CALIFORNIA GOLDEN BEARS

BEARS HOST BRUINS IN JOE ROTH GAME FRIDAY

ABOUT THE SERIES

- This will be the 93rd all-time meeting between California and UCLA.
- The Bruins lead the series 57-34-1. Cal's last win in the series came on Nov. 30, 2019, a 28-18 victory at the Rose Bowl. The Bears' last win over the Bruins in Berkeley came on Nov. 26, 2016, a 36-10 triumph.

JOE STARKEY DAY

- Cal's last home game of the season includes Joe Starkey Day as the legendary announcer best known for his call of The Play against Stanford in 1982 finishes his 48th and final season as the radio voice of the Golden Bears.
- In addition to producing one of the most memorable calls in all of sports history for what is widely considered college football's most famous play ever, Starkey also coined the phrase "What A Bonanza!" to describe other exciting plays he has witnessed since the beginning of his broadcasting career in 1972 as the radio and television voice of the NHL's California Golden Seals. Starkey, who turned 81 on October 19, began his tenure at Cal in 1975 and has been on the microphone for 549 of the 556 Cal football contests since. He celebrated his 500th Cal game against Oregon on Sept. 29, 2018.
- Starkey has also had an array of broadcasting duties with professional sports organizations during his career that he mostly fulfilled in conjunction with his Cal duties, highlighted by a 22-year stint on the San Francisco 49ers' radio broadcast team (1987-2008) that included the final 20 campaigns as the play-by-play voice. The 49ers won their most recent three Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIV, XXIX) during Starkey's tenure with the team as he described plays for Pro Football Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Jerry Rice and Steve Young, among others.

FAB FRESHMAN HONORS CANDIDATES

- Propelled by a monster game against Arizona on Sept. 24 (274 yds, 3 TD) true freshman running back Jaydn Ott has recorded the most rushing yards, rushing touchdowns and all-purpose yards by a freshman in Cal history. Ott ranks fifth nationally among freshmen in rushing yards (842) and sixth among first-year players nationally in rushing yards per game (76.5). Named a midseason true freshman All-American by College Football News, The Athletic and On3, Ott leads all Pac-12 freshmen and ranks fourth among first-year players nationally in all-purpose yards per game (98.8), tied for fifth in total touchdowns (10) and tied for sixth in rushing touchdowns (8).
- Redshirt freshman wide receiver J. Michael Sturdivant sits atop of several stat categories among freshman wide receivers across the country. The Highland Village, Texas product leads the nation's freshmen in receptions (60) and receptions per game (5.5), is tied for third in touchdown receptions (6), third in receiving yards (685) and fourth in receiving yards per game (62.3).
- Defensively, the Bears have seen an immediate impact from true freshman cornerback Jeremiah Earby and defensive end Nate Burrell. Earby, who was named a Midseason Freshman All-American by 247Sports, The Athletic, and On3, has played in all 11 games with six starts. Earby co-leads the Pac-12 with 10 pass breakups, is ninth on the team in tackles (28) and has a team-high two fumble recoveries including one that he returned 33 yards for a touchdown at Oregon State and another that eventually turned into a 37-yard touchdown for Jackson Sirmon. Burrell has played in all 11 games including six starts this season as a consistent cog along the defensive line and contributed 21 tackles.

STARKEY'S FINAL PLAY

- Legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Joe Starkey, best known for his "the band is on the field" call of "The Play" in 1982, will retire as Cal's football radio play-by-play announcer following the 2022 campaign.
- In Starkey's 48th and final season on the mic, the 2022 Golden Bears have traveled to Notre Dame to face the Fighting Irish for the first time in 55 years, celebrated the 125th Big Game and 40th anniversary of The Play in Berkeley on Nov. 19 with a win over Stanford and will host Joe Starkey Day for the regular-season finale in Strawberry Canyon against UCLA on Nov. 25.
- Starkey has also had an array of broadcasting duties with professional sports organizations during his career that he mostly fulfilled in conjunction with his Cal duties, highlighted by a 22-year stint on the San Francisco 49ers' radio broadcast team (1987-2008) that included the final 20 campaigns as the play-by-play voice. The 49ers won their most recent three Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIV, XXIX) during Starkey's tenure with the team as he described plays for Pro Football Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Jerry Rice and Steve Young, among others.

