BISON NOTES

BUCKNELL AT A GLANCE

- Bucknell continues its road slate with a Saturday afternoon contest against Brown on Saturday, Nov. 7 at 3 p.m in Pizzitola Sports Center.
- Bucknell's leading returner in points per game is Elana Weisman. Despite only seeing time in nine games due to an injury ending her season, Weisman had 10.4 points per game. Weisman currently leads the Bison after game one with 18 points.
- Anna Kunzwiler led the team in rebounds per game in 2025-26 with 4.5. She is also the returning leader in assists per game with 1.37 and total steals with 30. Tessa Liggio currently leads the team in assists and rebounds after game one with four assists and six rebounds.
- Reese Zemitis lead the team in total blocks with 23 last season. After game one of 2026-27, Weisman leads the team in blocks with one.
- The Bison finished their 2025-26 season 11-19 overall with a 7-11 Patriot League record.
- Bucknell returned eight players from last season and lost five to a combination of graduation and the transfer portal.
- The Bison welcomed four newcomers to the squad ahead of the 2026-27 season; three freshman and one sophomore transfer.
- Standout Reese Zemitis returns to the Bison for her junior year. As a freshman, she earned 2024-25 All-Patriot League Rookie Team honors. The Bison lost their lone 2025-26 All-Patriot League player, Tuana Coskun, to the transfer portal.
- Bucknell was picked sixth in the 2026-27 Patriot League Preseason Poll. This is a step above last season, when they were picked seventh and finished seventh.
- The Bison did not place any members on the Preseason All-Patriot League Team this season.
- Junior Reese Zemitis has been named captain of the Bison for the 2026- 27 season.
- Bucknell women's basketball is entering its eighth season under head coach Trevor Woodruff. Woodruff was named Patriot League Coach of the Year in his first two seasons with the Bison.
- In addition to Woodruff and returning coaches Lauren Holden (associate head coach), Edward Joyner Jr. (assistant coach) and Danielle Patterson (assistant coach), the Bison had a new addition to their coaching staff in the off-season. Erin Jones joined Bucknell as its new Director of Basketball Operations and assistant coach.

A BISON WIN WOULD...

- Earn Bucknell a 1-1 record.
- Give the Bison a 1-1 road record on the season.
- Tie the series with Brown at 2-2.
- Improve Bucknell's overall record under Coach Woodruff to 112-86.

INSIDE THE RECORD BOOK

- The 2025-26 team set multiple single-game team records against Gwynedd Mercy; Widest Margin of Victory (79), 3-pt. Field Goals (15) and Assists (31).
- Reese Zemitis is currently eighth in career three-point attempts with 335.
- Zemitis holds sixth place in three-pointers made in a single season with 62 in 2024/25 and fifth place in three-point attempts in a single season with 169 in 2024/25.

MILESTONE / RECORD WATCH

- Reese Zemitis is one three-pointer away from a share of 10th place in the Bucknell record book for career three-pointers.
- Isabella Casey is two field goals away from 100 career field goals.
- Zemeitis is six field goals away from 200 career field goals.
- Anna Kunzwiler is two points away from 200 career points.
- Kunzwiler is four rebounds away from 200 career rebounds.

