This marks just the second meeting between the two programs with the first taking place in 71-36 Cal win in what was then the Contra Costa Classic on Dec. 3, 2005.

This marks Cal's second WBIT appearance after earning an at-large bid and a No. 2 seed in 2024 when the Bears hosted and beat Hawaii to advance to the second round before losing to Saint Joseph's.

On Mar. 22 at Kansas State, Lulu Twidale became the program's all-time leader for 3-pointers in a season (99) and career (234).

Going back to the 2024-25 season, Cal is 30-5 overall at home. Going back to the 2023-24 season, Cal has won 19 straight nonconference regular season games.

The Bears are coming off their best season under Smith in which they:

- Earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2018-19.
- Won 25 games for the first time since 2012-13.
- Maintained an Associated Press Top 25 ranking for eight straight weeks (going as high as No. 18).

- Set a program record for 3-pointers in a season (297).
- Defeated multiple ranked teams.
- Advanced to the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament.

Lulu Twidale was named to the All-ACC Second Team just prior to the start of the ACC Tournament.

On Feb. 24, Smith was named an asst. coach for USA Basketball's U18 National Team.

On Feb. 10, Gisella Maul received USBWA Ann Meyers Drysdale National Player of the Week honors after back-to-back double-doubles in wins at Georgia Tech and Pitt.

HEAD COACH CHARMIN SMITH

Charmin Smith is an award-winning coach, former professional player, and active board member who has dedicated her career to progressing equity and opportunity. The true definition of a trailblazer, Smith is the first-ever Black Head Coach for the Cal women's basketball program and is on a mission to leverage her platform to lead societal change through sports.

Fresh off her best season as head coach at Cal, Smith signed a new five-year contract in the spring of 2025 that will retain her through the 2029-30 season.

In her sixth year as head coach in 2024-25 Smith guided the Golden Bears to their first NCAA Tournament appearance (earning an at-large bid as an eight seed) since 2018-19, their first 25-win season which mark the most since the 2012-13 season and Cal's first AP Top 25 ranking since the 2018-19 season coming in as high as No. 18. That season also saw the Bears break the program record for home wins (16) and 3-pointers in a season (297), earn multiple victories over nationally-ranked opponents (No.19 Alabama and No. 21 NC State) resulting in the team being named the NCAA's Team of the Week and complete their first sweep of Stanford since the 1985-86 season. For the second straight year, Smith also signed a Top 25 (ESPN) recruiting class that features Cal's first McDonald's All-American since Kristine Anigwe (2015) in No. 20 ranked Puff Morris and No.70 ranked Taylor Barnes.

In her fifth year as head coach in 2023-24, the Bears won their most overall (19) and conference (seven) games since the 2018-19 season. Smith also guided Cal into the postseason as the Bears earned an at-large bid and a No. 2 seed in the inaugural NCAA Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament. Under Smith's guidance that season, the team also had its first weekend home and road sweeps of Pac-12 schools (both against Washington and Washington State) since 2018-19, swept Oregon for the first time since 2012-13 and set a program record for 3-pointers (282) in a season. The season sweeps of Oregon, Washington and Washington State marked the first time Cal has swept three different Pac-12 schools since 2017-18. The Bears also advanced to the quarterfinals of that season's Pac-12 Tournament for the first time since 2019-20. Smith was named ESPN's Coach of the Week on Jan. 8 of that season.

Smith's unwavering dedication to empowering players to surpass their potential, her commitment to enhancing the representation of Black individuals in the sport, and her resolute drive to inspire action toward racial justice solidify her position as an influential leader in basketball and beyond.

Regarded as a 2025, 2024 and 2020 Top 100 Most Influential Figures in Women's College Basketball (Silver Waves Media), Smith's legacy at Cal Berkeley—beginning with her transition from Associate Head Coach to Head Coach, highlights her strategic acumen and commitment to player development. Her storied tenure includes a 2013 Final Four appearance and an impressive 10 postseason appearances.

Currently serving on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) board, Smith is renowned for her role as a Board Member and co-chair of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Committee. Her dedication extends far beyond the basketball court, as evidenced by her impactful contributions to the Cal Athletics Equity Inclusion and Diversity Task Force and her pivotal role in the Chancellor's Counsel for Students of Color and Multicultural Engagement.

