice that they had worked so disastrously in the first part of the game. For a full fifteen minutes, the ball was carried about the field without either side gaining a single point."

Bucknell 12, Rutgers 7 (November 22, 1924)

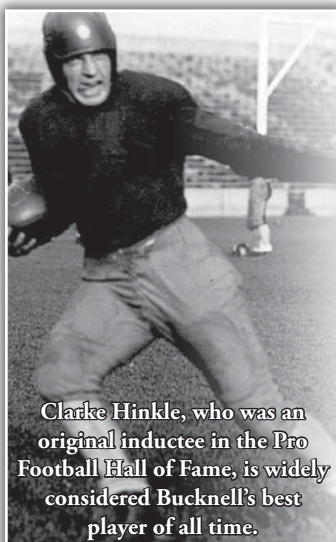

The win gave tremendous recognition to the Bucknell football program. Playing at Franklin Field in Philadelphia, 'Mose' Wilbach scored both touchdowns for the Bison. Rutgers had gone into the contest undefeated.

Bucknell 14, Fordham 13 (November 21, 1931)

The game, played at the Polo Grounds, capped an undefeated (6-0-3) season and ended the brilliant Bucknell career of Clarke Hinkle, regarded by many as the finest Bucknell player ever.

Fordham also entered the game undefeated, and the contest was covered extensively by the New York media, bringing national attention to Bucknell and its football program.

The game, though, was marred by tragedy; Fordham's Connie Murphy died from injuries sustained in the game.

Clarke Hinkle, who was an original inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, is widely considered Bucknell's best player of all time.

Bucknell 26, Miami 0 (January 1, 1935)

The very first Orange Bowl Game, this contest is probably the most written-about game in Bucknell history. The Bison's appearance in the game — which was no doubt aided by tireless efforts of publicity director Art Brandon — continues to bring widespread national publicity to Bucknell each January 1.

The game showcased the coaching talents of "Hook" Mylin, and the first AP photo ever transmitted from a college football game came from this contest.

As for the halftime show, which has become a staple of current Orange Bowl games, a newspaper account indicates that, "between the halves, the University of Miami band paraded around the field, followed by a truck carrying several University coeds in an orange-colored bowl. The young ladies threw oranges and tangerines, with more or less accuracy, among the spectators."

Nicholas Farina was a member of the undefeated 1931 Bison.

Bucknell 21, Colgate 20 (November 10, 1951)

Every victory in 1951 was necessary for the undefeated season, but this win came in the next-to-last game, on the road, and was one of only two games all year decided by seven points or less. It was also Bucknell's only win over Colgate in the 1950s; the Red Raiders ended BU's record 17-game winning streak in 1952.

Bucknell 26, Delaware 0 (November 19, 1960)

This was the fourth shutout in nine games for a terrific defensive team, and precipitated 24 hours of furious campaigning that led to Bucknell's first-ever Lambert Cup.

The win also came on the heels of eight straight losses to Delaware, and clinched first team Little All-America honors and other awards for quarterback Paul Terhes.

Bucknell 24, Harvard 21 (October 3, 1964)

The Bison ended 73 years of frustration against the Ivy League, and the large number of Boston media in attendance were in high praise of Bucknell. The win also provided the impetus for two other three-point wins and Bucknell's second Lambert Cup in four years.

The contest also started Tom Mitchell en route to the first of two straight Little All-America and Eastern small college Player of the Year campaigns.

