>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>> ATTITUDE >>>> CHARACTER >>>> TOUGHNESS >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

BISON LEGENDS: Bucknell's 1996 team captured a Patriot League title in thrilling fashion. The Bison won five of their final six games that season, including a thrilling 28-27 overtime win over Colgate in the season finale that clinched the program's first championship in 31 years.

Bucknell finished 6-5 overall and 4-1 in Patriot League play. The Bison boasted seven all-league picks and one All-American in Brandon Little.

BUCKNELL FOOTBALL: MORE THAN A CENTURY OF TRADITION

The game bore little resemblance to what we now know as football, and one of the schools has since changed its name. In November of 1883, a group of students from Lafayette College journeyed west to play a group from the University at Lewisburg in the relatively new sport of football. The sport was so new, in fact, that the majority of the dozen or so students from Lewisburg, who did not have a coach and had practiced only briefly, had never seen a game of football before playing in one.

The players from Lewisburg, whose school would be renamed Bucknell University in 1886, lost that first game, 59-0. Perhaps because of that experience, their school did not play another official game until 1887.

Still, the seeds had been planted for a program that would grow into one of the most respected programs in the East by the 1950s, and will celebrate its 138th season in 2023.

Scores of marvelous players have donned the Orange and Blue over the course of the 137 seasons of Bucknell football, and each season gives rise to new names, new heroes, new legends. Here is a quick trip through the colorful tradition that is Bucknell football:

Still playing without a full-time coach, Bucknell gains its first victory ever with a 16-10 triumph over Lafayette. The Bison also defeat Cornell (4-0) and Penn State (12-10) on their way to a 6-2-1 record. The team includes Andrew Wyant, who later goes on to play for the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg at the University of Chicago and is a member of both the Bucknell Hall of Fame and the National Football Hall of Fame.

Bucknell's 1899 football team. Bucknell Athletics and Baseball Hall of Fame member Christy Mathewson is in the back row, third from the right.

Christy Mathewson concludes his marvelous Bucknell football career and begins a professional baseball career that ranks among the best of all time. A hard-running fullback and tackler, "Matty" also excels as a kicker and gains national attention with two field goals against Army.

1918
Bucknell records the first of its three undefeated seasons. En route to a 6-0 record, the Bison are nothing short of dominant, outscoring opponents 236-7. The season ushers in a quarter-century of prosperity, as Bucknell enjoys 24 winning seasons in the next 26 years.

1924
The team sets a then-school record for victories with an 8-2 mark and meets Lafayette on October 18 in the first football game ever played in Memorial Stadium. Wally Foster, the captain of that Bucknell team, scores the first points in stadium history.

1931
Led by future NFL Hall of Famer Clarke Hinkle, Bucknell rolls to an unbeaten 6-0-3 record. The Bison's undefeated mark is tested in the final game of the season, against also-unbeaten Fordham, but the Bison prevail, 14-13, in a classic at the Polo Grounds.

1934
Edward "Hook" Mylin leads the Bison to a 6-2-2 regular-season record and a berth in the first Orange Bowl game, on January 1, 1935. After a two-day train trip to Miami for the game, Bucknell hammers the University of Miami, 26-0.

1951
In the midst of a four-year stretch in which Bucknell goes 27-8, head coach Harry Lawrence and his team finish perfect at 9-0, perhaps the finest season in school history. The defense includes Little All-America defensive tackle George Young (long-time general manager of the New York Giants), while the relentless offense averages 463.3 yards per game. That breaks the Eastern record set in 1945 by a Davis- and Blanchard-led Army team.

1960
After opening the season at 2-2, Bucknell rolls past Lafayette, Lehigh, Colgate, Temple and Delaware — by a combined score of 107-14 — to finish 7-2 and win its first-ever Lambert Cup. Quarterback Paul Terhes earns Little All-America honors.

1964
Just four years after leading Bucknell to its first Lambert Cup title, head coach Bob Odell repeats that feat, as the Bison finish 7-2. After opening the season with a loss, Bucknell wins seven of the next eight games, including a 21-14 season-ending win at Delaware. The Bison squad features Little All-America end Tom Mitchell, who would later enjoy a fine pro career with Baltimore and San Francisco.

1968

1978
Ken Jenkins arrives at Bucknell, and over the next four years, develops into one of the finest players in Bucknell history. He would set a school record with 1,270 rushing yards in 1980, and he later played with three NFL teams.

DID YOU KNOW?

• Bucknell played George Washington at home on Oct. 10, 1925, the day Christy Mathewson was buried in Lewisburg. In his memory, there was no cheering in the first quarter.

• Penn State dropped Bucknell from its football schedule for three years. It happened after the Bison beat the Nittany Lions three straight times between 1927-30.

• The 1935 Orange Bowl game between Bucknell and Miami featured the first-ever college football photograph transmitted over the wire by the Associated Press.

Two years after formation of the league is announced, the Colonial League (later renamed the Patriot League) debuts with six members — Bucknell, Colgate, Lehigh, Lafayette, Holy Cross and Davidson. The Bison's first-ever league game is one for the ages. Trailing Colgate in the fourth quarter, 39-25, Bucknell rallies to take a 40-39 lead with 52 seconds left, but the Red Raiders drive for a game-winning field goal attempt with four seconds left. After a bobbled snap from center, Colgate completes an impromptu pass play that nearly goes for a touchdown, but Bison defensive back Robert Hawkins drags down the receiver at the 9-yard line on the final play of the game.

1989
Bucknell's newly-renovated stadium is rededicated in honor of Christy Mathewson. Much like the stadium's namesake, Bucknell opens play in the "new" facility with a victory, handing Dartmouth a 36-20 setback on September 30.

