

CAL SPRING GAME SET FOR SATURDAY, MARCH 20

CARRYING SUCCESS INTO 2021

- Cal has defeated the reigning Pac-12 Champion in three consecutive years (2018 vs. USC, 2019 vs. Washington, 2020 vs. Oregon).
- Cal has wins over Washington (2018) and Oregon (2020) in the year they won the Pac-12 titles.
- Cal has defeated a ranked team during every season of Justin Wilcox's tenure (2017 vs. No. 8/9 Washington State, 2018 vs. No. 15/13 Washington, 2019 vs. No. 14/12 Washington and 2020 vs. No. 23/21/20 Oregon).
- Cal has defeated each of the other five teams in the Pac-12 North during Justin Wilcox's tenure.
- The Bears are 9-0 in regular season non-conference games during Wilcox's tenure, including wins over North Carolina (Home & Away), Ole Miss (H&A), BYU (A), North Texas (H), UC Davis (H), Idaho State (H) and Weber State (H). Cal also has a 2019 Redbox Bowl win over Illinois.

BEARS RETURN EXPERIENCED GROUP

- Five student-athletes have started 20 or more games at Cal. Valentino Daltoso (34), Elijah Hicks (34), Cameron Goode (26), Michael Saffell (23) and Chase Garbers (23) have more than 20 starts.
- A total of 13 players have made 10 or more starts with the others Kuony Deng (17), Matthew Cindric (16), McKade Mettauer (16), Christopher Brown Jr. (14), Brett Johnson (13), Nikko Remigio (13), Jake Tonges (12) and Josh Drayden (10).
- Cal returns 11 players that made at least nine starts during the team's last full season in 2019: Brown, Cindric, Daltoso, Deng, Garbers, Goode, Hicks, Johnson, Mettauer, Tonges and Saffell.
- Cal returns 28 of the 33 players who made starts during the 2020 season.
- The Bears bring back nine of the 11 players that started all four games last season: Crawford, Deng, Drayden, Garbers, Goode, Hicks, Johnson, Mettauer and Saffell.
- Cal returns 29 of the 33 players who played in all four games in 2019
- The offensive line returns an experience unit that includes 10 players that have combined for 143 games played and 99 starts.

TRAVERS FAMILY ENDOWS HEAD COACH POSITION

- The Travers made a $10 million commitment from the Travers Family Foundation to UC Berkeley's Light the Way campaign.
- The Travers have made a $7.5 million commitment to endow the Travers Family Head Football Coach, providing essential resources for Cal football to ensure a world-class program, an exceptional coaching staff and a continued positive impact on student-athletes. In addition, the Travers have also made a $2.5 million commitment to augment their endowment for the Charles and Louise Travers Department of Political Science that supports this preeminent, nationally-ranked department.

CAL ENTERED 2020 ON BEST STRETCH IN A DECADE

- Prior to the abbreviated 2020 season which prevented Cal from practicing as a team and saw multiple position groups decimated through contact tracing, the Bears were building momentum as a program.
- Cal finished the 2019 season with an 8-5 record (4-5 in the Pac-12).
- Cal tied for second place in the Pac-12 North in 2019, the Bears highest finish in the division since the conference realigned in 2011.
- Cal made in its third bowl appearance in five seasons and the first back-to-back bowl appearances since the team went to seven straight bowl games between 2003-09.
- The 2018-19 seasons are the first two-year period where Cal recorded back-to-back winning seasons and bowl game appearances since 2008-09.
- Cal has been to 24 bowls in school history, but the team has only been to multiple bowl games in a row five times including the 2018-19 seasons (1921-22, 1949-51, 1992-93, 2008-09, 2018-19).
- The Bears had back-to-back seasons of .500 or better records on the road for first time since 2004 (5-1) and 2005 (3-2) as they went 4-2 in 2019 after going 3-2 in 2018.
- Cal won on the road at UCLA for the first time since 2009 in 2019.
- The Bears reclaimed The Axe in 2019 by defeating Stanford for the first time since 2009, as they won, 24-20, at Stanford Stadium.
- Cal won back-to-back road games in Los Angeles (USC in 2018 and UCLA in 2019) for the first time since 1970-71. The Bears also won in 1999-2000, but the 1999 win at UCLA was later forfeited due to the use of ineligible players.
- 2018-19 was the first time that Cal had won on the road at all three of its California rivals (Stanford, UCLA, USC) over a two-year span since 1949-50.
- The Bears won also 2019 road games over No. 14/12 Washington and in SEC Territory by defeating Ole Miss.

TAKE CARE OF THE DETAILS

- Cal was one of the least penalized and lowest turnover teams in the country in both 2019 and 2020.
- In 2019 the Bears led the Pac-12 in all four categories that measure penalties and they did the same in 2020.
- Cal was one of the nation's least penalized teams in 2020 with 35.00 penalty yards per game (5th NCAA, 1st Pac-12) and 4.50 penalties per game (12th, 1st).
- In 2019, Cal set a school record for fewest turnovers as the Bears had only 13 turnovers in 13 games.
- Cal carried over that theme in 2020 with five turnovers in four games as they did not turn the ball over in the win over Oregon.

CAL ENDS 2020 WITH BIG WIN OVER OREGON

- Oregon averaged 38.4 points per game before playing Cal. The Bears held UO to 17 points, including zero points and 132 yards after halftime.
- Oregon has two scoreless halves over the past two years, 2019 vs. Cal (first half) and 2020 vs. Cal (second half).
- Cal held Oregon to 17 points in both 2019 and 2020. Those are the Ducks' two lowest-scoring games over the past two seasons.
- Cal has recorded eight shutout halves during Wilcox's tenure, including five second-half shutouts, including in wins over USC (2018) and Oregon (2020).
- Cal controlled the clock vs. Oregon, running 79 plays (19 more than Oregon) while controlling the clock for 36:03 (a 12:06 advantage over Oregon).