THE LAST TIME OUT: Bucknell 60, Florida 83

- Bucknell women's basketball fell in its season opening game to SEC opponent Florida, who is receiving votes, 83-60. After the Bison were out-scored by 13 in the first quarter, they were only out-scored by four points or less in each of the next three.
- Bucknell opened the contest with solid play, keeping it within four until just after halfway through the first quarter when the Gators found a 10-point run. Florida then found another double-digit run in the second, but the Bison were able to string together a 9-0 run of their own while limiting the Gators to just one bucket in the final 4:15 of the half. In the second half, Bucknell stayed close in scoring, being just out-scored by the Gators 39-35.
- Elana Weisman was the Bison's leading scorer as she put up 18 points on a shooting performance that featured a perfect 3-for-3 from three, 1-for-1 from the line and a 7-for-13 shooting percentage from the field. The junior also recorded five rebounds, three assists and one blocked shot.
- Tessa Liggio earned the first start of her collegiate career as a freshman point guard in the contest. After finding her first collegiate points on a three-pointer, she finished as one of three Bucknell players to notch five points in the game. Reese Zemitis and Isabella Casey were the other two. Liggio was also the leading rebounder for the Bison with six.
- Alongside Tessa on the newcomer front, Grace Feeney was the other freshman to record her first collegiate points with a three pointer late in the fourth quarter.
- Mariah Hardy was the second leading scorer for Bucknell with nine points on a 4-of-7 shooting performance from the field and one free throw. Ella Kreuzer followed closely behind with eight points.
- Overall, the Bison out-shot the Gators from three sporting a 38.9 percent mark compared to Florida's 26.3 percentage. The Gators however bested the Bison from the field and free-throw line. Bucknell also bested the Gators in turnovers having only nine to their 11 and steals with eight to their seven. Defensively, Bucknell showed up strong against a taller and more physical SEC squad.
- Where Bucknell felt the size was in the paint as they were out-scored 46-24 in that area, but they were able to make up for it a bit in their perimeter shooting and 23 points off the bench.

BISON "BITES"

DOMINANT DEFENSE

- Since head coach Trevor Woodruff's arrival in 2019-20, the Bison have had one of the best scoring defenses in the country and have led the Patriot League in two of the last seven seasons. In 2025-26, Bucknell finished second in the league.
- Bucknell allowed just 53.6 points per game during Woodruff's first season, which ranked eighth in NCAA Division I and was a program record. In 2020-21, the Bison allowed 55.5 per game and finished 17th in the country. Bucknell allowed 54.9 points per game in 2022-23, good enough for 15th in the nation.
- Bucknell held opponnents to 60 or fewer points 15 times in the 2025-26 season and in 24 of their 34 games in the 2021-22 season.
- Bucknell limited teams to 22 or fewer first-half points six times in 2025-26, three times in 2024-25, four times in 2023-24 and 12 times in 2022-23.

CONSISTENT PATRIOT LEAGUE SUCCESS

- Bucknell is 136-52 in Patriot League play since the start of the 2015-16 season. The run includes two Patriot League Tournament titles and five first-place finishes in the regular season.

DOUBLE-DIGIT VICTORIES

- 75 of Bucknell's last 106 wins have been by double digits.
- So far in 2025-26, the Bison have had six double-digit victories.
- Bucknell's largest margin of victory was 76 vs. Gwynedd Mercy on Dec. 20, 2025.
- The Bison posted 11 double digit victories during the 2024-25 season, inciulding a 34-point win over Loyola (Md.).

OVERALL SUCCESS AT SOJKA PAVILION

- Now in its 23rd season playing at Sojka Pavilion, Bucknell is 214-104 (.678) on its home court.
- Bucknell went 7-8 in Sojka in the 2025-26 season.
- The Bison are 118-34 at Sojka since the start of the 2015-16 season.
- Bucknell is 62-31 at home during the Trevor Woodruff era.
- The Bison finished a perfect 16-0 at Sojka Pavilion in 2016-17.

BROWN AT A GLANCE

- Brown enters the contest with an 0-2 record after falling in both of its games earlier this week to Siena and Army.
- In the Bears last time out, first-year forward Nalah Smith scored 13 points on 6-of-7 shooting and sophomore forward Morga Ross netted a career-high 11 points, but Brown women's basketball dropped an 81-56 decision to Army.
- The Bears are led in points per game by Gia Powell who has notched 17.
- Olivia Young leads the team in rebounds per game with 10.
- Leading the team in assists per game is Caitlyn Kramer who has recorded four.
- Monet Witherspoon leads the team in steals per game with two.
- In the Bears' season opener at Siena, junior guard Gia Powell scored a career-high 25 points – the most of any player in the Ivy League on opening night – after missing the 2025-26 season due to injury.
- The program returned two seniors, four juniors, and four sophomores as part of a veteran nucleus.
- In the senior class, the Bears return guards Olivia Young and Charlotte Climenhage. Young played in all 27 games a year ago, averaging 7.4 points, 4.6 rebounds, and 28.7 minutes per game while Climenhage played in 14 games last season after transferring to Brown from Nevada.