1995
The Tom Gadd tenure begins at Bucknell, and the Bison finish 7-4. Rich Lemon becomes Bucknell's all-time rushing leader on opening day.

1996
Fittingly, Rich Lemon concludes his remarkable career with a Patriot League title, as Bucknell outlasts Colgate, 28-27, in the heart-stopping season finale. The win gives Bucknell its first football title in over 30 years. Lemon graduated with 4,742 rushing yards, nearly 2,100 more than the previous record-holder.

1997
The Bison roll out to a 10-0 record before falling to Colgate in their season finale to finish 10-1. The 10 wins were the most in school history, and many came in thrilling fashion, as the Bison won seven times by seven points or less.

Bucknell's 1997 football team celebrates its 45-38 victory at St. Mary's (Calif.), which ran its record to 9-0 for only the second time in program history (1951, 9-0 under head coach Harry Lawrence).

Bucknell celebrates its seventh straight winning season, a first in Bison annals.

2003
After the legendary Tom Gadd loses a long battle with brain cancer, Bucknell turns to Tim Landis as its 25th head coach. Landis quickly restores the good fortunes of the Bison football program. After a 2-9/0-7 season in 2002, Bucknell finishes 6-6/4-3 in one of the nation's best one-season turnarounds.

2004
Bucknell wins its final four games of the season for the first time since 1975 to claim its first winning season since 2001 with a 7-4 record.

2011
In its second year under Joe Susan, Bucknell equals the school record with a five-win improvement from 2010. The Bison posted a 6-5 overall mark one year after going 1-10. Highlighting the campaign was an impressive ability to force turnovers. Bucknell finished first nationally in turnover margin (+2.45) and DB Bryce Robertson led the country in interceptions with 13, breaking both the program and Patriot League standards.

2014
Bucknell wins its most games since 1997 as it finished 8-3 overall and 4-2 in Patriot League play. The Bison have nine All-Patriot League selections and Joe Susan becomes Bucknell's first Patriot League Coach of the Year since 1997.

2016

Julién Davenport (right) is selected by the Houston Texans in the 2017 NFL Draft's fourth round, 130th overall, following a decorated 2016 season. He is the first Bison since Sam Havrilak (1969, eighth round, Baltimore Colts) to be drafted and the seventh overall. He is Bucknell's second-highest selection behind George Kiick, who went to the Pittsburgh Pirates in the third round of the 1940 draft. Davenport is named a First Team All-American by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Foundation and STATS.

2019
In his first season as head coach, Dave Cecchini leads the Bison to a third-place finish in the Patriot League, their highest placement since they were the 2014 runners-up. Their Patriot League victories come over defending champion Colgate, rival Lehigh and Georgetown; two of their three league losses came by a touchdown or less. Two-time captain Alex Pechin (left with Cecchini at the STATS FCS Awards Banquet) caps his decorated career by becoming the 14th consensus All-American in Patriot League history, being named the inaugural FCS Punter of the Year and capturing the FCS Doris Robinson Scholar-Athlete Award, which is presented to a student-athlete who excels not only in the classroom but in the community and beyond. At the time of his graduation, Pechin ranks fifth in FCS history in career punting average (44.5) and seventh in single-season punting average (47.3); he is named to a staggering 15 All-America teams over the course of his decorated career.

Quarterback Ralph Rucker IV was named the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year and running back Tariq Thomas was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year as the Bison went 6-6 overall and 4-2 in the Patriot League with a solo third-place finish. This served as the best finish in PL play and the most overall wins since 2014 when the Bison went 8-3. During the season Rucker earned All-Patriot League First Team and five PL Offensive Player of the Week honors. He also became Bucknell's single-season leader for passing touchdowns (25), broke his own record for single-season passing yards (2,826) and single-game passing yards (457). Rucker became Bucknell's all-time leader in passing touchdowns with 46 career passing touchdowns and got the record holder for highest single-season completion percentage (.672) and most completions in a single season (244). He was the first quarterback to ever throw for 400 yards in a game in Bucknell's final game of the season which was a 48-34 victory over Colgate at home.

BUCKNELL FOOTBALL'S TOP-10 GAMES

Brad Tufts, who retired in the spring of 2000 after more than 30 years as a member of the Bucknell athletic department staff, takes a look back at the top-10 Bison football games ever played (and the one that wasn't).

Stephen Taylor wasn't able to observe a football team practicing as he made his way to Harrisburg early in 1846 with the proposed charter for the fledgling University at Lewisburg, but even before the name of the school was changed in recognition of benefactor William Bucknell, the sport had been introduced on campus and gained some popularity.

Today, the sport is a fixture on fall Saturdays, and its history is prominent in any accounting of Bucknell's athletic heritage. The Bison gridiron story (did you know that the word "gridiron" derives from the manner in which the field was formerly marked?) includes many notable games, and we could probably argue for the next 150 years as to which were the most significant.

Before designating the 10 most significant games, please permit a look back at some of the more noteworthy games played by Bucknell football teams.

In 1881, a group of students from Bucknell and State College (as Penn State was known in those days) played a game of football which, at one time, was recognized as the first contest in the sport by either school, though now both schools say that it was only an informal meeting.

Bucknell's first official football game came against Lafayette on Thanksgiving Day, 1883, but a lack of student interest following that initial venture curtailed play for four years. In 1887, the sport returned to stay as Bucknell played its first two official games with Penn State.

Within another four years, Bucknell was playing regular schedules, and by 1895, the university had its first head coach.

The 1900 team finished 4-4-1, but gained national attention in an 18-10 loss to West Point. All the scoring for Bucknell came on two field goals by a hard-running fullback named Christy Mathewson.

