WITH A WIN OVER IONA, BUCKNELL WOULD ...

- ... improve to 2-3 on the season, winning a second straight game.
- ... improve to 6-5 in the all-time series with Iona.
- ... defeat the Gaels for a fourth straight time.
- ... move to 59-20 overall under head coach Trevor Woodruff.
- ... improve to 31-6 at home under Woodruff.
- ... improve to 635-635 all-time.

HEADLINES

- Bucknell returns to Sojka Pavilion to host Iona in its second home game of the season Tuesday morning. It's the first of three games the Bison are scheduled to play over the next six days.
- Bucknell is coming off its first win of the season, an exciting 65-58 overtime victory at Cornell. It was just Bucknell's second overtime win since 2017.
- Bucknell finished 24-10 overall and 12-6 in Patriot League play last season. The Bison reached the 2022 Patriot League Championship game playing as the No. 4 seed in the tournament, but they fell 65-54 to No. 2 seed American.
- Bucknell received an at-large bid to the 2022 WNIT and defeated Fordham in the first round before falling to Drexel in the second. Bucknell is the only Patriot League team with two all-time WNIT victories under its belt.
- Bucknell graduated two seniors in the spring, including two-time First Team All-Patriot League guard Taylor O'Brien and 2022 PL All-Defensive Team member Marly Walls. O'Brien led the Bison in scoring over the past two seasons, scored the fifth-most single-season point in program history as a senior (567) and graduated ranking 21st on Bucknell's all-time scoring list (1,125).
- Bucknell sophomore Cecelia Collins was voted to the 2022 Preseason All-Patriot League Team. She was a Second Team All-League selection last year. This is the first time since 2011 Bucknell has not returned a junior or senior All-League player.
- Bucknell was picked fourth in the Patriot League Preseason Poll. It's the first time since 2015-16 Bucknell was not picked in the top three. The Bison have gone 100-16 in league play since the start of the 2015-16 season.
- Senior Emma Shaffer, junior Caroline Dingler and sophomore Cecelia Collins were named captains ahead of the 2022-23 season.
- Head coach Trevor Woodruff is in his fourth season at Bucknell. He's 57-18 over that time, including a 36-8 mark in Patriot League play. He was named PL Coach of the Year in each of his first two seasons.
- Following the retirement of assistant coach Jim Reed during the offseason, Kelly Mazzante was elevated to associate head coach, and former manager of basketball operations LaSashia Connelly was named an assistant coach. Molly Gillis joined the staff during the offseason as the program's new manager of ops.

SCOUTING IONA

- Iona is 2-2 to open its season. After defeating Wagner in the season opener, the Gaels lost two straight to Stony Brook and Providence. Most recently, the Gaels defeated Sacred Heart, 65-56, on the road on Sunday. Iona led wire-to-wire over Sacred Heart after opening the game on a 10-0 run.
- Iona was picked fifth in the 2022-23 Metro Atlantic Athletics Conference Preseason Poll. The Gaels went 11-16 (8-12 MAAC) last season and won a first-round game in the conference tournament before falling to top-seeded Fairfield in the quarterfinals.
- Returning leading-scorer Juana Camilion was named to the Preseason All-MAAC First Team while the team's leading rebounder from last season, Ketsia Athias, was named to the Preseason Second Team.
- Iona is currently ranked ninth in the nation in field goal percentage (50.5%). The Gaels are also knocking down 40.7 percent of their 3-point field goal attempts. They average 8.2 made threes per game over their first four contests.
- Iona is led by head coach Billi Chambers, who in 10 seasons with the program has a career record of 117-148.

SERIES HISTORY WITH THE GAELS/MAAC

- Bucknell evened the all-time series at 5-5 with a 55-48 win at Iona last season, defeating the Gaels for a third straight time. Bucknell defeated Iona in 2018 and 2017 after the Gaels won four in a row from 2005-10.
- Iona claimed the first-ever win in the series in 1992, and Bucknell's other wins came in 2004-05 and 2005-06.
- Bucknell is 2-2 when facing the Gaels at home.
- Last season's meeting, which took place on Nov. 23, 2021, featured 11 lead changes. Bucknell trailed 26-23 at halftime and was in front for just 14 minutes of the contest. The Gaels used a 7-0 run to start the fourth and led 42-37, but the Bison took the lead for good with 4:53 to play.
- Cecelia Collins led the Bison with 16 points, and Iona's bench combined for 27 points.
- The Iona win last year sparked an eight-game winning streak for the Bison which lasted throughout the rest of the non-conference schedule.

