NO. 18/17 CALIFORNIA GOLDEN BEARS (5-1, 0-0 Pac-12)

The Cal Classic, presented this year by Four Points Sheraton, is back in Haas Pavilion for the 37th year and features No. 18/17 Cal plus Saint Mary's, Sacramento State and Villanova.

The action gets underway Saturday in a battle between two Bay Area squads in Cal vs. Saint Mary's at 2 p.m., followed by Sacramento State vs. Villanova at 4 p.m. The winner of each of the two games advances to Sunday's championship game, set for 3 p.m. A consolation game will be played prior to the championship game at 1 p.m.

A live stream will be available for all games in which Cal is playing in on CalBears.com. Live stats can also be accessed at CalBears.com. Follow the @CalWBball twitter and Instagram accounts for updates along with behind-the-scenes photos and information.

BEAR NECESSITIES: CAL'S TOP STORYLINES, STREAKS & TRENDS

RANKINGS ROUNDUP

With a loss to then-No. 10 Texas A&M in week three of the season, Cal fell two spots in both polls this week to No. 17 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 18 in the Associated Press poll.

A LOOK AT SAINT MARY'S

Series Record: Cal leads, 7-5
Previous Meeting: Cal won, 89-41, on Nov. 15, 2012
The Gaels' Last Outing: Lauren Nicholson and Devon Brookshire combined to score 43 points for the Gaels, but Saint Mary's fell to 78-71 in overtime against UC Davis on Thursday in Moraga. A strong fourth quarter by the Gaels forced overtime, but UC Davis pulled ahead 69-62 with two minutes remaining before Saint Mary's caught up for a 72-71 score. Opportune free throws for the Aggies downed the Gaels. Megan McKay made her first collegiate start for Saint Mary's.
 • The Gaels are averaging 78.7 points per game, a +5.8 margin over their opponents. Nicholson leads with 18.4 points. Sydney Raggio is averaging 14.9 ppg and 8.6 rpg, while Brookshire is also in duobles figures with 13.3 ppg.
 The Gaels have played two overtime games this season, splitting their record 1-1 with a win over Fresno State and the loss to UC Davis.

WE ARE CALIFORNIA

When referring to any California athletic team, please use either "California" or "Cal" to denote the institution and "Golden Bears" or "Bears" when indicating the mascot. Refrain from using names such as UC Berkeley, California-Berkeley, Cal-Berkeley, or Cal State Berkeley, or Lady Bears when referring to women's teams.

LAST TIME OUT

Cal split its South Point Shootout weekend, going 1-1 with a loss to No. 10 Texas A&M and a win over Liberty. Against the Aggies, Kristine Anigwe was the lone Bear to record double-figure points, scoring a career-high 23 and notching 12 rebounds in her first career double-double. Anigwe nearly net her second consecutive double-double in Cal's victory over Liberty, falling just one board shy. Mikayla Cowling had a career day against the Lady Flames, recording a personal-best 22 points. Anigwe was named to the South Point Shootout All-Tournament Team.

ANIGWE AT IT AGAIN

Kristine Anigwe became just the second Golden Bear to pick up multiple Pac-12 Freshman of the Week awards after picking up her second honor of the season this week following a strong performance at the South Point Shootout. Anigwe averaged a double-double with 19.5 points per game and 10.5 rebounds per game. She recorded her first collegiate double-double against the 10th-ranked Aggies and nearly did it again against Liberty, coming just one rebound shy of the mark. She finished the weekend shooting .522 with an .833 clip from the free throw line.

The Phoenix, Ariz. product finished the weekend averaging a team-best 19.5 ppg and 10.5 rpg, shooting .522 with an impressive .833 clip from the free throw line.

NEXT UP

The Bears continue their five-game homestand with game No. 3 of the slate against Nebraska on Saturday, Dec. 12 at 5 p.m. Dec. 12 is one of two doubleheader days for Cal's basketball programs as Cal men's basketball takes on Saint Mary's at noon in Haas.

