KEY THINGS TO KNOW

- 5 IN A ROW – Cal's current five-game win streak – with all victories coming on the road – started March 18 at Saint Mary's before continuing with a three-game sweep at No. 14 Stanford (March 21-23) and a victory at San Francisco (March 24). Cal has outscored its opponents during its current five-game win streak, 55-25.
- RECENT WIN STREAKS – Even though Cal's current five-game win streak is the Golden Bears' longest of 2025, the club is no stranger to long win streaks with four stretches of five or more straight victories in 2024, including a season-long nine-game win streak from April 10-23. The current five straight wins on the road are also the most since April 10-23 when Cal won its first four and final game of its nine-game win streak on the road.
- SEASON-LONG ROAD TRIP – Cal closes out its current season-long nine-game road trip at No. 18 Louisville (March 28-30) and Sacramento State (April 1) before returning to Berkeley to face No. 6 Clemson (April 4-6).
- HISTORIC SWEEP – Cal made history last weekend with a three-game sweep at No. 14 Stanford to mark the first time Cal has swept a three-game road series against the Cardinal in recorded history and the first time the Bears have swept the Cardinal in a three-game set at any venue since taking three straight in Berkeley in 1992. Ethan Kodama's two-out single in the top of the 10th of a 6-5 win on Sunday plated PJ Moutzouridis with the game-winning run to finish off the sweep.
- FRENCH ALSO MAKES HISTORY – Jacob French became the first Cal baseball player to win ACC Player of the Week honors last week after hitting .647 (11-17) with nine runs scored, two doubles, three triples, five RBI, one hit by pitch and one sacrifice fly during Cal's four wins. French reached safely in all nine of his plate appearances in the first two games of the Stanford series (8-8, HBP) with a career-high-tying four hits in each contest.
- ADVINCULA EXTENDS STREAKS – Jarren Advincula has reached base safely in each of the last 19 games, hit safely in the past 10 and driven in at least one run in the last eight.
- CORE FOUR – Cal has four players who have started all 24 games in 2025 with infielders 2B Jarren Advincula (1 start at DH), 3B Cade Campbell and SS PJ Moutzouridis joined by CF Seth Gwynn.

SERIES HISTORY/NOTES

ALL-TIME SERIES: Louisville leads, 1-0
CURRENT WIN STREAK: Louisville, 1 (March 10, 2007)
CURRENT SEASON SERIES WIN STREAK: Louisville 1 (2007)
– Cal and Louisville have played just once previously with the Cardinals a 12-9 winner at the Cardinal Baseball Classic in Louisville on March 10, 2007
– Cal trailed 9-1 after one inning in the team's lone meeting in 2007 and scored four times in the top of the ninth before its comeback bid fell short

- PITCHING PROWESS – Cal has received several strong starting pitching performances of late, especially from its starters – led by No. 1 starter Austin Turkington, who has won three straight, including a pair of complete games in run-rule seven-inning contests. No. 2 starter Gavin Eddy posted career highs of 6.2 innings and eight strikeouts in his most recent start in a 13-4 win at Stanford last Saturday, while Ethan Foley recorded 13 of the team's school-record-tying 19 strikeouts on Monday at San Francisco.
- FRIDAY FIREWORKS – Cal has won each of its first three Friday night ACC games by a combined score of 33-5, including a run-rule seven-inning 13-3 win at Stanford in its most recent Friday game.
- TOP 25 SERIES IN A ROW – Cal is in the midst of a stretch of five consecutive ACC series against teams in the top 25 of at least one national college baseball poll (currently or at the time the teams played) starting with Virginia and Stanford. Louisville, Clemson and Georgia Tech are next on the docket.
- BIG LEAGUERS – Cal is expected to have five former players on Major League Baseball rosters when the 2025 season opens Thursday in RHP Lucas Erceg (Royals), C Korey Lee (White Sox), MGR Bob Melvin (San Francisco Giants), INF Marcus Semien (Rangers) and OF Andrew Vaughn (White Sox).

