GAME #3

UC Irvine (1-1) at California (1-0)
Wednesday, November 16, 2016 – 8:00 p.m.
Haas Pavilion (11,858) – Berkeley, Calif.

Series Record: Cal leads 6-2

Last Meeting: Cal won 73-56 (12/2/13 in Berkeley)

Radio: KUCI/88.9 FM (Michael O'Sullivan)

TV: Pac-12 Networks (Roxy Bernstein & Ben Braun)

ANTEATERS FACE BEARS: UC Irvine (1-1) takes on California (1-0) Wednesday night in a non-conference game at Haas Pavilion in Berkeley.

The contest will begin a stretch of 11 of 13 games away from the Bren Events Center for UCI, which has won 48 of its last 59 home games.

Seventh-year head coach Russell Turner's Anteaters are coming off a 73-58 home win over South Dakota State Monday night as senior guard Jaron Martin scored a career-high 24 points and sophomore forward Jonathan Galloway pulled down a career-best 14 rebounds.

UCI opened the season with a 72-56 loss at home to Utah State last Friday night.

YOUTH FACTOR: Seven of the 12 UCI players who have seen action in the season's first two games played in their first collegiate games.

The Anteaters have seven true freshmen on their roster along with two redshirt freshman – Max Hazzard and Darrian Traylor.

UCI-CAL SERIES: Cal leads the series with UCI, 6-2, with the Bears winning the last three meetings, including 73-56 in Berkeley Dec. 2, 2013.

The Anteaters' last win against Cal was 56-52 at the Bren Events Center in Irvine Dec. 2, 2000.

UCI's last win over a Pac-12 school was 86-72 over Washington Nov. 14, 2013, in Seattle.

ABOUT THE BEARS: Third-year head coach Cuonzo Martin's Cal squad opened the regular season with an 82-53 win over South Dakota last Friday. Sam Singer and Jabari Bird led the Bears with 14 points each while Grant Mullins scored 13 and Roger Moute a Bidias added 12.

SCHOOL-RECORD WIN TOTAL: The Anteaters won a school-record 28 games last season (28-10) and also set school marks for non-conference victories (15) and road wins (13). UCI, which has won 48 league games over the past four years to lead all Big West schools, earned a share of the 2016 Big West regular-season title, the program's second in the past three years.

POSTSEASON PRESENCE: UCI has won 93 games over the past four seasons, advancing to the postseason each of those years (2013 CIT, 2014 NIT, 2015 NCAA and 2016 CIT).

The Anteaters competed in the 2016 CollegenInsider.com Tournament (CIT), advancing to the final. UCI defeated North Dakota (89-86, OT), Louisiana (67-66) and Coastal Carolina (66-47) before falling to Columbia, 73-67, in the championship game. All four contests were on the road.

UCI's appearance in the 2015 NCAA Tournament was the first in the school's Division I history. The Anteaters narrowly lost to three-time national champion Louisville, 57-55, in Seattle Wash.

DEFENSE WAS STRONG AGAIN IN 2015-16: Defense was prevalent once again under Coach Turner last season as UCI ranked third in the nation in field-goal percentage defense at .383, 20th in blocked shots per game (5.2) and 43rd in scoring defense (66.1).

Last season, UCI was 20-1 when limiting the opposition to under 40-percent shooting from the field and has won 57 of its last 60 games when holding the opponents below 40 percent after limiting South Dakota State to 28.8 percent Monday night.

The 'Eaters have won 59 of their last 61 games when holding the opposition to 60 points or less, including Monday night against South Dakota State (73-58). UCI was 10-0 in those games last season.

MONDAY NIGHT'S WIN: Senior guard Jaron Martin scored a career-high 24 points and sophomore forward Jonathan Galloway recorded a career-best 14 rebounds and four blocked shots to lead UC Irvine over South Dakota State, 73-58, in a non-conference game at the Bren Events Center Monday night.

Freshman guard Evan Leonard scored nine points off the bench, senior center Ioannis Dimakopoulos added eight, while redshirt freshman guard Max Hazzard and true freshman guard Eyassu Worku recorded seven points apiece. Worku also had four boards and three assists.

UCI was without senior guard Luke Nelson (hamstring) for the second straight game. Nelson led the Anteaters in scoring last season (13.7 ppg) and was named to the Big West preseason all-conference team by the media. He is expected to return to action soon.

LUKE NELSON NAMED TO PRESEASON TEAM:

Senior guard Luke Nelson has been named to the Big West preseason all-conference team as voted on by a league media panel.

Nelson, a Big West Player of the Year candidate, earned All-Big West First Team honors last season when he led the Anteaters in scoring at 13.7 points per game. He had six 20-point games in 2015-16, including a career-high 36 points in the Big West Tournament win over Cal Poly when he hit 11 of 15 shots and tied his career high with six three-point field goals.

He also led UCI with 83 threes as a junior and ranked second on the team with 149 assists and 48 steals.

Nelson ranks No. 4 in Anteater history with 204 career threes, fifth with 361 assists, eighth with 115 steals and 17th with 1,226 points.

UCI was picked to finish second in the Big West preseason poll as Long Beach State was selected first. CSUN was chosen third and UC Santa Barbara fourth.

OTHER FAMILIAR FACES: Other veteran players returning include senior guard Jaron Martin, who averaged 8.3 points last season, has hit 106 threes in the past two years, including 61 in 2015-16.

