Mike Bright's dunk in front of a delirious Davis Gym crowd was the exclamation point in a 112-99 win over Holy Cross that clinched the 1993 Patriot League regular-season title for the Bison.

Pat Flannery retired after the 2007-08 season with a career record of 329-221. His 234 Bucknell victories are second-most in school history, and his 125 conference wins at Bucknell set a Patriot League record.

Bison Play Cinderella at 2005 NCAA Tourney!

In 2005, Bucknell captured its very first Patriot League championship by defeating Holy Cross on its home floor, 61-57. For the Bison, the postseason fun didn't end at the Hart Center. The following Sunday evening, fans packed an on-campus auditorium for the NCAA Tournament Selection Show, eagerly awaiting word on Bucknell's "Big Dance" destination.

Soon they learned that the 14th-seeded Bison would be headed to the Ford Center in Oklahoma City to face the No. 3 seed — the mighty Kansas Jayhawks. The excitement quickly turned to reality, considering Kansas had been ranked No. 1 in the nation for most of the year (and were still ranked first in the RPI), and the Jayhawks had already been to 33 NCAA Tournaments and 12 Final Fours.

Kansas' hallowed history hardly intimidated the Bison, however, as Kevin Bettencourt's four-point play in the opening moments got them going, and the contest would soon develop into an "Instant Classic."

Bucknell led for most of the first half, and by as many as seven points, before Kansas closed the half on a 10-0 run to take a 31-28 lead to the locker room.

There were five lead changes and four ties over the first 12 minutes of the second half, and the Bison seemingly had the game in hand when Abe Badmus stroked two free throws to put Bucknell up 62-57 with 1:22 to play. But Kansas quickly rallied for a 63-62 lead behind six straight free throws, the last two by Keith Langford with 25 seconds left.

The Bison were hardly done, though, as Chris McNaughton spun into the paint and rattled in a short jump-hook over All-American Wayne Simien with 10.5 seconds left (see photo at left). When Simien's 15-foot jumper at the buzzer drew only iron, a sea of orange jerseys flooded the Ford Center hardwood. Not only did the 64-63 victory snatch the attention of the nation, but it was the historic first NCAA Tournament win for Bucknell and the Patriot League.

Two days later the Bison had to somehow put the Kansas victory in the rear view mirror and take on a very talented Wisconsin team that had captured the Big Ten regular-season title. And it was a very game effort, indeed. Bucknell shook off an early 13-point deficit and rallied to take the lead as late as the nine-minute mark of the second half.

But the Badgers had too much down the stretch and escaped with a 71-62 victory, despite an eye-popping 23-point showing from McNaughton, who made 10 of 14 shots from the field going toe-to-toe with First Team All-Big Ten selection Mike Wilkinson.

A true "Cinderella Story," the Bison for a few days in March captured the imaginations of the sporting world, both for their inspired play on the floor and their poise, composure and sportsmanship off it.

A fairy tale, indeed.

History Repeats in '06 as Bison Best Hogs!

Bucknell made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2006, but this time the scenario was a bit different. In 2005 the Bison were seeded 14th, and to many they were extreme underdogs going into the Kansas game. This time, however, Bucknell was a No. 9 seed — the highest ever for a Patriot League team — and there would be no more sneaking up on anyone.

That didn't mean that Bucknell's first-round opponent was any pushover. Hardly. The Bison drew Southeastern Conference juggernaut Arkansas, powered by eventual NBA lottery pick Ronnie Brewer. Making things even tougher was that the game was played in Dallas, just a short drive from Fayetteville. In fact, the Razorbacks had won 19 straight games in Dallas, where they maintain their largest alumni base.

Several hundred orange-clad Bison fans made the trek to the posh American Airlines Center, making for a spirited atmosphere. And for the second year in a row, the "Sojka Psychos" had to make plans for a long weekend.

The gritty, battle-tested Bucknell squad used some lights-out 3-point shooting and its typical stingy defense to outlast the Hogs 59-55. Charles Lee equaled his career high with 24 points and fellow senior co-captain Kevin Bettencourt knocked down five 3-pointers and scored 18 points for the Bison.