2020 SEASON PRODUCED NUMEROUS TWISTS

- Cal was at a scheduling disadvantage for each of the team's first three games of the 2020 season: UCLA (Decided on two days notice, UCLA had played a game while Cal hadn't and Cal hadn't practiced 11 vs. 11 for 14 days prior to game), Oregon State (Cal played on one less day of rest, having played UCLA on Sunday morning), Stanford (Stanford's game on 11/21 was canceled, meaning they had a week of rest). Oregon was Cal's first game where the two teams both played seven days prior.
- Last season, Cal was held to four spring practices before the cancellation of all Pac-12 sports on March 11.
- Cal practiced in two groups for the entirety of the 2020 season. The Bears were limited to 75 players for a practice and did not field a scout team for the entirety of the 2020 season.
- The team is now allowed access to the weight room after utilizing Maxwell Field as an outdoor weight room throughout the fall.
- The team does not have access to the locker room and didn't during the 2020 season.
- On January 16, 2020, Cal announced a 12-game 2020 schedule which included the first-ever game in Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas vs. UNLV and a home matchup against TCU.
- After multiple schedule updates, Cal was finally scheduled to start its season vs. Washington on Nov. 7, but the game was canceled on Nov. 5 and declared a no-contest due to Cal's inability to field a competitive roster due to one positive COVID-19 test and subsequent contact tracing.
- Cal was scheduled to play Arizona State on Nov. 14, but the game was canceled at 9 a.m. on Nov. 13 due to positive COVID-19 tests within ASU's team. On the same day at 1:30 p.m., the Pac-12 announced that Cal would travel to UCLA for a rescheduled season-opener on Nov. 15.
- Cal's opener at UCLA was the fifth time Cal has ever played on a Sunday, but the first since Sept. 26, 1926 (Santa Clara, 13-6 win).
- The UCLA game was the fifth season opener on Cal's 2020 schedule (8/31 at UNLV, 9/26 vs. Oregon State, 11/7 vs. Washington, 11/14 vs. Arizona State, 11/15 vs. UCLA)
- Cal was one of the final two FBS teams to begin the 2020 fall season by playing its opener on 11/15 (Utah was the only team to begin later). Washington and Arizona both played their first game on 11/14.
- Cal did not play for a span of 322 days between the Redbox Bowl on Dec. 30, 2019 and the 2020 season opener at UCLA on Nov. 15, 2020.
- It was a stretch of 377 days between games at California Memorial Stadium when the Bears kicked off against Stanford on Nov. 27, having last played at CMS on Nov. 16, 2019 vs. USC.
- The only two Cal campaigns that have started later (Dec. 2, 1882 and Dec. 12, 1892) included games played the following spring. The Bears had never opened a season in November and the last time Cal began in October or later was with a 21-7 loss to Fort MacDowell on California Field in Berkeley on Oct. 5, 1918.
- 2020 was the first time since 1920 that Cal did not play USC.

CAL OR CALIFORNIA

When referring to football or any Cal Athletics team it is always "California" or "Cal", when referring to the University or academics it is "UC Berkeley", it is never "Cal-Berkeley" (you will hear "Cal-Berkeley" but it is inaccurate and should not be used).

FOCUSING ON THE RUN GAME

In Bill Musgrave's pro-style offense, the Bears have put an emphasis on running the ball. It showed off with 241 rushing yards vs. Stanford, the second-most for the Bears in the Justin Wilcox era. Cal had seven rushing plays of 15+ yards vs. Stanford. Cal also controlled the clock against Oregon with a 19-play drive which resulted in a Bradrick Shaw touchdown. That scoring drive was the longest since 2016. It also took 9:51 off the clock and helped the Bears to a win.

PASS DEFENSE

Cal's defense only allowed 196.8 passing yards per game in 2021, which ranked 28th in the NCAA and third in the Pac-12. The Bears held both UCLA (196) and Oregon State (155) under 200 yards passing, while Stanford finished with 205 yards and Oregon managed only 231 yards through the air. Over the final three games of 2020, when the opponent started at its own 40-yard line or further away, they were only able to score 34 points on 30 drives against Cal, with 24 drives ending without points.

WALK-ON CULTURE

Under Justin Wilcox, the Bears have embraced the walk-on mentality. That includes developing a culture where players have to earn their spots and their reps based on their play and actions, rather than their recruiting rankings. Patrick Laird (Miami Dolphins) and Ashtyn Davis (NY Jets) are recent walk-ons to the program that have earned a spot in the NFL. Both Laird and Davis, along with current senior Marcel Dancy, have been finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy, as the top player in the country who started their career as a walk-on.

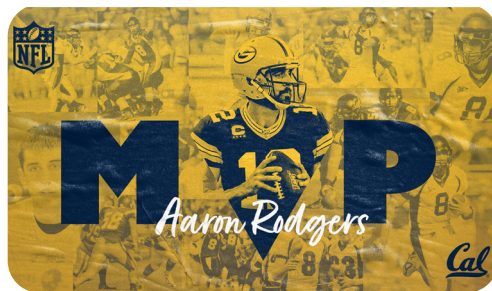

GARBERS LEADS OFFENSIVE UNIT

Chase Garbers is in his fourth year as a starter at Cal in 2021. He has led the Bears to a 14-8 record as the starting quarterback and Cal is 14-5 in games where Garbers has played more than half the game, including 7-0 during the 2019 season. The Bears have also been tough to beat on the road as the team has collected a 7-4 record when Garbers starts and plays more than a half on the road.

LOCKING DOWN IN THE RED ZONE

The Bears have been stingy inside the red zone the last couple years. In 2020, Cal held teams to only 10 touchdowns in 16 red zone appearances, good for a 62.5% rate of touchdowns allowed. They also only allowed three field goals in four games, as teams came up empty in four trips to the red zone against the Bears. The 75.0% (12-16) for red zone defense was ranked 20th in the country and first in the Pac-12.