The New York writers covering the game spread the word about this talented athlete, whose 48-yard field goal in that game was the longest in the country that year. Mathewson, who went on to become one of the nation's most admired athletes as a pitcher for the New York Giants, liked football more than baseball, and if the National Football League had existed at the time, it is probable that baseball would have been deprived of one of its greatest and most famous players.

Bucknell originally played football on Loomis Field, now home of the University's Gateway residences. In 1924, the Bison moved into what is now Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium, and christened the new field against Lafayette before a crowd of 15,000. Lafayette won the contest, 21-3, despite a 43-yard field goal by Bison captain Wally Foster to open the scoring.

Late that year, Bucknell beat Navy, 6-0, and Rutgers, 12-7, to highlight the first of three seasons in which Bucknell was coached by "Uncle Charlie" Moran, who had led Centre College's "Praying Colonels" to a memorable upset of Harvard. The Bison finished 8-2 in 1924, which represented the most victories ever by a Bucknell team.

Moran's 1925 team visited President Calvin Coolidge in the White House while in Washington to play Georgetown, and the Bison were rolling along at 6-2-1 when they played at the University of Detroit on Thanksgiving Day. The Bison won that game, 7-0, but the flamboyant coach also had scheduled a game at Dayton two days later. The travel and two games in three days were too much, and the weary Bison dropped a 19-0 decision.

This was not the first time Bucknell encountered scheduling difficulties. The 1891 team, led by Hall of Famers Andrew Wyant and "Warhorse" Allen, opened the season with a 16-10 victory at Lafayette, but then had to play Lehigh the following day and suffered a 62-4 beating.

Future College Football Hall of Famer Carl Snavely made his debut as Bucknell coach in 1927, and promptly posted a 13-7 win over Penn State, the Bison's first win ever in State College. His teams went on to beat the Nittany Lions for the next three years, and then the future Big Ten power dropped Bucknell from its schedule for three years.

1895 TEAM

Times do change.

In 1929, Bucknell completed its second 8-2 season in history with a 78-0 win over Dickinson. In that game, future college and professional Hall of Famer Clarke Hinkle scored 50 points, still a Bucknell record.

A 7-6 loss to Temple on Oct. 10, 1930 was noteworthy, for it was the first regularly-scheduled night football game ever.

Bucknell went 6-0-3 in 1931 for its second of three undefeated seasons, and the record included season-ending wins over two of the powers of the day, Washington & Jefferson (10-6) and Fordham (14-13). The latter was played before a large crowd at the Polo Grounds, where Christy Mathewson had gained fame for the New York Giants.

Edward "Hook" Mylin arrived on the scene in 1934 and led Bucknell to a 7-2-2 record that included a 13-7 win over Penn State and a 26-0 rout of Miami in the Orange Bowl.

In 1938, the second season under Al Humphreys, the Bison won at Penn State, 14-0. It was the last time that Bucknell would defeat the Nittany Lions, who rose to national prominence following the end of World War II.

In 1949, Bucknell finished 6-2, and both losses (to Temple and Gettysburg) were by one point. Gettysburg scored the winning TD in its 34-33 win in the final 40 seconds.

Bucknell closed out the 1950 season with four straight wins, which set the stage for the 1951 campaign, in which the Bison rolled to a 9-0 mark. The perfect season concluded with a 21-20 win at Colgate and a 33-6 trouncing of Delaware in Memorial Stadium that led to a more than mild celebration on campus.

The 1951 team boasted several All-East and Little All-America players, and the Associated Press poll released on Nov. 20 listed Bucknell at No. 20 in the nation.

In 1954, BU beat Lehigh, 48-46, in a wild affair that produced the highest losing score ever by a Bison opponent.

One of the great eras in Bucknell football began in 1958 with the arrival of Bob Odell, and after a 1-8 mark in that first season, Odell led Bucknell to a 15-8 Homecoming win over Rutgers in 1959. The following year, a shutout of Delaware capped a 7-2 season and earned the first of two Lambert Cups for Odell's teams. The Bison reclaimed Eastern supremacy in 1964, winning the Lambert Cup with a 7-2 mark.

Bucknell won the Middle Atlantic Conference title in 1965 with a 26-14 win over Delaware, and closed the season with a 22-14 win over Davidson. In that game, All-America Tom Mitchell was chasing the national record for career receiving, and coach Carroll Huntress and his staff devised a formation designed to hit Mitchell with short passes while he was in the backfield. On the second attempt, a bad snap from center led to a big loss, and attempts at the record were abandoned.

Mitch Farbstein, a member of the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame, was captured in the pages of Life after he led Bucknell to a 14-13 win over Gettysburg in 1971. That same year, the bruising fullback scored five touchdowns in a 33-0 win over Lafayette.

A 39-yard field goal by Al Yuknus with 20 seconds left gave Bucknell a 19-17 win at Dayton in the 1982 season opener, the Bison's first visit to the southern Ohio city since "Uncle Charlie" tried to win two games in three days in 1925. The game was also one of the hottest in Bucknell annals, as game-time temperature on the artificial surface was 112 degrees.

In 1987, back-to-back home games with Holy Cross (a 48-10 loss) and Columbia (a 62-20 win) brought the national news media to Lewisburg in droves.

The media came first to chronicle the Frank Merriwell-like heroics of the Crusaders' Gordie Lockbaum, and then returned the next week as Columbia attempted to escape its collegiate-record losing streak.

The Lions attempted an onside kick on the opening kickoff, but that failed, and Bucknell led 28-0 by the end of the first quarter and the Lions went on to their 37th straight loss.

Lou Maranzana's first season as head coach in 1989 included a very special afternoon, as the Bison's home stadium was rededicated to the memory of Christy Mathewson. Matty would have been proud, as the Bison that day beat Dartmouth, Maranzana's alma mater, 36-20.

