COACHES BIOS

WYKING JONES

Head Coach
Loyola Marymount '95
First Season at California

With more than 15 years of collegiate coaching experience, Wyking Jones was introduced as California's head coach on March 24, 2017.

Prior to his tenure as head coach, Jones served as an assistant coach at Cal for two seasons under Cuonzo Martin in 2015-16 and 2016-17.

Charged with coaching Cal's big men, Jones helped forward Ivan Rabb become a two-time All-Pac-12 performer and Jaylen Brown earn All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 Freshman of the Year honors in 2015-16. In addition, center Kingsley Okoroh set a school record with 74 blocks in 2016-17.

In his first season with the Golden Bears, Jones helped steer Cal to the program's first NCAA Tournament bid since 2013 and the program's highest tournament seeding, a No. 4 seed. Cal's defense earned top marks, leading the Pac-12 with just 67.3 points allowed per game and finishing in the top three for rebounding. The Bears went 23-11 and extended their home winning streak to 19 games, dating back to the 2014-2015 season.

The Bears continued their success in 2016-17 by pushing their home winning streak to a program-record 27 games and once again led the league in defense, limiting opponents to 63.4 ppg and 40.0 percent shooting. Cal finished the season with a 21-13 record and earned the top seed in the National Invitation Tournament.

Throughout his career, Jones has also been instrumental in the development of 11 current and former NBA players, including standout Golden Bear Jaylen Brown, plus Terry Rozier, Gorgui Dieng, Montrezl Harrell, Tony Snell, Russ Smith and Peyton Siva.

Jones, a native of Inglewood, Calif., returned to his home state with 12 years of experience as a coach at the collegiate level and was introduced as Martin's assistant on April 23, 2015. He joined the Golden Bears' staff after serving as an assistant coach at Louisville for four seasons. During his time on the Cardinals' coaching staff, UofL's combined record was 123-30. Louisville captured the 2013 NCAA Championship and reached two Final Fours over the past four seasons. The Cardinals completed the 2014-15 season with a 27-9 record, reaching the NCAA Tournament regional final.

Prior to Louisville, Jones served two seasons on the coaching staff at New Mexico where the Lobos won 52 games in two seasons, including a school-record 30-win campaign in 2010. New Mexico finished the 2010 season ranked eighth in the Associated Press national poll.

Jones served as an assistant coach for five seasons from 2002-

TIM O'TOOLE

Associate Head Coach
Fairfield '87
Second Season at California

Tim O'Toole, who brings nearly 25 years of collegiate experience, including eight years as a head coach, became Cal's associate head coach in April 2017. O'Toole was elevated to associate head coach under Wyking Jones after joining the basketball staff as an assistant on April 28, 2016.

O'Toole's career has featured stops at such universities as Syracuse, Duke and Stanford, as well as a stint as head coach at Fairfield University from 1998-2006.

In his first season in Berkeley, O'Toole helped guide Cal to the Pac-12's best field goal defense and top scoring defense. He was crucial in the development of Cal's front court, including single-season blocks leader Kingsley Okoroh and Kameron Rooks.

Prior to his time in Berkeley, he spent the three seasons at Stanford where he helped the Cardinal to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2014 and a National Invitation Tournament championship in 2015.

While at the helm of Fairfield, his alma mater, O'Toole guided the Stags to 19 wins in both 2001-02 and 2002-03, with an NIT berth in 2003. Honored as the 2004 MAAC Coach of the Year, he posted a career record of 112-121.

O'Toole began his career as a graduate assistant at Fordham in 1987 and spent two years at the school before moving to Army as an assistant coach for one season in 1989-91. The following year, he served as an assistant at Iona, helping the squad to the MAAC Tournament finals.

From 1991-95, O'Toole served as an assistant coach at Syracuse under Jim Boeheim. During his tenure, the Orange earned three NCAA Tournament berths, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 1994, and captured the 1992 Big East title.

O'Toole then spent two seasons with Mike Krzyzewski as an assistant at Duke, culminated by an ACC crown in 1997 and including the No. 1 recruiting class in the country with Elton Brand, Shane Battier, William Avery and Chris Burgess joining the program. Following one year at Seton Hall, O'Toole landed the head coaching position at Fairfield.

O'Toole made his second stop at Syracuse as director of basketball operations in 2012-13, a season that coincided with the Orange returning to the Final Four, before becoming assistant coach at Stanford in 2013.

A native of White Plains, N.Y., O'Toole earned his bachelor's degree in economics and political science from Fairfield in 1987 and his MBA in finance from Fordham in 1990. Both degrees were put to use in financial planning as managing director for Look Capital, an investment management company, as president of Allied Effort, a motivational consulting company, and as an adjunct professor at Fordham's Graduate School of Business teaching management, leadership and sales courses.

Honored as the Fairfield Male Athlete of the Year in 1987, O'Toole was a four-year letterwinner in basketball, leading the Stags to a pair of MAAC championships and back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. He also competed for the lacrosse team, going undefeated in 1986-87.

O'Toole and his wife, Joanie have three children, Collin, Jameson and Christine.

CHRIS WALKER

Assistant Coach
Villanova '92
First Season at California

Chris Walker joined the California men's basketball coaching staff in April 2017.

Walker owns nearly two decades of coaching experience and has been a part of four NCAA Tournament squads with eight total postseason appearances. He has coached four NBA Draft selections - Brandon Armstrong (Pepperdine), Michael Bradley (Villanova), J.R. Giddens (New Mexico) and Dan Langhi (Vanderbilt).

Prior to joining the Golden Bears, Walker worked as a consultant for Under Armour and as a color analyst for CBS Sports Network and the American Sports Network.

Walker served as the interim head coach at Texas Tech for the 2012-13 season. Under his direction, the Red Raiders improved in nine statistical categories, including points per game, steals and assists. Texas Tech led the Big 12 in steals and ranked 41st in the country while posting improved overall and conference records. Off the court, five student-athletes were named Academic All-Big 12 members. Walker joined the Texas Tech staff in 2011 as the associate head coach, signing three ESPN Top 150 recruits as the program's lead recruiting coordinator.

Before arriving in Lubbock, he spent two seasons at his alma mater – Villanova – under Jay Wright. Walker was responsible for on-court teaching and development, recruiting and scouting, helping the Wildcats to a 46-20 record with a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament. Villanova recorded its best start in school and Big East history (20-0) and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Walker helped the Wildcats sign the nation's second-ranked recruiting class, including McDonald's All-American JayVaughn Pinkston. Walker also assisted Wright on the 2010 USA Select Team.

Walker spent two seasons at the University of New Mexico as an assistant for current UCLA head coach Steve Alford from 2007-09, contributing to a turnaround in which the Lobos went from eighth in a nine-team Mountain West Conference in 2007 to a share of the conference title in 2009. As the team's recruiting coordinator, he landed a top 30 recruiting class and coached All-American and eventual Boston Celtics first-round pick J.R. Giddens.

Walker's career also includes stops as an assistant at UMass under Steve Lappas, who he also coached with at Villanova in 2000-01, and as an associate head coach at Pepperdine (1999-00) and Vanderbilt (1996-99). In his single season in Malibu, Pepperdine clinched the West Coast Conference regular-season title and an at-large bid in the NCAA Tournament.

He began his coaching career at Loyola Marymount in 1992, where he helped the Lions improve from eighth in the West Coast Conference in his first season to second four years later.

After a stellar prep career at Houston Milby High School, where he was a Converse All-American and an All-State and All-Greater Houston selection, Walker went on to Villanova in 1988 to play for head coach Rollie Massimino.

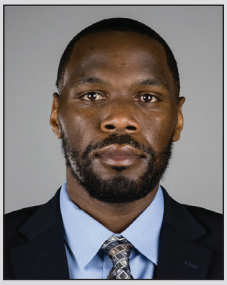

As a player, Walker started 96 games at point guard and helped the Wildcats to two NCAA Tournament appearances and two NIT appearances. His 404 career assists ranked seventh among program records and his 185 career steals ranked fourth. A two-time All-Big Five selection, he also competed in Russia and Finland, while representing the Big East All-Stars.

Walker graduated from Villanova in 1992 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications.

THEO ROBERTSON

Assistant Coach
California '10
First Season at California

Golden Bear great Theo Robertson, who led California to the 2010 Pac-10 title before joining the NBA staffs of the Golden State Warriors and the Los Angeles Lakers, rejoined the Bears as an assistant coach in April 2017.

A native of Pittsburg, Calif., Robertson returned to Berkeley after serving three seasons in the NBA, most recently as an assistant coach with the Lakers under Luke Walton. Before his stint with the Lakers, Robertson spent the previous two seasons with the Golden State Warriors, where he was part of the 2015 NBA Championship-winning program as the team's video intern, working with Steve Kerr's coaching staff assisting with game preparation. He was promoted to video coordinator/player development prior to the 2015-16 season, working on-court with players in addition to his game-planning responsibilities.

A two-year captain and standout forward in college, Robertson played for the Bears from 2006-10. He was a key part of Cal's 2010 Pac-10 championship team, earning team MVP honors after averaging 14.2 points per game. He finished his career as the school's all-time three-point shooter, making 44.0 percent of his attempts beyond the arc, and ranks among Cal's top 25 career scorers with 1,315 total points.