Bison's Fourth Quarter Surge Not Enough in 61-50 Loss to Brown

A fourth quarter 9-0 run wouldn't be enough for Bucknell as the Bison (3-4) fell to former player Monique LeBlanc's Brown Bears (5-2) 61-50 on Friday afternoon in Sojka. Brown opened the game on a 12-2 run and were able to maintain that lead to get the victory over a Bison squad that was previously 2-0 at home.

Reese Zemitis and Mariah Hardy led the Bison in scoring with 11 points each. The 11 points is a new career-high for Hardy. The freshman led the team in rebounds with a career-high nine, blocks with a career-high two and recorded her first collegiate three-pointer. Hardy shot 4-for-5 from the field, 1-for-1 from three and 2-for-2 from the free-throw line.

Hope Masonius got her first collegiate points in the third quarter of the contest with a turnaround jumper. The sophomore has battled injuries throughout her time with the Bison and got back on the court in the Tuesday game against Le Moyne before scoring her first collegiate bucket against Brown.

Ella Kreuzer led the team in steals with a career-high four and Tuana Coskun led the team in assists with three. The Bison shot 32.8% from the field, 80% from the free-throw line and 19% from three in the loss.

The opening five minutes went fully in Brown's favor as the Bears outshot Bucknell 12-2 ahead of the media timeout. Coskun was the lone Bison to score before the break with a driving layup. Out of the timeout, the shooting was lacking on both ends of the court with several missed opportunities due to a fast pace that developed. The Bison saw points from Kreuzer on two free-throws and a jumper from Houghton, while the Bears ended the quarter with a three-pointer to extend their lead to 17-6.

Hardy opened the second quarter for Bucknell with her career-first three-pointer. Brown answered and the game was going back-and-forth with Coskun hitting two shots for the Bison, before the Bears went on a 7-0 run into the second quarter media timeout. The Bears then outscored the Bison 6-3 in the remainder of the quarter to go into halftime with a 34-17 lead.

The third quarter began with a competitive first five minutes as the Bears only outshot the Bison 15-10. Casey hit two layups and Zemitis and Richards each hit one of their own ahead of the media timeout. Out of the break, Richards and Hardy hit back-to-back shots before Brown answered with a layup. Masonius then hit a turnaround jumper to get her first career points as a Bison. Moreland ended the quarter with a basket to extend Brown's lead to 55-31.

The fourth quarter opened with a back-and-forth couple baskets before Bucknell went on a 9-0 run. Brown broke the streak with a layup with 2:35 left to play. Out of a Brown timeout, Bucknell ended the game on a 6-0 run, but would ultimately fall 61-50 to the Bears.

Trevor Woodruff was named the head women's basketball coach at Bucknell in April 2019. Through his first three seasons with the Bison, Woodruff compiled a strong 100-66 (.602) overall record, including a 65-33 (.663) mark against Patriot League opponents. On top of that, Bucknell was 55-23 (.705) when playing at home under Woodruff and 6-5 (.545) in Patriot League Tournament contests.

For his career, Woodruff owns a224-95 (.702) record coaching NCAA women's basketball and a 383-230 (.625) overall NCAA basketball record when factoring in his 11 seasons as the men's coach at Misericordia.

Woodruff was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year in his first two seasons at Bucknell after leading the team to a pair of first-place regular season finishes. He's the first and only Patriot League women's basketball coach to win the award in his first two years.

Woodruff's first season with the Bison was among the most impressive in Patriot League history as the team won the regular season title by a four-game margin and captured the regular season title at 24-6 overall (16-2 PL). During the 2019-20 campaign, Woodruff elevated the Bucknell scoring defense to eighth in the country with a program-record 53.6 points allowed per game. The team also ranked fifth nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (38.9). The Bison went 13-1 at home and won 20 games by double digits.

Bucknell posted an undefeated regular season (8-0) during a shortened 2020-21 campaign and secured the top seed in the Patriot League Tournament for a second consecutive season. Bucknell was one of only two teams in the country to go unbeaten during the regular season. The 2021 Bison sported the country's fewest turnovers per game and finished second in the league in both scoring defense and scoring offense. Under Woodruff, Bucknell put together a program-record 18-game winning streak that spanned over 13 months.