While Lee and Bettencourt played obvious starring roles, it was junior point guard Abe Badmus and junior reserve forward Donald Brown who came up big down the stretch. Badmus, who did not attempt a single field goal all day yet finished with seven assists and only two turnovers in 34 minutes, knocked down two monumental free throws with 0:07 left to stretch a two-point lead to four.

Brown came down with two critical late rebounds, and with the game tied at 55-55 with just over a minute to play, he just beat a 10-second backcourt violation, alertly finding Lee open under the basket for the go-ahead layup.

In the second round, Bucknell ran into Memphis, the No. 1 seed in the Oakland Regional, in an attempt to make it to the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history.

Things looked good early, as the Bison sprinted to an early 10-4 lead behind 3-pointers from Lee and Bettencourt, but the athletic Tigers responded with a 20-2 run and eventually won 72-56. Chris McNaughton led Bucknell with 15 points, while captains Bettencourt and Lee had 12 and 11, respectively, in their final game of their brilliant careers. While the college basketball world may not have been quite as stunned this time around, chapter two of this Bison fairy tale was just as sweet.

2005-06 ... An Encore Performance!

A year earlier, Bucknell was the "darling of the dance." The prestigious private school with an enrollment of about 3,400 that stunned perennial power Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The victory made national headlines as the first-ever NCAA triumph for the Bison, or any Patriot League school for that matter. The team earned an ESPY award in the "Best Upset" category and spent the summer reliving the biggest win in the history of the program.

As the 2005-06 campaign started, with virtually the entire roster returning intact, everyone wanted to know what Bucknell could do for an encore. And despite heaping expectations, both internal and external, all the Bison did was fashion their finest season yet.

Even with a large "bulls-eye" on its back every night, Bucknell shattered the school victory record with a fancy 27-5 ledger, repeated as Patriot League champion and made a return trip to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after a thrilling 59-55 win over Arkansas.

The Bison carried the sixth-best record in the nation — and the highest graduation rate (100%) — entering the NCAA Tournament. Among its impressive non-conference victories were road wins at then-No. 17 and eventual Big East champion Syracuse and DePaul, as well as a home victory over Atlantic-10 finalist Saint Joseph's.

The Bison really made their mark in Patriot League play, becoming the first team in the 16-year history of the conference to run the table, going a perfect 14-0. Three more double-digit wins in the Patriot League Tournament — capped by an impressive 74-59 win over Holy Cross — brought them a second straight league title. Then they earned a No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament, by far the highest in school and league history.

Once in the field of 65, the Bison made sure their weekend in Dallas would be a long one. With co-captains Charles Lee and Kevin Bettencourt combining for nine 3-pointers and 42 points, Bucknell knocked off Southeastern Conference power Arkansas in the first round, validating the Kansas victory.

In the round of 32, Bucknell ran into top-seeded Memphis, and the Conference USA champ wore down the Bison with its speed, strength and depth. Bucknell whittled a 19-point deficit down to nine in the second half, but the Tigers just had too much down the stretch, and the magical season that nobody wanted to end did just that on a rainy Sunday in Dallas.

Of Bucknell's five losses in 2005-06, three came at the hands of No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament — Memphis, Duke and Villanova. Northern Iowa, which topped Bucknell in double overtime in an ESPN BracketBusters classic, earned an at-large bid out of the highly respected Missouri Valley Conference and was also nationally ranked at times during the season.

Speaking of national rankings, in 2005-06 Bucknell also achieved its first-ever listing in a national poll. On Feb. 13 the Bison were ranked 24th in both the Associated Press Poll and the ESPN/USA TODAY Coaches' Poll. Bucknell was also ranked 25th in the final Coaches' Poll of the season.

While not without star power, Bucknell's greatest asset was its depth and its unselfish team play, particularly on defense. Armed with a tricky matchup zone defense, the Bison entered the NCAA Tournament ranked second nationally in scoring defense (55.3). In 32 games in 2005-06 they allowed 60 or more points only nine times and 70 or more only five times, while on nine occasions they kept teams under 50.

Patriot League Perfection in 2006!