The Tom Gadd era began in 1995, and the 7-4 record included a dramatic 21-14 win at Colgate in the first overtime game in Bucknell history.

The drama of that contest, though, paled in comparison to the Bucknell-Colgate game in 1996, as the Bison and Red Raiders again played into overtime, this time with the Patriot League title on the line. In a game that will be long remembered by all in attendance, Bucknell battled to a 28-27 win when a Colgate two-point conversion pass in overtime was batted down by Brandon Little, who would later earn All-America honors.

Bucknell built on its championship season by winning its first 10 games the following fall and compiling a 12-game winning streak, the second longest in school history. In the process of posting more wins than any other Bison team, Coach Gadd's charges were nationally ranked and led the Patriot League in total defense for the third straight year. However, the memorable season and win streak came to an end with a 48-14 loss at Colgate in a game that again decided the Patriot League crown.

The Bison continued their winning ways in 1999, turning in their fifth straight winning season with a 7-4 record behind an offense that scored 320 points — the third-highest single-season total in school history. Quarterback Don McDowell turned in one of his career-best performances to lead the Orange and Blue to a 21-16 victory at nationally ranked Colgate, while Jabu Powell stepped in at running back and led the Bison to their first win at Penn's Franklin Field (23-16) in over 30 years.

In 2001 the Bison made it seven straight winning seasons — a first in the history of the program — while playing on their new state-of-the-art FieldTurf.

With their football fortunes reaching heights never before seen, the Bison were dealt a devastating blow when Gadd had to step aside in 2002 to battle brain cancer. He lost that battle in March 2003. Gadd tied the BU record for career coaching victories with 48, achieving that figure faster than any of his predecessors.

Tim Landis succeeded Gadd in 2003, and quickly restored Bucknell's recent tradition as a Patriot League contender. The Bison finished in third place with a 4-3 league record, just one year after finishing 0-7. In his second season the Bison improved to 7-4 and were 4-2 in the Patriot League to record their second consecutive third-place finish.

In 2006, Landis helped orchestrate an impressive turnaround as the Bison equaled the program record by posting a five-win improvement from the year before. Bucknell finished with a record of at least .500 for the third time in Landis' tenure as it alternated wins and losses the entire season for a 6-5 mark.

The final game of the 2007 season, an impressive 38-24 win over Patriot League champion Fordham, served as a springboard toward an improved 2008 campaign for the Bison, who finished 5-6, a two-win improvement over the previous season.

Former Bucknell assistant coach (1981-90) Joe Susan took over the Bison in 2010. In 2011, he led Bucknell to a 6-5 record, a school record-tying five-win improvement from the previous fall.

In 2013, Susan once again guided the Bison to a 6-5 record with a 48-10 Homecoming victory over Lehigh, a road win at Colgate and a narrow loss to undefeated and top-10 ranked Fordham highlighting the season that featured Bucknell winning five of its final six contests.

The Bison followed that campaign by opening 2014 with four-straight wins and they were 7-1 in early November. Bucknell finished with an 8-3 mark, just the fifth time in program history it reached the eight-win plateau.

The Bison began a new era in 2019 as Dave Cecchini took the reigns of the program as its 27th head coach. In his first season at the helm, Cecchini led the Bison to a third-place finish in the Patriot League, their highest placement since they were the 2014 runners-up.

With the unprecedented fallout from the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 campaign was postponed, and a shortened season was played in March and April of 2021. With the Patriot League divided into "North and South Divisions," Cecchini led the Bison to a 2-1 regular season and a spot in the first-ever Patriot League Championship game against Holy Cross. The Crusaders prevailed, but Cecchini became the second Bison to earn the Dick Biddle Coach of the Year Award.

Bucknell enjoyed an exciting turnaround season in 2024. Picked to finish last in the preseason poll, the Bison went 4-2 in the Patriot League, with the two losses coming by a combined three points. The league title race came down to the final day of the season, and Bucknell fell one game shy of a league title. Led by Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year Ralph Rucker IV, the Bison broke school records for points and yards in a season. Rucker himself broke 10 team records, including TD passes in a game, season, and career.

On the following page are the 10 most significant Bucknell football games ever played, compiled in chronological order. There are certainly many more games that deserve consideration, but we had to make some tough choices. Let the friendly arguments begin.

On October 31, 1936, BILL LANE slashed his way through the Villanova defense to lead Bucknell to a 6-0 Homecoming victory. The win, which lifted the Bison to 4-2 on the season, effectively dashed Villanova's Rose Bowl aspirations.

Lafayette 59, Bucknell 0 November 30, 1883)

Certainly not a score for Bucknell followers to remember, but the game is historic because it was the first one. A brief excerpt from an account of the game indicates that the style of both play and writing have changed over the years:

"...At this point the time for the first inning was up, and a breathing spell of fifteen minutes was given. At the beginning of the second inning, the University team came up somewhat discouraged, but nevertheless determined to make the other side work for whatever they might secure.

"They now used several of Lafayette's tricks with good result, and showed that it was but want of skill and practice that they had worked so disastrously in the first part of the game. For a full fifteen minutes, the ball was carried about the field without either side gaining a single point."

Bucknell 12, Rutgers 7 (November 22, 1924)

The win gave tremendous recognition to the Bucknell football program. Playing at Franklin Field in Philadelphia, 'Mose' Wilbach scored both touchdowns for the Bison. Rutgers had gone into the contest undefeated.

Bucknell 14, Fordham 13 (November 21, 1931)

The game, played at the Polo Grounds, capped an undefeated (6-0-3) season and ended the brilliant Bucknell career of Clarke Hinkle, regarded by many as the finest Bucknell player ever.

Fordham also entered the game undefeated, and the contest was covered extensively by the New York media, bringing national attention to Bucknell and its football team.