FRIDAY'S PROBABLE STARTING PITCHER

5 - RHP AUSTIN TURKINGTON ... 4-2, 3.48

HT: 6-1 • WT: 210 • CLASS: JR • HOMETOWN: LOS GATOS, CALIF. • HIGH SCHOOL: BELLARMINE COLLEGE PREPARATORY

At Cal

Career (2023 – Present)

- Has a 6-4 record and a 4.66 earned run average with four saves in 49 appearances (tied) and 13 starts that are the most by any active Cal pitcher, while striking out 78 with 35 in 85.0 innings pitched that are also both the most among active Golden Bears
- Has allowed 52 runs (44 earned runs), 87 hits and 35 walks

2025 (Jr.)

- Has a pair of seven-inning complete games that rank him tied for first in the ACC and tied for second nationally
- Leads the team in wins with a 4-2 record and has a 3.48 ERA with a team-high 35 strikeouts in 31.0 innings pitched over six appearances and a team-high six starts that also share the ACC lead and rank tied for 20th nationally with each of his appearances coming as Cal's starting pitcher in the first game of each of the first six series
- Has already picked up career highs in wins, innings pitched and strikeouts, while his ERA and opponents' batting average (.214) are also currently career bests
- Has allowed 14 runs (12 earned), 25 hits and 11 walks

Notable Games

- Pitched the first 3.0 scoreless innings and was declared the winner due to a predetermined pitching rotation of three or more pitchers in Cal's season-opening 14-1 win over Nevada, allowing just one hit and two walks while striking out four
- Threw Cal's first complete game of 2025 and the first of his career to earn the win in the Golden Bears' first-ever ACC game on March 7 at Duke, allowing just one run (one earned) on a home run by Blue Devil leadoff hitter Wallace Clark in the bottom of the first, striking out a career-high 10, and allowing just three hits, two walks and one hit batsmen over 97 pitches
- Limited Virginia to one run and three hits over 6.2 innings on March 14 while striking out seven over 107 pitches
- Threw the second complete game of his career and second in his last three outings March 21 at Stanford, scattering three runs (all earned) and nine hits with one walk and six strikeouts over 7.0 innings to earn the victory in a 13-3 seven-inning run-rule win

Mike Neu is in his eighth season as Cal's head coach in 2025 and has his squad playing its best baseball of the season with a current season-high five-game win streak that included a historic series sweep March 21-23 at No. 14/19/14 Stanford that was the Golden Bears' first road sweep of the Cardinal in recorded history and the first three-game sweep regardless of location since taking all three in Berkeley in 1992.

Other big moments in reverse chronological order have included a 13-7 win at Saint Mary's on March 18 when the Bears pounded out a season-high-tying 17 hits, a win over No. 23/19/14 Virginia in the Golden Bears' first-ever ACC home game on March 14, knocking off defending ACC champion Duke on the road in its' first-ever ACC game on March 7, hitting a school-record-tying eight home runs in a 19-3 win at Santa Clara on March 2, walking off Cal State Bakersfield in 11 innings on Feb. 26 and a near no-hitter in a Feb. 22 win over Houston.

Neu's squad was arguably the hottest team in college baseball at the end of the 2024 regular season with 20 wins in its final 25 games and finished 36-19 for a .655 winning percentage that was the program's best since the 1966 team was 32-14 (.696). The Bears' late-season run including wins in each of their first two games at the Pac-12 Tournament that put them in the semifinals and nearly earned them a spot in the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship.

In his eighth season as the program's head coach in 2025, Neu is leading the Bears into new territory in their first campaign as members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, which has traditionally been one of the nation's top leagues in college baseball and in 2024 sent four squads to Omaha for the College World Series. In 2025, Cal will play three of those teams - Florida State, NC State and Virginia - in Berkeley.

"We are looking forward to our first baseball season in the Atlantic Coast Conference," Neu said. "It is a competitive schedule and some of the best college baseball teams in the country are coming to Berkeley. We believe our fans will enjoy a good brand of baseball and show up strong to support their Golden Bears."

Neu's 2025 squad includes a pair of returning first-team All-Pac-12 infielders in the sophomore duo of 2B Jarren Advincula and SS PJ Moutzouridis, as well as 2024 Pac-12 honorable mention outfielder Seth Gwynn. Advincula led the Bears with a .325 batting average in 2024 and then was the Cape Cod League batting champion this past summer with a .392 mark. Moutzouridis (.299, 6 HR, 42 RBI), also a second-team Perfect Game Freshman All-American in 2024, and Gwynn (.311, 7 HR, 29 RBI) both had strong campaigns at the plate for Cal in 2024. In addition, the 2025 team features 11 first-year transfers including nine from four-year schools.