It started with a 74-52 win at Navy on Jan. 7 and ended with a 74-59 victory over Holy Cross in the Patriot League championship game at Sojka Pavilion. A perfect record, something that had never been done before in the 16-year history of the Patriot League. An unprecedented 14-0 regular-season mark and three more wins in the tournament gave the Bison 17 straight conference triumphs in 2006.

Those 17 victories came in all shapes and sizes. There were lopsided wins — two by 30 or more points, and four by 20 or more — and there were some close calls, most notably in Worcester, Mass., where the Bison miraculously rallied from 15 down with 16 minutes to play to win 57-52.

When Bucknell topped Army 70-47 on Senior Night at Sojka Pavilion in the regular-season finale, the Orange & Blue became the first team to run the table in Patriot League play. Previously, six teams had finished with one loss, including Bucknell in 1993 (13-1). Additionally, the Bison became the 200th Division I team in NCAA history to go unbeaten in their conference, and the 90th to do so with at least 14 wins. Bucknell joined Gonzaga (14-0 in the West Coast Conference) and George Washington (16-0 in the Atlantic 10) as the only teams in the country to finish unbeaten in its league in 2005-06.

As the No. 1 seed, the Bison earned the right to play at home throughout the Patriot League Tournament, no small factor since they hadn't lost to a league foe at Sojka Pavilion in four years.

With large, partisan crowds at their backs, the Bison outlasted Army, 59-47, in the first round and American, 64-50, in the semifinals. That set up a rematch with No. 2 seed Holy Cross in the championship game. The previous year the seeds were reversed, and Bucknell won the title on the Crusaders' home floor.

With ESPN2 cameras in place, Holy Cross came out with revenge on its mind and trailed by only four at the half. But senior captains Kevin Bettencourt and Charles Lee put the Bison on their backs, hitting one critical shot after another, including nine 3-pointers between them, and Bucknell pulled away with a crushing 15-2 run.

At the eight-minute mark the Bison had a commanding 60-44 lead, and soon after most of the crowd of 4,110 was dancing on the floor and the Sojka Pavilion nets were cut down for the first time.

Following the game Lee was named Patriot League Tournament MVP, making him the first repeat winner of the award in league history. Lee registered 16 points, seven rebounds, four steals and three assists in the championship game, and he logged 43 points in the three tournament games.

Bettencourt, who hit six 3-pointers and scored 23 points in the title contest, and center Chris McNaughton were also named to the all-tournament team. Donald Brown also had a magnificent tournament, capped by a 14-point, five-rebound performance against Holy Cross.

BUCKNELL'S RETIRED JERSEYS

On Saturday, Feb. 25, 2006, former Bucknell basketball stars Hal Danzig and Al Leslie became the first two members of the men's program to have their jerseys retired. The ceremony took place at halftime of Bucknell's men's basketball game against Army. During the Feb. 15, 2020 game against American, Danzig and Leslie were joined by Mike Muscala on the newly redesigned Geisinger Retired Jersey Wall. Danzig and Leslie are both members of the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, and Muscala is sure to join them once he becomes eligible. These are widely considered the program's best players of their respective eras and three of the greatest in the history of Bison basketball. Leslie's No. 22 jersey, Danzig's No. 44 uniform, and Muscala's No. 31 are now permanently hung on the wall of Sojka Pavilion's East Concourse.

#44 HAL DANZIG

Harold M. "Hal" Danzig of the Class of 1959 was one of the first true basketball superstars to play at Bucknell. A two-time All-East selection and an Honorable Mention All-American as a senior, Danzig was the starting center on three of Bucknell's all-time great teams, and he holds school rebounding records that many consider to be unbreakable.

When Danzig joined the Bucknell varsity squad in 1956-57, the Bison had won 16 games in a season only once in their history. They collected that exact number of wins in each of his three varsity seasons, amassing a 48-23 overall record.

Nicknamed "Moose," Danzig was the team's leading scorer all three years and totalled 1,163 career points. At the time, that was the second-highest point total in school history, only 20 off the record held then by Joe Gallagher. As a junior he compiled what was then a school-record 426 points.