The game, though, was marred by tragedy; Fordham's Connie Murphy died from injuries sustained in the game.

Bucknell 26, Miami 0 (January 1, 1935)

The very first Orange Bowl Game, this contest is probably the most written-about game in Bucknell history. The Bison's appearance in the game — which was no doubt aided by tireless efforts of publicity director Art Brandon — continues to bring widespread national publicity to Bucknell each January 1.

The game showcased the coaching talents of "Hook" Mylin, and the first AP photo ever transmitted from a college football game came from this contest.

As for the halftime show, which has become a staple of current Orange Bowl games, a newspaper account indicates that, "between the halves, the University of Miami band paraded around the field, followed by a truck carrying several University coeds in an orange-colored bowl. The young ladies threw oranges and tangerines, with more or less accuracy, among the spectators."

Bucknell 21, Colgate 20 (November 10, 1951)

Every victory in 1951 was necessary for the undefeated season, but this win came in the next-to-last game, on the road, and was one of only two games all year decided by seven points or less. It was also Bucknell's only win over Colgate in the 1950s; the Red Raiders ended BU's record 17-game winning streak in 1952.

Bucknell 26, Delaware 0 (November 19, 1960)

This was the fourth shutout in nine games for a terrific defensive team, and precipitated 24 hours of furious campaigning that led to Bucknell's first-ever Lambert Cup. The win also came on the heels of eight straight losses to Delaware, and clinched first team Little All-America honors and other awards for quarterback Paul Terhes.

Bucknell 24, Harvard 21 (October 3, 1964)

The Bison ended 73 years of frustration against the Ivy League, and the large number of Boston media in attendance were in high praise of Bucknell. The win also provided the impetus for two other three-point wins and Bucknell's second Lambert Cup in four years.

The contest also started Tom Mitchell en route to the first of two straight Little All-America and Eastern small college Player of the Year campaigns.

Bucknell 26, Delaware 14 (November 20, 1965)

The victory clinched the Middle Atlantic Conference title, which was — until 1996 — the Bison's only football conference championship ever. The game also closed the curtain on one of the finest careers in Memorial Stadium history, as Tom Mitchell played his final home game.

Bucknell 28, Umass 15 (November 4, 1972)
AND
Bucknell 41, Colgate 7 (November 11, 1972)

These games have been combined into one for this list, as they were the final two home games of coach Fred Prender's first year, and resulted in two big upsets.

UMass had entered the game undefeated (6-0), but Mitch Farbstein and Bob Langan each ran for two touchdowns as the Bison beat the Minutemen.

The next week, Bucknell faced a Colgate team that stood 4-2-1, and had hammered Bucknell, 47-24, the year before. Farbstein was unstoppable, rushing for 192 yards and a touchdown as the Bison routed the rivals from the Chenango Valley.

Student enthusiasm has been unsurpassed since that time, and the goal posts came down after both games.

Bucknell 28, Colgate 27 (November 23, 1996)

Bucknell and Colgate met in Lewisburg with the Patriot League championship at stake, and the Bison won their first football league title in 31 years in dramatic fashion, as Brandon Little broke up a Colgate two-point conversion try in overtime.

Bucknell had lost an early 14-0 lead, and trailed 21-14 before Jim Fox engineered a remarkable 99-yard scoring drive midway through the fourth quarter, tying the game at 21-21 and forcing overtime.

Bucknell scored first in overtime, with Fox throwing his fourth touchdown pass of the game. Colgate answered, and then opted for a two-point conversion rather than a kick that would have forced a second overtime. With the league title riding on a single play, Colgate quarterback Ryan Vena rolled right and threw into the end zone, but Little batted the pass down, and bedlam ensued.

The game also was the final Bucknell contest for record-setting running back Rich Lemon.

Honorable Mention:
Bucknell ?, Delaware ? (November 23, 1963)

The list above was restricted to games that were actually played. A game that was never played, however, also deserves mention.

On Nov. 22, 1963, the nation was shocked and paralyzed by the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The Bucknell campus mourned with the rest of the world, and the football game scheduled at home the next day with the University of Delaware was postponed.

Bucknell had won three of its first five games before stumbling in a 14-13 loss to Lafayette. However, victories over Temple, Colgate and Lehigh brought the Bison to 6-3 going into the Delaware game.

A victory would give Bucknell a tie with Delaware for the Middle Atlantic Conference University Division championship. The Blue Hens were 8-0 overall and ranked first in the national small college polls conducted by both the Associated Press and United Press International.

Interest in the game was at an all-time high on campus, in Lewisburg and the surrounding area, and the media almost certainly would have overflowed Memorial Stadium's press facilities. A sellout was a distinct possibility.

And then the shots rang out in Dealey Plaza. We watched a president take the oath of office on an airplane. We cried. We saw Jack Ruby make a shambles of any pretense of security. We cried again as a young boy saluted his father and the funeral procession moved slowly down Pennsylvania Avenue. We talked about what had happened and tried to get back to some semblance of "normal."

That included trying to reschedule the football game for the following weekend (Delaware said no), Thanksgiving Day (Delaware said no), or at a neutral site (Delaware said no).

The game that might have brought Bucknell its first conference crown and one of the largest home crowds in history was never played.

Delaware finished the season undefeated with its 8-0 record. UPI kept the Blue Hens at the top of their poll and awarded them a national championship plaque. AP, though, asked questions about why the game wasn't played, and learning of the Blue Hens' intransigence, dropped Delaware to second in its final ranking.

The game would be the last Bison contest to be canceled until 2001, when the September 11 tragedy again brought a halt to the sports world, including the Bucknell-Cornell football game.