AARON RODGERS - NFL MVP

Cal graduate Aaron Rodgers was named NFL MVP this year after one of the best seasons in league history. He threw for 48 touchdowns, setting a franchise record. While leading the NFL in QBR and QB Rating. He completed 70.7% of his passes, which led the league and set a Packers record. Rodgers became the first QB in NFL history to lead the league in interception percentage for the third straight year. He had 10 games with 3+ touchdowns and zero interceptions, an NFL single season record.

PRO DAY

Cal hosted Pro Day on Thursday, March 18. Camryn Bynum, Jake Curhan and Zeandae Johnson from the 2020 team showcased their talents. Bynum and Curhan both received invitations to the NFL Combine this year, but the combine was not held due to COVID-19. Traveon Beck and Jordan Duncan, who graduated in 2019, but were not able to go to their own Pro Day due to the onset of the pandemic also participated.

BEARS ADDING MUSCLE

The Bears have put an emphasis on getting bigger, faster and stronger during the offseason. With Brian Johnson, the first-year head football athletic performance coach leading the way, the Bears have packed on 595 combined pounds since he arrived in January. Despite going through spring practices and focusing less on lifting during this time, the Bears have still managed to get stronger. They will now focus on adding muscle following the conclusion of the spring game.

NFL SUCCESS

Cal had 21 players finished the 2020 NFL season on active rosters and four on practice squads. Keenan Allen, Tyson Alualu, Stephen Anderson, Bryan Anger, Ashtyn Davis, Devante Downs, Jared Goff, Chad Hansen, Jaylinn Hawkins, DeSean Jackson, Marvin Jones Jr., Cameron Jordan, Jordan Kunaszyk, L.P. Ladouceur, Patrick Laird, Alex Mack, Patrick Mekari, Aaron Rodgers, Richard Rodgers, Mitchell Schwartz and Nick Sundberg were on active rosters last year. Trevor Davis, Mychal Kendricks, Evan Weaver and Davis Webb graced practice squads.

BEARS SIGN NO. 20 CLASS

Cal has signed 21 members to the team in the class of 2021. The class ranked No. 20 nationally according to ESPN, the highest the Bears have been ranked since 2011. The class included eight four-star recruits and seven that were ranked in the top 300 by at least one publication. 13 members of the class played their prep football in California as the Bears emphasized recruiting the Bay Area.

10 "SUPER SENIORS" RETURN FOR ANOTHER YEAR

After the NCAA allowed student-athletes to return for an additional year, 10 Bears who were set to finish their final season of eligibility decided to return for one more additional year as a "Super Senior": Trevon Clark (WR), Kekoa Crawford (WR), Valentino Daltoso (OL), Marcel Dancy (RB), Kuony Deng (OLB), Josh Drayden (CB), Cameron Goode (OLB), Elijah Hicks (S), Michael Saffell (OL), Gentole Williams (OL). Crawford, Daltoso, Dancy, Deng, Drayden, Goode and Williams are all in their sixth year of eligibility.

KEITH HEYWARD - OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

Veteran Pac-12 coach Keith Heyward joins the Cal staff as outside linebacker coach this season. He's helped his teams to 12 bowl games in 16 years including the past nine in a row. Heyward has coached 19 players who have been selected in the NFL Draft including four first rounders. He's also coached for a team ranked in the AP Top 25 at some point in the season in 13 of his 16 campaigns. Heyward helped Oregon to back-to-back Pac-12 Championships and appearances in the Rose Bowl and Fiesta Bowl.

VIRTUAL TOUR

The NCAA instituted a dead period starting at the onset of the pandemic that has now been extended to May 31, 2021. To combat the lack of on-campus recruiting, Cal has created a virtual tour to highlight all of the aspects of attending the No. 1 public school in the country. The tour showcases a 360-degree 3D view of Cal facilities including the Aaron Rodgers Locker Room, weight room, California Memorial Stadium and other aspects of Cal's world class program.

BEARS BOAST LARGE ROSTER FOR SPRING

Between 10 seniors who returned for an additional year and nine early enrollees, Cal has had a large roster of 103 players available for spring ball. The 103 players is similar to a regular season roster which has allowed the Bears to scrimmage and play live football throughout the spring. The roster breakdown is as follows: quarterbacks (4), running backs (6), tight ends (7), wide receivers (15), offensive line (17), defensive line (10), outside linebackers (10), inside linebackers (9), defensive backs (18) and specialists (7).

TRE WATSON - DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Cal added one of the top young coaches when they hired Tre Watson. Watson was named on 247Sports' "30Under30" list of the top 30 coaches under 30 last season. He spent the 2020 campaign as the DB coach at UNLV following two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at Oregon. The Ducks won a Pac-12 title (2019), a pair of bowl games, and compiled a 21-6 (.778) record during his two years with the Ducks. Oregon intercepted 37 passes during his two seasons with the Ducks, ranking No. 2 nationally in 2019 (20).

NINE BEARS JOIN THE TEAM IN JANUARY

Cal added nine early enrollees in January to the squad: Hunter Barth (S), Akili Calhoun (DE), Kaleb Higgins (CB), Patrick Hisatake (OLB), Ryan Lange (OL), Nate Rutchena (ILB), Bastian Swinney (OL), Jermaine Terry (TE) and Raymond Woodie III (S). Woodie III joined the team as a transfer from Florida State and will be a junior this fall, while the other eight joined the Bears after graduating high school in December.

GEEP CHRYST - TIGHT END COACH

Cal added veteran coach Geep Chryst to the staff this spring. Chryst had 25 years of NFL coaching experience, including seven years as a tight end coach for the Carolina Panthers and Denver Broncos. He also served as the offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers and San Francisco 49ers. He led the 49ers to three straight NFC Championship games and a Super Bowl XLVII appearance. Chryst began his coaching career in college, coaching at Wisconsin-Platteville and Wyoming, including in the 1990 Copper Bowl vs. Cal.