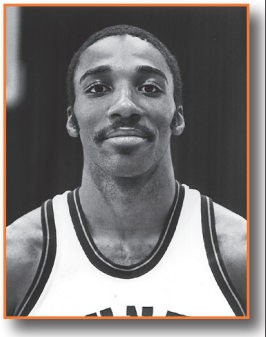

But Danzig is best known today for his extraordinary rebounding totals. He hauled in 1,134 rebounds in three seasons. More than 50 years later, no Bison player has come within 41 rebounds of that impressive total, and only current NBA center Mike Muscala has joined him in the 1,000-rebound club. Danzig increased his yearly rebounding average each season, from 15.0 to 16.1 to a whopping 16.8 rebounds per game. His career rebounding average of 15.97 per game is staggering.

Co-captain of the 1958-59 Bucknell team, Danzig was named to the ECAC All-East and Associated Press All-Pennsylvania teams for two consecutive years and was on the All-Middle Atlantic Conference University Division first team and Palestra All-Opponent second team as a senior.

The 6'6", 230-pounder received Honorable Mention United Press International (UPI) All-America Honors in 1959, and he was selected to participate in two senior all-star games. Danzig was inducted into the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of its fifth class in 1983.

Danzig came to Bucknell from East High School in Rochester, New York. His son, Carl, later served as an assistant coach at Bucknell under both Charlie Woollum and Pat Flannery.

#22 AL LESLIE

Albert V. Leslie is widely considered Bucknell's greatest men's basketball player. A Baltimore native and graduate of the McDonogh School, Leslie was a prodigious scorer during his four years with the Orange & Blue, despite being lightly recruited out of high school as a 6'3" center. At Bucknell he played guard and some small forward, and he shattered school records for points in a game (45), season (564) and career (1,973), records that still stood in the history books at the time of his jersey retirement in 2006. In fact, his scoring record stood all the way to 2013, when it was broken by Mike Muscala.

A 1981 Bucknell graduate, Leslie was selected by the Indiana Pacers in the second round of the NBA Draft and was the team's last cut before the start of the regular season. He later played briefly for the Rochester Zeniths of the Continental Basketball Association. Leslie, who was the first Bison player to be taken in the NBA Draft, later returned to Bucknell as an assistant coach for two seasons.

Leslie led the Bison to school victory records in his sophomore (18-7) and junior (20-7) years, as well as two consecutive East Coast Conference Western Section titles. He was a three-time All-ECC selection, and in 1980 he was an all-district pick by the U.S. Basketball Writers' Association. A year later Leslie earned All-East plaudits, and he won the Kribbs Award as team MVP three straight years.

His season total of 564 points in 1979-80 shattered a school record that had stood since the 1960-61 season. His 20.9 scoring average was second-best in school history, and in January of his junior year Leslie poured in a record 45 points in a 105-89 victory over American University.

As a senior, Leslie tallied 537 points and had another 40-point game (41) against West Chester. He finished his career with an 18.1 scoring average, third-best in Bison annals. He started the final 105 games of his career and scored in double figures in all but 11 of them.

Called "the finest player ever to wear a Bucknell basketball uniform" by his head coach, Charlie Woollum, Leslie was inducted into the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame in 1986.

#31 MIKE MUSCALA

Michael P. Muscala '13 came to Bucknell from Roseville, Minnesota and authored one of the finest careers in Bison basketball history. Not only did he become Bucknell's all-time leading scorer and go on to a career in the NBA, but he led the Bison to two Patriot League championships and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances.

A 6'11" center, Muscala earned a spot on the All-Patriot League Second Team and All-Rookie team after averaging 9.9 points and 4.9 rebounds per game. He took a huge leap in 2010-11, becoming only the third sophomore in league history to earn Patriot League Player of the Year honors. Even more importantly, he was named PL Tournament MVP after leading the Bison to their first league title and NCAA appearance since 2006.

As a junior, Muscala averaged 17.0 points and 9.1 rebounds per game and again earned First Team All-Patriot League and NABC All-District honors. He scored 30 points in the Patriot League championship game against Lehigh, and although the Bison lost a close final against the Mountain Hawks, Muscala came right back to score 20 points in an NIT first-round win at Arizona.