- Cecelia Collins scored a game-high 22 points, and Isabella King and Remi Sisselman combined for another 32 off the bench to lead the Bucknell women's basketball team to a come-from-behind 65-58 overtime win at Cornell on Saturday afternoon at Newman Arena.
- The Bison got off to a slow start on the road and had to battle back from a 21-8 deficit midway through the second quarter. King and Sisselman were the difference-makers, helping the Bison to a 36-10 edge in bench points.
- Sisselman pumped in a career-high 15, including the game-tying 3-pointer with 1:05 left in regulation and a dagger trey in overtime.
- With the Bison trailing by two, Collins swished a three from the left wing while Tai Johnson was tripped away from the ball. Johnson went to the line and made both free throws to make it a five-point possession. After a defensive stop, Sisselman buried her third trey of the day for a 60-54 lead with 1:41 to play.

- Cecelia Collins was one of five players named to the 2022 Preseason All-Patriot League Team.
- Collins is Bucknell's lone returning All-Patriot League player, earning spots on the Second Team and the All-Rookie Team as a freshman in 2021-22. She became the first Bison freshman to earn a spot on the First, Second or Third Team since 2001.
- Collins was one of two sophomores to make the Preseason All-League Team.
- Boston University senior Sydney Johnson was named the Patriot League Player of the Year.
- While not earning a spot on the five-player Preseason All-League Team, Boston senior Maren Durant was voted the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, an award that was just added prior to this season.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

- Since head coach Trevor Woodruff's arrival in 2019-20, the Bison have had one of the best scoring defenses in the country and has led the Patriot League in two of the last three seasons. Over Woodruff's first three seasons, Bucknell allowed just 54.5 points per game.
- Bucknell allowed just 53.6 points per game during Woodruff's first season, which ranked eighth in NCAA Division I and was a program record. In 2020-21, the Bison allowed 55.5 per game and finished 17th in the country.
- Bucknell allowed 54.9 points per game last season, good enough for 15th in the nation
- The Bison held opponents to 60 or fewer points in 24 of their 34 games in 2021-22, and 11 were held to under 50.
- Bucknell held teams to 20 or fewer first-half points 11 times last season and 12 or fewer first-half points three times since the start of the 2019-20 season. Additionally, the Bison have held teams to single digits in 70 quarters over the past four seasons (excludes overtime periods).

CONSISTENT PATRIOT LEAGUE SUCCESS

- Bucknell is 100-16 in Patriot League play since the start of the 2015-16 season. The run includes two Patriot League Tournament titles and five first-place finishes in the regular season. Bucknell also has the best overall record in the league during that span at 159-50.

DOUBLE-DIGIT VICTORIES

- 46 of Bucknell's last 58 wins have been by double digits. Since the start of the 2018-19 season, 68 of the team's 86 wins have been by a double-digit margin.
- Bucknell's largest margin of victory was 47 vs. Coppin State in 1985.
- The Bison posted 18 double-digit victories last season, including a 37-point win over Saint Francis.

BUCKNELL'S SCHOOL-RECORD WIN STREAKS

- Prior to the 2021 Patriot League semifinal loss to Lehigh last March, the Bison were riding an 18-game winning streak that dated back to Feb. 8, 2020. It was the longest winning streak in program history.
- Before the streak ended, Bucknell had the fourth-longest win streak (18) in Division I women's basketball, trailing only Princeton (22), which did not compete last season, FGCU (22), and Cal Baptist (25). The Bison went an entire calendar year without losing a game.
- The Bison saw an eight-game winning streak during non-league play last season.

OVERALL SUCCESS AT SOJKA PAVILION

- The Bison are an incredible 87-12 at Sojka Pavilion since the start of the 2015-16 season.
- Now in its 21st season playing at Sojka Pavilion, Bucknell is 183-79 (.701) on its home court.
- Bucknell finished a perfect 16-0 at Sojka Pavilion in 2016-17.
- The Bison were 12-3 in Sojka last season and are 30-6 during the Trevor Woodruff era.

TREVOR WOODRUFF

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON AT BUCKNELL • MISERICORDIA '99

Trevor Woodruff was named the head women's basketball coach at Bucknell in April of 2019. Now in his 14th season with the Bison, Woodruff has compiled an outstanding 58-20 (.744) overall record, including a 40-10 (.800) mark against Patriot League opponents. On top of that, Bucknell is 30-6 (.833) when playing at home under Woodruff and 4-2 (.667) in Patriot League Tournament contests.