"Adding a large number of transfers to a solid core of returnees was big," Neu said. "We have brought in guys that have some experience and also might have a bit of a chip on their shoulder. They are coming to Cal to get what they want in a college baseball experience and the chance to play a big part in it. Even if we are a little thin on returning experience, it is less of a concern than it is a challenge. We will gain experience through our preparation and opportunities, and that will give our players the confidence to compete and play at a high level."

Much of the reason the Bears are light on returning collegiate experience heading into 2025 is the large group of professional baseball players the program produced in 2024 beginning with first-round draft pick C Caleb Lomavita (Washington Nationals). Lomavita was responsible for much of the Bears' success in 2024 as a third-team Perfect Game All-American, second-team ABCA/Rawlings All-West Region, and first-team All-Pac-12 and All-Pac-12 Defensive Team selection. He started all 55 games and hit .322 (73-227) with 55 runs scored, 13 doubles, one triple, 15 home runs, 52 RBI and 12 stolen bases. OF Rodney Green Jr. (Oakland Athletics, fourth round), RHP Christian Becerra (Minnesota Twins, 12th round) and RHP Andres Galan (Tampa Bay, 17th round) were also selected in the 2024 MLB Draft, while RHP Tyler Stasiowski signed as an undrafted free agent with Minnesota, and LHP Luke Short and RHP Connor Sullivan caught on with the independent Oakland Ballers. Becerra (4-1, 4 SV, 3.68 ERA), Green (.267, 14 HR, 46 RBI, 15 SB) and Stasiowski (5-1, 4 SV, 2.65 ERA) each earned 2024 honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors.

Neu's long history with Cal baseball began with four seasons as the program's pitching coach from 2012-15. After leaving to serve as the head coach at Pacific for two seasons (2016-17), Neu returned to Berkeley as the school's 11th head coach on July 5, 2017, after former long-time head coach David Esquer took the head coaching job at his alma mater Stanford.

Neu has established a culture of player development that has helped lead to 27 Cal players being drafted over the first seven seasons of his head coaching tenure and guided the Bears to five winning campaigns in his first six full seasons at the helm (2020 season shortened by COVID-19).

In year one as Cal's skipper in 2018, Neu guided the Bears to a 32-22 overall record and a 16-14 mark in the Pac-12. The season was highlighted by the emergence of 1B Andrew Vaughn as one of the nation's top players. With Neu on hand in Los Angeles, Vaughn became the first Cal baseball player to ever win the prestigious Golden Spikes Award as the country's top amateur baseball player after hitting .402 with 23 home runs and 63 RBI. Vaughn was also a consensus first-team All-American selection among a long list of honors. On the mound, the 2018 Bears showed dramatic improvement in Neu's first season as head coach. Under his tutelage, Cal's pitching staff lowered its collective ERA by almost a full run (5.17 to 4.20) from the year before. RHP Aaron Shortridge established himself as one of the Pac-12's top pitchers, compiling a 5-3 record and a 2.77 ERA with three complete games in 12 starts (17 appearances). RHP Tanner Dodson (2-1, 2.48 ERA, 11 SV) moved to the back end of the bullpen and set the school single-season record for saves.

Neu built upon his first season the following campaign in 2019 when Cal capped a 32-20 record with its first trip to an NCAA Regional since 2015. The Bears punched their ticket as an at-large bid and were the No. 2 seed at the Fayetteville (Ark.) Regional after finishing fourth in the Pac-12 and carrying a No. 31 RPI ranking at the conclusion of the regular season (eventually finished No. 30). Vaughn (.374, 15 HR, 50 RBI) and C Corey Lee (.337, 15 HR, 57 RBI) led the way offensively. Cal's 2019 success continued into the summer when seven Bears were selected in the MLB Player Draft, including first-round picks in Vaughn (No. 3 overall, Chicago White Sox) and Lee (No. 32 overall, Houston Astros). Vaughn and Lee - both of whom went undrafted out of high school - became the first duo in school history to be taken in the first round of the same draft. Vaughn, who was the program's highest-drafted player ever, was also named a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award and a first-team All-American for the second straight year.

After posting back-to-back 32-win seasons and a combined 33-25 (.569) conference record in his first two years, Neu was awarded with and agreed to a contract extension in October of 2019.