PROMOS AND GIVEAWAYS

- Cal football fans have plenty of exciting reasons to be in attendance at California Memorial Stadium in 2022. The long list is highlighted by special giveaways including a Replica Axe that was given to the first 10,000 fans through the gates for the 125th Big Game against Stanford.
- In addition, the Bears will celebrate "Joe Starkey Day" on Nov. 25 against UCLA when longtime radio broadcaster Joe Starkey, who will retire at the end of the season after 48 years calling Cal games, will be honored.
- Special ticket offers are available to youth sports organizations for the Nov. 25 regular-season finale against UCLA.
- The home schedule has also included traditional events such as the already played Homecoming (Arizona) and Cal Athletics Hall of Fame games (Washington), as well as the Cam Jordan Bobblehead game (Oregon).

Redshirt Junior (2021)

– Has played in each of the past 29 Cal games over the last three campaigns after redshirting as a 2018 true freshman and has made every snap on punts although he did not snap on field goals or PATs for three consecutive contests in 2021 (Oregon, Colorado, Oregon State) before resuming those duties on Cal's lone field goal attempt and make at Arizona

Justin Wilcox is in his sixth season as the Travers Family Head Football Coach at Cal in 2022. Wilcox signed a contract extension through the 2027 campaign this past January.

"I appreciate the opportunity to be the head football coach at Cal and am excited about the future of our program," Wilcox said in the announcement of his extension. "I have thoroughly enjoyed every minute I have spent with the extraordinary young men who have been in our program. We are in a great position and strongly aligned with our university thanks to the leadership of Chancellor Carol Christ and our Director of Athletics Jim Knowlton. I thank both of them for their continued trust and confidence in me to lead a football program that will make the entire Cal community proud. We have very high expectations. I think we've earned the right to expect more, and that's exactly what we're going to do."

Wilcox has compiled a long list of accomplishments and signature wins in his first five-plus seasons as the head coach at Cal including three wins in the last four seasons over Stanford in the Big Game (2019, 2021, 2022) and landmark victories USC in Cal's 2021 season finale that was the Golden Bears' first home win over the Trojans since 2003 but its' second in the last four campaigns against the Trojans under Wilcox, who also led Cal to a road victory at USC in 2018. The back-to-back road wins in the Big Game at Stanford in 2019 and 2021 made Wilcox only the fifth Cal head coach to be victorious at least twice in a row on The Farm, and along with Jeff Tedford, one of only two in the last 70 years since Pappy Waldorf won three straight from 1947-51. Cal has won two of three games against the other California schools in the Pac-12 in each of the last two full football seasons not affected by COVID with the Bears adding a win over UCLA to their 2019. Cal has a chance to extend the streak to three in 2022 with a victory over the Bruins in their season finale this Friday at California Memorial Stadium.

Cal's current 4-7 record in 2022 has come for an inexperienced team that started the season with 58 of the 113 players on the roster having never participated in a game for the Golden Bears including 35 in their first season overall at Cal. The Bears ranked 12th in the Pac-12 and 127th of 131 FBS schools on Phil Steele's experience chart heading into the campaign. A total of 33 Bears have played for the first time at Cal in 2022, while 24 have made their first start for the Blue and Gold.

Cal ranks among the nation's top teams in nearly every turnover statistical category in 2022, including a tied for second-place showing in the Pac-12 and tied for 14th-place national ranking with a +0.73 turnover margin. The Bears' 10 turnovers lost are the third-fewest in the Pac-12 and tied for 12th nationally, while their 18 turnovers gained are tied for fourth in the Pac-12 and tied for 47th nationally. Cal has at least one takeaway in 10 of the first 11 games of the 2022 campaign. The Bears' single fumble lost is tied for first both in the Pac-12 and nationally with the Bears losing only a total of only two fumbles in 2021 and 2022. Cal's current totals of one fumble lost and 10 total turnovers lost both equal the lowest ever in a single full season.