The 2021-22 season, which saw Bucknell eclipse the 20-win mark (24-10) for a sixth consecutive full campaign, culminated with a trip to the second round of the WNIT. The Bison won at Fordham in the first round, marking just the third time a Patriot League team had won a WNIT matchup. The Bison went on to face Drexel in the round of 32 and held a lead late in the fourth quarter before falling to the Colonial Athletic Association's regular season champion. Bucknell's at-large bid to the 2022 WNIT was a testament to its achievements during the regular season and in the Patriot League Tournament. Having been picked third in the preseason poll, the Bison ended up with the highest NET ranking in the league (100) and reached the Patriot League title game, where they faced top-seeded American.

The 2022-23 season witnessed a 13-17 overall record and a 9-9 mark in conference play to finish as the sixth-seed. Bucknell placed Cecilia Collins on the Second Team and Emma Theodorsson on the Rookie Team.

Despite facing a rebuilding situation in 2023-24, Bucknell finished 13-18 overall with a win in the Patriot League Tournament. The Bison went 9-9 in a deep Patriot League but due to tiebreakers became the eighth-seed. The Orange & Blue defeated ninth-seed American in the First Round to win a tournament game for the fourth time in five years. Emma Theodorsson won Second Team honors while freshman Ashley Sofilkanich became the first Bison to notch spots on three All-League teams (Defensive, Rookie, and Third Team).

Bucknell improved to 17-14 overall and 11-7 in conference play, finishing sixth in a highly-competitive Patriot League during the 2024-25 season. The Bison upset third-seeded Colgate in Hamilton, N.Y. in a back-and-forth quarterfinal match-up in the Patriot League Tournament. Bucknell's season ended with a 49-39 loss to second-seeded Army in the Patriot League Semifinals Several players collected individual honors. Ashley Sofilkanich led the league in scoring and won Patriot League Player of the Year while notching spots on the Defensive and First Teams. Woodruff's success with freshmen continued as Reese Zemitis won a spot on the Rookie Team.

After losing key players to the transfer portal following the 2024-25 season, Woodruff sported a team of youth in 2025-26. The Bison went 11-19 overall and 7-11 in conference play. Entering the Patriot League Playoffs as the seventh seed, Bucknell fell to the bottom-seeded Colgate Raiders in the first round 57-47. Tuana Coskun was the lone Bison on a Patriot League team as she earned Third Team All-Patriot League for her performance in the 2025-26 season. Isabella Casey and Reese Zemitis were named to the CSC Academic All-District Team following the season to round out the Bison honors that year.

Before Bucknell, Woodruff compiled a 113-10 record and four conference championships over four years as head coach at the University of Scranton.

Scranton was nearly unbeatable during Woodruff's four seasons with the team. In addition to the outstanding overall record, the Royals went 53-6 in league play, including a 16-0 record in his first season, while winning four straight Landmark Conference titles. The Royals advanced to the NCAA Division III Final Four in his last season, adding to an Elite Eight appearance in 2016 and back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances in 2017 and 2018.
The Royals have a perennially successful program in the Landmark Conference, but the 2019 Final Four appearance was the team's first since 2006. They finished fourth in the D3hoops.com and WBCA Coaches Top 25 National Polls. Senior Bridgette Mann went on to garner WBCA Honorable Mention All-American honors, and the Royals defense was outstanding the entire season, holding opponents to 48.8 points a game, the eighth-best mark in all of NCAA Division III.

Woodruff was twice named Landmark Conference Coach of the Year, earning the award for the first time while leading Scranton to a 30-1 record, including a 30-game winning streak, in his first season and then again in his third season.

Before his time in Scranton, Woodruff spent 12 seasons as a head coach in collegiate men's basketball, including 11 highly successful seasons at Misericordia, his alma mater. He led the Cougars to Freedom Conference championships and NCAA Division III Tournament berths in 2012 and 2015, and he was named Freedom Conference Coach of the Year in both seasons. He was also named the 2008 Pennsylvania Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in the Cougars' previous affiliation.