Cal was 5-11 in the 2020 campaign shortened by COVID-19 but Neu oversaw a youth movement that included 11 freshmen earning playing time, five of whom later went on to play professional baseball. All told, 13 players from the 2020 roster would go on to play professionally including big leaguers in INF Darren Baker and RHP Grant Holman.

In the next two seasons after the COVID-19 shortened 2020 campaign, Neu's Bears were 29-26 overall and 15-15 in Pac-12 action in 2021 followed by nearly identical marks in 2022 of 29-27 overall and 14-16 in the Pac-12. Both squads were packed with star power as a combined 10 Bears ended up as top-10-round selections in MLB Drafts from 2021-24 including first-rounders in OF Dylan Beavers in 2022 (Baltimore Orioles) and Lomavita in 2024. Baker (NCAA Senior Class) and Beavers (NCBWA) were also All-Americans in 2022 with Lomavita picking up All-American honors in 2024. Baker led the 2021 squad with a .327 batting average, while part-time starter C/UT Dom Souto had a team-high .336 mark in 2022. Beavers had the top power numbers both seasons with 18 homers and 49 RBI in 2021 followed by 17 long balls and 50 RBI in 2022.

Five of the six Cal players who have earned Freshman All-American honors during Neu's tenure were on rosters from 2020-22 in RHP Joseph King (2020 - Collegiate Baseball), RHP Paulshawn Pasqualotto (2021 - Perfect Game/Rawlings), Beavers (2021 - Baseball America, NCBWA), RHP Josh White (2021 - NCBWA) and Lomavita (2022 - Collegiate Baseball).

The lone Neu team at Cal to finish under .500 was in 2023 when the Bears just missed the mark at 24-28. Part-time starter Nathan Manning had a team-high .330 batting average, while Lomavita (16) and INF Carson Crawford (47 RBI) produced the biggest power numbers. Pasqualotto was 5-1 on the mound.

Neu was Cal's pitching coach for four seasons from 2012 to 2015 before his two seasons as the head coach at Pacific, where he guided a rebuilding Tigers program to 40 wins over his two seasons. That turnaround started immediately in 2015 as Pacific won 12 games in the always-competitive West Coast Conference, the program's second-most conference wins since 1999.

Before making the move to Stockton, Neu had established himself as one of the Pac-12's top pitching coaches and recruiters under Esquer. In his final season as Cal's pitching coach in 2015, the Bears compiled a team ERA of 3.03, which was the second-best mark for a Cal pitching staff since 1976. That team reached the final of the Texas A&M Regional thanks in part to the contributions of three of Neu's pupils in RHP's Daulton Jefferies, Ryan Mason and Alex Schick who would be selected in the Major League Baseball draft.

Prior to his arrival in Berkeley, Neu's reputation in pitching circles was already well-known. Serving as head coach at Diablo Valley College from 2009-11, Neu led the Vikings to an 87-41 record and two Big 8 Conference titles. His 2011 squad was ranked No. 1 in Northern California and DVC pitchers led all California Community Colleges with a 2.13 team ERA.

As a player, the Napa, Calif., native and right-handed pitcher enjoyed a standout collegiate career at Miami before going on to play in the Dodgers, Marlins, A's and Reds organizations. Neu was called up to the Major Leagues with the A's on April 9, 2003, and compiled a 3.64 ERA in 32 relief appearances that season. He also pitched for the Marlins in 2004.

At Miami, Neu helped the Hurricanes win the 1999 College World Series and finished the season 3-1 with a 2.94 ERA and 110 strikeouts in 67.0 innings. Named a Collegiate Baseball All-American, Neu led the nation in strikeouts per nine innings (14.8) and was selected to the All-College World Series team after earning three saves and appearing in all four of Miami's games in Omaha.

Before transferring to Miami, Neu starred at Sacramento City College where he was named an All-American, as well as the Northern California and Bay Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year after going 15-0 with a 1.44 ERA and 139 strikeouts. He was also a standout for the same Vintage High program that produced Cal right-handed pitchers Jared Horn and Aaron Shortridge, setting Monticello Empire League records for career wins (21) and strikeouts (196).

Neu earned a Master's degree in physical education from Ball State in 2011. He and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Damon and Maddax.