Wilcox's team came on strong in the second half of the 2021 season with four victories in its final six contests including arguably its most impressive performance of the season in a 41-11 Big Game win that marked Cal's largest margin of victory against Stanford since 2004. The 10 turnovers by the Bears' 2021 offense were the fewest ever by a Cal team playing a full schedule with the previous low 13 by Wilcox's 2019 squad. Cal lost only two fumbles to rank tied for second nationally and led the Pac-12 for fewest fumbles. The Bears were also second in the Pac-12 and 11th nationally in turnover margin (+10, 0.83), while their 10 total turnovers lost were second in the Pac-12 and tied for seventh nationally. Wilcox's defense shone in the second half of the 2021 season by holding four of its final six opponents to 14 points or less. The Bears finished the campaign second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (22.2 ppg), fourth in total defense (366.7 ypg) and fourth in rushing defense (137.2 ypg).

Wilcox's 2020 squad was just getting on track when COVID ended the often-delayed season after four games with the Bears' final performance including a second-half shutout of eventual Pac-12 champion Oregon in an inspiring 21-17 home victory over the Ducks.

Wilcox began the 2019 season with four straight victories to move the Bears into the No. 15 spot in the AP Top 25 and No. 16 in the Coaches Poll. The victories included road wins at then-No. 14/12 Washington and Ole Miss, with the latter the first road triumph by a Pac-12 school at an SEC foe since 2010. The two signature victories helped the Bears to a 4-2 mark in true road games to give Cal back-to-back winning seasons on the road for the first time since 2004.

Wilcox guided the Bears to the Cheez-It Bowl and a 7-6 overall record in his second campaign in 2018 with the bowl appearance Cal's first in three seasons and first in a Pac-12 affiliated bowl since 2011. Cal reached a high point of 7-4 after winning four of five Pac-12 games during one stretch highlighted by signature victories over eventual Pac-12 champion and then-No. 15/13 Washington, as well as at USC. Cal also started the season with a 3-0 mark and in Week 5 made its first appearance since 2015 in the AP Top 25 at No. 24.

The highlights of Wilcox's first season as the head coach in Berkeley in 2017 included a 3-0 start and non-conference wins over Power 5 programs North Carolina and Ole Miss, as well as a 37-3 victory over then No. 8/9 Washington State in an ESPN nationally-televised Friday night home game. The victory against the Cougars snapped Cal's 17-game losing streak to top-10 teams, was the Bears' first victory against a top-10 team since 2003 and only its second top-10 win dating back to 1977. Cal added a Pac-12 victory over Oregon State and finished 5-7 overall.

GAME 1: CAL PUTS AWAY UC DAVIS FOR SEASON-OPENING WIN

BERKELEY – AJack Plummer threw three touchdown passes in his debut for California and Craig Woodson returned an interception for a score to lead California to a 34-13 victory over UC Davis on Saturday.

The Golden Bears (1-0) shook off a rough start on offense with minus-1 yard in the first quarter to improve to 11-0 all-time against the Aggies (0-1).

"Getting out there on the field the first time, I'm sure there was a little bit of nerves going on," Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. "A good thing was, as we talked about on the sideline after the first quarter was over, it was like, 'Guys, it probably couldn't have gone too much worse. ... We got that out of us and then settled down and moved the ball down the field.'"

Plummer threw TD passes of 3 yards to Jeremiah Hunter and 8 yards Jaydn Ott in the second quarter, and a 14-yarder to Mavin Anderson in the fourth quarter of his first appearance since transferring from Purdue.

Plummer finished 23 for 35 for 268 yards.

"I think we just got into a little bit of rhythm, did a little tempo," Plummer said. "I think once we started to kind of see ourselves move that kind of gave us a little confidence and got them on their heels a little bit."

Woodson helped take control of the game when he intercepted Miles Hastings on the opening drive of the second half and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown that made it 24-7.