BRIAN JOHNSON - ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE COACH

Brian Johnson joins the Golden Bears as the head football athletic performance coach. He has spent the past 11 years on strength & conditioning staffs at FBS schools and in the NFL including the last three campaigns as the director of strength & conditioning at Arizona (2018-20), where he implemented sports science while working as a liaison between the football program and the Center for Innovation in Brain Science. Johnson coached 76 players that have been selected in the NFL Draft including a total of 11 first rounders.

GARBERS IN FOURTH YEAR AS CAL STARTER

- Chase Garbers has led the Bears to a 14-8 record as the starting quarterback and Cal is 14-5 in games where Garbers has played more than half the game, including 7-0 in 2019. The Bears are also 7-4 when Garbers starts and plays more than a half on the road.
- Garbers had a career-high 28 completions in Cal's game at Oregon State, while he also threw three touchdowns.
- Garbers has seven career rushing touchdowns, including two in 2020.
- Garbers posted a 21-yard run vs. Oregon, his fifth career run of 20 yards or more and his second in 2020.
- He is the Pac-12's active leader in quarterback wins (14) and starts (23).
- Garbers was named Offensive MVP of the 2019 Redbox Bowl after passing for 272 yards and recording five total touchdowns (4 passing, 1 rushing).
- The dual-threat quarterback had a rushing touchdown in five of the last seven games (at Stanford, at UCLA, vs. Illinois, at UCLA, vs. Oregon).
- Spencer Brasch started at Utah and also played vs. Oregon State during the 2019 season as he totaled 71 yards passing.
- Robby Rowell played at Utah and threw for 13 yards on three attempts.
- Zach Johnson has impressed this spring, but has not seen game action for the Bears.

RUNNING BACKS (6)

24	Chris Street	5-9	215	So. ^

DEEP STABLE OF BACKS

- Freshman Damien Moore had a career high with 121 yards rushing on only 10 carries vs. Stanford. Moore had runs of 54 and 29 yards as he recorded Cal's only 100-yard game of 2020.
- It was the first time a Cal freshman has rushed for 100+ yards since redshirt freshman Shane Vereen ran for 101 yards vs. Michigan State on August 30, 2008. He is the first true freshman to run for 100+ yards since Marshawn Lynch ran for 122 yards vs. Stanford on November 20, 2004.
- Christopher Brown Jr. totaled 25 yards rushing in Cal's opener vs. UCLA, but missed the game vs. Oregon State due to injury. He was limited in snaps vs. Stanford, but still scored a touchdown with 58 seconds remaining that brought the Bears within a PAT of tying the game.
- Brown Jr. scored 12 total touchdowns (8 rushing, 4 receiving) in 13 games during the 2019 season, including multi-score games vs. Washington State and UCLA in 2019.
- Brown Jr. has 1127 rushing yards and 214 receiving yards in his career
- Marcel Dancy started and totaled 76 yards rushing on a career-high 17 carries vs. OSU.
- Dancy scored two touchdowns in Cal's win over Washington in 2019 as he totaled 72 yards.
- DeCarlos Brooks was named Arizona's Offensive Player of the Year during his senior year of high school in 2019.
- Chris Street was a four-star recruit who played in two games during his freshman season in 2020.
- Ashton Stredick rushed for 6420 yards and 88 touchdowns in 32 career high school games.

CAL INCORPORATING TIGHT ENDS

- Cal has moved to a pro-style offense under offensive coordinator Bill Musgrave that will incorporate more tight ends while asking them to do much more than they did in the spread offense during the first three years of Justin Wilcox's tenure.
- Nick Alftin was moved to tight end in 2020 after previously playing at outside linebacker.
- Collin Moore earned the start in the season opener vs. UCLA and had career highs with two catches for 28 yards, including Cal's longest play of the day, a 26-yard catch down the sideline. He also caught a touchdown in Cal's Redbox Bowl win to end the 2019 season.
- Jake Tonges caught a career-high nine receptions and totaled 55 yards in Cal's game at Oregon State. He also caught the go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter.
- Tonges had the longest play of the 2019 season as he had a 60-yard touchdown and 88 total yards in Cal's win at Ole Miss.
- Gavin Reinwald has 27 career catches for 260 yards while adding two touchdowns.
- Cal added Jake Muller in the class of 2020 and welcomed Keleki Latu and Jermaine Terry in the class of 2021.
- Terry comes to Cal from Kennedy HS in nearby Richmond. He was a consensus four-star recruit and was the top-ranked tight end in the class of 2021 according to ESPN. He decided to stay home and live up to his "Hometown Hero" nickname.

CAL RETURNS BALANCED RECEIVING CORPS

- Kekoa Crawford caught a career-high 10 balls for 141 yards and one touchdown in Cal's game vs. Oregon State. He was the first Cal receiver with 10 catches since Chad Hansen had 10 vs. UCLA on Nov. 26, 2016. His 10 receptions also tied for third in the Pac-12 in any game this year, while his 141 yards was the fourth-most in the conference.
- Nikko Remigio got involved in the passing game with six catches for 81 yards and one touchdown vs. No. 23 Oregon. Remigio was Cal's leading receiver in 2019, but only had four catches for nine yards and one touchdown over the first three games of 2020.
- Monroe Young has spent time in the lineup, recording his first two career catches earlier this year, grabbing a contested grab at UCLA and Oregon State.
- Trevon Clark has 273 yards receiving on 25 catches throughout his career recording touchdowns vs. Ole Miss and ASU in 2019.
- Jeremiah Hunter missed the 2020 season after getting injured in fall camp. Hunter looked ready to make an impact as a true freshman prior to the injury.
- Tommy Christakos caught two touchdown passes in Cal's first scrimmage of spring ball on March 6 to help earn the nickname "Top Shelf Tommy" from wide receiver coach Burl Toler III.
- Justin Richard Baker has featured in the slot for the Bears. He came to Cal after a standout high school career in Washington, which also saw him lead a rally to support to LGBTQ+ teachers at his school that were being discriminated against.
- Mavin Anderson will join the Bears this summer after being named a Sports Illustrated All-American candidate prior to the 2020 high school season and one of the consensus top 300 recruits in the nation.
- J. Michael Sturdivant will come to Cal after an Under Armour All-American performance in high school, which had him ranked as one of the top wide receivers in the Class of 2021.

