NEED TO KNOW

California men's basketball wraps up the first Pac-12 home series of the season on Saturday when the Golden Bears play host to the UCLA Bruins. The action begins at 3:30 p.m. from Pete Newell Court, airing live on the Pac-12 Network and on KGO 810 AM.

UCLA is coming off a double overtime loss at Stanford, 107-99, which saw Aaron Holiday tally 29 of his 31 points after halftime. Meanwhile, the Bears look to rebound after dropping an 80-62 decision to USC on Thursday evening. Three Bears scored in double figures, led by 15 points from Justice Sueing, but the Trojans held Cal to a season-low point total. The Bears look to avoid their first Haas Pavilion sweep by the LA schools since 2007, when a pair of ranked UCLA and USC squads topped Cal in Berkeley to close out the month of January.

At 16.5 points per game, Sueing is one of two Bears averaging double-figure scoring totals in two games of Pac-12 action thus far. He has been superior down the stretch for Cal, tallying a combined 13 points in the final minutes of games against Stanford and USC. Against the Trojans, he scored five points in the final minute, plus 13 of 15 in the second half. Previously, he turned in eight points in the final three minutes at Stanford, and 14 of his 18 in the game in the second half. Marcus Lee is averaging 14.5 points in conference action, and shooting at a 70.4 percent clip in his last three outings. The Antioch, Calif. product is 19-27 from the floor in the last three games, dating back to Dec. 21.

HOW TO FOLLOW THE ACTION: Roxy Bernstein and Don MacLean have the call from Berkeley, live on the Pac-12 Networks. Fans can also follow the action on the Pac-12 Now app on mobile, and by watching at www.Pac-12.com/live on the web. The California Golden Bears Sports Network will offer play by play and analysis, as well as post-game interviews, from Todd McKim and Jay John live on KGO 810 AM. Live stats, full broadcast details and more can be accessed via the Cal men's basketball schedule page on CalBears.com, and fans can follow the Bears on social media via @CalMBball on Twitter and Instagram, and at Facebook.com/CalMBball.

BY THE NUMBERS

The number of languages Marcus Lee can speak. The senior big man -- who was just named a candidate for the Senior CLASS Award -- is conversational in American Sign Language and has taken beginner-level Swahili and Spanish classes.

13
Justice Sueing has scored a combined 13 points in the final minutes of Cal's last 2 games. Against Stanford, he scored 8 in the final 3 minutes and against USC, he scored 5 in the final minute.

2007
The Golden Bears were last swept at home by the LA schools in January 2007. A then-No. 3 UCLA squad topped the Bears 62-46, and then-No. 25 USC took a 75-73 victory.

70.4
Marcus Lee is shooting 70.4 percent from the field in his last three outings. The forward shot 19-27 from the floor at a pace of 14.7 points per game.

12
Darius McNeill is 12 three-pointers away from Cal's top-five totals among freshmen. Charlie Moore (2017) is fifth with 45 treys. McNeill currently has 33 triples and has turned in 10 games this season with multiple three-point makes.

WE ARE CALIFORNIA

LAST TIME OUT
Cal dropped its Pac-12 home opener to USC, 80-62
• The Bears logged a season-low in points to take their first loss in conference play.
• Cal's starting lineup changed for the first time in six games, with Kingsley Okoroh starting instead of Nick Hamilton.
• Juhwan Harris-Dyson logged a career-high 10 points for the third time this season.
• Roman Davis connected on the first three of his collegiate career.
• Justice Sueing's nine rebounds marked a new career-high for the rookie.
• Marcus Lee (10 points) and Sueing (15) also scored in double figures.

MARCUS LEE NAMED SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE
Marcus Lee is one of 30 student-athletes from men's basketball programs around the country recognized as a candidate for one of the most prestigious awards in college athletics – the Senior CLASS Award. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School ®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Lee, a social welfare major, is no stranger to acts of community service, earning All-NCAA Community Service, SEC Community Service and Allstate Good Works Team recognition while he was at Kentucky. At Cal, he is a member of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and Cal's Pac-12 SAAC representative, partnering with 23 Pac-12 student-athletes to change the views on equality empowerment. He has attended numerous community service events in the Bay Area and in Lexington, including serving a pancake breakfast to seniors, spreading holiday cheer at the Children's Hospital Oakland, organizing a blanket drive and visiting children affected by pediatric hospitalization.