Hastings threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Chaz Davis in the first quarter Ulonzo Gilliam Jr. scored on a 60-yard run in the third quarter for the Aggies.

Hastings finished 32 for 50 for 242 yards with two interceptions.

"It's not about being perfect, it's about being excellent," coach Dan Hawkins said. "But we played hard. Guys battled. Thought we had a good camp. But it's a tough road so we got to learn from it, flush it and move on."

GAME 2: LATE STAND LEADS BEARS PAST UNLV

BERKELEY – Jaydn Ott scored two touchdowns, one on the ground and one through the air, and California's defense stiffened late to lead the Bears to a 20-14 victory over UNLV on Saturday.

Cal (2-0) made three fourth-down stops in the second half, including a fourth and goal opportunity for the Rebels from the Cal 8 with 2:46 remaining that preserved Cal's six-point lead.

UNLV got the ball back one more time with 1:03 remaining, but Isaiah Young intercepted UNLV quarterback Doug Brumfield deep in Cal territory on the game's final play. That clinched the Bears' first 2-0 start since 2019 as they turn their attention to next week's game at Notre Dame, the marquee opponent on Cal's schedule.

"I think it's huge for us, giving us a little bit of confidence and momentum going into a tough game," Cal safety Daniel Scott said. "We've got to keep building. At the end of the day, we're 2-0 and that's the best part about it."

Jack Plummer threw for 278 yards and a touchdown as the Golden Bears got off to a fast start on offense. But after taking a 20-7 lead on a Dario Longhetto field goal midway through the third quarter, Cal's offense stalled and UNLV (1-1) grabbed momentum.

Aidan Robbins rushed for 84 yards for UNLV, including a 31-yard score in the third that brought the Rebels to within 20-14.

Three times Cal drove to UNLV's 10-yard line or deeper and didn't get touchdowns. The Bears settled for two field goals and Plummer was intercepted on the third drive.

"The goal, No. 1, is to win the game, and it carries more weight than any other goal," California coach Justin Wilcox said. "We also recognize where we need to be better."

After being held to minus-1 yard of offense in the first quarter last week against UC Davis, the Bears led 14-0 after the first on Saturday. Plummer completed his first eight passes and found open receivers against a UNLV secondary that also was called for pass interference three times in the game.

Ott scored on a 2-yard run and added a 12-yard touchdown catch later in the first, taking a short pass in the flat and making a leaping dive into the end zone on fourth-and-2 to give Cal a 14-0 lead.

Kyle Williams got UNLV on the board with an 11-yard touchdown catch on the first play of the second quarter, but Dario Longhetto's 20-yard field goal gave Cal a 17-7 lead at halftime.

GAME 3: BEARS FALL SHORT TO NOTRE DAME IN SOUTH BEND

SOUTH BEND, Ind. – Drew Pyne passed for two touchdowns and 150 yards in his first career start and Notre Dame overcame numerous mistakes to beat California 24-17 Saturday to give Irish coach Marcus Freeman his first victory.

The Irish (1-2) outscored Cal (2-1) 10-0 in the fourth quarter to avoid becoming just the third Notre Dame squad to start a season 0-3. The Irish (1-2), who started the season ranked No. 5, had blown leads three times, made sure there was no second-half letdown this time.

It wasn't over until the last play as officials overturned two plays that appeared to be game-clinching turnovers for the Irish, giving the Bears a last-second shot. On fourth-and-13 from the Notre Dame 35, Cal's Jack Plummer threw the ball into the end zone. The ball bounced off several players and Bears receiver Jeremiah Hunter nearly pulled it in, but the ball landed on the grass.

It was a familiar feeling for the Bears, who had five losses by seven points or less last season.

The Irish opened a 24-17 lead with 9:16 remaining on a 6-yard pass from Pyne to Michael Mayer, just Mayer's second catch of the day. The touchdown was set up when Pyne threw a short pass to tailback Audric Esitime, and he sprinted for a 36-yard gain before tripping at the 6-yard line.