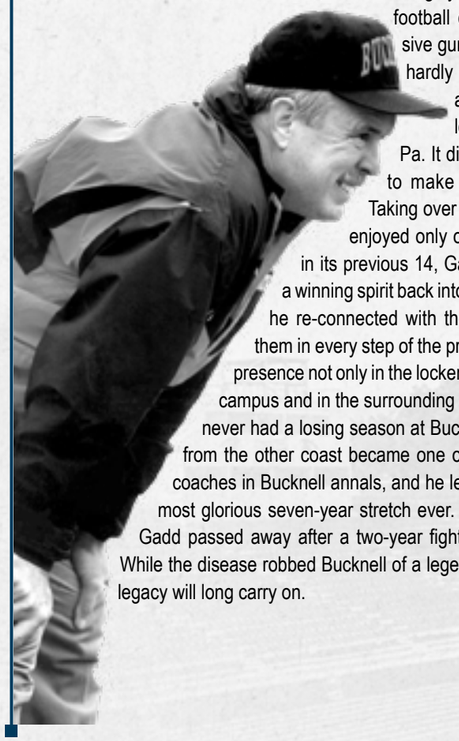

CHRISTY MATHEWSON-MEMORIAL STADIUM MONUMENTS

The below monuments are located in the southern part of Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium, near the beautifully manicured bushes that spell Bucknell. The newest monuments were added in fall 2012 when Hall of Fame back Clarke Hinkle and 1951 co-captain George Young received the much-deserved recognition.

TOM GADD REMEMBERED

On December 22, 1994 Tom Gadd was introduced as Bucknell's new head football coach. Raised in California, Gadd was highly regarded in college football circles as a defensive guru, although he was hardly a household name among Bucknell followers in Lewisburg, Pa. It did not take him long to make his presence felt. Taking over a program that had enjoyed only one winning season in its previous 14, Gadd quickly instilled a winning spirit back into Bison football, and he re-connected with the alumni, involving them in every step of the program. An inspiring presence not only in the locker room but all across campus and in the surrounding communities, Gadd never had a losing season at Bucknell. The no-name from the other coast became one of the most beloved coaches in Bucknell annals, and he led the Bison to their most glorious seven-year stretch ever. On March 1, 2003, Gadd passed away after a two-year fight with brain cancer. While the disease robbed Bucknell of a legend and a friend, his legacy will long carry on.

THE TOM GADD ERA (1995-2001)

In seven years under Tom Gadd, Bucknell ...

- Enjoyed seven-straight winning seasons, the only time in the history of the program it has ever happened.
- Won 48 games, lifting Gadd into a tie for first on Bucknell's all-time list of winning coaches. He achieved that mark faster than any other coach.
- Won 73.7 percent of its home games. The Bison went 28-10 at home under Gadd.
- Placed a total of 97 players on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll, more than any other team.
- Captured only the second conference championship in program history, and the first since 1965. Bucknell won the Patriot League title in 1996.
- Established school records for most wins in a season and in a seven-year period. The Bison enjoyed their first 10-win season in 1997.

The most famous Bison and one of the greatest baseball players of all time, Christy Mathewson was better known in his college days as a hard-hitting fullback and outstanding kicker. One of the five original members of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., "Matty" gained his initial athletic fame as a fullback, punter and dropkicker at Bucknell from 1898 to 1900.

A truly outstanding player, the Factoryville, Pa. native kicked a point-after touchdown in the first varsity game of his freshman year, and in the next three years added 13 touchdowns and eight field goals. Mathewson gained national attention when he dropkicked two field goals against Pennsylvania in 1899 and added a 45-yard field goal against Army the following year. As a result, he was named the "12th man" on Walter Camp's 1900 All-America team.

Reports in Bucknell files indicate that Mathewson practiced his dropkicking hour after hour and also note that his punting was exceptional throughout his career, a three-year stretch during which he scored 106 points. He was also a punishing runner, and one game account makes note of a 65-yard touchdown run and a 70-yard kickoff return.

Mathewson, who also played baseball and basketball at Bucknell, was known as a gentleman and true scholar-athlete. In addition to his athletic pursuits, he was an A student, the president of his class and a member of the glee club and literary societies.

With the New York Giants (1900-16) and Cincinnati Reds (1916), Mathewson earned the adulation of millions of fans, serving as a role model in professional baseball and bringing respectability to the sport in an era when it was dominated by rough-and-tumble types. Most famously, he pitched three shutouts in three starts to lead the Giants to the 1905 World Series title. He wrapped up his career with a record of 373-188, bolstered by four seasons in which he won at least 30 games.

Like many Bucknellians, Mathewson served in World War I, attaining the rank of captain in the Gas and Flame Division in France. During a mishap in training, he was exposed to poison gas that damaged his lungs and caused him to contract the tubercular pneumonia that killed him.

Memorial Stadium was rededicated as Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium on Sept. 30, 1989 in his honor. In addition, the Christy Mathewson Award has been presented to the most outstanding student-athletes of each graduating class since 1968.

Mathewson is buried in the cemetery just behind the Kenneth Langone Athletics & Recreation Center.

A tribute to Mathewson

By W.O. McGeehan, sports editor of the New York Herald-Tribune — October 9, 1925

While the captains and the kings of baseball were gathered here last night after the first game of a world series there died at Saranac the best loved of all American athletes of all time — Christy Mathewson.

Always a cheerful and a fair fighter, he lost a most unfair fight. Mathewson in his prime had sinews of steel in his right arm, he had speed, he had everything, they said, but his greatest asset was his calm courage. This held him up, cheerful and calm, to meet the end.

While Mathewson's record in baseball will stand while the game lasts, it was not his prowess as an athlete that made him the idol of American manhood, young and old. It was the character of the man, his contempt for the chicanery that creeps into professional baseball and his frank and simple honesty.