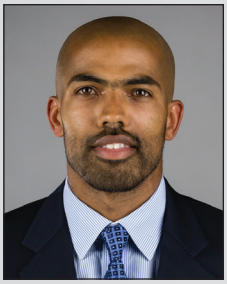

Following graduation, Robertson worked as an administrative fellow at the Pac-12 offices, where he assisted with the league's Sports Management and Championships team. He returned to Cal for two seasons under head coach Mike Montgomery, serving as a graduate manager before expanding his role as director of operations in the 2013-14 season. Under Montgomery, Robertson handled all aspects of administration, including coordinating team travel, developing recruiting databases and supporting the program from the competition and academic standpoints.

Robertson graduated from Cal in 2010 with a degree in social welfare.

COACHING CAREER

2017-present	Assistant Coach (California)
2016-17	Assistant Coach (LA Lakers - NBA)

JORDAN JACKSON

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach
CSU Northridge '16
First Season at California

Strength and Conditioning coach Jordan Jackson joined the Golden Bears in April 2017.

He came to Berkeley after serving as an assistant athletic performance coach for the UCLA men's and women's basketball programs from May 2015 to April 2017, where he designed workouts aimed at improving his student-athletes' speed, agility, acceleration, power and flexibility while implementing conditioning and recovery programs to allow their bodies to thrive throughout basketball season.

In addition to his responsibilities in the weight room, Jackson oversaw the Bruins' nutrition program, including managing training table meals and snacks and individualizing nutrition plans alongside the team dietitian.

Prior to his stint in Westwood, Jackson was an assistant sports performance coach at Cal State Northridge, working under the director of sports performance to develop offseason fitness programs for the CSUN basketball squad and creating individual conditioning program's for women's basketball.

A military veteran, Jackson served as an assistant command fitness leader with the United States Navy for nearly five years, working in both Nevada and Bahrain. He conducted daily physical training sessions for all command personnel and CPR trained more than 60 military members.

Jackson owns several certifications, including as an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, an ACSM Corrective Exercise Specialist and as an NASE Certified Speed and Explosion Specialist, as well as CPR and AED certifications from the American Health Care Academy.

He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and exercise science from Cal State Northridge and is currently pursuing a master's degree in exercise science with a focus on rehabilitation science from California University of Pennsylvania.

KEITH BROWN

Director of Basketball Operations
Hampton '93
First Season at California

Brown joins the Golden Bears following stops at Nevada, Coppin State, Seattle and Mount St. Mary's, where he worked in both coaching and administrative roles.

Brown most recently served as an assistant coach at Coppin State for the 2016-17, and prior to that he was special assistant to the head coach at Mount St. Mary's. As special assistant, Brown was responsible for analyzing team performance to aid with practice, game scouting and competition.

Before he joined the Mount, Brown was a six-year coach at Nevada, where he helped the Wolf Pack to the 2012 Western Athletic Conference title and a pair of National Invitation Tournament berths. While Brown was in Reno, the Pack posted two 20-win seasons, including a 28-7 record in 2012. Under his tutelage, Deonte Burton and Luke Babbitt earned WAC Player of the Year honors, and Babbitt and Armon Johnson were selected in the 2010 NBA Draft.

From 2006-09, Brown was an assistant coach at Seattle, helping the Redhawks to a 21-8 record in his final season. Prior to that, Brown spent four seasons as an assistant at Portland, assisting in the development of two-time all-conference selection Eugene Jeter.

A Los Angeles native, Brown was an assistant coach at El Camino College in Torrance, Calif., from 1998-2002 and spent three years as an assistant varsity coach at Inglewood High School. He also worked with AAU programs in Portland and Washington, D.C.

Brown played at El Camino College from 1988-90, leading his team to a pair of California Community College Final Four appearances. He spent one season playing at Hampton University in Hampton, Va., from 1991-92.

He and Jones share the same alma mater -- St. Bernard High School in Playa Del Rey, Calif.

Brown earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Hampton University in 1993 and his master's of education with an emphasis in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2000.

Brown and his wife, Robyne, have two daughters, Kennedy and Kensley.

CHRISTOPHER OAKES

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Wyking Jones welcomed Assistant Director of Operations Christopher Oakes to his staff in May 2017.

Among his duties assisting in day-to-day operations for the men's basketball program, Oakes used a rich background in education to oversee the Golden Bears' academics and tutoring.

The Oakland, Calif. native is a state credentialed educator in Public Health at his alma mater, Castlemont High School, where he has proved comprehensive classroom instruction, developed lesson plans and initiated classroom discussions on on global and national public health issues.

He has also served as a substitute teacher in the Monterey Unified School District and has dedicated his professional career to mentoring and serving young people, assisting at the Youth Uprising Community Center in Oakland in 2013 as a career coach and general education development instructor.

Oakes transferred to San Jose State from Pepperdine University in 2006, where he enjoyed a standout career as the starting center for the Spartans from 2008-10. He finished his San Jose State career second among program leaders in blocked shots and eighth in rebounds, collecting 661 boards. He received his Bachelor of Arts in African American Studies with a minor in Communications in 2010.

Following his career at San Jose State, Oakes played professional basketball with the Mittleduescher Basketball Club (MBC) in Germany from 2010-12.

Oakes added a Master's of Arts in Education and a California State Teaching Credential from UC Santa Cruz in July 2016.

STEPHANIE TOOVEY

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Stephanie Toovey returns for her second stint with the California men's basketball program, joining Wyking Jones' staff in April 2017.

She serves the Golden Bears following time in the Cal Athletics Compliance department and at the University of Auburn, where she served as the Director of Operations for the Tigers' swimming and diving teams.

From June 2015 to August 2016, Toovey oversaw all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the Auburn Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving programs, including budget management, travel, contract negotiations and staff supervision.

She returned to Cal in November 2016 to serve as the athletic department's Compliance Coordinator before re-joining the basketball program. Previously, Toovey was the Assistant Director of Operations for the men's basketball program from May 2014 to May 2015. Under former head coach Cuonzo Martin, she assisted in planning and booking team travel, managed day-to-day expenditures and scheduled team events, including community service, academic opportunities, practices and games.

Toovey got her start at Cal as an Olympic Sports Intern from July 2013 to May 2014, assisting in daily operational support for Cal's Aquatics and Women's Gymnastics programs as well as organizing and coordinating postseason events and travel.

Toovey graduated with a bachelor's degree in Psychology from UC Santa Barbara in 2012.

MITCH ELKINS

DIRECTOR, SCOUTING & VIDEO OPERATIONS

Mitch Elkins is in his sixth season on the California men's basketball staff and fourth season working with the program's video department. He was recently named Director of Scouting & Video Operations after serving as Video Coordinator for three years.

After serving as Operations Intern his first season and Assistant Director of Operations his second year in Berkeley, Elkins was elevated to Video Coordinator by Head Coach Cuonzo Martin prior to the 2014-15 season. He manages the program's scouting and recruiting film, as well as the practice and game film.

In Elkins' previous role, he worked with the Director of Operations in all aspects of the program, including scheduling, travel, program expenses, and provided assistance with additional day-to-day responsibilities.

Elkins arrived in Berkeley in 2012 from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he completed his undergraduate degree in Sports Management.

He graduated with honors and was a member of the Dean's List and three national honor societies.

During his time at Illinois, Elkins served as a manager for the Illini women's basketball program under former Head Coach Jolette Law for three seasons, serving as head manager his senior year. He also assisted with the football program's recruiting operations and worked with the university's development office as an ambassador with the I-Fund, the fund-raising arm of Illinois' athletic department.

Elkins originally joined the California athletic department in May of 2012 as an Olympic Sports Operations Intern, before moving over to become an Operations Intern for the men's basketball program.

BARRY PARSONS, MED ATC

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER

Barry Parsons is in his 11th season as an Associate Athletic Trainer overseeing the sports medicine needs of the California men's basketball program.

Parsons, who also works with the nationally-ranked men's rowing program at Cal, came to Berkeley in the fall of 2004 after five years as an assistant athletic trainer at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C. At Wofford, he assisted with the Terriers' football and men's basketball programs.

He also has experience working with the National Football League, assisting with the Carolina Panthers during training camp for five seasons.

Parsons was an Academic All-American as a wide receiver at Garden City Community College in Kansas, before he transferred to Kansas State, where he earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 1999. He later earned his master's degree in education from Converse College in South Carolina. During his time at Kansas State, Parsons served as a student athletic trainer for several of the Wildcats' athletic programs.

DR. LINDSAY HUSTON, M.D.

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Lindsay Huston joined the Cal sports medicine staff in 2013 and works as an associate team physician. She is the lead physician for the Golden Bear men's basketball team.

Prior to arriving at Cal, she served as the head team physician at Yale University.

Dr. Huston is a graduate of Stanford University, and the University of California, Davis Medical School. She received her fellowship training from the San Jose-O'Connor Sports Medicine Fellowship.

2016-17
YEAR IN REVIEW

In California's third and final year in the Cuonzo Martin era, the Golden Bears once again made their name as one of the country's toughest defensive squads as Cal posted a second 20-win season under Martin. The Bears went 21-13 and finished tied for fifth in the Pac-12 with a 10-8 record.

Sophomore Ivan Rabb's return boosted the Bears' prestige as Rabb was named an AP Preseason All-American and a candidate on the Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year, Lute Olson Award, Naismith Trophy and Wooden Award watch lists.