The Bears drove to the Notre Dame 22 midway through the fourth quarter but couldn't get any closer. Plummer threw three straight incompletions, then was sacked by Isaiah Foskey for a 10-yard loss with 6:30 left.

Cal got the ball again on their own 7-yard line, but on third-and-10 Jack Plummer was sacked for a 5-yard loss. It looked as though Notre Dame had put the game away when cornerback Clarence Lewis picked off a pass from Plummer, but the Bears got one more chance when J.D. Bertrand was called for targeting.

Pyne, playing because Tyler Buchner sustained a season-ending shoulder injury last week, was 17-of-23 passing. In addition to the scoring pass to Mayer, Pyne threw a 21-yard TD pass to Tyree. Tyree, who had only 12 touches through the first two games, rushed for 64 yards on 17 carries and had five catches for 44 yards. Estime added a 1-yard run and 76 yards rushing on 18 carries.

Plummer was 16 of 37 for 184 yards passing, including an 18-yard TD pass to J. Michael Sturdivant. Jaydn Ott was held to 33 yards on 13 carries.

GAME 4: OTT LEADS CAL TO 49-31 WIN OVER ARIZONA

BERKELEY – Jaydn Ott ran for 274 yards and three touchdowns and the Cal football team opened Pac-12 play with a 49-31 victory over Arizona on Saturday at FTX Field at California Memorial Stadium.

Ott scored on a 73-yard run on the second play from scrimmage, an improbable 18-yarder in the third quarter after he had appeared to be stopped for a short gain, and then another 72-yarder to ice it late in the fourth.

"Every time I touch the ball, I feel like I'm going to score," Ott said. "That's my mentality."

It was the most rushing yards in a single game by an FBS player this season and the third-most in Cal history, trailing only Jahvid Best's 311 against Washington in 2008 and Jerry Drew's 283 against Oregon State in 1954.

"That's explosive," Travers Family Head Football Coach Justin Wilcox said. "We've been talking about it for a long time. You've seen it in flashes. We saw it a bunch today. He's a dynamic guy and has the ability to take it to the house from a lot of spots."

Jack Plummer added three touchdown passes for the Golden Bears (3-1, 1-0), who won their sixth straight home game. It's their longest winning streak at Memorial Stadium since a nine-gamer in 2008-09.

Cal also ended a six-game skid against Arizona (2-2, 0-1) by beating the Wildcats for the first time since 2009.

A year after Arizona beat COVID-depleted Cal 10-3 at home for its only win in 2021, the teams exceeded that point total after both teams scored touchdowns on the opening drive.

It was a back-and-forth, high-scoring affair in the first half with Ott scoring on a 73-yard run on the second play from scrimmage to set the tone.

The Wildcats scored on four of their first five drives of the game, getting two short TD runs by Jonah Coleman and Michael Wiley and a 24-yard TD pass from de Laura to Tetairoa McMillan.

Plummer threw a 16-yard TD pass to J. Michael Sturdivant in the second quarter and gave Cal the lead early in the third when he found Keleki Latu from 3 yards out on fourth-and-1.

Ott added his second TD midway through the third quarter. He ran into a group of defenders at the 13 yet managed to keep his feet and snuck out of the scrum to run it into the end zone to make it 35-24.

Ott added his second breakaway run late in the fourth quarter.

GAME 5: BEARS FALL TO WASHINGTON STATE

PULLMAN, Wash. – Wide receiver Jeremiah Hunter had six receptions for a career-high 109 yards but the Cal football team fell to Washington State 28-9 on Saturday afternoon.

J. Michael Sturdivant also had a career-high in receiving yards with 71 and quarterback Jack Plummer completed 23 of 33 passes for 273 yards for the Bears (3-2, 1-1 Pac-12).

After a scoreless first quarter, Washington State scored a touchdown early in the second before Cal answered with a 42-yard field goal by Dario Longhetto. The Cougars extended their lead to 14-3 early in the third quarter but the Bears came right back again, stringing together a 90-yard touchdown drive that culminated on Jaydn Ott's 2-yard run. Cal's two-point conversion failed and it was 14-9 early in the fourth period.