Before his stint at Misericordia, Woodruff was the head men's basketball coach at Lackawanna College in Scranton in 2003-04. He led the Falcons to 24 wins and a No. 9 ranking in the final National Junior College Athletic Association Division II poll. The Falcons won the Region 19 and District 9 championships that season, and Woodruff was named Coach of the Year in Region 19 and District 9.

In all, Woodruff has eight conference titles, qualified for 11appearances in national postseason tournaments and has earned 10 Coach of the Year awards.

On a regional and national level, Woodruff served as an NCAA Division III congressman from 2005 to 2008. He was a member of the men's basketball regional ranking committee from 2012 to 2014, as well as a member of the women's regional ranking committee from 2018 to 2019.

Woodruff began his coaching career in 2001 as the head boys' basketball coach at Delaware Valley High School in Milford, PA.

EDWARD "BUCK" JOYNER, JR.

ASSISTANT COACH • THIRD SEASON AT BUCKNELL • JOHNSON C. SMITH '99

Joyner brings a wealth of experience to the role with his 15 seasons as leader of the Hampton en's basketball team. He became the winningest coach in program history with 222 wins. Seven of his teams made postseason tournaments, including three NCAA Tournament berths, and his squads received postseason bids for sixth straight seasons. 24 former players have played professionally.

In his second season, the 2010-11 Pirates recorded a 24-9 record and a 11-5 mark in MEAC play. They won the conference tournament title and received a 16-seed in the NCAA Tournament where Hampton played one of the most prestigious college basketball teams in Duke.

His 2014-15 Hampton team entered the MEAC conference tournament as the sixth seed and made a Cinderella run by winning the title and receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. As a 16 seed, they faced and defeated Manhattan 74-64 in the First Four round. The victory paired them versus undefeated Kentucky in the Round of 64. Hampton played the history-seeking Wildcats tough and only trailed by five with 11 minutes remaining in the first half. In the second half, Kentucky only outscored Hampton by four points (38-34) in a respectable 79-56 showing.

Joyner followed up the campaign by returning to the NCAA Tournament during the 2015-16 season. The Pirates went 21-11 overall and their 13-3 conference record won the regular season title. Hampton clinched the conference tournament title again and, again slotted as the 16-seed, faced Virginia in the Round of 64.

Before those two NCAA Tournament bids, Joyner guided the 2013-14 Pirates to the CBI. They dropped a close 69-65 decision at Penn State in the First Round.
The 2016-17 Hampton squad made the CBI but lost 83-67 to eventual runner-up Coastal Carolina in the First Round.

The following year, his team finished tied for first in the MEAC and made the conference tournament championship game where they fell 71-63 to North Carolina Central. Per the guidelines of the era, the Pirates received an automatic bid to the NIT. Hampton journeyed to Notre Dame for the First-Round game.

His final postseason experience came the next season in the CIT. The Pirates went on a run to the semifinals. They hosted now-defunct St. Francis Brooklyn in the first round winning 81-72. Conference member Charleston Southern arrived in the second round. The Pirates beat the Buccaneers in the Battle of Piracy, 73-67. The Pirates sailed to NJIT and upset the Highlanders 82-70. Eventual champion Marshall edged Hampton, 80-78, in the semifinals. Marshall's championship game victim Green Bay fell 90-70 to the Thundering Herd. The run was the deepest in Hampton & HBCU history.

Joyner guided Hampton's transition through two conference realignments. He started his coaching career in the MEAC, and before the 2018-19 season, the university joined the Big South. The Pirates spent four seasons plundering the conference before leaving after the 2021-22 campaign for the Coastal Athletic Association.

Before being tabbed the head coach at Hampton, Joyner spent three seasons as an associate head coach for the Pirates. During his time, he developed First Team All-Conference guard Rashad West and the 2006-07 MEAC Rookie of the Year Mike Freeman.

Previous to his Hampton tenure, he served as an assistant coach for men's and women's basketball at his alma mater Division II Johnson C. Smith University. He was instrumental in developing seven All-Americans and made the NCAA Tournament seven times on the men's side. He helped the women's team reach the Division II NCAA Tournament.