Cal went 9-3 in its nonconference campaign, with losses coming to San Diego State, Seton Hall and No. 12 Virginia while posting two overtime wins against UC Irvine and La Tech. Against the Anteaters, freshman phenom Charlie Moore scored 38 points to will his squad to the win and post a new freshman record. The Bears extended their home win streak to a new program record 27 consecutive games, dating back to March 1, 2015, before their 56-52 loss to Virginia snapped the streak.

The Bears' early Pac-12 campaign included an 81-65 thrashing of Arizona State and a win over 25th-ranked USC in Trojan territory on a final-second block by Rabb, who was named NCAA and Pac-12 Player of the Week for his efforts. On Jan. 14, senior Jabari Bird broke the 1,000-point barrier to become the 47th Golden Bear to score at least 1,000 career points.

Cal carried as much as a five-game win streak between Jan. 21 and Feb. 8, tallying a 9-3 conference record, before four road losses in six contests and a home loss to sixth-ranked Oregon to end the conference slate dropped the Bears to 10-8.

The Bears got back on track at the Pac-12 Tournament, topping Oregon State (67-62) in the first round and turning in a gritty win against Utah in the quarterfinals (78-75). Bird entered the semifinal matchup with Oregon averaging 23.0 points in the tournament before suffering a head injury in the first minute, and Cal fell 73-65 to end its run in Las Vegas.

An NIT first-round loss to CSU Bakersfield on March 14 was the final for a standout senior class that included Bird, Sam Singer, Stephen Domingo, Roger Moute a Bidias and Grant Mullins. Don Coleman tallied a career-best 26 points in the contest, and Kingsley Okoroh logged his 74th block of the season, making him the new program record holder for blocked shots in a single season.

Rabb led the way for a quartet of Bears who earned All-Pac-12 honors, with the sophomore standout earning first team All-Pac-12 laurels. Bird earned an all-conference honorable mention, Okoroh was an All-Defensive honorable mention and rookie Moore was an All-Freshman honorable mention. Singer, Domingo and Moute a Bidias were recognized for their efforts in the classroom as honorable mention selections on the Pac-12 All-Academic squad.

The offseason brought a flurry of activity, starting on March 15 with Martin's resignation as head coach for the Bears. Assistant coach Wyking Jones, who served under Martin for two seasons, was appointed interim head coach and ultimately named Cal's permanent head coach.

Among Cal's other departures were transfers by Moore (Kansas) and junior center Kameron Rooks (San Diego State) and a declaration to the NBA Draft by Ivan Rabb, totaling in a loss of eight letterwinners for the program.

In June, both Rabb and Bird were selected in the second round of the 2017 NBA Draft. Rabb was drafted by the Orlando Magic with rights immediately traded to the Memphis Grizzlies, while Bird was taken by the Boston Celtics.

CAL SETS HOME WIN STREAK RECORD

With 27 consecutive home wins from March 1, 2015 to Dec. 17, 2016, head coach Cuonzo Martin's Bear squads set the program record home-winning streak. Cal set the record with an 81-55 rout of Cal Poly on Dec. 17 before the record was snapped against No. 12 Virginia in a 56-52 loss on Dec. 21, 2016.

Cal's Longest Homecourt Win Streaks
1. 27 – March 1, 2015-Dec. 17, 2016
2. 26 – Dec. 27, 1958 to Dec. 16, 1960
3. 17 – Feb. 20, 2011 to Jan. 29, 2012 and Feb. 2, 2002 to Feb. 15, 2003

OKOROH SETS SINGLE-SEASON BLOCK RECORD

With one block in Cal's NIT game against CSU Bakersfield, Kingsley Okoroh became the program's new single-season blocked shots leader, bringing his total to 74 blocks in 2016-17. He surpassed David Kravish's 73 from 2014. Okoroh currently ranks third among Cal's career blocked shots leaders.

Cal Career Blocked Shots Leaders
1. David Kravish (2012-15) – 226
2. Michael Stewart (1994-97) – 207
3. Kingsley Okoroh (2014-present) – 135
4. DeVon Hardin (2005-08) – 132
5. Solomon Hughes (1999-02) – 122

Cal Single-Season Blocked Shots Leaders
1. Kingsley Okoroh (2017) – 73
2. David Kravish (2014) – 73
3. David Kravish (2013) – 63

RABB'S DOUBLE-DOUBLE STANDARDS

With 17 double-doubles in his sophomore campaign, Ivan Rabb brought his career double-double total to 29, the second-most by any Cal player in the last 20 seasons. He trailed only Sean Lampley (1st, 30), and tied with Leon Powe. Rabb eclipsed Ryan Anderson's career 24 double-doubles with a double-double against Arizona State on Feb. 11.

BIRD BREAKS BARRIER

Senior guard Jabari Bird broke the 1,000-point barrier on Jan. 14 against Washington State to become the 47th Golden Bear in program history to notch 1,000+ career points. With 997 points entering the game, Bird hit a free throw and then scored his lone field goal of the entire game in a make-or-break final minute. Bird sent a three-pointer into the net to put Cal ahead for good and bring his career point total to 1,001. Bird finished his four-year career with 1,227 points, which is 25th among Cal's 1,000-point scorers.

BIRD, THE LONG RANGER

Jabari Bird wrapped his California career among the best three-point shooters in program history. With five three-pointers at Oregon, the senior moved into the top 10 in program history for three-point field goals made, and finished his senior season ranked top 10 in three-pointer attempts and single-season three-pointers. Bird hit at least one three-pointer in a career-long 17 consecutive games from Dec. 17, 2016 to Feb. 22, 2017. He finished the regular season fourth in the Pac-12 in three-pointers made (58), and third in Pac-12 play with 44.

CHARLIE BUCKETS

Charlie Moore scored 38 points to break Shareef Abdur-Rahim's 20-year-old freshman scoring record en route to Cal's 75-65 overtime victory against UC Irvine. The Cal rookie went 10-20 from the field and an impressive 15-17 at the charity stripe to top Abdur-Rahim's Cal record of 33 points as a freshman, set against Northern Arizona on Nov. 25, 1995. Moore's points were the most by a Cal player since Jerome Randle had 39 at Washington State on Jan. 14, 2010, and the fourth-highest total among all freshmen in Pac-12 history. His 38 points were the fifth-most in NCAA Division I action, and the most by any Pac-12 player through two weeks of the season.

CAL QUARTET EARNS ALL-PAC-12 HONORS

Ivan Rabb led the way among four Golden Bears who earned All-Pac-12 recognition. Rabb, an all-conference first team selection, highlighted the quartet, while Jabari Bird was an All-Pac-12 honorable mention, Kingsley Okoroh earned All-Defensive honorable mention laurels and Charlie Moore took home an All-Freshman honorable mention selection.

Rabb led Cal in conference play with a 14.1 scoring average, and ranked second among the conference's leaders in both offensive rebounds (3.1 per game) and defensive rebounds (7.6 per game). In Pac-12 play, he notched 11.4 rebounds per game. Bird picked up his first all-conference honor after upping his offensive production from a then-career-high 10.5 points per game in 2014-15 to 14.2 ppg in the regular season, including a team-best six 20-point games. Okoroh logged 64 blocks in the regular season, a number that ranked third in the Pac-12 across regular-season play. He also ranked 13th for offensive rebounds, averaging 2.2 per game. Moore's 28 points against UC Irvine ranked as the most by any Pac-12 player in 2016-17, and the fourth-most by any freshman in conference history. Moore averaged 12.3 points and broke into Cal's top 10 in the freshman records.

RABB & BIRD GO SECOND ROUND

For the second year in a row, two California players were taken in the NBA Draft. Ivan Rabb and Jabari Bird were both selected in the second round. Rabb was taken by the Orlando Magic, with his draft rights immediately traded to the Memphis Grizzlies, and Bird was the 56th overall pick to the Boston Celtics.

Their selections marked the third and fourth in the last two seasons, joining Jaylen Brown (Celtics) and Tyrone Wallace (Utah Jazz).

MARTIN STEPS DOWN

A day after California was booted from the NIT by CSU Bakersfield, Cuonzo Martin announced his resignation as head coach of the Golden Bears. Martin stepped down to pursue other opportunities, eventually accepting a position as head coach at Missouri. In his three seasons at Cal, Martin amassed a 62-39 overall record, and 29-25 record in the Pac-12. In his final year, the Bears wrapped up a 21-13 season, tied for fifth in the league and reached the Pac-12 Tournament semifinal before earning a No. 1 seed in the National Invitation Tournament. Martin also earned one NCAA Tournament berth and one NIT berth in his three years at the helm, and secured one of the nation's top recruiting classes in 2015-16, bringing in eventual No. 3 NBA Draft pick Jaylen Brown as well as two-time All-Pac-12 selection Ivan Rabb.

WYKING JONES NAMED HEAD COACH

Wyking Jones was named head coach for the California Golden Bears on March 24, 2017 after serving in the interim role following Cuonzo Martin's resignation. Jones had previously served on Martin's staff for two seasons following a national championship run with Rick Pitino's Louisville staff. During his four seasons under at Louisville from 2012-15, the Cardinals compiled a 123-30 record, reached two Final Fours and captured the 2013 NCAA title. Louisville also completed the 2014-15 season with a 27-9 record, advancing to the regional final.