Ioannis Dimakopoulos, a 7-2 senior center, averaged 5.2 points last season and has blocked 57 shots over the past two years.

Jonathan Galloway, a 6-10 sophomore forward, had at least five rebounds in 11 games last season, including a career-high 13 in the CIT win at Louisiana.

Sophomore forward Brandon Smith played in 36 games with five starts in Big West contests last season while sophomore guard Spencer Rivers saw action in 10 games.

Returning redshirts are guards Max Hazzard and Darrian Traylor, both with four years of eligibility remaining.

YOUTH INFUSION: Seven true freshmen who have joined the UCI program all earned an array of impressive accolades during their high school careers as they look to make immediate contributions on the collegiate level this season.

The incoming class includes 6-5 John Edgar Jr. (Ayala HS), 6-10 Brad Greene (Lone Pine HS), 6-1 Evan Leonard (Cerritos HS), 6-10 Adam Liberman (Valley Torah HS), 6-8 Tommy Rutherford (Grossmont HS), 6-4 Justin Wertner (St. George's, Tenn., Independent School) and 6-2 Eyassu Worku (Los Alamitos HS).

Elston Jones, a 6-9 junior forward, has transferred to UCI from Utah State, where he averaged 4.2 points last season and played in 59 games over the past two years. Per NCAA transfer rules, he must sit out this season. Jones is a graduate of Millennium High School in Goodyear, Ariz.

NEW STAFF MEMBERS: Head coach Russell Turner completed his staff with the hiring of three new members this summer.

Blaine Taylor was named an assistant coach, James Blake director of operations and Pat Flesher director of administration.

Ryan Badrtalei, the veteran member of the Anteater staff, returns for his eighth season as an assistant coach and his 12th overall with the program, while Michael Wilder, who has served as the basketball program's director of administration the past two years, has been promoted to assistant coach.

Taylor was a highly-successful head coach at Montana and Old Dominion, leading those programs to a combined 380 wins and 11 postseason appearances in 19 seasons. He won 141 games in seven years at Montana from 1991-98 and recorded 239 victories in 12 seasons with Old Dominion (2001-2013), including an NCAA Tournament first-round win over Notre Dame in 2010. He is the winningest coach in Old Dominion history.

A 1981 graduate of Montana, Taylor served as an assistant coach at Stanford from 1998-2001 as the Cardinal reached the NCAA Tournament each of those three seasons.

Blake served as head coach from 2010-15 at Simon Fraser University in Burnaby, British Columbia. He was associate head coach at Columbia College in 2009-10 after serving as an assistant coach in the Big West Conference at CSUN from 2007-09.

Flesher joined the UCI staff as director of administration after serving the past three years at UNC Greensboro, including the last two as director of operations.

He was head manager at Pepperdine for four years and earned his bachelor's degree in 2013.

Taylor and Wilder fill the vacancies created by the departures of Ali Ton and Nick Booker, who joined the staffs at Fordham University and Davidson College, respectively.

FOUR KEY PLAYERS GONE: UCI lost four starters from last season to graduation/pro career. Mamadou Ndiaye, a 7-6 center who was named to the 2016 All-Big West First Team and was selected the Big West's Best Defensive Player for the second time in three years, elected to forgo his senior season to pursue a professional career. He ended his three-year UCI career as the school's all-time leader in blocked shots (218) and he averaged 12.1 points and 7.2 rebounds last season. Alex Young graduated as UCI's career leader with 576 assists. Mike Best averaged 9.8 points and 5.1 rebounds last season while Dominique Dunning had averages of 2.9 points and 2.7 boards.

FOUR STRAIGHT 20-WIN SEASONS: UCI has registered four consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in school history, winning 93 games in that span.

The Anteaters have recorded a total of nine 20-win seasons in the first 51 years of the program.

HEAD COACH RUSSELL TURNER (7th Season)

Russell Turner, who is in his seventh season as head coach at UC Irvine, has guided the Anteaters to 93 wins and postseason appearances in the last four years (2013 CIT, 2014 NIT, 2015 NCAA and 2016 CIT). UCI advanced to the championship game of the CollegelInsider.com Tournament (CIT) last March.

He led UCI to a 28-10 record last season, setting school records for overall victories (28), non-conference wins (15) and road victories (13).

The Anteaters went 13-3 in Big West play to earn a share of the conference regular-season title, UCI's second in the past three years.

His Anteater teams have consistently ranked as one of the nation's top defensive teams. UCI ranked third in the nation last season in field-goal percentage defense (.383) and seventh in total blocked shots (198).

In 2015, Turner led UCI to the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament. The Anteaters, seeded No. 13, took fourth-seeded and three-time national champion Louisville to the wire before narrowly falling 57-55.

Turner was named UCI's head coach April 9, 2010, after serving the previous six seasons as an assistant coach for the Golden State Warriors of the National Basketball Association following positions at Stanford University and Wake Forest University.

Turner worked under Hall-of-Fame caliber coaches Don Nelson (Golden State), Mike Montgomery (Stanford) and Dave Odom (Wake Forest).

As a player at Hampden-Sydney, Turner was a two-time All-American (1991 & 1992) and set the school's career scoring record of 2,272 points. He was a member of Hampden-Sydney's first two NCAA tournament teams.

Turner was inducted into Hampden-Sydney's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.

He graduated magna cum laude in 1992 with a B.A. in English and economics.

Turner is a native of Roanoke, Va. He and his wife, Elizabeth, a physician, have two children, Devlin and Darius.