◆ Bucknell Football History ◆

Bucknell 26, Delaware 14 (November 20, 1965)

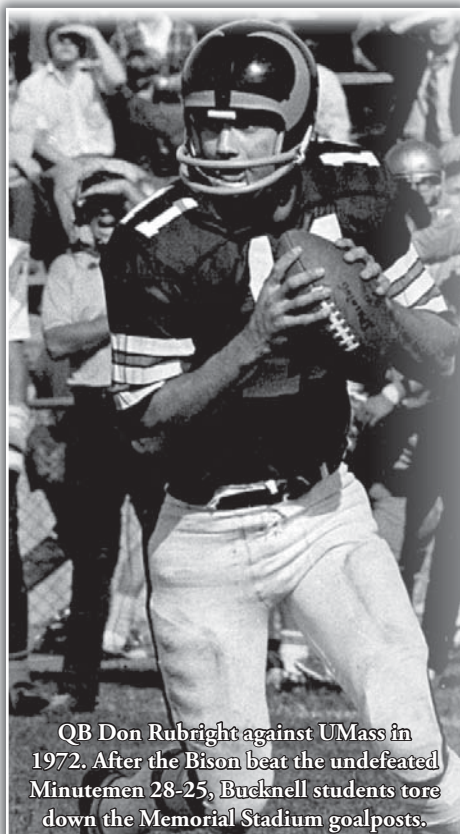

The victory clinched the Middle Atlantic Conference title, which was — until 1996 — the Bison's only football conference championship ever. The game also closed the curtain on one of the finest careers in Memorial Stadium history, as Tom Mitchell played his final home game.

Bucknell 28, UMass 15 (November 4, 1972)

Bucknell 41, Colgate 7 (November 11, 1972)

These games have been combined into one for this list, as they were the final two home games of coach Fred Prender's first year, and resulted in two big upsets.

UMass had entered the game undefeated (6-0), but Mitch Farbstein and Bob Langan each ran for two touchdowns as the Bison beat the Minutemen.

QB Don Rubright against UMass in 1972. After the Bison beat the undefeated Minutemen 28-25, Bucknell students tore down the Memorial Stadium goalposts.

The next week, Bucknell faced a Colgate team that stood 4-2-1, and had hammered Bucknell, 47-24, the year before. Farbstein was unstoppable, rushing for 192 yards and a touchdown as the Bison routed the rivals from the Chenango Valley.

Student enthusiasm has been unsurpassed since that time, and the goal posts came down after both games.

Bucknell 28, Colgate 27 (November 23, 1996)

Bucknell and Colgate met in Lewisburg with the Patriot League championship at stake, and the Bison won their first football league title in 31 years in dramatic fashion, as Brandon Little broke up a Colgate two-point conversion try in overtime.

Bucknell had lost an early 14-0 lead, and trailed 21-14 before Jim Fox engineered a remarkable 99-yard scoring drive midway through the fourth quarter, tying the game at 21-21 and forcing overtime.

Bucknell scored first in overtime, with Fox throwing his fourth touchdown pass of the game. Colgate answered, and then opted for a two-point conversion rather than a kick that would have forced a second overtime. With the league title riding on a single play, Colgate quarterback Ryan Vena rolled right and threw into the end zone, but Little batted the pass down, and bedlam ensued.

The game also was the final Bucknell contest for record-setting running back Rich Lemon.

HONORABLE MENTION: Bucknell ?, Delaware ? (November 23, 1963)

The list above was restricted to games that were actually played. A game that was never played, however, also deserves mention.

On Nov. 22, 1963, the nation was shocked and paralyzed by the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The Bucknell campus mourned with the rest of the world, and the football game scheduled at home the next day with the University of Delaware was postponed.

Bucknell had won three of its first five games before stumbling in a 14-13 loss to Lafayette. However, victories over Temple, Colgate and Lehigh brought the Bison to 6-3 going into the Delaware game.

A victory would give Bucknell a tie with Delaware for the Middle Atlantic Conference University Division championship. The Blue Hens were 8-0 overall and ranked first in the national small college polls conducted by both the Associated Press and United Press International.

Interest in the game was at an all-time high on campus, in Lewisburg and the surrounding area, and the media almost certainly would have overflowed Memorial Stadium's press facilities. A sellout was a distinct possibility.