From the list of 30 candidates, a committee will select 10 finalists for the Senior CLASS Award in February. Those 10 names will then be placed on the official ballot for a nationwide vote open to media, coaches and fans. The Senior CLASS Award winners will be announced during the 2018 NCAA Men's Final Four.

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS
As a team, Cal ranks in the nation's top 25 for:
• Blocked Shots Per Game -- 17th, 5.9
• Free Throw Attempts -- 16th, 385
• Free Throws Made -- 19th, 271
• Total Blocks -- 15th, 89

Individually, Cal student-athletes rank in the Top 50 for:
• Blocked Shots Per Game -- Kingsley Okoroh (24th, 2.53) and Marcus Lee (37th, 2.27)
• Free Throw Attempts -- Don Coleman (5th, 126)
• Free Throws Made -- Don Coleman (12th, 94)
• Offensive Rebounds Per Game -- Marcus Lee (42nd, 3.07)
• Total Blocks -- Kingsley Okoroh (19th, 38) and Marcus Lee (34th, 34)
• Total Field Goal Attempts -- Don Coleman (27th, 233)

ROOKIES RISING TO THE CHALLENGE
With one of the youngest squads in the national, California's newcomers have been pushed to step up and contribute major minutes to the lineup.

Two freshmen are averaging double figures for the Bears, with Darius McNeill (12.9 points per game) and Justice Sueing (12.2 ppg) averaging above 11.0 points.

McNeill, a Houston, Texas product poured in back-to-back career-high point totals, starting with 18 points against Chaminade and improving to 22 points against CSUN, then topped it four games later with a 30-point outing against CSU Fullerton. McNeill became the 40th player in Cal basketball history to score 30 points in a game. Against the Titans, he also recorded career-high totals for assists (6), steals (5) and rebounds (6). Following his 30-point outing against the Titans, McNeill added 20 points -- all in the second half -- at Seattle. The rookie carried a 12-game three-pointer streak before it was snapped in Cal's nonconference finale against Portland State. He has 11 games with multiple three-pointers this season.

Sueing was pivotal in Cal's come-from-behind win at Stanford, scoring 14 of his 18 points in the second half with the Bears down 17 points. Over the final three minutes, he scored eight points. Earlier this season, he scored a career-high 23 points against Chaminade, including 19 in the second half, and has scored in double figures in eight games this season while starting all but one game. His output comes after missing most of the preseason due to a stress fracture.

Juhwan Harris-Dyson has also stepped up with solid minutes off the bench for the Bears, averaging 4.6 points and 3.1 rebounds. He came up clutch in Cal's 63-62 win at San Diego State, icing a pair of free throws with less than 8 seconds in the game to lift Cal to the win. Harris-Dyson has scored his career-high 10 points thrice this season.

Rookie Grant Anticevich helped fuel Cal's comeback win at Stanford with a key three-pointer at 1:19 in the second half to help erase the deficit. Anticevich was 1-10 on the season in three-pointers before making the three that brought the game within one point.

BIG KIDS ON THE BLOCK
California's senior big men are among the country's best players on the block, with Kingsley Okoroh and Marcus Lee combining for 72 blocks so far this season.The Bears rank among the Top 20 nationally for total blocks (15th, 89) and blocked shots per game (17th, 5.9).

Individually, Okoroh is 19th in the nation with 38 total blocks, and 24th with 2.53 blocked shots per game. Lee is 34th for his 34 total blocks and 37th at 2.27 blocks per game.

The 7-1 Okoroh has tied the Cal single-game record for blocked shots twice this season, recording 7 blocks against UC Riverside and against Portland State. He ties the number set by Michael Stewart (1994-97), which Stewart recorded thrice in his Golden Bear career. Okoroh has 173 career blocks, currently ranked third among Cal's career leaders. Stewart ranks second with 207 blocks, and David Kravish (2012-15) leads with 226 career blocked shots.

The Cal team record for blocked shots in a season is 161 blocks through 33 games in 2013, an average of 4.9 per game. The Bears are currently swatting shots at a pace of 5.9 blocks per game, with 89 total blocks.