While an assistant coach at Cal, Jones helped the Bears to a combined 44-24 record and reach the postseason twice. In 2015-16, Cal finished 23-11 overall, third in the Pac-12 and received a No. 4 seed to the NCAA Tournament – the highest in the history of the program. Over his two years at Cal, the Bears' defense has led the Pac-12 in points per game and field goal percentage allowed both seasons – 67.3 ppg and 39.6 percent in 2015-16 and 63.4 ppg and 40.0 percent in 2016-17.

GOLDEN BEARS CELEBRATE 1959 NCAA TITLE

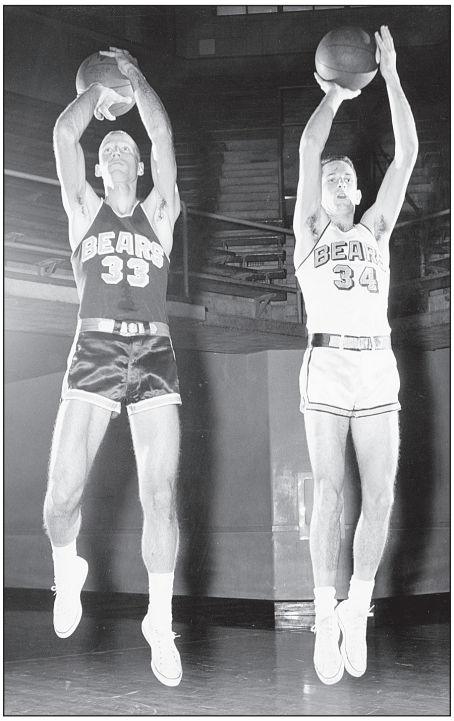

During the winter of 1959, the California basketball team wrote what is truly one of the great "Cinderella" stores in collegiate history en route to capturing the NCAA championship title.

The author of the thriller was the immensely talented Pete Newell, whose mere presence brought Harmon Gym patrons to their feet. Newell was the resident genius in the art of team play, a head coach who was a master at utilizing every bit of talent he had at his disposal.

Beyond Newell, it was a team of unknowns. There was not a single All-American within its ranks, not even a first team All-Coast selection. But before all else, it was a team, and spell that with a capital "T." As Bob Brachman of the San Francisco Examiner put it, "... It was truly an all-around inspirational production by a bunch of guys named 'Joe.'"

"That 1959 season was the essence of what the game of basketball is all about," said Newell. "It was a totally selfless group. It takes a certain type of kid to put the team above himself."

Cal battled its way through the Pacific Coast Conference, blasted Utah and St. Mary's in the Western Regionals and then marched into Louisville, scorned and sneered at by the experts, and walked away with the national title.

Despite the pair of impressive victories at the regionals and a 14-game winning streak, the Golden Bears arrived in Kentucky without much fanfare. The resident "experts" were highly critical of their controlled style of play, one which allowed them to lead the nation in points allowed as they sacrificed just 51.0 per game. One Louisville paper tabbed California as a "plow horse," while another critic described the routines by the pompon girls as "faster than their basketball team."

First on the agenda for the Bears was upsetting Cincinnati and All-American Oscar Robertson. But Newell came up with a simple formula for shutting down the Big "O," and that was the Big "D," a combination of defense and Darrall Imhoff. Robertson was held to 18 points (5-16 FG), and only one field goal in the second half, while Imhoff pumped in 22 points to pace all scorers.

The win propelled Cal into the final against West Virginia and another All-American guard, Jerry West. And once again, the names of Dalton, Imhoff and Al Buch could be listed among the heroes. But as the near-capacity crowd of 18,498 could attest, the Golden Bears' spine-tingling 71-70 victory over the Mountaineers belonged to each and every member of the team.

The Bears were afforded a hero's welcome upon their return to the Bay Area, as more than 3,000 California loyalists jammed San Francisco International Airport.

1999 NIT CHAMPIONS

Throughout the 1998-99 season, head coach Ben Braun called his Golden Bears a work in progress, constantly evolving as the season developed.

At times, Cal looked unbeatable, as in the Bears' wins over Top 10 teams North Carolina, UCLA and Arizona. In other instances, they struggled, going just 3-7 at the start of the Pac-10 season.

But in the end, the Bears finished on top. Finally putting everything together as a team, Cal captured the 1999 National Invitation Tournament title with a 5-0 run through the postseason. The championship was the first on a national stage for the Bears since they claimed the 1959 NCAA crown.

Cal drew Fresno State in a first round home game March 10 at the New Arena in Oakland, and for much of the contest, it looked like the Bears' year would end right there. Trailing for almost the entire game and down 49-37 with 15 minutes to go, Cal finally woke up. The Bears went on a 16-1 run to take the lead and never lost control of the game, finishing with a 79-71 win.

Forward Sean Lampley put up the biggest numbers of the season against the Bulldogs, ending with 28 points and 14 rebounds. Forward Carl Boyd, who had 10 of his 14 points after intermission, and guard Geno Carlisle, who added 15 of his 19 points after the break, also aided the second half surge.

In the second round March 16, Cal made a return trip to DePaul. On Nov. 28 at the Rosemont Horizon, the Blue Demons edged the Bears, 75-72, and DePaul seemed to be on its way to another victory, forging a 28-11 lead midway through the first half and a 37-24 advantage at intermission. But Cal came out of the break on a 14-1 run to tie the score, and when center Francisco Elson tossed in a short jumper with 2:10 left, the Bears took a 58-57 lead. DePaul never scored again and Cal advanced to the quarterfinals with the one-point victory.

Geno Carlisle sank the game-winning free throw with 4.7 seconds left to give the Bears a 61-60 victory over Clemson and the 1999 NIT crown.

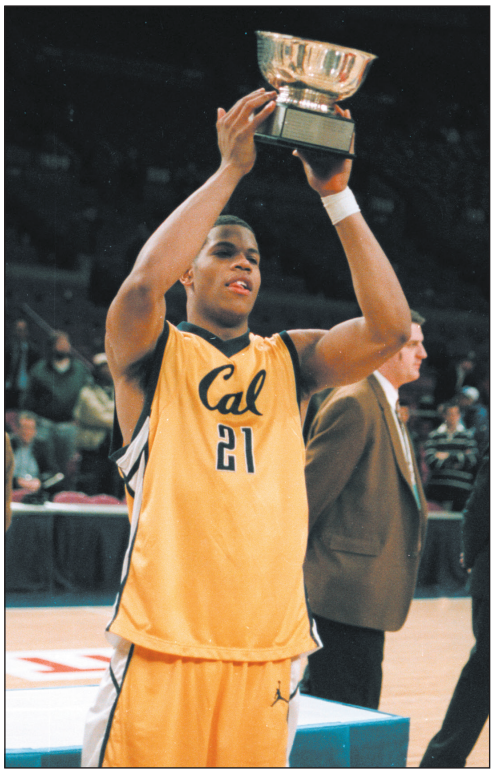

Two nights later, the Bears hosted Colorado State at the New Arena for the right to go to the semis at Madison Square Garden. This time, Cal jumped out to an early lead, going up 35-13 at one point in the first half. CSU, though, kept fighting and eventually took a 62-61 lead with 2:00 on the clock. But the Bears were not to be denied and scored the final 10 points of the game for a 71-62 win and left the court to strains of "New York, New York" by the Cal Straw Hat Band.

In the semifinals, Cal met up with its old nemesis, Oregon. Motivated by their two losses to the Ducks during the regular season, the Bears ran away with an 85-69 victory. Cal led just 35-32 at the half when forward Mike Gill literally took over the game. He scored all of his career-high 22 points in the second half to lead the Bears into the championship against Clemson.

In the final, the ACC's Tigers, using their size advantage, dominated the boards and grabbed a 35-27 halftime lead over Cal. Just as they had done in the earlier rounds of the NIT, the Bears fought their way back into the game. Cal limited Clemson to less than 30 percent shooting from the floor in the second half, but the Bears were still down, 60-58, with under a minute to play.

In Cal's final possession, Carlisle drove the lane, but had his shot blocked. In the scramble that ensued, Carlisle retrieved the ball on the left wing and turned toward the basket. Coming down the key, he lofted a shot over Clemson center Tom Wideman. The ball went through the hoop to tie the score, and Wideman was whistled for a foul on the play. With 4.7 seconds on the clock, Carlisle stepped to the free throw line and sank the shot for a 61-60 Bear lead. When a desperation shot by the Tigers missed the mark, the entire Cal team erupted in celebration.

Lampley, who had 16 points and six rebounds in the championship game victory, was voted tournament MVP, while Gill was also honored with a spot on the all-tournament team.

Sean Lampley, the tournament MVP, tallied 28 points and 14 rebounds in a first-round game against Fresno State.

THE PETE NEWELL LEGEND

Legendary coach Pete Newell, who led California to the 1959 NCAA title and a runner-up finish in the 1960 tournament, was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1978. Head coach of the Golden Bears from 1954-55 to '59-60, Newell's teams won four consecutive conference titles (1957-60), and he was voted the national coach of the year in 1960. He finished his Cal career with a 119-44 record. Newell also coached the U.S. Olympic team to a gold medal in the 1960 Rome Games. On Aug. 13, 2010, that gold-medal squad, which featured former Cal standout Darrall Imhoff, was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. On Dec. 21, 1987, the playing surface at Harmon Gym was renamed "Pete Newell Court" in his honor and the floor at Haas Pavilion retains that name.