BEARS SWEEP PAC-12 WEEKLY HONORS IN FIRST WEEK

Golden Bear players swept the first of the weekly Pac-12 women's basketball honors as junior Courtney Range was voted Player of the Week and rookie Kristine Anigwe earned a Freshman of the Week nod. Range averaged a near double-double in the opening weekend of play with 21 points and 9 rebounds per game, including a team-high 19 points in Cal's upset of No. 8 Louisville. Anigwe racked up 19 points of her own against the Cardinals on top of eight rebounds, added to 11 points and another eight boards against Austin Peay State. Against Louisville, Anigwe was nearly unstoppable, shooting at a near-perfect 8-10 clip from the floor.

FOURTH-PLACE FINISHERS

The Golden Bears are predicted to finish fourth in the Pac-12 this season, according to both the preseason Pac-12 Coaches Poll and the Preseason Media Poll.

Both the media and coaches expect Oregon State to defend its regular-season title, garnering 23 first-place votes in the media poll and 11 from coaches.

BACK FOR THE BEARS

The Bears return two starters in sophomores Gabby Green and Mikayla Cowling, with Green averaging 6.7 points in 33.2 minutes per game while making all 34 starts last season. Cowling is the leading scorer among all five returners, averaging 10.0 points per game with a .493 shooting percentage in 2014-15. Also returning for the Bears is junior Courtney Range, whose sophomore campaign was hampered due to injury. Range averaged 8.7 points per game in 27 appearances. Veteran Penina Davidson, a sophomore who also saw time in all 34 games as a rookie, and junior KC Waters, who made 16 appearances last season, round out the returning class.

THE NEWCOMERS

Cal's 2015 class, ranked eighth in the country by ESPN.com, features five newcomers to the Golden Bear program. The player with the chance to make the most immediate impact is Arizona's Kristine Anigwe, a two-time gold medalist with USA Basketball and McDonald's All-American, ranked No. 8 overall in her class by ESPN HoopGurlz and the No. 1 post player. Anigwe is joined by 6-7 center Chen Yue, No. 51 in the rankings, plus guard Asha Thomas (No. 57, Prospects Nation), wing MaAne' Mosley (No. 81, Prospects Nation) and guard Breanna Cavanaugh (No. 81, ESPN HoopGurlz).

CAVANAUGH OUT WITH CONCUSSION

Freshman Breanna Cavanaugh is out indefinitely after suffering a concussion before preseason. Cavanaugh is not enrolled in classes and has not been involved in team activities but is expected to return once she is fully recovered.

SUCCESS UNDER GOTTLIEB

The Golden Bears have enjoyed unprecedented success in head coach Lindsay Gottlieb's time at the helm. In her second season, Gottlieb helped Cal to its first Pac-12 Regular-Season Championship (2012-13) and the program's first-ever Elite Eight and Final Four appearances. Under Gottlieb, the Bears have not finished lower than third in the Pac-12 any season of her head coaching tenure. She posted the most wins in a four-year period of any Golden Bear women's basketball coach, and is one of only three coaches in the Pac-12 (Tara VanDerveer, Charli Turner Thorne) to reach 100 wins at their respective institutions. Additionally, Gottlieb has coached four Cal players to six All-America seasons: Brittany Boyd (2015, 2014); Reshanda Gray (2015); Layshia Clarendon (2013, 2012); Gennifer Brandon (2013), with four WNBA Draft selections since 2012-13.

BLUE & GOLD GO RED, WHITE & BLUE

Cal has three players on its current roster who have competed internationally for USA Basketball: Kristine Anigwe, Gabby Green and Courtney Range. Anigwe claimed back-to-back gold medals at the 2014 FIBA U17 and 2015 FIBA U19 world championships, on top of a silver medal from the 2015 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Championship. Green competed at both the 2013 FIBA U18 3x3 and FIBA U19 world championships, claiming gold at both events. Range is also a gold medalist for Team USA in six appearances for the 2015 World University Games squad.

Former Cal players Reshanda Gray, Justine Hartman, Alexis Gray-Lawson, Devanei Hampton, Trisha Stafford, Cynthia Cooke and Karen Smith all represented the U.S. Current head coach Lindsay Gottlieb is a member of the USA Junior National Team Committee, which selects teams for various international competitions.

