RV SAN DIEGO STATE AZTECS (2-1)

After grinding out a tough overtime win sans three starters Wednesday night, California men's basketball hits the road for its first neutral-site contest of the season, a Monday night matchup with San Diego State. The Golden Bears and Aztecs meet at the brand new Golden 1 Center, home of the Sacramento Kings, in a doubleheader day of college hoops that features the first four NCAA teams to christen the new arena. The action tips off at 8 p.m. following the UC Davis-Sacramento State game, which starts at 5:35 p.m.

The Bears are coming off a 76-65 overtime victory against UC Irvine in which they battled back from a 13-point deficit without key players Ivan Rabb, Jabari Bird and Grant Mullins in the lineup. The triumph extended Cal's home winning streak to 21 games, tied for the sixth-longest active streak in the country. The Bears are 3-6 in neutral-site contests in the Cuonzo Martin era.

HOW TO FOLLOW THE ACTION: Tickets for the game can be purchased at Golden1Center.com. The game will be televised live on Pac-12 Network and online via Pac-12.com/live and the Pac-12 Now app, with Ted Robinson (play-by-play) and Mike Montgomery (analyst) on the call. The California Golden Bears Sports Network (KGO 810 AM) has the radio call from Todd McKim and Jay John. Follow the Bears on social media for a behind-the-scenes look at all the action at Facebook.com/CalMensBball and on Twitter and Instagram @CalMensBball.

FAST FACTS

With Ivan Rabb, Jabari Bird and Grant Mullins out against UC Irvine, Cal was missing a combined 167 starts between the trio. The Bears' actual starting five against the Anteaters owned a combined 45 starts entering the game – less than Mullins (78) and Bird (55) each have in their individual careers.

Wednesday's contest against UC Irvine marked the first game in more than five seasons that Cal made 30 or more free throws. The Bears went 30-42 from the charity stripe, including 15-17 from Charlie Moore, for the first time since Feb. 5, 2011 vs. Arizona.

2ND

With a 20.5 disparity, Cal ranks second in the country for rebounding margin after averaging 47 rebounds per game while holding its opposition to 26.5 rpg. Only Utah ranks ahead of Cal with a +21 margin. Cal has outrebounded opponents 94-53 through two games.

38

Charlie Moore broke a more than 20-year-old record with his 38 points against UC Irvine. Moore topped Cal's previous freshman scoring record of 33, set by Shareef Abdur-Rahim against Northern Arizona on Nov. 25, 1995.

11

Senior Stephen Domingo set career-highs in both points and rebounds against UC Irvine, finishing just one board shy of his first career double-double. Domingo logged 11 points and 9 rebounds in the effort.

30:45

Cal trailed the Anteaters for 30:45 and as many as 13 points, overcoming the deficit to send the game into overtime and ultimately win by 10 points, 75-65.

RETURN TO THE RANKINGS

Cal made its return to the Associated Press Top 25 Rankings on Nov. 14, appearing in the poll for the first time this season at No. 25. It marks Cal's first ranking since March 14, 2016, when the team earned a No. 23 ranking. The Bears were receiving votes in both the AP and USA Today Coaches' poll to open the season.

LAST TIME OUT

Cal defeated UC Irvine, 75-65, in a come-from-behind overtime triumph at Haas Pavilion.

- Charlie Moore scored a game-high 38 points to break Shareef Abdur-Rahim's Cal freshman scoring record off 33.
- Stephen Domingo came one rebound short of his first collegiate double-double, notching a career-high 11 points and 9 rebounds.
- Kameron Rooks finished with a career-high 15 points.
- Roger Moute a Bidias set a personal-best 7 rebounds.
- The Bears came back from a 13-point deficit, 36-23, early in the second half, forcing overtime on Kameron Rooks' tip-in with 22 seconds left in the second period.
- Cal played without key starters Ivan Rabb, Grant Mullins and Jabari Bird.

CHARLIE BUCKETS

Charlie Moore scored 38 points to break Shareef Abdur-Rahim's 20-year-old freshman scoring record en route to Cal's 75-65 overtime victory against UC Irvine. The Cal rookie went 10-20 from the field and an impressive 15-17 at the charity stripe to top Abdur-Rahim's Cal record of 33 points as a freshman, set against Northern Arizona on Nov. 25, 1995. Moore's points were the most by a Cal player since Jerome Randle had 39 at Washington State on Jan. 14, 2010. His 38 points are also the third-most in NCAA Division I action, and the most by any Pac-12 player through two weeks of the season.