Smith experienced a number of successes in her first year as head coach, leading the Golden Bears to three upsets over higher-ranked opponents. The first came in the form of a 4-point victory over No. 20 Arkansas on November 24 and then a win over No. 13 Arizona on the road in the regular season finale. The Bears completed their second upset in the same week as just four days later, they defeated 5-seeded and No. 22-ranked Arizona State in the opening round of the 2020 Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament in Las Vegas. The win over the Sun Devils made the Golden Bears just the second 12-seed to win a game in the Pac-12 Tournament.

Smith has helped coach the Bears to the top three individual seasons in program history. In her first two years in Berkeley, Cal set then-school records for wins in a season, finishing both years with 27-7 marks before Cal pushed itself into elite status with the record-breaking 32-4 Final Four campaign in 2012-13. The Bears also recorded their best Pac-12 record (17-1) and won their first conference regular-season crown that season. Smith has helped lead the Bears to the postseason in 11 of her 13 seasons and was also part of the staff that led the Bears to the 2010 WNIT championship.

Smith's previous roles at Stanford and Boston College allowed her to build upon impact, leading her teams to multiple NCAA appearances and historic victories. Her experience as a point guard for the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx and Seattle Storm later influenced her time as an Assistant Coach for the New York Liberty.

As a standout player on the Stanford women's basketball team, Smith was a crucial component of the team's three NCAA Final Four Appearances and three Pac-10 Conference Championships between 1995 to 1997. Following her collegiate playing career, Smith joined the professional ranks in the ABL from 1997-98 as a member of the Portland Power and played three years in the WNBA, along with one year in the Swedish Basketball League.

Coupled with her impressive career in basketball, Smith also pursued the challenging discipline of Muay Thai martial arts. As a testament to her relentless spirit, Smith applies the lessons from her passion off the court to her coaching approach on the court.

Her leadership extends to a realm where the core values are honor and discipline, where she embodies the ethos that actions must follow words. And her steadfast commitment and achievements have set her apart to lead the future of sports.

Series

This marks just the second meeting between the two programs with the first taking place in 71-36 Cal win in what was then the Contra Costa Classic on Dec. 3, 2005.

About Columbia

Columbia is led by 10th-year head coach Megan Griffith who is the winningest coach in program history and has guided the team to NCAA Tournament appearances the last two seasons. The Lions are led by Ivy League Player of the Year Riley Weiss and Defensive Player of the Year Perri Page.

Last Time Out Against The Lions

California posted its best defensive effort in seven seasons in a 71-36 victory over Columbia on the opening day of the second-annual Contra Costa Times Classic at Haas Pavilion.

The game marked the fewest points Cal has surrendered since a 40-35 victory over Pittsburgh on the first day of the Oakland Tribune Classic, Dec. 20, 1998. The 35-point margin of victory equaled the Bears' biggest since an 80-45 triumph over Lipscomb, Jan. 4, 2002, in the Bahamas.

The game was tied at 9-9 with 12:29 to play in the first half before Cal freshman forward/center Ashley Walker ignited an 11-0 run with five of her game-high 19 points. The Bears led 20-9 with 8:16 left in the first half and gradually distanced themselves further from the Lions.

Walker hit a jumper with 4:47 remaining in the first half to open up a 34-14 Cal lead. Junior forward/center Emmelie Geraedts sent the Bears into the locker room up 37-14 with two free throws. She finished the game with four points and two boards.

Columbia didn't eclipse the 20-point plateau until Megan Griffith hit a three-pointer to make the score 46-21 at the 14:33 mark. Levy gave the Bears their first 30-point advantage at 58-28 with a basket with 7:40 left in the contest. The final margin equaled Cal's biggest lead of the game.

Walker's 19 points equaled her career high set against Radford Nov. 18. Freshman center Devanei Hampton posted 16 points and eight boards. Hampton and Walker made the majority of their contributions in the first half, as both gained some valuable second-half rest for tomorrow's UNLV match-up.

Redshirt junior guard Sarah Pool helped jumpstart Cal's transition game, dishing off a season-high eight assists.

Sophomore forward Krista Foster added 10 points off the bench for the Bears. Michelle Gage, from San Rafael, Calif., led Columbia with 10 points.

Led by senior forward Renee Wright's nine rebounds, the Bears held a commanding 53-40 rebounding edge. The 53 rebounds were a season high. Freshmen guards Alexis Gray-Lawson (four) and Jene Morris (three) combined for seven steals for Cal.