HOME SWEET HAAS

Thanks to a generous $10 million gift from the Evelyn and Walter A. Haas Jr. Fund, Cal's home arena Haas Pavilion received a slew of improvements prior to the start of the 2015-16 season. The arena's latest upgrades include a new center-hung scoreboard with additional LED display boards throughout the arena, an enhanced sound system, an enlarged, modernized video control room and state-of-the-art dynamic lighting system for the arena.

NO. 1 IN THE CLASSROOM

Generally considered the top-ranked public university in the world, Cal has held the No. 1 spot among the U.S. News & World Report rankings of public national universities for 17 consecutive years. In its Best Global Universities ratings, U.S. News places Cal third overall behind only Harvard and MIT.

EYE ON THE NLI'S

Cal's 2016-17 squad is in solid shape with the addition of two four-star prepsters who inked NLI's at the start of the early signing period. Cal Sparks teammates Jaelyn Brown and Celeste Joi 'CJ' West will join the Bears next season.

Brown (Murrieta, Calif.) is the nation's 10th-ranked wing and No. 54 overall according to ESPN HoopGurlz, averaging a career 16. ppg, 10.5 rpg, 3.4 spg, 2.7 apg and 1.2 bpg entering her senior season at Vista Murrieta High School.

The No. 15 post player in the 2016 class, West (Bakersfield, Calif.) has turned in more than 1,500 points and 1,500 rebounds in three seasons at Garces Memorial High School. As a junior, West put up 18.8 points, 14.3 rebounds, 2.1 bks, 1.8 steals and 1.1 assists per game.

HEAD COACH LINDSAY GOTTLIEB

Many coaches struggle to find the right balance between success on the court and success in the classroom while empowering student-athletes to enjoy their experiences and letting their individual personalities shine. In four short years as the head coach at California, Lindsay Gottlieb has shown the ability to find the perfect balance in Berkeley by taking the program to unprecedented heights since being hired on April 25, 2011.

Since Gottlieb earned her first head coaching job in 2008-09, only nine coaches have taken their team to an NCAA Final Four appearance, with Gottlieb becoming the eighth coach on that list after leading her 2012-13 California squad to a 32-4 record that included the program's first Pac-12 regular season championship as well as the first Elite Eight and Final Four bids in 40 years of California women's basketball. Doing so in her second season in Berkeley, Gottlieb became just the seventh coach in the country since 1990 to coach her team to the Final Four in her first two seasons at the helm of a program. The Bears have followed the success of the historical 2012-13 season with an NCAA Tournament bid each year since.

Gottlieb's most recent season saw the Bears log another 20-win campaign after finishing at 24-10 overall and 13-5 in Pac-12 play. Cal tied for third in the Pac-12, reached the championship game of the conference tournament and earned a second-round berth in the NCAA Tournament. The season also saw Gottlieb notch her 100th Cal win, becoming the quickest coach in program history to reach the 100-win mark. She joined Tara VanDerveer and Charli Turner Thorne as the only head coaches in the Pac-12 with at least 100 wins at their respective institutions.

Following Cal's 2014-15 NCAA Tournament run, seniors Brittany Boyd and Reshanda Gray became the first Golden Bear duo to be selected in the same year of the WNBA Draft, with Boyd going No. 9 to the New York Liberty and Gray selected by the Minnesota Lynx at No. 16. California has now had at least one player drafted in each of the last three seasons, the only Pac-12 program to hold that distinction.

In her third season in Berkeley, 2013-14, Gottlieb guided Cal to a 22-10 record and third consecutive NCAA Tournament berth after finishing as the conference runner-up. With another 20-win season under her belt, Gottlieb became the winningest Cal women's basketball coach over a three-year period, notching a 79-24 record.

The 2012-13 season was a record-breaking season for the Golden Bears that culminated in Gottlieb being named a finalist for the prestigious Naismith National Coach of the Year award in addition to the media selecting Gottlieb as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year after she led her team to a 17-1 conference record.

Earning praise for her ability to gameplan and make in-game adjustments, 2012-13 also marked the year that Gottlieb became just the fifth coach to win a Pac-12 title in her first two seasons as a head coach in the conference. She is the only active coach in the conference to lead her team to a road victory at Stanford's Maples Pavilion, a feat she accomplished with a 67-55 victory on January 13, 2013 that ended the Cardinal's 81-game conference winning streak and announced California's ascension into the conference and national championship discussions.