For his career, Woodruff owns a 171-30 (.851) record coaching NCAA women's basketball and a 330-165 (.667) overall NCAA basketball record when factoring in his 11 seasons as the men's coach at Misericordia.

Woodruff was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year in each of his first two seasons at Bucknell after leading the team to a pair of first-place regular season finishes. He's the first and only Patriot League women's basketball coach to win the award in his first two years. Woodruff also guided the Bison to their sixth Patriot League Tournament Championship appearance in 2021-22.

The 2021-22 season, which saw Bucknell eclipse the 20-wins mark (24-10) for a sixth consecutive full campaign, culminated with a trip to the second round of the WNIT. The Bison won at Fordham in the first round, marking just the third time a Patriot League team had won a WNIT matchup. The Bison went on to face Drexel in the round of 32 and held a lead late in the fourth quarter before falling to the Colonial Athletic Association's regular season champion.

Bucknell's at-large bid to the 2022 WNIT was a testament to its achievements during the regular season and in the Patriot League Tournament. Having been picked third in the preseason poll, the Bison ended up with the highest NET ranking in the league (100) and reached the Patriot League title game where they faced top-seeded American.

Woodruff's Bison finished atop the league in scoring defense for second time in three seasons and was among the top 20 in the nation in the category for a third straight year.

Bucknell posted an undefeated regular season (8-0) during a shortened 2020-21 campaign and secured the top seed in the Patriot League Tournament for a second consecutive season. Bucknell was one of only two teams in the country to go unbeaten during the regular season. The 2021 Bison sported the country's fewest turnovers per game and finished second in the league in both scoring defense and scoring offense. Under Woodruff, Bucknell put together a program-record 18-game winning streak that spanned more than 13 months.

Woodruff's first season with the Bison was among the most impressive in Patriot League history as the team won the regular season title by a four-game margin and captured the regular season title at 24-6 overall (16-2 PL). During the 2019-20 campaign, Woodruff elevated the Bucknell scoring defense to eighth in the country with a program-record 53.6 points allowed per game. The team also ranked fifth nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (38.9). The Bison went 13-1 at home and won 20 games by double digits.

Five players have combined for eight All-Patriot League honors during Woodruff's two years, including 2019-20 Patriot League Player of the Year Ellie Mack. Additionally, the Bison have had a player on the Academic All-League Team three times, the 2021 Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year, three All-Defensive players, and one member of the Patriot League All-Rookie Team.

Prior to Bucknell, Woodruff compiled a 113-10 record and four conference championships over four years as head coach at the University of Scranton.

Bucknell Highlights

- Two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year
- Two-time Patriot League Regular Season Championship
- 2021-22 Patriot League Championship berth and WNIT win

Career Highlights

- 10-time Coach of the Year selection
- NCAA Division III Final Four appearance, 2019
- NCAA Division III Elite Eight appearance, 2016
- NCAA Division III Sweet Sixteen appearances, 2017, 2018
- Captured four Landmark Conference Championships at Scranton
- 11 appearances in national postseason tournaments
- 30-1 overall record, 2015-16
- 113-10 record while coaching the Scranton Royals

Scranton was nearly unbeatable during Woodruff's four seasons with the team. In addition to the outstanding overall record, the Royals went 53-6 in league play, including a 16-0 record in his first season, while winning four straight Landmark Conference titles. The Royals advanced to the NCAA Division III Final Four in his last season, adding to an Elite Eight appearance in 2016 and back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances in 2017 and 2018.

The Royals have a perennially successful program in the Landmark Conference, but the 2019 Final Four appearance was the team's first since 2006. They finished fourth in both the D3hoops.com and WBCA Coaches Top 25 National Polls. Senior Bridgette Mann went on to garner WBCA Honorable Mention All-American honors, and the Royals defense was outstanding the entire season, holding opponents to 48.8 points a game, the eighth-best mark in all of NCAA Division III.

Woodruff was twice named Landmark Conference Coach of the Year, earning the award for the first time while leading Scranton to a 30-1 record, including a 30-game winning streak, in his first season, and then again in his third season.

Prior to his time in Scranton, Woodruff spent 12 seasons as a head coach in collegiate men's basketball, including 11 highly-successful seasons at Misericordia, his alma mater. He led the Cougars to Freedom Conference championships and NCAA Division III Tournament berths in 2012 and 2015, and he was named Freedom Conference Coach of the Year in both of those seasons. He was also named Pennsylvania Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 2008 in the Cougars' previous affiliation.