Muscala saved his best for last in 2012-13, becoming the first Patriot Leaguer to sweep Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors. He became the second four-time All-PL selection in league history and the fourth two-time POY. He was a Lute Olsen and Senior CLASS All-American, he was a Third Team Academic All-American, and he earned his second PL Tournament MVP honor after recording 20 points and 11 rebounds in a win over Lafayette in the league title game.

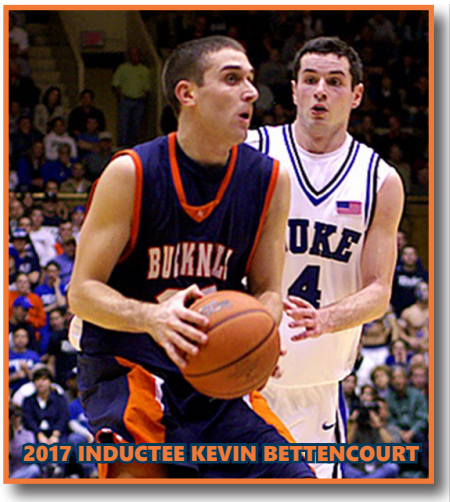

Muscala led the nation with 22 double-doubles that season, and he graduated with a school-record 2,036 career points while ranking No. 2 in rebounds (1,093) and blocked shots (271). Soon after graduation, Muscala was selected 44th overall by the Dallas Mavericks in the 2013 NBA Draft. He was traded to the Atlanta Hawks on draft night, and after starting his pro career in Spain, he made his NBA debut for the Hawks against the Phoenix Suns on March 2, 2014. That made him the first Bucknell alum to appear in an NBA game.

2017 INDUCTEE KEVIN BETTENCOURT

The Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, established in 1979 to honor the very best in the history of Bucknell athletics, welcomed five new members in 2023 as part of the 45th induction class, including men's basketball's Mike Muscala '13, a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year who went on to become the first Bucknell alum to play in the NBA. There are now 294 outstanding student-athletes, coaches, administrators and friends of Bucknell whose contributions are forever preserved in the Hall of Fame, including 51 from men's basketball.

The 2017 class was basketball-heavy, with former Bison hoops stars Kevin Bettencourt '06, Charles Lee '06 and Chris McNaughton '07 all enshrined.

Bettencourt, Lee and McNaughton were three of the key pieces of Bucknell's record-setting mid-2000s teams. Those squads made history by winning the first NCAA Tournament games in Bucknell and Patriot League history, over Kansas in 2005 and Arkansas in 2006.

Bettencourt was the sharp-shooting guard, Lee the smooth wing, and McNaughton the unstoppable 6'11" center who hit the game-winning shot with 10 seconds left in the 64-63 win over Kansas.

Prior to that class, the most recent hoops enshrinees were Pat Flannery and Chris Simpson in 2011. Flannery is best-known for coaching the most successful teams in Bucknell history, but he was also a terrific point guard on some very good teams for coach Charlie Woollum. He captained the 1979-80 Bison team that finished 20-7, and he remains the only player ever to lead the Bison in assists for four straight years. Flannery retired as head coach after the 2007-08 season with a final record of 234-178 (.568) at Bucknell.

Simpson earned First Team All-Patriot League honors while leading the Bison in scoring in both 1992-93 and 1993-94. His 20.5 points-per-game average as a senior in 1993-94 is the third-highest single-season mark in program history, and he is one of only eight Bison players ever to score more than 20 points per game over a full season. Simpson scored 1,229 career points.

J.R. Holden joined the Hall of Fame in 2008. Holden gained fame for his heroic exploits with CSKA Moscow and the Russian National Team, particularly after he hit the game-winning shot in the championship game of the 2007 European Championship, giving Russia a spot in the 2008 Olympics. But his Bucknell career was also notable, as he transformed from a lightly recruited guard into a two-time First Team All-PL selection.

Bill Courtney, a 2007 inductee, was one of the top scorers in program history. As a junior he set the school single-season scoring record with 619 points, and he also led the team in assists that season. His 1,499 career points ranked fifth in school history at the time of his graduation and now ranks 12th.

Patrick King, one of the more inspiring student-athletes to be enshrined in the Hall, was inducted in 2006. A walk-on to the Bison men's basketball squad, King made his way through the junior varsity ranks, eventually earned a starting forward position and as a senior was named Patriot League Player of the Year after averaging 20.3 points per game.