A statue of Newell, created by renowned sculptor Eino, was installed in the Haas Pavilion Club Room in the fall of 2006.

CAL NCAA TOURNAMENT NOTES

- Cal has participated in 19 NCAA Tournaments and reached at least the round of 16 seven times.
- Under head coach Pete Newell, Cal captured the NCAA title in 1959 and was the national runner-up in 1960.
- In addition reaching two Final Fours under Pete Newell, Nibs Price guided Cal to the 1946 Final Four.
- Cal has a 20-19 record in NCAA Tournament games, including a 12-7 mark in opening-round games.
- After going 30 years between appearances, Cal has advanced to the NCAA Tournament 14 times since 1990.
- Cal has faced 35 teams in 39 NCAA Tournament games, playing only Cincinnati (2-0), Idaho State (2-0), North Carolina State (1-1) and Ohio State (0-2) twice.

Forward Tony Gonzalez, who played tight end for the Kansas City Chiefs and Atlanta Falcons in the NFL before retiring in 2013, scored 23 points in Cal's win over Villanova in the second round of the 1997 NCAA Tournament.

With an athletic history that spans 150 years, the University of California has produced some of the greatest coaches, athletes and performances our country has ever seen. From world record-holders to Olympic champions, Golden Bears have succeeded on almost every imaginable stage.

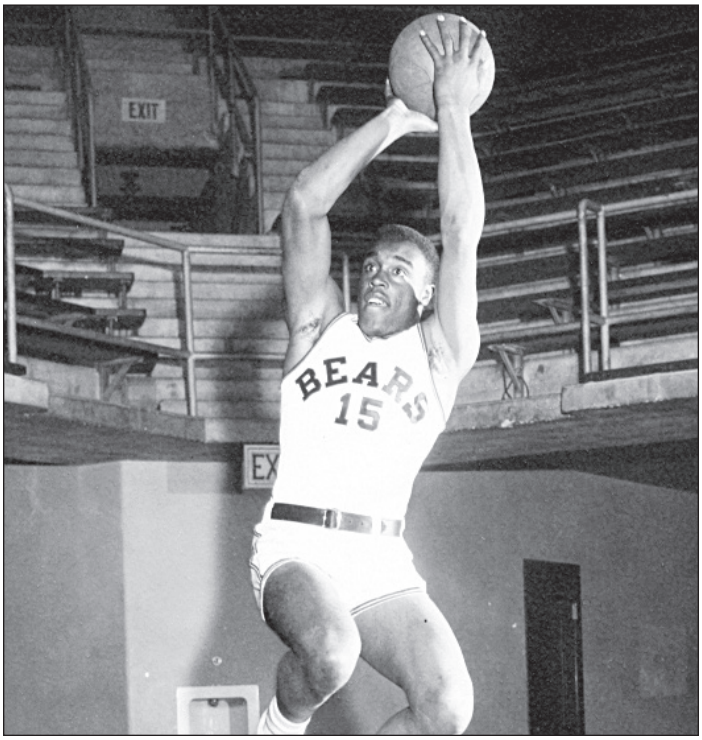

To recognize those achievements, the Athletic Department established the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1986. Located on the plaza level of California Memorial Stadium, the Hall features more then 250 individuals and six crews, each of whom represent the best of Cal's rich athletic heritage.

Among those who grace the walls are 31 basketball players and coaches, including such storied names as Pete Newell, Kevin Johnson, Darrall Imhoff, Andy Wolfe, Earl Robinson and Nibs Price.

In addition to the Memorial Stadium location, Hall of Fame memorabilia is also on exhibit in display cases on the first floor of Haas Pavilion.

After playing at Cal, Phil Chenier went on to a long NBA career, mostly with the Washington Bullets.

Earl Robinson played on Cal's NCAA Tournament teams in 1957 and 1958.

SHAREEF ABDUR-RAHIM

The first freshman to earn Pac-10 Player of the Year honors, Abdur-Rahim led the league in scoring during his only season in Berkeley. The 6-9 forward was voted National Freshman of the Year by several publications, including Basketball Weekly, and he was chosen a third team Associated Press All-American. Abdur-Rahim scored at least 30 points four times, with a high of 33 against Northern Arizona in his first game in a Cal uniform. He also registered a best of 18 rebounds vs. Washington State and paced the Bears with 52 steals on the year. ED GRAY

A 6-3 guard for the Bears from 1996-97, Gray earned Pac-10 Player of the Year and third team Associated Press All-America honors as a senior after averaging a school-record 24.8 ppg. He established the Cal mark with 48 points at Washington State Feb. 22, despite playing just 25 minutes and breaking a bone in his foot with just over a minute left in the game. The injury sidelined him for the rest of the year, but did not diminish an otherwise spectacular season. Among his other school records are highest career scoring average (20.0 ppg) and most 30-point games (6, tie). As a junior, he was voted Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year. Gray was selected with the 22nd pick of the first round of the 1997 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks.

Although his Cal career spanned just two seasons, Kidd had perhaps the greatest impact ever on the Cal basketball program. The 6-4 point guard was voted the National Freshman of the Year in 1993 after leading the country in steals with 110 and guiding the Bears to the NCAA Sweet 16. As a sophomore, Kidd was voted Pac-10 Player of the Year and first-team Associated Press All-American when he dished out a national-high 272 assists (9.1 apg) and recorded four triple-doubles. He had a school-record 18 assists at Stanford in 1994 and set a Cal mark with eight steals vs. Washington in 1993. His career total of 204 steals is also a school record, snapping the previous Cal mark in only his 46th game. Kidd's career scoring high was 27 points, first set at Arizona as a freshman and matched against Santa Clara in the 1993-94 season opener. After leaving Cal, he was taken with the second overall pick of the NBA Draft by the Dallas Mavericks. Kidd enjoyed an All-Star NBA career and currently serves as the head coach of the Milwaukee Bucks (2014-present) following a year as head coach of the Brooklyn Nets (2013-14).

GROVER KLEMMER

A talented all-around athlete who lettered at Cal in track & field, football and basketball from 1941-43, Klemmer set the world record in the 400 meters with a time of 46.0 and 440 yards in 1941. He won on the national AAU/TAC 440 titles in both 1940 and '41 and was a member of Cal's world record-setting mile relay team in 1941. Klemmer entered the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1988.

SEAN LAMPLEY

Lampley finished his career as Cal's all-time leading scorer with 1,776 points. Voted the 2001 Pac-10 Player of the Year, the 6-7 forward averaged 19.5 ppg and 7.2 rpg during his senior campaign. When he graduated, Lampley was the only player in the Cal record book to rank among the school's Top 10 in scoring (1st), rebounding (4th) and assists (10th). He had 30 double-doubles in four years, including two with points and assists. Lampley scored a career-best 32 points in an overtime win at Oregon State in '01, and he pulled down a high of 18 rebounds vs. Fresno State in the first round of the 1999 NIT. That year, he led Cal to the NIT championship and was selected tournament MVP. His hometown Chicago Bulls drafted Lampley in the second round in 2001. He was inducted into the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 2013.

O.C. "CORT" MAJORS

One of only nine athletes in California history to earn letters in three different sports, Majors was part of the football, basketball and track & field squads at Cal from 1918-20, gaining induction into the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1990. On the football field, he was captain of Cal's 1920 team that beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, while he was a shot put specialist in track and a two-year letterman at guard in basketball. Majors later served as president of the Big C Society, chair of the Athletic Council and president of the California Alumni Association.

BOB McKEEN

A standout player for the Bears for four years, McKeen lettered from 1952-55 and left as Cal's all-time leading scorer (1,654 points). He garnered All-America distinction in 1955, in addition to All-Coast and all-conference. McKeen still ranks as Cal's top career rebounder with 1,019 caroms. He topped the 30-point barrier five times, including a best of 40 points vs. Utah in 1954, and he had a pair of 20-rebound performances. McKeen was enshrined in the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989.

LAMOND MURRAY

One of the most prolific scorers in school history, Murray left Cal after his junior year for the NBA with the No. 1 spot on the Bears all-time list with 1,688 points (since broken). A two-time All-Pac-10 choice, he was voted second team All-American by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association in 1994. After averaging 24.7 ppg in three NCAA Tournament games in '93, the 6-7 forward paced the Pac-10 his junior year with 24.3 ppg and a school-record 729 points. Murray scored a career-high 38 points in his final regular-season game at Washington State, the fifth 30-point game of his career. He had at least 20 points in eight consecutive games during one stretch and reached the 20-point barrier a total of 46 times. The Los Angeles Clippers took Murray with the seventh selection of the 1994 NBA Draft. He was inducted into the Cal Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012.

CLARENCE "NIBS" PRICE

A coaching fixture at Cal for more than 30 years, Price served as head coach of both the football and basketball teams during his career. In football, he was 27-17-3 from 1926-30 and led the Bears to the 1930 Rose Bowl. Price also handled basketball duties from 1924-54 and is the school's all-time victory leader, finishing with a 449-294 mark. He took the Bears to the Final Four in 1946. Price graduated from Cal in 1914 after lettering on the baseball team. He was inducted into the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1986.