NO MOUTE POINT

After averaging just 1.2 points through 67 games in his first three seasons with the Golden Bears, Roger Moute a Bidias is off to a strong start in his final year as a Golden Bear. Through two games this season, he has already matched his single-season high of 3 steals (29 games, 2014-15) and set new single-game career-best totals in points (12), rebounds (7), assists (5) and steals (2). Moute a Bidias is averaging 8 points this season, far above his season-best 1.6 in 2014-15.

DOMINGO STEPS UP

With one season for the Bears under his belt, Stephen Domingo has embraced his opportunity to be a spark for California. So far this season, Domingo has stepped up to average 9 points after averaging just 1.7 in his first season at Cal. He earned his first career start against South Dakota State, and hit the go-ahead three-pointer against UC Irvine in overtime to lead Cal to a win.

MONTGOMERY JOINS BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

Mike Montgomery, who directed Cal to postseason appearances in each of his six seasons overseeing the Golden Bear men's basketball program and led the team to the 2010 Pac-10 title, was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame on Nov. 18. Montgomery was enshrined at the Arvest Bank Theatre at the Midland in Kansas City, Missouri alongside Mark Aguirre (DePaul), Bob Boozer (Kansas State), Doug Collins (Illinois State), Lionel Simmons (La Salle), Jamaal Wilkes (UCLA) and Dominique Wilkins (Georgia) and coach Hugh Durham (Georgia, Florida State, Jacksonville).

Under Montgomery, who coached the Bears from 2008-09 through 2013-14, Cal enjoyed its winningest six-year stretch in school history with 130 victories. He completed his career as the school's third-winningest coach with a 130-73 record and in 2010, guided the Bears to their first conference regular-season championship in 50 years. He led the Bears to the NCAA Tournament four times and to the National Invitation Tournament twice, becoming the only coach in school history to guide Cal to six consecutive postseason appearances.

WELCOME TO MY HAAS

Cal has extended its homecourt winning streak to 21 games when including a victory from the final contest of the 2014-15 campaign. The run is the second-longest in school history and tied for the sixth-longest current streak in the country.

WEST COAST TRIO SIGNS WITH CAL FOR 2017

California picked up a trio of talented West Coast prospects in the early signing period when Earl Watson Elite teammates Jemarl Baker and Juhwan Harris-Dyson, as well as Utah's Trevin Knell signed their National Letters of Intent to join Cuonzo Martin's program.

- Baker: A four-star guard and No. 66 on the ESPN Top 100 for the class of 2017.
- Harris-Dyson: A four-star guard who averaged 14.7 points and 13.6 rebounds as a junior at Heritage Christian School.

- Knell: A three-star guard from Utah and elite shooter who notched 3.6 triples per game as a junior at Woods Cross High School. He will reclassify to 2019 after serving a two-year LDS Church mission.

RABB'S RETURN

Sophomore Ivan Rabb stunned the collegiate basketball world when he decided to forego the 2016 NBA Draft, where he was projected as a Top 10 pick, and his pro prospects to return to California for a second season.

Instead, he returns in hopes of leading the Bears to their first conference title since 2009-10 and to a deep run in the postseason. He starts off the season as the first Golden Bear since Jason Kidd in 1993-94 to earn AP preseason All-America honors this year. His 57 All-American votes are the second-most among this year's honorees, and he is the only underclassman this year, and the third underclassman selected to the five-member AP preseason squad in the last three seasons. Among his other honors are:

- Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year Watch List
- Naismith Award Top 50 Watch List
- Wooden Award Watch List
- Lute Olson Award Watch List
- Blue Ribbon First Team All-American
- Athlon Sports First Team All-American
- Sporting News Second Team All-American

As a frosh, Rabb earned Pac-12 All-Freshman and second-team All-Pac-12 recognition after posting 12.5 ppg and 8.6 rpg during his rookie season. He also became the first Cal player to shoot better than 60 percent from the floor (61.5%) in 15 years and added a team-high 42 blocks. Rabb's 291 total rebounds broke the school freshman mark set by Ryan Anderson in 2006-07.

BEARS PICKED FOURTH IN PRESEASON POLL

The Golden Bears are expected to finish fourth in the Pac-12 in 2016-17, according to a vote by media who regularly cover the conference. The Bears are expected to finish behind early favorite Oregon, followed by second-place Arizona and third-place UCLA. Colorado, Washington, USC, Utah, Oregon State, Stanford, Arizona State and Washington State follow the Bears, respectively.