Prior to his stint Misericordia, Woodruff was the head men's basketball coach at Lackawanna College in Scranton in 2003-04. He led the Falcons to 24 wins and a No. 9 ranking in the final National Junior College Athletic Association Division II poll. The Falcons won the Region 19 and District 9 championships that season, and Woodruff was a named Coach of the Year in Region 19 and District 9.

In all, Woodruff has eight conference titles, 11 appearances in national postseason tournaments, and 10 Coach of the Year awards.

Woodruff began his coaching career in 2001 as the head boys' basketball coach at Delaware Valley High School in Milford, Pa.

A 1999 graduate of Misericordia, Woodruff holds his bachelor of arts degree in history. He completed his master's degree in educational leadership at Wilkes University in 2004.

Woodruff is joined in Lewisburg by his wife Melissa and sons Bryce and Casey.

KELLY MAZZANTE

ASSOC. HEAD COACH/RECRUITING COORD. • FOURTH SEASON AT BUCKNELL • PENN STATE '04

2022 Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame inductee Kelly Mazzante is in her fourth season with the Bucknell women's basketball team. She was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2022-23 season. The former Penn State standout was one of the best local players in history while playing at nearby Montoursville High School and came back to the area after spending five seasons as an assistant on the staff at IUP.

Mazzante helped guide IUP to its most illustrious stretch in program history during her five seasons as an assistant coach, all of which resulted in 20-plus wins and bids to the NCAA Division II Tournament. Her time with the Crimson Hawks was capped by back-to-back appearances in the Final Four, the first and second Final Four games in program history. In all, the team went 130-29 (.818) overall and 92-17 (.844) in the PSAC while winning three PSAC West Regular season championships, two PSAC Tournament titles, and two Atlantic Region crowns.

Prior to beginning her coaching career, Mazzante was a prolific player in high school, college, the WNBA, and internationally. She graduated from Penn State in 2004 as the Big Ten's all-time leading scorer with 2,919 points, a two-time Associated Press First Team All-American, and was the fourth player in Big Ten history to repeat as Player of the Year, earning the award as both a junior and senior. In addition to her career scoring record, she holds Penn State records for points in a season (872 in 2001-02), points in a game (49 vs. Minnesota in 2001), career field goals made (1,051) and career 3-point field goals made (357).

During her senior campaign, Mazzante led the Nittany Lions to their second consecutive Big Ten championship and a number one seed in the NCAA tournament, with an eventual trip to the Elite Eight. Shortly after that she was drafted by the Charlotte Sting in the second round of the 2004 WNBA draft. She went on to play seven seasons overall and won two league titles with the Phoenix Mercury in 2007 and 2009. Additionally, she played professionally for teams in Slovakia, Russia, Hungary and Italy.

Few players in Pennsylvania high school girls basketball history have been able to match the numbers put up by Mazzante during her time at Montoursville. The Williamsport, Pa., native scored 3,217 points as a four-year starter, which ranked third in state history when she graduated. She led the Warriors to state championship appearances as both a junior and senior, winning the Eastern Pennsylvania regional titles both seasons.

Mazzante earned a Bachelor of Science degree in public relations/communications in 2004. She was a three-time Academic All-America selection, including Academic All-American of the Year as a senior.

TAYLOR COLEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH • FOURTH SEASON AT BUCKNELL • DESALES '13

Taylor Coleman arrived in Lewisburg after spending two seasons on head coach Trevor Woodruff's coaching staff at the University of Scranton, helping the Royals win back-to-back Landmark Conference titles.

Scranton went 57-5 overall and 25-3 in league play during Coleman's two seasons with the team. The Royals won Landmark Conference regular season and tournament titles in each of those seasons. In her first season with the team in 2017-18, the Royals won the championship despite being picked third in the league's pre-season poll, and went on to advance to the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Division III Tournament. The outstanding season included a 23-game winning streak.

Coleman's second season on the staff at Scranton was even better than the first as the Royals won their fourth consecutive Landmark Conference Tournament title before advancing all the way to the NCAA Final Four. The season opened with an 18-game winning streak and closed with a top-10 national ranking.

In Coleman's two seasons with the team, the Royals won two All-American honors, two Mid-Atlantic Region Player of the Year awards, two Landmark Player of the Year and one Landmark Conference Defensive Player of the Year accolades, and seven total All-Landmark Conference citations.