Gottlieb's Bears reeled off a program-record 15 consecutive wins to end the regular season and earn a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament. In a run that surpassed the combined NCAA Tournament win total of all previous California head coaches, Gottlieb led her team to victories over Fresno State, South Florida, LSU and Georgia to reach the 2013 Final Four. She holds a career NCAA Tournament record of 7-5 in five appearances – once as the head coach at UC Santa Barbara and four times at California.

Leading teams to success in the postseason isn't her only specialty though. In her four seasons at California, Gottlieb has amassed a 103-34 record – more California-bests by setting new marks for most wins in a two-year, three-year, and four-year period in Berkeley. Already the first coach to win 20 games in her first season with the Bears, her program-record 32 wins in the 2012-13 marked just the 12th time in conference history that a team surpassed the 30-win barrier, going down as the seventh-best single-season win total in Pac-12 history.

Utilizing an up-tempo, attractive brand of basketball, Gottlieb's approach has helped revitalize West Coast women's basketball with guard Layshia Clarendon thriving under Gottlieb's system en route to being selected No. 9 by the Indiana Fever in the 2013 WNBA Draft as the first player based on the West Coast to be selected. Clarendon twice earned All-America honors in two years playing under Gottlieb and was selected as the Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year. In total at California, Gottlieb has coached players to six All-America seasons in four years with Clarendon earning honors in 2012 and 2013, Gennifer Brandon in 2013, Boyd in 2014 and 2015 and Gray in 2015.

In her first season at the helm in Berkeley in 2011-12, Gottlieb took Cal back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2009 with her Bears advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Gottlieb also led the Bears to a second place Pac-12 finish in her inaugural season, just the third time since joining the Pac-10 in its inaugural season (1985-86) that the Bears finished in second place and it was only the second time that Cal has finished with sole possession of second.

Getting A Start At UCSB

Before returning to Cal where she spent three years as an assistant to Joanne Boyle, Gottlieb spent three seasons as the head coach at the University of California at Santa Barbara from 2008-11. In her three seasons with UCSB, Gottlieb led the Gauchos to two postseason berths and a pair of Big West Conference championships, amassing a 56-39 (.589) record. Previously, she spent two seasons as a Cal assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach in 2007-08.

In 2010-11, Gottlieb guided the Gauchos to their second Big West title in her three seasons at the helm, amassing a 19-12 record (12-4 in the Big West) before falling in the first round of the WNIT to USC. Gottlieb's first team in 2008-09 amassed a 22-10 overall record and a 15-1 mark in the Big West, claiming the conference's regular-season and tournament crowns to earn an NCAA Tournament appearance. As a result, she was named the 2009 Big West Coach of the Year. Gottlieb was the first-ever coach at UCSB to win 20 games in her first season and became one of only seven active coaches nationwide to win 20 games in her first year and also be named Coach of the Year.

Other accolades for Gottlieb include becoming the first coach in UCSB history to win her first 11 conference games and the first coach in school annals to finish her inaugural season with a winning record.

In 2010-11, Gottlieb led the Gauchos to their 18th consecutive winning season and the team won at least 20 games for the 12th time in the past 14 years. The Gauchos led the Big West in both field goal percentage (43.2 percent) and field goal percentage defense (35.4 percent) as well as being tops in the conference in rebounding (40.2 per game).

Under her tutelage, UCSB ranked in the nation's top 10 in field goal percentage defense and the top 20 in points allowed per game while setting a school record in free throw percentage in the 2008-09 season.

Following her time at UCSB, Gottlieb became the ninth head coach for the California Golden Bears women's basketball program by replacing Boyle, who resigned her position to take over the head coaching duties at the University of Virginia.

First Run In Berkeley

Gottlieb initially joined the Cal staff as an assistant coach in 2005-06, a position she held for two seasons before being elevated to associate head coach in 2007-08. During her time in Berkeley, she worked with all aspects of the program, including recruiting and scouting, and served as the team's academic liaison.