CAL LEGEND GIVES BACK

In early November, NBA Champion and 10-time All-Star Jason Kidd announced his commitment to endow the Jason Kidd Scholarship for men's basketball with a seven-figure financial gift to California. As a freshman at Cal in 1992-93, Kidd recorded a school-record 110 steals to lead the nation as he led the Bears to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, beating LSU and defending champion Duke on his way to being named the National Freshman of the Year. As a sophomore, he posted a single-season school record of 272 assists, and his 204 career steals over those two seasons remain the most in program history. Kidd was the No. 2 overall pick in the NBA Draft of 1994, and in 2004, he was inducted into the Pac-12 Hall of Honor and saw his No. 5 Cal jersey retired at Haas Pavilion.

CAL LEADS LEAGUE IN FG %, SCORING DEFENSE IN 2015-16

In 2015-16, Cal developed into one of the top defensive teams in the country and led the Pac-12 in both field goal percentage defense (39.3 percent) and scoring defense (67.0 ppg). The Bears last paced the Pac-12 in scoring defense during the 1996-97 campaign (67.8 ppg), while the Cal's most recent time on top of the league in field goal percentage defense was in 2012-13 (39.3%).

Entering the NCAA Tournament, Cal was also first nationally in 2-point field goal percentage defense at 40.9 percent, just ahead of Cincinnati and Valparaiso, who were at 40.9 percent. The figure is down from 45.6 percent in 2014-15, which ranked 90th in the country.

Cal's defense was particularly stingy inside Haas Pavilion last year with the Bears surrendering just 62.8 ppg and 37.7 percent shooting from the floor. Cal owned a +10.0 rebounding margin and averaged 6.1 blocks. At 18-0 in 2015-16, Cal set a school record for consecutive home victories in a single season. It was the best home record against Division I opponents in the country. Oregon also finished 18-0, but one win came against Division II Western Oregon.

'REAL TALK' WITH THE BEARS

While the Bears practice, play and train during the season, meetings in Cal's locker room below the court level at Haas Pavilion tackle a different subject far from the view from their fans. One-hour "Real Talk" sessions held each weekend and moderated by members of the Cal coaching staff provide opportunities to discuss just about any subject except basketball. Themes and topics can range from dealing with tough times and difficult situations, to morals and family crises. Head coach Cuonzo Martin introduced Real Talks when he was head coach at Missouri State and has carried them with him over the course of his career.

THE COMMUNITY'S TEAM

In line with head coach Cuonzo Martin's philosophy of "Building Men," the Golden Bears are encouraged to pursue volunteer opportunities in the Bay Area community. This season alone, Cal's community service events have included: joining Laguna Honda Hospital and Rehabilitation Center in helping its patients celebrate 150 years of service and visiting the South Berkeley Senior Center to serve visitors a pancake breakfast on a weekday morning.

HEADED TO BEARADISE IN 2017

Boasting a track record of success that includes a conference Coach of the Year honor and postseason berths six of the past seven seasons, Cuonzo Martin is regarded as one of the top basketball coaches in the game.

In his first season at California in 2014-15, Martin directed the Golden Bears to 18 wins and a run to the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. Under his tutelage, Tyrone Wallace successfully transitioned to the point guard role. Wallace was named a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award recognizing the nation's top point guard in his first season at the position. The point guard finished the season as the only individual in the Pac-12 to place in the top five in the conference in scoring, rebounding and assists. David Kravish completed his career as the school's all-time leader in blocks and one of the program's top scorers and rebounders of all-time.

Martin and his staff signed a consensus national top-10 recruiting class for the 2015-16 season, including top-five overall prospects in Ivan Rabb and Jaylen Brown along with forward Roman Davis of Los Angeles. The 2015-16 season saw the Bears go a perfect 18-0 at home for the best single-season home record at Haas Pavilion, finishing the year with a 19-game overall home winning streak. Cal's defense was tops in the league, and the Bears limited opponents to a league-low 67.3 points per game while allowing just 39.6 percent of field goals -- the only team in the Pac-12 to limit opponents to under 40 percent.

The Bears capped off 2015-16 with a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the highest seed in program history. Brown was named a USBWA Freshman All-American as well as the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year en route to a No. 3 overall selection by the Boston Celtics in the 2016 NBA Draft. Wallace joined Brown as Martin's second Bear prospect drafted, selected in the second round by the Utah Jazz.