They have said that no player is greater than the game. Yet the death of Christy Mathewson makes this world series seem a petty, piffling thing. The minds of the oldtimers went back to twenty years ago to the day when Christy Mathewson shut out the Athletics in a series that was all battle and melodrama. Twenty years ago today the right arm of Mathewson was in its prime, his blue-gray eyes were alight with the flame of battle.

The younger generation at Forbes Field today had their eyes on the duel between Vic Aldridge and Stanley Coveleski. The oldtimers were looking at the field, too, but their eyes were misty and they saw through the film of the years Christy Mathewson, Big Six himself, pitching against the Athletics and shutting them out. Even the roars of the multitude could not rouse the oldtimers. They were living back in the Golden age of baseball.

In the old days it was a Polo Grounds tragedy when Matty was batted out of the box. When Matty failed the Giants failed, and everything was wrong. The bulletin, "Mathewson out of the game," always saddened the fans while Mathewson was young Christy Mathewson, with the strength still in that right arm and the vitality to come back. Toward the last this began to happen more frequently and those who loved the game for the game's sake became sadder than ever.

And now Christy Mathewson is out of the game altogether. Small wonder that the oldtimers' eyes were moist as they looked into the mists and saw only Matty making that epic sweep of his right arm.

"Greater than his game..."

Remembrances of a legend by sportswriting great Grantland Rice

Published October 9, 1925, in the New York Herald-Tribune

It was just twenty years ago that we saw Christy Mathewson give the greatest exhibition of world series pitching ever known — three games and three shutouts. It was just fourteen years ago that we left the Schenley Hotel here with Matty to play golf over the nearby Schenley course. It was over this course just fourteen years ago that Matty broke 80 for the first time in his life and knew a joy that meant more to him that morning than a pitching victory. For he had known more than his share of pitching victories and this was a new thrill.

There is little to be added to the printed epitaphs that will follow his body to the grave. He was a great pitcher, a great competitor and a great soul. He was the only man I have ever known who in spirit and in inspiration was greater than his game. For he was something more than a great pitcher. He was one of those rare characters who appeal to the millions through a magnetic personality attached to clean honesty and undying loyalty to a cause.

He gripped the imagination of a country that held a hundred million people and held this grip with a firmer hold than any man of his day or time. There might be rumors and reports concerning others, but here was one man who was clean clear through.

There had been many mighty pitchers. But here was a ball player with ideals, a ball player who lifted the game up in place of dragging it down. He held public faith in dark days when others were trying to destroy this faith. And with these ideals he was not walking along easy paths. Yet his character was such that he held even the respect of those who had no ideals of any sort, but could still pay tribute to the rugged strength of one who was indifferent to any mockery or taunts.

Mathewson was above the clamor of the crowds. He appreciated the crowds' applause, but he also knew the fickleness of fame. From the day he first walked upon the field up to his passing he set his eyes upon a certain goal along the road of honesty, cleanness, service and loyalty, and nothing could swerve him from the path. Others have been idols of a city. Here was a nation-wide idol who at no second of his career ever stepped into the mire. He walked upon clean ground from his first public appearance to the Pennsylvania grave that will hold his dust.

A total of 88 football players have been inducted into the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame. In addition, 13 coaches have been honored, including three—Bob Odell, Edward "Hook" Mylin and Carl Snavely—who were enshrined in national halls of fame. Notably, five of the players inducted served as football coaches at Bucknell.

All 10 members of Bucknell's first Athletics Hall of Fame class, which was inducted in 1979, had ties to the football program: Arda Bowser 1923, W. Clarke Hinkle 1932, George K. James 1932, William H. Lane 1945, Christopher Mathewson Jr. 1902, Harry E. McCormick 1904, Thomas G. Mitchell 1966, Malcolm E. Musser 1918, Edward C. Myers 1934 and Andrew R.E. Wyant 1892.

The most recent football inductee was Luke Rohrbaugh '71, who was inducted with the 46th class in 2024.

NATIONAL HALL OF FAME MEMBERS

Carl Snavely and Edward "Hook" Mylin are members of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Helms Hall of Fame. Snavely went 42-16-8 at Bucknell from 1927-33 and also coached at Cornell, North Carolina and Washington (Mo.) University. Mylin, who succeeded Snavely, coached Bucknell's Orange Bowl championship team.

• Bob Odell, who coached Bucknell to Lambert Cup titles in 1960 and 1964, was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1992 in honor of his remarkable career at Penn.

RALPH RUCKER has virtually rewritten the passing section of the Bucknell record book in just three seasons with the Bison. Became the all-time leader in passing touchdowns (46). He broke 10 school records in 2024 alone, and in the season finale vs. Colgate, he became the first QB in team history to throw for 400 yards in a game.

BISON LEGENDS: Two-year captain Alex Pechin will go down as one of the most decorated football players in school history. During his legendary career, he was named to a staggering 15 All-America teams, most notably becoming the Patriot League's 14th consensus All-American in 2019. He also excelled in the classroom, capturing the 2019 STATS FCS Doris Robinson Scholar-Athlete Award and a record three-straight Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year nods. He graduated ranked fifth in FCS history in career punting average (44.5) and seventh in single-season punting average (47.3, 2019). He also owns Bucknell's career record and top four single-season marks in punting average.

BUCKNELL'S ALL-TIME
1,000-YARD RUSHERS

BISON LEGENDS: "Touchdown Twins" Brad Myers (L) and Burt Talmage (R) both eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards to lead Bucknell to a 9-0 record in 1951. Here, they celebrate with head coach Harry Lawrence after the 33-6 victory over Delaware that clinched the perfect season.

To this day, they remain the only set of Bison teammates to rush for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

BUCKNELL FOOTBALL'S TEAM OF THE 2010s

The Bucknell football program presented its All-Decade Team for the 2010s, as selected by Bison Nation through fan polls on BucknellBison.com, in August 2020.