OFFENSIVE LINE RETURNS EXPERIENCE, DEPTH

- The offensive line returns an experience unit that includes 10 players that have combined for 143 games and 99 starts.
- Valentino Daltoso has been taking reps at right tackles and will be a starter for the fifth consecutive year after exercising his option on a sixth year. Daltoso has 35 games and 34 starts; starting 12 times at left tackles, 12 times at left guard and 10 at right guard.
- Michael Saffell has started 23 games and played in 28 contests in his career as he returns for a fifth season.
- Saffell will be heading the Cal Bears Summer Reading Challenge for the third year, encouraging kids to avoid summer learning loss by reading over the summer.
- McKade Mettauer and Matthew Cindric combined for 25 starts during their freshman seasons in 2019, the duo combined to start seven games at guard during the 2020 season.
- Will Craig played in two games at left tackle in 2020 after starting one game in 2019. He played nine games as a freshman in 2018, spelling current Baltimore Raven Patrick Mekari at left tackle.
- Due to a number of players being unavailable at Oregon State and vs. Stanford, Brayden Rohme and Brandon Mello made their first career starts at offensive tackles for the Bears. Brian Driscoll also played a significant number of snaps at center against OSU after Mike Saffell left the game due to injury.
- Gentle Williams had three starts during the 2018 season, but has missed time over the past two years due to injury.
- Ben Coleman switched to offensive line last fall and has made an immediate impact earning reps at all of the interior positions on the line.
- Bastian Swinney and Ryan Lange enrolled in January while the third signee of the class of 2021, Dylan Jemtegaard will enroll in the summer.

BRETT JOHNSON, JH TEVIS RETURN ON DEFENSIVE LINE

- Brett Johnson and JH Tevis played all 69 snaps against Stanford along the defensive line.
- Johnson had a career-high 10 tackles and 1.0 sacks vs. Stanford, he has recorded at least 0.5 TFL in each game of the 2020 season.
- Johnson was named Third Team Freshman All-America by PFF in 2019.
- Johnson was expected to move to end in Cal's base scheme for the 2020 season, but due to injuries started at nose guard again in 2020 after doing so throughout 2019.
- JH Tevis made his first career start in Cal's 2020 season opener vs. UCLA and he set a career high with 10 tackles, including four solo stops. He followed that up with two tackles and 1.0 TFL in the game vs. Oregon State.
- Tevis recorded his first two career sacks in the 2020 Big Game vs. Stanford, finishing the season ranked 10th in the Pac-12 in sacks per game at 0.50.
- Aaron Maldonado returns to the team after missing the entire 2020 season. In 2019 he recorded two sacks.
- Stanley McKenzie, Jaedon Roberts and Ricky Correia have been playing in spring ball after missing the majority of their freshman seasons in 2020 due to injury.
- Akili Calhoun enrolled in January to provide depth to the defensive line.

GOODE, DENG HIGHLIGHT CAL'S LINEBACKING CORPS

- Cameron Goode recorded 2.5 tackles per loss and 0.5 sacks in the game vs. OSU. Against No. 23 Oregon, Goode had seven tackles, 1.5 sacks, 3.5 TFLs, a pass break-up and a fumble recovery.
- Goode notched at least 1.0 TFL in each game of the 2020 season and ranked 2nd in both the FBS and the Pac-12 in tackles per loss per game. He also ranked 30th in the FBS in sacks per game at 0.75.
- Goode is tied for the most sacks (8.0) by any active FBS player over their last seven games and is tied for second in most tackles for loss (13.0) over the same time span.
- Kuony Deng was named a team captain by his teammates in his second year in the program after transferring to Cal from Independence CC (Kansas), which was the subject of the Netflix show Last Chance U, during Deng's lone season at Independence. Deng did not see much screen time on the show.
- Deng had a season-high 14 tackles and 1.0 TFL vs. Stanford and led Cal with 31 tackles in 2020.
- Deng was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week as he forced fumbles on two critical fourth quarter possessions to cause turnovers and help Cal preserve the upset win over No. 23 Oregon.
- Deng has six career games with 10+ tackles and 10 games with 8+ tackles.
- Deng moved to outside linebacker for the 2020 season after spending the past two years at inside linebacker.
- Braxten Croteau set a career high with five tackles in Cal's season opener at UCLA. He had a crucial fourth-down tackle for loss on C.J. Verdell in Cal's upset of No. 23 Oregon.

TALENTED YOUNGSTERS LOOK TO MAKE MARK AT ILB

- Cal returns every inside linebacker who played during the 2020 season, but with Kuony Deng moving to outside linebacker, many young players will have an opportunity to play.
- Evan Tattersall is the oldest outside linebacker in the group as a redshirt junior with three years left to play. He had a career-high seven tackles in his first career start at UCLA in the 2020 season opener.
- Tattersall finished the season with 15 tackles and two QB hurries in three games.
- Muelo Iosefa recorded his first career start in the 2020 Big Game vs. Stanford. He notched a career-best five tackles and a PBU. He followed that with five tackles and a fumble recovery vs. No. 23 Oregon.
- Blake Antzoulatos recorded three tackles at Oregon State.
- Trey Paster switched positions and will be playing inside linebacker after spending his freshman season at safety in 2020.
- Ryan Puskas and Kyle Smith have both seen action for the Bears while playing primarily on special teams.
- Nate Rutचना enrolled early at Cal, while Moses Oladejo will join the inside linebacker room in the summer.