Washington State added two fourth-quarter touchdowns to pull away.

The Bears' defense held the Cougars to just 103 yards of offense in the first half. It marked the fourth time in five games this season Cal has held its opponent to just seven first-half points.

Ott, who ran for 274 yards and three touchdowns last week against Arizona, had 69 yards on the ground against the Cougars but set career-highs with seven catches for 41 yards.

Cal's defense also had its 18th straight game with at least one takeaway, which is tied for the longest active streak in FBS. Safeties Craig Woodson and Daniel Scott each had interceptions for the Bears.

The Bears have a bye next week before resuming their schedule on Oct. 15 at Colorado.

GAME 6: BEARS FALL IN OVERTIME AT COLORADO

BOULDER, Colo. - J.T. Shrout threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Montana Lemonious-Craig in overtime, powering Colorado to a 20-13 upset of California in interim coach Mike Sanford's debut Saturday.

Jack Plummer had Mason Starling wide open for the score on first-and-goal from the 10 on Cal's ensuing possession but strong safety Trevor Woods arrived just after the pass and popped the ball loose.

When Plummer's fourth-down pass fell incomplete, the students stormed the field to celebrate Colorado's first win of the season.

Sanford inherited a team that was off to just the fourth 0-5 start in school history, one that cost Karl Dorrell his job. Sanford placed an immediate emphasis on physicality and takeaways, which paid off on Colorado's first defensive series with Tyrin Tyler's sliding interception, the Bears' first turnover in four games.

Dario Longhetto, who was wide left on field-goal tries going both ways, missing from 54 yards in the first quarter and 48 in the second, was good from 34 yards as time expired in the fourth quarter to send the game to overtime. Cal (3-3, 1-2 Pac-12) won the toss and chose to start out on defense.

The Buffs (1-5, 1-2) were setting up for Cole Becker's 40-yard field goal in the extra period when a prolonged review showed that Lemonious-Craig's right cleat was down just before he was shoved out of bounds by nickel back Collin Gamble.

Instead, Becker lined up for the extra point and gave Colorado its biggest lead at 17-10.

The only scoring in the first half came on Becker's 31-yard field goal with four minutes left in the second quarter following a penalty that wiped out Jordan Tyson's 11-yard touchdown catch from Owen McCown.

Shrout replaced McCown on Colorado's fourth possession after halftime and drove the Buffaloes to their first touchdown, a 1-yard run by Anthony Hankerson with 14:25 remaining that gave CU a 10-7 lead.

The big play on the drive was Jordan Tyson's 37-yard heave to Lemonious-Craig on a trick play.

J. Michael Sturdivant's diving 14-yard touchdown catch from Plummer had put the Bears up 7-3 with 5:49 left in the third quarter.

Colorado's defense limited the Bears to 103 yards of offense in the first half after allowing Arizona to pile up 400 yards by halftime in their last game.

Lemonious-Craig finished with eight catches for a game-high 119 yards.

GAME 7: WASHINGTON HOLDS OFF BEARS, 28-21

BERKELEY – The Cal football team held Washington's high-powered offense well below its offensive averages but ultimately fell to the Huskies 28-21 on Saturday evening at FTX Field at California Memorial Stadium.

The Huskies entered the game ranked fifth in the country in scoring average (42.1 points per game) and ninth in total offense (528 yards per game). Washington totaled 476 yards against the Bears.

Cal quarterback Jack Plummer threw three touchdown passes in the second half for the Golden Bears (3-4, 1-3 Pac-12), including two to J. Michael Sturdivant. The Bears got within 28-21 with an 8-yard strike to Mavin Anderson on 4th down with 6:11 to play.

Washington dominated the first half but only led 6-0 at halftime. The Huskies outgained the Bears 245-83 in the half and didn't allow Cal to cross midfield for more than 27 minutes. Washington settled for field goals on each of its first two drives and then Peyton Henry missed a 34-yarder after an offensive pass interference spoiled a goal-to-go situation.