And then the shots rang out in Dealey Plaza. We watched a president take the oath of office on an airplane. We cried. We saw Jack Ruby make a shambles of any pretense of security. We cried again as a young boy saluted his father and the funeral procession moved slowly down Pennsylvania Avenue. We talked about what had happened and tried to get back to some semblance of "normal."

That included trying to reschedule the football game for the following weekend (Delaware said no), Thanksgiving Day (Delaware said no), or at a neutral site (Delaware said no).

The game that might have brought Bucknell its first conference crown and one of the largest home crowds in history was never played.

Delaware finished the season undefeated with its 8-0 record. UPI kept the Blue Hens at the top of their poll and awarded them a national championship plaque. AP, though, asked questions about why the game wasn't played, and learning of the Blue Hens' intransigence, dropped Delaware to second in its final ranking.

The game would be the last Bison contest to be canceled until 2001, when the September 11 tragedy again brought a halt to the sports world, including the Bucknell-Cornell football game.

Daris Wilson broke school marks for rushing yards in a game, season and career by a quarterback.

Bucknell's top two passing leaders - Scott Auchenbach (r) and Jim Given (l). Auchenbach set and NCAA record by completing his first 18 passes against Colgate in 1989. He went on to break Given's career passing records and was elected to the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005. Given joined him in the Hall two years later.

◆ Bison All-Americans ◆

There may be no greater honor in collegiate sports than to be named All-American. While the number of organizations that name All-America teams has fluctuated over the years, the title is nevertheless a distinct honor bestowed only on the best players in the nation. Here is a list of each Bucknell football player that has earned that distinction, along with winners of major academic awards:

George Young (1930-2001)

George Young, noted National Football League executive and former Bison football star, passed away in December 2001 at the age of 71. Young earned Little All-America honors in 1951 on the Bison team that went 9-0, the last Bucknell team to finish a season undefeated.

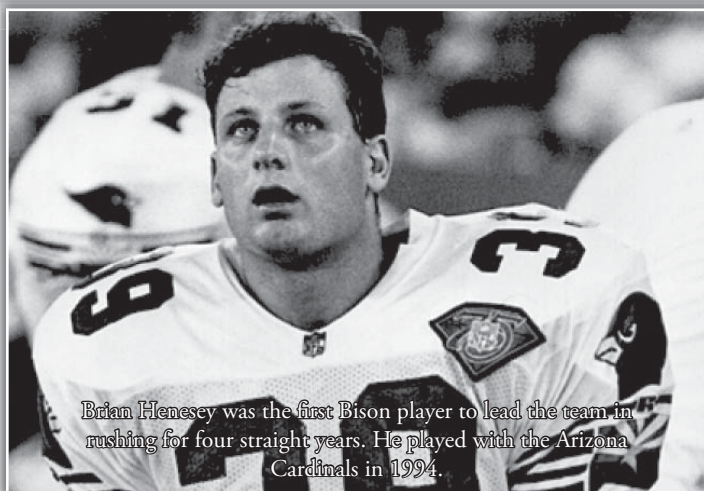

A 1952 BU graduate, Young played in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game and then one season with the Dallas Texans before breaking into the front office ranks with the Baltimore Colts in 1968. He held several positions in that organization before moving to the Miami Dolphins as director of personnel and pro scouting in 1974.

Young was named general manager of the Giants in 1979, serving 19 years with that organization and helping it to Super Bowl titles following the 1986 and 1990 seasons. The winner of the NFL's Executive of the Year Award an unprecedented five times, Young was named Senior Vice President of Football Operations for the NFL in 1998.

Young was inducted into the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame in 1980.

◆ Bison in the Pros ◆

Brian Henesey was the first Bison player to lead the team in rushing for four straight years. He played with the Arizona Cardinals in 1994.