SAFETIES RETURN KEY PLAYERS

- After starting 12 games at cornerback in 2019, Hicks moved to safety during the Bears' 2019 bowl practices. He started all four games during the 2020 season, recording 28 tackles in four games.
- Hicks tied his career high with seven tackles and set a career high with two PBUs in the 2020 season opener vs. UCLA. He set a new career high with eight tackles vs. Stanford.
- Hicks also had an interception vs. Oregon State, which he returned for 30 yards as he set up a go-ahead score in the fourth quarter.
- After earning his first career start in the Redbox Bowl, Daniel Scott started, and led the team with a career high 11 tackles vs. UCLA in the 2020 season opener. He also recorded an interception in the 2019 Big Game vs. Stanford. Scott had 20 tackles in 2020.
- Craig Woodson started the first game of the 2020 season, recording a four tackles and making an impact play by blocking a punt in the first quarter vs. UCLA. It was Cal's first blocked punt since Hamilton Anoa'i at Oregon on Nov. 7, 2015. He has at least four tackles in every game in 2020, starting three.
- Florida State transfer Raymond Woodie III played in 19 games and recorded 34 tackles over the past two years for the Seminoles, he racked up 4.0 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks and comes to Cal as a junior.
- Dejuan Butler moved to safety this offseason after playing cornerback during the 2020 season.
- Hunter Barth enrolled early after a standout prep career in Arizona.

SPECIAL TEAMS RETURNS ENTIRE UNIT FROM 2020 SEASON

- Dario Longhetto went four-of-five on field goals during the 2020 season.
- Longhetto made a 52-yard field goal as time expired in the first half vs. Oregon State. That was a career-best and the longest field goal by a Cal player since Matt Anderson also hit a 52-yard field goal vs. Arizona in 2017.
- Longhetto was the Bears' primary punter in five games during the 2019 season as he served as an injury replacement for Steven Coutts. Longhetto averaged 40.9 yards per punt on his 18 attempts and recorded a long of 54. He placed four punts inside the 20 and had three punts longer than 50 yards.
- Slater Zellers returns after serving as the team's long snapper throughout the 2019 season. Zellers was a Under Armour All-American in high school.
- Former Australian rules football player Jamieson Sheahan is the Bears' punter for the 2020 season. Sheahan competed in his first-ever organized football competition in the Bears' season opener vs. UCLA.
- Sheahan had six punts including a career-best 50-yard kick vs. Stanford.
- Sheahan has boosted his punt average in each of the last two games after setting a career high in attempts (7) and yardage (295) vs. No. 23 Oregon.
- Wide receiver Tommy Christakos handled kickoff duties in the opener at UCLA but is expected to focus on his wide receiver duties in 2021. Christakos had three kickoffs for 195 yards, averaging 65.0 yards per kick with one touchback. He added another touchback on five kicks during Cal's game at Oregon State.

HEAD COACH JUSTIN WILCOX

Justin Wilcox is in his fifth season as the head football coach at Cal and his 21st campaign in collegiate coaching in 2021. He has compiled a long list of accomplishments and signature wins in his first four seasons in his current role at Cal, leading the Golden Bears to back-to-back winning seasons and bowl games in 2018 and 2019 for the first time since 2008 and 2009, knocking off the reigning Pac-12 champion each of the past three seasons with victories on the road at USC in 2018 and Washington in 2019 before beating Oregon at home in 2020. His teams have also produced victories over all five schools in the Pac-12 North and been victorious in road games at all three of the Bears' Pac-12 California opponents, ending droughts that dated back to 2000 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum and 2009 at both the Rose Bowl and Stanford Stadium. The Bears have also taken down a top-20 team in each of Wilcox's first four seasons with victories over No. 8/9 Washington State, No. 15/13 Washington, No. 14/12 Washington and most recently in 2020 against No. 23/21/20 Oregon. In addition, Wilcox's teams have produced a perfect 9-0 mark in non-conference regular-season games including four wins against Power 5 schools.

Wilcox began his third season at Cal in 2019 with four straight wins to move the Bears into the No. 15 spot in the AP Top 25 and No. 16 in the Coaches Poll. The victories included road wins at then-No. 14/12 Washington and Ole Miss with the latter the first road triumph by a Pac-12 school at an SEC foe since 2010. The two signature wins helped the Bears to a 4-2 mark in true road games to give Cal back-to-back winning seasons on the road for the first time since 2004.

A strong defense led by national Defensive Player of the Year candidate and Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year Evan Weaver defined the 2019 Golden Bears. Weaver led the nation in total tackles (school-record 182), total tackles per game (14.0), solo tackles (103) and solo tackles per game (7.9) for a Bears' defense that allowed only 21.9 points per game and ranked fourth in the Pac-12 in both scoring defense and total defense (389.9 ypg).

On offense, Cal put together game-winning drives on its final possessions both at Washington and Stanford in 2019 while committing only 13 turnovers, two less than the previous school record of 15 set in 2016. Cal also sported a 7-0 record in games that quarterback Chase Garbers both started and finished.

Wilcox guided the Bears to the Cheez-It Bowl and a 7-6 record in his second campaign in 2018 with the bowl appearance Cal's first since 2015. The Bears won four of five Pac-12 games in one stretch, highlighted by signature wins over eventual Pac-12 champion and then-No. 15/13 Washington as well as at USC. The victory over the Trojans clinched bowl eligibility and marked Cal's first win against USC since 2003 and its first at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum since 2000. Cal also started the season with a 3-0 mark and in Week 5 made its first appearance since 2015 in the AP Top 25 at No. 24.