Gottlieb was integral to the development of Cal's post players, including Devanei Hampton, the 2006-07 Pac-10 Player of the Year and a two-time All-Pac-10 selection, and Ashley Walker, an All-American and Cal's first player to be selected in the first round of the WNBA draft.

In Gottlieb's inaugural year as an assistant in Berkeley, Cal posted its first winning record (18-12) in 13 years and received its first NCAA Tournament berth since 1993. In 2006-07, Gottlieb helped Cal register a 23-9 mark - one win shy of equaling the school's win record at the time - and earn another bid to the NCAA Tournament. Cal's 2007-08 squad made the program's first-ever appearance in the Pac-10 Tournament championship game and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

East Coast Beginnings

Gottlieb spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Richmond under Boyle before the two came to Cal. The Spiders posted 20-plus wins each year and advanced to the postseason three times. In 2004-05, Richmond finished with a 23-8 record and earned the program's first NCAA Tournament berth in 14 years. The Spiders were invited to the 2003 and 2004 WNIT.

Prior to Gottlieb's stint at Richmond, she served as an assistant coach at New Hampshire in 2001-02 under head coach Sue Johnson.

Before joining the New Hampshire staff, Gottlieb was an assistant coach for two years at Syracuse with Marianna Freeman at the helm. In addition to her coaching duties for the Big East program, Gottlieb was the assistant director of the school's girls' basketball camp. While at Syracuse, she earned her Master's degree in Philosophy of Education.

Gottlieb obtained additional coaching expertise with the Westchester Basketball Association AAU program and Kutsher's Sports Academy.

The Scarsdale, N.Y., native graduated from Brown in 1999 with a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Political Science and was a member of the women's basketball team. Gottlieb was a student assistant coach during the 1998-99 campaign and received the Team Heart and Soul Award in 1999.

CAREER HONORS

- 2x Pac-12 Freshman of the Week (11/16 & 11/30)

- Started all but one game this season
- Two-time Pac-12 Freshman of the Week; One of only 2 Bears to earn multiple FOTW honors
- Has scored in double figures in every game this season
- Recorded her first career double-double with 23 points and 12 rebounds vs. No. 10 Texas A&M
- Was one board shy of her second consecutive double-double in a 16-point, 9-rebound performance vs. Liberty
- Cal debut: One of four Bears in double figures with 11 points and 1 of 2 freshmen to start against Austin Peay State

HIGH SCHOOL

- Gatorade Arizona Player of the Year, Parade Magazine All-American and USA Today All-USA Arizona Big Schools Player of the Year in 2015
- 2015 McDonald's All-American and the lone female player to participate in the 2015 McDonald's All-American Game dunk contest
- Rated No. 8 overall by ESPN HoopGurlz as the No. 1 post player in the country and ranked in the Top 30 nationally by Blue Star Basketball (No. 15), Prospects Nation (No. 9) and All Star Girls Report (No. 29)
- Two-time gold medalist with the 2014 USA Basketball U17 World Championship team and U19s in 2015
- Led Desert Vista High School by averaging 21.1 points, 11.3 rebounds, 1.9 steals, 2.7 blocks and 1.0 assists per game as a senior.

BEAR BITES

- Much of her focus and motivation when it comes to basketball comes from wanting to make her grandmother proud. Describes herself as her grandmother's "trophy granddaughter," as she often brags about Kristine.
- Is able to dunk, a skill she recently acquired. She figured out she had enough "bounce" in her senior year of high school. As the lone girl of the 24 female attendees at the McDonald's All-American game entered into the dunk contest, she was nervous to do it. She was not able to dunk during the contest, but plans to do it during Cal games if she has the opportunity.
- Both of her parents are Nigerian and she was born in London

2015-16 BOX SCORES

GAME 5: No. 10 Texas A&M 75, No. 16 California 58 Nov. 27, 2015 - Las Vegas, Nev.

Kristine Anigwe's first collegiate double-double wasn't enough to lift Cal past Texas A&M as the Aggies handed the Golden Bears their first loss of the season, 75-58. Anigwe (8-15) scored a career-high 23 points and added 12 boards in the loss. She was the only player in double figures for the Bears, followed by nine points from junior KC Waters (4-4), who notched all her points in the last eight minutes of the game.