Joyner had a stellar playing career at Johnson C. Smith playing under his uncle, leading the Golden Bulls to three CIAA division titles, two trips to the CIAA championship game, and three NCAA Division II Tournament berths. Twice, he was named Defensive Player of the Year and finished his career among the school's top 10 assist leaders.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from Johnson C. Smith in 1999 and a Master of Science Degree in Sports Administration-Intercollegiate Athletics from Hampton in 2016.

LAUREN HOLDEN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • SECOND SEASON AT BUCKNELL • FORDHAM '19

Lauren Holden joined the Bucknell women's basketball staff in April 2025. The associate head coach arrived at Bucknell after spending time at FDU, Fordham, and Gardner-Webb, and a distinguished playing career with Fordham.

Her coaching journey started at FDU in 2019 where she spent time as the director of operations and assistant coach. Holden played a key part in resurrecting FDU's moribund program into the NEC powerhouse it is today. During her tenure, FDU recorded its first NEC Tournament win in 30 years (2019-20), the 2020-21 team led the conference in scoring defense (55.4 ppg), and Madison Stanley received First Team All-NEC honors.

Encouraged by her NEC success, alma mater Fordham called, and Holden answered the request. The Rams made the WNIT Tournament in her two seasons while ranking 22nd nationally in free throw percentage (77.61). Several players flourished under her guidance. Anna DeWolfe was First Team All-A10 (2021-22 & 2022-23) and became the third leading scorer in program history. Asiah Dingle developed into a defensive fortress, finishing fourth nationally in steals (2022-23), and earning A-10 Defensive Player of the Year. She did not neglect the offensive side, leading the A10 in scoring (2022-23). Kaitlin Downey posted the most starts in program history and excelled in the classroom, twice earning Academic All-A10 honors (2021-22 & 2022-23). She and the Rams faced Bucknell in the 2021-22 WNIT where the Bison emerged victorious, 73-64.

Holden spent the last two campaigns in rural and rolling Boiling Springs as an assistant coach for Gardner-Webb. With her expertise, Ashley Hawkins earned 2024-25 Big South Player of the Year and led the conference in scoring. The Bulldogs nearly doubled their wins in the 2024-25 season from their 2023-24 output.

A recruiting paragon, Holden has connections sprinkled throughout the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast - the bedrock of Bucknell's natural reference pool, especially New Jersey which has blessed the Bison program in recent years.

Holden's playing career for the Rams dots the Fordham record book. She finished her career with 1,141 points (17th at the time), 213 three-pointers (third), and an 85.3 free throw rate (fourth). A tenacious force, she averaged 34.0 minutes per game in her career, including ironwoman numbers in her junior (39.2) and senior (38.6) seasons, leading to her most minutes played in program history mark (4492). The 2018-19 Rams won the A10 Championship, and Holden completed her collegiate career scoring nine points against Syracuse in the NCAA Tournament. Fordham twice made the WNIT during her four seasons, including a Sweet Sixteen run in 2017-18.

A native of Victorian-inspired and ocean-hugging Cape May, New Jersey, Holden graduated from Fordham in 2019 with a bachelor of arts in communications and media studies.

DANIELLE PATTERSON

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND SEASON AT BUCKNELL • INDIANA '21

Danielle Patterson joined the Bucknell women's basketball staff in the summer of 2025 and brought a championship-caliber pedigree to the Bison program. She played on the 2017-18 Notre Dame national championship team, where she contributed with a 48.7% field goal percentage. A model of consistency, Patterson supplied 95 points (2.88 ppg) in both of her seasons with the Golden Domers. Transferring to Indiana, she spent the 2020-21 season with the Hoosiers, averaging 1.7 ppg and 1.6 rpg. She entered the transfer portal for a second time and landed with Big East powerhouse St. John's.