Cal's defense finished the 2018 campaign among national and Pac-12 leaders in nearly every category. Cal ranked in the top 10 nationally and paced the conference in interceptions (21, No. 2 NCAA), defensive touchdowns (5, No. T4 NCAA), turnovers gained (28, No. T6 NCAA) and passing yards allowed (175.1 ypg, No. 9 NCAA). The Bears also led the conference and ranked in the top 20 in the country in pass efficiency defense (107.26, No. 11 NCAA) and first downs allowed (227, No. 18 NCAA). Cal was also 15th nationally in total defense (317.2 ypg) and 22nd in scoring defense (20.4 ppg) while registering third in the Pac-12 in both areas.

The highlights of Wilcox's first season as the head coach in Berkeley in 2017 included a 3-0 start and non-conference wins over Power 5 programs North Carolina and Ole Miss, as well as a 37-3 victory over then No. 8/9 Washington State. The victory was the Bears' first against a top-10 team since 2003 and only its second top-10 win dating back to 1977. Cal finished 5-7 overall and also notched a Pac-12 victory over Oregon State while taking three conference opponents to the wire with three losses by a combined total of seven points to Arizona, UCLA and Stanford.

Wilcox spent the previous 11 seasons as a defensive coordinator at Boise State (2006-09), Tennessee (2010-11), Washington (2012-13), USC (2014-15) and Wisconsin (2016). Over his first 19 seasons in collegiate coaching, Wilcox has been a member of staffs that have gone to 15 bowl games and won five conference or division championships.

Wilcox spent three seasons as Cal's linebackers coach from 2003-05 in his first position as a full-time coach following two campaigns as a graduate assistant at Boise State (2001-02). The Bears posted a 26-12 record during his first stint in Berkeley with trips to the Insight, Holiday and Las Vegas bowls.

A 1999 graduate of Oregon with a bachelor's degree in anthropology, Wilcox is the son of Dave Wilcox, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who played for the San Francisco 49ers from 1964-74. His uncle, John (Philadelphia Eagles, 1960), and brother, Josh (New Orleans Saints, 1998-99), also played in the NFL.

As a collegiate student-athlete, Wilcox was a safety and cornerback at Oregon (1996-99), helping the Ducks to three bowl games (1997 Las Vegas Bowl, 1998 Aloha Bowl, 1999 Sun Bowl). In 1999, he was named second-team All-Pac-10 and earned Pac-10 All-Academic honors.

*Season in which bowl game was played

Bill Musgrave (Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks)

Bill Musgrave is in his second season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Cal in 2020. Musgrave has more than two decades of coaching experience in the NFL and collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as an offensive coordinator. The long list of quarterbacks he has tutored includes Pro Bowlers Steve Beuerlein, Matt Ryan and Derek Carr. Musgrave's 20 NFL seasons have included stints with Oakland (1997, 2015-16), Philadelphia (1998, 2014), Carolina (1999-2000), Jacksonville (2003-04), Washington (2005), Atlanta (2006-10), Minnesota (2011-13) and Denver (2017-18). Musgrave had some of his biggest success in Cal's backyard with Oakland when he inherited an offense that had ranked last in the NFL in 2014 in total offense (282.2 ypg) and second to last in scoring (15.9 ppg). The Raiders made the biggest offensive improvement in the NFL in yards per game (+91.1 ypg) and scoring (+10.2 ppg) in two seasons under Musgrave, finishing sixth in the league in 2016 in total offense (373.3 ypg) and seventh in scoring (26.0 ppg).

Peter Sirmon (Defensive Coordinator/Inside Linebackers/Recruiting Coordinator)

Sirmon is in his fourth season at Cal and has defensive coordinator duties for the second straight year after spending 2019 as the co-defensive coordinator. Sirmon was instrumental to Cal's success in his first two years on the Bears' staff in 2018 and 2019, leading to his seventh and eighth consecutive bowl appearances as a coach. Sirmon paired up with Tim DeRuyter to earn 2019 FootballScoop Linebackers Coaches of the Year presented by AstroTurf. Sirmon has coached All-American inside linebackers Jordan Kunaszyk and Evan Weaver during his first two years. The two have combined to record three of the five-best total tackle seasons in school history over the past two years. Sirmon was the defensive coordinator at Louisville (2017) and Mississippi State (2016) prior to his arrival. He was a four-year collegiate teammate of Wilcox and a first-team All-Pac-10 selection at Oregon. He also played seven years as a linebacker with the Tennessee Titans.

Charlie Ragle (Special Teams Coordinator)

Charlie Ragle is in his fifth season as Cal's special teams coordinator in 2021. He coached placekicker Matt Anderson, Cal's all-time leading scorer, and has also helped Cal have one of the better punt return units in the country, as the Bears averaged 11.1 yards per return during the 2019 season.

Andrew Browning (Defensive Line)

Browning is in his third season as the Golden Bears' defensive line coach in 2021 and fourth year on staff. He helped coach Brett Johnson to a spot on the PFF Freshman All-American team in 2019, and another pupil Zeandae Johnson was named the Redbox Bowl MVP during Browning's first campaign as defensive line coach.

Geep Chryst (Tight Ends)

Chryst begins his Cal coaching career in 2021 after 25 years of NFL coaching experience. He served as the offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers and San Francisco 49ers. He led the 49ers to three straight NFC Championship games and a Super Bowl XLVII appearance. Chryst began his coaching career in college, coaching at Wisconsin-Platteville and Wyoming, including in the 1990 Copper Bowl vs. Cal.

Keith Heyward (Outside Linebackers)

Heyward joins the Cal staff in 2021. He's helped his teams to 12 bowl games in 16 years including the past nine in a row. Heyward has coached 19 players who have been selected in the NFL Draft including four first rounders. He's also coached for a team ranked in the AP Top 25 at some point in the season in 13 of his 16 campaigns. Heyward helped Oregon to back-to-back Pac-12 Championships and appearances in the Rose Bowl and Fiesta Bowl.