Prior to California, Martin served as the head coach at Tennessee for three seasons, guiding the Volunteers to a spot in the Sweet 16 of the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

Martin owns a career record of 165-108, winning just over 60 percent of his games as a head coach. The mentor has guided his teams to the postseason six of the last seven years and has averaged more than 20 victories over seven seasons.

The 43-year-old Martin, a native of East St. Louis, Ill., has served the game of basketball for more than two decades, beginning with a standout four-year playing career at Purdue University. He has played and coached alongside some of the most highly-regarded mentors in the game, including Hall of Fame Coach Gene Keady. Martin is a member of a distinguished group of successful college basketball coaches to serve under Keady, along with Matt Painter (Purdue), Bruce Weber (Illinois and Kansas State), Steve Lavin (UCLA and St. John's) and Kevin Stallings (Vanderbilt and Pitt).

Volunteerism

As head coach at Tennessee in 2013-14, Martin led the Volunteers to the Sweet 16 and a national ranking of 23rd in the final USA Today poll. With a 24-13 final record, Tennessee matched its fourth-best win total in school history and recorded the most victories since the 2009-10 campaign. After earning a berth in the NCAA's First Four, the Martin-led Volunteers captured victories over Iowa, Massachusetts and Mercer to equal the most wins in one NCAA Tournament in program history.

Over his three seasons at Tennessee, Martin posted a 63-41 mark, taking the Vols to the postseason all three years. They finished in the top-five of the powerful SEC in each of Martin's three seasons, including a tie for second in his first campaign after the squad was predicted to place 11th in the conference's preseason poll. UT earned a berth in the National Invitation Tournament his first two years, before garnering an NCAA Tournament selection in 2014. Under Martin's tutelage, forward Jarnell Stokes was a two-time first-team All-SEC selection and was one of just three individuals in the six power conferences in 2013-14 to average a double-double. Stokes led the SEC and ranked seventh nationally in rebounding at 10.6 rpg., while also averaging 15.1 ppg.

Predicated on tenacity and defense, Martin's 2013-14 Tennessee squad limited opponents to just 61.7 ppg., the lowest in the SEC and second-lowest total at UT since 1969. The Vols ranked 18th nationally in total defense.

The Other Bears

Prior to taking over at Tennessee, Martin served as head coach at Missouri State for three years where he built a record of 61-41 with win totals of 24 and 26 his final two seasons. He led the Bears to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament title in 2010. In 2010-11, Martin guided Missouri State to its first-ever regular-season Missouri Valley Conference championship and along the way became the program's first-ever MVC Coach of the Year. He was the 2011 recipient of the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year Award, presented annually to the top minority head coach in Division I men's basketball.

Midwest Beginnings

Martin began his coaching career serving as an assist on the staff at West Lafayette High School in Indiana. His first stint as a collegiate coach came at Purdue where he joined the staff for the 2000-01 season under Keady, his college coach. He remained on staff with current Purdue head coach Matt Painter and was elevated to associate head coach for the 2007-08 season before being hired as head coach at Missouri State the next year. During his eight-year tenure at Purdue, Martin mentored several all-conference standouts, including All-American and current Minnesota Timberwolves forward Robbie Hummel.

Martin also has experience as a coach with USA Basketball, serving on the staff for the USA Junior National Team at the 2011 FISU World University Games in Shenzhen, China.

As a player, Martin was a first-team All-Big Ten selection in 1995 at Purdue when he averaged 18.4 ppg and sank 91 three-pointers. He graduated in 1995 as one of the program's all-time leaders in three-pointers (179) and one of the Boilermakers' career scoring leaders (1,666). Playing under Keady and alongside All-American Glenn Robinson, Martin led Purdue to a pair of Big Ten titles and to a 90-37 record over four years. The Boilermakers went to the postseason each season with Martin, reaching the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament as a junior in 1994.

Following his stellar collegiate playing career, Martin was selected by the Atlanta Hawks with the 57th overall pick of the 1995 NBA Draft.

He played professionally for four years with the Hawks, Milwaukee Bucks and Vancouver Grizzlies. In 1997, Martin was the leading scorer for Felice Scandone in Italy.

Martin returned to his alma mater where he earned his bachelor's degree in restaurant, hotel, institutional and tourism management from Purdue in 2000. He and his wife, Roberta, have two sons, Joshua and Chase, and a daughter, Addison.