In 2005 Harvey Carter '73 and Mike Bright '93 were inducted. Carter was a three-year starter and two year captain of the Bison basketball team. He was a First Team All-Middle Atlantic Conference selection as a senior in 1972-73, when he led the team in scoring at 14.2 points per game under coach Jim Valvano.

Bright was a top player on Bucknell's outstanding teams of the early 1990s. He was the Patriot League Player of the Year as a senior in 1993, when he led the Bison to a 23-6 record and the league's regular-season title. Outstanding in all phases of the game, Bright is now Bucknell's No. 6 all-time scorer with 1,670 points.

Mike Joseph, a member of the Class of 1990, was a 2003 Hall of Fame inductee. Joseph was a three-year starter and a member of two East Coast Conference championship squads that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. He was a two-time All-ECC selection and set nine Bucknell records, including the marks for career assists, free throws, free-throw percentage and 3-point percentage. Now Bucknell's No. 11 all-time scorer, Joseph's .884 career free-throw percentage ranked 14th in NCAA history.

Former basketball stars Ted Aceto and Mike Butts, both of the Bucknell Class of 1989 were members of the Hall of Fame Class of 2000.

Aceto lettered four times in basketball and three times in baseball (he missed his junior year with an injury). He scored 1,118 points in his career on the hardwood, and helped the Bison earn their only two trips ever to the NCAA Tournament in 1987 and 1989. On the diamond, he was a first team all-conference shortstop in 1989 when he led the league and ranked 12th in the nation with a .444 average. His .408 career batting average still stands as a Bucknell record.

Butts was the leading scorer on both the 1987 and 1989 NCAA men's basketball teams for the Bison. He is one of just four players in Bucknell history with over 1,300 (1,355) points and 850 (860) rebounds in a career. He continues to hold game, season and career blocked shot records for the Orange and Blue, and was a two-time All-ECC First Team honoree. As a senior, he was honorable mention All-East and honorable mention All-America. In addition, he excelled in the classroom and was a two-time Academic All-America selection.

Bill Gravely '77, a former track and field standout and basketball player, was inducted in 1998. Gravely, who still holds indoor and outdoor triple jump records, played basketball for three seasons.

In 1997, former Bison basketball players Ellis Harley '59 and Pete Fry '32 were inducted into the Hall. Harley starred in both basketball and baseball, and at the time of his graduation, ranked fifth in school history with 757 career points. He co-captained the Bison as a junior and senior, and played on three straight teams that won 16 games. Harley has been a Lewisburg resident for more than 40 years, served as Bucknell's associate vice president for finance until his retirement.

Fry, who died in April 1997, played four sports at Bucknell. He was a leading scorer on the hardwood for the Orange and Blue, a back and end with the football team, a star pitcher and outfielder with the baseball team, and a member of the track and field program.

Longtime Bucknell coach Charlie Woollum was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1995. Woollum coached from 1975-94 and had a 19-year record of 318-221. That victory total is higher than that of any other coach in any one sport in Bucknell's intercollegiate athletic history. Woollum retired after serving six seasons as head coach at William & Mary.

Alvin F. "Doggie" Julian is another member of the Hall of Fame. Julian is also a member of the National Basketball Hall of Fame. In addition to a distinguished career as an athlete at Bucknell, Julian was a highly successful coach at Muhlenberg, Holy Cross and Dartmouth, and his 1947 Holy Cross team, led by Bob Cousy and George Kaftan, won the NCAA title.

Other members of the Bucknell Hall of Fame include Mal Musser '18, who played and coached at Bucknell and is the only basketball coach other than Woollum, Flannery and Dave Paulsen to win more than 100 games with the Bison; George Haines '43, Joe Gallagher '52, Joe Steiner '62, Jim Wherry '70, Bob Barry '80 and Al Leslie '81, all of whom held the school scoring record when they graduated; Hal Danzig '59, the career rebounding leader; and John Anderson 1905, who scored 80 points in a single game.

Perhaps the most famous member of the Hall of Fame is Christy Mathewson, an outstanding athlete at Bucknell who is also a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y.