IVAN RABB

Two-time All-Pac-12 player and 2017 Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year finalist Ivan Rabb declared for the NBA Draft following his sophomore season. The Oakland, Calif. legend was selected in the second round by the Orlando Magic, with draft rights immediately traded to the Memphis Grizzlies. While at Cal, Rabb was a staple in the Golden Bear lineup who produced 860 points and 615 rebounds, setting the Cal freshman record for boards with 291 rebounds. His sophomore season saw Rabb named to the Naismith, Wooden and Lute Olson Award Watch Lists as he went on to lead the Bears in double-doubles (17), rebounds (324, 10.5 rpg), field goals (151) and free throws (124) while averaging 14.0 points.

On the same site where beloved Harmon Gym stood for more than 60 years, the Water A. Haas Jr. Pavilion has risen as a modern sports facility that retains the old building's famous spirit.

The building is named for Haas '37, who, with his wife, Evelyn, provided the lead gift for the renovation.

The playing surface in the arena is named for Pete Newell, the Hall of Fame coach who directed Cal to the 1959 NCAA championship and later coached the U.S. team to a gold medal at the 1960 Olympics.

Since Haas Pavilion opened in November 1999, the Bears have won more than 70 percent of their games, posting a 191-64 record on Pete Newell Court. Cal has put together three of the eight longest home winning streaks in school history in Haas, including a 17-game string from Feb. 2, 2002, until Feb. 15, 2003. The Bears were also a combined 30-2 in Berkeley during the 2001-02 and 2002-03 campaigns.

Much of the credit for Cal's success can be attributed to the Haas crowds, which have ranked second in the Pac-12 six times since the building opened. The Bears have averaged more than 10,000 fans per game on five occasions and in 2003-04, set a school record with an average of 10,839 in 15 home games.

Inside Haas Pavilion, Cal basketball players have access to some of the finest facilities in the nation. In addition to the 11,858-seat arena, the Bears have a spacious, wood-paneled locker room, a team meeting room that can be used for film study, a player lounge, and a dedicated computer resource area. Other features in the building include state-of-the-art athletic training and weight rooms, a student-athlete computer lab and a Club Room used for receptions, banquets and press conferences.

Prior to the start of the 2015-16 season, new amenities were added to Haas Paviion that added a center-hung scoreboard, an enhanced sound system, improved lighting and an updated video control room. The upgrade was made possible through a generous gift of $10 million from the Evelyn & Walter Haas Jr. Fund Foundation.

WALTER A. HAAS JR.

A self-described "loving, loyal and grateful Cal alumnus," Walter A. Haas Jr. and his wife, Evelyn, committed the lead gift of $11 million for the pavilion that now bears his name.

A 1937 Cal graduate who lettered in tennis as a senior, Haas joined Levi Strauss & Co. in 1939. He and his brother, Peter E. Haas '40, went on to lead the San Francisco-based company – the fourth generation of their family to do so – from a regional work pants manufacturer into the largest clothing maker in the world. Haas served in various capacities, including president, chief executive officer and chairman of the board.

Haas and his wife created the Evelyn and Walter Haas Jr. Fund in 1953, which he chaired until his death in 1995. Since it founding, the fund, which aspires to serve as a voice of hope and a positive, unifying force for social change, has made grants in excess of 500 million.

The 2017-18 California Golden Bears Information Guide is designed to assist the media with their coverage of Cal men's basketball this season. Additional information, including media releases and photographs, may be obtained by contacting the Athletic Communications Office at (510) 642-5363 or at the Athletic Department's official website at CalBears.com. Please review the following policies and services that are intended to help you with your coverage of Cal basketball.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Direct all requests for media, photo and parking credentials for California home games to Mara Rudolph, Assistant Director for Communications, University of California Athletics, 349 Haas Pavilion, Berkeley, CA 94720 (E-mail: marar@berkeley.edu). Requests should be made in writing at least two days prior to the game. Requests for media covering a visiting team should be made through the opposing school's athletic communications director. Credentials will be held at the media will call table the day of the game unless other arrangements are made. Professional teams wanting to scout games may also request a credential.

MEDIA WILL CALL

The media will call table is located on the east side of Haas Pavilion, just left of the main entrance at Entry 1. It opens 90 minutes before tipoff and remains open through halftime. Identification is required to pick up credentials or tickets.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of media parking passes for lots near Haas Pavilion are available in advance from the Athletic Communications Office. Requests should be made as far in advance as possible as passes can not be left at the media parking lot entrances.

Parking at Cal is always at a premium and visitors are encouraged to use public transportation. The Downtown Berkeley BART station is about two blocks west of Haas Pavilion.

On non-basketball gamedays, hourly guest parking is available in the RSF Garage (2301 Bancroft Way) adjacent to Haas Pavilion. There are also several city-owned lots in close proximity.

DIRECTIONS TO HAAS PAVILION

Haas Pavilion is located on the Cal campus near the corner of Bancroft Way and Dana Street.

From San Francisco (first cross Bay Bridge), Interstate 80 and Interstate 880: take Highway 24 East. Exit at Claremont Avenue and turn left. Take another left at College Avenue and proceed north until it ends at Bancroft Way. Turn left on Bancroft, and Haas Pavilion in three blocks down on the right.

From Contra Costa County: take Highway 24 West toward San Francisco. Take the Berkeley exit (second exit after Caldecott Tunnel). The ramp merges with Ashby Avenue, then follow Ashby to College Avenue. Turn right on College, then left on Bancroft Way. Haas Pavilion in three blocks down on the right.

GAME DAY SERVICES

The Cal Athletic Communications Office furnishes rosters and pregame notes prior to each game in the media work room. Play-by-play accounts, halftime and final statistics, shot charts and postgame coaches' quotes are provided, as well.

The primary method to access the Internet is through Ethernet cables at each media seat. Wireless is also available through the Cal Visitor service (no password required).

After a customary 10-minute cooling off period, Cal head coach Wyking Jones and requested Cal student-athletes will address the media in the Grill Room (second floor, southwest corner of Haas Pavilion). The Cal locker room is closed following games. Postgame interviews for the visiting team will take place outside of its locker room.

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

The Cal Athletic Communications Office is located on the third floor of Haas Pavilion in room 349, on the west side of the building. Access is available by the elevator in the northwest corner of the arena.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS

Players and coaches are generally available for interviews daily, except game days, prior to the contest. Please request all interviews through the Athletic Communications Office at (510) 643-5846. Phone interviews with Cal student-athletes will be conducted on a call-back basis only, usually immediately before or after practice sessions. Media are prohibited from contacting student-athletes directly. All interviews must be arranged through the Cal Athletic Communications Office.

PHOTO REQUESTS

Requests for photos can be made through the Athletic Communications office. Fans can also purchase images of all 30 intercollegiate teams through Cal's official photographer by visiting KLCFotos.com.

MEDIA WORK SPACE

The Team Meeting Room, located on the southwest corner of the main floor of Haas Pavilion, serves as a media work room before, during and after each home game.

Cal's interviews will take place in the Haas Grill Room, which is on the southwest corner of the building on the second floor (same level as press row). Media may access the room after the game and can utilize the work space to produce their stories.

Access to the Internet is through the wireless Cal Visitor network, which does not require a password.

VISITING RADIO PHONE LINES

One ISDN and three dial lines are provided for visiting radio use, and all calls must be collect or credit card. Contact the Cal Athletic Communications Office for more information.

WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCES

The Cal Athletic Communications Office hosts weekly news conference during the season at Haas Pavilion. They are typically held on Mondays or Tuesdays, depending on the team's practice and competition schedule. Please contact the Cal Athletic Communications Office in advance for exact times.

CALBEARS.COM

Information on the Cal men's basketball team is available on CalBears.com. News releases, statistics, game stories and audio/video links are updated daily. The website also provides live in-game statistics for all home games and many road games. The information guide is posted, including player profiles, school records and team history.

CAL BEARS SPORTS NETWORK POWERED BY LEARFIELD

The Cal Bears Sports Network Powered by Learfield blankets most of Northern California with an alignment of three stations, headlined by flagship station KGO 810 AM in San Francisco.

KGO Radio (flagship) 810 AM
San Francisco, Calif.

KAHI Radio 950 AM
Sacramento, Calif.

KESP Radio 970 AM
Modesto, Calif.

In addition, Cal fans can listen to all the action on-line through the TuneIn link at CalBears.com. Many games are also broadcast on Sirius/XM Satellite Radio. Check CalBears.com for listings.

Todd McKim

Todd McKim is in his 12th season on the Bears' men's basketball broadcast team. He has spent the past 12 years as the radio sideline reporter for Bear football games and also hosts Cal's weekly podcast, Bear In Mind. Prior to moving to the Bay Area, he was a long-time member of the Oregon media and a television anchor and sports director in Eugene.

Jay John

Jay John begins his fourth full season as the radio analyst for the Golden Bears in 2017-18.

John served as an analyst on the broadcast team for select games for three seasons prior to becoming the full-time analyst in 2015-16.

After serving as an assistant coach with the Golden Bears for four seasons, he was elevated to his current role of Associate Athletic Director in 2012.

John served as a coach for 29 years with his final four seasons on the Golden Bears' bench.

BEFORE AND AFTER THE GAME

Radio coverage of the Bears begins 30 minutes before tipoff, and after each game, head coach Wyking Jones will give a recap on the postgame report.