 In 1943 and 1944, some servicemen stationed at Bucknell as part of the V-12 program participated in the intercollegiate athletic program. Since they were not regularly enrolled at Bucknell, they did not receive varsity letters, but they did receive a special wartime award, the "Minor B."*

Tom Gadd Remembered

On December 22, 1994 Tom Gadd was introduced as Bucknell's new head football coach. Raised in California, Gadd was highly regarded in college football circles as a defensive guru, although he was hardly a household name among Bucknell followers in Lewisburg, Pa. It did not take him long to make his presence felt. Taking over a program that had enjoyed only one winning season in its previous 14, Gadd quickly instilled a winning spirit back into Bison Football, and he re-connected with the alumni, involving them in every step of the program.

An inspiring presence not only in the locker room, but all across campus and in the surrounding communities, Gadd never had a losing season at Bucknell. The no-name from the other coast became one of the most beloved coaches in Bucknell annals, and he led the Bison football program to its most glorious seven-year stretch ever. On March 1, 2003, Tom Gadd passed away after a two-year fight with brain cancer. While the disease robbed Bucknell of a legend and a friend, his legacy will long carry on.

The Tom Gadd Era (1995-2001)

In seven years under Tom Gadd, Bucknell...

- Enjoyed seven straight winning seasons, the only time in the 120-year history of the program it's ever happened.
- Won 48 games, lifting Gadd into a tie for first on Bucknell's all-time list of winning coaches. He achieved that mark faster than any other coach.
- Won 73.7 percent of its home games. Bucknell went 28-10 at home under Gadd.
- Placed a total of 97 players on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll, more than any other team.
- Captured only the second conference championship in program history, and the first since 1965. Bucknell won the Patriot League title in 1996.
- Established school records for most wins in a season and in a seven-year period. The Bison enjoyed their first 10-win season in 1997.

1960 Lambert Cup Champions

The 1960 Bison football team was the first in program history to capture the Lambert Cup. The Bison posted a 7-2 overall record, shut out four of their nine opponents and defeated Delaware for the first time in nine meetings, 26-0, in the season finale. Overall, Bucknell outscored its opponents 179-59. Four All-Americans dotted the roster, which included future Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame members Tom Alexander, John Giordano, Mickey Melberger, Paul Terhes and Dick Tyrrell.

• 1960 AP Little All-Americans: Paul Terhes (1st team), Kirk Foulke (honorable mention), Mickey Melberger (HM), Dick Tyrrell (HM)

Note: A 50 Year Anniversary Celebration for the 1960 Bucknell football team will take place on Homecoming Weekend 2010 (Oct. 29-31). There will be special gatherings for team members throughout the weekend. Former players in attendance will be recognized on the field at the Lafayette game that Saturday at 1 p.m.

◆ Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame ◆

The newest Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame class will be inducted as part of the 32nd Hall of Fame Induction Breakfast, hosted by the Bison Club on Homecoming Weekend. This year's ceremony will take place on Saturday, Oct. 30, and the new Hall of Famers will also be re-introduced at halftime of the Bucknell-Lafayette football game later that afternoon.

The Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame was established in 1979 to honor the very best in the history of Bison athletics. This year's induction brings to 217 the number of outstanding student-athletes, coaches, administrators and friends of Bucknell whose contributions to Bucknell athletics are forever preserved in the Hall of Fame.

KIRK FOULKE '61 becomes the 74th member of the Bison football program to be elected to the Hall of Fame. Foulke came to Bucknell from Newtown Square, Pa., was a starting tackle for three seasons and captained the 1961 team that finished 6-3. A year earlier, he was a key player on a team that finished 7-2 and won the Lambert Cup as the top team the East under the direction of Hall of Fame head coach Bob Odell. Foulke was an Honorable Mention Little All-America selection in both 1960 and 1961, and as a senior he was a Second Team All-Middle Atlantic Conference pick.

Consistently graded as the team's top lineman by his coaches, Foulke was part of a defensive line that in 1960 allowed only 103 rushing yards per game. That team produced four shutouts in nine games and allowed an average of only 6.5 points per game. On offense he blocked for a Hall of Fame quarterback in Paul Terhes and a Hall of Fame halfback in Mickey Melberger. One of Foulke's linemates, Tom Alexander '62, is also a member of the Hall of Fame.