She excelled with the Johnnies during the 2021-22 and 2022-23 campaigns. Patterson posted career-best marks of 8.2 ppg and 4.7 rpg in the 2021-22 season. The 2022-23 year was one to remember for St. John's. Her 6.6 ppg and 2.6 rpg assisted the Johnnies in returning to the NCAA Women's Tournament for the first time since 2016. The Red Storm earned a First Four bid as a No. 11 seed. St. John's defeated fellow No. 11 seed Purdue 66-64, with Patterson supplying three points and two rebounds in ten minutes. Their potential Cinderella run ended with a heartbreaking 61-59 defeat to sixth-seeded North Carolina. Patterson spearheaded the near-upset, scoring 13 points in 18 minutes on 5-of-10 shooting, including perfection (2-of-2) from three-point territory.

The forward completed her career with outstanding numbers, shooting 264 of 557 (47.4%) from the field, a sharp 43 of 115 (37.3%) from beyond the arc, and added 106 free throws for a total of 677 points. She collected 366 rebounds and blocked 52 shots.

"Danielle is going to bring an entire new vibe for our program," said Woodruff. "She is young, she is energetic. This is her first opportunity in a full-time coaching role and there is no question about her readiness. She will be working with our post players. We have a long history of excelling in our recruitment and development of post players. She will add to that lineage."

Following her playing career's conclusion, Patterson remained with St. John's as their graduate assistant for the 2023-24 season. After shining in the role, she received a promotion to Director of Basketball Operations for the 2024-25 campaign. Applying her customary excellence to the position, her hard work assisted St. John's in finishing 16-15 and a win in the Big East Tournament.

Patterson collected five Academic Team honors during her career. She notched one with Notre Dame (2017-18), two with Indiana (2019-20 & 2020-21) and two more with St. John's (2022-23 & 2023-24).

"I am absolutely thrilled to be stepping into a new coaching role at Bucknell under the leadership of Coach Woodruff," said Patterson. "Supporting others, fostering growth, and empowering young women to reach their goals is something I'm truly passionate about. I'm honored to contribute to a program with such a strong foundation, and I'm excited to help build on that success and reach new heights. Time to get to work!"

A native of Brooklyn, New York, Patterson graduated with a Bachelor's degree from Indiana in Broadcast & Sports Media (2021) and earned two Master's degrees from St. John's in Professional Studies (2022) and Business Administration (2024).

ERIN JONES

ASSISTANT COACH/DOBO• FIRST SEASON AT BUCKNELL • URI'20 UNF'22

Erin Jones joined the Bucknell women's basketball coaching staff as the director of basketball Operations and assistant coach in July 2026 with experience as both a professional and collegiate basketball player.

Most recently, Jones served as a sports performance coach for Gym Jax in Jacksonville, Florida. She trained athletes in strength, speed, agility, conditioning and injury prevention. She also created individualized performance programs based on athletic goals and taught proper movement mechanics and safe training techniques.

Prior to coming to Lewisburg, Jones also served as an AAU Basketball Coach for Duval Elite in Jacksonville for three years. As a coach, she led teams ages 12-17 from March through July each year. Jones planned practices focused on skill development, basketball IQ, teamwork and competitive execution and created individualized coaching strategies to maximize athlete growth and confidence.

Over those three years, Jones worked as a self-employed basketball skill development trainer. She trained athletes ages 10-18 in individual and small-group basketball skill development sessions. Jones designed customized training plans focused on shooting, ball handling, decision-making and position-specific skills. She also evaluated player progress to provide ongoing feedback to athletes and families.

Prior to becoming an AAU coach and self-employed basketball skill development trainer, Jones served as a sports performance coach at B3 Better Sports Performance in Jacksonville, Florida where she designed and implemented individualized strength and conditioning programs for youth athletes. While at B3 Better, Jones helped improve athlete's speed, agility, strength, endurance and overall athletic performance by coaching them in both group and individual settings.

After finishing six years of playing NCAA Division I women's basketball, Jones spent four years playing professional basketball at international clubs across Portugal, Germany, Scotland and the United Kingdom. During her time playing professionally, she adapted to diverse coaching styles, cultures and team systems while demonstrating leadership and professionalism through consistent preparation, practice habits and strength and conditioning. She also mentored younger players by assisting with practices and skill development in multiple European women's basketball leagues.

Jones graduated from the University of Rhode Island with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2020 and then earned a master's degree in exercise science and chronic disease in 2022 from the University of North Florida.