ROAD WARRIORS
With the Dec. 30 win at Stanford, the Golden Bears are riding a three-game win streak in games away from Haas Pavilion, and are 3-0 in true road games this season. The streak started on Dec. 9 with a 63-62 victory at San Diego State, followed by a decisive 81-59 victory at Seattle on Dec. 19. The 77-74 win on the Farm came as a come-from-behind victory in which the Bears battled back from a 17-point deficit late in the second half.

Cal's three-game road win streak is its best since 2015, when the Bears won at Washington State, Washington and Colorado between Jan. 29 and Feb. 12. The streak ended on Feb. 15, 2015, when Cal fell at No. 11 Utah, 68-61. The Bears have not recorded a four-game winning streak in true road games since the 2002-03 season, when Cal took wins at New Mexico, Cleveland State, Washington and Washington State.

NEXT UP
California heads north to the Evergreen State for the second time in less than a month for Pac-12 road action against Washington and Washington State. The Golden Bears open the road trip in Seattle against the Huskies at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 11, then head to Pullman for a 1 p.m. tilt with Washington State on Saturday, Jan. 13. Both games air on the Pac-12 Networks.

CAL IN THE PAC-12 PRESEASON POLL
The Golden Bears were projected to finish 11th in the Pac-12 in 2017-18, according to a preseason vote by media who regularly cover the conference.

Arizona is the favorite to win the conference, followed by USC and UCLA in the top 3. Washington State is predicted to finish behind the Bears at 12th.

Cal's worst finish in the last decade came in 2007-08, when the Bears went 17-16 overall and 6-12 in the Pac-10 to earn 9th place.

FAST BREAK
Five Fast Facts on: Juhwan Harris-Dyson

SPIDERFLY
In high school, Harris-Dyson's father, Jeff, coined the nickname Spiderfly after watching his son play.

"My Dad came up with it one night after watching me play," Harris-Dyson explained. "The spider is kind of like my defense trapping, like a fly in its web. The fly part is like the elusiveness of me going on offense, between slashing and attacking the basket."

THINK OF THE HAASIBILITIES
Amid his freshman year at Cal, Harris-Dyson has the Haas School of Business on his radar, and sees the inherent value of a degree in Business.

"I'm still kind of just figuring it out, but Haas is really interesting -- just having a business major, especially if you want to play professional basketball," Harris-Dyson shared. "You want to have something like that, so you can be able to negotiate your own contracts and stuff like that."

THE SCENIC ROUTE
Although he's had trouble adjusting to cooler temperatures than near his home in Southern California, Harris-Dyson is enthralled with his new home's scenery and enjoys walking through campus and around Berkeley.

"I just love the feeling, and especially the scenery. The area is really nice. You just walk down the street and you're like, 'Dang!'," he said.

"When you're walking around campus, it's a nice mixture of old buildings and new buildings -- and kind of like how the Campanile is set up, if it falls, it will fall down the street -- all those cool little fun facts that you find out when you just talk to people around campus," Harris-Dyson added.

KAWHI IS HIS GUY
One of Harris-Dyson's favorite players is San Antonio Spurs star Kawhi Leonard, who he views as a testament to how hard work and dedication pay off.

"I watch a lot of Kawhi Leonard because I like playing defense, and he's a great defensive player," he said. "I like watching his work ethic and how he's developed, and is starting to become an all-around player. He's knocking down shots and becoming a leader, so that's someone I'm setting a goal for myself to become like."

REUNITED
This year, Harris-Dyson was reunited with Deschon Winston, a fellow freshman on the Cal Men's Basketball team, whom he's known for many years and competed against during his senior year of high school.

The pair met during their freshman year of high school, attending the same school for both freshman and sophomore years before each transferred elsewhere. A tournament during their senior year brought the duo back together on the court.

"We were friends until tipoff of that game in high school, and then we were friends once the buzzer sounded," Harris-Dyson said. "We took a picture after we finally got to play against each other after both transferring schools."

Okoroh enters his senior season following Pac-12 All-Defensive Honorable Mention laurels last year. He logged 74 blocks to become Cal's single-season blocked shots leader. The Derby, England native started 24 contests in 2016-17 -- appearing in all 34 games -- en route to averaging a career-best in points (4.6) and rebounds (5.5). During his junior season, Okoroh also averaged 2.2 blocks per a game and recorded four or more blocks in six outings, while also setting single-game career-highs with five blocks against Wyoming and 13 rebounds against No. 4 UCLA.

The list will be narrowed down to 10 candidates by mid-February, with five finalists announced in March and the winner crowned in April.