In addition to the Hall of Fame ceremonies, Foulke and the rest of the 1960 team will be honored at a special Homecoming Weekend reunion commemorating the 50-year anniversary of their Lambert Cup title.

DAVID WHITE '83 epitomized the Art Gulden era of track and field at Bucknell, entering the program as a walk-on but progressively developing into an elite athlete during a glory period for Bison distance men. White's career overlapped with other Bucknell Hall of Fame distance runners, such as Bill Reifsnnyder, Mark Hulme, Rick Sayre and Brian Harshman, but his record stood up with all of them, and he was elected team captain as a senior.

White became a dominant college runner by his junior year and qualified for the NCAA Indoor Championships in the 1,000 meters in 1982, where he finished fourth in his heat and had the 12th-fastest time in the preliminaries. He was part of five East Coast Conference championship teams and also competed in the 1982 NCAA Cross Country Championship as part of a Bison squad that finished 12th in the nation. In ECC Championship competition he was runner-up in the 800 and 1,500 meters.

White, a Cooperstown, N.Y., native who is now an associate professor of political science at Francis Marion University in South Carolina, saw his name littered across the Bucknell record book. Individually, he broke Hall of Famer George Buckheit's school record in the 1,500 meters by four seconds at Penn State in 1983. His time of 3:44.95 was bettered by Hulme later that season, but it still stands No. 2 all-time in Bison annals. He also still ranks fourth all-time in the indoor 1,000 meters, sixth all-time in both the indoor and outdoor 800 meters, and he consistently ran sub-4:05 mile equivalents.

Also a gifted and reliable relay runner, in 1982 White was the lead man on a 4x800-meter relay that set a school outdoor record (7:31.84) that still stands today. At the 1983 Penn Relays he was a part of three school-record relays in the same week. He led off the 4x800 relay that tied the record from the previous year, he anchored the distance medley relay team that recorded a then-record time (now third all-time) of 9:54.04, and he was also part of a team that set a school record in the 4x1500. White was also part of a 4x1600 team that set school and meet records at the Rutgers Relays.

JEFF HILK '86 was a standout for both the Bucknell water polo and swimming and diving teams in the mid-1980s. During the water polo circuit he posted 334 goals and 460 points in his career, totals that still rank second only to fellow Hall of Famer and All-American Scott Schulte '81 on Bucknell's career charts. Hilk is one of only nine players in program history to score 100 goals in a season, and he and Schulte are the only two to do it more than once. A four-year starter, Hilk scored 108 goals as a sophomore and 104 as a senior.

In 1985 Hilk co-captained a Bison squad that finished 25-9, won the Mid-Atlantic Conference title, was runner-up at the Eastern Championship and placed seventh at the NCAA Championship. That was the last Bucknell team to win a league title or qualify for the NAAs. Hilk was a three-time All-MAC and All-East honoree, and as a senior he was an Honorable Mention All-American. He was later picked to play on the East team at the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1985 and 1986, and in 1983 he was a member of the National Junior Development Team.

As a four-year swimming letterman, Hilk graduated with school records in the 200-yard freestyle and 400 and 800 freestyle relays. The Cincinnati, Ohio native was a top-eight finisher in five freestyle events at East Coast Conference Championships and was on two gold-medal relays in 1985. Hilk won the Scott Schulte Award as the water polo team's MVP in 1985 and was also the co-recipient of the Christy Mathewson Award as the top senior athlete in his class.

Like White, CHARLES COLE '88 is another in a long line of outstanding cross country and distance runners at Bucknell. Cole led the Bison cross country team to four consecutive East Coast Conference championships as well as a pair of NCAA Championship appearances in 1986 and 1987. Cole was a top-100 finisher (94th and 91st) in his two national meets. He was a two-time ECC individual cross country champion, a three-time All-ECC selection and a two-time ECC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. In 1986 he was an All-East performer, and he was part of teams that went 44-0 in dual meets during his career.