Among the honorees were six All-Americans: DL Abdullah Anderson, LB Evan Byers, OL Julién Davenport, DB Clayton Ewell, P Alex Pechin and DB Bryce Robertson. Other headliners include DL Josh Eden, an FCS record holder, QB R.J. Nitti, RB C.J. Williams and WR Will Carter, among the top offensive threats in school history, and eight defensive players who rank in the Bison's top 10 in their respective statistical categories.

Anderson, Davenport, Simeon Page and Pechin represent four of Bucknell's five four-time All-Patriot League honorees.

Six of Bucknell's All-Decade honorees made three All-Patriot League teams: Byers, DL Robert De La Rosa, Eden, TE/FB Travis Friend, LB Simeon Page and LB Mark Pyles. All of Eden's nods were to the First Team.

BLAKE LEAKE

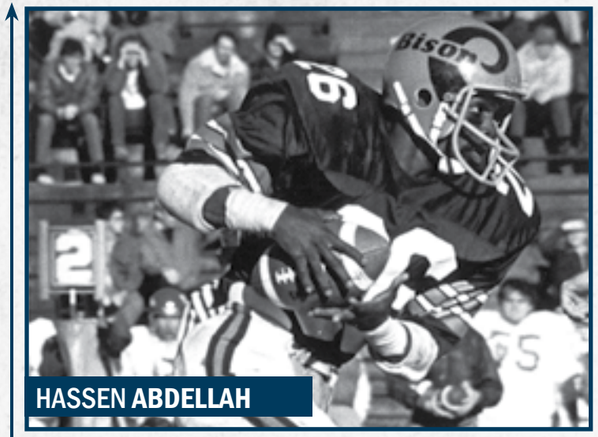

Bold denotes multi-year captains
* captains selected at the end of the season

BISON LEGENDS: George Young earned 1951 Little All-America honors after leading Bucknell to a 9-0 season, the program's most recent undefeated campaign. Then, he played one season with the Dallas Texans before breaking into the front office ranks with the Baltimore Colts in 1968. He held several positions in that organization before becoming the Miami Dolphins' director of personnel and pro scouting in 1974.

Young was named the New York Giants' general manager in 1979. In his 19 years with the organization, he helped the Giants win the Super Bowl in 1986 and 1990. The winner of the NFL's Executive of the Year Award an unprecedented five times, Young became the NFL's Senior Vice President of Football Operations in 1998.

Young was inducted into the Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame in 1980 and into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the Centennial Class of 2020.

 In 1943 and 1944, some servicemen stationed at Bucknell as part of the V-12 program participated in the intercollegiate athletic program. Since they were not regularly enrolled at Bucknell, they did not receive varsity letters, but they did receive a special wartime award, the "Minor B."*

BISON LEGENDS: In the 2017 NFL Draft, Julién Davenport was selected by the Houston Texans during the fourth round. He was the first Bison since Sam Havrilak (1969, Baltimore Colts) to be drafted and the seventh overall.

As a senior, Davenport was recognized as an All-America by multiple organizations, including the AP and AFCA. He also became Bucknell’s second four-time All-Patriot League honoree.

BISON LEGENDS: A member of the College Football Hall of Fame, Bob Odell helmed the Bison football program through one of its greatest eras in the late 1950s and early 1960s.

Odell (far left) led the 1960 and 1964 teams to Lambert Cup championships as the top college football team in the East. During his playing days at Pennsylvania, he won the Maxwell Trophy and was runner-up for the 1943 Heisman Trophy.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON-MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Bucknell football team plays its home games in a picturesque, 100-year-old stadium that pays tribute to its university's numerous war veterans and one of its most distinguished alumni.

The stadium, dedicated in 1924 in honor of Bucknellians who served the United States during the Civil War, Spanish-American War and World War I, was renovated and renamed in 1989 to recognize perhaps Bucknell's most honored alumnus and one of the true heroes of American sports.

Christy Mathewson was one of the five original members of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. but gained his initial athletic fame as a fullback, punter and dropkicker at Bucknell from 1898 to 1900.

One of the truly outstanding players of his era, Mathewson kicked a point-after touchdown in the first varsity game of his freshman year and in the next three years added 13 touchdowns and eight field goals.

Mathewson gained national attention when he dropkicked two field goals against Pennsylvania in 1899 and added a 45-yard field goal against Army the following year. As a result, he was named the "12th man" on Walter Camp's 1900 All-America team.

The facility that bears Mathewson's name has seen plenty of transformation over the last few decades, with the most recent additions coming as part of the new Pascucci Family Athletics Complex. A brand-new, high-definition video board was installed prior to the 2021 season, and a new FieldTurf practice field was completed adjacent to the stadium the following year. The final piece was the Michael C. Pascucci Team Center, which opened in 2024. The facility is located on the north end of the stadium, adjacent to the practice fields, and houses a strength and conditioning center, sports medicine center, and team meeting and event space.

In 1988, the horseshoe edifice was totally resurfaced, new seating was added, and the iconic "BUCKNELL" shrubbery was added to the south end. New concession stands, restrooms, ticket booths and souvenir stands were added a year later, along with an eight-lane, all-weather track, which was resurfaced in 2019.

The FieldTurf playing surface was initially installed in the summer of 2001 as a gift from Norm Garrity '63 and his wife, Mary Lou (Roepel) '64. That surface was replaced in 2012 and 2024 with state-of-the-art synthetic grass. Notably, Bucknell was one of the first Division I schools to install FieldTurf as a full-time playing surface in a football stadium.

In 2024, Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium celebrated its 100th year. Turn to the following pages for pictures from the historic stadium's 10 decades of competition.