BEARS SIGN TOP 25 CLASS
Head coach Wyking Jones first recruiting class is off to a strong start, signing a consensus Top 30 class, with three outlets listing Cal's 2018 signees as a Top 25 group. Top 100 recruits Jacobi Gordon (Houston, Texas) and Matt Bradley (San Bernardino, Calif.) and three-star California standout Andre Kelly have signed with the program. 247Sports and Scout gave the Bears the 18th-best class in the country. ESPN ranks the class 22nd. More notes on the class:
- Matt Bradley -- 97th in the ESPN 100, four-star shooting guard
- Jacobi Gordon -- 89th in the ESPN 100, No. 22 small forward in the country
- Andre Kelly -- Stockton Record's reigning All-Area Player of the Year who averaged 24.1 points, 15.2 rpg, 2.7 assists and 1.9 blocks as a junior.

CAL TO OPEN NEXT SEASON IN CHINA
California men's basketball will open the 2017-18 season against Yale in China in the fourth edition of the Pac-12 China Game presented by Alibaba Group. The flagship event of Pac-12 Global is designed to grow the global popularity of Pac-12 athletic programs and universities, fostering cultural exchange through sport, and creating unique educational experiences for Pac-12 student-athletes. In addition to the game, the trip will include educational and cultural experiences for student-athletes and university delegations. Specific date and location information will be announced at a later date.

HAMILTON NAMED TO NABC HONORS COURT
Senior guard Nick Hamilton was recognized for his exemplary work in the classroom this summer, earning NABC Honors Court laurels. The Honors Court recognizes student-athletes who excelled in academics during the 2016-17 season, carrying a 3.2 GPA or higher.

Hamilton boasts a 3.74 cumulative GPA as a double major in legal studies and media studies. The Inglewood, Calif. product saw action in 12 games during the Bears' 2016-17 campaign after recovering from a knee injury during the 2015-16 season.

OKOROH'S OFFSEASON
In preparation for Wyking Jones' style of press, Kingsley Okoroh spent his summer becoming a leaner, more mobile and more conditioned athlete. From June 19 to Aug. 28, Okoroh dropped 14 lbs. og weight, improving his lean body mass from 245.8 to 252 -- a gain of 7 lbs. of muscle. His fat measured at 8.4, down from 18.7 in June, including a nearly four percent drop in body fat from 9 percent to 5.1 percent.

Okoroh worked with men's basketball strength and conditioning coach Jordan Jackson, with a primary area of focus in his mobility -- including the ability to stay into basketball stances and positions for longer periods of times, and opening up his hips to move better. Ankle strength for the 7-footer was also a focus. Okoroh's conditioning to lean out included utilizing the underwater treadmill at Cal's Simpson High Performance Center to put less pressure on his joints, and participating in low-impact cardio such as intervals on the elliptical. Okoroh, Jackson and team nutritionist Elizabeth McNear also met several times throughout the summer to tighten up Okoroh's diet and nutrition plan.

WORKOUT WAYS
In order to prepare for a new style of offense this year, the Golden Bears were hard at work this offseason adapting to Strength & Conditioning Coach Jordan Jackson's workouts. Along with Olympic style weightlifting and conditioning, the Bears also participated in unique sessions such as hot yoga, conditioning on the campus beach volleyball courts and running the California Memorial Stadium steps.

#PROBEARS
When Ivan Rabb and Jabari Bird were drafted in the second round of the 2017 NBA Draft, they became the third and fourth draft picks in the last two seasons. The duo are among a number of #ProBears in the NBA, a list that includes:

- Jaylen Brown (Boston Celtics)
- Ryan Anderson (Houston Rockets)
- Jabari Bird (Boston Celtics/Maine Red Claws - two-way player)
- Ivan Rabb (Memphis Grizzlies/Hustle)
- Allen Crabbe (Brooklyn Nets)
- Jason Kidd (Milwaukee Bucks head coach)
- Sean Marks (Brooklyn Nets General Manager)

NEW-LOOK BEARS

California's new look extends beyond the nine newcomers on the squad, as the Golden Bears launched a 10-year partnership with global footwear and apparel leader Under Armour on June 1, 2017. The launch included a rebranding of several key athletics marks. The Cal script logo – one of the most iconic and recognizable marks in collegiate athletics – remains a staple, while two classic California symbols in the walking Bear and the block C combine to replace the old growling Bear logo. The Bears will also benefit from exclusive use of the custom Sather Stripe design, which pays homage to campus designs, including the Campanile.