THIS IS CAL

THE UNIVERSITY

Founded in the wake of the gold rush by leaders of the newly established 31st state, the University of California's flagship campus at Berkeley has become one of the preeminent universities in the world. Its early guiding lights, charged with providing education (both "practical" and "classical") for the state's people, gradually established a distinguished faculty (with 22 Nobel laureates to date, inlcuding seven current faculty), a stellar research library, and 277 academic degree programs. A total of 29 UC Berkeley alumni have received the prize.

This California institution became a catalyst of economic growth and social innovation – the place where vitamin E was discovered, a lost Scarlatti opera found, the flu virus identified, and the nation's first no-fault divorce law drafted. Scholars at Cal have conducted ground-breaking research on urban street gangs and on basic human nutritional requirements, identified why wartime supply ships were failing at sea, invented technologies to build faster and cheaper computer chips, and imaged the infant universe.

In recognition of broad and deep excellence, respected sources have repeatedly ranked the University at or near the top in fields ranging from engineering and the "hard" sciences to the social sciences, arts and humanities. For the 20th straight year, Cal was ranked No. 1 in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings of public national universities. Among undergraduate programs ranked by peer academics, Cal is tied for second in business and third in engineering.

In accordance with the University's "public" character, Cal has long served talented individuals regardless of means. As early as 1897, financial aid was available for "needy and deserving" students. More than a century later, Cal combines outstanding teaching and research programs with broad access for students of all means – educating more federal Pell Grant recipients from low-income families than all eight Ivy League universities combined, and second only to UCLA nationally. Seventeen percent of freshmen are the first in their families to attend college.

CAL STUDENT-ATHLETE FACTS

- A record seven measured intercollegiate athletic teams from California posted scores of 1,000 – the highest possible – on their 2015-16 Academic Progress Rates.
- Football registered its best-ever four-year APR with a score of 978, up 33 points over the past four years. The team's one-year APR for 2015-16 was 991, which followed a 997 from the previous year's results. The 991 score was also second highest among all football programs in the Pac-12 for 2015-16.
- For 10 straight years from 2003-12, Cal finished among the top 15 in the Directors' Cup, a national ranking that measures overall success in intercollegiate athletics programs. Cal has finished in the top 20 every year since 2000 with a No. 14 ranking most recently in 2017.
- Cal has captured 97 national championships within 15 different sports.
- Cal individuals have won 295 individual national championships.
- Cal had 50 athletes and staff traveled at the 2016 Olympics and captured 21 medals, the second-most all time in a single Olympics for Cal athletes. 19 of those medals came in the pool, led by Ryan Murphy (three gold), Nathan Adrian (two gold, two bronze) and Dana Vollmer (one gold, one silver, one bronze).

CAL FACTS

- Berkeley has one of the top university library systems in the nation. With well over 12 million volumes and more than 400 special collections, Berkeley's library holdings among its 32 libraries are the fourth-largest in the United States and have been ranked first in the nation among public libraries.
- According to U.S. News and World Report, Cal ranks fourth in global universities.
- There are 150 faculty members of the National Academy of Sciences.
- Seventy-seven faculty Fulbright Scholars.
- Twenty-nine nobel prizes held by alumni.
- Seven Pultizer Prizes held by current faculty
- Over 5,000 Cal undergraduates engage in off-campus public service projects and programs annually.
- The average GPA of admited freshmen at Cal is 4.19.

CAMPUS ADMINISTRATION

CAROL T. CHRIST

UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR

Carol Tecla Christ began her term as the 11th chancellor of the University of California, Berkeley on July 1, 2017. A celebrated scholar of Victorian literature, Christ is also well known as an advocate for quality, accessible public higher education, a proponent of the value of a broad education in the liberal arts and sciences, and a champion of women's issues and diversity on college campuses.

Christ spent more than three decades as a professor and administrator at UC Berkeley before serving as president of Smith College, one of the country's most distinguished liberal arts colleges, from 2002 to 2013. She returned to Berkeley in January 2015 to direct the campus's Center for Studies in Higher Education, and was appointed interim executive vice chancellor and provost in April 2016 before being named chancellor in March 2017. Since returning to Berkeley, Christ has played an instrumental role in efforts to stabilize the institution's budget, confront sexual violence and sexual harassment on campus, create a long-term plan for housing students and scholars, and more.

As president of Smith for more than a decade, Christ supervised the development of the nation's only accredited engineering program at a women's college, oversaw a significant rise in student diversity, expanded Smith's global activities and reach, managed a major campus capital planning program, and shepherded the college through strategic planning exercises designed to improve its academic and financial models within the context of changing trends in higher education.

Prior to joining Smith, Christ served as UC Berkeley's executive vice chancellor and provost from 1994 until 2000. During her six years as the campus's top academic officer, she sharpened Berkeley's intellectual focus, strengthening many of the institution's top-rated departments in the humanities and sciences as well as advancing major initiatives in areas including neuroscience and bioengineering.

Christ received her B.A. (1966) from Douglass College, and her M.Ph. (1969) and Ph.D. (1970) from Yale University. She joined the Berkeley English faculty in 1970, and in addition to her other roles, has served as chair of that department, dean of the Division of Humanities, and provost for the College of Letters and Science. Christ has authored two books, The Finer Optic: The Aesthetic of Particularity in Victorian Poetry (1975) and Victorian and Modern Poetics (1994), and has edited or co-edited several others, including The Norton Anthology of English Literature. She is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Philosophical Society.

Christ was married for 21 years to Paul Alpers, a professor of English and founding director of UC Berkeley's Townsend Center for the Humanities, until his death in 2013. She has two grown children, Jonathan and Elizabeth Sklute, from a previous marriage, as well as two grandchildren. She lives in Berkeley.

BOB JACOBSEN

FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE

Bob Jacobsen, a Professor of Physics, serves as Cal's faculty athletics representative.

Appointed to the position in 2010, Jacobsen provides oversight and advice to Cal Athletics concerning compliance with NCAA rules and student-athlete academic matters. He represents Cal in dealings with both the NCAA and the Pac-12, and advises the chancellor on campus policies relating to student-athletes.

Jacobsen spent 1976 through 1986 working in the computer and data communications industry for a small company that was successively bought out by larger and larger companies before he returned to graduate school. From 1991-94, he was a scientific associate and scientific staff member at CERN, the European Laboratory for Nuclear Physics, in Geneva, Switzerland. He joined the faculty at Cal in 1995.

Among Jacobsen's honors at the University are its Distinguished Teaching Award, the Noyce Prize for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Goldman Award for Distinguished Faculty Advising of Undergraduates and the Berkeley Faculty Service Award. He has delivered lectures on his research activities on four continents and taught special classes for graduate students at 16 universities. He is currently serving as the Dean for Undergraduate Studies in the College of Letters and Science.

Jacobsen's research has studied the basic properties of the Universe using the techniques of particle physics. Upon arrival at Berkeley he joined the BaBar experiment, a worldwide collaboration of more than 500 scientists and engineers who built a device to study the fundamental interactions of matter and antimatter. During its run from 1999-2006, the experiment accumulated the world's largest sample of particles for studying the intrinsic difference between matter and antimatter.

His current projects, the LUX and LZ experiments, are using detectors 4,800 feet underground in the Homestake Mine in South Dakota to study dark matter, which comprises the majority of the Universe yet is largely unknown.

Jacobsen obtained a B.S.E.E. from MIT in 1978 and his Ph.D. in experimental high-energy physics from Stanford in 1991.

ATHLETICS EXECUTIVES

MICHAEL WILLIAMS
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Bringing a comprehensive knowledge and a deep understanding of the campus and its community through a range of perspectives, H. Michael Williams '82 serves as Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of California, Berkeley.

Williams' experiences at Cal range from being a member of the wrestling team as an undergraduate student to nearly 15 years of volunteer service for a variety of campus initiatives and programs. He became Interim Director of Athletics in June 2014 and was named permanent AD on May 8, 2015.

Williams manages a department that supports the everyday experience for 850 student-athletes and 30 intercollegiate programs. Over the course of his tenure, Golden Bears have captured 10 national team championships and 25 individual, relay or boat titles. Cal also placed 14th in the annual Directors' Cup standings in 2017, the 18th consecutive year the Bears have been among the top 20. In addition, Cal sent 50 Golden Bear athletes, coaches and staff to the 2016 Rio Olympics – more than any other school in the country – and they came home with 21 medals, including 12 gold.

In the classroom, student-athletes continue to perform well with rising Graduation Success Rate and Academic Progress Rate scores. For the 2015-16 academic year, a record 14 of 25 measured teams posted a one-year APR of 1,000 – the highest possible. Men's basketball and football recorded their highest four-year scores ever, and a Cal-record seven teams earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for their APR results.

Williams has also overseen the implementation of more than a dozen recommendations from a report from the Chancellor's Task Force on Academics and Athletics, issued in September 2014, that are intended to maximize the academic performance of student-athletes and the overall quality of their campus experience.

One of Williams' primary objectives has been to improve the long-term financial stability of the athletic department, and he has taken several steps to achieve that goal. Most significantly, new 10-year partnerships with Under Armour (apparel) and Learfield (multimedia rights and licensing) took effect July 1, 2017, and will provide approximately $8 million more annually than previous agreements in those areas. In addition, the August 2016 football game against Hawai'i in Sydney, Australia, generated about $1 million more than a typical home non-conference contest and a men's basketball game in Sacramento provided more revenue than a similar home contest in Berkeley.