Angus McClure (Offensive Line)

Angus McClure is in his second season as the offensive line coach at Cal. McClure is considered one of the elite recruiters in college football and has 29 seasons of coaching experience, including 25 in the collegiate ranks at UCLA, Nebraska, Nevada, Buffalo and Sacramento State.

Aristotle Thompson (Running Backs)

Aristotle Thompson is in his second season as the running backs coach at Cal in 2020 after spending the 11 years coaching running backs at Cal Poly. Under Thompson's tutelage, the Mustangs featured at least one 1,000-yard rusher in his final nine years at Cal Poly.

Burl Toler III (Wide Receivers)

Toler III is in his fourth season as an assistant in 2021 and his third as the wide receivers coach after spending his inaugural 2018 campaign with the running backs. He was a four-year letterwinner from 2001-04 at wide receiver. He helped Cal to a 2003 Insight Bowl win.

Tre Watson (Defensive Backs)

Watson enters his first season with the Bears. He was named on 247Sports' "30Under30" list of the top 30 coaches under 30 last season. He spent 2020 as the DB coach at UNLV following two seasons as a defensive GA at Oregon. The Ducks won a Pac-12 title (2019), a pair of bowl games, and compiled a 21-6 record at Oregon.

Brian Johnson (Head Athletic Performance Coach)

Johnson is in his first season with the Bears after spending the past 11 years on strength & conditioning staffs at FBS schools and in the NFL including the last three campaigns as the director of strength & conditioning at Arizona. Johnson coached 76 players that have been selected in the NFL Draft including a total of 11 first rounders

ELIJAH HICKS WANTS TO INTERCEPT POVERTY

Elijah Hicks comes from a large family with 11 siblings. Growing up, Hicks didn't always know where his next meal would come from. He lived with teammates and survived on the generosity of others. Now, he wants to pass that along. He has created his own non-profit, Intercept Poverty Foundation, that collaborated with No Kid Hungry to raise over $60,000 to financially help families that have been affected by COVID-19 feed their children. Prior to the pandemic, he volunteered in the food pantry at the UC Berkeley Basic Needs Center. Once COVID-19 hit, he prepared grocery bags to give away to UC Berkeley staff in need. He also recently partnered with Scholarship America and is in the process of raising money to award emergency grants to Cal students in need. He was named to the 2020 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® and was a semifinalist for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Award.

MICHAEL SAFFELL - SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

Michael Saffell took the project over from current Miami Dolphin Patrick Laird. For the third year in a row, Saffell is promoting reading amongst 1-6 graders. Those that completed the challenge in 2018 and 2019 received tickets to a Cal football game. More than 2,500 tickets were redeemed for the game vs. UC Davis in 2019. In 2020, the Summer Reading Challenge moved online, but the program intends to be back in 2021 if fans are allowed back in the stands.

AARON RODGERS LOCKER ROOM

Former Cal quarterback Aaron Rodgers made a seven-figure gift to the football program in June 2019 to renovate the football locker room and create the Aaron Rodgers Football Scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded each year to a junior college transfer. Rodgers himself came to Cal after one season at Butte College. Dr. Paul F. White '68 also contributed a six-figure gift to the project. White is the brother of former Cal football All-American and College Football Hall of Famer Ed White.

MARCEL DANCY - HELPING THE TOWN

Marcel Dancy grew up in neighboring Oakland and has volunteered to be a coach and mentor with the Oakland Dynamites, a youth football team in Oakland. Dancy has taken his inspiration from Cal football legend Marshawn Lynch, and even volunteers at Lynch's FAM 1st events throughout The Town. He wants to help put as many kids as he can in a position to succeed in their life. During the pandemic, Dancy has also raised more than $20,000 to help low-income families of students at Burckhalter Elementary in Oakland.

DOG TURNER - NOT FORGOTTEN

"It's a great day to be a Bear". Those are words that you heard every time you entered California Memorial Stadium. After 50 years of working for Cal in a variety of roles, Bud "Dog" Turner passed away on September 4, 2020 at the age of 84. Turner was an instrumental part of the Cal football team and had been most recently working as an operations assistant. The Bears wore a "DOG" patch on their helmets during the 2020 season and for 2021 spring ball. Dog's chair sits at the North Tunnel entrance to Memorial Stadium.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Since the summer, Cal student-athletes have put a priority on fighting for social justice. Players have attended rallies, organized protests and raised money for causes to support racial justice. Cameron Goode attended George Floyd's public funeral in Houston. Orin Patu and Josh Drayden are on the leadership council of BSAC. Kuony Deng Deng was active in Bay Area protests in the days after Floyd's killing and brought several teammates and staff along with him, passing out water to protesters as they marched by.

POLYNESIAN CONNECTIONS

Cal has recruited many players of a Polynesian descent during the Justin Wilcox era. Over the past few classes, Cal has added Orin Patu, Muelu Iosefa, Patrick Hisatake, Stanley McKenzie, and Nikko Remigio, and will add Fatuvalu Iosefa, Keleke Latu and Jeremia Moore in the summer of 2021. Fatuvalu will join his brother, Muelu, on the team. Patu's father, Saul, played at Oregon alongside Justin Wilcox and Peter Sirmon. The Bears efforts to recruit Poly players is led by director of on-campus recruiting Benji Palu, a former player of Polynesian descent.

RIVERA FAMILY MAKES GIFT TO CAL SOFTBALL

Ron Rivera, a former All-American linebacker for Cal and the head coach of the Washington Football Team, and his wife Stephanie, a former Cal basketball player, made a $500,000 gift to Cal's softball facility project. It will be named the "Rivera Family Cal Softball Field." Ron and Stephanie are both Cal grads and met while at Cal. The Riveras' gift is part of the Cal Athletics' gender equity campaign that will upgrade the softball facility and provide practice and competition space. Ron Rivera recently overcame his battle with cancer.