Prior to her time in Scranton, Coleman spent four seasons as an assistant at two other Division III schools. She began her collegiate coaching career with two seasons at Susquehanna University (2013-15), where she helped guide the River Hawks to a 17-9 record in the second season. That helped her and her colleagues garner Landmark Conference Coaching Staff of the Year recognition.

Coleman followed her two years at Susquehanna with two seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater, DeSales. The team went 20-7 and won the MAC Freedom regular season title in her first season, and qualified for the NCAA Tournament with a 20-8 record in her second season.

Coleman joined the coaching ranks in 2013 after a successful playing career at DeSales, where she graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management. On the court, she was a part of two Bulldog teams that won MAC Freedom Conference titles (2010 and 2011), and served as team captain in her senior campaign of 2012-13. She went on to earn a master's degree in instructional technology of education K-12 from DeSales.

LASASHIA CONNELLY

ASSISTANT COACH • THIRD SEASON AT BUCKNELL • SALEM '14

LaSashia Connelly is in her third season with the Bucknell women's basketball staff. She was elevated to assistant coach after serving as the team's manager of basketball operations for two seasons.

Connelly arrived in Lewisburg after having spent the past three seasons as an assistant coach at Maine Maritime Academy where she helped lead the Mariners to a 20-6 record last season and a North Atlantic Conference Championship Tournament appearance.

"We're excited to welcome LaSashia to our Bison family. We believe she is a perfect fit and will excel as our manager of operations," said Woodruff.

Prior to her time with the Mariners, Connelly was an assistant coach and basketball operations manager at Lenoir-Rhyne University in 2016-17. That season Connelly helped coach a Bears defense that ranked eighth in the country in scoring defense and finished with an improved 17-12 record.

Before entering the collegiate coaching ranks, Connelly helped coach the girls basketball team at Jimmy C. Draughn High School, her alma mater. Connelly has also served as a Student-Athlete Academic Committee advisor at both of her previous stops as well as an admissions counselor as Maine Maritime Academy.

Connelly was a four-year member of the women's basketball team at Salem College where she won a Great South Atlantic Conference Championship in 2014 and made an appearance in the Division III NCAA Tournament. Connelly earned her bachelor's degree in Sports and Exercise at Salem in 2014.

DEVIN HALLIBURTON • ISAIAH MAYS

MOLLY GILLIS

MGR. OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS • FIRST SEASON AT BUCKNELL • COLORADO COLLEGE '19

Molly Gillis joined the Bucknell women's basketball team as manager of basketball operations in July 2022.

Gillis brings more than five years of collegiate athletics experience to Bucknell, having spent time as a student-athlete, an athletics operations staff member, a student manager and coach.

"We are thrilled to have Molly join our Bison women's basketball family. I believe the foundation for any success is surrounding yourself with great people, and Molly fits that description. I am excited to introduce her to Bucknell and the entire Lewisburg community so she can see firsthand what makes this such a special place," said Woodruff.

Most recently, Gillis served as a special events supervisor with the College Station Parks & Recreation department in College Station, Texas. In the position, Gillis coordinated parks & recreation initiatives at Wolf Pen Creek Park, managing finances, assisting with project management and coordinating local events and programs.

On the athletics front, Gillis worked as an event/facility manager for Power2Play Sports Events Center in Windsor, Colo. from 2019 to 2021, coordinating operations for major summer basketball tournaments and overseeing summer league competition.

While earning her master's degree in sport management at Texas A&M, Gillis served as a student manager for the women's basketball team and was with the Aggies during their 2021 SEC regular-season title run and their trip to the NCAA Sweet 16. She assisted with the organization of team practices, monitored player involvement in the community and maintained the program's master event schedule among other duties.

During her undergraduate career at Colorado College, Gillis supported the athletic department with management of game day operations and assisted with game admissions. Throughout her junior and senior years, she coached the Rocky Mountain Fever Basketball Club and served as an intramural supervisor.

Elsewhere, Gillis has worked as a marketing intern at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl in 2019, served as a manager at the United States Olympic Training Center and worked as an event assistant at the Coach Blair Celebrity Golf Tournament.

A native of Fort Collins, Colo., Gillis earned her bachelor's degree in economics from Colorado College in 2019 and was a member of the NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Gillis played two seasons of women's basketball for the Tigers, appearing in 33 games.