Through philanthropic efforts under Williams' leadership, Cal Athletics established its first endowed head coaching position – the Alex and Marie Shipman Director of Men's Golf – and has seen success engaging with many of Cal's professional athletes. On the facilities front, Haas Pavilion recently underwent a $10 million renovation that included a new center scoreboard, and new venues opened for swimming & diving and water polo (Legends Aquatic Center) and field hockey (Underhill Field).

"Ultimately, our goal is to build the strongest intercollegiate athletics department possible while furthering the right conditions for success," Williams said. "Our priorities are to support our teams in their quest to compete for and win championships; continue to improve our student-athletes' everyday experience and find more ways to better integrate student-athletes and staff with the campus. We will also keep our focus on building and growing the department in the right direction. My expectations are high and I expect nothing short of a strong, positive and collective effort from everyone involved. We have the opportunity to coach, teach and mentor a world-class, amazing group of student-athletes and make sure they are well prepared to face and change the world following their experience here at Cal."

Williams began his professional career at Data Resources, Inc., before becoming a debt trader and corporate finance officer for Bank of America. He joined Barclays Global Investors in 1993 and retired from the company in 2009 as vice chair of Capital Markets. Other roles at BGI included head of the Global Index and Markets Group, where he was directly responsible for over $1.1 trillion in assets, head of Global Securities Lending and CEO, President and Trustee of BGI's mutual funds.

Williams was elected to the UC Berkeley Foundation Board of Trustees in 2007, joined the Foundation's Executive Committee in 2009 and served as vice chair of the executive committee from 2013-15. He was also on the advisory boards of the UC Berkeley Division of Equity and Inclusion, the Haas Socially Responsible Investment Fund, the Social Science Matrix, Bronze Investments and several nonprofit boards, including the California Heritage Trust. He remains a member of the advisory board of the College of Letters and Science.

Among his responsibilities as Director of Athletics are serving on the Pac-12 Athletic Directors' Council, including as chairman in 2014-15, the Chancellor's Executive Leadership Council, the Campus Leadership Council at UC Berkeley and the Rose Bowl Management Council in 2014-15. He is also a member of the board of the Collegiate Sports Summit and was a member of the Athletic Study Center Review Committee.

Williams earned his bachelor's degree in economics from UC Berkeley in 1982. He later received an MBA in finance from the Anderson School of Management at UCLA in 1988. He and his wife, Jeanne, have three children and reside in Lafayette.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS CABINET

DAVID SECOR
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

David Secor serves as Senior Associate Athletics Director and Chief Financial Officer at Cal and brings 35 years of experience in the University of California System, 22 years in Athletics, and 16 years as an Athletics Chief Financial Officer.

As a senior advisor to the Director of Athletics, Secor is the primary advisor on fiduciary matters. He is responsible for the daily management of business and finance, including development of an annual budget and long-term financial plan, and also manages the Human Resources, Athletic Equipment, and Information Technology units. He serves as the primary contact regarding coaching contracts and the Office of the President as well as being the department liaison with Office of Legal Affairs.

Secor joined Cal in 2013 with 12 years of experience as UCLA's Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Financial Officer and three years of experience as Director of Financial Services for UCLA Capital Programs.

A graduate in Mathematics from UCLA, Secor resides with his husband, Brandon Leger, in Berkeley.

FOTI MELLIS
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE SERVICES

As Senior Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Services, Foti Mellis brings more than 27 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics to the University of California Athletics Department.

A member of the Director's Cabinet, Mellis is responsible for the overall delivery of a world-class student-athlete experience and all activities that directly impact Cal's ability to serve its' student-athletes. In addition, he has oversight of the Sport Operations and Championships unit, as well as Student-Athlete Development. He also supervises indoor volleyball, men's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's cross country and track & field, beach volleyball and women's gymnastics.

Mellis was responsible for the supervision of Capital Projects and oversight of the successful completion of California Memorial Stadium and the Simpson Center. He was also instrumental in the restructuring of Student-Athlete Affairs.

He received his bachelor's degree in managerial economics in 1990 and his master's in education in 1996, both from UC Davis. Mellis and his wife, Tina, enjoy spending time with Beau, their four-legged "child."

CHRIS PEZMAN
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

For the past 20 years, Chris Pezman has worked in various capacities within the facility management and intercollegiate athletic industries. At Cal, he has quickly reorganized his departments to gain operational and financial efficiencies and has implemented a comprehensive work order system to appropriately maintain over $1 billion in physical assets under his purview.

Pezman also oversees Capital Projects for the Intercollegiate Athletics Department which includes the $10 million Haas Pavilion scoreboard and audio improvements project, $7.5 million Underhill field hockey facility, La Loma field hockey practice facility, Maxwell Field/ Stadium Parking Garage and several substantial pending projects. Additionally, he is also the primary football administrator.

Prior to joining Cal, Pezman served as Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations at his alma mater the University of Houston (where he was a football student-athlete). He also was the Director of Operations at one of the world's largest and busiest sports and entertainment complexes – NRG Park.

Chris is also a member of the Athletic Director Advisory Counsel.

He is married to the former Marisol Guillamondegui and the couple has three children – Seth, Sydney and Sarah.

ATHLETICS EXECUTIVES

JENNIFER SIMON-O'NEILL
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, SENIOR WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

Jennifer Simon-O'Neill serves as Cal's Senior Associate Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator (SWA). She is the lead sport supervisor who oversees sport administration for 28 of Cal's 30 sports and also has direct sport administration responsibility for women's basketball, women's rowing, women's golf, field hockey and women's swimming & diving. She is responsible for Title IX and gender equity. She also currently oversees the department's athletics and strategic communications unit.

Simon-O'Neill serves on the Pac-12 Council and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) Administrative Board. She is also the Vice President of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association Board of Stewards.

Prior to her tenure with Cal, Simon-O'Neill was the Associate Athletic Director at Lewis & Clark College in Portland, Oregon. Simon-O'Neill graduated in 2002 with a degree in mathematics and sociology from Mount Holyoke College, where she competed as a student-athlete in women's rowing. She earned her MBA at the University of Massachusetts Amherst in 2009.

Simon-O'Neill and her wife, Colleen, live in Berkeley with their sons, Theodore and Andrew.

RYAN COBB
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, PERFORMANCE, HEALTH & WELFARE

A 20-year veteran in sports medicine and intercollegiate athletics, Ryan Cobb coordinates health and medical services for Cal's student-athletes, as well as helping to foster collaboration and integration between Athletics and many other campus departments and services in the areas of student welfare, health and campus life.

Serving as Cal's Head Athletic Trainer since 2003, he oversees areas related to sports medicine, strength & conditioning, nutrition services, risk management and other campus unit partnerships, including coordinating all medical services in conjunction with the University Health Service (UHS) and UHS Head Team Physician and UHS Medical Director. Cobb serves as the liaison from Intercollegiate Athletics to the Dean of Student's Office, the Center for Student Conduct and Residential Life, among others, and he is also is the sports administrator for several Cal teams including men's rowing, men's gymnastics and men's water polo. Cobb has a master's in exercise science and completed his undergraduate degree at Vanderbilt University. Cobb and his wife, Jennifer, a Cal alumnus, live in Danville.

JAY LARSON
ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, COMPLIANCE

Jay Larson began serving as Cal's Associate Athletics Director of Compliance in January 2015. He oversees the athletic compliance operation and serves as the athletic department's liaison to the NCAA and Pac-12 Conference for legislative and interpretive issues. He also is the sports administrator for men's tennis and women's water polo.

Prior to coming to Cal, Larson spent nearly seven years as the Associate Athletic Director of Compliance at San Diego State University and three years in the University of Minnesota Athletic Compliance Office. Larson earned a bachelor's degree in 2002 from Minnesota State University, Mankato, where he participated on the basketball team. He earned a juris doctor degree in 2005 from the University of Minnesota Law School, where he served as a managing editor of the Minnesota Law Review.

Larson is a member of the Minnesota State Bar and has served on various committees within the National Association for Athletic Compliance (NAAC). He and his wife, Mary, have two sons, Kai and Roman, and reside in El Cerrito.

2016-17 DIRECTORS' CUP

Cal placed 14th in the final 2016-17 Directors' Cup standings, finishing fifth among Pac-12 schools. The Pac-12 ranked first for the most schools in the Top 15 with five. Cal has finished in the Top 20 every year since 2000.

Cal totaled 916.75 points for the year. Stanford came in first with 1,563 points. The other three Pac-12 schools in the Top 15 were No. 4 USC (1,251.25), No. 9 Oregon (1,027.00) and No. 11 UCLA (1,007.00).

Five Golden Bear teams with points counting towards the standings ended the year among the top five in the country, led by the national champion men's water polo team. Men's swimming & diving, women's swimming & diving and women's rowing finished second, while women's water polo was tied for third.

Other postseason participants that helped Cal with its point total were men's gymnastics (T5th), men's tennis (T9th), women's tennis (T9th), women's golf (14th), softball (T17th), women's basketball (T17th), women's gymnastics (T25th), men's cross country (31st), women's soccer (T33rd), men's indoor track and field (T49th), and men's track and field (69th).

The Learfield Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 20 sports sponsored by the NCAA – 10 women's and 10 men's. The Bears do not receive points for men's crew or rugby because they are not NCAA-sponsored sports.

OTHER POSTSEASON PARTICIPANTS

Men's Basketball – NIT First Round
Women's Basketball – NCAA Second Round