A native of Chaptico, Md., Cole was also a part of seven ECC track and field championship teams, four indoors and three outdoors. As a senior, he won the 5,000 meters and anchored the winning distance medley relay at the ECC Indoor Championships. Outdoors, he captured ECC gold medals in the 5,000 meters in 1986 and in the 10,000 in 1988. Cole still holds the sixth-fastest time in Bucknell history in the outdoor 5,000 (14:18.84).

LYNNETTE MCBRIDE '91 is one of the true stars of the Bucknell women's track and field program, a superior athlete who helped set the stage for the championship-caliber program of today. McBride won Patriot League long jump titles both indoors and outdoors as a senior, and she was the East Coast Conference outdoor long jump champion in 1990. She graduated with the school records in the indoor 55-meter dash (7.24), 300-meter dash (37.6) and long jump (18-10 3/4), and today ranks No. 2 in the 55-meter dash and No. 3 in the long jump. Outdoors, her time of 12.21 in the 100-meter dash ranked second at the time (and sixth today), and she was the co-record-holder in the long jump (19-0 1/4) at graduation (T-2nd today).

Also an outstanding relay competitor, McBride ran the anchor leg of Bucknell's victorious 4x400-meter relay that clinched the team title for the Bison at the inaugural Patriot League Outdoor Championships in 1991. She helped break school records in both the 4x100 and 4x400 relays.

McBride, who came to Bucknell from Evans City, Pa., won the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year award for indoor track and field as a senior, and she was a winner of the Christy Mathewson Award as the top senior athlete in her class.

ROSE EWAN was involved with Bison Athletics in various capacities for 25 years, and she is considered one

Bison in National Halls of Fame

In addition to the 73 football-playing members of the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, five inductees have also been elected to national football halls of fame.

► The most famous member of the Hall is probably Christy Mathewson, who is also a charter member of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. At Bucknell, Mathewson was an outstanding dropkicker and fullback on Bison football teams from 1898-1900.

► Clarke Hinkle, an outstanding back who later starred for the Green Bay Packers, is a member of both the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

► Andrew Wyant, a Bison star from 1888-91, who later went on to play with the University of Chicago, is a member of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

► Carl Snavelly and Edward "Hook" Mylin are members of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Helms Hall of Fame. Snavelly went 42-16-8 at Bucknell from 1927-33 and also coached at Cornell, North Carolina and Washington (Mo.) University. Mylin, who succeeded Snavelly, coached Bucknell's Orange Bowl championship team.

► Bob Odell, who coached Bucknell to Lambert Cup titles in 1960 and 1964, was inducted into the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1992 in honor of his remarkable career at Penn.

of Bucknell's leading promoters of women's athletics. Ewan came to Bucknell in 1978 and was head coach of the field hockey and women's lacrosse teams for one season, but she achieved her greatest coaching success with the women's tennis program. She served as head women's tennis coach for 18 years (1979-97) and compiled a 183-120-1 dual-match record. Ewan led the Bison to Patriot League championships in 1992 and 1994, the first two conference titles for that program, and she was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year following both championship seasons. From September 1991 to October 1992 the team won a school-record 25 straight matches. The 1991-92 team finished 16-1 and was part of a five-year stretch in which it went 64-9.

In addition to her coaching duties, Ewan was promoted to coordinator of women's athletics in 1980 and to associate director of athletics in 1990. For a period of 10 years she oversaw the athletic department's scheduling, budget and academic enhancement, and prior to her retirement she served as associate athletic director for recreation services.

Most importantly, Ewan successfully guided women's athletics at Bucknell through a difficult transition period, including the merger of the men's and women's athletic departments. Today Bucknell has a much-envied women's program — the Bison have captured 13 straight and 16 of 20 Patriot League Women's Presidents' Cups — with much of that foundation established by Ewan's work.