Sturdivant finished with career-highs of eight catches, 104 yards and two touchdowns. He is the first Cal wide receiver with multiple scoring receptions in the same game since Kekoa Crawford had two TD catches in Cal's 2019 season-opener against UC Davis.

GAME 8: NO. 8 DUCKS PULL AWAY TO BEAT BEARS, 42-24

BERKELEY – Oregon's football team broke open a close game with three touchdowns in less than seven minutes spanning halftime and went on to a 42-24 victory over Cal on Saturday afternoon at FTX Field at California Memorial Stadium.

The Bears (3-5, 1-4 Pac-12) played the Ducks evenly for most of the first half and held a 10-7 lead until Oregon surged in front 14-10 with 4:14 to go before the half. The Ducks added another score later in the quarter and led 21-10 at halftime.

Cal got on the scoreboard first on Dario Longhetto's 28-yard field goal with 4:01 remaining in the first quarter. Oregon answered with a touchdown on the first play of the second quarter but the Bears came right back to go back in front on Jack Plummer's 6-yard touchdown pass to J. Michael Sturdivant.

Sturdivant led Cal with six catches for 71 yards and his team-best sixth touchdown reception while Jeremiah Hunter added five catches for 96 yards. Plummer was 20-for-33 for 214 yards and a touchdown with two interceptions.

Redshirt freshman Kai Millner relieved Plummer in the fourth quarter and threw the first two touchdown passes of his career.

Cal's defense registered two interceptions - one each by Orin Patu and Oluwafemi Oladejo.

GAME 9: BEARS' COMEBACK BID FALLS JUST SHORT AGAINST NO. 9 USC

LOS ANGELES – Jack Plummer became the first Cal quarterback in six years to throw for over 400 yards in a game but the Cal football team's comeback effort fell just short in a 41-35 loss to No. 9 USC on Saturday night at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Plummer completed 35 of 49 passes for 406 yards, including touchdown throws to Monroe Young, Mavin Anderson and Jeremiah Hunter. Cal put together a stirring comeback bid in the second half, and when freshman running back Jaydn Ott rushed for his second touchdown of the game with 2:31 to play - followed by a successful 2-point conversion - it trimmed USC's lead to 41-35. But USC's was able to barely stay in front and close out the game.

The Trojans built a 27-7 lead early in the third quarter, but Cal's offense got rolling, beginning with Young's 2-yard scoring catch. It was the second straight game in which Young has caught a touchdown pass - the first two touchdowns of his career.

Cal cut it to 34-21 with 12:56 left on Anderson's 47-yard TD catch and then recovered an onside kick. The Bears took advantage on a 3-yard touchdown pass from Plummer to Hunter to make it 34-27 with nine minutes remaining.

The teams exchanged touchdowns, with Ott's final score cutting the deficit once again back down to six points. But this time the Trojans recovered the Bears' onside kick and were able to notch a first down and run out the clock.

Plummer's passing explosion was Cal's most prolific aerial performance since Davis Webb threw for 425 yards at Washington State on Nov. 16, 2016.

Young finished the game with career-highs of five catches and 66 yards.

GAME 10: BEARS FALL TO OREGON STATE

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Freshman cornerback Jeremiah Earby scooped up a fumble and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown, but that was the only time the Cal football team found the end zone Saturday in a 38-10 setback against Oregon State.

Earby's TD with 2:33 remaining in the second quarter cut the Beavers' lead to 21-7 and gave the Bears a dose of momentum heading into halftime. But Oregon St. scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter to put the game away.

Freshman kicker Michael Luckhurst attempted his first career field goal and converted from 36 yards away.

A week after scoring 35 points in a loss at USC, Cal (3-7, 1-6 Pac-12) was limited to 156 total yards and didn't score an offensive touchdown.

With the loss, the Bears were eliminated from bowl contention.

Sophomore Oluwafemi Oladejo led Cal's defensive effort with a career-high 13 tackles.

Saturday marked the Bears' final road game of the season. Cal has two games remaining, beginning with the 125th Big Game against Stanford next Saturday at 2:30 p.m. The game will air on the Pac-12 Network.