BEARS HOST "FAMILY DAY OLYMPICS"

With a family atmosphere as an integral part of the foundation for head coach Wyking Jones' team culture, the Bears held a Family Day Olympics to kick off their preseason. Student-athletes, support staff and their families came together at Thousand Oaks Park in Berkeley for a picnic followed by a competitive slate of games, including a three-legged race, motivational quote unscramble, obstacle course, limbo and more.

NEWELLY-SURFACED

As part of Cal's transition to Under Armour, the Golden Bears received updated facilities paid for with a bonus from the apparel giant. Along with new signage and decor throughout Haas Pavilion, Pete Newell Court now displays the traditional Cal script logo at center court on the first-grade maple. The old maple wood surface was used for 17 seasons, reaching the end of its functional lifespan. The Sather Stripe makes an appearance on both baselines, as does the new font, again spelling out California and Golden Bears.

HEAD COACH WYKING JONES

With more than 15 years of collegiate coaching experience, Wyking Jones was introduced as California's head coach on March 24, 2017.

Prior to his tenure as head coach, Jones served as an assistant coach at Cal for two seasons under Cuonzo Martin in 2015-16 and 2016-17.

Charged with coaching Cal's big men, Jones helped forward Ivan Rabb become a two-time All-Pac-12 performer and Jaylen Brown earn All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 Freshman of the Year honors in 2015-16. In addition, center Kingsley Okoroh set a school record with 74 blocks in 2016-17.

In his first season with the Golden Bears, Jones helped steer Cal to the program's first NCAA Tournament bid since 2013 and the program's highest tournament seeding, a No. 4 seed. Cal's defense earned top marks, leading the Pac-12 with just 67.3 points allowed per game and finishing in the top three for rebounding. The Bears went 23-11 and extended their home winning streak to 19 games, dating back to the 2014-2015 season.

The Bears continued their success in 2016-17 by pushing their home winning streak to a program-record 27 games and once again led the league in defense, limiting opponents to 63.4 ppg and 40.0 percent shooting. Cal finished the season with a 21-13 record and earned the top seed in the National Invitation Tournament.

Throughout his career, Jones has also been instrumental in the development of 11 current and former NBA players, including standout Golden Bear Jaylen Brown, plus Terry Rozier, Gorgui Dieng, Montrezl Harrell, Tony Snell, Russ Smith and Peyton Siva.

Jones, a native of Inglewood, Calif., returned to his home state with 12 years of experience as a coach at the collegiate level and was introduced as Martin's assistant on April 23, 2015. He joined the Golden Bears' staff after serving as an assistant coach at Louisville for four seasons. During his time on the Cardinals' coaching staff, UofL's combined record was 123-30. Louisville captured the 2013 NCAA Championship and reached two Final Fours over the past four seasons. The Cardinals completed the 2014-15 season with a 27-9 record, reaching the NCAA Tournament regional final.

Prior to Louisville, Jones served two seasons on the coaching staff at New Mexico where the Lobos won 52 games in two seasons, including a school-record 30-win campaign in 2010. New Mexico finished the 2010 season ranked eighth in the Associated Press national poll.

Jones served as an assistant coach for five seasons from 2002-06 at Pepperdine, where he was the Waves' recruiting coordinator. He got his start in coaching at his alma mater, Loyola Marymount, during the 1996-97 season.

As an assistant coach, Jones boasts one national championship, two Final Four runs, seven NCAA Tournament appearances, an Elite Eight and Sweet 16 run and 10 NBA Draft selections.

He was a standout at LMU from 1991-95 under head coach John Olive, where his 1,076 career points rank 24th all-time in the program's history. Jones also collected 493 career rebounds during his career with the Lions. He was a two-time All-West Coast Conference selection, highlighted by a 19.7 ppg average as a junior. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Loyola Marymount in 1995.

Jones played professional basketball from 1995-2001 in Italy, France, Japan, Lebanon and South Korea. He also served on the staff at Nike Elite Youth Basketball for three years, where he was the Travel Team Manager for more than 45 programs.

Jones and his wife, Estrella, have a son, Jameel and a daughter, Zoe.