GAME 11: BEARS NOTCH STIRRING VICTORY IN 125TH BIG GAME

BERKELEY – Jackson Sirmon scored on a 37-yard return following a wild play with two fumbles and the Cal football team rallied from a double-digit deficit in the fourth quarter to beat Stanford 27-20 in the 125th edition of the Big Game on Saturday.

"It's really neat... as a defensive player, you don't get a lot of opportunities to score touchdowns and you have to enjoy them when you get them," said Sirmon, who played in his first Big Game on Saturday. "It was very neat especially considering the timing of it all."

The Golden Bears (4-7, 2-6 Pac-12) trailed 17-6 in the fourth quarter when Jack Plummer started the comeback with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Monroe Young.

Then things really went crazy on the ensuing possession for Stanford (3-8, 1-8).

Backup quarterback Ashton Daniels took a direct snap and ran to his left. He was stripped of the ball by Daniel Scott and Cal's Jeremiah Earby recovered. But Daniels then knocked the ball loose from Earby for a second fumble on the play only to have Sirmon scoop it up and run in to give Cal a 20-17 lead with 9:54 to play.

"It bounced right to me," Sirmon said. "I was in the right place at the right time. All I did that play is I didn't mess it up. The ball came right to me and I ran with it."

Stanford had three more drives to rally. But the Cardinal punted twice and Scott came up with an interception with just more than two minutes to play, setting up Jaydn Ott's 1-yard run that sealed the win in front of a sellout crowd of 51,892.

"We know how important this game is to us as a team, our administration and our support staff," Travers Family Head Football Coach Justin Wilcox said. "Our fans and students were just incredible tonight. What an awesome environment."

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call is located adjacent to Gate 5 at California Memorial Stadium. It opens four hours before kickoff and remains open through the end of the first quarter. Identification is required to pick up credentials or tickets. Media who arrive after the end of the first quarter should contact Kyle McRae or Keeler McJunkin.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

Field photographers/videographers must wear a photo vest at all times, in addition to a photo credential. Photo credentials are not distributed in advance and must be picked up on the day of the game at Media Will Call. Photo vests are also distributed at Media Will Call and should be returned following use to the receptacle on the field behind the visitor (west) bench and near the entrance to the photographers work room in front of Section EE.

NCAA rules limit photographers/videographers to shooting outside the restraining line surrounding the playing field and restrict photographers from entering the team areas inside the 20-yard lines.

In addition, photographers and videographers are welcome to use the photo deck located on level six of the Peter E. Haas Press Box and work from the main press area on level seven.

PHOTOGRAPHERS WORK ROOM

A photographers work room is available on the field level at California Memorial Stadium (entrance on west side at approximately the 20-yard line on the north end of the field). Power and ethernet access are available, as well as limited desk space on a first-come, first-served basis. Additional photographer work stations are available on level seven of the press box. Pregame meals and drinks for photographers and videographers are available on the south end of level seven in the press box.

PHOTOS

Requests for photos can be made through the Athletic Communications Office. Photos of all 30 teams can also be purchased through Cal's official photographer by visiting klcfotos.com/calbears.

PLAYER/COACH/STAFF INTERVIEWS

All football player, coach and staff interviews must be coordinated through Kyle McRae.

PRACTICE MEDIA COVERAGE

Cal is scheduled to practice at California Memorial Stadium throughout the 2022 season. Kyle McRae will distribute specific practice and media availability schedules as well as policies regarding non-gameday coverage of the team. Weekly updates are normally distributed each Monday throughout the season.

PRESS BOX

The media level of the Peter E. Haas Press Box at California Memorial Stadium is on the seventh floor. The photo deck is on level six.

TELEPHONE/VISITING RADIO PHONE LINES

ISDN and dial lines, as well as dry pairs to the visiting team locker room and visiting team interview room, are available for complimentary use for the official visiting team radio network. All other telephone lines, both in the press box and inside the television compound, must be requested at least one week in advance through Kyle McRae.
